JINGO SPIRIT COMES TO FOREGROUND IN WARSAW MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Apr. 29.—The forthcoming municipal elections in Poland's capital hold the attention of the populace. While all efforts of Jewish leaders to bring about a bloc of the Jewish factions have so far failed and the chances of success are extremely slim, the leaders of the Polish nationalist parties continue to use the possibility of a Jewish bloc to frighten Polish voters.

The "Gazeta Poranna," the organ of the Polish national democrats, publishes alarming articles concerning "Jewish solidarity." The newspaper claims that the large participation of the Jewish population in the elections may turn over the city government of Warsaw to Jewish hands.

The jingo methods employed by the nationalist press in previous election campaigns are now being taken up again.

DOMICILE RIGHT OF MILLION THREATENED BY NATIONAL CENSUS IN ROUMANIA

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, Apr. 29.—Over one million persons, resident in Roumania, are in the position of "men without a country," according to the figures compiled by Roumanian officials in the national census just completed, reports from Bucharest state.

The reports add that the Roumanian authorities have already begun the expulsion of what they term undesirable elements among those residents who have not been given Roumanian citizenship.

SHANGHAI JEWS MUST EMIGRATE BECAUSE OF UNREST

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, Apr. 29.—The warfare in China has affected adversely the Jewish community of Shanghai, according to reports received by the United Emigration Committee here.

The Sephardic and Ashkenazic communities in Shanghai together number 3,000. Many of the Jewish artisans, workers and traders have been compelled to leave Shanghai. Many have gone to Harbin.

WHITE RUSSIA TO GRANT STIPEND TO YIDDISH POETS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Minsk, Apr. 29.—State stipends for Yiddish poets in White Russia were voted by the White Russian Commissariat of Education.

The Commissariat allotted fifty roubles monthly for each of five Yiddish poets, Wentson, Teif, Olevsky, Lifschitz and Akselrod.

ZIONIST EXECUTIVE REVIEWS EMERGENCY SITUATION IN PALESTINE

Statement Welcomes Progress in Agency Extension; Additional £1,400,000 Budget Voted for Constructive Employment

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Apr. 29.—A review of the present situation in Palestine and a plan for its amelioration were contained in an official statement issued by the Executive of the World Zionist Organization here.

In reviewing the situation, the Executive states that it is convinced that the whole-hearted cooperation of all Zionists will free the work from the disturbing factors which have been thwarting progress during the past year. The Zionist Executive could easily have dealt with the emergency situation so far as the Zionist administration in Palestine was affected, but it chose to assume responsibility for the entire Jewish work in Palestine, the statement declares.

The system of doles to the unemployed is a violation of the pioneer traditions. The Executive therefore has decided to raise an additional budget of £1,400,000 for the purpose of providing constructive work for the unemployed, the statement announces.

Gratifying progress has been made with regard to the extension of the Jewish Agency. The Fifteenth Zionist Congress, which will be held in Basle the end of August, will be asked to issue an appeal to all Jewry to support the Jewish national home in Palestine. The Palestine government has shown its readiness to cooperate in connection with the emergency situation. The Executive continues to negotiate with the government for its greater support in the development of the National Home, but it rejects the pernicious policy of persistent formulation of illusory political demands at a time when a larger burden of responsibility rests upon the Zionists, the Executive declares in its statement.

WASHINGTON STATE OVER-SUBSCRIBES QUOTA IN I.O. B.B. WIDER SCOPE DRIVE

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Cincinnati, Apr. 29.—Alfred M. Cohen, president of the Independent Order B'nai B'rith, has received a report from Richard E. Gustadt, executive secretary of the Wider Scope Committee for the Pacific Coast, advising him that Washington has "gone over the top" in its Wider Scope Campaign. The drive was led by Judge Stern. Not only has the State as a whole passed its goal, but every community in the State achieved a similar result.

Utah has raised its quota, due largely to the success of a drive in Salt Lake City. Oregon is expected to reach its quota by the end of next week, Mr. Gustadt reported.

A drive is scheduled to be held in Oakland, California, the first week in May to be followed by one in Los Angeles before the end of the month.

District No. 7 will launch its drive following its convention at Memphis on May 1st and 2nd. A Wider-Scope Conference will be held the following day and plans devised for raising the district's $200,000 quota.

Mr. Cohen will be the principal speaker.

UNVEIL MEMORIAL TO BRITISH SOLDIERS AT GAZA CEMETERY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Apr. 29.—The first of the series of ceremonies marking the unveiling of memorials at the British war cemeteries in Palestine took place at Gaza.

High Commissioner Lord Plumer, unveiled the memorial erected in the cemetery of the soldiers of the 54th Division. Wreaths were laid on the graves on behalf of the High Commissioner, the British Imperial Graves Commission, the Jewish Legionnaires and other organizations.

The second unveiling will take place at Ramleh on May 6 and the third in Jerusalem on May 7.

JEWS HAVE BIG PLACE IN GERMAN BUSINESS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, Apr. 29.—The new German Directory of Directors, just issued here, shows that among six businessmen who are members of the boards of fifty companies, four are Jews.

Jacob Goldschmidt, of the Darusiedter and National Bank, is included in this list. He is the chief shareholder in the Eschkol Jewish Encyclopedia. The other three mentioned are Curt Scherzheim, director of the Commerz und Privat Bank, and member of the Keren Hayesod in Germany; Dr. Kempner, chairman of the Reich Potash Council and Carl Furstenberg.

ASSIMILATIONISTS LOSE IN BUDAPEST COMMUNITY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Budapest, Apr. 29.—The controversy which raged in the liberal Jewish community of Budapest was ended with a victory for the moderate group. The extreme assimilationists of the community lost when Dr. Mezci was elected president of the Landeskanzlei.

AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS NAMES DELEGATION TO CON- FERENCE ON JEWISH RIGHTS

Judge Julian W. Mack Heads Delegation to European Meeting

A delegation of twenty-three American Jews will visit Europe this summer as the representatives of the American Jewish Congress to participate in the World Conference on Jewish Rights. This Conference, which is being called jointly by the American Jewish Congress and the Committee of Jewish Delegations in Paris, is scheduled to take place in Geneva beginning August 18th.

The election of the American delegates was held Thursday afternoon at a meeting of the National Executive Committee of the Congress at the Hotel Astor. The delegation is to be headed by Judge Julian W. Mack, who was the first President of the American Jewish Congress and Chairman of the Committee of Jewish Delegations in 1919 which was responsible for the minority clauses that were incorporated in the post-war treaties. The other members of the delegation are: Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Judge Gustave Hartman, Dr. A. J. Rongy, Emanuel Hertz, George I. Fox, Dr. J. Tenenbaum, Carl Sherman, Max D. Steuer, S. J. Rosensohn, Max L. Hollander, Leo Wolfson, Bernard G. Richards, Philip Wattenberg, Herman Spier, Louis Lipsky, Mrs. R. Gottheil, David Shapiro, Mrs. A. Silverman, Providence; Judge Hugo Pam, Chicago; Jacob Ginsburg, Philadelphia; Rabbi Barnett R. Brickner, Cleveland; Rabbi Max Heller, New Orleans.

The delegation was authorized by the meeting to add to its number or to make substitutions in the event any of those named are prevented from attending the conference.

Dr. Stephen S. Wise, who presided at the meeting, announced that the

Weizmann Statement, Following Recent American Visit, Viewed As Epoch Making

A statement by Dr. Weizmann which is viewed as signaling the beginning of a new era in the history of the Zionist work in Palestine was made by the president of the World Zionist Organization in an interview, following his recent visit in America, which appears in the "Ha'Olam," Hebrew organ of London. In this statement Dr. Weizmann reviews the present situation in regard to Zionism and the work in Palestine and emphasizes that American Jewry can and will furnish all the necessary capital for the reconstruction of Palestine if only it will be convinced that the Palestine Yishub is becoming self-sustaining. Dr. Weizmann's statement in the "Ha'Olam" declared:

"Despite all difficulties which have stood, and still stand, in our way recently, despite the failure of some of the Zionist enterprises, despite the depressing reports which come to America from suffering Palestine through letters and through visitors to that country—our movement is by no means weakened and there is no loss of courage nor disappointment to be observed among the Jews of America. On the contrary: The Zionist thermometer has gone up several degrees and we can say with absolute certainty that there are today no opponents of Zionism in America—if we discount the limited circle of socialist doctrinaires, and those who follow them blindly.

"There are non-Zionists that is, people who do not stand with the Zionist Organization, but no anti-Zionists. And there is positively no reason to speak about a falling away of faith in the success of our work. But there are doubts as to whether we are going in the right direction in regard to the outlook of the Yishub. America, alone can rebuild our national home, and there is no limit to the treasures which American Jewry may and can give for delegation will meet shortly to discuss the program of the Conference.

The meeting of the Executive Committee also heard reports of the latest developments in connection with the persecution of the Jews in Roumania and censured the activities of Col. Lytton G. Ament, who having just returned from Roumania where he was an official guest of the King and Queen, is now engaged in "whitewashing" the Roumanian Government. Various letters from Roumania were read showing that Col. Ament interviewed Roumanian Jews in the presence of police officials and thus obtained the "denials" of persecution and excesses, which he is now publishing in a New York newspaper.

the purpose—if we can prove to them that their dollars are not being dumped into a riddled sack, but into something concrete which is being handled with logic and wisdom and which has a promise for the future. The question of Palestine reconstruction is not a question of money.

"Where and how to get the money which is necessary for the Palestine reconstruction," Dr. Weizmann further stated, "that is a question which depends on the proper outlook of the Yishub. The American Jew, as well as any other Jew, is interested in practical results. He wants to know whether our Yishub (especially the colonization Yishub) can be self sustaining. The American Jews are not bargaining with us. What they desire is, that we should tell them in a clear way whether if such and such a sum of money will be given for settling a colonist on the land, he will be able to earn his own living and eventually pay up his debt. The essential point is, that we can get as much money as we need, if we will be able to stand up proudly before the Jewish public and say: What you are giving us results each year in such and such a number of new towns in Palestine, people have settled there and are living their lives, earning their livelihood through their own work and the day is near when they will begin to return to the nation that which they borrowed from it in the way of land and colonization."

Commenting on this statement of Dr. Weizmann the "Jewish Daily News," (April 28th), observes:

"We see in this statement of Dr. Weizmann the beginning of a new and important epoch in the history of the Zionist work in Palestine. Whatever may have been the reason which prompted the President of the Zionist Organization to utter such words is not important. What is important is, that Dr. Weizmann, through his statement, has put himself on firm ground, has pointed to a new way in the Palestine work and has laid down a foundation on which Zionist activities in Palestine can now firmly rest.

"Dr. Weizmann has analyzed the subject very deeply and if this will be the spirit permeating the new work which it is expected will be undertaken with the Jewish Agency there is every reason to expect success."

Dr. I. M. Rubinow, Executive Director of the Philadelphia Jewish Welfare Society, has been appointed to the position of Executive Director of the Brooklyn Federation of Jewish Charities.

The funeral of Charles Altschul, former partner in the banking firm of Lazard Freres, who died on Tuesday, took place Thursday. The pallbearers included Leo Arnstein, Paul Baerwald, C. R. Berrian, Alfred A. Cook, P. J. Goodhart, Andre Lazard, Irving Lehman, James N. McDonald, Dr. B. F. Oppenheimer and Prof. James T. Shotwell.

UTERMYER BACK, CONFIRMS REPORT OF HIS $100,000 GIFT TO HEBREW UNIVERSITY

On his return from a cruise around the world, which included a visit to Palestine, Samuel Utermyer, noted lawyer, said yesterday in an interview with a representative of the "Jewish Daily Bulletin":

"To further the development of the Hebrew University in Palestine, which I consider the greatest single achievement there, I have agreed to send to Dr. Judah L. Magnes the interest on $100,000 toward the maintenance of the University and to bequeath the principal as an unrestricted gift in my will."

On the occasion of the dedication of the University, Mr. Utermyer donated $20,000 for the erection of a stadium as a memorial to his wife.

"I look to the University as the great reservoir from which will flow to the corners of the earth contributions from the Jews' intellectual and spiritual resources, for the advancement and welfare of humanity," Mr. Utermyer said.

"The men and women who have come to Palestine are the finest specimens of humankind of which any country could be built. They are bearing up courageously under the economic crisis. On all sides are evidences of their labor. Agricultural products, oranges and citrus fruits from the Jewish plantations are of the finest quality and compare favorably with the American products."

Referring to the commission of experts which will leave for Palestine shortly under the auspices of the Jewish Agency, Mr. Utermyer stated: "I look to this commission to accomplish a great deal for Palestine and I am very much interested in the outcome of its work there."

While in Tel-Aviv, the all-Jewish municipality conferred the title of "first citizen" upon Mr. Utermyer.

In Hong Kong, Tokio, Java, Cairo, Manila and other points, Mr. Utermyer met Jewish committees and was entertained by local Zionist bodies. At Shanghai he was asked to address a Jewish gathering, but the political disturbances prevented his acceptance.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Straus celebrated their fifty-second wedding anniversary Thursday at their home in Mamaroneck, N. Y. The philanthropist was said to be in good health, and expressed himself as being happy to be back in America after his trip to Palestine.

Isaac J. Bernheim of 31 West Eighty-fifth Street, a retired tobacco importer, formerly a member of the firm of J. Bernheim & Sons, dropped dead Thursday afternoon of heart disease while standing at Park Avenue and Forty-first Street. He was 65 years old.

The Bernheim firm, founded by Mr. Bernheim's father in 1845, was one of the oldest in the country engaged in the importation of Cuban tobacco. It was dissolved at the time of Mr. Bernheim's retirement.

A special meeting of the Executive Committee of the American Ort was called for today by Dr. Henry Moskowitz, Chairman. The meeting will be held at the Cafe Boulevard, at one o'clock.

Philadelphia Jewry to Have New Jewish Educational System

(By Our Philadelphia Correspondent)

Phila., Pa., Apr. 25.—A complete reorganization of the Jewish educational system in Philadelphia with a view to attracting a wider element to Jewish religious schools will be undertaken at an educational conference to be called here shortly. Representatives of the existing religious school systems will be present and will be invited to organize a central body to direct Jewish education in Philadelphia.

This is made known in the report just issued by a group of Jewish educators headed by Dr. Cyrus Adler. The group, known as the Committee of Fifteen, was appointed by Judge Horace Stern, President of the Federation of Jewish Charities. Their report, issued after an extensive survey of existing conditions over a period of two years, finds that there is a duplication of effort, a lack of concentration and of harmony between the three religious school systems, which now function in Philadelphia, i.e., the schools of the Associated Talmud Torahs, the Hebrew Sunday School Society and the Congregational Schools.

The Committee recommends that a Council of Jewish education be formed to act as a central directing body, to which the existing systems would be subsidiary and subordinate.

The report of the Committee of Fifteen for the extension of Jewish education is to be presented to the forthcoming conference. If it meets with the approval of the Conference the report is then to be submitted to each of the constituent bodies for approval. Provided a majority approves the plan, the Council will be organized to consist of twenty-five persons. Each participating organization is to have at least one representative on this council, while the remaining representatives will be apportioned on an equable basis depending on the budgets of each institution.

The educational plan suggested would have the prevalent type of school for all primary grade one that provides sessions for only about seven hours per week, meeting three times weekly. In the intermediary grades, a more intensive course would be provided for those who desire and are competent to continue the course of study. The Sunday schools will be continued for those who cannot attend the three day sessions, and will also in some measure supplement the work of other schools.

The Central Council, when it is formed will also undertake extension work. The outstanding feature of which will be making adequate provision for the training of teachers. The following plan of operation toward this end is proposed: "Gratz College should be the agency for training the various types of teachers required. The present course should be maintained, but improved and enlarged. To achieve this purpose the Faculty of Gratz Col-

NEW ITALIAN CONSUL IN PALESTINE WILL NOT ENGAGE IN ANTI-ZIONIST ACTIVITY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency Mail Service)

Jerusalem, Apr. 14.—The new Italian Consul-General to Palestine, Signor Orazio Pedrazzi, who is known for his strongly anti-Zionist views expressed repeatedly in his speeches in the Italian Parliament, in books and in newspaper articles, has not come here, as was thought to engage in anti-Zionist activity.

Speaking with the representative of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency here, on his arrival today, Signor Pedrazzi said that there was no truth in the reports which have been gaining ground that his appointment signified an intention on the part of Mussolini and the Fascist Government to pursue a more intense Italian political activity in Palestine and that he intended to use his position in Palestine in order to conduct a campaign in opposition to the policy of the Jewish National Home.

Signor Pedrazzi said that he was in Palestine on no special mission. He had been appointed as Italian Consul and he would do the ordinary consular work of promoting trading and cultural relations between Palestine and Italy. He would not engage in politics. "The politician and Deputy Pedrazzi and the journalist and author Pedrazzi who wrote and spoke against the Zionist policy do not exist in the person of Signor Pedrazzi, the Consul in Palestine, of a country which is friendly to Great Britain," he declared. In Palestine he would adopt a friendly attitude towards the activity of the British Government, he said.

With regard to Zionism, Signor Pedrazzi said that before his departure from Italy he had a number of discussions on the Zionist question with Chief Rabbi Sacerdoti, Dr. Dante Lattes and Advocate Otolenghi. He was sure that he would find the Zionists in Palestine taking a cordial and friendly attitude toward Italy. If that was the case he would certainly act accordingly.

Col. Wedgwood recently put a question in the House of Commons to the Foreign Secretary, Sir Austen Chamberlain, whether, in view of the opinions expressed previously by Signor Pedrazzi on the British policy in Palestine, the British Government had assented to his appointment as Italian Consul in Palestine. Sir Austen replied that he knew of the views expressed by Signor Pedrazzi in the past, but he thought he was entitled to assume that the Italian Government would not appoint a Consul General who would use his appointment contrary to the interests of the country to which he was accredited.

lege will have to be enlarged and some changes introduced into its administration and curriculum. Afternoon classes in addition to the present evening classes may be added.

"Under the auspices of Gratz College, extension courses, less rigorous than its full curriculum should be provided for such persons as may desire

LECACHE REPORTS ON HIS UKRAINIAN OBSERVATIONS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency Mail Service)

Paris, Apr. 12.—An account of the pogroms committed by the Petlurist troops in the Ukraine was given here last night by M. Bernard Lecache, who recently made a tour of the Ukraine to investigate the facts with regard to the pogroms.

M. Lecache read his account from a book which he is now writing entitled "When Israel Dies". "300,000 Jews," he said, "were massacred in the Ukraine by the chiefs of the Petlurist bands and Western Europe went on with its affairs and took no heed. When some western Europeans were approached and asked to protest against the pogroms they replied: 'Always you come about your Jews.'"

"I am concerned," M. Lecache said, "not only with the pogroms in the Ukraine, but with the whole system of persecution against the Jews which is being carried on now in many countries, especially in Roumania, Hungary and Poland. The Jewish people had a right to say 'It has been enough'."

"The persecution of the Jews and the pogroms falls upon the conscience of all humanity and all people carry responsibility for them."

M. Lecache made a special request that in the course of the discussion which followed, no reference should be made to the particular case of Sholom Schwartzbard, whose trial is to open shortly.

A similar request was conveyed in a letter to the meeting by Schwartzbard's counsel, M. Henri Torres.

The Chairman, M. Istrati, in the course of his speech, complained of the attitude of the Roumanian Government in regard to the Jews. "The Government is taking no steps," he said, "to put a stop to the excesses. The worst feature of the situation is that it is the students who were carrying out the excesses, it is not the ordinary ignorant folk, but the flower of Roumanian society."

M. Georges Pioch, who recently returned from a visit to Roumania, said that what had struck him most about the position in Roumania is that anti-Semitism there has come to be looked upon as the natural state of things.

to teach in Sunday Schools or Sabbath Schools or to qualify as leaders of clubs or circles of children. These extension courses might be organized on the same general plan as the Israel Friedlaender Classes in New York."

The report is made public under the signatures of the following: Dr. Cyrus Adler, Chairman; Dr. Julius H. Greenstone, Secretary; Professor Max L. Margolis, Rabbi B. L. Levinthal, Rabbi Max D. Klein, Louis E. Levinthal, Judge Horace Stern, Mrs. Ephraim Lederer, Judge William M. Lewis, Dr. Solomon Solis-Cohen, Rabbi A. A. Guman, Rabbi Marvin Nathan, Rabbi Samuel Fredman, Jacob Billikopf, A. er at the Memphis convention, which will be addressed also by Dr. Boris Bogen, executive secretary of the Order and of the Wider Scope Committee.

Governor Smith, Mayor Walker and Senator Robert F. Wagner are announced to speak at the banquet to be held under the auspices of District Grand Lodge No. 1, Independent Order B'nai Brith, on Sunday evening, May 8th, in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Astor.

The banquet will mark the opening of the convention of the District Grand Lodge which will be held at the Astor on May 8th and 9th.

Among the matters that will be considered at the convention will be the establishment of Hillel Foundations at universities in the United States attended by considerable numbers of Jewish students. Four Hillel Foundations have already been established at the Universities of Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin and another will begin to function in the Fall at the University of California.

Relief work among Jewish immigrants and a house building project in Jerusalem, known as the B'nai Brith Palestine House Building Fund" will also be considered at the convention, which will be attended by delegates from lodges in the large cities of New York State, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Maine, Vermont, and the Dominion of Canada. Alfred M. Cohen, of Cincinnati, President of the Order, will address the opening session of the convention.

There are twelve B'nai Brith lodges in Greater New York and sixty-two in District No. 1, with a total membership of 7,800.

UKRAINIAN UNIVERSITY TO REGISTER ALL YIDDISH PUBLICATIONS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency Mail Service)

Moscow, Apr. 6.—A Bibliographical Department has been opened in association with the Chair for Yiddish Literature at the Ukrainian Academy. The Department will keep a register of all publications appearing in Yiddish both in the Soviet Union and abroad. Correspondents will be appointed in various countries to keep the Department in touch with all Yiddish publication activity. Lists will be kept of particular branches of Yiddish publication activity, such as the Yiddish labor press, educational books, and individual writers, it was announced here.

A complete list will be drawn up of all books and newspapers which have appeared in Yiddish since the existence of Yiddish printing. Another list will be compiled of collections of Yiddish manuscripts and commissions of experts will be set up to make records of unrecorded Yiddish manuscripts which are to be found in either public or private collections.

The head of the Yiddish Department at the Ukrainian Academy, Nahum Stiff, has been appointed administrator of the new Bibliographical Department.

Y.M.H.A. CAMPAIGN RECEIVES TWO LARGE CONTRIBUTIONS

Two anonymous contributions, one of $30,000 and one of $25,000, were announced in connection with the Young Men's Hebrew Association's $1,500,000 building fund campaign. Supreme Court Justice Joseph M. Proskauer announced that he had received the gifts at a meeting of Y. M. H. A. directors at the Chemists' Club, 52 East Forty-first Street.

Headquarters for the campaign will be opened on Monday at the Hotel Biltmore, and daily luncheons will be held at which the reports of soliciting teams will be submitted to Justice Proskauer. Sixteen teams of solicitors, covering sixteen industries and professions, have been organized and will begin work at once. The $1,500,000 fund is to build an eleven-story annex to the Y. M. H. A. building at Lexington Avenue and Ninety-second Street.

Among those who participated in the meeting were Judge Proskauer, Judge Irving Lehman, of the New York State Court of Appeals, Henry J. Bernheim, Samuel J. Bloomingdale, campaign chairman, Hyman S. Crystal, Sidney O. Crystal, Aaron Rabinowitz, Ludwig Vogelstein, Henry M. Toch, Commissioner Joseph Levensohn, Lester Hoffheimer, Colonel Herbert H. Lehman and Louis Marshall.
