CHICAGO JEWISH TEACHERS ASK PAY FOR HIGH HOLIDAYS (Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 19.—Jewish teachers in the Chicago schools are negotiating with the school board to assure them their salaries during the coming High Holidays.

Until last year, they always received full pay and it was considered a tradition which the Board of Education had observed for years. Last year, however, an exception was made and more than 200 Jewish teachers on the city payroll found their salaries deducted when they absented themselves from school during the holidays. Morris Eller, City Collector, has announced that he will champion the teachers' cause before Mayor William Hale Thompson.

'INTERNATIONAL JEW' STILL OBTAINABLE IN GERMANY; EXPLANATION DEMANDED 'C. V. Zeitung' Asks Ford If He Knows Book Is On Sale (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, Sept. 19.—The advertising of Henry Ford's book, "The International Jew," which Mr. Ford in his letter to Louis Marshall promised would be withdrawn, is commented upon by the "C. V. Zeitung," the organ of the central organization of German Jews.

The Hammer Verlag, Theodor Fritsch's publishing house which issued the German translation of Ford's book, published an advertisement in the Boersenblatt stating that Ford has not withdrawn his book which is obtainable as hitherto, all press reports regarding the withdrawal of the book being untrue.

The "C. V. Zeitung" asks whether Henry Ford knows of this and agrees to it.

RABBI GETS SIX MONTHS FOR TEACHING BIBLE TO CHILDREN IN RUSSIA (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, Sept. 19.—A sentence of six months imprisonment was imposed and later commuted to a fine of 50 roubles on the local rabbi of the town Romni, district of Poltava.

The rabbi was charged with teaching religion to Jewish children under sixteen. It was charged that the rabbi kept the children in the local Beth Hamidrash behind closed windows and locked doors, where he instructed them in the Bible and Talmud. He denied having taught the children, declaring that they studied themselves and referred to him only when they came across difficult passages.

One of the three synagogues in Kuteln, Zhitomir, was seized by the workers and will be converted into an artisan club following a long conflict between the religious congregation and the workers.

CHARGES DISCRIMINATION WAS PRACTICED IN HUNGARIAN ANTI-ALIEN RAIDS Case of Native Hungarian Jew Brought To Court (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Budapest, Sept. 19.—Discrimination against Jews in the recent raids on aliens in Hungary was brought to the attention of the Hungarian court in the case of Alfred Wohlstein, a native of Nagyatpolsekany, a part of the territory which was severed from Hungary by the treaty of Trianon.

Wohlstein appealed to the court against the deportation order. At the proceedings his attorney, Rendes, charged that notwithstanding the fact that Wohlstein is a native Hungarian, he was sent out of the country because he is a Jew. The presiding judge declared that this was impossible. The attorney then drew attention to the fact that the text of the deportation law states that undesirable elements are not recognized as Hungarians.

Budapest, Sept. 19.—Democratic reforms in the policy of the Hungarian government will be advocated at the next session of the Hungarian parliament, leaders of the government party announced.

Among the proposed reforms is one urging a lessening in the numerous clauses which limits the number of Jewish students in the universities and colleges. It is stated that Count Bethlen, the premier, is in accord with this proposal.

DR. IGNATZ KOERNER, HEAD OF HAKOAH CLUB, RESIGNS Soccer Team's Tours in U. S. Financial Failure (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, Sept. 19.—Dr. Ignatz Koerner, founder and leader of the Vienna sport club Hakoah, resigned from the presidency of the organization at the annual meeting of the club held here yesterday. In giving up the leadership of the Hakoah, Dr. Koerner strongly criticized the tendency that has developed among some of its members which he termed "denationalizing professionalism."

At the meeting a stormy debate developed when the financial report was submitted, showing that the American tours of the soccer team were a financial failure, resulting in an indebtedness of 100,000 Schillings ($14,070). A board of directors was elected.

NEW BOOK PUBLISHED IN BOSTON MAKES A VICIOUS ATTACK ON AMERICAN JEWS

Advocates Barbaric Persecutions Reminiscent of Middle Ages

Vehement attacks on American Jewry, culminating in proposals which recall the barbarism of the Middle Ages are contained in a book, "The Evil Religion Does" by Morrison L. Swift, published by the Liberty Press, Boston.

The book speaks of "Jerusalemizing the American mind." It also contains an attack on what it terms "Catholic anti-Americanism" and "Protestant anti-Americanism," and on the "Jewish atavism in the Christian churches."

In the book Mr. Swift advocates: "Until the 'Jews' abolish their tribe, abandon 'Jewry,' drop their double citizenship, and merge as complete Americans, the following steps are imperative:

"The 'Jews' should be given a birth quota to limit their intertempere reproduction, for the same reason that their immigration is curtailed. Disregard of this birth quota should be followed by sterilization. Child production is a privilege, not a right, and depends on social sanction. The Jews could themselves exercise birth control by contraception, but they do the reverse. They propagate in monstrous excess.

"Jewish immigration to the United States from any country should be entirely barred, not merely reduced," he continues. "The American right to discriminate among groups and nations and wholly exclude those that are for any reason unsuitable, is clear, absolute and obligatory. It is as sound a right as the debarring of undesired individuals. It is not invidious. It simply affirms that the excluded are not a proper chemical for the American population-compound planned. The Jews could make themselves fit, as this book has shown, and refuse to do so. Therefore bar them out.

"All Jewish children, born already or hereafter in this country, should be excluded from citizenship.

"Newspaper owners are obliged to publish their names and degree of ownership as a measure of public protection. Since the Jews are undermining America by absorption of wealth and wealth-influence, business and professional Jews should not be allowed to hide their identity behind American or company names. All business and professional Jews, large or small, should be required to publish on their signs, stationery, advertisements, etc., a word indicating their Jewishness; and business companies, corporations and the like, and the shares they own or represent.

"The 'Jews' have chosen the status they want; Americans should recognize and deal with that. They should debunk the Jews' pretentious farce that they can be Americans and also Jews. It is impossible."

The book strongly attacks the pro-Palestine movement and the support given it by American Jews. "Palestine where this antique Jewishism is first to be restored," the author writes, "will be the base of action for breaking down modern culture and Judaizing civilization. It is mainly the money of rich American Jews derived from the great body of genuine Americans, that is enabling the Jews to do this subversive work. It is the duty of the American people to unite as an immovable barrier to further progress of the Jews in these lines and compel them completely to abandon their anti-modern, anti-American policies and their Jewishness, or to receive the status of complete aliens here. They must no longer trick and double-cross Americans by playing the two-faced part of Americans on the surface and Jews underneath.

"That no group, racial or otherwise shall build itself up as a separate tribe or nation in the United States is a fundamental American principle. The Jews under very bad leadership have elected to do it. To cast off their false leaders, cease their tribal practices, and merge with the rest as genuine Americans is now incumbent on them. If they refuse, they have no basis of complaint if they are treated as the intrinsic aliens they have elected to be, and are deprived of the privileges accorded only to true citizens. When this happens the Jews will, as always, raise the cry of persecution, race prejudice and religious bigotry, against Americans; but it is the Jews who are guilty, not Americans. For they are practising racial and religious bigotry when they decline to renounce Jewishness and become Americans in full."

Dr. Jacob Fuhs, who has practiced medicine in Brooklyn for more than half a century, died Sunday at the age of 78. He leaves a wife and two daughters.

In the course of his long professional career Dr. Fuhs has been associated with nearly a score of medical societies and hospitals, among them the Acad. of Medicine, Long Island College Hospital and Wyckoff Heights, St. Catherine's and Israel Zion hospitals. He belonged to the Fracturers Club, and the Kings County Medical Society. He was on the original staff of the

ANGLO-JEWISH PRESS TAKES MAX D. STEUER TO TASK FOR HIS STATEMENT ON RELIEF

Widespread Editorial Comment Rebukes Mr. Steuer

The charges of Max D. Steuer against the Joint Distribution Committee and the replies of the J. D. C. to the charges created a stir in the Anglo-Jewish press.

The majority of the editorial comment takes Mr. Steuer severely to task for the manner in which he expressed the criticism.

The Wisconsin Jewish Chronicle writes:

"What is the motive of Steuer's attack? Is it his desire to 'get even' with the prominent American Jewish leaders for their refusal to take his 'World Jewish Conference' seriously? Is it his purpose to discredit and defeat the present $25,000,000 United Jewish Campaign for relief and reconstruction, with its program of assistance to the Russian back-to-the-soil movement? Or does Steuer desire to become a great Jewish leader by overnight made-to-order hocus pocus?"

"We'll take the word of a Louis Marshall, whose 50 years of Jewish service is the very definition of honor and integrity, against that of Steuer, Gruenbaum, Czernichow, Naumberg, Schabad and the whole crowd of American and European 'snipers' who seem to take fenshish delight in making the Jewish problem still more deplorable and hopeless. Isn't Jewish suffering bad enough without having to bear this further burden of ambush attacks from our own 'brethren'?"

"Mr. Max Steuer's statement," writes the Baltimore "Jewish Times," "is answered very well by Louis Marshall, who explains the circumstances under which the relief workers labored; the changes of governments, the disorganization of life generally, the chaotic condition of the currency of the various countries, the starvation and the disease which could not wait for the so-called 'constructive methods' mentioned by the three Polish gentlemen.

"As to the insinuation that American Relief Workers misappropriated funds, all that Mr. Steuer needs do is to make a study of the situations of these workers after their return to America, and learn for himself the sacrifice these men made, leaving well-paying positions and comfortable homes to answer the call of the Joint Distribution Committee. The glory and the honor of their sacrifice and their service received not even the recognition of the Joint Distribution Committee—to say nothing of the appreciation of American Jews.

Says the Philadelphia "Jewish Times": "Mr. Steuer's own version of the already in August, 1928. When completed, both buildings will represent an expenditure of close to a million dollars. The new Temple is to be of Byzantine type. Rabbi Samuel J. Abrams is rabbi of the congregation.

most accidental manner in which his views became front-page copy are not acceptable to those who know the man. Mr. Steuer is too skilled in front-page dramatics, too experienced in achieving front page headlines, not to have been aware of the high explosive inherent in his charges. There is every reason to believe that his statements to the ship reports were made with the pre-knowledge that he was hurling a bomb.

"In the subsequent statements which he has issued, Mr. Steuer says he was motivated by the desire to render a service. His duties to his brethren across the sea implied no necessity for taking the world into his confidence.

"Presuming even for the sake of argument that his charges are true, there was nothing to be gained by disseminating the dishonesty of fellow Jews, except to discredit the present $25,000,000 effort of the Joint Distribution Committee—an intention which he disclaims. At this late moment the dishonesties, if they can be traced, cannot be retrieved.

"In view of this," the paper continues "Mr. Steuer has exposed himself to the general assumption that his statements were an attempt at personal explanation.

"Certainly, a responsible leader, having the cause of Jewry sincerely at heart, would have presented matters of so serious a nature to the Joint Distribution Committee. Mr. Steuer himself has attacked the American leaders from complicity in the misappropriation. It would have been the better part of valor to have laid his charges before them. The accounting he wants could just as well have been demanded at private sessions as to the tune of hundreds of typographic machines. Had the J. D. C. retained his plan, there would still have been ample time for public charges.

"Mr. Steuer has yet to substantiate his charges, to adduce evidence of misappropriation."

"The fact that Mr. Steuer has just returned from the Conference which was so strongly opposed by Mr. Louis Marshall, the head of the American Relief Committee, may lend some color to the motive of these charges," writes the Philadelphia "Jewish Experiment."

"The straight-forward and convincing reply issued by Mr. Marshall, however, will dispel any doubts that the charges may have brought up.

"The distribution of the relief funds during the war and immediately afterward, when a chaotic condition prevailed in Eastern Europe, had to be done in a haphazard manner and the testimony of hundreds that these American funds have actually served

FEDERAL JUDGE J. TRIEBER OF LITTLE ROCK, DIES AT 73

Federal Judge Jacob Trieber of Little Rock, Ark., who was Judge of the Eastern District of Arkansas for the last twenty-seven years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Newton, in Scarsdale, N. Y. He had been living there since his temporary assignment in August, to preside over certain cases in the Southern New York district involving charges of union restriction of building operations.

Judge Trieber was 73 years old, a native of Raschikow, Germany. Besides his daughter he leaves a widow and also a son, Harry M. Trieber, a lawyer of Little Rock. The funeral services will be held in that city.

Going to St. Louis as a boy, Judge Trieber finished his schooling there and began his law practice in Helena, Ark. He soon showed an active interest in politics, and in 1891 was nominated for United States Senator in the Republican caucus in Arkansas. He was a delegate to every national convention of his party from 1880 to 1896.

Before his appointment to the bench, Judge Trieber had been for three years Federal Attorney for the same district in which he became Judge. In 1914-15 he was President of the Arkansas Bar Association, and in 1906-07, Grand Master of the Masters of his State.

Thousands of Jewish lives from starvation and disease should be sufficient to satisfy us, even if some of the money had to be diverted to purposes not strictly remedial.

"In time of confusion and danger it is often impossible to calculate the most efficient way of distributing help, and a dollar may have to be spent in place that a quarter might reach the order where it will do most good."

Harry Ford replied to the open letter of Mrs. Rosina Schwimmer who asked him to vindicate her name in connection with his Peace Ship Expedition of 1915. He letter Mrs. Schwimmer said she had been unfairly accused of causing the failure of the expedition and of being the cause of Ford's anti-Jewish campaign which he recently attacked by his renunciation. She said Mr. Ford knew these things to be untrue, and asked him to say so publicly over his own signature.

Mr. Ford's reply was in the form of a letter addressed to Mrs. Schwimmer by E. A. Schol, general secretary to Henry Ford.

Mrs. Schwimmer said that she regarded the letter as a partial vindication, but that the price of the anti-Jewish campaign had not been washed, and that she would say a reply over Henry Ford's own signature. She will

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Sunday, Oct. 1, Chicago day, the Jews of this city and the members of the Jewish Historical Society of Illinois will celebrate the dedication of a memorial tablet in what is now Lincoln park, marking the location of the first Jewish cemetery in Illinois and the entire Northwest in 1851.

Eighty years ago, a group of men bought from the city a tract of land for the sum of $40 and converted it into a Beth Hakvorth. It was the first corporate step of the Jews of Chicago, acting in unison for the entire Jewish community. Through the courtesy of David H. Jackson, president of the Lincoln Park commissioners, arrangements are now under way to make this historical event a memorable one in the annals of the Jewish community of Chicago. Governor Len Small will be one of the guests of honor, as will be Mayor William Hale Thompson, State Senator John Dailey of Peoria, an authority on early Illinois history, will make the principal address.

write him again, she said, and ask among other things a "point blank denial" of the insinuations that she was responsible for his anti-Semitic campaign.

"This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of Sept. 1, addressed to Mr. Ford, which has just had his attention and to which he has directed the writer to reply.

"Any event which has for its object the laudable aims which were written into the Peace Expedition almost entirely through your own sincere and untiring efforts could not be without its antagonists. It is unfortunate, however, that you feel that persons close to Mr. Ford should in any way be regarded in the light that your letter reveals.

"If you can give definite facts and details, every effort will be made to correct any wrong which has been committed.

"For your information I am enclosing herewith a copy of a letter addressed to Harry, St. John & Brockley, New York, which clearly evidences Mr. Ford's attitude relative to your connection with the Peace Conference."

The enclosed letter to Harry, St. John and Brockley reads:

"Answering your letter of May 21: 'Mr. Ford cannot agree with the statement referred to in your letter, inasmuch as Madame Schwimmer had no control over the finances of the Peace Expedition.

"Mr. Ford has sometimes made the statement that he believed her to be perfectly sincere in her ambitions.
