

Vol. V. Price 4 Cents.

Wednesday, December 26, 1928.

Entered as 2nd Class Matter at Post
Office, Long Island City, New York No. 1251.

RIGA HEARS OF ANTI-JEWISH EXCESSES IN RUSSIAN TOWN

Jewish Residents Reported Injured;
Jewish Houses Plundered

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Riga, Dec. 24—A report describing alleged anti-Jewish attacks in Zechinitchi, district of Rogatschow, was received here.

According to the report the excesses were perpetrated by Russian factory workers. A number of Jewish residents were injured and Jewish houses were plundered. The authorities arrested a large number of hooligans, the report states.

BERLIN PRESS DENOUNCES NUMERUS CLAUSUS AGITATION

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, Dec. 24—Leading liberal papers are denouncing editorially the agitation started at the University of Berlin by the anti-Semitic Voelkische student group for the introduction of a numerus clausus against Jewish students.

The newspapers point to the recent five hundred thousand dollar fund presented to the University of Heidelberg by United States Ambassador Schurman toward which many American Jews were contributors.

RIOTS ACCOMPANY KEHILLAH ELECTION IN GALICIAN TOWN

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Lemberg, Dec. 24—Riots accompanied the Kehillah elections in Belz. The fight was between the Zionists and the Chassidim. Police had to be called to restore order. One Zionist, Dr. Taube, was elected. All other members are Chassidim.

POLISH BUDGET COMMISSION REJECTS SUBVENTION RAISE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Dec. 24—All proposals introduced by the Jewish deputies for the increase of state subventions for Jewish cultural purposes were rejected by the budget commission of the Polish Sejm.

The deputies asked for items amounting to 1,500,000 Zlotys. One hundred and twenty thousand Zlotys were voted for Jewish religious purposes.

BANKER MAKES BEQUEST TO VILNA YIDDISH INSTITUTE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Paris, Dec. 24—A. Dobry, a banker, has made a bequest of $2,000 to the Jewish Institute of Vilna. The gift is made in memory of Hermann Baratz who died in Kiev in 1922, leaving volumes on Jewish history, particularly in Russia.

ZIONIST GENERAL COUNCIL, OVERRIDING OPPOSITION TO EXTENSION OF JEWISH AGENCY, DRAFTS PLANS FOR BODY'S FUTURE WORK

Vote of 39 to 5 on Marshall-Weizmann Agreement Followed by Provisions to Guard Zionist Principles; Weizmann Leaves Berlin After Vote; Wise
Protests Against Secrecy, Warns of Movement's Degradation;
National Home Principle Is Issue, He Says

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, Dec. 24—Having overridden by a majority of 39 to 5 the opposition to the Marshall-Weizmann agreement on the inclusion into an enlarged Jewish Agency of non-Zionists to share with the Zionists responsibility in the upbuilding of Palestine as the Jewish National Home under the provisions of the Palestine Mandate of the League of Nations, the Zionist General Council continued its sessions here all day Sunday and Monday.

After listening to the arguments of Dr. Stephen S. Wise of New York, who made a last-minute trip across the ocean especially to present his objections, the General Council went on with its work of drafting a constitution for the enlarged Jewish Agency. The Council of the Jewish Agency, under the present plan, is to consist of 200 members, instead of 150 as was originally intended. The Zionist legislative body adopted a resolution reaffirming a previous decision of the Zionist Congress that the incumbent of the office of president of the World Zionist Organization is always to be the president of the Jewish Agency. The purpose of this resolution is, it was explained, to guarantee the Zionist character of the Palestine work which will be carried on under the combined Jewish Agency.

Another resolution was adopted by the General Council at the initiative of the labor groups, Hitachduth and Poale Zion, in which it is emphasized that Point 3 of the Marshall memorandum, on which the vote was taken, constituted a reaffirmation of the decision of the General Council last July that the freedom of the Palestine settlers to choose for themselves the form of settlement, individualistic Moshav or collective Kvuzah, be secured, provided, however, that these colonization systems are found to be in accordance with economic principles and make the settlements self-supporting.

The president of the World Zionist Organization was also urged to take steps to enlist the cooperation of Jewish labor organizations in the United States for the furtherance of the Palestine project and to secure for them adequate representation on the enlarged Jewish Agency in that portion of the membership allotted to the American non-Zionists.

The question of drafting the constitution for the enlarged Jewish Agency occupied the General Council all day Sunday. While members of the opposition group and others urged that the competency of the enlarged Jewish Agency be limited in favor of the Zionist Executive, the spokesmen for the Mizrachi Orthodox Zionist Organization and of the general Zionists urged that the future Agency be given the widest prerogatives. A special commission to draft the Jewish Agency constitution was appointed consisting of Dr. Abraham Coralnik, New York; Kurt Blumenfeld, Berlin; Leon Lewite, Warsaw; Dr. Alfred Klec, Berlin; Dr. Alexander Goldstein, London, and Dr. M. Glueckson, Tel Aviv.

The Zionist General Council also debated Sunday the question of proxies as provided in the Weizmann-Marshall agreement. The agreement requires the granting of the right of proxy to the American members. It was suggested that each member of the Jewish Agency Council may have the right to hold proxies for four other members, so that ten Americans attending may represent the full voting power of the American non-Zionists.

Berlin, Dec. 24—The arrival Saturday at 9 P. M. of Dr. Stephen S. Wise, president of the American Jewish Congress, at the Kaiserhof Hotel, having come directly from New York accompanied by Samuel Rosensohn, New York attorney and member of the Zionist opposition group in the United States, caused the interruption of the proceedings of the Zionist General Council, which was about to take a vote on the Marshall-Weizmann plan for the extension of the Jewish Agency. Prior to his arrival, in a telegram to Dr. Leo Motzkin, chairman of the session, he urged postponement of the vote until his arrival.

After the session was resumed, following an hour's intermission, Dr. Wise, in an address which lasted for over an hour, attempted to persuade the mem-

(Continued on Page 4)

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN

Published every day in the week except Saturday and Jewish high holidays

by the

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN CO.

Address All Mail to

Executive and Editorial Office:

611 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Publication Office:

110 Bridge Plaza South, L. I. City, N. Y.
Jacob Landau 611 Broadway, N. Y. President
Samuel Blensack Treasurer
John Simons Secretary
William Z. Spiegelman Editor

Vol. V. Wednesday, Dec. 26, 1925. No. 1251.

Member of Jewish Telegraphic Agency
New York 611 Broadway
London 244 High Holborn
Paris 5, Rue Cardinal Mercier
Berlin Eisenbahnstrasse 6
Warsaw Ulica Adzke Jerozolimski Nr. 18
Jerusalem Hasolel Bldg.

Subscription Rates

	U. S. & Canada	Foreign
One Year	$10.00	$15.00
Six Months	6.00	8.00
One Month	1.00	1.50

Entered as second-class matter July 19, 1927, at the Post Office at L. I. City, N. Y., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Copyrighted

URGE OTTINGER FOR FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION POST

President Coolidge has been asked to appoint Albert Ottinger, whose term as Attorney General of New York expires Dec. 31, to the Federal Trade Commission, it was learned.

There is a vacancy on the commission caused by the resignation of Abram P. Myers. Mr. Myers handed in his resignation Dec. 20 and the President accepted it with the understanding he continue to serve until decisions were reached on several cases.

Those who were instrumental in placing Mr. Ottinger's name before President Coolidge give the impression the suggestion was well received and the appointment will be made.

DR. JOSEPH A. ROSEN ARRIVES IN NEW YORK

Dr. Joseph A. Rosen, head of the Agrofjoint, the agency of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee for Jewish colonization work in Russia, arrived in New York Tuesday on the steamer Majestic.

Dr. Rosen will remain in the United States several weeks, following which he will return to Moscow to continue his work.

About 600 men and women attended a dinner at the Hotel Plaza in New York, on Dec. 24, E. Kline, honoring him for his services in behalf of the New York Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies. Mr. Kline headed the Ready-to-Wear Trades Committee which raised $235,000 for the Federation.

Sol M. Strock, President of the Federation, presented Mr. Kline with a silver plaque upon which were inscribed the names of seventy-five of Mr. Kline's associates in business and philanthropy. Jacob Sperber, who presided, announced that those present had contributed $25,000 in a special drive to complete the ready-to-wear quota of $250,000 before Dec. 31.

The New York Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies in New York receives $10,000 by the will of the late Irwin R. Heilbroner of New York which makes specific bequests of $215,000, his widow, sister and mother being the principal beneficiaries.

HEBREW TRADE UNION GROUP PRAISED FOR FIGHT TO EJECT COMMUNISTS

Points to United Hebrew Trades' Eliminating Sweatshops

Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, praised the United Hebrew Trades for its fight against Communists in the labor movement, in addressing the members of the organization in Carnegie Hall, where the United Hebrew Trades celebrated its fortieth anniversary on Saturday night.

Mr. Woll said the American labor movement would never forget the successful fight waged by the United Hebrew Trades to oust the Left Wing members. "After driving sweatshop bosses and contractors out of the unions, you were in recent years confronted with a special plague which threatened to destroy the fruits of your labors for four decades, and to break down all your working standards. I refer to the Communist sect, which, at the behest and support of the Moscow oligarchy has made an attempt to capture or demolish your union. I have watched at close range your splendid fight for self-preservation against these fanatical raiders who, for a time, succeeded in dividing your ranks. American labor unions will never forget the spirit of true unionism with which the Communist demagogues were met and routed."

Jacob Panken, Benjamin Tigel, chairman of the United Hebrew Trades; S. Weinstein, Abraham Cahane, editor of the "Forward"; and Morris Feinstein, secretary, were also speakers.

Telegrams were received from William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor; J. Ramsay MacDonald, former British Labor Prime Minister; H. H. Thomas, head of the Jewish Railwaymen's Union; Leon Jouthaux, secretary of the French General Confederation of Labor; and Peter Grassman, secretary of the German Federation of Trade Unions.

LEAVES 10% OF ESTATE FOR CHARITY PURPOSES
(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Boston, Dec. 24—Julius Levenson, who died here a few days ago left 10 percent of his entire estate for charity, according to the will which was filed for probate. No specific organization was named but the trustees were directed to apportion the amounts for charity to those organizations in which the deceased had shown himself interested.

Another provision of the will directed the trustees to continue the payment to "my poor relations" in Europe. The amount left by the testator was not made known.

A sum of $10,000 was left to Mrs. Ida Levenson, the widow, and $5,000 was set apart for the benefit of his adopted son, the income which will be paid to him.

Judge J. J. Kaplan was named trustee. Mr. Levenson was a Zionist and a large contributor to many charitable organizations.

NON-SECTARIAN MEDICAL FRATERNITY PROTESTS DISCRIMINATION AGAINST JEWS

Elect New Officers at National Convention

The discriminations made against Jewish students in their attempt to gain admittance to medical schools were discussed at the three-day convention held at the Hotel Commodore of Phi Delta Epsilon, the oldest and largest non-sectarian medical fraternity in the United States. Doctors and medical students from all over the country attended.

It was decided to demand uniform rules of admission for all. Plans were made to raise a fund of $1,000,000 to be used in research for combating the unconquered diseases. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars of this sum has already been subscribed by members of the fraternity. A plan to lend financial aid to indigent medical students who had already started their studies was inaugurated.

Dr. Leonard Averett, the well-known Philadelphia surgeon, was elected Grand Consul, succeeding Dr. J. J. Weiner of New York. Dr. Eli C. Romberg of Boston was chosen Vice-Consul. Both elections were unanimous.

The program of events included a banquet Sunday night at which Judge Julian Mack of the United States Circuit Court was the principal speaker. Dr. Louis Harris, former Health Commissioner of New York City, and a member of the fraternity, was toastmaster.

Phi Delta Epsilon, which consists of forty-two chapters and 3,500 members, has within its ranks some of the most famous doctors in the country, among them being Dr. Solomon Solis-Cohen of Philadelphia, Dr. Milton Rosenau of Harvard, Dr. David Macht of Johns Hopkins, Dr. Morris Fishbein of writing fame and Dr. Edgar Mayer, an authority on tuberculosis. The fraternity celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary at its convention sessions.

Wanted

Alert young men and women with Jewish cultural background to represent the

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN

in every community. Ability to speak in public is desirable but not essential.

If you would like to earn extra money by making friends for the JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN write to Department 3, Jewish Daily Bulletin, 611 Broadway, New York City

HEBREW UNIVERSITY SENDS ARCHAEOLOGICAL FINDS TO NEWARK MUSEUM

The Archaeological Department of the Hebrew University has sent to the Museum at Newark, N. J., a collection of potsherds and other material from the excavations carried on by the University last year at Tel el Jerishe, a middle bronze age mound north of Tel Aviv, states an announcement by the American Advisory Committee of the Hebrew University, of which Felix M. Warburg is chairman.

By permission of the Department of Antiquities, Dr. L. Sukenik, Field-archaeologist of the University, recently cleared a cave in Wady-en-Nar in the Kidron Valley. A number of ossuaries bearing Hebrew inscriptions were removed from the cave. Of particular interest is an ossuary bearing the name "Shamai ben Jehosaf." The fragments of these ossuaries have been added to the archaeological collection of the University.

The Department of Archaeology at the University has just received through the courtesy of George Blumenthal, a large collection of photographs of Moslem art objects in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. The University has also received a similar collection of photographs from the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, secured for the University by Louis E. Kirstein. The University now possesses, in addition to these collections, over three thousand photographs of the great Creswell Collection of Moslem monuments and objects of art, which were assembled by Dr. L. A. Mayer, who is Lecturer in Moslem Art and Archaeology at the University. The University is also securing photographs of Moslem art in print—timers Schiff.

The ceramic chefs d'oeuvre of this collection illustrate some of the highest grade of Moslem craftsmanship and artistic achievement. Through a fund established by Judge Jacob Moses of Baltimore in memory of his wife, Hortense G. Moses, it will be possible for the University to secure photographs of Moslem art objects in the leading museums of Europe, the Committee announced.

The American Advisory Committee also made the announcement that Societies of Friends of the Hebrew University had been formed in Boston, under the chairmanship of Dr. Milton L. Rosenau, of Harvard University, Medical School, and in New Haven, with Col. Isaac M. Ullman as chairman.

PETACH TIKVAH RIOTERS SENTENCED TO PRISON

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Dec. 24—Three workers were sentenced to six months imprisonment and one to five days. They were found guilty of invading the office of the Petach Tikvah agriculturist committee during a demonstration of Jewish workers on Monday.

The Jewish Club is fostering an exhibit of paintings and etchings by the Palestinian artist, Joseph Tupper. The exhibit is being held at the Jewish Club, 23 West 73rd Street, New York.

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

Kirstein Gives Library Building to Boston

By Our Boston Correspondent

Boston, Dec. 23—Louis E. Kirstein, vice-president of William Filene's Sons Company, has given the sum of $150,000 to the city of Boston to erect a branch library for business men and women, according to an announcement made by Mayor Nichols. The gift was accepted by the City of Boston. The mayor will present to the city council at its next meeting an order for the immediate erection of the new building. The library is to be known as the Edward Kirstein Memorial Library in memory of Mr. Kirstein's father.

According to officials of the Boston Public Library this will be the first library to be devoted mainly to the needs of business men and women. The donor will also give books to this branch which is to be located near the Boston City Hall.

Mr. Kirstein made his home in this city in 1894 and is one of the leading figures in the life of the community. He has been the head of the local Federated Jewish Charities and has interested himself in many communal and civic affairs. He has been a member of the board of library trustees and has taken a keen interest in the library situation.

Mayor Nichols' letter of acceptance of the gift follows: "Permit me as mayor of the city of Boston to extend to you this acknowledgment of my many thanks for your splendid gift to this city.

"It is an occasion not only of official recognition, but also one of personal gratification and is a further evidence of your devoted interest in our great city.

"The library which you so generously offer the city of Boston to be erected on the site of former police station 2 in City Hall Avenue and Court Square will stand for all time as a tribute to your long list of public contributions.

"During our conversation regarding your gift you made reference to the affection felt by your father, the late Edward Kirstein, for the people and for the city of Boston and desired that the gift should be in honor of his memory. It seems to me, therefore, that the library should be called the Edward Kirstein Memorial Library.

"Please accept this expression of my sincere thanks and with it the assurance that the city of Boston, which has the honor to have so distinguished a citizen as yourself, is proud to receive your gift."

The "Boston Herald," commenting on the gift of Mr. Kirstein, said in part: "The gift of a downtown library branch by Mr. Louis E. Kirstein to Boston is the greatest benefaction but one in the history of the Public Library. That part of the late J. H. Benton's gift which is now accumulating amounted to a million dollars, but has not yet become effective.

"No less admirable than the gift itself is the spirit which prompted it. Mr. Kirstein says simply that Boston has been very good to him and that he wishes to show his appreciation in this library, which will be a memorial to his father. Here is an example of fine citizenship: the kind which the late James J. Storrow used to urge and to illustrate, and which Mrs. Storrow still embodies. Those millions who glowed at Mr. Hoover's remarks about the abolition of poverty will find a new theme in the erection of a memorial structure, devoted to education, on the site of a dingy, barred-window old police station."

By Our Fort Wayne Correspondent

Fort Wayne, Ind., Dec. 20—At a mass meeting called by Samuel Appel, president, the B'nai Jacob Congregation decided upon the erection of a new synagogue at the cost of $75,000. The present edifice is inadequate and the new structure, the site of which will be decided by a committee of nine headed by Mr. Appel, will contain a Hebrew school, gymnasium, and quarters for the Young Men's Hebrew Association. The plans are in the hands of architect A. M. Strauss.

The B'nai Jacob congregation was founded in the early '60's. Rabbi Herman Pricc will be rabbi of the new synagogue.

A group meeting of the B'nai Brith lodges was held in Fort Wayne on December 23, in the Aechduth Mesholem Temple. King Baer, member of the I. O. O. B. administrative committee, of Toledo, Ohio, was the main speaker. Lodges from South Bend, Lafayette, Kokomo, Muncie, Marion, and Wabash sent representatives who were guests of the Fort Wayne lodge.

On January 27 an interstate group meeting of the B'nai Brith lodges will be held at Louisville, Ky., with the following lodges, beside the Louisville club, participating: Owensboro, Ky., Evansville, Terre Haute, and Indianapolis.

A group meeting of the B'nai Brith lodges will also be held February 3 at South Bend, under the auspices of the Mamre Lodge. Israel Treiman of St. Louis will speak.

A meeting of the officers of the Indiana State Association, I. O. B. B., has been called by President Saul Manter at Indianapolis on February 10.

The Muncie B'nai Brith observed "Sam Schwartz Night" December 6th in honor of Sam Schwartz, who secured an unusually large number of members and who has been very active in Jewish affairs. Professor Abraham Cronbach, of the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati, spoke on "How the Talmud Looks to an Amateur." Saul Manter, president of the State association, also spoke.

By Our Pittsburgh Correspondent

Pittsburgh, Dec. 20—Opposing the erection of a Jewish institutional building in their vicinity, many property owners appealed to the City Council for rejection of an amending ordinance designed to change the zoning law.

The Council reserved its decision, as bers of the Zionist legislative body to reject the plan on the ground that it contains danger to the Zionist movement and the ideal of establishing a Jewish National Home in Palestine. He protested against the fact that the session of the General Council was held behind closed doors, the press not being admitted.

(Continued on Page 2)

ZIONIST GENERAL COUNCIL DRAFTS PLANS FOR BODY'S FUTURE WORK

(Continued from Page 1)

"I know that the Jewish Agency is a settled matter; nonetheless, I warn you at the last moment of the degradation which will result for the Zionist movement from the consummation of the plan," he exclaimed. The Zionist Congress, he contended, never gave its consent to change the main principle of the Palestine Mandate. Any decision taken by the Zionist General Council, a subsidiary body to the Zionist Congress, would be illegal. The General Council cannot usurp the rights of the Congress which has laid down the two principles of the unchangeability of the Mandate and that, at all events, the Zionist Organization remains the Jewish Agency recognized in that Mandate. It would be self-deception on the part of the Zionists to believe that the Zionist Organization enters as a full-fledged partner. Under the present plan, the Zionist Organization is a yielding party. "The Marshall group has never uttered the words 'Jewish National Home'. All they speak of is the upbuilding of Palestine," Dr. Wise asserted.

"The Churchill paper has not conceded to the anti-Zionist Arabs as much as we, the Zionists, are conceding to the non-Zionists. If we are to give up the idea of the Jewish National Home, we could obtain just as much from the Arabs," he stated. "As long as we remain faithful to the ideal of a Jewish state in Palestine, the Marshall group will distrust us," he further declared. "Under the present plan, Palestine will become a Joint Distribution Committee province and the Zionist Organization will cease to be the factor which fulfills the will of the Jewish people to live as a people. Be warned!" he exclaimed.

Dr. Weizmann rose to answer Dr. Wise before the vote was taken. He took the floor. Dr. Weizmann stated, although he did not find any new arguments in Dr. Wise's presentation, which is at least five years old. He replied because he did not want the impression created that he underestimated his opponent. As to the arguments, they have been answered. Concerning Dr. Wise's prophecy for the future, it can safely be left to the future, he concluded.

Resolution Expresses Approval

The vote was then taken. Deputy Isaac Gruenbaum of Warsaw and Dr. M. Solowitschik of Berlin, representing the Radical Zionists, Meer Grossman of London and Richard Lichtheim of Berlin, representing the Zionist Revisionists, and Dr. Stephen S. Wise were the five members of the Council who voted against the plan

The vote was taken on the following resolution which was adopted:

"The Zionist General Council expresses its satisfaction with the proceedings of the Non-Zionist Conference held in New York City on the 20th and 21st of October, when American Jews expressed their willingness to enter the Jewish Agency for the purpose of cooperating, in accordance with the Palestine Mandate, in the establishment of the Jewish National Home.

"Whereas the negotiations conducted by Dr. Chaim Weizmann in accordance with the decision of the General Council adopted in July, 1928 have been concluded.

"Whereas these New York negotiations have to a large measure been in accord with the decisions of the General Council, and

"Whereas, the result of these New York negotiations signify a definite step towards uniting all Jewry for the upbuilding of Eretz Israel within an extended Jewish Agency, and

"Whereas, the contents of the memorandum attached to the letter of Mr. Louis Marshall addressed to Dr. Weizmann and dated New York, November 20, are taken cognizance of,

"Therefore, the General Council authorizes the Executive of the Zionist Organization to communicate to Mr. Louis Marshall that the Zionist Organization is ready to proceed, in accordance with the proposals contained in the memorandum.

"The General Council expects that the Zionist Executive will take all measures necessary for securing the creation of the Council of the extended Jewish Agency for the establishment of the Jewish National Home and towards convening the Council after the Sixteenth Zionist Congress meeting, at the earliest possible date."

Warsaw, Dec. 24.—Telegraphic reports concerning the adoption by the Zionist General Council of the Jewish Agency extension plan called forth wide enthusiasm in Zionist circles here. A festive reception in honor of the Polish delegates who are expected to return from the Berlin session will be given under the auspices of the Zionist Organization of Poland.

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

(Continued from Page 3)

suring both sides that the proposition will be given earnest consideration.

It developed that J. H. Frank and Mrs. J. H. Frank have agreed to donate the property, now the Frank residence, to the Jewish Home for the Aged. Three petitions, signed by 100 residents of the community, setting forth objections to development of the property as a home or other institution were presented.

The objectors stressed that they were not opposing the home because of its denomination, but believed that any institutional building would be detrimental to surrounding property. They said the community is entirely residential.

If you are pleased with the "Jewish Daily Bulletin" tell your friends to subscribe.

Nissim Behar

says:

"The special merit of this paper is its impartiality. It does not belong to any ism except Judaism."

Dear Subscriber:

Because the Bulletin's only ism is Judaism, it finds response from every man and woman with a Jewish consciousness. Whether orthodox, conservative or reform; Zionist or non-Zionist—the Jewish Daily Bulletin satisfies them all.

Whatever your friends' isms may be, you can commend the Bulletin to them.

Will you do this TODAY and help us to secure new subscribers by January first?

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN.

CORRECTION

In the recent report in the "Jewish Daily Bulletin" entitled "Inhabitants of Recalc King George's Visit," a typographical error occurred in giving the date of the visit. It was erroneously printed 1822 when it should have been 1882.

MEET THE WORLD'S MASTER MINDS

in

Celebrities of Our Time

By HERMAN BERNSTEIN

Metchnikoff	Kerensky
Kotovsky	Recalc King
Shiekh-Ul-Islam	Okuma
Delbrueck	Cecil
Pope Benedict XV	Krassin
Kropotkin	Einstein
Sukhomlinoff	Nordau
Weizmann	Benes
Trotsky	Raditz
Witte	Wilson
Harda	Roosevelt
Shaw	Schnitzler
Rodin	Caicherin
Ellis	Rathenau
Bergson	Andreyev

Ivolsky

The Boston Transcript says:

"Of many races and nationalities, of many political, artistic and religious creeds, alike practically in but one characteristic—the force of their personalities—these men apparently opened their hearts to Mr. Bernstein, discoursing with at times a somewhat surprising candor upon the problems of the day in which they were not only vitally interested, but which they themselves were influencing."

Special Price for the Volume—$1.59
ALL NATIONS PUBLISHING CO.
2533 Salmon Tower, New York, N.Y.

Assists Nature—Does Not Force It

EX-LAX

The Ideal Laxative
"Chocolated" and "Fig Flavor"