(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Apr. 27.—The concessions for the exploitation of the Dead Sea and the hot springs in Tiberias will soon be granted, according to statements made yesterday by Col. Amery, British Colonial Secretary, in reply to questions in the House of Commons.

Answering the question of Col. Wedgwood, Amery stated that the Colonial Office will soon issue a statement concerning the agreement to be concluded with regard to the Dead Sea concession. Concerning the hot springs in Tiberias, the secretary stated that negotiations are now proceeding with the holders of the pre-war Turkish concession. The new lease will be granted for a period of forty years. The lessees will be compelled to erect and completely furnish within three years a thermal bath establishment.

Maximum rates will be fixed by agreement with the government. After the expiration of the term of the lease, the buildings and the plant will become the property of the Palestine government.

David Kirkwood, Labor M.P. asked the Colonial Secretary whether the Dead Sea is located on the site of Sodom and Gomorrah. No reply was given to this question.

Replying to another question by Col. Wedgwood, Amery stated that the Palestine government has made no reduction in the immigration fee which is £1 for each person over sixteen. The Zionist Organization is not maintaining immigration camps but is only paying the cost of accommodation for immigrants under its auspices.

This fact was related by David Lloyd George, former Prime Minister, who presided last night at a banquet given by the Liberal Party of the City of London to Sir Herbert.

"During the five years of his administration in Palestine, a country full of dissensions, suspicions and jealousies, he succeeded in persuading the people to subordinate the interests of factions to the general interest. Therefore, the Liberals have taken him as leader. I do everything to help him and if all Liberals will do likewise, a great triumph awaits Liberalism," Lloyd George stated.

FRED L. LAVANBURG RETURNS FROM EUROPE

Made Survey of Housing Conditions in European Cities

Fred L. Lavanburg, founder and president of the Fred L. Lavanburg Foundation, which is erecting an apartment house for poor families on Goerick Street, in the heart of the Jewish East Side of New York City, returned from abroad. Mr. Lavanburg who has donated $750,000 as a perpetual fund to bring housing relief to congested city areas, made a survey of housing conditions in Europe. He said he had examined with great interest the four apartment houses erected in Paris by the Rothschild Foundation. These houses are run without profit by the Rothschilds of Paris.

Whitechapel, the Jewish quarter of London, contains many unsanitary buildings and presents a health problem which the London County Council has attempted to remedy. Ten square blocks in Islington, adjoining Whitechapel were condemned and on the site improved dwellings have been erected for working people at low rents, Mr. Lavanburg stated.

Mr. Lavanburg, who is a brother-in-law of the late Oscar S. Straus, explained that the gift of the Goerick Street apartment house to the Foundation was prompted by the hope that after erection this experiment, where modern, improved apartments of three rooms will rent for $7.50, four rooms for $8.50 and five rooms for $10 per week, might serve as a model for others and eliminate the unsanitary blocks of tenements on the East Side.

Mr. Lavanburg has offered to contribute an additional $50,000, on condition that thirteen other philanthropically inclined individuals do likewise, for the erection of a second apartment house block.

The officers of the Foundation are Fred M. Lavanburg, President, Roger W. Straus, Vice-President, Fred L. Somers, Treasurer, and George Taylor, Secretary.

Behind the Scenes of the Sapiro Ford Suit

Contempt of court proceedings against the Ford defense for their manoeuvres in forcing a mistrial in the Sapiro-Ford suit are believed to be a possible development before long by H. Lang, a member of the "Jewish Daily Forward" staff, who reported the trial for that paper from Detroit. Writing under the heading "Now It Can Be Told" (Forward, April 26 issue) Mr. Lang describes the back stage developments in and around the court which could not be reported while the trial was going on. He charges that the mistrial caused by the woman juror's interview in a Detroit paper was the result of a deliberate frame-up by the Ford defense. Seeing that Reed's unsuccessful cross-examination of Sapiro was drawing to an end and realizing that Ford would then be called to the stand, the Ford defense resorted to desperate methods, we are told by Mr. Lang, who continues:

"Determined to break up the trial at all costs the Ford defense 'wound-up' a reporter of a Detroit newspaper to get an interview with the woman juror. The reporter told her that she was being accused of intending to sell her opinion, and he also insinuated that she was charged with having a 'blind pig' and maintaining an immoral house. Hearing this she exclaimed that it was a lie and that someone was evidently seeking to keep the case from the jury. That was the whole 'interview'. But the Ford counsel pursued their manoeuvres further. First, they declared in court that Senator Reed was sick and asked a postponement of one day; a day later they declared that Senator Reed was still sick and asked postponement of two more days and stated that at the expiration of those two days they would demand that the Judge stop proceedings to take up the charges against the woman juror. The day before that the Ford counsel were to present to the court the affidavits of the Ford detectives regarding the charges against the woman juror, as well as copies of those affidavits to Sapiro and his counsel. Let us see what method they employed next.

"First they stated that they were making no charges against Sapiro himself, which they did in order to forestall any move in court on the part of Sapiro. Sapiro, therefore, waited for the affidavits. The affidavits were presented to Sapiro after five o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, which is to say, on the evening prior to the day when the whole matter was to be taken up by the court. They did this so that Sapiro might not have enough time to prepare an adequate reply. Moreover they did not present the affidavits to the court until about the same time

SECOND GENERATION OF JEWISH FARMERS IN AR- GENTINE CLING TO SOIL

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency Mail Service)

Buenos Aires, Mar. 22.—The cooperative of Jewish colonists in the Rivera district in the Argentine has started a movement to raise funds for the purpose of purchasing an area of land for the settlement of the sons and sons-in-law of colonists.

An agreement has been concluded between the cooperative and the estate owner, La Rossa, by which an area of 8,680 hectares of land adjoining the Jewish colony Rivera will be purchased. A sum of 28,119 pesos has already been paid for the land and the balance of 130,000 pesos is to be paid up during April.

First place in the settlement work will be given to the sons and sons-in-law of colonists, but provision will also be made for the settlement of others on the land. Each colonist will hold between 100 and 200 hectares of land. Eighty per cent of the purchase price will remain over to be paid off by the settlers within a period of 33 years.

Miss Jessie E. Sampter, of Rehoboth, Palestine, was declared the winner of the Jewish National Fund English Song contest, her winning song, "The Four Winds", having been found the best among the English songs submitted. The judges of the English songs who picked Miss Sampter for the $100 prize were Joseph Eron, Maurice Samuel and Dr. Elias Lieberman. Miss Sampter is the author of "The Eneke".

they handed the copies to Sapiro. It was one minute before the closing of the court office by the clerk. This did not give the court an opportunity to realize what was going on. But that was not all. They kept detectives at the court entrance all day long although there were no court proceedings, so that the newspaper correspondents might also be there expecting developments. The Ford counsel needed the newspaper men for their 'game'. They needed especially the reporters of the Detroit papers. When the affidavits charging the woman juror were brought into court at the last minute before closing, copies of the affidavits were handed to the newspaper men. That was very deliberately calculated. The Detroit papers appeared that evening with the whole sensation and reprinted the affidavits. On the following morning, Thursday, when the court reopened to take up this question, the whole thing had already become public. The court, therefore, had no other alternative but to declare a mistrial, since the jury could no longer be prevented from outside influences.

"One of the Detroit newspapers has been indicted for contempt of court because of this. But if all the details were to be probed, contempt of court proceedings could in fact be instituted against the Ford defense. And it is possible that this will happen.

"Sapiro is possessed of remarkable courage, and so is his attorney, Gallagher. They will not let this matter rest until complete investigation will be made."

BRUTAL EXCESSES AGAINST JEWS ON ROUMANIAN TRAINS DEPICTED IN MEMORANDUM

Stirring Document Begg Government for Protection

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency Mail Service)

Bucharest, Apr. 10.—The Jews of the town of Bratushany, district of Hotin, have sent a memorandum to General Rescanu, High Commissioner for Bessarabia and Bukovina. The memorandum complains of the excesses committed against Jewish travellers on the trains and asks the General to take measures for their protection.

"We, the undersigned," the memorandum, which bore eighty signatures, read, "inhabitants of the town of Bratushany, in the district of Hotin, have the honor to report to you the following: As is shown by the enclosed declarations and medical certificates, Jews of our town who on the night of March 16-17 travelled in the passenger train from Jassy to Czernowitz, were attacked between the stations of Stolnichen and Skumpin, by a group of Cuzists, armed with loaded sticks. The Jews were dragged out one by one from the compartments into the corridor and were beaten mercilessly. Three of these travellers were thrown out of the windows of the train while it was going at full speed. Nothing is known of what has happened to them. The other seventeen Jews were seized by panic and rushed to the doors of the compartment. But they were locked. The Jews were saved by a kind-hearted soldier who helped them to jump off the train while it was travelling at full speed.

"There were only five Cuzists and they could easily have been suppressed. But the staff on the train preferred to do nothing. They looked on passively, while the Jews were being attacked.

"These wild excesses on the trains are the result of the anti-Semitic agitation which is being carried on without hindrance all along the railway line from Jassy to Kishineff and from Jassy to Bielce. A systematic incitement is being carried on against the peaceful Jewish population. Pamphlets and manifestos and proclamations are circulated, which are full of provocative allegations against the Jews and which call the population to acts of violence and brutality. These anti-Semitic proclamations are for the most part circulated in the railway stations with the tacit approval of the station authorities.

"Groups of Cuzists frequently travel along the railway line from Jassy to Bielce and from Jassy to Kishineff for no other purpose than to insult and attack the Jewish travellers. Where the Jews are not actually assaulted, they are insulted and humiliated. This happens under the very eyes of the train officials, who look on and take no heed. We are very far from exaggerating the circumstances.

"We, the Jewish inhabitants of Northern Bessarabia, who are commercially linked with the towns of Kishineff and Jassy, are compelled to give up travelling on the railways because

COMZET REPORTS TO SOVIET GOVERNMENT ON PROGRESS OF JEWISH COLONIZATION

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency Mail Service)

Moscow, Apr. 8.—A detailed report of the work of the Government Commission for Jewish Land Settlement Comzet was presented this week to the Presidium of the Central Executive Committee here. The report covers the period of October 12th, 1925, to January 1st, 1927.

In addition, 20,296 hectares were consolidated for the use of 635 families who settled in these regions before the State started the allocation of land in the Crimea for Jews, the report states.

The State assigned a million Roubles during 1926 for the work of the Comzet. Of this 454,000 roubles were expended in the Ukrainian colonies, 120,000 roubles in White Russia, 25,000 roubles in the Province of Homel, 6,000 roubles in Azerbaidjan, 70,000 roubles for the purchase of agricultural machinery and 325,000 roubles for providing building materials through the agency of the Jewish Colonization Society Ozet.

Of these, 1,072 families contributed 10 roubles each to the settlement work. 2,253 families contributed a hundred roubles each, 1,031 families contributed 300 roubles each, 450 families contributed 500 roubles each and 248 families settled on the land entirely at their own expense, receiving from the Government only the land free of charge.

Three thousand five hundred and sixty-six families settled during the past year in the Ukraine. of the risk to our lives. We wonder whether we, citizens of this country are still under the protection of the laws of the country, or whether we are outlaws.

"In doubt and despair, we turn to you who have the mission of upholding order and legality, and we beg you to take us under your protection, to defend our lives and property. Our request in brief, is this: (1) an impartial inquiry and the punishment of the guilty according to the law, (2) measures to put a stop to the anti-Semitic propaganda on the Bessarabian railways, so that Jewish travellers should be able to travel under normal conditions, (3) a guard on the trains to protect the lives of the Jewish travellers."

STATION WGL RELIEVED OF SHARING HOURS WITH WHAP

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Washington, Apr. 27.—The Federal Radio Commission has granted authority to station WGL, of the Hotel Majestic, New York, to operate immediately on a wave length of 416 meters and 720 kilocycles.

WGL will split its time with Station WBBR. Station WHAP was put on a channel of 1,010 kilocycles with Station WBNY.

These shifts made still another change necessary, and WODA of Paterson, N. J., was given a channel of 930 kilocycles, which it will divide with Station WTLR.

Colonel Lewis Landes, president of the International Broadcasting Corporation, which operates station WGL, has thus won his fight against sharing the time of his station with WHAP, whose announcer, Franklin Ford, has repeatedly broadcast attacks against Catholics and Jews.

Justice John Ford in the Supreme Court on Tuesday, denied the application of Franklin Ford, manager of radio station WHAP and broadcaster of anti-Catholic and anti-Jewish views, for an alternative writ of mandamus directing Frederick O'Byrne, Commissioner of Jurors, to restore his name to the list of eligible jurors, from which it was stricken by direction of Judge Rosalsky, of General Sessions.

SALONICA GOVERNOR TELLS JEWS ANTI-SEMITISM HAS NO FOOTHOLD IN GREECE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency Mail Service)

Salonica, Apr. 6.—The Hellenic Government appreciates the loyalty and ability of the Jewish population of Salonica and the other towns in Greece, the Governor-General of Salonica said in reply to a delegation of the Jewish community here which visited him this week to complain of the circulation of anti-Semitic leaflets in the city.

"There is no possibility of an anti-Semitic campaign in Greece being successful," the Governor-General said. "All Greek citizens are equal in the eyes of the law. As for the allegation made in these leaflets that the Jews are Communists, you may rest assured that the Government will know what action to take against the Communists, if it thinks that the Communists constitute a danger to the State, but such action if taken will be taken against the Communists whatever their religion may be. There will certainly be no question of discriminating as between Communists who are Jews and Communists who are not Jews. And there will be no action of course against Jews who are not Communists."

"Such action if it is thought necessary by the Government will be carried out by the officials of the Government, and no unauthorized and irresponsible persons will be allowed to take the law into their own hands in this matter."
