LAMPORT IS NAMED MEMBER OF AMERICAN DELEGATION TO WORLD ECONOMIC CONFERENCE

American Minister to Roumania at Dinner in Lamport's Honor

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, May 12.—Samuel C. Lamport, well known New York merchant and communal worker, was honored in Bucharest at a dinner at the home of Dr. William Filderman, president of the Union of Roumanian Jews. William S. Culbertson, American Minister to Roumania, and representatives of industrial, financial and political circles attended the dinner.

It was made known that Mr. Lamport was appointed by Secretary Hoover as advisory member of the American delegation to the World Economic Conference which is to be held shortly in Geneva.

Mr. Lamport is proceeding from here to Geneva to attend the Economic Conference.

ARAB EXECUTIVE URGES PALESTINE GOVERNMENT TO EXPLOIT DEAD SEA

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, May 12.—The recent announcement that the Palestine government is prepared to grant concessions in the near future for the exploitation of the minerals in the Dead Sea has called forth the objection of the anti-Zionist Arab Executive in Jerusalem. The Arab Executive apparently entertains the fear that the concessions will be granted to Jewish concerns.

In a memorandum submitted to Lord Plumer, the High Commissioner, the Arab Executive demands that the Palestine government should not grant the concession for the Dead Sea to private concerns but should itself undertake the exploitation for the benefit of the entire population.

APPEALS INFORMATION SER- VICE IS ORGANIZED BY SO- CIAL SERVICE CONFERENCE

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Des Moines, Iowa, May 12.—An Appeals Information Service for Jewish Federations was organized here yesterday at the Conference of Jewish Social Service, by unanimous decision of forty executives representing the Federations of practically every important Jewish community in the United States.

Steps will be taken by the newly created organization to initiate studies of national and international organizations now making appeals. The service will be in charge of a committee, of which William J. Shroder of Cincinnati is the Chairman, and which also includes I. Irving Lipsitch, Director of the Jewish Welfare Federation of Los Angeles; Louis M. Cahn, Ex-

ACTIONS COMMITTEE HONORS LIPSKY ON 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS ZIONIST ACTIVITY

Weizmann and Sokolow Laud His Achievements at London Dinner

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, May 12.—Louis Lipsky, President of the Zionist Organization of America, who is here now attending the meetings of the Actions Committee, General Council of the World Zionist Organization, was feted today by the Actions Committee in honor of the twenty-five years of his activity in the Zionist movement.

The reception in Mr. Lipsky's honor was attended by all the members of the Actions Committee. Dr. Chaim Weizmann spoke of Lipsky's life and work, describing his exceptional abilities as Zionist and writer. Dr. Weizmann also greeted the other American Zionists present on the occasion, Henrietta Szold, Mrs. Irma Lindheim and Jacobs.

Nahum Sokolow characterized Lipsky's activities as unusual. Lipsky, he stated, is a distinctly individual product of the new American Jewish life.

Dr. Schmarya Levin recalled the beginnings of the Zionist movement in America. He traced Mr. Lipsky's role as Zionist and his rise from secretaryship to leadership in the movement which he now heads.

In replying to the laudatory remarks of the speakers, Mr. Lipsky said that "lately since my friends have discovered my age my life has been bitter."

"I had hoped to escape banqueting in Europe but I see I have not succeeded," he declared.

Mr. Lipsky discussed the Zionist movement in America, expressing himself as optimistic regarding its future.

London, May 12.—Questions relative Organization of its Palestine work to the reorganization by the Zionist along lines of greater economy were discussed at today's session of the Actions Committee, the General Council of the World Zionist Organization.

A proposal to send a special commission to Palestine to carry out such measures of economy was discussed.

The Actions Committee listened to—

CANTORS CONCLUDE CONVENTION IN NEWARK

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Newark, N. J., May 12.—The Jewish Ministers' Cantors' Association closed its three-day convention here with a decision to expand its organization by establishing affiliated branches in all parts of the United States and Canada, with a strong centralized headquarters in New York.

Another innovation that provoked discussion is the decision to have synagogues seeking the services of cantors

FORD REFUSED BOARD OF COMMERCE OFFER TO ARBITRATE SAPIRO SUIT

Sapiro Was Willing to Submit Case to Detroit Board

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Detroit, Mich., May 12.—Stewart Hanley, of counsel for Henry Ford, rejected a suggestion that Aaron Sapiro's $1,000,000 libel suit against Ford and the "Dearborn Independent", which was declared a mistrial April 21 by Judge Fred A. Raymond of the Federal Court, be submitted to the Arbitration Committee of the Detroit Board of Commerce, it was disclosed yesterday by William Henry Gallagher, counsel for Mr. Sapiro.

Mr. Gallagher said that H. A. Harrington, Secretary of the Arbitration Committee, which is made up of prominent Detroit bankers, business and professional men, wrote him April 20, the day before the mistrial, suggesting the case be taken out of court and submitted to the committee. A similar suggestion was sent by Mr. Harrington at the same time to counsel for Mr. Ford. Mr. Gallagher said he was informed.

Mr. Gallagher said that because of being busy in court and in conference with Mr. Sapiro, he did not receive the letter until after the mistrial was declared. He conferred with Mr. Sapiro April 30 with respect to the suggestion and May 2 notified Mr. Harrington.

POLISH GOVERNMENT TO RECOGNIZE YIDDISH IN PRIMARY SCHOOLS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, May 12.—Noah Pritulski, Jewish leader, conferred today with the Polish Minister of Education regarding the question of opening government schools for Jewish children in which Yiddish would be the language of instruction.

The Minister of Education declared that in principle he recognizes the status of the Yiddish language. However, for the present, he stated, he was prepared to permit the use of Yiddish as an auxiliary language in the primary schools.

PROF. ARTOM, ITALIAN JEWISH SCIENTIST, DIES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Rome, May 12.—Professor Artom, noted Italian Jewish scientist, died today at the age of 69.

Professor Artom was known for a number of important inventions perfected by him in connection with radio telegraphy. In recognition for his achievements he received a baronetcy from the government.

The Italian government conveyed its condolences today to the family of the late professor.

Z.O. POLITICAL SECRETARY COMMENTS ON NON-PARTISAN PALESTINE COMMISSION

A statement expressing satisfaction from the Zionist point of view with the progress made in the organization of the Non-Partisan Palestine Survey Commission, the personnel of which was announced this week by Louis Marshall, was issued by Leonard Stein, political secretary of the World Zionist Organization. Mr. Stein is now in this country as the special representative of Dr. Weizmann in the final negotiations regarding the Jewish Agency Commission.

"From a Zionist point of view there is every reason to be satisfied with the progress which has been made with the organization of the Joint Palestine Commission which is being constituted under the joint auspices of the World Zionist Organization and a group of distinguished American Jews headed by Mr. Louis Marshall," Mr. Stein declared.

"As will be seen from the statement given to the press by Mr. Marshall on behalf of himself and his associates, the Commission is to be composed of representative public men commanding the confidence of the Jewish public both in the United States and elsewhere. The expert advisors to the Commission include a number of specialists of high distinction in their respective fields and their investigations cannot fail to provide the Commission with material for a weighty and authoritative report. These investigations will necessarily take some considerable time and it will probably be some months at the least before the Commission is ready to publish its findings. No time, however, will be lost and there is every reason to hope that the first detachment of experts will be at work in Palestine within the next few weeks.

"I need hardly add, that the raison d'être of the Commission is not to discuss abstract questions of principle,

NATHAN STRAUS WILL BE HONORED BY HADASSAH

Nathan Straus and Mrs. Straus will be the guests of honor of 1,500 men and women who will meet in the Hotel Commodore Tuesday afternoon to celebrate the founding of the Nathan and Lina Straus Health Center in Jerusalem. The institution is being built by Mr. Straus at a cost of about $250,000.

The celebration will be held under the auspices of the Brooklyn chapter of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization. This will be the first public function at which Mr. Straus will speak since his return from Palestine, where he attended the cornerstone laying of the center. Mrs. Irma L. Lindheim, national Hadassah president, and Dr. David de Sola Pool, rabbi of the Spanish Portuguese Synagogue of New York, will speak. Mrs. Adolf Slomka, president of the Brooklyn Hadassah chapter, will be chairman.

A tableau depicting the history of health welfare carried out by Hadassah in Palestine will be presented.

FAREWELL PROGRAM FOR HABIMA ARRANGED

The program of the farewell performance of the Habima at the Century Theatre, New York, on Sunday evening, was announced by Irving Rosenzweig, Chairman of the Habima Farewell Committee.

The second act from "The Dybbuk", the first act from "Jacob's Dream", and act two of the "Deluge", will be given, to be followed by a concert program which will include: Naum Zemach, Hannah Rovina, Miriam Goldina, Benjamin Zemach and A. Gollant.

Cantor Josef Rosenblatt signed a $12,000 a year contract Wednesday with the Congregation Anshe-Sard, Forty-fifth Street and Fourteenth Avenue, Brooklyn, calling for him to sing on all Jewish holidays and on one Sabbath a month. The contract was signed in Cantor Rosenblatt's office. Max Jonas, Brooklyn builder and philanthropist, was chairman of the committee that negotiated with the singer. The contract, which is effective on October 11, covers a period of ten years.

but to deal with the practical problem of continuing, extending, and—where necessary—improving the constructive work which is being carried out in Palestine under Jewish auspices. The objective survey which is being undertaken of the resources of Palestine, its physical characteristics and its economic structure, is designed to serve as a basis for concrete recommendations which will guide the Jewish Agency for Palestine in the discharge of its duties, and enable it to make the most advantageous use of its resources in accordance with the best advice obtainable from trained scientific minds.

"I think I can say with confidence, that on this point there is no difference of opinion between the two co-operating parties, and that there is good reason to hope that the distinguished body of public men who have consented to serve on the Commission, will produce in due course, a report which will mark an important stage in the development of the new Palestine," Mr. Stein said.

DIGEST OF PUBLIC OPINION ON JEWISH MATTERS

Declares Gottheil Medal Is Well Deserved by David A. Brown

The bestowing of the Gottheil medal for this year on David A. Brown, the national chairman of the United Jewish Campaign, is viewed by the "Jewish Morning Journal," of yesterday, as a proper recognition of his achievements. The paper observes editorially:

"The honor bestowed on David A. Brown of Detroit through the Gottheil medal of this year, as the Jew who has done most for the Jewish people in the past year, is fully deserved. The dynamic energy of the man who successfully conducted the greatest drives in the history of American Jewry, which means also the greatest drives in modern Jewish history, is entitled to every recognition on the part of the Jewish people. The money which is being collected through the Joint Distribution Committee renders help to the Jews of many countries in many ways, and the man who stands at the head of these fund collections is the benefactor of Jewry in the fullest sense of the word."

"Herald-Tribune" Urges Support for Y. M. H. A. Building Fund

The work of the New York Y. M. H. A. is praised and contributions to its building fund urged by the New York "Herald-Tribune" of yesterday in an editorial commenting on the joint sponsorship by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. H. A. of Wednesday night's symposium at the Bijou Theatre on "The Challenge of Youth." The paper writes in part:

"The Young Men's Hebrew Association needs $1,500,000 for an eleven-story annex to its present building at Ninety-second Street and Lexington Avenue, a structure twenty-seven years old, which has sleeping room for only twelve boys and which is quite insufficient to meet the demands upon it. The New York Y. M. H. A., organized fifty-three years ago, the pioneer in its field, has fallen behind other cities in its facilities. It relies on the first public appeal it has ever made for funds to remedy the shortcoming. A faithful service of more than half a century is worthy of substantial recognition."

Lady Henry, widow of Sir Charles Henry, and sister of Alice and Irene Lewishon of New York, founders of the Neighborhood Playhouse, died in London Tuesday, according to a cablegram received by Alice Lewishon.

Lady Henry inherited several million dollars from her husband, a generous helper of the poor. At Margrave she built a cottage home to which she sent rays of London's poorest children for two weeks each.

She took waste ground in London and taught children how to become gardeners. A day nursery for children at Woolwich was taken over by the Government during the war.

With Lady Henry at her death were her sisters, Mrs. Martin Lager and Miss Irene Lewishon, and a brother, Frederick Lewishon, au of New York.

I.O.B.B. TO ORGANIZE ALEPH ZADIK ALEPH LODGES IN NEW YORK AND NEW ENGLAND

Organization of junior lodges of the Independent Order B'nai B'rith was decided upon at the concluding session Monday, of the seventy-fifth annual convention of District No. 1. Junior lodges of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, according to Dr. Boris Bogen, executive secretary of the Order, who addressed the convention on the subject, have already been organized in five middle western States. They are known as the Aleph Zadik Aleph, and Jewish young men between the ages of 16 and 21 are eligible. They are intended to bring to all Jewish young men the same cultural opportunities that are afforded to Jewish college and university students by the Hillel Foundations maintained by the Order.

Authority was given to the General Committee of the District to dispose of the Home for the Aged which it maintains in Yonkers. There are only 23 inmates at this time in the institution which is for aged members of the Order and their wives. Provision will be made to house the present inmates of the Yonkers institution elsewhere.

The convention of the women's auxiliary of the District held simultaneously with the District gathering, elected the following officers of the Council: President, Mrs. Reyna S. Friedman, of New Haven; first vice-president, Mrs. Miriam B. Schneider, of Boston; second vice-president, Mrs. Lillian Smith of New York; third vice-president, Mrs. Eva Mehlman, of Springfield, Mass.; Secretary, Mrs. Augusta Israel, of New York, and treasurer, Mrs. Celia Feldman, of Manchester, N. H.

The women's auxiliary organized a year ago has a membership of 2,200, who are organized in 25 branches which were represented at the convention by 36 delegates. It will hold a mid-year conference in Boston during the first week of November.

One out of every four Jewish residents of New Rochelle is a member of the Y.M.H.A. of that city. This is the highest rate in any city. It is to be found in any similar organization affiliated with the Metropolitan League of Jewish Community Associations, it was learned this week at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the New Rochelle "Y." Reports of L. K. Goldman, the president of the organization, and other officers, indicated that more than one thousand persons each week make use of the Association's building.

The governing officers were elected: Chas. O. Tobias, honorary president; L. K. Goldman, president; Henry J. Goldberg, vice-president; Julius Gutttag, treasurer; A. H. Backman, financial secretary; Cecelia M. Cohen, recording secretary; Max Feder, executive director.

Board of Directors: Harry Berkowitz, Harry Bloom, Eugene Blumenthal, Louis S. Ehrlich, Hiram Hays, Philip Heineich, Ben Hekimer, Max Katen, Herbert Katzenberg, Maxwell Katz, Al Klepper, Milton Lachenbruch, David Levy, Ralph Levine, Dr. Jos. Liel, Jos. Low, Rudolph Schriber, Morris Shimm, Samuel Spring, Israel Streger, Dr. William I. Wallace, Samuel Weinstein, Sidney Worms, Max J. Finkelstein, Montehore Selig, Mrs. H. Berkowitz, Florence Schriber, Dr. H. H. Hekimer, Hiram J. Hays, Mrs. J. Lachenbruch, Miss Sophie Smith, and Miss Helen Talner.

Executive Director of the Chicago Jewish Charities; Solomon Lowenstein, Executive Director of the Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies of New York City; George Rabinoff of Indianapolis; Samuel Goldhamer of Cleveland and Samuel G. Blumenthal, of Dallas, Tex. More members of the Committee are to be added.

Funds to make the study of the national and international organizations will be contributed by the local federations and the Committee will be in charge of raising funds for and sponsoring the studies. Figures were submitted showing that more than two hundred appeals to local Jewish communities were made during the last year, from small Palestinian organizations through district and national agencies, to the Joint Distribution Committee, which headed the list with a three year drive for $25,000,000. These non-local agencies for relief, education and other types of social endeavor, raised a sum aggregating $20,000,000 in 1926.

Leaders of the plan explained that the Appeals Information Service will assure the gathering of authoritative information regarding the non-local groups and result in contributions by local federations to these causes in proper proportions, preventing excess contributions on one hand or allotments below a due amount on the other. There are sixty-one Jewish Federations in the country, representing the giving public of every Jewish community of some size and the new service is expected to coordinate the relationships between the Federations and the non-local groups.

Morris D. Waldman, secretary of the Jewish Welfare Federation of Detroit, was elected president of the Conference; I. M. Rubinstein of Philadelphia, Alexander A. Dushkin of Chicago, and Louis Kirstein of Boston, were elected vice-presidents. Other officers included Ferdinand S. Bach of St. Louis, treasurer, and Samuel A. Goldsmith of New York, secretary, both of whom were reelected. Samuel Goldhamer of Cleveland, Jacob Kepnes of Chicago and Aaron M. Lopez of Erie, Pa., were elected to the Board of Trustees.

The Conference accepted unanimously the recommendation of its Executive Committee to affiliate with the National Conference of Social Work. The decision means that the Jewish Conference will be guided hereafter by the other Conference in choosing its meeting place, so that Jewish workers will be able to attend sessions of both organizations.

Lady Henry was formerly Julia Leachman, and since her marriage in 1892 to Sir Charles, an elected member of Parliament, had lived in England. She was born in New York City Nov. 28, 1872, and was prominent in society here.

"I would not favor reopening the issue here," said Dr. O'Shea. "At present we have a well-working scheme for religious instruction of children after school hours, which has been agreed upon by Protestants, Catholics and Jews. I consider the matter settled here."

TEMPLE BETH-EL VOTES TO AMALGAMATE WITH TEMPLE EMANU-EL

Following a stormy meeting during which both sides threatened to secede from membership, the congregation of Temple Beth-El, Fifth Avenue and Seventy-sixth Street, New York, voted Wednesday night to amalgamate with Temple Emanu-El.

After the congregation had been polled and voted 184 to 68 in favor of amalgamation discontented members of the temple gathered in the rear of the meeting room and threatened that they would secede.

The action, favored by the temple's trustees and Louis Marshall, president of the congregation of Emanu-El, had been urged by Sydney Herman, vice-president of the temple and chairman of the meeting.

Ludwig Vogelstein, trustee and president of the United Hebrew Congregation, said that he had been a trustee of the Temple for fifteen years, that the Temple was procured on a mortgage of $400,000, and later increased to $450,000.

Max J. Kohler, another trustee, said that there were only eighty new owners in the church and that in 1892 there were 400 new owners. He said he thought that the congregation of Temple Beth-El had lost its spirituality.

"I think it is necessary," he said, "to have this congregation join up with Temple Emanu-El because the people in Temple Emanu-El are spiritual."

Mr. Goldsmith, one of the leaders of the opposition charged that the trustees had done a lot of lobbying with the congregation in order to obtain affirmative votes.

"A lot of people will want to go to Emanu-El because they'll think it fashionable," Mr. Goldsmith said, "but Temple Beth-El should be here always as a monument to Judaism. The temple does not belong to this congregation. It belongs to posterity."

Sol. N. Stroock, president of the Federation of Jewish Charities, said that he was a member of four congregations, including Beth-El. He said that the history of Beth-El had shown a recent spiritual decline.

"In the early '90," he said, "you represented the best. As these saints of the temple died off there was no one to fill their place. Let's not carry on this make-believe we have had about Beth-El for many years."

"This is a question that affects the whole community," he said. "I must ask you to vote for the amalgamation."

The vote was taken on a resolution introduced by Mr. Vogelstein and amended to read that the merger would be favored provided the name of Beth-El were used in the combined name or in some other fashion in order to retain its identity.

The school situation in New York will not be affected by the decision of the New York State Court of Appeals against the Free-thinkers Society, which opposed the practice of dismissing public school children in White Plains early one day each week for religious instruction in churches selected by their parents, is the opinion of Dr. William J. O'Shea, Superintendent of Schools.

DAVID A. BROWN PRESENTED WITH ZETA BETA TAU MEDAL FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

David A. Brown, national chairman of the United Jewish Campaign, was presented with the 1926 Richard Gottheil Medal for outstanding service to Judaism in the presence of over 300 members of the Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity at the annual "Old Timer's Day" banquet at the Hotel Astor, Sunday night. Harold Riegelman, chairman of the dinner, made the presentation address.

The other speakers were United States District Attorney Charles H. Tuttle, Federal Judge Grover N. Moscovitz, president of Zeta Beta Tau, and Professor Richard Gottheil of Columbia University, former president of the fraternity, in whose honor the medal is named. The program was broadcast by Station WRNY of New York to 4,000 Zeta Beta Tau members at chapter reunions in 36 cities.

select applicants through the association instead of their dealing personally with individual cantors.

The convention also decided to launch a drive, starting June 15, for $100,000, to establish a seminary for the training of cantors. The seminary is to be housed in a proposed center to be erected by the association. The cantors also resolved that the association publish a monthly journal.

The association went on record as deploring the excesses in Roumania and pledging its support to the United Palestine Appeal.

A suggestion made by Rabbi Solomon Foster of Newark, when he addressed the convention at its opening session Sunday morning, was enthusiastically endorsed by the delegates. Rabbi Foster suggested that a committee from the association meet with committees from the Central Conference of American Rabbis and other rabbinical bodies to promote cooperation between rabbis and cantors.

JOINT Y.M.H.A.-Y.M.C.A. MEETING FURTHERS PARALLEL DRIVES

The public meeting held under the joint auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. M. H. A. in the Bijou Theatre, Wednesday night, was termed by Mayor Walker as "the most forward step I have ever recognized in our community." The meeting, announced as a "symposium on the challenge of youth," was in the interests of the campaigns of the two organizations now being conducted for funds aggregating $8,000,000.

"Nothing could be better for our community than this foregathering of Jew and Gentile in the interests of young Hebrews and young Christians. There is no question in my mind that both have always been aiming at the same purposes, that both have a deep devotion to humanity and a keen appreciation of youth."

Addresses were also made by Dr. Stephan S. Wise, Cleveland E. Dodge, president of the Y. M. C. A., and Joseph M. Proskauer, president of the Y. M. H. A.

Mr. Dodge said that lack of normal home life and satisfactory living accommodations together with the insistent pressure of commercialized recreation had emphasized the need of young men in New York for a constructive social and recreational program.

Mr. Proskauer said the challenge of youth was a demand for the right to the enjoyment of the normal life of youth. Huge organizations of commerce and industry, he declared, with the intricate complexities of city life, had "crushed out the old ways" by which young men had been developed into sturdy manhood.

"While we have rightly poured millions into hospitals and other relieving institutions, we have done little for organizations that prevent sickness, misery and crime by the development of virile, upstanding young men."

"That is the function which the Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Men's Hebrew Association should and must perform," Mr. Proskauer said.

day to an address by Sir Wyndham Deedes, who summarized the experiences of his recent visits to Poland and America.

Sir Wyndham stated that his observations have convinced him that Zionism is beginning to affect every phase of Jewish life outside of Palestine. Assimilation, he stated, is doomed and Palestine now constitutes the only solution to the Jewish problem.

ton that he and his client were willing to submit the case to the committee. Mr. Gallagher asked that the committee's rule that the arbitration proceedings be secret unless both sides agreed to make them public be waived.

The only stipulation placed upon the proposal by Sapiro's attorney was that the arbitration hearing be open to the public. William H. Gallagher, chief of the plaintiff's counsel, wrote "you doubtless understand that our action is based upon false publications concerning Mr. Sapiro. One effect of bringing the suit is the opportunity to give the world the facts. That opportunity my client cannot afford to sacrifice."

He pointed out that because of the nature of Mr. Sapiro's charges, the arbitration proceedings should be public.

Mr. Gallagher said Mr. Harrington notified him May 3 that Mr. Hanley had been informed of Mr. Sapiro's willingness to submit the case to arbitration. Yesterday, however, Mr. Gallagher said he was notified by Mr. Harrington that Mr. Hanley had "definitely decided to decline our request that the entire matter be referred to arbitration."

Among the members of the Arbitration Committee, Mr. Gallagher pointed out, is Edsel B. Ford, son of Henry Ford.

"So confident were we in the fairness of the committee," he added, "that we were willing to abide by the decision of associates of Henry Ford's son," Gallagher said.
