Judge David Refuses to Serve on Reception Committee

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 9.—Queen Marie, as head of a "government of bigotry, intolerance and persecution" should not be "kow-towed" to by Americans, was the rebuke of Superior Judge Joseph B. David, who today made public a letter refusing to serve on the Committee of the United Rumanian Jews of Illinois to receive the Queen. The organization has arranged to receive the queen here at the First Rumanian Congregation, Douglas Boulevard and Millard Avenue.

A large committee of Jews was sought to welcome the queen. Judge David's terse comment was the first inkling of possible difficulty.

"I have yours of the 5th instance," Judge David wrote to Mark Weissler, Secretary of the Organization, "inviting me as a member of the reception committee of the United Rumanian Jews of Illinois to receive the queen of Rumania, and in reply will state, I most respectfully decline to accept your invitation, given, no doubt, in good faith.

"My declination is justified by the following: In view of the treatment of the Jews by the government of Rumania, a government of bigotry, intolerance and persecution, and in view of the further fact that, as an American citizen, I pay no deference to a

PROPOSAL FOR INQUIRY ON CREMATION REJECTED BY WARSAW KEHILLAH

Rabbinate Moves Against Furnishing
Jewish Corpses for Dissection

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Nov. 9.—An inquiry to establish the consensus of opinion of world Jewry on the question of cremation was suggested to the Council of the Warsaw Jewish community following the recent controversy over the burial of a Polish Jewish merchant after cremation.

The suggestion was made by Adol Peretz, a Warsaw banker and leader of the Liberal element, to Deputy Kirschbraun, an Orthodox, who is president of the Kehillah Council. The President of the Council rejected the proposal, declaring that the question of burial in the Jewish cemetery is a matter which is entirely under the jurisdiction of the religious authorities, that is of the rabbinate and no inquiry from laymen can have weight on the matter.

Another incident demonstrating the respect which Polish Jews hold for the dead came to light when the rabbinate of Warsaw applied to the Warsaw district attorney, asking him to take measures against the action of the Jewish hospital.

Following the recent demand of Polish students that Jewish corpses be furnished for dissection in the clinics of the medical college of the Warsaw University, the hospital delivered a body of an unidentified Jewish woman who died in the hospital. When the news was published, relatives came forward to claim the body, identifying the woman as Mrs. Deborah Meisner.

MICHELSON'S ANNOUNCEMENT ON SPEED OF LIGHT STARTLES SCIENTISTS

Result of Long Research Extending Over Period of 40 Years Creates Interest Equal to That of Einstein Theory Several Years Ago

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Prof. Albert A. Michelson, American Jewish physicist of the University of Chicago, today announced discoveries concerning the speed of light that already promise to create almost as much of a furor in the scientific and lay worlds as the announcement several years ago by his friend, Prof. Albert Einstein, of the theory of relativity.

Speaking before the convention of the National Academy of Sciences, of which he is president, the small, shy physicist said he had determined that light rushes through space at the rate of 299,796 kilometers a second, or a decrease of about 36 miles a second over the figure of 186,000 miles a second that every school boy has been taught to learn.

This deviation from the old figure may cause a reshaping of the Einstein theory, as the Jewish mathematician in Berlin (who, incidentally, bears a striking resemblance to Prof. Michelson) based his theory on formerly accepted figures concerning the speed of light.

But Dr. Einstein will not be the only scientist to be vitally interested in Prof. Michelson's discovery. Mathematicians, philosophers, astronomers, and physicists throughout the world will have to overhaul their theories, their beliefs and their experiments.

Prof. Michelson has spent forty years investigating the speed of light, but the result announced today was the outcome of experiments conducted particularly during the last year with light beams that were shot from Mt. Wilson, California to Mt. San Antonio, a distance of 44 miles and back again.

"The results of five series of observations with revolving mirrors having 8, 12, and 16 facets," said Prof. Michelson, "showed a remarkable agreement, and gave us a final result for the velocity of light between the two points of 299,796 kilometers per second."

Prof. Michelson's discovery may lead to uncovering the secret of the velocity with which the earth rotates and likewise the speed of the entire solar system.

One of the principle features of the Michelson experiments is the discovery that the speed of light never varies, which leaves light velocity as one of the few, if not the sole, constant left to the world of science. Natural phenomena that only a few years ago were thought to be constant, have been discovered to change, but Prof. Michelson's statement about light is expected to remain.

Prof. Michelson's discovery was made possible by a machine of his own invention, the interferometer, and enabled him to obtain his figures with greater precision than has hitherto been possible. He described the instrument years ago as follows:

"It was devised for the purpose of solving a very ambitious problem—that of measuring the speed of the earth, and, with it, the whole solar system, through space. In order to solve this problem it was necessary to devise a piece of apparatus in which a single way train of light is separated into trains, or pencils, of light, moving at right angles to each other.

"Reflecting beams of light through a vacuum, and marking in, innumerable times and under all conditions, the return home of the divided rays, it was found that it makes no difference whether the light is traveling with the earth or against the earth's speed, it always traverses a given distance in the same length of time."

MONTREAL CANTOR OF SEPHARDIC CONGREGATION LAYS CLAIM TO PENINSULA OF LABRADOR ON BASIS OF GRANT FROM WILLIAM III.

Dispute Between Quebec and Newfoundland Over Possession of Peninsula Now Pending Before Privy Council in London

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Nov. 9.—Isaac de la Penha, cantor of the Spanish and Portuguese Congregation in Montreal, may settle the dispute of Quebec and Newfoundland for a stretch of land to the dissatisfaction of both.

Both the province of Quebec and Newfoundland are now contending for the right of possession of the peninsula of Labrador which comprises approximately 500,000 square miles. The case is now pending before the Privy Council in London.

When this dispute was brought before the Privy Council, Reverend de la Penha presented a claim for the land, which he stated was granted to his ancestors in 1697 by a decree of William III. The record of this grant is said to be preserved in the archives at Loo, Holland, where the de la Penha family, one of the many Jewish refugee families from Spain, settled during the Inquisition.

Charles Alleyne Taschereau, former registrar of the province of Quebec, who is now in London, was asked by the claimant to secure the original docu-

Labrador is divided politically between the governments of Canada, Newfoundland and the province of Quebec. The population is approximately 14,500 or about one person to every 35 square miles; it is made up of 3,500 Indians, 2,000 Eskimos and 9,000 whites. The peninsula comprises 511,000 square miles. Recent explorations and surveys have added greatly to the knowledge of this vast region and have shown that much of the peninsula is not a land of desolation but a well wooded country containing latent resources of value in its forests, fisheries and minerals.

DAWN OF NEW ERA IN UPBUILDING OF PALESTINE IS PREDICTED BY DR. CHAIM WEIZMANN

Answers Criticism Against Zionist Policies in Palestine; Shows Difference Between Palestine Colonization and Other Colonizing Efforts; Opposes "Military Phraseology"; Will Bar Its Influence Over Palestine Situation; Makes Impassioned Plea for All-Jewish Cooperation in Difficult Task Through Extended Jewish Agency; Wise, Lipsky, Neumann, Lewis and Arlosoroff Address Vast Gathering

The dawn of a new era of intensive activity in the upbuilding of Palestine as the Jewish national home was predicted by Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of the World Zionist Organization, in his first public message to the Jews of the United States since his arrival here, delivered at the Mecca Temple on Monday evening.

Over 5,000 persons crowded the hall to greet the president of the Zionist Organization on his fourth visit to this country, and listen to his description of the situation in Palestine which causes much concern to New York's Jewish masses, and to the outline of his mission of "peace and unity" in his final efforts to complete the organization of the Jewish Agency to include American non-Zionists in the body designated by the Palestine Mandate as an Advisory to the Palestine administration, on matters effecting the creation of the Jewish national home.

Emanuel Neumann, who opened the meeting, expressed the desire of the Zionist Organization of America to lend its loyal support to Dr. Weizmann's efforts in this direction. Judge William M. Lewis of Philadelphia, national chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, presided over the gathering. Dr. Stephen S. Wise, honorary chairman, in a moving address, paid tribute to Dr. Weizmann, declaring that no matter what happened five years ago in Cleveland, "there is no reason for anybody to absent himself from the work for the cause," adding a dramatic touch to the occasion when, finishing his address, he grasped Dr. Weizmann's hand as an expression of unequivocal loyal support. Louis Lipsky, president of the Zionist Organization of America, and Dr. Chaim Arlosoroff, Palestine Jewish labor leader who is a member of the Weizmann delegation, delivered addresses.

Dr. Weizmann Outlines Situation

Dr. Weizmann, in his address, gave a broad outline of the Palestine development, touching both on the political and economic aspects of the problem and answering some of the criticisms recently directed against the Zionist Executive.

"The two features, which were of upmost importance in the problem of upbuilding Palestine were: first, it was necessary to prove that Palestine could be rebuilt, and second, that Palestine could be rebuilt by Jewish hands. These two questions were answered in the affirmative to the satisfaction of the world's public opinion. The main factor which determined the political situation in Palestine and regulated the attitude of the mandatory power was the reaction of public opinion to the enterprise. In this respect the Zionist movement has achieved success. It was only a few years ago that the British Government looked upon the Jewish settlement of Palestine as an experiment which might, or might not fail. Governments move slowly and commit themselves only insofar as the facts of the situation warrant it. Today there is not a single serious-minded man in England who is not convinced that Jewish work in Palestine has come to stay and must be reckoned with. This situation in the Center has had its effect in other countries. This attitude of respect and consideration we find not only in England, but also in France, in Italy, in other European countries, not to speak of the United States. This progress has also been manifested in the so-called Arab problem, which has often been more acute in New York than in Jerusalem," he stated. "The Arab problem today has lost its acuteness and our relations with the Arab people are on a solid foundation."

Analyzes Z. O. Executive Policy

Dr. Weizmann analyzed the policy of the Zionist Executive in Palestine, declaring it to differ from all other methods of colonizing peoples. "All other colonizing peoples accomplish their task by means of material force. It is for the first time in the history of colonization that a country—Palestine—is being colonized by the methods of peace, not by the sword and rifle but by the hammer and plough. This is, perhaps, the secret of the world's satisfaction with, and admiration for, our work. There is not one living Arab who can complain that an injustice was done him in Palestine by the Jews. Thanks to this policy Palestine is the most quiet corner in the entire Near East, and we will forbid, as much as it is within our power, the use of any military phraseology or, for that matter, any kind of eloquence, to interfere with this situation or to break the line and style of our policy in Palestine.

"The two main lines of development in Palestine, agriculture and industry, are sound, notwithstanding all that may be said about the present unemployment. Just as in the agricultural development the Jewish settlers have succeeded in conquering the soil, that is, preferring to turn from mere devoted idealists into expert toilers of the land, acquiring knowledge of the peculiarities of the soil and the methods for its conquest, so it happened with the industrial development and the inauguration of Jewish handicrafts.

"During my eight days' stay in New York I heard no less than nine kinds of criticism. One, directed against 'your Sollel Boneh,' a workers' contracting cooperative, is of particular interest in this connection. Nine years ago there was no skilled Jewish labor in Palestine. When something had to be done, non-Jewish hands had to be called. The Jewish workers in Palestine have learned to 'conquer the work.' They have developed all kinds of handicrafts, and are becoming experts in their line. Here again there is a striking difference between our method of colonization and the general method. Other colonizing peoples employ the cheap labor of the natives, they exploit slavery for accomplishing their task. The Jewish workers in Palestine have raised labor to the highest degree.

"A complaint is made that the Sollel Boneh is not as efficient as it could be. I do not deny that there is room for improvement, but the workers' leaders will be the first to welcome any reasonable suggestion for improving its efficiency and productivity."

Emphasizes Mission of Peace and Unity

Dr. Weizmann, in summing up, without mentioning the Jewish Agency, referred to his plan concerning the extension of the Jewish Agency. The mission of peace and unity is engraved not only upon my heart, but upon every hill and vale of Palestine. The responsibility for upbuilding Palestine rests upon the entire Jewish people. Public opinion of the world calls upon every Jew, be he Zionist or non-Zionist, to do his duty in this direction. We must reach every Jew and urge him to do his share in the great task. We carry a heavy burden which can crush men much stronger than we are. The door must be opened wide for every Jew to enter and share in this responsibility. We have no right to leave out anyone. We have passed through great difficulties. We know, however, what is our task and what is our duty, and we march with sure steps toward the dawn of a new era in Palestine," Dr. Weizmann concluded. The crowd gave Dr. Weizmann a tremendous ovation.

Dr. Wise, in his address, referred to Dr. Weizmann as a page of Jewish history. Mr. Neumann, in welcoming Dr. Weizmann, stated:

"Last year the regularity of his visits was interrupted. Circumstances of a compelling nature detained him abroad; and we were deprived, at least in the immediate sense, of his counsel and support.

"It was a difficult year. Our counsel labored in heavy seas. In Poland our (Continued on Page 7)

ZIONIST REVISIONISTS PROTEST IN WARSAW

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Nov. 9.—A protest against the policy of the present Zionist Executive in formulating the aims of the Zionist movement was adopted at a meeting of Zionist Revisionists held here last night.

The occasion for the protest was the statement of Dr. Felix Rosenbluth, who, as a director of the organization department of the Zionist Executive in an address he delivered at the convention of the Austrian Zionists held in Vienna, declared himself against the Herzlian idea of a Jewish state. A resolution was adopted at the meeting urging the resignation of Dr. Rosenbluth and calling upon the Zionist Executive to declare its continued adherence to the Herzlian idea of the Jewish state.

Fritsch, Leader of Anti-Semite International, Fails Again in Charge Against Alleged Jewish "International"

(By Our Hamburg Correspondent)

Hamburg, Oct. 23.—Theodor Fritsch, notorious editor of the anti-Semitic "Der Hammer" and member of the Anti-Semite International, whose chief grievance against the Jews is due to his illusion that the Jews are organized into an "international" for the destruction of the Christian world, has suffered his fourth defeat yesterday in the case of the libel suit against him by the Jewish bankers Max Warburg and Dr. Melchior, when the Court of Appeals here upheld the verdict of the lower court sentencing Fritsch to four months' imprisonment. Whether this case is now definitely closed is not known since Fritsch's lawyer has intimated that further appeal will be filed from the decision of the Hamburg court.

The picture of Theodor Fritsch in court could be regarded as a symbol of the anti-Semitic movement in Germany. On the eve of his life, he is 74 years old, bigoted and narrow-minded, living mentally in a medieval world, he repeated all the outworn imbecile charges of the anti-Semites. Far from withdrawing or softening any of his libels in "Der Hammer" against the Jews generally and against Max Warburg in particular, he reiterated all his assertions. He charged the Jews with being the arch-conspirators of the world who caused the World War, brought on the Bolshevik revolution, effected the overthrow of the Kaiser and were planning numerous other such deviltries. To substantiate his statements he "quoted" the Old Testament, the Talmud and the Schulchan Aruch. He also "quoted" a number of modern books of an anti-Semitic nature and declared in the course of his speech before the court that "Bernard" M. Warburg had been at the head of the war industries in the United States during the war at the same time that Rathenau was in charge in Germany and that therefore it was clear that the war was caused by the Jews. His confusion of the names of Warburg and Baruch was significant, indicating his lack of knowledge as to real facts. In conclusion this old anti-

AMERICANS TO INSTALL ENGLISH I.O.B.B. LEADERS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Nov. 9.—Representatives of the constitution Grand Lodge of the Independent Order B'nai Brith, the largest American Jewish fraternity which has branches in various parts of the world, will come to England to bring the greetings of the parent organization to the English B'nai Brith.

The District Grand Lodge of Great Britain and Ireland in an executive meeting decided to invite the American leaders to participate in the installation of the officers of the lodge.

Rabbi Morris S. Lazaron, of Baltimore, will be the principal speaker at a joint luncheon of the American Legion of Delaware and other service organizations, to be held in the Du Pont Hotel, Wilmington, tomorrow, in observance of Armistice Day. Rabbi Lazaron served as chaplain overseas in a regular army regiment during the World War and is at present a major in the Officers Reserve Corps.

Semite made a melodramatic gesture and "quoted" a passage from the Prophets that the Jews "would overcome all kings and rulers."

Interesting in the same sense was the address of Fritsch's lawyer. He stated out with the assertion that he would give a review of the history of anti-Semitism from a purely "objective" point of view. But in the course of his speech he made so many incongruous, contradictory and abusive statements that the judge was compelled frequently to halt his outpour and order him to confine himself to facts pertinent to the case. The lawyer, named Jacobsen, repeated of course all the ancient anti-Semitic hokum. Again: the Jews are Bolsheviks, international financiers and perpetrators of all the world's evils. As a proof that the Jews were responsible for the overthrow of the Kaiser, Jacobsen cited the fact that Ernesto Nathan, the Italian Jew, was at the head of the Freemasons in Italy, hence it was Nathan who brought Italy into the war, and that contributed to Germany's defeat. Very "consistent" was the lawyer's argument regarding the Jewish role in America and Germany. In both countries, he pointed out, the Jew control the finances; in America Wall Street is entirely in the hands of Jews. What would be the eventual outcome of this situation? Germany will suffer Russia's fate, Jacobsen contended, because of the activities of the Jewish financiers. In America, however, no such disaster was foreseen by him.

Of course, it was easy for Attorney Samson, lawyer for Max Warburg to refute the ridiculous and senseless statements of Fritsch and his attorney. Great tensely prevailed in the court room when Max Warburg himself arose to speak. He made a number of statements relative to the facts in the case, speaking with remarkable consideration and reserve of his libeller, in view of the latter's age. In conclusion, Mr. Warburg ironically called Fritsch's attention to the fact that in a recent article in "Fritsch," had made assertions regarding the question of tariffs which leaned toward "Jewish" principles, and hence he could be accused of being under Jewish influence.

ORTHODOX VIEW OF ZIONIST MOVEMENT GAINS GROUND AMONG TRADITIONAL ELEMENTS, MIZRACHI CONVENTION HEARS

Organization Intensifies Activity, Attracting Women and Youth; $90,000 Fund, Organization's Share of United Palestine Appeal, Enables Various Functions in Palestine; Finance Agency Serving Middle Class Immigration Shows Considerable Volume of Business; Rabbis Subscribe to Bank Bonds

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—The Orthodox conception of the Zionist movement is gaining ground among the traditional elements of American Jewry and is finding expression in organized form. These were the tidings brought to the twelfth annual convention of the Mizrahi Zionist Organization which is in session here at the Jewish Community Center and is being attended by 320 delegates, mainly rabbis.

The extension of the activities of the organization and the fact that it is finding a greater number of followers, after a period of several years of diminished activities, was reported by Rabbi Mairim Magnes, General Secretary of the organization, in his report, which he submitted at the second day's session of the convention.

Orthodox women are being enlisted in the work for increasing the Palestine sentiment among the traditional elements, it was brought out.

Mizrachi Delegation Received by President Coolidge

Between sessions the delegates headed by Rabbi Meyer Berlin, called on President Coolidge. A photograph of the President with the delegation was made. A blessing was bestowed upon the President by Rabbi M. S. Margolis, of New York, seventy-five years old, honorary president of the Union of Orthodox Rabbis of America.

The blessing was the customary prayer prescribed for Jews on seeing a ruler of a country.

"Blessed be the Lord for having imparted some of His glory upon flesh and blood."

The delegation included besides Rabbi Berlin and Rabbi Margolis, Rabbi B. L. Levinthal, of Philadelphia. The rabbis were introduced by Rabbi Louis J. Schwefel, of Washington.

"Since our last convention we have established eighteen branches. Today we have one hundred and ninety-two of these branches, Rabbi Magnes reported.

"The membership of the organization has increased extensively. Our membership campaign was successful. The campaign brought in new life to the organization. The Mizrahi Bureau carried on an enlightenment campaign as to the purposes and ideas of the Mizrahi. Much was contributed to our campaign by our party organ, 'Unser Stimme.' For a number of years we were unable to publish our own newspaper, but since last April, when 'Unser Stimme' began to appear, we have been enabled to reach the masses with our ideas. We also carried on, during last year, increased oral propaganda, sending our speakers to various cities."

Interest of Women in Mizrahi Work Grows, Report Says

Rabbi Magnes then emphasized the development of the Mizrahi work among the Jewish women of America.

"The work among Mizrahi women has been greatly developed during the past year. The Ladies' Society of Chicago donated ten thousand dollars for the Girls' School, Tachkemoni. Many women's societies are now occupied with various enterprises in Palestine aside from their organization work here in America. They participate in all Mizrahi activities and are collecting funds for the Palestine work. The women's organization formed at our eleventh convention in Cleveland has developed during the year. We hope that it will be able to start practical work after this convention. The Mizrahi Hazair is also of great importance to our movement. The Young Mizrachists are the future of the Mizrahi. When the Mizrahi was organized, we neglected the youth. The Mizrahi Hazair has a great field and many opportunities for work. It has shown its ability to participate actively in the general Mizrahi work for Palestine as well as in the work for the United Palestine Appeal and the Keren Hayesod."

Better Relation with Z. O.

Rabbi Magnes then reported on the relations between the Zionist Organization and the Mizrahi, stating that the relations are much better now. "There is mutual understanding between us and the Zionist Organization regarding the question of general work. The leadership of the Zionist Organization is now convinced of the necessity of a strong Mizrahi Organization in America, also of the importance of the Mizrahi principles for the upbuilding of our national homeland.

"This new attitude of the Zionist Organization toward the Mizrahi has enabled us to go into partnership with them for the United Palestine Appeal. In the first year of the drive the Mizrahi received for its work in Palestine $90,000 of which $36,000 was allotted for Budget A and $54,000 for Budget B. Part of Budget A was received by the Mizrahi for the Hapoel Ha'Mizrahi. This year the Mizrahi will receive $60,000 for Budget A and $50,000 for Budget B. We also succeeded in getting other sums for work in Palestine," he stated.

"We are represented on the Board of Directors of the Keren Hayesod by seven directors and on the Administration Committee by two representatives. We have six representatives on the Shekel Board and carried on extensive work in selling Shekels in America."

Rabbi Magnes also reported on the general work now going on in Palestine.

The Mizrahi Bank in Palestine

The development of the Mizrahi Bank was described to the delegates at the convention by Rabbi Saul Silber of Chicago, who stated that in spite of the crisis, the bank continued to work prosperously without any losses. The extension of the business of the Mizrahi

Bank is apparent from the following figures, he said. From July 30 to September 30, 1926, the increase in the deposits amounted to $2,225. Bills handed in for discount during these three months showed an increase of $11,887. Especial activity was evident in the line of checks and foreign currency amounting to $130,479 on September 30, against $90,778 on July 30, thus showing an increase of $39,701 for the last three months. The sale of shares for the same period amounted to $1139. Adding that the deposits in the Mizrahi bank are safe investments, Rabbi Silber emphasized that the crisis could be overcome with more banks open, which would lead to a reduction of the interest on loans. Some of the most prominent merchants in Palestine do business with the Mizrahi Bank, he said.

The Mizrahi bank, he said, has shown that the task of this institution is two-fold. The Mizrahi Organization embraces a series of cultural and economic institutions for which it was essential to establish financial support. Further, it was intended that the Mizrahi bank should assist the middle class immigrants by granting them credits.

The management of the bank is also assisting clients, enabling them not only to carry their business by credit advances, but also to establish new credits. The following data illustrates the activity of the bank. All these figures refer to the period from the foundation of the bank until June 30, 1926, thus covering nearly a year of activity. The bank handled 3,029 notes amounting to $64,616 for discount. It is hoped that the bank will be able to pay a dividend after the expiration of the year 1926, because the income now exceeds the expenditures, he stated.

Rabbi Silber then stated that although the Fourteenth Zionist Congress decided that the Keren Hayesod would be obliged to participate in the shares of the Mizrahi Bank to the amount of $5,000 this decision had not yet materialized. It is the duty of the Mizrahi Organization to exert its influence in this direction in order that the decision of the Vienna Congress be realized, Rabbi Silber declared.

The Mizrahi Bank intends by the extension of its own capital, to grant credit for longer terms, from six to twelve months. The bank at present extends credit for 90 days, he said.

2,015 Mizrahi Bank Shares Sold on Rabbi Berlin's Appeal

Two thousand and fifteen shares of Mizrahi Bank bonds of Palestine were sold today at the Convention following an appeal made by Rabbi Berlin. Fifteen thousand dollars was collected during last year by the Mizrahi Ha'Zair, according to the report of Harry Karp, president. He reported that this organization, which was organized three

J. D. C. EXHIBITS IN PHILADELPHIA WORK BY JEWISH ORPHANS IN EASTERN EUROPE

Exhibit of Crafts Taught Jewish Children Under J. D. C. Care Tells Remarkable Story of Relief Activities

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 9.—An eloquent spokesman for the Joint Distribution Committee has arrived in America depicting the work being done for the thousands of orphaned children.

This spokesman represents the orphaned children of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Roumania, Lettland, Lithuania, Austria, Hungary and Turkey. It's name is the Orphan's Exhibit of Eastern Europe.

Early last week, these arrived in Philadelphia an exhibit of the handiwork fashioned by the orphaned Jewish children who have been trained in various vocations in schools, provided by the funds of the United Jewish Campaign. These exhibits, which ranged from the commonest kitchen articles, to the finest work of art, tell eloquently of the work of American Jewish relief.

The American Joint Distribution Committee cares for almost nineteen thousand orphans. The youngest ones were placed in orphanages. Those above school age were placed under such tutelage, as might provide them with a means of becoming self supporting. For this purpose the Joint Distribution Committee has provided twenty vocational schools, and fifty-four professional schools and workshops where 5,440 orphans receive that training which will make them financially independent. The work represented in the exhibit comes from these schools. The exhibit is now being erected in the campaign headquarters of the Philadelphia United Jewish Campaign, where it will be on public display the latter part of this week and continuing until the conclusion of the week's campaign for $1,500,000 which begins here on November 21st. The Exhibit will then be taken to the principal cities of the country.

The exhibit is of unusual interest, both for the variety of its articles, and the fine quality of their execution throughout. The whole is a portable museum, consisting of seven rooms arranged in a semi-circle, with a long corridor providing an entrance. The exhibit includes examples of rug weaving, embroidery, basket weaving, tailoring, dressmaking, tapestry and leather, stone carvings, etchings, furniture, upholstery, bookbinding, bone carving and filigree work.

One of the most interesting features of the Exhibit is a section called "The Room of Jewish Themes." This exhibition consists almost entirely of articles of religious nature, especially decorations for the Holy Scrolls, such as curtain, altar cloth and Torah Covering. This is a gift from the orphans of Lemberg to a Temple in New York. A Torah covering of an old synagogue was used for the pattern of these articles. All the embroidery is done by hand by orphan girls. The room represents work of orphaned children from many sections of Eastern Europe.

Another interesting exhibition is the work of the Boys Manual Department which has two rooms set aside for its display. In the first one sees examples of furniture work. Poland contributes a complete bedroom set; Roumania a small writing table and bench; Lettland, a display table upon which Meerscham pipes are arranged. There is also a sofa fashioned by the orphans of Vienna, and a tiny sofa and rocker from Mukacevo.

A mask and a standstone statue of the "Golem" lend atmosphere to the room. Both are the work of Moses Zyffier, a Vienna orphan, who is receiving a training in art through the J.D.C. Other examples of artistic accomplishment are plaster of Paris figures, the head of an old woman, "The Rabbi and His Pupil." Both are the work of eighteen year old orphans, the former by Abraham Bloch of Vienna, and the latter by Pinchos Lewinson of Vilna.

Adjoining this room is a display made up entirely of locksmith work, such as forging, clamps, and mechanical figures. Worthy of especial mention are a miniature spiral staircase, and three models of wagons.

The entrance to the various rooms of the exhibit is very beautiful. The walls are hung with portraits, in pencil, charcoal, and oils, all executed by the children.

JEW DEFEATS KLAN FOR COLORADO STATE SENATE

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Denver, Colo., Nov. 4.—Ira L. Quiat was the only Jewish candidate elected to the Colorado state senate from Denver. Quiat was the bitterest opponent of the Ku Klux Klan which was a vital issue in the Colorado campaign. The Klan suffered a reverse in the elections in this state.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 9.—Four Jews were elected to the New Jersey House of Assembly last week. Joseph Altman of Atlantic City; Morris E. Barison and J. Greenberg of Jersey City; and Louis N. Freeman of Newark, are the legislators. Messrs. Altman and Barison were re-elected.

Assemblyman Basil B. Bruno of Long Branch, who at last year's session sponsored the so-called "Bible Bill" in the legislature, was defeated for the office of Sheriff of Monmouth County.

Advance contributions totaling $1,204,590 from the trustees of the ninety-one affiliated institutions of the Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies were announced by Sol M. Strock, President of the federation, toward the $4,720,000 campaign for which was opened Sunday night.

At the annual dinner of the Ethical Culture Society Monday night at the Hotel Majestic Dr. Felix Adler, founder of the society, launched the second half of a campaign for $1,000,000 to build a great professional school of business. More than $580,000 of the required sum has already been raised.

years ago to spread the Mizrahi principles among the Jewish youth in America has also rendered aid to the Mizrahi Chalutzim in Palestine. Of the $15,000 collected, $2,000 were assigned for the Mizrahi workers' cooperative, Olim Bonim in Palestine it purchased 500 shares of the Mizrahi bank and contributed $4,000 to the National Fund, and $5,000 to the United Palestine Appeal. The Organization also assigned $4,000 to build an immigrants house for the Mizrahi Chalutzim in Palestine. It seeks to raise during the coming year, $10,000 for the Mizrahi workers cooperative. Mr. Karp demanded that the Mizrahi Convention assign a subvention of $5,000 to enable greater work by the Mizrahi Ha'Zair. Speaking of the Olim Bonim, he emphasized that last year the Mizrahi Organization of America created a substantial fund for this cooperative. This year the work of this cooperative must be increased in order to solve the unemployment problem among the Mizrahi workers.

The Mizrahi has a deficit of $5,000, according to the financial report submitted at today's session by Abraham Cahn, treasurer. The report shows an income of $36,898 of which over $6,000 was for the purchase of shekels, and $25,000 for propaganda purposes.

The general administrative expense of the American Mizrahi from May, 1925 to November 1926 amounted to $22,993 resulting in a deficit for the period of over $17,000 against which the Mizrahi World Organization allotted $12,000.

Over 500 persons attended the banquet given Monday evening. The amount of $5,000 was subscribed following an appeal by Rabbi Berlin who, in his address, dwelt at length on the present situation in Palestine. Referring to the crisis, he said: "Stones must be split in order that houses may be built and wherever stones are split, there must be noise."

Among the contributors were Jacob Goell, Brooklyn, $500; Abraham Cohen, of Washington, $400; Rabbi B. Levinthal of Philadelphia, $200; $150 each from A. M. Tavisky, Mizrahi Emanuel Ladies Society of Detroit and Mizrahi Ladies Society of Boston. One hundred dollars each was contributed by B. Shurr, Dr. P. Churgin, S. Goldstein, Harry Karp, S. Levin, M. Schurr, M. Nemirov, Joseph Polstein, Sam Paulstein, J. Dauber, Max Kalikov, O. Preissman, The Ladies Mizrahi Societies of Chicago, Pittsburgh and Minneapolis and Rabbi S. Levy. Rabbi A. M. Ashinsky of Detroit was toastmaster at the banquet.

DIGEST OF PUBLIC OPINION ON JEWISH MATTERS

Proposes Jewish National Repatriation Loan Under League's Auspices

A Jewish national loan under the auspices of the League of Nations, similar to the Greek and Bulgarian repatriation loans, to be used for settling in Palestine the thousands of Jewish refugees who are still scattered in various parts of the world as well as Jewish emigrants from Poland and other countries, is the plan urged by M. Frostig, Polish Jewish leader and member of the Sejm.

Presenting his views in "Dos Yiddische Folk" (Nov. 5) of New York, Deputy Frostig outlines the successful activities of the Greek repatriation loan, of which Henry Morgenthau was the head:

"In the first eighteen months of its activities the Autonomous Commission in charge of Greek repatriation colonized 70,000 families, and if we assume that each family consisted of five members it means that in a period of about a year and a half 350,000 homeless Greeks were settled in their own country. If we compare these figures with the number of people whom we desire and must colonize in Palestine, we can see how much can be accomplished in the field of mass colonization if only we and the necessary financial means. In a brief period the Autonomous Commission erected 35,000 houses and supplied the colonists with 130,000 heads of cattle, besides furnishing them with tools, seeds, etc. The re-emigration process of the Greeks from Minor Asia was carried out in the best order; Greece began to prosper economically thanks to the new human material and working capital and the $50,000,000 which had been borrowed for this purpose became a blessing for the country and for the Greek nation.

"What was possible for Greece and Bulgaria must be, and is in our opinion, possible for the Jewish people. We Jews too, have our hundreds of thousands homeless families who are scattered in nearly all European countries. In Poland, France, Germany and Belgium, there are tens of thousands of Jewish families that have no citizen rights in these lands and are being tolerated merely as 'homeless ones.' They are constantly threatened with expulsion and new wanderings because they are in fact citizens of no country, their citizenship not being recognized by any government and living on the basis of the well known Nansen passports.

"Tens of thousands of other Jewish families must emigrate from Russia and especially from Poland where the economic ground is being taken more and more from under their feet. We Jews were always a people of wanderers and the World War completely shattered our former possibilities for existence in the East European countries. We are forced to wander to escape and we have no where to go except Palestine.

"What Greece and Bulgaria—after all but two small and weak Balkan countries—were able to accomplish should also be possible for the 15,000,000 Jews of the world. And what the world regarded as necessary because of social and humanitarian reasons to do for Greece and Bulgaria, it should also do for the hundreds of thousands of Jewish refugees, who are homeless, hounded, in despair, a great misfortune to the Jewish people and a social menace to the European countries."

The Jews in Canada and Queen Marie

Resentment at the participation of Canadian Jews in the reception to Queen Marie is voiced by the "Canadian Jewish Review," of Toronto. In an editorial of Nov. 5, under the head "Poor Shadlonim" (self-appointed representatives), the paper contrasts the behavior of the Jews with that of the Ukrainians in Canada whose delegation to the Queen protested against the treatment of their brethren in Roumania. The paper writes:

"It was surprising—and indeed mortifying—to hear that some of our Jewish citizens had so little self-respect as to go cringing before the Queen, and offer their unwelcome homage. The heading in the press read that 'members of the Roumanian colony' appeared to welcome their Queen. If such was the case we should not be concerned. But the names and the accompanying photographs revealed what the initiated might have expected: the 'Roumanian colony' were Jews. And they were Zionists at that!

"Roumania has treated her Jewish population more atrociously than even Russia of the Czar. And at the very moment when the local Jewish citizens were smiling their hypocritical smiles at the Queen, Jews in Roumania were being subjected to the most inhuman cruelties.

"A delegation of Ukrainians appeared before the Queen too. They were not Jews. Their brethren were being oppressed in Roumania. The Ukrainians did not fawn. They did not bear flowers. They did not prattle prayers. They spoke up like men. They reminded the Queen that Ukrainian men and women were being treated inhumanly in her land where she is Queen. They asked her to exercise whatever influence she may have to change the condition of the Ukrainians.

"A Jewish rabbi desecrates the holy tongue when he reads adulatory addresses to the representative of a land which humiliates and grinds down his own brothers. The Jewish girls who knelt with their floral offerings before Queen Marie were degrading the Jewish sense of self-respect. The Queen must have looked at them and thought: 'What? Some more Jews! I hate them in Roumania. What do they want of me here?'" brother-Jews suffered economic collapse. The effect of the disaster could not be confined or localized. It crossed into Palestine causing a severe depression, bringing in its wake hardships and distress. There was talk of a crisis; and at once the word was seized upon and exploited by our antagonists. The manufacture of political capital out of shoddy materials is one of the oldest industries known to civilized society. Its technique dates back to the days of classical antiquity and has been carried to a high degree of perfection in this more efficient and competent age.

DR. WEIZMANN PREDICTS DAWN OF NEW ERA IN WORK OF PALESTINE REBUILDING

"And so throughout Europe there was an outburst of anti-Zionist propaganda. Our temporary difficulties in Palestine were exaggerated to fabulous proportions. Inspired prophets predicted the doom and downfall of our movement and the ruin of all our work. Unfriendly newspapers threw open their columns to the insincere Jeremiahs of our opponents. Dead organizations that had been laid low in previous conflicts with the forces of Zionism were now again pressed into service. Their lifeless corpses were resurrected for the occasion and made to stalk grotesquely across the arena of Jewish life. Sinister figures crept out of dark corners to thrust a sword into the vitals of our national movement.

"The anti-Zionist wave spread to other parts, and threatened to inundate this country as well. Symptoms were not lacking. If that madness had succeeded here, it would have affected our movement at a most dangerous and vulnerable point; for it would have struck a blow at the base of supplies, upon which the progress of our work in Palestine so largely depends.

"We stand a disciplined and victorious host and salute him in whose hands is the supreme command. The hour is big with destiny. Weizmann is here to lead, and we rejoice in his leadership. His message and mission is peace. We are prepared to follow him in peace as we have followed him in war. We ardently desire peace with all who share our dreams and our visions, our responsibilities and our burdens. We are loath to regard as adversaries even those by whom we have been at times misunderstood. We yearn for that peace which comes from common striving for a common goal," he stated.

Twenty kosher butchers of Newark, N. J., and Rabbi Jacob Mendelson, head of the Vaad Hakashruth of that city are scheduled for trial November 29 on charges of a conspiracy to prevent the sale of kosher meat to butchers who are not members of the Kosher Butchers' Association. All but four of these men, who were indicted last week, are members of the Association. Rabbi Mendelson is charged with refusing to issue certificates of kashruth to non-members of the Association. All men are under $1,000 bail each pending trial.

Adolph Copeland, Jewish communal leader in Chicago and head of the Hias branch in that city, was among those who attended the farewell dinner in New York last Sunday to Dr. Kreinin, head of the Emigdirekt who is returning to Berlin.

The rabbinate then asked the district attorney to order the clinics to return the body. The management of the Jewish hospital was also urged by the rabbinate to turn over the bodies of unidentified persons to the Chessed Schel Emes, the Jewish free burial society.

A concert of Hebrew music will be given at Carnegie Hall, New York, in December. The concert will include traditional music, liturgical, folk, and works in larger forms by present-day Jews. Lazare Saminsky, the composer and scholar, one of the directors of the League of Composers and musical director of the Temple Emanu-El, is in charge of the program. The concert will be a benefit to be given under the auspices of the League of Zionists-Revisionists. As a member of the Baron Horatio de Guinzbourg's Jewish Ethnographical Expedition, Mr. Saminsky has collected many remarkable religious and secular songs of the Jemmenite, Georgian, Galician, Polish, Spanish, Southern Russian and Lithuanian Jews, many of these will figure on the Carnegie Hall program. The patroness list for the concert includes the names of Mrs. Leopold Kehlman, Mrs. Max Fawcett, Mrs. David Podolsky, Mrs. Rose Levitan.

An INDEX of Jewish Life

(Editorial from "The Jewish Times" of Baltimore, October 29 Issue)

"Ten thousand events of Jewish life in the United States, Europe, Palestine and all parts of the globe for the year 1925 and the key to a proper understanding of the background of these events were presented when the INDEX of the JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN was published recently. It mirrors the reaction of Jewish communities to world events during this period and the attitude of the non-Jews toward the Jewish groups in each country and under various conditions. These reactions have been made possible through the JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN and the JEWISH TELEGRAPHIC AGENCY.

"Before Galileo drew men's imagination to worlds outside of their immediate surroundings, the vision of mankind must have been narrow and ugly. Philosophers say that the clock, common-place enough today but rare in the middle ages, gave a wider horizon and imparted a new sense of relativity to events and things, as it tolled the hours in the town steeple. The HOROLOGE of TIME in the Jewish world may well be the JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN, which effected the adjustment of the Jew to his generation through its service.

"It is inconceivable how any intelligent Jew can be without it. The prompt recording of Jewish thought and events affecting Jewish life all over the world, constitutes one of the most romantic bits of contemporary history. Not a law is passed involving the interest of the Jew, not an individual of the race is hurt or elevated, without the event being reported the next morning on the desks of all who presume to lead Jewry in America, in England, in Germany—in every country. The result of this service is a well-integrated Jewish life, a much-needed sense of unity in Israel in many movements."
