FASCISTI URGE INTERNING, SHOOTING GERMAN JEWS.

MUNICH, March 16, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) National-Socialist Fascisti at a meeting here unanimously adopted a resolution urging that all Jews in Germany be interned. Those not voluntarily reperting should be shot, the resolution provides.

They also voted approval of a second resolution threatening that if the allied forces do not leave the Rhineland in the near future, all German Jews be treated as hostages and shot.

Both resolutions were adopted with much gusto.

TURKISH FLAG HOISTED BY ARAB STRIKERS.

British Troops Put Down Disorders; Several Wounded.

JERUSALEM, March 16, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The Turkish flag was hoisted here yesterday during a procession in connection with the strike called by the Arab leaders to celebrate the success of the recent Arab boycott of the Legislative Council elections.

The arrival here on the day called for this strike of Mousa Kazim Pasha, chief of the Arab Delegation in London, gave the celebration added stimulus. Arab students and boy scouts carried aloft only Arab-Turkish banners. The celebration grew disorderly and British troops quickly dispersed the parade, but not before several Arabs were wounded, as well as a few native policemen. Six ring leaders have been taken into custody.

Outside Jerusalem there was no response to the strike call, say reports from all sections of the country.

135 JEWS STILL LANGUISHING IN INTERNMENT CAMP.

BUDAPEST, March 16, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The notorious Hungarian war camp at Zalagerzeg is still in existence, despite repeated assurances of the government that it would be closed. Among the 794 Russian war captives in the camp there are 135 Jews.

Attempting to explain its failure to close the camp the government declares that there is no place to send the prisoners. The captives have no passports, the government adds, as Russia refuses to readmit them.

ARABS BOYCOTT JEWISH ELECTRICITY.

JERUSALEM, March 15, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Arab extremists are waging their fight against things Jewish even to the point of refusing the use of electricity derived from a "Jewish" station.

The Jaffa municipality has decided to stick to the old hand, foot and horse power rather than utilize any of the electrical power derived from the Ruttentberg station at the Auja.

Efforts by the government to convince the Arabs that electricity was neutral and knew no politics proved unavailing.

HUGE WATER RESERVOIR AT SOLOMON'S POOLS.

JERUSALEM March 15, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The new reservoir of the Jerusalem water-works at Solomon's Pools, between Bethlehem and Hebron, was officially opened by Sir Herbert Samuel with elaborate ceremony. The reservoir which has a capacity of 40 million gallons is connected by a pipe system with Jerusalem.

EVIL DAY IF BRITAIN QUITS ZIONIST IDEAL, SAYS GENERAL SMUTS.

CAPETOWN, March 16, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Great Britain must not falter in the execution of its promises towards the establishment of Palestine as the Jewish national home. This was the substance of an address by General Smuts, South African Prime Minister in opening a Jewish fete Tuesday.

"It will be an evil day" said Smuts "for the British Empire if it ever deserts the ideal of a definitely achieved national home for the Jewish people".

CONGRESSMAN WANTS JERUSALEM MADE SEAT OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

NEW YORK, March 16, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Speaking at the reception of Dr. Weizmann at the Hotel Pennsylvania, Congressman Hamilton Fish declared that Jerusalem should become the capital of the League of Nations, as it is "the connecting link between East and West."

WATSON MADE FORTUNE ON FRANK CASE, SAYS GEORGIA EDITOR.

Governor Slaton, Who Commuted Frank's Sentence, Now Popular Again.

NEW YORK, March 16, (Jewish Correspondence Bureau) The late Senator Tom Watson of Georgia, who led the fight against Leo Frank in Georgia made $1,000 a week as a result of the case, was the statement made here today to the Jewish Correspondence Bureau by Tom Loyless, until recently editor of the Columbus (Georgia) "Sun-Enquirer" who is now in New York.

"If they had let Frank live another year, Watson would have become a millionaire", Loyless declared.

Watson, the Georgia editor continued, openly urged the lynching of Frank, but he didn't expect them to act on his word so quickly. Personally, he would have preferred probably to delay Frank's lynching for a while until he could amass a greater fortune out of the case.

Loyless claims to have the actual figures from the Thompson Ga. postoffice (Watson's home town) showing the increased earnings of his paper following his vicious attacks on Frank.

"His paper jumped immediately from 25,000 to 80,000 circulation".

Watson, Loyless says, did not personally dislike either Jews or Catholics although he wrote the most inflammatory articles against both. His attacks were purely a matter of business with him. "Watson was too smart a man" said the Georgia editor "to have any personal animus on racial or religious grounds."

Governor Slaton, of Georgia, whose own life was endangered as a result of his commutation of the penalty against Frank to life imprisonment has now regained his popularity in that state, Loyless asserted.

CALLS HIMSELF "ROTHSCHILD-SASSOON", FLEECE GEORGIANS.

SAVANNAH, GA. March 16, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) A dashing young man who gave his name as "Mr. David Philip Rothschild Sassoon" and claimed to be the son of Sir Edward Sassoon, a well-known English Jew who married a Rothschild is being sought here by the police, after a number of checks he had given were returned marked "no funds".

Sassoon, if that is his name, made a great stir in Savannah society circles with his stories of how he won the Victoria Cross in the war and of his friendship with August Belmont whom he said he expected to visit him in Savannah in a few days. He recently entertained at a large theatre party a group of Savannah's elite society folk.

Inquiries at the British Consulate following his departure failed to verify "Sassoon" as a recipient of the Victoria Cross. It is said that before leaving he succeeded in borrowing substantial sums from prominent people here.

U.S. AMBASSADOR IN BERLIN URGED FRIENDSHIP TO JEWS, HE SAYS.

BERLIN, March 15, (Jewish Correspondence Bureau) United States Ambassador to Germany, Allan T. Houghton, took it upon himself recently to make unofficial representations to and use his influence with leading Germans, in government and private circles, with the view of pointing out to them the injustice and wrong of agitation against the Jews, the J.C.B. correspondent is informed by one who recently returned to Washington from Berlin and had occasion to learn the Ambassador's friendly activities.

The Ambassador, in his conversations is said to have pointed out that the American government was entirely out of sympathy with the anti-Semitic campaign, and that Germany was risking the loss of much of the good-will of the U.S. by continuing in the present course. Houghton further called attention to the contributions Jews had made in every walk of German life, showing how detrimental to its own progress the anti-Semitic movement is.
