NEW JERSEY SENATE PASSES
KOSHER MEAT BILL; MEASURE
NOW GOES BEFORE ASSEMBLY

Law, Similar to That in New York, Is Adopted Unanimously
(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Trenton, Mar. 3.—A kosher meat law similar to that in force in New York state was adopted by the New Jersey state Senate. The measure will now come up before the state Assembly, where it has good prospects of being adopted.

According to the provisions of the bill, meat products which are advertised as kosher and offered for sale as such must be kosher in accordance with the terms as understood in Rabbinic definition.

The bill was passed in the senate by a unanimous vote, eighteen of the twenty-one senators being present. All the senators are non-Jews.

JEWISH REFUGEES IN FAR EAST INTERESTED IN BUREYA
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Harbin, Mar. 3.—The plan to settle Jews in the Bureya region in Siberia, sponsored by the Comzet, the Soviet governmental department for settling Jews on the land, is viewed by the Jewish population here with great interest. Many Jewish refugees who came to the Far East from Russia place hopes in the new plan.

The Harbin press, in commenting on the plan, states that many Jews will leave China and Manchuria to settle in the new region.

MOND URGES LAND GRANT FOR JEWISH EX-SOLDIERS
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Mar. 3.—The cause of the Jewish world war veterans who serve in the Jewish legion in Palestine, was espoused by Sir Alfred Mond.

In a memorandum submitted to the Palestine Government, Sir Alfred urged the authorities to set aside an area of land for the Jewish war veterans.

RUSSIAN MONARCHISTS IN CHINA BOMB SYNAGOGUE
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Harbin, Mar. 3.—The synagogue built in Zrikar by Jewish refugees from Russia was destroyed as a result of an explosion. The watchman, a Russian, Maksimov, was killed in the explosion.

It is the general belief that the explosion was arranged by Russian monarchists. The authorities have ordered an investigation.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO STUDY MEASURE FOR RE-UNITING FAMILIES

No Jewish Congressmen Included On House Sub-Committee
(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Washington, Mar. 3.—A sub-committee consisting of Chairman Johnson and Congressman Vincent of Michigan, Jenkins of Ohio and Rutherford of Georgia has been appointed to study and report to the House Immigration Committee on the bills submitted for reuniting separated families. The study will also include the bill recently passed by the Senate for allowing preference under the quota to lessen the hardships caused by the immigration law.

It is pointed out here that none of the Jewish Congressmen who have been fighting for a liberalization of the immigration law, was included on the committee.

A sub-committee headed by Congressman Schneider of Wisconsin was appointed to submit a report on the various bills for amending the naturalization law.

The House Immigration Committee is occupied with hearings on the bill to place Mexico and other countries of the Western Hemisphere within the quota.

WAHABIS PLAN ATTACK ON IRAQ; 20,000 READY TO MARCH
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Bagdad, Mar. 3.—Strong measures of defense are now being taken by the Iraq military authorities to counteract an attack by the Wahabis on the Iraq frontier.

Twenty thousand Wahabis are said to be concentrated at the frontier. It is stated that the march which was ordered by Ibn Saud, Sultan of the Wahabis, will be in the nature of a 'punitive expedition' on Iraq and Kuwait as a result of the protest of Ibn Saud against the annihilation of a Wahabi village by the British air force.

The village was attacked, it is stated, when the aeroplanes were in pursuit of Wahabi raiders. Three British battleships are standing by in Kuwait Bay.

NEWARK GOES OVER TOP FOR BETH ISRAEL HOSPITAL
(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Newark, N. J., Mar. 3.—The $2,000,000 fund campaign for the new Beth Israel Hospital ended by going 'over the top,' exceeding the amount by $3,500.

Michael Hollander headed the drive. Michael A. Stavitsky was vice-chairman.

CONTINUATION OF NUMERUS
CLAUSUS KEENLY DISAP-POINTS HUNGARIAN JEWS

Youth Joins Zionist Ranks, Abandoning Assimilationist Doctrine
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Budapest, Mar. 3.—Deep disappointment is felt in leading Hungarian Jewish circles as a result of the parliament vote passing the Government bill which outwardly modifies the numerus clausus law without substantially changing the discriminatory measure against the right of Jews to secure an education.

The board of the Budapest Kehillah, which went on record many times as being opposed to an open fight against the numerus clausus and urged Jews abroad to abstain from intervening in this matter, is now being criticized. It is charged that the present situation was brought about due to the passive attitude of the Kehillah leaders. Resentment is also being expressed against the Hungarian Liberal Party which supported the Government measure. The Liberals were the pillar upon which the leaders of Hungarian Jewry pinned their hope for abolishing the discrimination.

Although Jewish leaders in Budapest abstained from publicly commenting on the situation, Deputy Szilagyi, in an address in parliament, declared that Hungarian Jews are greatly depressed over the result and "will never forget the shame."

The general opinion, however, is that no intervention, be it by Jewish bodies abroad or even by the League of Nations, will help the situation. Such intervention, it is considered, would be harmful now.

The disappointment is felt particularly in the ranks of the Jewish youth. A movement is now being observed among the sons of the assimilated families to renounce the doctrine of Magyarization, many of them joining the Zionist movement.

HUNGARY'S SENATE TO BEGIN
NUMERUS CLAUSUS DEBATE
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Budapest, Mar. 3.—The debate on the government bill to modify the numerus clausus law, passed by parliament last week, will be started in the Upper Chamber on Tuesday, March 6.

It is expected that Rabbi Loew, representative of the Jewish religion in the Senate, will give a solemn declaration on the subject.

El Paso Jews Care For Jewish Immigrants In Juarez, Across the Mexican Border

(By our El Paso correspondent)

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 27.—With a population of less than five hundred Jewish families, El Paso has two large synagogues. Temple Mt. Sinai, Reform congregation, has a membership of two hundred and twenty-five and for more than twenty-seven years has been guided by Rabbi Martin Zielonka, who at the last annual meeting was appointed as Rabbi for life. Next October marks the thirtieth anniversary of the granting of the charter to Temple Mt. Sinai and plans are being made for a celebration on this occasion.

The present temple building is ten years old and was the first Jewish house of worship with a community center west of the Mississippi River. It has a seating capacity of seven hundred. There is a hall used for Sunday school assemblies and for group meetings. The third floor has seven class rooms for the one hundred and fifty children who are in charge of eleven teachers. The lower floor has a regulation size gymnasium with stage, a projecting room for moving pictures and library.

The auxiliary organizations to the Temple are the Sisterhood with a membership of about 200 of which Mrs. Harry Rosenberg is president. The Temple Brotherhood, with Harold Potash as president, carries out an educational program. The Temple League is composed of the young men and women of the junior and senior grades in high school and the college students.

The Council of Jewish Women here has a membership of 250.

The Independent Order B'nai B'rith with a membership of 190 have held their meetings in Temple Mt. Sinai since its charter was granted.

Charity work here is of a different nature than in most cities. Being a border city with Juarez, Mexico, only about ten minutes ride from the heart of the city, many cases among Jewish immigrants come up. With a committee of Jewish women visiting Juarez daily, much suffering is relieved by them. Since most of the immigrants cannot enter the United States the El Paso Relief Society helps to establish the men in business, make the families comfortable in homes for themselves and look after the hos-on Friday night and Temple B'nai Brith on Saturday morning.

A mass meeting of Zionists was held Sunday night at Temple Emanu-El. Large and enthusiastic audiences attended the numerous functions which were arranged in connection with Mr. Lipsky's visit.

pital and health needs of the women and children. The Council of Jewish Women is also active in this work.

The officers of the Temple are: President, A. Schwartz; Vice President, Harold Potash; Secretary, A. S. Jacobs; Asst. Sec'y, Abe A. Barnett; Treasurer, Haymon Krupp. The Board of Directors are Reuben Weinstein, A. S. Goldstein, Ben Swatt, Elias Sternklang and Charles Givon.

Congregation B'nai Zion, Orthodox congregation; with a membership of 183, just erected a new synagogue and Jewish Center at a cost of $160,000. The center contains facilities for education and recreation, having class rooms, club room, gymnasium. It also has a smaller hall with stage for entertainments. Although the building is being used it has not yet been dedicated. Rabbi Joseph M. Roth is rabbi of the congregation which conducts the only Talmud Torah in El Paso. The Talmud Torah has an attendance of 100 children. Samuel Perlmuter is chairman of the education committee.

The Daughters of Zion, the ladies auxiliary, is headed by Mrs. Sam Goodman and has a membership of 110. The Young Folks League is meeting the social and cultural needs of the Jewish youth. Harry Joseph is president. The Ladies Relief and Talmud Torah aids in expanding the scope of the Talmud Torah. The Free Loan Society grants free loans to those in need of assistance. The El Paso Zionist Organization and the Hadassah are very active.

At present the Daughters of Zion are making arrangements for their yearly Purim Ball. The Congregation is formulating plans for the dedication of the new synagogue to take place in the Spring.

The officers and Board of Directors of the Congregation are: President, Sam Bellman; Vice President, E. Klein; Secretary, John Cohen; Treasurer, Louis Stark; Abe Silberg, I. Erlich, Frank Gordon, Simon Kahn, Sol. Goldfarb, P. Bohn, and Jacob Rosner.

Jews are active in the civic life of the community.

Adolph Solomon and S. C. Schuts have served as mayors of El Paso; S. J. Friedenthal and Adolph Schwartz have been presidents of the El Paso Chamber of Commerce. Leon A. Rosenfeld is President of the Community Chest. Rabbi Martin Zielonka is a member of the City Planning Commission and Haymon Krupp and Rabbi Zielonka are members of the Robertson Committee to plan for the city improvements for the next ten years. Mrs. Olga Kohlberg was one of the founders and the first president of the El Paso Women's Club. J. W. Levy and Sam Blumenthal have been members of the City Council.

LOUIS LIPSKY, Z. O. LEADER, RESTORES HARMONY AMONG ZIONISTS OF LOS ANGELES (Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Los Angeles, Mar. 3.—Harmony in the ranks of Los Angeles Zionists who were divided on the question of whether or not the United Palestine Appeal is to be incorporated in the United Jewish Campaign was restored as a result of the visit here of Louis Lipsky, president of the Zionist Organization of America.

At a conference held under the chairmanship of Judge Harry A. Holler a resolution was passed urging all Zionist groups to cooperate in the Palestine fund raising. A new administrative committee was chosen consisting of the chairmen of the local Zionist groups, Rabbis Edgar F. Magnin, Herman Lissauer and S. M. Neches, and Jacob J. Lieberman, I. Irving Lipsitch, Bernard Schireson and Ben M. Goldman.

The new committee pledged itself to insure the raising of Los Angeles quota in the United Palestine Appeal whether or not the campaign is conducted with the United Jewish Appeal, the Jewish community chest of Los Angeles, or separately.

Upon his arrival Mr. Lipsky was met by a delegation of Zionists and accorded a public reception in the office of Mayor Cryer. He addressed Congregation Sinai

JEWIS WILL BE REPRESENTED ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ASSOCIATION MEETING IN PHILA.

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Philadelphia, Pa., Mar. 3.—The Jewish community of Philadelphia is well represented on the committee that is arranging the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Religious Education Association to open here on Tuesday.

The association is a non-secretarian organization.

Rabbi Solomon Goldman of Cleveland will deliver one of the principal addresses at the Thursday morning session. His topic will be "Necessary Changes in Scientific and Religious Attitudes and Conceptions."

Rabbi Max D. Klein, of Congregation Adath Jethurim, is the local chairman of the committee on education. Other Jewish members on the committee are: Dr. Solomon Solis Cohen, Rabbi William H. Fineschreiber, Miss Jeanette M. Goldberg, Dr. Julius H. Greenstone, Joseph H. Hagedorn, Dr. Isaac Husik, Mrs. Isadore Kohn, Rabbi Marvin Nathan, Rabbi Abraham A. Neuman, Mr. Ben Rosen, Dr. I. M. Rubinow, Leopold H. Teller and Rabbi Louis Wolsey.

MACCABEE WINS FROM PALESTINE POLICE TEAM

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Mar. 3.—The Palestine Jewish football team, Maccabee, won over the football team of the Palestine police in a match held here Friday. The score was 2-1.

Sir Alfred Mond kicked off the ball opening the match.

At a meeting of the Maccabee board, held after the game, Sir Alfred was elected an honorary member of the Palestine Jewish sport organization.

THREE PERSONS KILLED IN NABLUS HOUSE WRECK

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Mar. 3.—Three more victims were added to the list of those who lost their lives in the earthquake which rocked Palestine last July.

A house which was cracked during the earthquake in July, fell yesterday, killing three persons.

The anniversary of the birthday of the late Morris Lasker, pioneer and philanthropist of Galveston, Texas, and Lasker home for homeless, was a gift of the masonry institution was a gift of Mr. Lasker. Dr. Henry Cohen delivered the memorial address.

Mr. Lasker was the father of Albert D. Lasker, of Chicago, former sleeping board chairman who recently contributed $10,000,000 for research work.

Mrs. Samuel Rosenoch and Miss Florence Lasker, daughter of the late Mr. Lasker, are national chairmen of the Council of Jewish Women, Miss Lasker acting as chairman of the council's immigrant aid committee.

MAX PINE, NOTED JEWISH LABOR LEADER, DIES AT 62

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Maywood, N. J., Mar. 3.—Max Pine, Jewish labor leader, relief worker and one of the founders of the "Jewish Daily Forward," of New York, died yesterday at his home at 22 Fairmount Avenue. He was sixty-two years old. Three sons and two daughters survive.

Mr. Pine was prominent in Jewish relief work during and after the World War, when he went to Russia with Judge Harry M. Fisher, of Chicago, as a member of the Joint Distribution Committee.

He was a native of Russia and came to this country as a young man. He worked in the needle industry and left it shortly to devote himself to the cause of labor as secretary of the United Hebrew Trades in New York, Jewish labor group affiliated with the A. F. of L. He was a candidate several times on the Socialist ticket for Assemblyman and Alderman from the East Side. He was an organizer of the People's Relief Committee, one of the three components of the Joint Distribution Committee.

The late Mr. Pine was one of the Jewish labor leaders in the United States who took a keen interest in the Palestine movement, having been the chairman of the National Labor Committee of the Organized Jewish Workers in Palestine, which is conducting a drive for Palestine among Jewish workers in the United States.

Statements mourning the death of the late labor leader were issued by Joseph C. Hyman, secretary of the Joint Distribution Committee, by the "Jewish Daily Forward," Joseph Baroness, the National Labor Committee for Palestine and by the Palestine labor delegation now in the United States. Dr. Chaim Arlosoroff, Dov Hos and Israel Mereminski.

The funeral was held yesterday. Interment was at Lebanon Cemetery, in the plot of the Workmen's Circle.

POSEN COURT RULES THAT DISTRIBUTION OF ANTI-SEMITIC MANIFESTO IS ILLEGAL

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Mar. 3.—The distribution of an election campaign manifesto containing anti-Semitic propaganda is a legal procedure which cannot be stopped by police order, the Posen court ruled.

The authorities had prohibited the distribution of a proclamation issued by the Polish National Democratic Party in Posen entitled "The Jewish Invasion of Poland." Party leaders appealed to the court against the police order.

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise will address 1,000 Hadassah members at a $50-a-plate luncheon on March 13. The extra $50 will be pledged by the Chicago Hadassah over its annual offering to be raised at the luncheon. Every one who attends will contribute $50.

JUSTICE TOMPKINS RESIGNS MASONIC CLUB IN IRE AT ANTI-JEWISH DISCRIMINATION

On the ground that the Metropolitan Mason's Country Club at Briarcliff is discriminating against Jewish applicants for membership, Supreme Court Justice Arthur S. Tompkins has resigned from the club.

Justice Tompkins' action follows an investigation inspired by charges recently made in the "Jewish Tribune." At that time the Justice made the following statement:

"I shall make it my business to ascertain whether it is true that Masons are excluded from the club's membership because they are Jews. If such be the fact, it is altogether non-Masonic and contrary to my conception of the attitude and privileges of Masons."

He added that he would resign if the charges were true.

Officers of the club, who are advertising for members deny the allegations.

Two members may blackmail any applicant for membership, they explain, but there has been no particular effort to keep out Jewish Masons. The voting is by secret ballot.

WEIZMANN SENDS RELIC OF ROUMANIA RIOTS TO LIBRARY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Mar. 3.—Dr. Ch. Weizmann, who was in Roumania during the time of the anti-Jewish excesses and desecrations in Transylvania has sent to the Hebrew University and Jewish National Library a piece of a Scroll of the Law which was torn in the student riots.

Emmanuel Hertz of New York has donated to the library a rare sixteenth century edition of Cicero's works in ten volumes.

PRO-PALESTINE COMMITTEE IS ESTABLISHED IN ITALY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Rome, Mar. 3.—The Italian Pro-Palestine committee, composed of prominent Italian statesmen and leaders, was constituted at a meeting held here.

Prince Pietro Lanza was elected president of the committee. Alberto Stefani, former Finance Minister, was chosen vice-president.

Judge Joseph Siegler of Newark, N. J. has been re-appointed by Governor Moore for a full term of five years as Judge of the Essex County Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. Judge Siegler was appointed last year to fill a vacancy on the bench.

Harry Kallsch, Newark lawyer, has been re-appointed a member of the Essex County Tax Board by Governor Moore of New Jersey.

Adolph Ochs, publisher of the "New York Times," addresses a gathering at the Temple B'nai Brit, Los Angeles, Cal., of which Dr. Edgar F. Maginn is rabbi.

JEWISH WOMAN, 110 YEARS, OLDEST IN CHICAGO, DIES

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Chicago, Ill., Mar. 3.—Mrs. Chaim Vision, 110 years old, said to be the oldest person in Chicago, died at the Orthodox Jewish Home for the Aged here.

As she lay on her death bed, Mrs. Vision repeated what she had often said: "I am ready to die. I have lived. Eighty years is enough for anybody—and I have had a hundred and ten."

Mrs. Vision has lived in the Home for the Aged for sixteen years. She had taught the "younger" women at the home a philosophy of contentment, one that said, "Eighty years are enough."

She is survived by three sons, Abraham, Daniel and Solomon, all old men; twenty-seven grandchildren; six great-grandchildren, and ten great-great-grandchildren. Burial was in Waldheim cemetery.

START MOVE AGAINST URBAN PROPERTY TAX IN PALESTINE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Mar. 3.—The committee elected at a recent conference of representatives of the various Christian communities in Jerusalem to draft a memorandum against the Urban Property Ordinance has now completed its work.

The committee has been charged with the task of approaching the Jewish and Moslem communities with a view to taking common action against the ordinance.

Three hundred delegates are expected to attend the Second Annual Convention of the New York Branch of the United Synagogue, which will take place at Temple Anshe Chesed, New York, on March 18.

Adolph Wise, founder of the Jewish congregation of Har. onburg, Va. and for 55 years leader of the Harrisonburg Jewish community, died in his eighty-eighth year. He was a veteran of the Civil War. He was a veteran of the Confederate army.

Municipal Court Justice Harold Kunster was installed into the Second District Municipal Court by Justice Ralph Raino on Friday. Justice Kunster was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Justice Henry Schimmel, who was recently elevated to the City Court bench.

Prominent Jewish men and women are among the 2,000 San Franciscans who are conducting a drive for more than $2,000,000 for the San Francisco Community Chest in which are combined 105 welfare agencies of the city. The Federation of Jewish Charities is a constituent of the chest.

Mrs. M. C. Loss is chairman of the chest's committee on cooperation. Mrs. Leo. J. Clayburgh heads the publicity committee.

Sylvain Kaufman, Judge M. C. Sloss, Supervisor Jesse Colman and others are local Jewish leaders active in the drive which will continue for ten days.

PURIM, FESTIVAL OF LOTS, CELEBRATED TOMORROW

Purim, the Festival of Lots, will be observed tomorrow in synagogues and Jewish homes.

Three special Purim entertainments, under the auspices of the Jewish Education Association were arranged with a view to stimulating registration in the Jewish religious schools. One of these took place yesterday morning at the Congregation Mt. Sinai Anshe Emeth, New York City. Next Sunday, there will be two entertainments, one at the Institutional Synagogue, and the other at the Talmud Torah Aitz Chaim, Brooklyn. The festival will be celebrated by Young Judea clubs throughout the United States.

The National Office of Young Judea issued, for the guidance of its numerous clubs, a booklet for Purim, containing suggestions for plays and entertainments.

The Jewish Welfare Board also issued literature for the celebration of Purim.

A conference of Jewish leaders was held at the Brooklyn Jewish Center for the purpose of taking steps to strengthen Jewish education in the Borough. A committee to cooperate with the Jewish Education Association was formed with Jacob H. Cohen as chairman. Samuel Rotenberg, President of the Brooklyn Jewish Center and Vice-President of the Jewish Education Association, and Bernard Semel, honorary Secretary of the Association, were the speakers.

A decision was reached to hold a dinner in Brooklyn on April 22nd for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund of the Jewish Education Association.

The dedication of the new $350,000 temple of the North Shore Congregation Israel of Glencoe, Ill., was held on Friday evening, March 2. An address of greeting was delivered by the Rev. James Austin Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church.

The congregation, which has a membership of almost 350, takes in the suburban territory north of Chicago from Evanston to Highland Park.

The officers of the congregation are: Harry N. Gottlieb of Winnetka, president; Joseph Michaels of Highland Park, vice president; Herman Katz of Wilmette, treasurer; and Mrs. Isidor Portis of Winnetka, secretary. Arthur Weisberg of Glencoe is chairman of the building committee, and Sam Goodman of Highland Park, chairman of the finance committee. Alfred Alschuler of Winnetka, a member of the congregation, was the architect.

The congregation was organized ten years ago, and for the two year period up to late last spring Harvey Wessel had been rabbi. For the past year visiting rabbis have delivered the services, and in September of this year, Rabbi Louis J. Kopald, rabbi emeritus of the Delaware avenue temple of Buffalo, New York, will fill the pulpit.

William S. Katzenstein, Justice of the Fourth District Municipal Court, New York, will take office today to succeed the late Justice McTigue. He was appointed by Mayor Wagner.

JEWISH FATHER FINDS SON AFTER TEN YEARS' SEARCH

A six-fingered boy lost for ten years and hunted in two continents has been found in Kiev, Russia, and is now on his way to join his father, Louis Bresler, a Pittsburgh merchant. The boy is Isaac Bresler, 15.

The father was paying money here to send for his wife and two children in Skivra, Russia, when the war broke out and he lost trace of them.

One son, found in 1923, told of his mother's death and said he did not know where his brother was.

In 1923 the Department of Immigrant Aid of the National Council of Jewish Women took up the search. Their agents scoured orphan asylums in Russia, Germany and the Argentine.

In an institution at Kiev they found a boy who fitted the description, except that he had five fingers on his left hand instead of six. Records were unearthed showing that the finger had been amputated. A tiny scar remained.

Isaac will land in New York soon.

The annual New Jersey conference on Palestine will be held at the Newark Y. M. W. H. A. Sunday, March 11, with United States Senator W. E. King, of Utah, and Morris Rothenberg, chairman of the national board of directors of the United Palestine Appeal, scheduled as the principal speakers. More than thirty communities will be represented. Aaron Levinstone of Newark, state chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, will preside. Arrangements are being completed through the offices of Meyer S. Munn, state director of the U. E. A.

Rabbi H. Baras, formerly of Plymouth, Mass., has arrived in Ogden, Utah's second largest city, to fill the pulpit of the Congregation B'rith Shalom of that community.
