

UNITED SYNAGOGUE CONVENTION APPROVES JERUSALEM SYNAGOGUE CENTER PLANS

Arrangements Will Be Made for Edifice to Cost $250,000

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Atlantic City, May 10.—The fifteenth annual convention of the United Synagogue of America in session here approved the report of its Palestine Committee concerning the acquisition of a site for the erection of a Synagogue Center in Jerusalem at a cost of $250,000. The sum of $58,000 was paid for the site which is a plot 300x150 feet on King George the Fifth Avenue, Jerusalem. The plot is adjacent to the Ratibson School at the entrance to the Rohavia quarter. It lies to the right of the avenue as one comes from the Jaffa Road.

The convention approved the recommendation of the Palestine Committee to the effect that arrangements be made with the Jeshurun Congregation in Palestine for a form of cooperation until such time when the Jerusalem Synagogue Center will be erected.

Professor Israel Davidson of the Jewish Theological Seminary, who recently returned from Palestine, urged the speedy construction of the Synagogue Center.

The convention went on record as favoring the five day working week. It expressed gratification at the efforts being made in various quarters in this direction. A resolution was also adopted "protesting vigorously against the violation of the Kashruth laws by national and communal Jewish organizations in arranging non-kosher public dinners."

VIENNA LAWYERS START TRIAL AGAINST ANTI-SEMITES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, May 10.—Dr. Riehl, the defeated candidate of the Hakenkreuzler in the last parliamentary elections, will have to explain his anti-Semitic propaganda before a court of honor.

At the decision of the Vienna Bar Association, disciplinary proceedings were started against Dr. Riehl on the basis of his anti-Semitic actions during his legal practice.

PROF. LIEBMAN TO LECTURE AT HEBREW UNIVERSITY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency Mail Service)

Jerusalem, Apr. 18.—Prof. Emanuel Liebman of Columbia University, well-known authority on internal diseases, is now on a visit in Palestine. He has accepted an invitation to lecture at the Hebrew University.

Prof. Liebman is treasurer of the American Jewish Physicians Committee and a member of the Board of Governors of the Hebrew University.

MARSHALL ANNOUNCES PERSONNEL OF JEWISH AGENCY PALESTINE SURVEY COMMISSION

Sir Alfred Mond, Felix M. Warburg and Dr. Lee K. Frankel to Head Investigation Body; Many American and European Experts Included on Staff

The personnel of the Non-Partisan Survey of Palestine, the commission which is to investigate the situation and the possibilities of Palestine in behalf of the Jewish Agency, in accordance with the agreement concluded between Dr. Chaim Weizmann and Mr. Louis Marshall, was announced yesterday in a statement issued by Mr. Marshall.

Sir Alfred Mond, Felix M. Warburg and Dr. Lee K. Frankel are to head the commission, the announcement disclosed.

The text of the statement follows:

"In connection with the contemplated Non-Partisan Survey of Palestine as to which announcement was made some months ago by Dr. Chaim Weizmann and Mr. Louis Marshall, the latter now makes the additional statement that the following agreement has been reached in respect to the members of the Commission and of the expert staff who are to direct and conduct the Survey:

"The Commissioners are to be Sir Alfred Mond, of London, who is to have one European associate who has not been finally agreed upon, and Dr. Lee K. Frankel, Second Vice-President, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York, with whom Mr. Felix M. Warburg of New York, is to be associated.

"A group of experts, who are to make a scientific investigation of the various phases of Palestine conditions which are to be the subject of the Survey, are to act under the direction of the Commissioners. Thus far the following selections have been made:

SEVERAL SYNAGOGUES IN RUSSIA CONFISCATED

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Riga, May 10.—The main synagogue of Zhitomir was confiscated by the Soviet authorities and transformed into a Communist club, a despatch received here states.

Similar action was taken by the Communist authorities with regard to the Beth Hamidrash at Kitay Gorod.

Riga, May 10.—Several churches and synagogues in Ukrainian towns were ordered closed by the Ukrainian Communist government.

In explaining this action the authorities stated that the churches and synagogues serve the religious needs of the bourgeois elements and not those of the toilers. The confiscated buildings will be converted into workmen's clubs.

"In Agriculture, Prof. Elwood Mead, of the Department of Rural Institutions of the University of California, and Prof. Jacob G. Lipman, Dean of the Department of Agriculture of Rutgers College and Director of the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station. As their assistants there have been designated the following:

"As general agricultural economist, Prof. Frank Adams of the University of California.

"As horticulturist, Mr. Knowles Ryerson, late of the University of California, horticultural advisor to the Government of Haiti.

"As soil expert, Mr. A. T. Strahorn, of the Bureau of Soils, United States Department of Agriculture.

"In matters pertaining to irrigation, Mr. C. C. Henriques, late of the Public Works Department of the Government of India.

"In respect to marketing and transportation, Mr. Victor Mosseri, of Cairo, Egypt.

The Commission will also have at its disposal material courteously supplied to it by Sir John Russell, director of the Rothamstead Agricultural Experiment Station, Harpenden, England, who has recently visited Palestine. Sir John Russell is now in this country as a British delegate to the International Soil Survey Congress convened by the United States Government.

"Investigations in respect to health, sanitation and hygiene will be conducted by Prof. Milton J. Rosenau, of the Department of Preventive Medicine of Harvard University, to be assisted by Dr. Charles F. Wilinsky, Deputy Commissioner of Health of the City of Boston.

"As expert in banking and finance, Dr. Ernst Kahn of Frankfurt, who has had extensive banking experience, will serve. Dr. Kahn was formerly financial editor of the "Frankfurter Zeitung" and is associated with the banking firm of Speyer Ellissen.

"Dr. Maurice B. Hexter, director of the Federation of Jewish Charities of Boston and lecturer at Harvard University, will accompany Dr. Frankel as secretary to the American section of the Commission.

"The appointment of additional experts to deal with a number of important subjects, including industry and commerce and accounting and audit, is under consideration and it is expected that an early announcement will be made concerning them."

UKRAINIAN LEADERS IN PARIS PREPARE FOR SCHWARTZBARD TRIAL

Former Jewish Minister Submits Additional Proof of Petlura's Guilt

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Paris, May 10.—Extensive preparations for the forthcoming trial of Sholom Schwartzbard, slayer of Semion Petlura, are being made by the leaders of the Ukrainian emigres in European countries.

At a conference of Ukrainian emigrants concluded here yesterday, a resolution was adopted protesting against the slaying of Petlura. The resolution charges that the Soviet government is interested in causing national enmity between the Ukrainians and Jews. The resolution also contains the statement blaming some of the Jewish newspapers for throwing the responsibility of the Ukrainian pogroms upon Petlura and upon the entire Ukrainian nation. A wreath was placed on Petlura's grave on behalf of the conference, which also sent greetings to Petlura's representative Lewicki.

Professor Shulgin, reporting on behalf of the Prague Ukrainian committee for the defence of Petlura's memory, stated that the Prague committee had collected much material which will rehabilitate his reputation. This will be submitted to the court when the trial opens. He also stated that the collection of the Ukrainian Defence Fund is proceeding satisfactorily.

General Zalsky, one of the witnesses called by Petlura's representatives, who appeared at the examinations before Magistrate Peyre, was taken seriously ill and it is probable that he will be unable to appear at the trial.

PROF. HORACE M. KALLEN ARRIVES IN MOSCOW Speaks Optimistically of Palestine Visit

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, May 10.—Professor Horace M. Kallen, well known American Jewish writer, arrived here yesterday on his visit back from Palestine. Professor Kallen will visit the new Jewish colonies in Russia.

When interviewed by the representative of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency here, Professor Kallen stated that he was greatly impressed with the moral freedom of Palestine Jews. Palestine is the only country where the Jews feel themselves free, he said. He was particularly impressed by the contrast between Jewish life in Palestine and in Poland.

Palestine affords limited possibilities and it requires much money, but if the funds are available, a great deal can be achieved, he stated. He was very optimistic of the future of Palestine.

GOLDSTEIN, KEREN HAYESOD DELEGATE, IS SHIPWRECKED ON HIS WAY TO AUSTRALIA

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Brisbane, Australia, May 10.—Dr. Alexander Goldstein, one of the leading Russian Zionists and speaker for the Keren Hayesod, who is on a mission to the Far Eastern Jewish communities, was shipwrecked on his way here. Coming from Java to Australia the steamer Tasman struck a reef one thousand miles from Brisbane.

Dr. Goldstein was stranded seven days and was finally rescued by the Japanese steamer, Akimaru. Dr. Goldstein, who landed at Townsville on the Queensland coast, was slightly injured on the shoulder in the wreck.

U.S. CONSUL IN JERUSALEM MAKES REPRESENTATIONS TO PALESTINE GOVERNMENT

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Washington, D. C., May 10.—The American Consul in Jerusalem, Oscar S. Heizer, has made representations to the Palestine Government regarding the attack on Pastor Pettit and his wife of Seattle, Washington, an announcement by the State Department here declares.

The attack was made by two armed brigands about 20 miles north of Jerusalem on May 5. Mrs. Pettit was wounded. Pastor Pettit is reported to be a Seventh Day Adventist.

Ukraine were presented by Pincas Krassney, former Minister of Jewish Affairs in the Ukrainian cabinet.

Mr. Krassney published an article in the Russian newspaper, "Proletarska Pravda" in which he quotes documents to the effect that in February 1919 Petlura issued an order to the Proskurov military authorities that in case of a revolution one half of the Jewish population of the city was to be slain.

Mr. Krassney also states that Polienko, the organizer of the anti-Jewish pogroms in the cities of Berditseff and Zhitomir, was released at the personal order of Petlura.

DIGEST OF PUBLIC OPINION ON JEWISH MATTERS

[The purpose of the Digest is informative. Preference is given to papers not generally accessible to our readers. Quotation does not indicate approval.—Editor.]

"Words Without Facts"

The plea made by Sir Alfred Davis, noted Britisher now in this country in behalf of the Palestine Appeal, that Zionists be less critical of England's policy in Palestine because "England means well," is subjected to criticism in the "Day" of yesterday. The paper also takes occasion to rebuke the Zionist Actions Committee, now in session in London, for reporting that "all's well." These utterances the "Day" terms "Words Without Facts," observing:

"We have listened to the words of reproach from Sir Alfred Davies because Zionist circles sometimes make bold to criticize the 'Zionist' activities of the British Government in Palestine. We have also listened to the reports of the Actions Committee now in session in London. And again thoughts full of criticism come up.

"In London it was reported from various sides to the meeting of the Actions Committee that the political situation is very favorable; that the government circles are listening more attentively than hitherto to our demands; that the League of Nations has recognized the Zionist organization; that Weizmann was invited to the reception given by the British Government to the delegates of the Colonial Conference, and more and more....

"But—we are yearning for at least one small fact in addition to all the good words and reports. For words alone, which are not substantiated by facts, cannot serve as a foundation on which to build. And who does not know that one ounce of facts is worth more than a hundred pounds of words? There is no trace of facts, however, and there was none in the near past. We still remember the criticism which Lipsky voiced in London against the English inactivity in the field of cooperating with us in Palestine and what the Near East replied to this. Obviously, no facts have occurred since that time until now. For, if they had occurred the Zionist leaders would not need to search for 'sympathy,' good words and good rumors, in order to be able to prove how good our position in Palestine is. But where are the facts, when will their turn come?"

JEWS EXCEL IN POLISH CHESS TOURNAMENT

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Lodz, May 10.—Five of the seven prizes awarded in the All-Polish Chess tournament just concluded here went to Jewish champions.

The first prize went to Rubinstein and the second to Tartakower.

Nathan Straus, Jr., is mentioned as the possible successor of Francis D. Gallatin, who resigned Monday from his post as New York Park Commissioner.

"DOUBLE BARRELED" CHESTS, LOCAL, NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL, ARE URGED

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Des Moines, Iowa, May 10.—Social harmony is possible in a community only when the various religious denominations coordinate their work under community chest leadership, Raymond Clapp, director of the Cleveland Federation, told three hundred delegates, attending the National Conference of Jewish Social Service here last night.

"Double barreled" chests that will raise money for worthy national and international relief organizations at the same time that solicitations are made for local welfare work were advocated at the afternoon session. The funding of national and international institutions has been attempted by individual local communities, declared Dr. Samuel C. Kohs of San Francisco, but its ultimate success is dependent upon national recognition. "A national body, such as the National Conference of Jewish Social Service," said Dr. Kohs, "should measure out scientifically each community's responsibility."

The speaker maintained that just as the general community chest idea during the war and since was the natural outgrowth of the Jewish Federation idea for pooling local resources initiated in Cincinnati in 1899, so the proposed national chest was an inevitable development.

Sectarian agencies for social service must continue to supplement public social service, Harry J. Lurie, superintendent of the Jewish Social Service Bureau of Chicago, declared in an address at the morning session.

Private groups with a preferential interest in families of their own faith have been able to attain to more generous standards for family relief than are prevalent in the general community, according to Mr. Lurie, and have served as a spur to public agencies to improve their work. The development of mothers' pensions and their general acceptability to the community indicates, Mr. Lurie said, that public relief, inspired by similar work of sectarian agencies, has been made to measure the steps of constructive social work.

"It would be advisable," Mr. Lurie said, "to interpret the scope of the separate Jewish Agency liberally and not restrict it upon narrow sectarian or cultural tests. While this will create problems, it will tend to widen the horizon of Jewish agencies as factors in the general community programs."

At the Tuesday session, Maurice J. Karpf, director of the Training School for Jewish Social Work, outlined a program of extra-curricular training of Jewish social workers and told of the work of the school since its founding in January 1925.

In the afternoon, round tables were led by Solomon J. Cudler, director of the Budget Department of the Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies of New York City, who presented a paper on the Preparation of Budgets for Federation and by Mrs. J. M. Kellerman, executive secretary of the Room Registry for Jewish

DAVIES ASKS ZIONISTS NOT TO CRITICIZE ENGLAND

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Washington, May 9.—A plea to Zionists not to criticize the British Government unduly regarding political matters pertaining to the Jewish National Home in Palestine was voiced by Sir Alfred Davies in an address before the Seaboard Zionist Regional Conference here yesterday.

"Great Britain means well by you," he stated, urging Zionists to work in cordial cooperation with the mandatory power.

Sir Alfred also expressed disappointment that there has been dissension in the Zionist camp with regard to the leadership of Dr. Weizmann, whom he praised very highly. "Such a leader," he asserted, "should receive united support."

Dr. Herman Seidel of Baltimore and Rabbi Louis Schwefel of Washington presided at the conference sessions.

J. Kohn won the mile and a half race at the annual track and field games of the Ninety-second Street Y. M. H. A. at the Lewisohn Stadium Sunday. A. Abrams was second and J. Josephson third.

In the 440-yard senior race, M. Schmur was the winner.

Girls and Women of New York, who presented a paper on the Room Registry's Service to the Jewish Community.

Mr. Cutler urged that budgets should be so formulated that the estimate presented be regarded as a document possessing a binding character and only remotely elastic qualities, "a conception diametrically opposite to the one popular among many institutions." He felt that the budget should be regarded primarily as an obligation to be met and not as a proposition to be argued about or bargained.

Mrs. Kellerman explained that the Room Registry work concerns itself with the independent, self-supporting girl. It includes a study of the housing problem and preventive work of a vital kind. The Room Registry organization, she also explained, must go out to seek the girl and thus forestall the dangers which confront her.

The problem of Jewish education was discussed at the Tuesday night session by Dr. Alexander M. Dushkin, director of the Bureau of Jewish Education of Chicago. "The forces favoring community educational programs," he said, "are the Federation movement, the community tradition of east European Jews, the challenge of the unschooled and the challenge of the American environment, while standing in the way of communal work in Jewish education are forces more subtle and less clearly defined." "These," Dr. Dushkin said, "are the charity viewpoint which caters to those opposed to Jewish education; congregational ambition, which aims to conduct schools of its own without a community viewpoint instead of central schools; partisan fear which is concerned that one sect in the community will attempt to impose its views of Judaism on the others and assimilationist opposition."

REPORTS OF PANIC AMONG PALESTINE ORANGE GROWERS DENIED BY Z. O. ECONOMIST

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, May 10.—Alarming reports circulated by the United Press agency concerning an alleged panic among the orange growers of Palestine were denied here today on the basis of authoritative information.

The United Press reported that the orange growers had lost the amount of £300,000 due to falling prices. There is no foundation for this report.

Mr. Kasteliansky, economic adviser to the Zionist Organization, stated to the correspondent of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency here that although it was true that the price of oranges fell last month, it is also true that the market has since risen and there is no panic nor cessation in the extension of the plantations. Palestine orange growers expect satisfactory results, he declared.

DISCUSS PROPOSAL FOR CANTORS' SEMINARY IN U.S.

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Newark, N. J., May 9.—With an attendance of more than 250 persons, more than 100 of whom were delegates from various parts of the country, the Jewish Ministers' Cantors' Association of the United States and Canada opened its convention at the Y. M.-Y. W. H. A. here yesterday morning.

The speakers at the opening session included L. LeBow, of Irvington, N. J. who presided, Rabbi Joseph Konvitz, Solomon Foster and Julius Silberfeld, of Newark; Rabbi Louis Lipitz of New York, president of the association; and Rabbi Z. Maslansky of Brooklyn. Tax Commissioner Louis A. Fast, of Newark extended greetings on behalf of the city officials. Discussion of the proposed seminary for training of cantors and a pension fund for members are expected to come up at today's and tomorrow's sessions.

ISSUES APPEAL FOR VICTIMS OF MISSISSIPPI FLOOD

An appeal for aid for the Mississippi flood sufferers was issued by Sol M. Stroock, president of the Metropolitan League, to the affiliated Jewish Community Associations. Five hundred dollars was raised by the League at the dramatic contest held at the 92nd Street Y. M. H. A. in which ten associations participated. This money was turned over to the Red Cross for the relief of victims of the Mississippi flood, instead of being utilized as originally planned for establishing a Metropolitan League Camp.

SOUTH AMERICA HAS ROOM FOR JEWISH SKILLED IMMIGRANTS, HICEM HEARS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, May 10.—South American republics, including Argentine, Brazil, Uruguay and Chile, have room for new immigrants, according to a report submitted by Mr. Starkmath, the Ica director in the Argentine, to the Executive of the Hicem, the new body formed by the Hias, Ica and Emigdirekt to deal with the problem of Jewish emigrants.

The Ica director stated that while there is room for new immigration in the South American countries, a selection was to be made of the skilled artisans and agriculturists. There are no opportunities for others, he declared.

The Executive decided to open a special information bureau to prospective emigrants.

HAKOAH SOCCER TEAM PLAYS IN CHICAGO

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Chicago, Ill., May 9.—The Hakoah soccer team defeated the Peel Cup Stars by a score of 2 to 1 on Saturday afternoon. Ten thousand spectators witnessed the victory of the Vienna team.

Yesterday the Hakoah team and the Spartas played to a tie. Twenty thousand spectators saw the game. The score was 2 to 2.

BREVITIES

A public meeting will be held under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Men's Hebrew Association at the Bijou Theatre, New York, this evening. Mayor James Walker will preside, according to a joint announcement by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. H. A.

Invitations to the meeting describe it as "A Symposium on the Challenge of Youth." The meeting is to be the climax of the campaigns which the Y. M. C. A. and Y. M. H. A. are conducting to provide more adequate housing and social, cultural and recreational facilities for the youth.

The speakers at the meeting in addition to Mayor Walker will be Justice Joseph M. Proskauer, President of the Y. M. H. A.; Cleveland E. Dodge, President of the Y. M. C. A.; the Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Rabbi of the Free Synagogue; and the Rev. Dr. Daniel A. Poling, pastor of Marble Collegiate Church, and President of the Federated Churches of New York City.

The Young Men's Hebrew Association band and the Young Men's Christian Association Glee Club will furnish music at the meeting.

The Mishra expedition under Professor William F. Bade, American archaeologist, has discovered an ancient Semitic temple at Tel-el-Ansheh, with the remains of a still earlier building underneath, an Associated Press despatch from Jerusalem states.

The staff of the expedition and friends in the mission at Ramallah held a service in the excavated temple. Jews, Christians and Moslems were present where the last previous service probably was held more than 2,000 years ago.

One of the rooms of the excavated temple contained flint knives and also a rock on the east side of the ruin which doubtless was used to burn incense. Cups and bowls for offerings were found near by. In caves and store rooms beneath this room a variety of pottery and tomb deposits were found.

Workers are now removing the ancient temple to discover what is underneath it.

JEWISH STUDENTS IN FRANCE ESTABLISH FEDERATION

Alliance Supplies Budget

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency Mail Service)
Nancy, Apr. 29.—The first Congress of Jewish students in France was just concluded here.

The Congress adopted a resolution protesting against the anti-Semitic campaign, the numerous clausus and the persecution of Jewish students in Roumania. The text of this resolution will be forwarded to the Roumanian, Polish and Hungarian Consulates in France, to the League of Nations and to all Jewish student organizations throughout the world.

A second resolution expresses sympathy with Sholom Schwartzbard and the hope that his acquittal by an impartial jury will signify the condemnation of anti-Semitism and the pogroms waged against the Jews.

The Conference sent a message to the Hebrew University greeting the University as "an institution devoted to the revival of Jewish learning."

It was decided to establish a central Federation of the Jewish student organizations in France.

In the course of the debate on the resolutions, a student, Dombrovsky, paid tribute to the assistance rendered the organization of Jewish students in Nancy by the Alliance Israelite Universelle, which provides almost the whole of its budget.

JEWISH COMMUNAL ACTIVITIES

The cornerstone of the new Temple Tiferas Israel, Stagg Street, S. L., was laid last Sunday. Borough President Lynch, Commissioner David Rendt, Joseph Baroness, Morris Sender, president of the Congregation, and Rabbi Rosengoln were the speakers.

Edward Feuerstein was chairman of the building committee.

The sum of $33,500 was added to the total of money contributed to the $1,300,000 Y. M. H. A. Building Fund Friday during a luncheon at the Lawyers' Club, to Judge Joseph M. Proskauer, president of the Association. The hosts were James N. Rosenberg, Benjamin F. Feiner and Ludwig Vogelstein.

The largest contributor at the luncheon was Solon Summerfield, president of the Gotham Hosiery Co., who gave $15,000. Arthur Sachs gave $7,500. Alfred L. Rose, Samuel Kronsky, James N. Rosenberg and Benjamin F. Feiner each gave $2,500, and David L. Podell $1,000. This brings the total raised to $576,100.

A membership campaign to yield $350,000 in annual income will be launched on May 23 by the Jewish Education Association. It was announced by Jonah J. Goldstein, Chairman of a special committee charged with raising the fund. The money will be provided for religious instruction of Jewish children.

The Jewish Consumptive Relief Society of New York City will be able to establish a sanitarium in Goshen, N. Y. according to its plans, despite the attempt made by some residents of that town to prevent it.

After failing to block the organization's application for a State permit, an effort to try to buy the site before the society could acquire it has failed.

Wealthy residents of Goshen, learning that it contemplated locating the sanitarium on the Rolland White estate of 300 acres, undertook to buy the property. It is understood that upward of $50,000 cash was offered, but that the offer was turned down because the society had already taken an option on the place.

The Jewish Agricultural Society will award prizes aggregating $500 for outstanding achievements in the field of farming, farm home management, rural sanitation and communal activities, the Society announced. Twenty-nine prizes are offered.
