PALESTINE JEWS COST ENGLAND NOTHING AT ALL

Ormsby Gore Statement In Commons Greeted By Cheers.

London, July 10. (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). The Jews in Palestine are entailing no cost whatever to the British Government.

This was the reply of Ormsby-Gore in the House of Commons today to a query by Major Paget who wanted to know what the Jews were costing the British tax-payer.

The reply of "nothing at all" by Ormsby-Gore brought forth a large volume of cheers.

Major Paget then shot back with another query: "What is the cost to England of holding Palestine for a Jewish spiritual home?"

"We are in Palestine for quite other reasons," Ormsby-Gore replied.

Only a small fraction of the Jewish immigration to Palestine is from English-speaking countries, he declared. The exact figures according to Ormsby-Gore show only 200 out of a total of 7844 immigrants who arrived during 1922 and 34 of those coming thus far this year from English-speaking countries.

Answering a question of Mr. Becker regarding the rejection by the Arab Congress of the Palestine loan, Ormsby-Gore declared that the acts of the Arab Congress were not binding on the administration and he could not accept the assertion that the loan would not be floated.

SAYS CATHOLICS WILL ALSO OPPOSE FORD.

NEW YORK, July 10, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) That Henry Ford in a race for Presidency would have to count on the opposition of Catholics as well as of the Jews, is the opinion of David Lawrence, head of the Consolidated Press Service and regarded as one of the best posted newspaper correspondents in America.

Mr. Lawrence declares that Ford's campaign against the Jews is in conformity with the principles of the Ku Klux Klan and whether the Klan indorsed him or not, he would be given the Klan label by his opponents. Under these circumstances large numbers of Catholics would be inclined to oppose any man even slightly favored by the Klan.

Lawrence in his article arrives at the conclusion that Ford stands no chance with either of the two major parties. but that running as a third party candidate. he might get enough electoral votes to throw the election into the House of Representatives.

DESCRIBES SOVIET BATTLE AGAINST RELIGION.

NEW YORK, July 10, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) A detailed analysis of what CURRENT HISTORY describes "Soviet Russia's Grim Battle Against Religion" appears in the July issue of this magazine. The writer of this article is Louis Fischer, correspondent in Russia of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency and of "The New York Evening Post".

Mr. Fischer traces the anti-religious movement to basic Communist principles which declare that Communism is incompatible with religious faith. After showing how religion is mocked by Russian Communists, and church leaders punished as counter-revolutionists, and how the church had been shorn of all social functions, Mr. Fischer stresses that the government leaves it to non-official organizations to eradicate the "prejudices, superstitions and beliefs", while itself maintaining an avowedly neutral though benevolent attitude towards anti-religious campaigns.
