HEATED DEBATE IN U.S. SENATE BEFORE WADSWORTH AMENDMENT WAS PASSED Matter Now Up to House and Senate Conferences; Marshall Welcomes Adoption of Amendment

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Washington, D. C., December 15.—The vote in the Senate on the Wadsworth Amendment for the admission of 35,000 wives and minor children of declarants calling for return home from the fighting camps in the course of which Senator Wadsworth made a fight for his measure, succeeding in obtaining action thereon despite the rejection by the Senate Immigration Committee last session. Senators Wadsworth, Cope- land, of Massachusetts, and Bruce of Maryland spoke for the bill and Senators Reed of Pennsylvania and Heflin of Alabama led the debate against the bill. The measure will now be referred to the Committee of Conferences, representing the Senate and the House, which will be referred first to the House itself, which would have probably greatly delayed action.

The Reed Bill, which was passed along with Wadsworth's amendment, admits as non-quota immigrants women who lost their American citizenship by marrying aliens prior to the Cable Act. If Congress accepts the amendment they will make their report to the House and, barring unexpected events, an early vote will probably be taken by the House.

Whether the House Conferences will accept the amendment is a question. The Senate's favorable action does not assure acceptance by the House which is necessary before the amendment can become a law. The House Conferences will probably be Congressmen Johnson, of Tennessee, White of Kansas, Sabath of Chicago, and Raken of California, except Congressman Sabath are not particularly friendly to liberal immigration. Of the Senate Conferences, Senators Hiram Johnson, Keys of New Hampshire, Willis of Ohio, King of Utah and Harris of Georgia, King and Johnson are probably sympathetic, whereas the others are more or less unfavorably disposed toward liberal immigration.

As the majority of both groups of the Conferences are opposed to a liberal immigration policy, there is a danger, therefore, even if the conferences do not refuse to accept the amendment outright that they may compromise by

ROUMANIAN GOVERNMENT SUSPENDS JEWISH PAPER

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Bucharest, Dec. 15.—The Czernowitz Jewish daily, "Morgenblatt," was suspended for three days by an order of the Ministry of the Interior Goga.

The order was issued as a result of charges made by anti-Semitic leaders that the newspaper has insulted the Christian religion.

During the debate which took place in Parliament yesterday concerning the relations between the League of Nations and Roumania, Alexander Curza made the claim that the League of Nations was founded and is being administered by Jews. "The League of Nations is altogether a Jewish affair," he stated.
President Coolidge Felicitates Marshall

President Calvin Coolidge sent his felicitation to Louis Marshall on the occasion of his seventieth birthday on Tuesday. The President wrote:

My heartiest congratulations to you on your completion tomorrow of seventy years of age. May it be a very happy day and may your strength be preserved to carry on your good work. Your fine legal attainments are always used to further just right for all and your intelligence in public causes has made you a standing citizen for many years. My best wishes for health and happiness.

In a cablegram signed by Osmond E. D'Avigdor Goldsmid and Claude Montefiore, Joint Presidents, Mr. Marshall is congratulated on the occasion of his seventieth birthday by the Jewish Foreign Committee of the Board of Deputies and the Anglo-Jewish Association. The cablegram read:

"The Joint Foreign Committee of the Board of Deputies and the Anglo-Jewish Association offer you their warmest congratulations on the occasion of your seventieth birthday and hope that you may be long spared to continue your great record of service to Jewish progress and the defence of Jewish rights."

JEWISH CONGRESSMAN IS URGED FOR N. J. GOVERNOR

(Philip J. Herschel)

Philadelphia, Dec. 15.—Congressman Isaac Bacharach of Atlantic City is being considered for the Republican nomination for Governor of New Jersey, it is learned here. William H. Reeves, clerk of Burlington County, and a G.O.P. leader in Southern New Jersey, which generally goes Republican, is supporting Congressman Bacharach's candidacy.

"We have tried to elect many northern Republicans to the Government and failed," said Reeves. "Now we should try the southern section, where there is no better candidate than Congressman Bacharach."

A new treatment for narcotic addiction of every sort, so successful that it holds forth the possibility of cure of the habit for all who desire to save their health, has been delivered with confirmatory tests in Correctional Hospital on Welfare Island.

The specific agent in the treatment is Narconan, a patented compound developed by A. S. Kravitch, a doctor who immigrated from Hungary shortly before the war and now has laboratories in New York.

cutting down the number of immigrants admissible. The Senate vote came after the previous efforts of Senator Wadsworth last year to obtain consideration of the amendment had failed because of the parliamentary situation.

Congressman Perlman, author of the companion bill to Wadsworth's amendment in the House, announced following the Senate vote his decision that he will immediately make an effort to persuade the majority of the Republican Congressmen to forward the acceptance of the amendment.

Just before the Wadsworth amendment came up in the Senate the House Committee granted a hearing for next Thursday to Congressman Sabath on his bill to admit a limited number, not to exceed one tousand five hundred for any one country, of parents over fifty-five and children over twenty-citizens, unmarried children under eighteen and the wives of decla-ents who have resided in America for at least three years. Congressman Sabath

The Wadsworth amendment, however, will probably admit a larger number of wives and children of declarants than Sabath's measure. If Wadsworth's amendment is accepted by the Congresses, Sabath may abandon his bill.

Congressman D. Epstein who previously communicated his intention to ask for a hearing on his bill, which would admit a larger number than Sabath's supported Sabath's request for a hearing on his bill in deference to the latter's seniority on the Committee and to facilitate some favorable action to liberalize the law.

Louis Marshall expressed his appreciation of the vote taken in the Senate on the Wadsworth amendment when interviewed by the representative of the "Jewish Daily Bulletin." Mr. Marshall stated: The adoption of the Wadsworth amendment, does not constitute a change in immigration law, but represents an effort to hu-manize the effect of the immigration laws. It will make possible the uniting of husbands and wives and children of their parents, a measure which every human being will heartily welcome.

its fate and course did not depend on the question of personal privilege and insist that in view of the charge implicing the Federal Reserve System with a sinister control that the House should take cognizance of the incident.

In his statement on Henry Ford's charges, Dr. Stephen S. Wise declined: "It is too sad for words.
Nathan Straus, ringleader in a consspiracy to keep children alive and healthy, is now making a lie against Henry Ford. Sportsmanship in the elementary decencies dictated its acceptance. Instead of that, poor Mr.
Ford, pitifully poor, despite his fortune, replies to Nathan Straus by returning the compliment to Nathan Ford,—the false character of which was definitely established some years ago by some of the foremost scholars and teachers of the nation.

""Nathan Straus has evidently been honest. He did Henry Ford the honor to take his charges, to wring from him a recantation which might originally have been made in error. But, no, Henry Ford is evidently under the dominance of a group, which will not permit him to know the truth.
Or, else, he is a victim of the manifestation of a delusional mania.

""The Christian world, which rea-sions and feels aright, knows what to think of the Ford charge of Jewish omnipotence in the light of the truth that nearly half the Jews of the world are without elementary rights. It's a fact that in Eastern European lands, the fact that Mr. Ford is a successful manufacturer of four-wheeled arcipodes does not invest with special value his judgment on all problems. In the light of his latest outburst, there is no question that 'false fixed', men will know how much weight to attach to statements made by Henry Ford on subjects unconnected with the field of locution," Dr. Wise concluded.

""Herman L. Hintzen, publisher of the ""Jewish Tribune"", issued a statement which read in part: "The reiterated charges which Ford makes now, a re-hash of the offensive and false statements contained in his series of articles on the International Jew" require no answer at this time. They were answered long ago. Like all anti-Semite falsehoods and fabrications, old and new, his charges have no less to stand on. It is Henry Ford who should defend himself for violating the commandment 'Thou shalt not bear false witness'."

With a total of $9,100 reported, the campaign in Baltimore, Md., ended last Monday night, December 13, with a dinner at the Southern Union. To this sum, it is expected, the local Hias will add $9,605, bringing the total amount to $18,755. The money has not yet been made. It is expected the total will reach $20,000.00.

The quota set for the campaign in Baltimore was $18,000.00.

Speakers at the dinner included Rabbi Adolph Cohen, of the Chorok Anno Synagogue, Dr.
Jew, Harry T. Kellman, Mrs.
Emil Crockett, Mrs. Joseph Goldman and Manuel Hendler.
HOME FOR AGED, ERECTED BY DAUGHTERS OF JACOB, OBSERVES 30TH ANNIVERSARY Charitable Efforts of Jewish Women Praised

Seven hundred friends of the Home of the Daughters of Jacob, the largest home for the aged in the world, celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of its establishment with a banquet at the Hotel Astor Tuesday night.

Samuel C. Lampert, who introduced the speakers of the evening, paid a tribute to the memory of Mrs. Bertha Dworsky, the founder of the Home.

Assistant Corporation Council Arthur J. Kohn represented Meyer Walker and presented the congratulations of the Mayor to the gathering.

Judge Otto A. Rosalsky, contrasted the present home, erected at a cost of $1,250,000, and now containing over 500 inmates with that of the original home on Montgomery Street. He stated besides Joseph Baroness and himself there were no survivors of the first annual dinner of the Home, which took place in the Tammany Hall thirty years ago, and on which occasion the sum of $150 was raised whereas today the home is run on a budget of $300,000 entailing a running expense of $600 per day. To Philip and Max Weinstein, who subscribed $100,000, and who raised a large part of the building fund is due the credit for the present home of today, declared Judge Rosalsky.

Mrs. Peter J. Schweitzer, the president of the Home, welcomed the guests in behalf of the Home.

Mrs. Esther Surat sketched the personalities of many of the earlier patrons of the Home and the part they played in the efforts for creating the first Hebrew home for the Aged in New York, declaring that this institution is a monument to the capacity of women for service to the Jewish community. This Home was erected and its expense met hitherto solely by Jewish women.

A motion picture film of the Home was shown. This film was the gift of Sam E. Mishkind.

JEWISH DAILY FORWARD OFFICE IS STORMED BY COMMUNIST STRIKERS

Developments Follow Swiftly on Ousting of Left Wing Leadership in Garment Workers’ Union

Virtual settlement by arbitration of the combination strike and lockout affecting 20,000 garment workers, who have been engaged in a struggle for twenty-five weeks, was reached Tuesday night following a conference between representatives of the International Ladies’ Garment Workers’ Union and the American Association of Cloak and Suit Manufacturers, the organization originally affected. The conference was held on the invitation of the international at the office of Raymond V. Ingersoll, impartial chairman of the garment industry, 132 West Thirty-Third Street, New York.

Heading the international delegation was Morris Sigman, president. William O. Beskind, president of the American Association, was leading spokesman for the contractors. Present also were Morris Hillquit, counsel for the union, and Harry Uviller, attorney for the contractors.

Within more than five hours of negotiation the following agreement was reached:

“The lockout of the American Association to be called off immediately.

“All workers employed by members of the association under temporary in- diations (including those pending during the strike pending conclusion of a collective agreement) shall immediately be reinstated under the terms of such contracts.

“All differences between the American Association and the union which is due to arbitration by Herbert Lehman, President of the Arbitration Committee, Judge Bernard L. Shientag will be determined. Their decision shall be rendered before December 20, 1926, and shall be final.”

It is expected that all the garment workers will be back in the shop by December 25.

Two thousand striking garment workers, apparently without the leader- ship of the Left Wing, the Communists, were prevented from storming the office of the “Jewish Daily Forward,” at 173 East Broadway, New York, Tuesday afternoon by prompt action on the part of the police, who had been warned in advance that the strikers would make a demonstration against the newspaper, which has opposed the communist tendencies of some of the strikers.

Justice M. Proskauer will be appointed Associate Justice of the Supreme Court by Governor Smith to one of the vacancies left by the retirement of Presi- dent Justice Clarke. Justice William P. Burr, long a leader in the Jewish community,
