

DAILY NEWS BULLETIN

Cable and Telegraphic Dispatches

Issued by

JEWISH CORRESPONDENCE BUREAU
JEWISH TELEGRAPHIC AGENCY, INC.

114 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Telephone: Chelsea 7224
Vol. IV. No. 21. January 30, 1923

UNEMPLOYMENT, SUICIDES REPORTED BY POST FROM PALESTINE

London, January 30 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). Dealing with statements made by Dr. Chaim Weizmann in Palestine that Zionism is passing through a financial crisis, the Jerusalem correspondent of the Morning Post gave a lengthy description of the situation as he sees it. Immigrants, he said, are suffering through unemployment. The building activity at Tel-Aviv having been suspended and the cement factory at Jaffa working part time, the correspondent's estimate is that there are 600 unemployed in Jaffa. The colonists and merchants are also feeling the pinch of the money stringency. During the last year there were fourteen cases of suicides by Jewish immigrants caused by "poverty and starvation".

Despite this situation, immigration into the country is continuing at the rate of 600 males monthly, the correspondent asserts, adding this admonition that unless immigration is suspended until the economic crisis is passed, there are "dangerous times ahead".

The Palestine correspondent reports also that Bolshevik activity is again becoming very noticeable.

HITLER THREATENS JEWS, AMERICANS, ENGLISH

Munich January 30 (J. T. A.). Adolph Hitler, the Bavarian Fascist leader, made bold by his victory over the Bavarian Government in having demonstrations of the National Socialists permitted while the country was in a state of martial law, has been making speeches threatening Jews, English and Americans.

With reference to the Jews, he said that no member of that Faith will ever be permitted to touch the National Socialists' banner.

Addressing Fascist meetings Herr Hitler declared that unless England and America intervene to stop France's action in the Ruhr, the "presence of British and Americans in Bavaria will not be tolerated". This threat was very enthusiastically received by Fascist hordes.

A gang of Nationalists raided the Regina Hotel seeking Jews. The diners were terrorized and it was due to the intercession of the manager that actual violence was prevented.

The charge that Reichswehr is supporting Hitler's forces occurs now and again in the liberal German newspapers. The Vorwarts, Socialist organ, reports that Chancellor Cuno personally ordered the release of 300 Hitler men who had been taken into custody.

REPORT POGROM IN KURSK

London, January 30 (J. C. B.). Quoting the dispatch to the Sanomat at Helsingfors, the Morning Post reports serious pogroms took place on January 19 and 20 at Kursk. Workmen, peasants, and socialists of the Red Army participated in the rioting, the report continued, resulting in the murder of "hundreds of thousands".

CLAIM INFRACTION OF JEWISH RIGHTS IN PALESTINE

Jerusalem, January 30 (J. T. A.). A memorandum enumerating cases of infraction of Jewish rights in Palestine and requiring a radical change in the present Government policy has been submitted by the Council of Palestine Jews to Sir Herbert Samuel. These representations on behalf of the Jewish inhabitants of Palestine follow somewhat similar criticism submitted by Lieut. Colonel Kish on behalf of the Zionist Executive during Dr. Weizmann's recent visit to Palestine. The principal Jewish grievance is that activities of an indisputable public character are regarded by the Government as private enterprises, and it is charged that education, medical and sanitation work, maintained out of Zionist funds, are receiving no aid from the Government despite the fact that it is claimed that the Jews contribute about 30% of the taxes.

NORDAU GARDEN CITY IN PALESTINE

Jerusalem, January 29 (J. C. B.). Jewish communities throughout the world are urged by the head office of the Jewish National Fund here to arrange special collections on Turin for the Garden City in memory of Max Nordau.

AMALGAMATED BANK TRANSMITS MONEY TO RUSSIA.

NEW YORK (Jewish Correspondence Bureau) The Russian American Industrial Corporation has made final arrangements for the immediate transmission of money to Russia, through the offices of the Amalgated Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago, transmissions now being accepted by the foreign Exchange Department of that bank.

The contract for transmissions between the United States and Russia was concluded with the Industrial Bank of Moscow, and the Russian-American Industrial Corporation was made the agent for this enterprise. It is said to be the first concession to be granted officially to an American Corporation. It makes possible transmission at the premium of 7%, with a minimum charge of one dollar, to all points in Soviet Russia and paid in American dollars.

The Russian-American Industrial Corporation is incorporated in Delaware and is capitalized at $1,000,000 which is to be invested in Russian clothing industry. Sidney Hillman, Joseph Schlossberg and J. S. Potofsky, all officers of the Amalgamated Clothing workers of America, are the president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively of this Corporation.

NATHAN STRAUS HONORED ON 75th BIRTHDAY.

War Relief Collections in many Cities.

NEW YORK Jan. 30 (J. C. B.). The birthday of Nathan Straus, seventy five years old to-morrow, will be celebrated in many cities throughout the country by Jews emulating his example of giving without stint. A special effort will be made to collect the outstanding pledges from the last Jewish War Relief Campaign, in honor of the "Grand Old man of American Jewry," the day being designated as Nathan Straus Relief Remittance Day.

The esteem in which Nathan Straus, venerable philanthropist, is held by this country, is shown by the tributes paid him as "Great Merchant, Great Philanthropist, Great American", in a special number of THE JEWISH TRIBUNE and THE HEBREW STANDARD, dedicated to him on his seventy-fifth birthday to-morrow.

Beginning with President Harding, the nation's leaders have written congratulatory letters to Mr. Straus through which they emphasize the good work he has accomplished by his pure milk work, in which he was a pioneer, and his many other philanthropies. Particular emphasis is laid upon the fact that his philanthropies, world wide in their extent, have always been carried on, irrespective of race or creed.

PRESIDENT HARDING'S MESSAGE.

President Harding in his letter to Dr. Nehemiah Mosesohn, Editor of The Jewish Tribune and the Hebrew Standard, wrote:

I am obliged to you for your note calling my attention to the fact that Nathan Straus is to celebrate his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary on the last day of this month and that a special tribute is to be paid to him. Mr. Straus' public services and private and public philanthropies have deserved very much of his fellow citizens, and I hope he may live through many more years of similar usefulness.

Included among the large number of those who paid tribute to Nathan Straus were the following: Vice President Calvin Coolidge, Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace, Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, Postmaster General Hubert Work, Governor Alfred E. Smith, Mayor John F. Hylan Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, Archbishop Patrick J. Hayes, Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Adolph S. Ochs, Arthur Brisbane, Louis Wiley, Albert D. Lasker, Micheal Friedman, Adolph Lewisohn, Samuel Utermeyer, Eugene Meyer, Jr., Emile Berliner, Judge Julian W. Mack, Fannie Hurst, Mrs. Mary Fels, Mrs. Alexander Kohut, Judge Otto A. Rosalesky and Dr. Lee K. Frankel.

CHARGES CANADIAN CLUB BARS JEWS,

But President says charge is result of "Foolish Members Talk."

NEW YORK, Jan. 31 (J. C. B.) The charge made in a letter of resignation written by Rube R. Fogel, a manufacturing jeweler, that the Canadian Club of New York, at the Hotel Belmont, is "determined to exclude Jews" was denied in a statement published today from the president of the club, Albert Oliver, head of Albert Oliver & Son. Mr. Oliver dismissed the matter as "just the result of a foolish member's talk." Mr. Fogel had said that A. A. Mathewson, chairman of the membership committee, at a meeting Jan. rose and said he wanted to hear the views of club members as to the admission of Jews and that he would vote against any Jew who applied.

Mr. Fogel also charged that others rose and spoke to the same effect and that the president of the club then said that the hearty applause which greeted these statements showed the club's "determination" to exclude Jews.

Mr. Oliver has asked Mr. Fogel to reconsider his resignation.