

APPOINTMENT OF JEW AS PALESTINE CONSUL WIDELY DISCUSSED IN POLAND

Pope Said to Have Voiced Objections;
Compromise Effected
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, June 1.—Deputy Hausner, newly appointed Polish Consul for Haifa, was received yesterday by Vice-Premier Bartel, to confer on the problems of the Polish Consular service in Palestine.

The appointment of Deputy Hausner to the Polish Consular service in Palestine has called forth much interest in political circles here. It was stated on good authority that the government originally intended to appoint Deputy Hausner as Polish Consul General in Jerusalem. This, however, met with the objections of the Papal representative in Warsaw who contended that the appointment of a Jew as the representative of a Catholic power in Jerusalem, where the Christian Holy Sites are located, would not be viewed favorably by the Holy See.

It was stated that Marshal Pilsudski insisted on the appointment of a Jew to represent Poland in Palestine. A compromise was effected by the appointment of Deputy Hausner as Polish Consul in Haifa, instead of Jerusalem. It is also rumored that in order to bring about harmony between the intention of the government to be represented by a Jewish Consul in Palestine and the wishes of the Pope, the Polish Consulate General is to be removed from Jerusalem to Haifa.

LEMBERG JEWS BESIEGE CONVENT DEMANDING RE- LEASE OF JEWISH GIRL

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
Warsaw, June 1.—An event medieval in character called forth great excitement in the Jewish quarter of Lemberg.

A month ago, a Jewish girl named Komis disappeared from home. Her parents found out that she was being kept in a convent. The demand of the parents for their daughter to be returned was refused.

The parents, accompanied by a throng of friends and sympathizers besieged the convent, demanding that the girl be released. The police dispersed the crowd.
An investigation was ordered by the District Attorney.

ROUMANIA ATTEMPTS TO ANSWER JEWISH CHARGES IN LEAGUE MEMORANDUM

Vienna Ambassador Publishes Contents of Document Which Contains Denials and New Charges; Contests Right of Foreign Jewish Bodies to Intervene
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, June 1.—A defense of the attitude of the Roumanian government in the continuous mistreatment of Jews in Roumania was made in a memorandum submitted by the government to the Secretariat of the League of Nations, it was learned here from a statement made public in the "Neue Freie Presse" by Mitienu, the Roumanian Minister to Austria.

The statement of the ambassador owes its publication to his desire to counteract the effect of the protest of Austrian Jewry against the Roumanian government, adopted at a meeting held Sunday night under the auspices of the joint Austrian Jewish Committee at Olympic Hall. To refute the charges against the Roumanian government, the ambassador quotes as his evidence the report of the self-styled American investigator of Jewish conditions in Roumania, Col. Lytton G. Ament, and also the alleged report of the statements of Rabbi Niemirower in the Roumanian senate, the accuracy of which was previously denied.

The ambassador also discloses in his statement the contents of the memorandum of the government to the League, in which it makes reply to the petitions submitted to the League in behalf of the London Joint Foreign Committee of the Board of Jewish Deputies and the Anglo-Jewish Association, and the French Alliance Israëlitte Universelle.

The Roumanian government, it appears, makes several arguments against this petition. First, it contests the right of the Paris and London Jewish organizations to intervene in behalf of Roumanian Jewry. Second, it states that the government has already expressed its disapproval of the "sporadic anti-Semitic accidents and it is doing everything possible to put an end to these accidents." Third, the memorandum presents what it claims to be a review of Roumanian Jewish history since 1820.

In this part of the memorandum the Roumanian government alleges that the economic dominance of the Jewish population in Roumania has been growing. It also charges that "a part of the Jewish population is inclined to call forth social unrest, while another part is bent on exploitation of the poor and rich. No one, however," the memorandum states, "identifies Roumanian Jewry as a whole with the profiteers and traders. Moreover, in accordance with our policy with regard to the Jewish population, all Jews in Roumania were granted equal rights, traders were given amnesty and 10,000 Russian Jewish refugees were given the right of asylum in Roumania."

The fourth argument of the memorandum is that the Jewish religion was given adequate representation in the Roumanian Senate, the fifth, that Yiddish schools were erected, and the sixth, that Jewish private schools were subventioned.

KISHINEFF JEWS SENTENCED TO PRISON FOR SELF-DE- FENSE AGAINST EXCESSES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
Vienna, June 1.—Self-defense of Roumanian Jews against anti-Semitic attacks is a crime punishable by imprisonment or fine, according to a decision of the Kishineff Court, a despatch from that city to the Vienna "6 Uhr Blatt" states.

Nine young Jews were brought to trial for defending themselves during the anti-Jewish excesses in Kishineff last January. Abraham Kleinman, who headed the group, was sentenced to one year's strict confinement, three were sentenced to six months each and one was fined one million lei.

ANGLO-SOVIET BREACH PUTS STOP TO RUSSIAN JEWISH IM- MIGRATION TO PALESTINE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
Jerusalem, June 1.—The break between the British Government and Soviet Russia will have its effect on the Jewish immigration to Palestine, it was learned here today.

Following the severance of relations between the British Government and the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics all applications for visas of Russian Jewish immigrants to Palestine will be denied. Instructions issued to the immigration authorities indicate that those Russians who obtained visas before the Anglo-Soviet breach occurred will be admitted to the country.

ANTI-SCHECHITA MEASURE INTRODUCED IN COMMONS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
London, June 1.—A bill asking for the introduction of humane methods in the slaughtering of animals, making no exemption for the schechita, was introduced in the House of Commons by Noel Buxton, Labor M. P., former Minister of Agriculture.
There is little likelihood that the bill will be passed by Commons, it was stated.

UNION EXECUTIVE BOARD VOTES BUDGET OF $569,293

Increase Appropriation for Religious Work

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)
Cincinnati, June 1.—A budget of $569,293 was voted this week for the work of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations at a meeting of the Executive Board held at the Hotel Sinton here. This sum represents a reduction of approximately $75,000 over the original requests made, and represents an increase of a similar amount over the budget of the previous year.

Efforts are being made under the direction of David A. Brown, chairman of the Board of Finance, to secure sufficient funds for the organization to carry on its activities which include the maintenance of the Hebrew Union College, the Department of Synagogue and School Extension, the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods and the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods. Congregations affiliated with the Union are now engaged in an effort to obtain adequate income for the Union.

The budget as adopted, according to an announcement made by Ludwig Vogelstein, chairman of the Executive Board, allots $269,758 to the Hebrew Union College, $95,919 to the Department of Synagogue and School Extension, $16,513 to the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods. The sum of $50,484 was given to the New York Committee for School Extension which maintains eight religious schools in New York City, with an enrollment of 1,500 children.

EDUCATORS' CONFERENCE DISCUSSES PLANS FOR WIDER JEWISH EDUCATION

Propose School Holidays for All Israel and American Jewry; Body Elects New Officers

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)
Atlantic City, N. J., June 1.—Dr. Alexander Mordecai Dushkin, Executive Director of the Board of Jewish Education of Chicago, was elected President of the National Council of Jewish Education for the coming year, at the Convention of the Council held at the Ritz Carlton Hotel here. Dr. Leo Honor, present incumbent, was renominated, but declined.

Standards in Jewish Education was the subject of discussion at the Tuesday morning session. Israel Abrams of Pittsburgh presided. Reports were rendered by Jacob S. Golub, supervisor of schools, Board of Jewish Education of Chicago; Louis Hurwich, Supervisor of Hebrew Schools of Boston, and Ben Rosen, Director of the Associated Talmud Torahs of Philadelphia.

Mr. Hurwich, as chairman of the Committee a "Survey of Training Schools for Jewish Teachers", reported that twelve teachers' training schools were included in the study, the total enrollment being 779 students. The annual budget of all the schools was $180,000 of which $140,000 are contributed by central educational bodies. Hebrew is the language of instruction in most of the training schools, three of which, in Baltimore, Boston and New York, have the right to confer academic degrees. Mr. Hurwich recommended that the courses of study offered by the different schools be standardized and that minimum requirements be established for schools seeking the right to confer degrees.

Mr. Golub, speaking in behalf of the Committee on a Uniform Jewish School Calendar, recommended that a special school holiday, Kol Israel Chaverim Day, and that an American Jewry Day be set aside to review the contributions which the Jews have made to America. The committees also recommended that longer vacations be granted to teachers to enable them to take summer courses or to travel.

Ben Rosen, who spoke on behalf of the committee which undertook to ascertain the extent to which the subjects of Hebrew and Jewish history have been included in the curriculum of public high schools and colleges, recommended that steps be taken to facilitate the inclusion of these subjects in a larger number of institutions. Plans for negotiations to this end were presented. The results achieved during the past year in the University of Chicago, Harvard University, University of Pittsburgh and the University of Pennsylvania, were commended.

Dr. Isaac B. Berkson, Instructor of the Jewish Institute of Religion of New York, presided at a session which was devoted to a discussion of Extension Education for Children. A paper on the educational work done by the

Mr. Lamport Lauds American Ambassador in Roumania

Praise for William Culbertson, American ambassador in Roumania, for his friendly attitude toward the Jews and especially for his prompt action in interceding with the Roumanian government for the release of Jacob Landau, director of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency and the "Jewish Daily Bulletin", when he was arrested recently on his arrival at the Roumanian port, is contained in an interview with Samuel C. Lamport appearing in the May 25 issue of the "Pariser Haint", Jewish daily of Paris. Mr. Lamport gave the interview when he was in Paris on the way back from his Palestine and Europe trip, in the course of which he had attended the economic conference at Geneva as a delegate of the United States government. He was present at the time Mr. Landau was arrested by the Roumanian officials and he immediately took the matter up with Ambassador Culbertson, who secured Mr. Landau's release. That part of the interview which relates to this matter, reads:

"Arriving in Europe from Palestine, Mr. Lamport was present in Constantza, the Roumanian port, witnessing the arrest of Mr. Landau, director of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency. Mr. Lamport protested in the strongest terms to the Constauza authorities, but he left at once for Bucharest to see the American ambassador, William Culbertson, one of the finest and most learned personalities in the diplomatic circles of America, and author of the well known book on Alexander Hamilton, which at the time evoked such high praise from Theodore Roosevelt. As has been reported he secured Mr. Landau's release. But the matter has not ended there. A thorough investigation of the incident is now under way.

"The action of Mr. Culbertson, Mr. Lamport stated, affirmed once more that he is the ideal example of what American diplomacy is and can be. The arrest of the head of a well known Jewish institution in America, on no ground except that he is a Jew, despite the fact that he was in possession of an American passport, could not but call forth a vigorous and sharp protest from such a statesman as Mr. Culbertson."

Viscount Castlerosse's Invitation to American Jews

The invitation to emigrate to England extended to American Jews by Viscount Castlerosse, through the columns of the "London Sunday Express", is viewed as amusing but meaningless, by Jacob Fishman (the "Jewish Morning Journal"), who declares it is a strange proposal, coming from a member of the Irish race, who are known for their

SAUEL LAMPORT AND JAMES MARSHALL REPORT ON PALESTINE CONDITIONS ON ARRIVAL IN NEW YORK

Free Loan Foundation and Project for Series of Modern Hotels Are Results of Mr. Lamport's Trip

Palestine Jewry places great hope in the Jewish Agency, Samuel C. Lamport, well known New York merchant and communal worker, declared on his arrival in New York from an extended trip to Palestine and European countries, when interviewed by the representative of the "Jewish Daily Bulletin" yesterday. Mr. Lamport was accompanied on his tour by Mrs. Lamport.

Prior to the establishment of the Palestine Free Loan Foundation, for which his father set aside the amount of $250,000, Mr. Lamport toured Palestine, accompanied by James Hodgson, commercial attache of the United States Legation in Cairo. During his tour of the country Mr. Lamport made a thorough survey of the economic conditions prevailing there.

A board of prominent Palestine Jews was appointed by Mr. Lamport to administer the Free Loan Foundation which will begin to function soon.

Mr. Lamport took a special interest in the project of establishing modern hotels in Jerusalem, Haifa and Tiberias, the hot spring resort. While in Paris he conferred on this subject with James de Rothschild, president of the Pica, and his brother-in-law, Frank Goldsmith, who will come to this country in the fall to enlist financial support for the project.

"Despite the severity of the economic situation," Mr. Lamport stated to the representative of the "Jewish Daily Bulletin," "I found that the pioneer spirit is not on the wane in Palestine and that the settlers are displaying unique courage, tenacity, persistence and incomparable devotion for the ideals which brought them there. No one who comes to Palestine can fail to be moved by this steadfastness which holds out against all odds.

"I have become interested in the hotel project because until the Agency will start to function I see in the development of the tourist traffic, the most immediately attainable way of improving economic conditions in the country. Of the 60,000 tourists who flock to Egypt every year, only a few thousand go to Palestine because of the lack of proper accommodations. Just like Switzerland, Palestine could derive a large part of its income from an increased tourist traffic. I feel optimistic that the Jews in the United States will extend help to this project which will be of immediate value for Palestine and also presents a sound business investment."

Mr. Lamport, the "Jewish Daily Bulletin" understands, was invited by the Russian Ambassador in Paris, Christian Rakowsky, to proceed to Russia in connection with textile interests in Russia.

James Marshall, son of Louis Marshall, who arrived on the same steamer from a trip to Palestine, expressed himself in optimistic terms about the future of the Palestine work, when interviewed by a representative of the "Jewish Daily Bulletin."

The Jewish work in Palestine is sound, notwithstanding the present crisis, he stated. On his way to New York, Mr. Marshall stopped off in London where he conferred with Dr. Chaim Weizmann and Dr. Lee K. Frankel. "Palestine is a great country for the Jewish spirit," he declared.

MEMORIAL MEETING FOR MRS. FREEDMAN TONIGHT

A memorial meeting to pay tribute to the late Mrs. Isabella Freedman will be held tonight at Temple Emanu-El.

Mrs. Freedman, who died last Thursday, was active in nearly every branch of social welfare. Representatives of the many organizations in which she was interested will participate in the services tonight. Among the welfare agencies which she aided are the Welfare Island Synagogue, the Belfrage House, the Widowed Mothers' Fund, the Jewish Working Girls' Vacation Society, and the National Council of Jewish Women.

Mrs. Richard Gottheil will preside at the memorial meeting tonight.

BALTIMORE MAYOR DENIES KLAN WIZARD'S ASSERTION Was Not Klan Candidate

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Baltimore, Md., June 1.—Denial that the Ku Klux Klan was in any way responsible for his election was made by Mayor William F. Broening, Tuesday, May 31. Dr. Hiram Wesley Evans, Imperial Wizard of the hooded order, in an address at Lynchburg, Va., on Monday night, asserted that the Klan "put over" Mayor Broening in the election on May 3.

"That's all rot," Mayor Broening, who is a Republican, said. "I'm not a member of the Klan and I know nothing about their activities. My election was in no way brought about by this order."

The Mayor added that he had made his position with regard to the Klan very plain last November, when he was defeated for the post of Attorney-General of Maryland. At that time he denied being a member of the order or having any connection with it, and in a sense repudiated any aid that the Klan as an organization might have sought to give him.

ROUMANIA SEEKS $50,000,000 LOAN IN UNITED STATES

The Roumanian government will soon seek an American loan of $50,000,000, reports circulating in Wall Street yesterday stated. Negotiations for the floating of the loan have not progressed materially but it was learned that steps to secure the loan will be taken by representatives of the Roumanian government after the $50,000,000 loan sought in Germany will be obtained.

The German loan is now being negotiated. The terms are said to be $10,000,000 in cash and $40,000,000 in credit, with the provision that Roumania renounces all war claims against Germany. This condition has not been accepted, but it is believed that an arrangement will be reached.

WORKERS ORDER DECIDES AGAINST AMALGAMATION

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Philadelphia, Pa., June 1.—Decision to terminate the negotiations for amalgamation with the New York Workmen's Circle was taken at the concluding session of the nineteenth annual convention of the Independent Workmen's Circle here. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 44 to 34 after prolonged debate.

Through other resolutions adopted, the order decided to aid the campaign of the Palestine Workers' Union and to indorse the campaign of the Hias. The order also voiced a protest against the proposed registration of aliens in the United States.

WOMEN'S ZIONIST ORGANIZATION TO MEET IN BASLE

Basle, June 1.—The fourth world conference of the International Women's Zionist Organization, will take place here on August 28, prior to the convening of the Fifteenth Zionist Congress.

Young Judea Clubs was read by Samuel J. Borowsky, Executive Chairman of National Young Judea. Albert P. Schoolman, Director of the Central Jewish Institute Camps, reported on the educational facilities of the summer camp.

The Convention will conclude today with a joint session of the National Council for Jewish Education and the National Association of Jewish Community Center Workers, at which the problem of "Extension Education for Youth and Adults" will be considered. Prof. Mordecai M. Kaplan will read a paper on "The Place of Adult Study in Jewish Life". Dr. Mordecai Soltes, Director of Jewish Extension Education of the Jewish Welfare Board, will present a paper on "Materials and Methods in Club and Mass Activities." Israel S. Chipkin, Educational Director of the Jewish Education Association of New York, will lead the discussion.

The other officers elected were: Jacob S. Golub, supervisor of the Hebrew Schools of Chicago was elected Secretary. Israel Abrams, Principal of the Hebrew Institute of Pittsburgh was reelected Treasurer. The following were chosen to the Executive Committee: Dr. Samson Benderly, Prof. Mordecai M. Kaplan, Dr. Leo L. Honor, Dr. Isaac B. Berkson, Israel S. Chipkin, of New York; Dr. Emanuel Gemoran of Cincinnati, Louis Hurwich of Boston, Ben Rosen of Philadelphia, and A. Friedland of Cleveland.

PALESTINE MAY HAVE BRITISH COLONIAL RE- SEARCH STATION

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, June 1.—Palestine will come within the range of the Colonial Scientific Research Service which will soon be introduced in the colonies and dominions of Great Britain, according to recommendations adopted by the Colonial Conference.

An annual budget of £175,000 for this work was provided. It is possible that one of the research stations will be established in Palestine.

A twenty-acre estate with a cottage at Cronon-on-the-Hudson has been purchased by the Jewish Social Service Association, formerly the United Hebrew Charities, and will be used as a summer camp for undernourished children. It was announced yesterday by Miss Frances Taussig, executive director of the organization.

The needs for the camp fund was provided by the Centennial Lodge of the Masonic Order, which contributed $5,000.

A contract was let for the building of a new synagogue in Bristol, Va. Work of tearing down the present building on the site will be begun at once. The new synagogue will cost $15,000, of which sum only $3,500 is yet to be raised.

Joe Strauss is chairman of the committee.

Supreme Court Justice Joseph M. Proskauer, chairman of the $1,500,000 drive of the Y. M. H. A. for a new building on Lexington Ave., announced that a total of $1,250,000 has already been contributed.

The contributions reported were headed by a $3,000 gift from Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rittenberg and three gifts of $1,000 each from Morris E. Gestet, Ginsburg Bros. and Edward Seidman.

JEWISH CENTER VIEWED AS UNIFYING FACTOR

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Atlantic City, N. J., June 1.—Rabbi William H. Fineshriber, of Philadelphia, addressing the delegates of the National Association of Jewish Community Center Secretaries, at the opening session of the ninth annual conference at the Ritz Carlton Hotel, last night, emphasized the importance of the Jewish community center as one of the most effective instruments for furthering the unification of American Jewry. Rabbi Fineshriber said that he had found a remarkable growth in tolerance and Jewish consciousness among the various elements of Jewish communities of the country.

Congressman Isaac Bacharach and Joseph M. Weidberg of Atlantic City welcomed the delegates.

The President of the Association, Tobias Roth, of Rochester, outlined the growth of the Jewish Center movement since the Jewish Welfare Board has sponsored a national policy, promoting better facilities. A trained personnel and effective program.

The association represents more than three hundred organizations affiliated with the Jewish Welfare Board.

A dinner was tendered Alexander Brin, editor of the Boston "Jewish Advocate", in celebration of the 10th anniversary of his editorship of the paper and the 25th anniversary of its founding.

Messages were received from President Coolidge, and Ex-Gov. Channing H. Cox.

Among the contributions announced by Judge Francis X. Mancuso, Chairman of the Campaign Committee in the $2,000,000 drive to rebuild the Italian Hospital, was one of $3,000 from Col. Herbert H. Lehman.

Jewish dietary laws will be the subject of essays submitted in the annual essay contest planned by the Religious Observance Committee of the Young People's League of the United Synagogue. The judges are Dr. Elias L. Solomon, Honorary President of the synagogue; David N. Mosesohn, editor of "The Jewish Tribune", and Harry Schneiderman, Secretary of the American Jewish Committee. The essays must be sent to the League before June 15 and must not exceed 1,500 words.

A fund of $25,000 was given by Daniel Guggenheim to finance the airplane search of Newfoundland for the missing French aviators, Captains Charles Nungesser and François Coli. The expedition will be headed by Dr. Sydney Cotton, former Newfoundland air pilot, who believes that the men still are alive.

Mr. Guggenheim, whose interest in aviation was shown by his donations to New York University and to the Guggenheim Foundation for the Promotion of Aviation, said that America owes it to France and the cause of aviation to search to the very last limit for the men.

The graduation exercises of the School for Nursing of the Beth Israel Hospital were held last night at the Jewish Center in West 56th Street, New York.

Addresses were delivered by Dr. Louis J. Ladin, Chairman of the Committee on Nursing and Joseph H. Cohen, President of the Hospital. Twenty-eight graduates were awarded diplomas.

SAYS POLAND NAMED JEWISH CONSUL TO SHOW SYMPATHY FOR PALESTINE REBUILDING

Deputy Hausner, speaking of his appointment, said that it had to be borne in mind that the Polish Government had made the appointment knowing the facts and after very careful consideration. It was not the ordinary appointment of a consul, he said.

Poland had not yet behind it the tradition of appointing a Jew to represent his country abroad. The question in this case was one specifically of Palestine and of the Jewish Palestine. The Vice-Premier, Professor Bartel, had told him that the present Government wished by means of his appointment to emphasize its friendly attitude towards the work of upbuilding a Jewish national home in Palestine and its desire to assist in the carrying out of this task. The appointment was only the first step on the part of the Government.

"I am fully aware of the responsibility of my post," Dr. Hausner continued. "I shall have to represent the double interests of Poland and of re-creating Palestine, the interests of the Polish immigrants who form the largest part of the immigrant stream and also the interests of the Polish State. I trust that Polish Government circles will as a result be convinced that it is possible to be a devoted Zionist and also to safeguard the interests of the Polish State no less than if one is an assimilationist. I regard the action of the Pilsudski Government in making this appointment as a blow to assimilationism and an expression of confidence in Zionism."
