JEW NO LONGER DEPORTED FROM BAVARIA, POLAND HEARS

Warsaw, December 5 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). The deportation of Polish Jews from Bavaria has been stopped, declared L. Seyda, ~~German Minister for Foreign Affairs~~ assistant Minister for Foreign Affairs, replying to representations by the National Council of Polish Jews and the Jewish Sejm deputies who forwarded complaints from Polish subjects in Germany and Bavaria.

Mr. Seyda assured the Jewish spokesmen that he had been informed by both the Polish Ambassador in Berlin and the German Ambassador in Warsaw that the expulsion had been halted.

The Polish Government, nevertheless, demands the official withdrawal of the expulsion decree in order to avoid, among other things, the "painfully expensive travelling costs" of the deportees, M. Seyda asserted.

London, December 5 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). Roman Dmowski, Polish Minister for Foreign Affairs, has addressed a new note to the German Central Government protesting against the persecution of Polish Jews and demanding the punishment of officials implicated in the disturbances in Berlin and Munich, besides asking compensation for Jewish families, it is reported in official Polish circles here.

Berlin, December 5 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). The British Government has interceded with the Bavarian authorities regarding the expulsion of Jews, it is learned here. British authorities are understood to have advised Dictator von Kahr of the adverse impression created in foreign countries by the Bavarian persecutions.

London, December 5 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). The British Consul General at Munich, Robert Henry Clive, acting under instructions from London, has made representations to the Bavarian Government against the expulsion of Jews, the Jewish Telegraphic Agency learns upon inquiry at the Foreign Office. This confirms this Agency's exclusive report of the British move against the Bavarian expulsions.

PUSH PERCENTAGE NORM LEGISLATION IN POLISH SCHOOLS

Jews Demand Transfer of Synagogue Property.

Warsaw, Dec. 5 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). The Sejm Commission of Education is apparently determined to carry through the pending legislation of a percentage norm in Polish schools. A proposal by the Jewish Sejm Club praying for the annulment of the circular by Minister of Education Glombinski regarding the introduction of the restrictive Legislation has been turned down by the Educational Commission.

A petition has been presented on behalf of the Jewish Parliamentary Club, showing that Synagogues in certain towns in the district of Posen, which had been depleted of their Jewish populations through emigration, were converted into moving picture palaces. The Jewish spokesmen demand that the government authorize the transfer of the property left by communities that had emigrated to the Jewish communities still in existence in the vicinity.

MOVE AGAINST MINORITY GUARANTEES

Kowno, December 5 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). A bill calling for the ratification by the National Assembly of the Government declaration of its intention to abide by the minorities clauses was rejected on the third reading in the Sejm. This declaration is required of all newly created states by the Council of the League of Nations.

FORMER COSSACK AND POGROMIST BECOMES DEVOUT JEW

Bucharest, Dec. 5 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). The fantastic but apparently well-substantiated story of a Russian Cossack leader and pogromist who embraced the Jewish faith following the admonition by his father's spirit to desist from murdering Jews is given wide circulation here among Jewish and non-Jewish circles.

The former Cossack leader's name is Costi, who was in command of ~~the~~ one of General Petlura's regiments, and whose troops perpetrated a series of pogroms in the Ukraine. It was while his regiment, the story goes, that the spirit of Costi's father appeared to him in his dream and reproached him for the murder of innocent Jews. Costi suddenly left his regiment to visit his father's grave at Zanov, Bessarabia. Shortly after his visit he became converted to Judaism and adopted the name of Abraham Ben Abraham.

The former leader is now said to be studying Hebrew assiduously and to attend Synagogue regularly.

BUCHAREST CHASSIDIM FLOCK TO YOUTHFUL "WONDER RABBI"

Bucharest, Dec. 5 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). Summoned by telegraph by local Chassidic devotees, the youthful Rebbe Abraham Ovics of Marmaros-Zegat, reputed to possess supernatural powers which come to him as a Cabbalist and son of a Cabbalist, is sojourning temporarily here and is receiving tribute which surpasses that which had been showered upon his father.

The wonder rabbi received a stirring reception at the station here, Chassidim, aged as well as young, surging around him to kiss the hem of his garments. The "Rebbe" is a youth of 22, of dwarfed stature, measuring only 70 centimeters in height. His father before him, Isaac Ovics, also dwarfed, and a much revered miracle worker, died two months ago. The son is said to excel his father as a Cabbalist.

The miracle worker's temporary residence here is the shrine of all Chassidim who flock to him for advice of all kinds.

CALL ON JEWISH COMMUNITIES TO AID LEAGUE SOCIETIES

Paris, December 5 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). A call to establish Jewish League of Nations Societies to be affiliated with the "Internationale Associations Pour Societe Nations", whose headquarters are in Brussels, has gone out from the Committee of Jewish Delegations here signed by Nahum Sokolow, President, and Leo Motzkin, Secretary.

The call is addressed to Jewish national councils, communities, federations, congresses, and parliamentary clubs. Representatives of organized Jewry, in particular in countries where there are large Jewish communities are urged to stimulate the pro-League societies.

The Internationale at present comprises 34 Leagues in different countries. It is pointed out that the Jews as such are without representation especially at the annual conferences of the Internationale where minority questions affecting Jews are constantly raised.

CHAIM NAHOUN EFFENDI CALLED TO EGYPT

Constantinople, Dec. 5 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). Rabbi Chaim Nahoun, former Chief Rabbi of Turkey, has been called to occupy the post of Chief Rabbi of Egypt.

Rabbi Nahoun who still retains the Turkish title "Effendi" conferred upon him during Abdul Hamid times, and who was one of Kemal's advisors at Lausanne, though in an "unofficial capacity", has just arrived here and announced he is proceeding to Angora to take leave of Government officials there.

The Jewish community of Cairo has long wished the former "Haham Bashi" of Turkey to minister to its spiritual needs. He was unanimously elected Chief Rabbi for Egypt some few years ago when a delegation was sent to him to extend the personal invitation.

MINORITIES DEMONSTRATION IN POLISH SEJM

Anthems of Jews, Ukrainians and White Russians Sung In Assembly.

Warsaw, December 5 (J. T.A.) Deputies representing all minority nationalities staged a protest demonstration in the Polish Assembly (Sejm) following the adoption of a resolution withdrawing parliamentary immunity from two Socialist deputies in connection with the recent labor disturbances in Cracow. The deputies involved are Bobrowski and Stanczyk, members of the Polish Socialist Party. The question was tumultuously debated eight hours. Following the announcement that there was a majority in favor of the resolution, the Socialist, Peasant and other radical deputies boisterously left the Sejm, singing besides the "Rote Fahne", the Jewish "Hatikvah", the Ukrainian "Nepora" and the White Russian "Odwiekowy Spalt".

POLISH COURT FREES MACHNO; REARRESTED AFTER ACQUITTAL

Warsaw, December 5 (J. T.A.) The Brigand leader Machno whose bands had committed a number of pogroms throughout the Ukraine, was acquitted by a court here of charges of monarchist activities and separatist propaganda in Eastern Galicia. Machno with his wife had been imprisoned for several months before the trial.

The Prosecutor denounced the acquittal and Machno, his wife and the other accused were rearrested.

BRITAIN'S CHIEF RABBI ASKS AID FOR THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

$400,000 Reported Raised Towards New York's Half Million Quota.

New York, Dec. 5 (J. T.A.) Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Hertz, Chief Rabbi of the British Empire makes an eloquent plea to the Jews of America to support the Jewish Theological Seminary, "the spiritual rumpart of American Jewry," as he calls it in a letter to Rabbi Max Drob, Chairman of the million dollar endowment fund campaign for that institution, especially at this time, he says, "when the forces of reaction and race-hatred have joined hands against them".

Dr. Hertz was the first graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary. Following a short incumbency in Syracuse he was called to Johannesburg, South Africa. His work as spiritual guide of the Jews of that far-off country attracted attention in every part of the British Empire and when a little over ten years ago, it became necessary to elect a successor to the late Chief Rabbi Dr. Herman Adler, he was chosen unanimously.

Over $400,000 out of the $500,000 which is this city's quota of the Jewish Theological Seminary Endowment Fund has already been raised, it was announced at a meeting of campaign workers. The meeting was held in the Seminary building, 531 West 123rd Street. Temple B'nai Jeshurun, according to the announcement of $61 in. Stroock, Chairman of the campaign, has exceeded its quota of the total for the city with $50,000. Meyer Goodfriend, president of the Temple Ansche Chesed, reported that his congregation had raised a total of $30,000. Other contributions were announced, among them gifts of $5,000 each from Daniel, Simon and Murray Guggenheim.

Philadelphia began a campaign to raise its quota of $150,000 toward the Jewish Theological Seminary million dollar endowment fund at a banquet at which over $70,000 was raised. A special committee headed by Julius Mastbaum and including Dr. Cyrus Adler, Col. Samuel D. Litt and Ellis Gimbel, will conduct an intensive drive during the next thirty days to raise the balance.
