ARAB EXTREMISTS AND MODERATES CLASH IN KNIFING AFFRAY

King Hussein Declares Arab Question is Far from Solution.

Jerusalem, January 21 (Jewish Telegraphic Agency). Reports from Amman in Transjordan, where Arab notables of both the Extremists and Moderate Party have gathered for a conference with King Hussein regarding the proposed Anglo-Arab treaty, indicate that feeling between the two factions is nearing the breaking point. Partisans of the Extremists and Moderate Party have engaged in a knifing affray, as a result of which several men were arrested.

King Hussein of Hedjas, who is the recognized leader in the negotiations and who has been said to aspire to the Caliphate, has deemed it expedient to make a statement regarding the proposed treaty, his first reference to it since his arrival in Amman several days ago. Hussein declared that the Arab question is still far from solution and that he and his sons are prepared to devote their lives in the service of the Arab peoples. His statement that he will accept only what the nation itself is prepared to accept, is accepted by his adherents as refutation of the accusations of the Extremists that Hussein had already given his promise to sign a treaty which includes Transjordan and Mesopotamia, but which does not include Palestine, which the Extremists demand be included in any negotiations with the representatives of Great Britain.

Considerable significance is attached here to a visit on Hussein by Barlassina, Jerusalem Catholic prelate, and the attendance of Major Philby, British representative in Transjordan, at a dinner given for 60 Arab notables on Friday.

"First", said Dr. Wise, "the immigrants must be trusted. Unless they be trusted nothing will be well. Second; we must believe concerning America that it has a genius for healing whatsoever it touches and, on the other hand, we must have confidence in the immigrant himself and must not look on him as if he were an inevitable inferior. We must believe in him and trust him and he will reward America, as he has always rewarded America up to this time with fire and unflinching loyalty.
