JEW PARTICIPATE IN PAN-EUROPE CONGRESS SESSIONS IN VIENNA

United States of Europe Would Eliminate Racial Hatred and Economic Rivalry

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, Oct. 4.—Several Jewish European leaders took a prominent part in the first Pan-European Congress which opened here Sunday, when the movement to establish a United States of Europe, modelled after the United States of America, took definite shape.

The keynote of the Congress was sounded by Paul Loebe, president of the German Reichstag, and Francis de Laiss, a Frenchman. Count Richard Coudenhove Kalergi, an Austro-Japanese, who launched the movement in 1923, Rudolph Goldscheid and Bronislaw Huberman, who delivered the principal addresses. Many individual European Jews are furthering the Pan-European movement by giving it financial support.

Among the messages received from various countries were those from Luigi Luzzatti, Leon Blum, Georg Brandes, Georg Bernhard, Harry Warburg and Max Rheinhardt.

Count Coudenhove Kalergi, who is married to Ida Roland, a Jewess, when interviewed by the representative of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency here expressed his opinion that the Pan-European movement ought to find particular support on the part of the Jews who are scattered throughout the various countries in Europe. The creation of the United States of Europe would be beneficial to the Jews as it would eliminate racial hatred and economic rivalry, he said.

The idea advocated at the congress was the establishment of the United States of Europe, excepting England and Soviet Russia.

M. Briand, French Foreign Minister, regretting his inability to accept the invitation to attend, instructed the French Minister in Vienna, De Baumarchais, to officially represent France at the congress. France is the only great power thus officially represented.

PASMANIK DENIES REPORTS OF COMMUNIST PRESS; WILL NOT AID PETLURA GROUP

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Paris, Oct. 4.—Reports of the Communist press in Russia concerning D. Pasmanik, Russian Jewish leader affiliated with monarchist circles, were denied by Mr. Pasmanik in a statement issued to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency here.

The Communist press reported that Pasmanik will appear as an attorney at Schwartzbard's trial, representing the Petlura group. Many articles in the Soviet press were devoted to a discussion of this report, in which Pasmanik was attacked. Mr. Pasmanik declared in his statement that there is no foundation in these rumors as he is taking no part whatsoever in the case.

35,000 AMERICAN JEWS IN PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION AT SESQUI EXHIBIT

Senator Edwards Decries Intolerance; Jewish Contributions to America Lauded by Speakers

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 4.—Thirty-five thousand Jews participated in a huge patriotic demonstration in the grand auditorium of the Sesqui-Centennial, Sunday afternoon. The celebration was arranged under the auspices of the Independent Order B'rith Abraham.

The group, representing a colorful assembly of Jews of American birth and adoption, commemorated the birth of the United States and paid tribute to the part played by American Jews in its development.

Large delegations were present from many sections of the country, including New York, Massachusetts, Maryland and Delaware. Thousands, it is estimated, were turned away, after every inch of available standing room had been occupied.

The climax of an evening of laudation which began with the address of Mayor W. Freeland Kendrick, who welcomed the audience to the Sesqui, came with the address of Senator Edward I. Edwards, former Governor of New Jersey, who delivered a scathing arraignment of intolerance.

After reviewing the Jewish contribution to the development of the American nation, he declared that discrimination against the Jew has no place in a country which takes its principles of freedom from the Bible.

He decried the Nordic Conception of Americanism declaring that "No man is un-American because he is not 100 per cent Nordic. The Jew who comes

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS URGES SPEED IN REGARD TO MINORITIES COMPLAINTS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Salzburg, Oct. 4.—The procedure of the League of Nations in dealing with the complaints of the national minorities was discussed at Saturday's session of the International Congress of the Union of League of Nations Societies being held here.

The congress, in a resolution adopted, urged the League of Nations that the investigation of the complaints of the national minorities submitted to the League should not exceed a period of six months. When the efforts to reach a peaceful settlement between the majority government and the minorities fails, the Council of the League of Nations is to have the right to decide the matter without an appeal. If the parties resist, the Council is to enforce its decision, the resolution urged.

SOLOMON'S TEMPLE SITE EXCAVATED IN SEARCH FOR "HOLY OF HOLIES"

British Expedition Attempts to Find Ark of Covenant According to Propphet Ezekiel's Description

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Oct. 4.—Revelations of the deepest interest to Jews throughout the world and to students of archaeology were made yesterday in the "Sunday Express" by Col. Cyril Foley.

Col. Foley, who headed a British archaeological expedition to Palestine, relates the story of an alleged excavation of Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem in a search for the Ark of the Covenant undertaken by the expedition.

Col. Foley states that he was first approached in June 1919 with the suggestion to form a party to discover the Ark. The expedition was to be guided by the directions and measurements given in the text of the Prophet Ezekiel. No definite data has yet been given by Col. Foley, the article in the "Sunday Express" being merely an introduction, the author promising to continue the relation of the story in forthcoming issues.

CAUCASIAN OFFICIAL TRIED FOR EXTORTION OF JEWS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, Oct. 4.—A trial reminiscent of medieval practices was opened in Kuban, Caucasia. The main figure in the trial is a certain Dr. Adamiantz, a Caucasian official against whom charges were brought that he terrorized the Jewish population in the Caucasian mountain regions by applying medieval methods of extortion. Evidence submitted by the Jewish workers club showed that Dr. Adamiantz demanded fifty rubles from Jewish couples applying for marriage licenses.

OPPENHEIMER, AGRICULTURE EXPERT, DEMANDS CHANGES IN PALESTINE COLONIZATION

Is Hopeful for Outlook, But Indicts
Kvutzo System

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, Oct. 4.—An indictment against the Kvutzo, the Socialist co-operative form of farm settlement largely employed by the Zionist Organization in its colonization work in Palestine, was made by Dr. Franz Oppenheimer of the University of Frankfurt, Germany, in a lecture he delivered here at the Konzerthaus on his impressions of Palestine.

Dr. Oppenheimer, who recently returned from Palestine, where he studied the agricultural settlements, declared: "The fight of armed labor against capital in Palestine is senseless for the simple reason that there is no capitalism in Palestine. In the field of colonization in Palestine, the Moshav, that is the farm operated on a basis of individual ownership, is in the majority of cases sound and even capable of being taxed. There is also hope for the small Kvutzo, on the condition that reforms are introduced in these settlements. However, so far as the large Kvutzo are concerned, they spell wasted labor and money. The large Kvutzo produce only thirty per cent of the normal achievement. They are a waste and represent a terrible mockery of farming. In them, lack of discipline is the rule, based on a misunderstanding and false conception of freedom.

"It is the holy command of the hour to immediately disband the large Kvutzo. Only the Moshav type of settlement and the cooperatives, if placed under the management of a strong hand and iron discipline, for a period of five years, will make possible further colonization work. The communes waste men and money," he stated.

As to the general political outlook for Palestine, Prof. Oppenheimer stated his opinion that "in Palestine the Jewish people will never be the master people. There is only the alternative of a

INDEX TO "JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN" IS PUBLISHED

Throws Light on 10,000 Jewish Events
During Past Year

Then thousand events of Jewish life in the United States, Europe, Palestine and all other parts of the globe and the key to a proper understanding of the background of these events were presented to the public last week when the Index of the Jewish Daily Bulletin was published.

The Index, containing 10,000 items reported during the period January 1, 1925 to December 31, 1925, published by the "Jewish Daily Bulletin," throws light on all aspects of the situation of the Jewish population in various countries, in political, economic, cultural and religious fields. It also mirrors the reaction of Jewish communities to world events during this period and the attitude of the non-Jews toward the Jewish groups in each country and under various political conditions.

Much valuable data otherwise inaccessible is now available for those who are interested in Jewish affairs. Outstanding among the items included in the Index is data pertaining to the anti-Semitic movements in various countries, anti-Jewish disturbances following in the wake of anti-Semitic propaganda, political and social discrimination, the relation between the majorities and the minority groups in various countries, the Jewish relief work carried on by various Jewish and non-sectarian organizations in places of Jewish distress, the Jewish aspects of the immigration problem in various countries, the attempts of Jewish communities and organizations at rehabilitation and reconstruction endeavor, the archaeological finds in Palestine and the activities of the various communities in the Holy Land.

The Index, which is arranged alphabetically and according to subject, has been compiled by a staff of workers headed by Miss Frieda R. Biensack. It is provided with a foreword by Mr. Jacob Landau, managing director of the "Jewish Daily Bulletin."

The Index, which is the first attempt at a systematic arrangement of Jewish news items, presents a key to contemporary Jewish history. It is obtainable from the "Jewish Daily Bulletin" office and the price is $2.50.

PLAN FIGHT AGAINST

WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Oct. 4.—An international Jewish conference to combat white slave traffic may be held in London during next year, it was learned here today.

S. Cohen, secretary of the London Jewish Association for the protection of Girls and Women, has left for the Continent in connection with the convocation of such a conference. He will visit Poland, Germany, Roumania and other countries to confer with representatives of social agencies.

Fae West, a chorus girl in Ziegfeld's Follies, embraced Judaism to marry Dr. John Jaffin of New York. The ceremony took place at the St. Regis Hotel on Sunday. Mrs. Jaffin was the daughter of Mrs. Lillian Fitzgerald, who is a Catholic.

DIGEST OF PUBLIC OPINION ON JEWISH MATTERS

[The purpose of the Digest is informative. Preference is given to papers not generally accessible to our readers. Quotation does not indicate approval.—Editor.]

Professor Oppenheimer's Criticism

The statement of Professor Franz Oppenheimer, noted Zionist and originally the proponent of cooperative colonization in Palestine, that following his recent visit to Palestine he is disappointed with the state of colonization there because of the Socialist tendencies prevailing in the colonies, is discussed editorially by the "Jewish Daily News" of Oct. 3.

"It is true Prof. Oppenheimer does not mention the cooperatives, but when he speaks of the Jewish colonization settlements in Palestine he certainly cannot be referring to such colonies as Petach Tikvah, Rishon I'Zion, Rehoboth and the other settlements where Socialism never had any influence, has none today and never will have," the paper observes.

"It was Prof. Oppenheimer and none other who inaugurated in Palestine the experiment of colonies on a cooperative basis. It was under his influence that the Zionist organization invested large sums of money in these experiments about which there is still considerable difference of opinion today as to whether they will have any results or not. Hitherto they have all suffered deficits. It is therefore surprising to hear from Oppenheimer himself that Socialist tendencies are bad for colonization, exactly what the opponents of Oppenheimer's Socialist Zionism have contended right along. In other words, if the reports are correct, Oppenheimer has confessed that Socialist tendencies are a handicap to colonization. This would mean that he admits that the cooperative system which has absorbed so much money is wrong and that the opponents of Socialist experiments in Palestine have gained a new recruit—the father of the experiments himself!

"As to Prof. Oppenheimer's assertion," the paper continues, "that the solution lies in a 'strong man' who could help out the Palestine colonization, this will surely find approval in many Zionist circles. The opinion has been expressed long ago that the Zionist Organization ought to free itself a little from the rule of the radicals under which it is subjected in Palestine."

Further Millions

The arrival in the U. S. of Dr. Bernhard Kahn, European Director of the J. D. C., is commented on by the "Chicago Tribune." Says the paper:

"Dr. Bernhard Kahn, European director of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, has returned to America to tell of the distribution of $61,000,000 among European sufferers from the war and its aftermath. Dr. Kahn will submit his report at a conference to be held in Chicago next month at which plans will be laid for to America and is admitted to citizenship is presumed to be just as good an American patriot as is President Coolidge. His record and not his race should determine his patriotism."

America has become the melting pot, because it wanted to become the melting pot, he stated: "It was we who encouraged our neighbors across the sea to join hands with us in perfecting the magic alchemy which has made of us an unconquering and unconquered people. It was of our own choosing that America was made the melting pot of the world."

His own conception of the spirit of tolerance which should prevail he defined when he said: "No man is an alien who lives in and loves a free country; no man is without a country who is domiciled in America; no man is un-American because he is not 100 per cent Nordic. Americanism is defined in terms of deeds and acts, not in terms of racial distinctions."

"As a free born subject of this Republic and as a Senator of these United States, I deprecate with all the verbal energy at my command, the growing tendency in this country to revive a race prejudice against the Jew which up to a decade or more ago had been gradually disappearing."

"There is no place in our institutions, our lives or in modern history, for intolerance toward the Jew as a race."

"The Jew in the movement for American independence is not a myth. Neither is he a factor of impotence or intellectual nullity. Although no Jew immortalized his name on the great Declaration of Independence, Jewish history, Jewish minds, Jewish culture and the Jewish birthright which long antedates medieval and modern achievement left their imprint to guide the fathers. Your blood and my blood has thrilled to the same call of independence," he declared.

"Let us never forget that we are a happy conglomeration of alien tongues, indissolubly joined and we must not permit any class or any sections of these tongues, whether they be pure Nordic or of a mixed strain to dominate. Our material interests are as varied as the constellation above and it is because of this variety that we must pull together and aim at a common destiny. We must cultivate a disposition to tolerate opinions, beliefs, practices and conduct differing from our own."

"Of all the bigotries that ravage the human temper, there is none so stupid as the anti-Semitic." Thusly reads the tribute to your race from Hon. David Lloyd George. What then has the Jew to fear, if he is honest, upright and courageous?"

The meeting was opened by William Wahlberg of Philadelphia, Third Deputy Grand Master of the Order. The occasion was formally inaugurated with a blessing by Rabbi B. L. Levinthal. Judge Gustave Hartman of New York, Grandmaster of the Order presided. A welcome was extended by Mayor W.

OUR DAILY NEWS LETTER

France Needs 700,000 Additional Immigrants, Noted Authority Declares

(By Our Paris Correspondent, J. Shechtman)

Paris, Sept. 20.—That France's only hope of salvaging her national existence lies in immigration and that, in fact, the country needs and can easily absorb at least 700,000 additional immigrants, is the statement made here by Professor Roger Picar, noted French scholar and member of the Executive Committee of the League of Human Rights.

This conclusion, which will prove of no small interest to the Jews whose migration problem at present is so acute, was arrived at by Prof. Picar on the basis of an extensive investigation, the results of which he has now made public.

In 1911, according to Prof. Picar, France's population consisted of 36,605,000. After the war the country (not including Alsace-Lorraine) had 37,500,000. In absolute figures (not considering natural increase) France lost in the war more than 2,000,000 persons. Including Alsace-Lorraine the loss totaled 2,400,000. France cannot get along without these almost 2,500,000 individuals, for economic as well as military and political reasons. This is generally admitted. But who is to replace these 2,500,000 hands that toiled and produced before the war?

Prof. Picar contends it is the immigrants. He does not polemize with the chauvinists who fulminate against aliens. He produces figures, which show that: In 1911 there were 1,350,000 foreigners in France, while in 1925 there were 2,845,000, an increase of only 1,700,000. In order to cover the war losses France needs 2,400,000 persons, and, without figuring those that have already arrived, she must have at least 700,000 new immigrants. Without these 700,000 the country is short in hands for its factories, mines and farms. In this way, it appears, Prof. Picar says, that France is doing the immigrants no favor in admitting them, but on the contrary, the immigrants are enriching the country and helping it to regain its economic stability.

Prof. Picar explains that the 2,845,000

Addresses were also delivered by Congressman Wm. S. Vare, Republican nominee for the United States Senate and Senator Samuel W. Salus, President pro tem of the Pennsylvania Senate. Tribute to the Jewish contribution to American development was paid by Congressman Vare. The Jews, he stated, have contributed their full share to the moulding of American destinies.

A musical program was offered by Y. M. H. A. Choral Society, supplemented by fifty members of the Philadelphia Orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Isidor Freed.

Jewish Arab Palestine or an Arab Palestine," he stated.

Dr. Oppenheimer severely criticized Tel Aviv, declaring it to be "a Jewish shame." He expressed himself sharply against the speculation in land in that city. He predicted, however, a bright future for Haifa.

Dr. Oppenheimer stated at the conclusion of his lecture that the London Zionist Executive asked him by telegram for permission to publish the full text of his survey, to which he consented.

A statement issued yesterday by the Zionist Organization of America declared:

"In a cable received by Louis Lipsky, president of the Zionist Organization of America and made public yesterday, Prof. Franz Oppenheimer of the University of Frankfurt and an authority on colonization, states his conviction that there is a good outlook for Jewish agriculture in Palestine. Prof. Oppenheimer has just returned from a trip to Palestine, where he made a special study of agricultural methods. In his message to Mr. Lipsky he states that some of these methods should be changed in the interests of efficiency."

"Prof. Oppenheimer was associated in colonization experiments in Palestine and was the first to introduce the cooperative method at the request of the World Zionist Organization. The first cooperative settlement established under his supervision was the colony of Merchavia in the Valley of Jezreel. Prof. Oppenheimer's message, as made public by Mr. Lipsky, is as follows:

"In the interests of efficiency, I believe changing some agricultural methods indispensable. I am still strongly convinced there is a good outlook for Jewish agricultural settlement in Palestine."

CZERNOWITZ POLICE RAID JEWISH LABOR ORGANIZATIONS; NO REASON GIVEN

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Czernowitz, Oct. 4.—The Jewish labor club of this city was searched by the police last night. Many workers were arrested and documents were seized. It is understood that the search was ordered by the military authorities.

A search was also made by the political police at the Poale Zion kitchen where fifteen persons were arrested. The police also raided the office of the Hias, Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society, where two refugees, Korman and Trachtenberg, were arrested. Trachtenberg was recently released from the Jassy prison after serving fourteen months.

The reason for the arrests has not been made known.

The United Palestine Appeal Campaign in Baltimore, Md., will be conducted from Nov. 28 to Dec. 12. Dr. Harry Friedland is Honorary Chairman of the Campaign and H. L. Caplan, Campaign Chairman.

Mrs. Joseph Goldman is Chairman of the Hadassah division.

JEWISH PRESS HAILS

PILSUDSKI CABINET

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Oct. 4.—The Pilsudski cabinet was hailed by the Jewish press of the capital with satisfaction.

The "Hazeprira," Hebrew daily, expresses satisfaction at the fact that when the new cabinet was formed, the wish of the Club of Jewish Deputies was taken into consideration and the Minister of Education Sojkowski, responsible for the continuation of the numerus clausus, was not included. In his stead, former Prime Minister Bartel, who officially declared himself in parliament to be for the peaceful co-operation between Jews and Poles, was appointed.

A similar opinion is held by the "Hajnt" which particularly hails the appointment to the Ministry of the Interior of General Skladkowski, who as government commissioner for the city of Warsaw gained the favor of the Jewish population in his efforts to improve the sanitary conditions of the city. The appointment of Bartel to the Ministry of Education causes hope that finally order will be established in the ministry where most glaring anti-Semitism has been manifested until now. The other members of the cabinet show that the government is not pledged to any party. The paper expressed the hope that the new government will take the rudder of the state firmly in hand and will deal with the emergency situation which has arisen because of the Soviet-Lithuania treaty.

The "Moment" expresses the opinion that the appointment of Bartel to the Ministry of Education creates confidence in the minds of the national minorities. Deputy Wygodsky of Vilna writing in the "Moment," gives a description of the new Minister of Justice Meyssowicz, who is a native of Vilna and with whom the writer is well acquainted. Although not affiliated with any party—Meyssowicz is inclined to the Right. He is an advocate of Polish Jewish peace and is the first Polish cabinet member to have completely mastered the Yiddish language.

The Voelkszeitung, the organ of the Bund, is not satisfied with the new cabinet. The paper charges that the composition of the new cabinet shows that Pilsudski has made great concessions to the Right party.

"Cuvintoul," anti-Semitic paper published here.

This assertion was made by the paper in an article headed "The Board's Protest in Geneva," dealing with the complaint of the Anglo-Jewish Board of Deputies submitted to the League of Nations on behalf of the Jewish population of Roumania.

Miss Hortense Breckler and Miss Irma May arrived on Friday on the Nieuw Amsterdam from an extensive tour throughout Eastern Europe which they made at the request of the David A. immigrants who are now in France, more or less permanently, and who constitute 9% of the total population, consist chiefly of the following: Italians, 807,659; Spaniards, 647,156; Belgians, 460,352; Poles, 310,265; and other smaller groups.

It is predicted that Prof. Picar's observations will have practical results, owing to this scholar's reputation as an authority and also because of the prestige which the League of Human Rights of which he is a leader, enjoys in the eyes of the French government and the public in general. At the congress of the League on October 31, Prof. Picar will present his ideas on the subject of immigration and it is hoped that the Congress will endorse his views. If that happens the League will inaugurate a vigorous campaign in favor of encouraging a larger influx of immigration into France. The Jews of course will watch these developments with considerable interest.

BREVITIES

Baron Maurice de Rothschilch was elected Deputy in the French Chamber for the Hautes-Alpes Department by the majority of 10,540 votes, against 3,149 for the Socialist Ingheles and 3,145 for the Radical Forest.

This is the second time that Baron Rothschild won at the polls, but after his first election the Chamber refused to validate it on the charge that votes had been purchased.

The funeral of Isaac Frank, sixty-two, former police Captain and later an Alderman for two terms from the Brownsville section of Brooklyn, who died Saturday in the Lexington Hospital was held yesterday.

Results of an investigation made by the Indiana Republican Editorial Association of the political control claimed by D. C. Stephenson, former Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan in Indiana, to have been exercised over the Republican party in that state were submitted to a group of state senators.

The senators drafted a statement in which they declared that they were "astounded at the revelations of Chairman Adams" and declared "the evidence should receive legislative consideration."

Secrets and intrigues, bribery and corruption, the several years' iron-handed government by the Ku Klux Klan under D. C. Stephenson, the former Grand Dragon, promised to be laid bare within the next few days, a despatch from Indianapolis to the "New York Times" stated.

The special investigating committee of the Indiana Republican Editorial Association, headed by Thomas H. Adams, Vincennes publisher, held a mass of evidence, which Adams stated "will rock the State and the nation."

What probably is the first offer of music scholarships by a department store is the donation of twenty-five, one for younger students and one for advanced, by L. Bamberger & Co., of Newark.

According to the announcement by Spaulding Frazer, chairman of the executive committee of the Newark Festival Association and of the Bamberger Scholarships Committee, the firm has established a four-year scholarship at the Institute of Musical Art in New York for advanced piano students and a junior scholarship for a similar term calling for instruction at a New Jersey institution or by some carefully chosen private teacher. Persons employed by the donors are not eligible for the scholarships.

The scholarships will be open to students of both sexes between the ages of ten and twenty-five who are residents of New Jersey in the counties of Essex, Morris, Passaic, Bergen, Hudson, Union, Somerset, Middlesex and Monmouth.

PROFESSOR FALKENHEIM CELEBRATES 70TH BIRTHDAY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency Mail Service)

Berlin, Sept. 5.—Dr. Hugo Falkenheim celebrated his seventieth birthday yesterday at Koenigsberg.

For many years Professor Falkenheim has been active in the Central Union of German Citizens of the Jewish Faith. He has been a resident in Koenigsberg since 1885.

He was appointed Professor Extraordinary in 1896 at the Albertus University in Koenigsberg and head of the University Children's Clinic, which he founded. For many years he was unable to attain the regular Professorship because he was a Jew and it was not until the establishment of the Republic that this rank was conferred upon him. In 1924 he was made Dean of the Medical Faculty of the University. During the war he served as Doctor-in-Chief in one of the Koenigsberg prison hospitals and at the end of the war retired with the rank of Doctor-General in the Reserve.
