BRATIYANU'S DEATH CREATES UNCERTAINTY IN JEWISH SITUATION IN ROUMANIA

Anxiety Felt in Jewish Circles Concerning Future Developments
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Bucharest, Nov. 28.—The uncertainties of the present political situation in Roumania following the death of Jan Bratianu has also brought about a radical change in the political situation of the Jewish population.

During the first days after the death of Roumania's dictator, anxiety was felt in leading Jewish circles concerning the developments in the next few months. The authorities, however, have taken strict measures to secure law and order.

As a whole the policy of Jan Bratianu was not too definite with regard to the Jewish question. During the war the Bratianu party was outspokenly anti-Semitic, and in the post war period, although it was not openly anti-Semitic, it has done nothing to prevent the student riots and the movement for a numerus clausus. Recently, during the elections, the agreement between the Bratianu party and the Union of Roumanian Jews led to a promise to fulfill a number of the demands of the Jewish population.

DONATES $300,000 TOWARD ST. LOUIS JEWISH HOSPITAL

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 28.—A gift of $300,000 for the erection of a Nurses' Home was made by Mrs. Moses Shoenberg and her son, Sydney, to the Jewish Hospital here in memory of Moses Shoenberg, who was for many years one of the leaders of the Jewish community.

The announcement of the gift was made by Aaron Waldheim, president of the hospital. The late Moses Shoenberg was a director of the Jewish Hospital and was president of the St. Louis Jewish Federation.

GIVES TRACT OF LAND FOR JEWISH FARMERS IN POLAND

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Nov. 28.—An attempt to settle Jews on the land in Poland on a limited scale will be made by the Polish branch of the Ort, the society for the promotion of trades and agriculture among the Jews.

Oscar Kohn, Polish Jewish industrialist of Lodz, placed an area of 46 morgs in the vicinity of Lodz at the disposal of the Ort for settling Jewish farmers.

ORTHODOX CONFERENCE ON PALESTINE RATIFIES MIZRA- CHI AGREEMENT WITH U.P.A.

Adopt Measures to Widen Activities of Zionist Orthodox Wing

The understanding arrived at between the Mizrachi Zionist Organization of America and the United Palestine Appeal for this year, leading to the abandonment of the original plans of the Mizrachi to embark upon an independent campaign for $500,000, was ratified at a Conference of Orthodox Jews for the Uplifting of Palestine held Sunday at the Waldorf-Astoria.

The conference was convened on the initiative of the Mizrachi organization and afforded the opportunity for the first public appearance of the Mizrachi delegation consisting of Rabbi Meyer Berlin, Rabbi Benzion Uziel, Sephardic Chief Rabbi of Jaffa, Rabbi J. L. Fishman and Professor Herman Struck, who arrived from Palestine to aid in the campaign.

About 300 delegates from ten eastern states attended the sessions which were held under the chairmanship of Rabbi Jacob Levinson, president of the American Mizrahi.

Measures to strengthen the Orthodox wing of the Zionist movement in the United States were adopted in a series of resolutions calling for the establishment of a Mizrachi branch in every Orthodox congregation, enrolling every seat holder as a member, imposing an obligation on each congregation to work for the United Palestine Appeal

CONFISCATED SYNAGOGUES IN LENINGRAD RETURNED

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Riga, Nov. 28.—A number of synagogues and Beth Medrashim which were confiscated in Leningrad have now been returned to the worshippers. The synagogues were returned following representations to the central authorities.

There is a serious shortage of Jewish religious books in Soviet Russia, Deputy Dubin, the leader of the Agudah in Latvia, declared to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency representative here. There is a great scarcity of Hebrew prayer books, Pentateuchs, Bibles, Talmuds. The only prayer books which are still available are those which were printed in the year of the Revolution by the Lubavitcher Rebbe at his own printing press in Rostov and reprints from the stereotypes made in Poltava.

AGRICULTURE AND INDUSTRY AMONG JEWS OF WHITE RUSSIA PROMOTED BY GOVERNMENT

Government Planning Commission To Prepare Detailed Plan
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, Nov. 28.—In connection with the tenth anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution, the Council of People's Commissaries of the White Russian Republic has issued a decree dealing with the further promotion of agriculture and industry among the Jews of the country. In approving the report submitted to it by the Ministry of Agriculture with regard to the land settlement of the Jews, the Council of People's Commissaries declares that taking into consideration the special historic conditions obtaining among the Jewish population in the towns and the results which have been achieved so far in the work of Jewish land settlement and industrial co-operation, the Government feels that it is necessary to start in the course of the present year a systematic work of settlement among the urban Jewish population.

The Government Planning Commission is instructed to prepare within the course of the next two months a fully detailed plan of work providing for the following measures: Agrarian settlement in the towns by means of the establishment of land-funds, areas for agriculture, gardening, dairy-farming, etc., strengthening of the work of the industrial co-operatives and organization of various industrial undertakings, and the provision of building materials, and credit facilities. The Government Planning Commission is required also to select a number of towns in which to start work on these lines during the course of the present year. The plan must be submitted to the Council of People's Commissaries for ratification before January 1.

POLISH STUDENTS DEMAND BAN ON ABRAHAMITIC RITE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Nov. 28.—The Polish government was urged to prohibit the Abrahamitic Rite on Jewish children in a memorandum submitted by the Polish students in the medical college of the Warsaw University.

The practice of the Abrahamitic Rite should not be allowed in a civilized country, the memorandum declared. It was learned that this demand was given no consideration by the authorities.

'JEWISH CHRONICLE' VOICES PROTEST AGAINST SHOWING 'KING OF KINGS' IN ENGLAND

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency).

London, Nov. 28.—A protest against the exhibition in England of the film "King of Kings" was voiced by the London "Jewish Chronicle." The paper urges the authorities to prohibit the showing of the film.

"We hesitate the less to protest against its exhibition because we know it is as offensive to many Christians as it should be to all Jews, for it is a breach of what has become almost a canon of public taste which forbids the representation on the Stage of the great founder of the Christian faith," the paper writes. "We will not hint the body whose attention should be directed to this matter in case some constitution or the other should be nearhearted to bar the suggestion. And we trust that the strong demur we have made to this film for the reasons we have explained, will be sufficient in itself to induce those responsible to see to it that its exhibition in this country is prohibited."

"A few days ago a private view was afforded to a Committee of the London County Council of the 'King of Kings.' It purports to render the life of Jesus of Nazareth according to the Story in the Gospels, and so illustrates the Gospel narrative of his death. The incident, as told in the New Testament, is in many details untrue and biased."

"The Crucifixion story," the "Chronicle" continues, "in short has been used against us as a veritable hymn of hate for nearly two thousand years. It is accountable for most of the misunderstanding between Christians and Jews; it is traceable a great deal of what is called

J.D.B. NEWS LETTER

Describes Varied Activities of Boston Jewish Community

(By our Boston Correspondent)

Boston, Nov. 28.—Jacob De Haas will speak in Boston November 30. Peter M. Leavitt, President of the Zionist Organization of Boston, made this announcement. Mr. De Haas made his reputation as a writer and Zionist worker in this city. Although a leader of the cause for many years, having been instrumental in interesting Justice Louis D. Brandeis of the United States Supreme Court in the movement subsequently to which Zionist history was made in Boston. Mr. De Haas has not addressed a Zionist audience in his own city since the Cleveland break. Much interest and speculation is attached here to his public appearance in this city.

The bitterness of Cleveland that caused such a rift among the Zionists of Boston is said to have been healed. Many of the Brandeis followers, and he has many in the Hub, have returned to the fold. What Mr. De Haas will say to the "old guard" is much being speculated about. It was, however, made clear that no embargo on his speech, however controversial it may be, has been put as a condition precedent to the open invitation extended to him by Albert Hurwitz, Chairman of the Committee.

With $150,000 short of the quota of $300,000 the Federated Jewish Charities of Boston is confident that within a few days the full sum asked for the support of all charitable work that comes within the jurisdiction of the Federation, will be raised. 200 contributors of this total have given $250,000.

The appeal was launched last Sunday. Robert Kosland who is Chairman of the Drive is confident that when the final tabulation will be made his workers will go "over the top."

Acting Governor Frank G. Allen, named A. C. Ratchesky, Boston banker, as the Massachusetts representative to the Conference that took place in Montpelier, Vermont, where he conferred with Herbert Hoover and other officials on problems arising out of the recent flood that has devastated a large part of Vermont. Mr. Ratchesky is

Anti-Semitism in all its forms, and not least the ghastly shape it from time to time assumes of persecution and pogrom. Is it right, is it fair, is it just, is it consistent with all that we mean when we talk of modern civilization that this story should be further propagated among the vast multitudes who—through the 'pictures'— still in Vermont as a representative of the Red Cross. The acting Governor stated "Massachusetts will stand behind any arrangements made by Mr. Ratchesky" in a telegram addressed to the Governor of Vermont, promising the aid of Massachusetts in the present crisis arising out of the flood.

Elihu D. Stone for six and a half years Assistant U. S. District Attorney in charge of the prosecution of liquor and narcotic cases, is prominently mentioned for an appointment on the judiciary. All appointments on the judiciary in Massachusetts are for life. Leading Massachusetts jurists are strongly urging the appointment. It was unofficially learned that Governor Fuller is seriously considering him. Mr. Stone is a prominent figure in Jewish life in Massachusetts. He was appointed by President Harding upon the recommendation of the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge to the present position which he holds in the Department of Justice. When interviewed by the representative of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, Mr. Stone would neither deny nor affirm the rumors that have been published in the leading Boston papers. It is no secret that prominent leaders both Jews and non-Jews from every part of the State have written to Governor Fuller asking him that the choice be made.

The leading reform Jewish Congregation in New England, Temple Israel of Boston, whose spiritual leader is Rabbi Harry Levi, will have a new group of buildings on Longwood Avenue and Plymouth Streets, Brookline. The laying of the cornerstone of this new group of buildings took place last Sunday. The cornerstone laying started a construction of two of the four buildings that will take the place of the present structure on Commonwealth Avenue, Boston.

The dedication exercises yesterday were features of an address by Carl Kaftanburgh, President of the Temple, also an address by Felix Vorenberg and Rabbi Harry Levi. The new building will contain 30 class rooms, also an office for the Rabbi and associate Rabbi. The other building will contain an auditorium and social hall.

The Jewish coach of the Harvard Team, Arnold Horween, admitted that Captain Webster of the 1927 team deserved its well-earned victory over Harvard last Saturday. Among the prominent Jews present at the game was Judge Julian W. Mack who is a member of the Harvard Board of Overseers. Judge Mack came over the road to cheer for Alma Mater. He remained in Boston for Monday night to address a joint meeting of the Hadassah and Junior Hadassah which was held at the Temple Ohabei Shalom, where he was well received.

GREATER FACILITIES FOR JEWISH YOUTH EDUCATION IS URGED AT CONVENTION Metropolitan League Re-elects Sol Strook President

The second annual convention of the Metropolitan League of Jewish Community Associations concluded its sessions at the Young Men's Hebrew Association Building, Ninety-second Street and Lexington Avenue, Sunday, with the re-election of Sol M. Strook as president.

The morning session was devoted to a discussion of educational methods.

At a dinner in the evening Felix M. Warburg, William Hobson and Ambassador Alanson B. Houghton were the speakers.

Mr. Strook announced that since last year's convention of the Metropolitan League over $1,600,000 had been raised for new buildings and additions in the metropolitan area. The sum of $1,360,000 was secured by the 92nd Street Y.M.H.A. for an addition, to contain dormitories for 200 Jewish boys. The sum of $1,000,000 was spent during the past year for the maintenance of the League's organizations.

Justice Joseph M. Proskauer, Dr. Samson Benderly, Rabbi Israel Goldstein discussed Jewish educational and religious training. Dr. Benderly stated that of the 800,000 Jewish children in the public schools of the United States, only 200,000 were receiving religious education. Much of this training is wasted, according to Dr. Benderly, because it is so meagre. He urged the Y. M. and Y.W.H.A.'s and Jewish Centers to provide Jewish education.

Rabbi Israel Goldstein stated that the synagogue had been talking a great deal about the Jewish youth but had done nothing for the youth. He opposed the synagogue center and the millions spent in their buildings on the ground that it was doubtful whether the children and youth were brought into the synagogue. He advocated giving the responsible representatives of the youth a place in the administration of the synagogue, and holding special services appealing to them, particularly the Jewish college student.

The Convention elected the following officers behind the president: Mrs. Jerome J. Hanauer, M. Maldwin Fertig, I. K. Goldman and Harry M. Marks, Vice Presidents; Hugo H. Piesen, Treasurer and Milton Weill, Secretary.

ANTI-JEWISH RIOTS OCCUR IN CZECHOSLOVAKIAN COUNTRY (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Prague, Nov. 28.—Anti-Semitic riots occurred at the German Technical Institute at Bruenn.

Jewish students were insulted and attacked, several of them being seriously injured. The police intervened, arresting several of the rioters who were identified as members of the Voelkische party.

PRIVY COUNCIL IN LONDON TAKES UP QUEBEC JEWISH SCHOOL QUESTION TODAY (Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Montreal, November 28.—The Jewish school question in Montreal will come before the Privy Council in London today, according to a cable received by Premier Taschereau, made public today. It is expected that the hearing will last the whole week.

Charles Lancet, K. C., Deputy Attorney General, is in London representing the Provincial Government, which takes no part in the controversy but is merely interested in knowing what legislation is legal for the provincial government to pass.

VIENNA POLICE FINDS RUMOR OF PLAN TO ASSASSINATE SCHWARTZBARD IS UNTRUE (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, Nov. 28. — The police of Vienna and Munich were in receipt of information that several Ukrainian officers, formerly associated with Petlura, are preparing to assassinate Sholom Schwartzbard.

An inquiry made by the police led to no discovery. It is assumed that this rumor was spread in order to extort money from Jews.

MENORAH CONFERENCE IN PROVIDENCE CONCLUDED (Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Providence, R. I., Nov. 28 — The three day sessions of the Eastern and Northeastern Menorah Associations, held at Brown University, were brought to a close last night at a banquet in the Little Hungarian Restaurant here. Among the speakers were Judge Max Levy of Newport, Henry Hurwitz, chancellor of the Intercollegiate Menorah Association, Harry Starr, president of the Menorah, who presided, Rabbi Israel Goldman, Mrs. Archibald Silverman, Samuel Workman and Abraham Abel.

NEW BOOK ON PALESTINE BOUNDARIES PUBLISHED

The "True Boundaries of the Holy Land," a volume giving early Biblical authorities on the geographical outlines and maps of Palestine at various stages in history, as well as the comparative recent borders down to the period of the British Mandate, has been published.

The volume was compiled by Mrs. Benjamin Davis of Chicago from the papers and material left by her father, the late Samuel Hillel Isaacs.

December 18th, the first day of Chanukah, has been designated Maccabee Day by the Jewish National Fund of America, according to an announcement made by Dr. Joseph Krimsky, National President of the organization.

POLISH COURT OF APPEAL RELEASES JEWS HELD IN RI- TUAL MURDER TALE RIOTS

They Only Acted in Self-Defense,
Higher Court Finds
(J. T. A. Mail Service)

Warsaw, Nov. 11.—Declaring that the Jews who had been sentenced to long prison terms by the Plock court for having participated in disturbances in Dobzyn, when a ritual murder tale was spread there, had acted in self defense, the Warsaw Court of Appeal ordered the release of the prisoners, binding them over to keep the peace for five years.

Arrests of both Jews and Christians were made in September 1926, when the disorders occurred in Dobzyn, following the discovery of a dead gypsy child in the vicinity of the Jewish cemetery. For some days, attacks were made in the town upon the Jewish population. Jewish shops were looted and several Jews were injured. It was finally discovered that the child had been beaten by its father for having torn up a hundred zloty bank note and it had died of its injuries and the gypsies had thrown the body near the Jewish cemetery in order to remove suspicion from themselves. A number of Jews and Christians were given long terms of imprisonment.

The case came up yesterday before the Appeal Court in Warsaw, which declared that the disturbances had been caused by racial hatred on the part of the non-Jewish prisoners and that the Jewish prisoners had only acted in self-defense.

PREPARE TO CELEBRATE FESTIVAL OF CHANUKAH

The festival of Chanukah, which will be observed from Sunday evening, December 18th, to Monday, December 26th, will be marked by celebrations on the part of the Y. M. H. A.'s, Y. W. H. A.'s, and Jewish Community Centers in a number of cities throughout the country.

For the purpose of assisting the Centers in the celebrations, the Jewish Welfare Board has made available a Bulletin containing material for the carrying out of programs.

The Jewish Welfare Board is also arranging through its representatives and community committees for the appropriate celebration of the holiday on the part of Jewish men in the United States army and navy service and marine corps, and in Veterans Bureau hospitals. Religious services, entertainments, and a social program will be provided where men are stationed, both in the United States and in outlying points, including Manila, Hawaii, and Panama.

The United Synagogue Extension Bureau on Scouting, which was recently organized under the direction of Emanuel Hayt, has arranged Chanukah Festival Celebrations for the Boy Scouts.

PALESTINE TAXATION IS SUBJECT OF NEW BOOK

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Nov. 28.—A new book has appeared in Hebrew and English by Dr. A. Granovsky. In the ten chapters of his book the author reviews the existing legislation in Palestine in regard to the title and work payments, animal tax and registration fee and draws a parallel between it and the corresponding legislation of other Levantine countries, Egypt, Cyprus, Algeria. Special attention is given to the effect of taxation on the Jewish colonization work. The author contends that it would be only right and natural to exempt the new settlers from agriculture and land taxes during the first years of their settlement, as is being done in other countries.

Dr. Granovsky proposes that the following changes in the land legislation should be introduced at once: exemption from work for all lands paying the title; consideration of the cost of production in estimating taxation; exemption of certain products from title; reduction of the title to 7 or 8 per cent, after deducting the cost of production; fixing of sale prices; increase of the work tax on uncultivated land; gradual introduction of a modern land tax.

Dr. Granovsky is a manager of the Jewish National Fund.

NO DISTURBANCES REPORTED IN CAPITAL OF LITHUANIA

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, Nov. 28.—No disturbances occurred in Kovno, the capital of Lithuania, according to information received here in connection to rumors that a coup d'état was planned.

Negotiations are now in progress for the creation of a coalition government in Lithuania. The national minorities, including the Jewish deputies, are not participating in these negotiations.

STRESEMANN RECEIVES

DR. WEIZMANN IN BERLIN
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, Nov. 28.—Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of the World Zionist Organization, was received by Foreign Minister Stresemann.

Dr. Weizmann was accompanied by Dr. Victor Jacobson and Legationsrat Sobornheim.

"HATIKVAH" ZIONIST SYMN.

BY IMBER, IS 50-YEARS OLD
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Nov. 28.—The "Hatikvah," the hymn of the Zionist movement, will this year be fifty years old.

Samaya Imber, a brother of the late Naphtali Herz Imber, the author of "Hatikvah" who is now on a visit to Palestine, is publishing a new edition of his brother's poem.

ORTHODOX CONFERENCE ON PALESTINE RATIFIES MIZRACHI AGREEMENT WITH U. P. A.

and instituting a campaign in the synagogues that each year at least one member of the congregation should visit Palestine. The demand that the Orthodox wing of the Zionist movement be adequately represented in the Jewish Agency when it is formed was also included in a resolution adopted. The Sabbath of Chanukah week was declared to be Palestine Mizרחי day in the Orthodox congregations.

Color was added to the proceedings when the Sephardic Chief Rabbi in Oriental garb took the platform to address the gathering in fluent Hebrew with the Sephardic accent. The members of the delegation were given a great ovation by the assembly.

Louis Lipsky, president of the Zionist Organization of America, in greeting the conference on behalf of the American Zionists, declared that the time had arrived when the Zionists will have to draw more and more on the Orthodox element which is the only stable part of the national movement. There is no reason why Jewish national values should be barred from Jewish life in Palestine because they are religious values as well.

A resolution was adopted thanking Baron Edmund de Rothschild for his gift of $18,000 for the Palestine Hebrew schools.

Rabbi Berlin in a lengthy address expressed his conviction in the ultimate triumph of the Orthodox efforts in making Palestine secure for Orthodox Judaism and in enforcing the principle that "the land of Israel will be built in accordance with the Torah of Israel."

As to the present situation in Palestine, Rabbi Berlin stated that the crisis is due not to the inherent fault of the country but to Jewish desire to see more rapid progress than has been made. The fact is that notwithstanding the difficulties, Palestine is the only country where Jewish life in the real meaning of the term is developing. No devoted Jew, having the choice between Palestine and the Diaspora, would hesitate to choose Palestine. Although sacrifices will be necessary, no sacrifice can be too great for bringing about the realization of our goal, he declared. Rabbi Wolf Gold, formerly of San Francisco, delivered the concluding address.

Max Reinhardt was fêted at a dinner given in his honor Sunday night at the Hotel St. Regis by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Urban. Among the seventy-five guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Vladimir Sokoloff, Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Kahn, Major and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. Drexel Biddle Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Florence Ziegfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ziegler, and Mrs. Oscar Hammerstein.

"ASK THE RABBI," QUIZ ON JEWISH HISTORY AND LIFE, OUT

"Ask the Rabbi" is the title of a book of questions and answers in the manner of the "Ask Me Another" series, compiled by Albert K. Weinberg, in collaboration with Rabbi Morris S. Lazaron of Baltimore. The book presents in a series of tests two thousand questions and answers on Biblical history and contemporary Jewish affairs, the role of Jewish notables in the events in Jewish communal life and in the history of the various countries.

The questions cover a wide field of Jewish information and because of the attractive presentation the book is of great value for popularizing knowledge of Jewish history and life both for adults and children.

Harold Riegelman, counsel for the Tenement House Commission, was elected president of the Interfraternity Conference at the concluding session of its nineteenth annual convention at the Hotel Pennsylvania, New York.

Mr. Riegelman is the first Jew to be chosen as presiding officer of the conference, which includes sixty-one national college fraternities with a combined membership of 526,000. He was graduated from Cornell in 1913 and is a member of Zeta Beta Tau fraternity. Five of the approximately 30 Jewish fraternities in the country have been admitted to membership in the conference during the last five years.
