AGUDATH ISRAEL SENDS BLESSINGS TO COOLIDGE.

Efforts To Compose Differences with Orthodox Foes.

Large Delegation of Famous Rabbis Coming Here.

VIENNA, Aug. 22, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The "Agudath Israel" today, at the final session of its Congress, or "Knessiah Gedolah", adopted a resolution conveying its blessings and hopes of a successful administration to President Coolidge.

While expressing gratitude over the fact that America has served as a refuge for large numbers of Jews the Agudath also asks the President of the United States to use his influence for a liberalization of the immigration laws.

The Assembly also protested the persecution of the Jewish religion in Russia, adopting a resolution urging the Soviet to modify its attitude on the subject.

Resolutions upholding Schechita and urging greater Sabbath observance on the part of the Jews were also adopted.

A plea that the Agudath Israel modify its antagonistic attitude towards organized Zionism and at least work together with the Misrachi was voiced today by the Rabbi of Trier.

The rabbi declared that the Agudah's unyielding stand has caused many leading rabbis and "gaonim" to remain aloof from the Agudah.

His plea was attacked by Rabbi Weiss of Czecho-Slovakia who said that the Agudah already had made too many compromises and concessions.

"We want to develop a dominion absolutely true to the Torah. In our schools stringent orthodoxy should be taught and no secular instruction", Rabbi Weiss said.

Similar views were expressed by others. one of the delegates declaring that it was impossible to work with Misrachi, who, he said, at the Zionist Congress in Carlsbad, vacillated and followed the leadership of Weizmann rather than the injunctions of the rabbis.

A delegation composed of the famous "Chofetz Chaim" of Radom, the Gerer Rabbi, the Trotskew Rabbi also Rabbis Zirelson, Schapiro and rodzenski will come to America to recruit followers for the Agudah.

EXPULSION OF JEWS FROM POLAND.

WARSAW, Aug. 22, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) A considerable number of Jews who had been repatriated from Russia have recently been expelled from Poland by order of the Polish Ministry of Interior.

The repatriates, it is pointed out, were all legally entitled to reside in Poland, as they could not otherwise have obtained the visa of the Polish Consul in Russia nor would they have been able to pass the Polish border, if their papers were not in perfect order.

PROMISE MORE POGROMS IN AUTUMN.

BUCHAREST, Aug. 22, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The anti-Semitic "National Protection League" appears very much satisfied with the success of the attacks last week on Jews in Unghezi and Pitesti, in Bessarabia, led by student-followers of Professor Cuza.

The task of the League, the officials announce, is to keep the Jewish question open by propaganda and "public demonstrations".

JEWS ACCUSE SOVIET OFFICIAL, FORMERLY A PETLURIST.

MOSCOW, July 26, (J.T.A. Correspondence) The Moscow "Emes" today publishes a letter to the editor", telling of an occurrence reminiscent of the days of Czarism in Russia.

A Petlurist, who went over to the Soviets, was sent out to the township of Snitkov, in the province of Podolia, as President of the local Soviet. On June 22nd, the new head of the township called a local Jew, over sixty years of age, and ordered him to collect the labor taxes from the rest of the inhabitants, on the ground that his house was No. 10 on the street and the tenth citizen should collect the taxes.

The Jew pleaded that he was an old man and could not go about as a tax-gatherer. The President of the Soviet became furious that a Jew dared talk back to him and ordered his arrest. A second Jew, also past sixty, who was present at the time, asked why his friend was to be arrested. The President thereupon seized a rifle and pointed it at the Jew.

The latter's daughter rushed to the window and raised an alarm. A crowd gathered but quickly dispersed as the President began to shoot wildly into the air. The case has been reported to the Public Prosecutor of the district, who is making inquiries.

The President of the Soviet has meanwhile submitted his own version of the affair to the local authorities, stating that a number of Jews came to his office and attempted to shoot him, and that he had acted in self defense. He further alleges that the whole Jewish population of Snitkov consists of counter-revolutionaries.

Practically all Jewish men have been arrested and are already for some weeks in prison. No inquiry has been started yet. Three of the prisoners are men over sixty years old.

The letter is signed by two Jews from Snitkov who were not arrested, M. Lifschitz and Ch. Teppermeister. The name of the President of the Soviet and the names of the arrested Jews are not given in the letter.

The editor of the "Emes" adds a footnote that the Central Committee of Jewish Communist Organization has taken steps to investigate the report. At the same time, the matter will be brought to the attention of the Public prosecutor for the whole of the province.

INFANT WELFARE WORK IN JERUSALEM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Among indications marking the advancement of civilization and the introduction of modern methods into Jerusalem is the institution there of infant welfare work. The American Child Health Association announces, Miss Bertha Landsman, of the Hadassah Medical Organization, Jerusalem, has written to the Association of which Herbert Hoover is president, saying that this work is expected to be the forerunner of many other branches of public health service particularly that dealing with prenatal care, the care of child of school age and tuberculosis work.

One of the main purposes of the health expansion will be the training of nurses whose services later will be of general use throughout all of Palestine. The holding of a baby show to take account of the health of all the infants of the city is expected to be an early outcome of the infant welfare work.
