UNITED AMERICAN LINE A "JEWISH FIRM".

WARSAW, Jan. 4, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The United American Line is included among "Jewish firms that are not known as such", in a list published today by the DWA GROSZE, the list being published to draw attention to the fact that while boycotting Jewish concerns the Poles should bear in mind there are many houses that are not generally known as Jews.

WARNS AGAINST SPECULATION AND INTERMARRIAGE IN WILL LEAVING LARGE FORTUNE.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 5, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) An admonition to his sons not to engage in speculation on the stock exchange and the earnest wish that no son while engaged in his firm will hold any public office, are contained in the will, admitted to probate yesterday, of Louis Cohen, former Lord Mayor of Liverpool, who died in September leaving a fortune of £1,192,700. Money made by speculation is sure to be lost and lead to disaster, Mr. Cohen advised his sons, and it is improper for one to be a candidate for or member of Parliament or to hold any office in a Municipal District Council, or any other local authority, while engaged in business.

The "strong conviction" is also voiced in the will that inter-marriage between members of different religions tends to bring great unhappiness, and it is the earnest wish of the deceased, which he was "confident will be regarded", that no child, grandchild or remoter descendant will forsake his or her religion and marry a person of another religion.

Mr. Cohen expressed also the hope that no grandchild or remoter descendant will marry a person who is not a citizen of the British empire or of the United States of America. Mr. Cohen is survived, among others, by a son, Brunel Cohen, who is a member of Parliament.

ROUMANIAN PRINCE PROTESTS AGAINST ANTI-SEMITISM, RESIGNS.

BUCHAREST, Jan. 4, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Declaring that the Government, particularly the Minister of Education Angheliescu, is conducting a "two-faced policy" with reference to the agitation for the exclusion of Jewish University students, Prince Mathei Contouzina, Professor of Civil law, and formerly director of the Jassy University, resigned his professorship.

Prince Contouzina intends his resignation, he asserts, to serve as a protest against the anti-Jewish violations and against the Government for supporting the anti-Semitic Professor Guza, who is held responsible for the incitement of the student body, while pretending to oppose the limitation of Jewish admissions.

Deputy Lupu, a former Minister, while addressing Parliament, strongly attacked what he referred to as the anti-Jewish policy of the Government. He declared that public opinion in America was following the Jewish situation in Roumania with interest, and that during his recent lecture tour he always heard references to Roumania as the "country of petroleum and persecution of Jews".

Evidences are not wanting that the authorities are anxious to make an end to the students' recalcitrance. Proposed student meetings at Jassy and Czernowitz were prohibited in consequence of the Government order declaring all assemblies on university campus as illegal.

A warning that the student agitation may penetrate into the villages, causing anarchy among the peasants is sounded by Nemu I'Romanescu, a liberal organ, which urges the Government to take all measures for the suppression of the students' activities.

WEIZMANN HAS HOUR'S TALK WITH MUSSOLINI.

ROME, Jan. 4, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Many misunderstandings surrounding the Zionist position in Palestine are believed to have been cleared up as a result of the interview Dr. Chaim Weizmann had yesterday with Premier Mussolini. The Prime Minister received the Zionist President very cordially, the conversation centering around the attitude of the Fascisti Government towards the Zionist movement. Dr. Weizmann is understood to have been particularly anxious to ascertain Premier Mussolini's attitude, in view of the recent statement of the latter that the British Mandate for Palestine may not survive the Lausanne Conference.

During his visit here Dr. Weizmann had conversations with a number of politicians, including former Prime Minister Luzatti and Di Cesaro, founder of the pro-Israel Society. The Zionist leader also addressed a successful Zionist gathering here.

TORONTO, Jan. 3, (Jewish Correspondence Bureau) Joseph Singer has been elected to the Board of Control and a Factor to the Board of Education in the Municipal elections held yesterday. This is the first time that Toronto Jews will have representation on these two important committees.

REPORT ROTHSCHILDS RENOUNCED AUSTRIAN CITIZENSHIP.

PRAGUE, Jan. 4, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The Vienna branch of the Rothschild family has renounced Austrian citizenship in favor of Czecho-Slovakian, says a report in the local TRIBUNA. The paper suggests that this move was inspired by apprehension felt for some time among the Rothschilds that the protection Austria is able to give them and their interests is inadequate.

FAVORS JAMES ROTHSCHILD AS WEIZMANN'S SUCCESSOR.

LONDON, Jan. 4, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Adverting to the rumors that Dr. Weizmann wishes to resign as President of the World Zionist Organization, the JEWISH WORLD says it thinks it would be "a good thing if Dr. Weizmann would now lay down the charge, at least for a while. "It is bad for any organization to be led indefinitely by one man or the same men" the paper asserts. "Although the JEWISH WORLD doesn't altogether see eye to eye with James de Rothschild, it must confess that in the circumstances a much better successor would be difficult to find"... "But would Rothschild accept the office and will Dr. Weizmann resign?" the JEWISH WORLD asks.
