JOHNSON DOUBTS HIS BILL WILL PASS THIS SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Chairman Johnson, father of the new House immigration bill admitted to the representative of the J.T.A. today that it was unlikely that this bill would pass at this session of Congress.

Johnson stated he is closely watching the situation and although no rule giving precedence to his measure had been granted as yet by the House Rules Committee he can get one when he desires. There are seven measures which have been granted precedence to the immigration bill, he said. In that event, there may be time for action on the immigration measure and he may seek the rule which will give it consideration.

A report appearing in a New York daily that leaders in Congress had decided to oppose the bill was characterized as untrue by Johnson.

MOON TEMPLE MAY BE 7,000 YEARS OLD.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22, (Jewish Correspondence Bureau) The temple of the Moon uncovered in Ur of the Chaldees, the home of Patriarch Abraham may be between 6,000 and 7,000 years old and is probably the oldest known edifice, according to Dr. George B. Gordon, Director of the University of Pennsylvania Museum. The unearthing of the structure was due to the joint efforts of the British Museum and the Museum of the University of Pennsylvania.

The temple was devoted to the worship of the moon, one of the favorite cults of that day and may have been the idolatrous house of worship in which Terah, the father of Abraham attended.

"We have no detailed information about the discovery as yet," said Dr. Gordon. "We knew that this temple existed. There was a long tradition about it in ancient Babylonian writings. The wall of the oldest part of the building so far discovered was erected in the fifth millennium B.C.E. and was rebuilt or repaired by rulers of Mesopotamia as late as the time of Nebuchadnezzar in the sixth century B.C.E."

ASQUITH OPPOSES PALESTINE "ADVENTURES".

LONDON, Feb. 22, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Charges that the British Government is squandering too much money in Mesopotamia and Palestine were made by the former British premier, Herbert Asquith in the course of the Commons debate on the middle east. A sum of 78 millions was spent by England in Palestine and Mesopotamia during the years 1919 and 1920, Asquith said Winston Churchill had declared in June 1921. Britain, he said, cannot long continue in such "adventures". Mr. Asquith, it might be noted, was the only one to mention Palestine.

GERMAN AND RUSSIAN JEWS CLASH.

BERLIN, Feb. 22, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) A little comedy that may be entitled "Discrimination within the Fold" has thrown the small Jewish community of Gennitz into a furor. The native Jewish population of the city issued a decree that immigrant Jews from Eastern Europe were not to be given the right of suffrage. The Eastern European Jews followed with a "no representation-no taxation" move. They decided that they would not contribute to the support of the Community and would launch a financial boycott of the native Jews. As a result, the Jewish Community is in a crisis.

RUHR JEWS HAVE TWO FIGHTS ON HAND.

ESSEN, RUHR, Feb. 22, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) With the present French occupation of the Ruhr District, the Jews of the zone are fighting on two frontiers, a prominent Jew of this section declared in an interview today with the representative of the J.T.A.

"In common with their German fellow-citizens the local Jews are engaged firstly in passive resistance against the French. Then, again, they must meet the subterranean attacks of the German anti-Semitic agitators." "Jewish circles are astounded", he continued "that the leaders of the German majority parties which are constantly preaching fraternity and concord among the citizenry permit the anti-Semitic disturbances. What is the Cuno Government doing about it?"

The Jewish communal worker commended the fairness with which the Government relief in the striking Ruhr zone had been distributed. There was no discrimination against the Jews in this respect, he said.
