UNIFICATION OF YIDDISH SCHOOLS IN EASTERN GALICIA.

LEMBERG, Sept. 16, (J.F.A. Correspondence) For a long time the Yiddish schools, children's homes and evening classes in Eastern Galicia have been under the management of three different committees -- the Poale Zion, the Borocho organization and the Society "Our Children". About six months ago the Poale Zion and the Borocho organizations united, and now the society "Our children" has joined the common body so that all the schools in Eastern Galicia in which Yiddish is the language of instruction are now administered by one committee -- the United Central Committee of the Yiddish School Organization in Eastern Galicia, it is called.

Up to the present there have been opened nine schools, twelve children's homes and a large number of evening classes. The language of instruction is Yiddish but Hebrew and Polish are also taught.

A conference will be held shortly all the teachers being present, as well as representatives of the Yiddish school organization in Warsaw. A telegraphic message has been received by the new Central Committee in Eastern Galicia from the People's Relief Committee in New York (after the conclusion of its convention in Boston) urging active reconstruction of the Yiddish school system.

 LLOYD GEORGE RAPS ANTI-SEMITISM ON ARRIVAL IN U.S.

Zionists Cheer Former Premier as He Steps

NEW YORK, Oct. 5, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The anti-Semitic movement is extremely stupid, the former British Premier, Lloyd George told newspapermen who interviewed him shortly after his arrival.

There is a great future for the Jews in Palestine, but the upbuilding of the Jewish homeland will require time, he added.

Among the throngs to greet the British statesman as he stepped off the pier were many Zionists waving Zionist flags. Lloyd George smilingly greeted them in return.

Sir Alfred Mond, former member of the ex-Premier's war cabinet, was among the first to meet the distinguished visitor.

A delegation of the Zionist and Keren Hayesod Organizations was also present at the reception held at City Hall. It consisted of Samuel Untermyer, chairman; Morris Rottenberg, Herman Conheim, Louis Lipsky, Emanuel Neuman, Nathan Turel, H.L. Simons, A. Labovitz, Boris Grabelsky, Mitchell Salit, Dr. Morris Eisenberg and Dr. S. Bernstein.

A group of the Zionists headed by Isaac Carmel presented Dame Margaret Lloyd George with a bouquet of flowers.
