SAYS ANTI-SEMITES RETARD HUNGARY'S PROGRESS.

BUDAPEST, July 5, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Former Premier Karl Huszarr who was bitterly attacked at a meeting of the Chamber by the anti-Semitic deputy Melchiorikiss, vigorously assailed the anti-Semites in his reply.

M. Huszarr, who is vice-president of the Chamber, was attacked for becoming president of a Hungarian bank which was founded by American Jewish citizens hailing from Hungary. His connection with the bank was "unworthy" of a vice-president of the Chamber of "Christian Hungary", his critic charged.

M. Huszarr angrily replied that Hungary would never receive recognition of its rights, if those fighting for Hungarian cause abroad are made scapegoats merely because they are Jews.

"When I visited America" Huszarr exclaimed "I saw these Jewish bank directors raising funds to repatriate Hungarian war prisoners in Siberia. They raised $835,000 for the benefit of these Hungarians.

"I was attacked in America because of your sins", said Huszarr pointing at the anti-Semitic group. "I have suffered enough because of you, but I am not disposed to remain silent or appear your ally any longer."

VIENNA, July 5, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Fourteen anti-Semites involved in a wholesale murder plot have been arrested as the result of the discovery by the police of a "murder list" prepared by a group of terrorists of Hakenkreuzler affiliations. The murder list contained the names of a number of Jews and liberals generally whom the anti-Semites planned to do away with.

The discovery of the list was made as the result of police investigations of the slaying recently in a forest near Vienna of Konrad Karger.

There are two other held by individuals of Jewish descent, but who nominally at least are not Jews.

JEWISH LABOR READY TO TURN TO SYNAGOGUE, ADLER SAYS.*World Court Is Commended by Rabbinical Assembly.

LONG BRANCH, N.J., July 5, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Never before in recent history has there been such an opportunity for the synagogue to bring to its side the forces of Jewish labor, Dr. Cyrus Adler told the convention of the Rabbinical Seminary in meeting here yesterday.

Dr. Adler declared that the reason for this sympathetic attitude of labor is to be found in the resentment felt by Jewish labor against the Bolshevik persecution of the Jewish religion in Russia. Labor has now swung to the side of the synagogue and it is the duty of the rabbis to take advantage of this drift, Dr. Adler told the rabbis.

The rabbinical convention also urged the participation of the United States in the "World Court already established or in such other association of the States in the civilized world as shall tend to substitute arbitration and justice for force in settlement of differences between states".

Branding the practice of holding college examinations on Saturday and holidays as un-American the convention in a resolution call upon the Boards of Education and the Boards of Examiners of states and national institutions to arrange examinations and other public exercises on such days as not to compel Jews to violate religious principles.

The convention resolved to draw up a set of principles based on Jewish tradition to guide rabbis in their attitude toward industrial problems and to cooperate with other religious bodies to further social justice. A code of ethics for the relations of rabbis among themselves is also to be formulated.

The following officers were elected: L. Epstein, Boston, President; Max Drob New York, Vice-president; N. Salit New York, Recording Secretary; L. Spitz, New Haven, Corresponding Secretary; L. Feinberg, Cincinnati, Treasurer.

Directors: Jacob Kohn, M. Levine, I.H. Leventhal, L. Finkelstein, Max Kadushin, N. Blechman, of New York; J.H. Greenstone, S. Fredman, M.D. Klein, M. Cohen, Philadelphia; Solomon Goodman, Cleveland; C.H. Kauvar, Denver; H. Lissaur, San Francisco, and M. Levitsky, Wilkes Barre, Pa.
