LITHUANIAN MINISTRY FORCED TO QUIT.

KOVNO, March 11, delayed. (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Premier Galvanouskas and his Cabinet handed their resignation to President Stulginskis Saturday.

The resignation follows the division in the National Assembly on a confidence vote regarding the government's policies ending in a tie, 58 members voting for and a similar number opposing.

Opponents of the government's policy included members of the left wing and deputies representing the Jewish, Polish and German minority groups. Representatives of these groups were absent from the sessions for some two months following a conflict over the allocation of the votes cast during the recent election. They returned, however, forming an opposition bloc which finally sent Premier Galvanouskas' Ministry to defeat.

Mr. Gore's statement was in reply to a query by Mr. Lorimer as to whether the Zionists were bearing any of the expense of the immigration work.

A number of queries as to the Palestine situation were put to Gore in the House of Lords by Lord Apsley. In reply Gore said that the average number of immigrants monthly during 1923 was 654. During the month of February a total of 2500 were unemployed. This latter number however is not of Jewish unemployed exclusively, but of all classes.

Replying to the question as to whether the immigrants were religious, Gore said he hardly thought any Jew would come to Palestine unless he possessed some religious convictions, although the immigrants may not be orthodox.
