MUNICH, Aug. 28. (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The People's Court here today imposed the death sentence upon the young nationalist Zwengauer who was tried and found guilty of the murder of Baur, a young student.

The murderer, according to evidence, was a member of a terrorist gang led by Ruge, a notorious anti Semite. At a meeting on February 13, Ruge exhorted the eighty members present to make it their mission to each assassinate at least one prominent German Jew. Baur, it was disclosed during the trial, was for some reason suspected of wavering in his purpose and Zwengauer was ordered by Ruge to execute the student.

ENGLISH CATHOLICS SEE DUTY IN PALESTINE.

No Jews Allowed in ~~PALESTINE~~ BETHLEHEM.

LONDON, Aug. 14, (J.T.A. Correspondence) The duty of English Catholics towards Palestine was stressed at the National Congress of the Catholic Women's League held at Birmingham in connection with the Catholic Congress now in session. The Countess of Denbigh presided.

Lady Mark Sykes, President of the League, said it would be an absolute disgrace if they left Palestine. They had to show that there were English Catholics who realized it as their business to spread the Faith. The responsibility of governing Palestine had been allotted to Britain. Many of the soldiers who fought and died were Catholics. We must not forget that; it puts another obligation upon us.

It was because we had this mandate, because the government was English and our language had become a need to the inhabitants, that English-speaking Catholics must go forward to the Holy Land, as the Crusaders did in the past.

Dom Bede Camm, speaking of his impressions of Palestine, said that Bethlehem was the least disappointing centre in the Holy Land. It presented an agreeable contrast to Jerusalem, which was full of people averse to them as Catholics, and a dirty and impossible city.

No Jew is allowed into Bethlehem -- at least no Jew is allowed to spend a night there. The population of 10,000 comprised 6,000 Catholics and 4,000 Orthodox Christians of the Greek Schism. One felt that Bethlehem had the true Catholic atmosphere.
