London, Apr. 19.—An expression of thanks on behalf of the Jewish community in Great Britain and on behalf of the Board of Jewish Deputies to Lord Reading, retiring viceroy of India, was rendered at the monthly meeting of the Board of Jewish Deputies last Sunday.

Mr. D'Avigdor Goldsmid, president of the Board, in commenting upon the arrival of Lord Reading and the reception accorded by the city of London, stated that thanks are due to Lord Reading for the honor conferred upon British Jewry by the way he represented the King in India.

Lord Reading, returning to London after five years, was met at Victoria Station by Lord Colebrooke, on behalf of King George, and by Lord Birkenhead and Sir Ronald Waterhouse, on behalf of Prime Minister Baldwin.

NO CLEAR POLICY TO JEWS EXPECTED OF AVERESCU'S CABINET IN ROUMANIA

Joint Foreign Committee in London Submits Report on Jewish Situation (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Apr. 19.—No clear policy with regard to the Jewish problem in Roumania is to be expected of the new Roumanian cabinet, according to the report of the Joint Foreign Committee submitted to the Board of Jewish Deputies at the monthly meeting of the body last Sunday.

The new Roumanian cabinet consists of representatives of all shades of political opinion, the report states. Although Prime Minister Averescu is not an anti-Semite, the Minister of the Interior, M. Goga, is known as a strong anti-Semite. The anti-Semitic disorders have been checked, but further developments are to be awaited.

Dr. Leon Reich, former president of the Club of Jewish Deputies in the Polish Sejm, reported to the meeting on the situation of the Jews in Poland.

Czernowitz, Apr. 19.—The conflicting attitude of the new Roumanian cabinet toward the Jewish question was illustrated by the decision of the military authorities in Bucharest to permit the Jewish Cultural League to recommence activities here. The League was closed last November by an order of the previous government.

At the same time, the school authorities of Bukowina have prohibited the use of Hebrew and Yiddish as the languages of instruction in the Jewish schools, although this is a violation of the educational law of 1922, according to which the teaching of certain subjects in Yiddish and Hebrew is permitted. Representations to the central government in Bucharest will be made by the Jewish community of Bukowina.

100,000 JEWS HAVE SETTLED IN PALESTINE SINCE WORLD WAR

Fact is of Prime Historic Importance,
Weizmann Cables from Jerusalem;
Achievements Largely Due to
Interest of American Jews,
Dr. Wise States

Arrival of the first hundred thousand new Jewish settlers in Palestine was announced in a cable message received by Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, from Dr. Chaim Weizmann, President of the World Zionist Organization, who arrived recently in Palestine after a year's absence.

The settlement of the first hundred thousand Jewish pioneers in Palestine since the war was hailed by Dr. Weizmann as a "fact of prime historic importance," but at the same time he emphasized the imperative necessity of increased remittances from America so that the forward work could continue and the unemployed absorbed into productive labor through the creation of new settlements.

Dr. Weizmann in his cable reviews the situation in Palestine since his last visit a year ago and states:

"Hearty greetings and congratulations on excellent progress United Palestine Appeal. Immigration figures just compiled show one hundred thousand new Jewish settlers entered Palestine from 1919 to 1925 a fact of prime historic importance. Hundred thousand released from Ghetto bondage to free national life. Settlers absorbed in growing industries and agriculture. Common Hebrew language established despite many tongues of origin. School system and University growing. Second hundred thousand on way. World's interest our progress continues unabated. Relations with Arabs satisfactory. Cooperation increasing with growth Jewish constructive enterprises.

"Owing to the economic collapse of European Jewry continued increased remittances from America are imperative in order to absorb the unemployed into productive labor by creating new settlements and maintain immigration.

CONVENTION IN TEXAS

J. B. Morris, city attorney of Beaumont, welcomed the delegates in behalf of the city. "Patriotism must be reinforced by a spirit of fraternity and loyalty. The B'nai B'rith is an American institution, administering to the wants of the people of all denominations in all parts of the world," he said.

A detailed survey of the activities of the Order in philanthropy, better understanding and good will, cultural advancement, social service and Americanism were presented to the convention. The work of the Hillel Foundation and the work in Mexico were especially stressed as well as the celebration of B'nai B'rith day. Appeals to vitalize this day to popularize the activities and endeavors of the order were voiced. A national policy for social service activity, particularly applicable to the Order, was also recommended.

During the past year the plans for the Old Folks Home were adopted and the contract let for this institution, it was announced. The committee on finances were urged to continue supporting the work of the Jewish Chautauqua Society in providing lectures during the summer sessions at the colleges and universities of the district.

Latest Russian Monarchist Plot Bared in Paris

The plan of the Russian monarchists to take advantage of an expected upheaval in Europe and to reestablish Czarism in Russia with the aid of Italy, Hungary, Poland, Roumania, Serbia and the German monarchists, has been bared in three documents which fell into the hands of a Soviet agent in Paris and which are published in the New York "Herald-Tribune" of April 18.

The documents, written by Grand Duke Nicholas, were distributed among the delegates of the recent Monarchist conference in Paris which elected the Grand Duke the new Czar of Russia. Outlining the program to be followed the Grand Duke predicted a Monarchist restoration not only in Russia but in Poland as well and expressed the expectation that an army of 150,000 would be mobilized suddenly to begin operations against the Soviets "when the catastrophe in Europe commences." We read, among other things:

"Coming events throughout Europe, east of France, must be carefully studied. We must assume an attitude of opportunism and take advantage of these movements, catastrophic as they will be, and make immediate decisions.

"For that purpose, may I inform you that our movement has the full support of both the north and south German Monarchists. We have the unequivocal sympathy of Hungary, Roumania and Serbia. Poland even shows its sympathy materially. In Austria only our sympathizers are not powerful. Czechoslovakia is the only country where we may encounter serious objection to the realization of our anticipations.

"I have been approached by a number of Turkish statesmen who have pledged me arms and men. But we must not come into any agreement with the Turks, for our century-old policy dictates that the destiny of future Russia will never be a happy one until we have driven the Turk from both shores of the Bosphorus. Our most powerful allies will be the Italians. I anticipate and I am reliably informed—that Italy's aspiration to redeem her ancient territory on the Turkish coast of the Mediterranean from the hands of the Turks will be realized early in 1927.

"If such an undertaking is not materialized immediately, even Italy's attempt will leave Europe in suspense and will necessitate the concentration of Soviet forces near the Turkish frontier, for the Soviet ambition is to make a gesture in support of Turkey. Czechoslovakia will find herself completely occupied watching events toward the south, while Poland will, I am assured, take advantage of

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR THE NATIONAL JEWISH EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Zionist Organization Will Issue Call to American Jewry

Final arrangements for the holding of the national conference on Jewish education, called by the Zionist Organization of America, were completed at a meeting of the provisional committee which took place on Sunday at the Pennsylvania Hotel.

Besides the New York members of the committee, the cities of Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburgh, Newark and Washington were represented at the meeting which was held under the chairmanship of Mr. Emanuel Neumann. Telegrams signifying agreement with the proposed plan were received from various quarters.

Louis Lipsky, in his opening address, outlined the program of the contemplated League for Jewish Education, which is to concentrate on the work of spreading Jewish education. Among the delegates who attended the meeting were Bernard Semel, Jacob H. Cohen and Israel Chipkin of the Jewish Educational Association, A. Hirsch and S. Rubinstein of the Hebrew Teachers Association, M. Rybeloff, Dr. S. Ginsberg and K. Whiteman of the Histradruth Ivrit, Jacob Ginsberg of Philadelphia, Professor Nathan Isaacs of Boston, Dr. Isidor Abrahams and Charles Rosenbloom of Pittsburgh and Max Rhoads of Washington, president of the Avukah.

The representatives from Boston and Pittsburgh urged that the convention take place in one of these cities, instead of in Philadelphia.

The issuance of a call to organized Jewry in America was decided upon.

the situation and declare for a monarchy.

"Therefore, our forces should be concentrated and secretly augmented in three regions—Poland, Prussia and Roumania. It is necessary that each one of the army divisions in these three points should be maintained in perfect discipline and kept as a threat against the armies of the Soviet."

Lauds Guggenheim Fellowships

The list made public yesterday of the fellows appointed by the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, created a year ago, with an endowment fund of $3,000,000, by ex-Senator and Mrs. Simon Guggenheim as a memorial to a son who died in 1922, is commented on by the New York "Times" of April 19.

"These Guggenheim Fellowships are not confined to any one institution—in fact, they will be a benefit to some connected with no institution—but will cooperate with the work of many different universities and be an encouragement to aspiring scholars and artists everywhere. It would be hard to name a foundation more wisely conceived. The good it will do bids fair to go on widening with the years."

Rabbi T. Schaufarber has retired from his post as rabbi of Congregation Anshe Mayriv.

OUR DAILY NEWS LETTER

Jewish Social Relief Organizations in Europe Outline Aims

(By Our Berlin Correspondent)

Berlin, Mar. 25.—The plans for the future work of the Ort (Society for Promoting Agriculture and Handicrafts among the Jews), Oze (Society for Preserving the Health of the Jews) and Emigdirekt (United Jewish Emigration Committee), the three organizations of Jewish social relief which recently decided to unite for common action, were outlined to press representatives here today at a conference of the joint committee of the three bodies.

Dr. Singalowsky, who traced the organization and aims of the three separate federations, said that it was necessary for each of the three bodies to encompass the whole of Jewish life. "The Oze, for instance," he said, "could not restrict its activity to the healing of the sick. It must seek to prevent disease and epidemics, and consequently the whole social position of the Jewish masses came within its purview. The Emigdirekt, too, had to work in close cooperation with the other federations if it was to solve the question of emigration. And similarly, the Ort could do its work only in close cooperation with the other two federations."

"These three federations had to care for 275 institutions of the most essential character. The development of the work had gone so far that the local groups and the institutions themselves were able to cover the greatest part of their budgets. The capitals which the Joint Distribution Committee and other organizations had invested on the foundation of these institutions had borne rich interest. Nevertheless, the indescribable economic crisis in Eastern Europe had sealed up the local sources, and even if the prospects of the J. D. C. drive in America were justified, it would be impossible in view of the huge demands to place all hopes upon the J. D. C. The Jews of Western Europe must not withdraw from their duty of saving the East European Jewish masses from the annihilation which threatens them," Dr. Singalowsky emphasized.

Dr. Tcherikower, who reported on the working system of the three organizations, said that the Ort is directing 70 local organizations and 67 schools for technical training with 5,500 pupils, maintaining continuation training courses for artisans, and in recent years, with the assistance of the J. D. C., has supported about 11,000 Jewish peasant families and granted to 4,000 Jewish working class families credits in the form of raw material and machinery. The budget for 1925 amounted to $220,000.

"The Oze," he declared, "had founded between 1923 and 1925 in Russia and the Border States 14 institutions for mother and infant protections, 18 infant clinics, 63 school medical stations, 4 tuberculosis institutions, 24 children's sanatoriums and colonies, 48 ambulator-

COMMUNITIES FORCE AHEAD IN NATIONWIDE DRIVES FOR PALESTINE AND RELIEF

Newark and Columbus, O., Launch Joint Drives

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Columbus, Ohio, Apr. 19.—The campaign for a quarter million dollars for the Jewish Chest Appeal which includes the United Jewish Campaign, the United Palestine Appeal, the local Talmud Torah and the B'nai B'rith orphan home, will be launched tomorrow night at a mass meeting. Over one hundred thousand dollars has been received in advance pledges.

Rabbi James Heller of Cincinnati will be the principal speaker at the mass meeting.

Williamsport, Pa., Apr. 19.—The sum of $18,000, the largest sum ever contributed by this community to any Jewish purpose, was pledged to the United Jewish Campaign at a meeting here. This sum represents almost three times the amount originally set as the quota for this city.

Mr. Henry Myers was chairman of the meeting.

Newark, N. J., Apr. 19.—Despite the fact that the formal opening of this city's joint drive for $600,000 in behalf of the United Jewish Campaign, United Palestine Appeal and local Conference of Jewish Charities is more than five weeks' away, $133,350 or nearly one-fourth of the total amount was subscribed at a dinner of prominent Jewish citizens held at the Progress Club.

The initiative, in the pledges of initial gifts at the dinner, was taken by Felix Fuld and Louis Bamberger, prominent merchants and philanthropists. Mr. Fuld who presided, declared that he and Mr. Bamberger had decided to contribute $30,000 each. Jointly their subscription will be $60,000 or 10 per cent of the total amount to be raised.

A subscription of $25,000 from Michael, Albert and Benjamin Hollander, was announced. Nathaniel King, president of the Temple B'nai Jeshurun, pledged $10,000. Joseph Fish and Jack Meyer each pledged $3,000, and I. Diamond and Brother, $2,500.

The principal speaker at the dinner was David A. Brown, national chairman of the United Jewish Campaign.

Other speakers were Supreme Court Justice Samuel Kalisch, Aaron Levinstone and Morris Scheck, of Newark. Mr. Scheck is chairman of the United Jewish Appeal.

The Association of Reform Rabbis of New York City and vicinity has endorsed the $6,000,000 United Jewish Campaign of New York in a unanimous resolution. Rabbi Rudolph Grossman is president of the Association.

Henry I. Frank, pioneer figure in Chicago Jewry, died in that city. He had the distinction to be the first boy to become Bar Mitzvah in Chicago. Mr. Frank was responsible for the Michael Reese Hospital, for it was at his suggestion that money left by Michael Reese for charity, should be used for the erection of a hospital bearing his name, instead of distributing it to various charities, as was originally planned.

100,000 JEWS HAVE SETTLED IN PALESTINE SINCE WORLD WAR

Palestine looks to your continued maximum sacrifice."

Commenting on Dr. Weizmann's message, Dr. Wise declared:

"The announcement by the world Zionist leader that the modern Jewish exodus from the ghettos of Eastern Europe back to the Promised Land has already brought the first hundred thousand of them into Palestine, is a fact that stirs the imagination not only of the Jew to whom it spells the beginning of Jewish redemption, but to all men who are endowed with an historic insight and with the capacity to apprehend that an important stage has been passed in a movement which is bound to have a profound effect on the destiny of mankind. Comparison between the modern return to Palestine and the ancient exodus from Egypt which resulted in the creation of Israel and the Bible has been frequently made, so frequently, in fact, that the imagination is no longer impressed by it. When, however, we learn that the modern movement is expressing itself in terms of hundreds of thousands returning to Palestine, it is borne in upon us that we are standing face to face with development of first historic rank.

"It is not amiss to point out that the completion of the first stage, the settlement of the first hundred thousand, is the work largely of American Jewry, despite the fact that among those hundred thousand there is but a small percentage of American Jews. It is the Jews of America who have provided the means without which the movement could not have been consummated, means that in Palestine became converted into towns and colonies, roads and industries, schools for the instruction of the young as well as a University for the rehabilitation of the Jewish spirit.

"The best guarantee that we are only at the beginning of the modern restoration of the Jewish people and that the second hundred thousand will flow at an even faster rate than the first, is the fact that the generosity of American Jewry for Palestine is constantly growing. The response to the United Palestine Appeal this year has been greater and prompter than ever before. This response which comes not from the rich but from the large numbers of the comparatively poor, proceeds from a deep-seated historic consciousness of what the new phase in the history of Palestine means to the Jewish people. Our first appeal to the Jews of America in 1918 was for $100,000. Our appeal this year is for $5,000,000 and we are approaching the goal," Dr. Wise declared.
