OTTO KAHN DEMANDED JEWISH GUARANTEES FROM POLAND, FRENCH SAY.

Rothschilds Refused To Deal With Poland.

PARIS, Oct. 11, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) That Polish representatives came to Paris to confer with Otto Kahn, of Kuhn, Loeb and Co., relative to a loan to Poland and that Kahn demanded guarantees regarding the position of the Jews there, is a report printed extensively in the French press.

Following the failure of the Polish representative to give such guarantees, the negotiations were suspended.

The French press also reports that the Rothschild allied banks also refused to participate in any loan to Poland and that the negotiations with the J.P. Morgan Company also fell through.

FLEE FROM BAVARIA: FEAR POGROMS IN TYROL.

BERLIN, Oct. 11, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) In apprehension of pogroms in Munich and other parts of Germany, thousands of Jews are fleeing the country.

Many of them are finding, however, that they are only transferring from the proverbial fire pan to the fire. They are leaving in large numbers for the Tyrol resort, Mirano, which is now Italian territory.

The Fascisti of Mirano are reported to have notified the Italian Government that unless the influx stopped, they would start pogroms.

TORONTO JEWS PRESENT ADDRESS OF THANKS TO LLOYD GEORGE.

TORONTO, Oct. 11, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Two addresses of gratitude were delivered by a Polish Jewish Congregation and the Zionist organization at a civic reception held here in honor of Lloyd George.

In replying, the former Premier said, "I thank you heartily for the sentiment expressed. My stand today is exactly the same as it was during my premiership".

COOLIDGE COMMISSIONS WEINERT DYKKAR TO MAKE HIS BUST.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Moses Weiner-Dykkar, prominent Jewish sculptor has been commissioned by President Coolidge to execute his bust. The first sitting was held yesterday.

This is the first bust of President Coolidge and will be placed among the other vice-presidential busts at the Capitol.

Dykkar has made busts of Vice-President Marshall, the late Speaker Champ Clark, Hudson Maxim, and other prominent Americans.

President Harding has commissioned Dykkar to make his bust just before his departure on his last fateful trip. Harding had expected and arranged to sit for the bust on his return.

TO STAGE OPERATIC VERSION OF KING OF SCHNORRERS.

PARIS, Oct. 11, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) An opera version of Israel Zangwill's "King of Schnorrers" will be presented on the French stage some time this winter.

The translation from English is by Pierre Varemé. The music is the work of the Jewish composer Cremieux.

214 STUDENTS AT JEWISH THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OPENING.

Record Number of Students on Hand At Start of New Year.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The new academic year of the Jewish Theological Seminary was formally opened Wednesday with a record number of students enrolled. At the Seminary proper 214 students were registered and 197 at the Teachers' Institute, allied with the Seminary.

Dr. Cyrus Adler announced that Dr. Jacob Hoshander has been appointed to take the place of Professor Friedlaender, who was killed in the Ukraine in 1920. Other members of the faculty are Prof. Ginsburg, Dr. Louis Finkelstein, Dr. Morris D. Levine, Prof. Alexander Marx, and Dr. Israel Davidson.

Prof. M. Kaplan will be principal of the Institute as heretofore, assisted by Dr. Levine. Joseph Bragin, Leo L. Honor, Levi Schaffstein, Hillel Bavit, Benjamin Sil, Rabbi Kadushin and Oscar Obsay.

Students who desire to prepare themselves for leadership of Young Men's Hebrew Associations and similar institutions are also being received by the Extension Department.

JEWISH LANDWORKERS SEEK TO SETTLE IN SOUTH RUSSIA.

MOSCOW, Oct. 11, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Thirty-four Jewish families consisting of 256 land workers have applied through the "Ort" for permission to settle in South Russia.

The Ukrainian law bans immigration into that Section unless the colonies there specifically request the workers. The application will be sent to the Russian colonists to ascertain if they will consent to the settlement.

11,660 GERMAN JEWS ADOPTED CHRISTIANITY DURING 1880-1918.

224,000 German Jews Left Judaism in Century, Apostate Estimates.

BERLIN, Oct. 10, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) A total of 11,660 Jews embraced Protestant Christianity in Germany from 1880 till 1918, according to statistics just made public. Half of the apostates are from Berlin.

This number does not include Jewish children who were baptized at birth nor does it include those joining the Catholic church.

According to Delerol, the well-known Jewish apostate, the total number of Jews who adopted Christianity in Germany during the 19th century numbers no less than 224,000.

BROOKLYN POST OF AMERICAN LEGION PROTESTS AGAINST GENERAL HALLER.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10. (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) The Corporal Sidney Rosenberg post of the American Legion at Brooklyn has sent a protest to the Executive Committee of the Legion against its action in inviting the Polish General Haller to be its convention guest.

The protest instances a number of outbreaks against Jews in which Haller's troops were the offenders.

In a statement in New York on his arrival here, General Haller denied responsibility for anti-Jewish excesses. He admitted that his soldiers had perpetrated such deeds against the Jews, but said that at the time he was not with his command. Other excesses, he said, had been committed by his soldiers, while under the influence of intoxicants and he declared he could not be responsible for what drunken men do.

A NEW ROAD IN JERUSALEM.

JERUSALEM, Sept. 28, (J.T.A. Correspondence) The Palestine Land Development Company last year purchased a plot of land of about 1000,000 square piques, situated in the center of Jerusalem. It extends from the Jaffa Road, near the "Zion" Cinema to the School of "Bezalel". Adding to its commercial importance, the land is traversed by the new "King George" Boulevard.

The Palestine Land Development Co. has now commenced the construction of a modern road with ample facilities for traffic. This road will link all main parts of Jerusalem and will also shorten the distance to the Jaffa Road.

About 200 men are employed in the construction of this road, mostly new immigrants and this has reduced the unemployment in Jerusalem to a considerable extent.

The road will be open to traffic in another month.

The work is being done at the expenses of the Palestine Land Development Company.

PALESTINE IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

JERUSALEM, Sept. 18, (J.T.A. Correspondence) The Palestine government has published a summary of Palestine imports and exports, showing the comparative values for the second quarter of the years 1922 and 1923.

For the quarter ending June 30th, 1923, the imports were £E220,466; imports in transit to Syria, £E37,258; exports, £E255,995; exports in transit from Syria, £E7,055; and re-exports, £E65,856.

JEWISH AGRICULTURAL HIGH SCHOOL IN SOUTH RUSSIA.

MOSCOW, Sept. 19, (J.T.A. Correspondence) A Jewish agricultural high school is being opened shortly in the Jewish colony of Nowo-Poltavka, in the province of Odessa.

The language of instruction will be Yiddish. The school will provide a theoretical and practical agricultural training for the Jewish colonists in the Ukraine.

FASCISTI IN PALESTINE.

JERUSALEM, Sept. 28, (J.T.A. Correspondence) The "Falastin" states: "We learn from one of the members of the Fascisti organization, Mr. Benyu Lonsco, that a branch has been formed in Jerusalem, under the presidency of Dr. Mancini. The membership of the local Fascisti is about 40. A similar branch has been formed in Haifa.

BREITBART, "MODERN SAMSON" LIGHTLY INJURED AT PERFORMANCE.

TORONTO, Oct 11, (Jewish Telegraphic Agency) Sigmund Breitbart, the "modern Samson" who is performing here at one of the theatres received a slight injury to his chin when a horse passed over his body during the performance of his strength feats. The shows are being conducted regularly, however,

Breitbart, who is generally considered the "world's strongest man" is touring America under the auspices of the Keith theatrical syndicate.

"THE GOVERNMENT AND US".

JERUSALEM, Sept. 23, (J.T.A. Correspondence) "The British Government "Meraat el Shark" states, tries to conciliate us by stating that Zionism is beneficial to the country but we do not believe this and think that to make such a statement is madness. England says that the Administration is developing the country, but we do not agree.

"If the Administration continues to see things in this narrow outlook, we shall be lost in one valley and the Administration in another, without being able to find each other and the country will go from bad to worse."
