

Vol. VI. Price 4 Cents.

Tuesday, April 2, 1929.

Entered as 2nd Class Matter at Post
Office, Long Island City, New York No. 1332.

15,000 JEWISH FAMILIES IN SOVIET RUSSIA TO RECEIVE MATZOTH FROM ABROAD

Communist Organ Lashes Government for Permitting Importation of Unleavened Bread

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Riga, Apr. 1.—All in all 15,000 Jewish families in various parts of the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics will be enabled to observe Passover in the traditional way through the receipt from abroad of a minimum supply of Matzoth for the eight days of the festival.

Twenty-six carloads were shipped to Moscow via Riga, instead of the fifty carloads which were originally planned. The decrease is due to the higher custom duty which has to be paid for the matzoth.

The first five carloads of matzoth which were detained in Moscow because the Latvian commercial representative, Schenezow, paid only five kopeks per kilogram were despatched following the remittance of the sum required to meet the duty. The last thirteen carloads will be shipped tomorrow, two from Berlin and eleven from Riga. The matzoth is directed to the following Russian centers: Leningrad, Vitebsk, Minsk, Charkov, Schepetowka, Odessa, Kiev, Cherson, Nikolajiv, Yekaterinoslaw, Krementschug, Berditschew, Zhitomir, Homel and Bobruisk.

Moscow, Apr. 1.—According to an estimate of Jewish leaders here, fifty carloads of matzoth containing 800 pud each, will be the minimum required to meet the needs of the Jewish population in Russia during the coming Passover. Fifty per cent of the shipments will go to the Ukraine, twenty-five per cent to White Russia and thirty per cent to the scattered communities in the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics.

The Communist Yiddish daily,
(Continued on Page 4)

ISIAH ROSENBAUM, ORTHODOX LEADER, DIES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Apr. 1.—Isiah Rosenbaum, one of the wealthiest Orthodox Jews in Warsaw, died here at the age of 61. He was vice-president of the Executive Committee of the Warsaw Kehillah and prominent in the Agudath Israel movement.

An incident occurred during the funeral services at the cemetery. Deputy H. Farbstein, leader of the Mizrahi and president of the Kehillah Council, was delegated by the Council to speak at the services. At the cemetery Agudath youths resented the appearance of the Mizrahi leader, an opponent of the Agudists. They interrupted him in the middle of his address, shouting "Infidel."

CALENDAR CONFUSION IN ROUMANIA COMPELS JEWS TO BE IDLE 150 DAYS IN YEAR

International Calendar League Cites the Easter Case

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Apr. 1.—The Jewish population of Bessarabia will be compelled to abstain from work three times this year on account of the confusion in the calendar with regard to the Easter holiday, states a circular of the International Fixed Calendar League here.

Because the Greek Orthodox Roumanians have refused to celebrate Easter before Passover, they have postponed it until thirty-five days after the Catholic Easter, observed March 31.

The clash of the calendars in Roumania keeps the Jews idle for 150 days during the year, causing their impoverishment, as well as the impoverishment of the other parts of the population, the League declares.

The League suggests that the Jews and Christians unite for observing the festival on the ninth of April in 1933 and keep this date as perpetual. The League complains that the Jewish representatives to whom a patent hearing was given by the Calendar Committee of the League of Nations in 1925, have declared, without knowing the benefits of the planned reform, that they would never change the present Sabbath day.

MANY ARE DESERTING JUDAISM IN WARSAW

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Apr. 1.—The ceremonies accompanying the final admission to the bar, held under the auspices of the Warsaw Bar Association, brought a shock to the Jewish population of Warsaw.

Of the twenty Jewish candidates who were admitted, only eight took the oath according to the Mosaic religion. Twelve were sworn in with the Catholic ritual. The twelve attorneys who, as it was disclosed, have embraced Catholicism, are taking an active part in Jewish life in the capital and still regard themselves as racial Jews.

The increase in the number of apostates among the Jewish intelligentsia has become the subject of wide comment.

RUMOR THAT MOSLEMS PLAN MOSQUE NEAR WAIVING WALL

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Apr. 1.—That the Palestine Moslems plan the erection of a mosque near the Waiving Wall, is a rumor which is spreading throughout the city. The erection of this mosque would cut off the access of Jewish worshippers to the Wall.

The Jewish communal organization of Jerusalem, the Vaad H'ir, took cognizance of these rumors, bringing them to the attention of the Governor, who promised to institute an inquiry.

PROMINENT EUROPEANS JOIN INTERNATIONAL HERZL MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

Einstein, Together with Non-Jewish Scholars and Writers, Aligned with Movement

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, Apr. 1.—The movement to honor the memory of the late Dr. Theodor Herzl, founder of political Zionism, took definite shape with the announcement here of the formation of an international Herzl Memorial Committee.

Writers of international renown, scholars and statesmen, Jews and non-Jews, have joined the committee which issued an appeal to the public for subscriptions to the fund for the erection of a memorial on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the late Zionist leader's death, which occurs this summer.

The "Neue Freie Presse," leading Vienna newspaper, of which Dr. Herzl was a contributing editor, has undertaken to defray the propaganda expenses in connection with raising the fund.

The appeal was issued over the signatures of Prof. Albert Einstein, Jacob Wassermann, Franz Werfel, Stephen Zweig, Lesser Ury, Hermann Bahr, Ludwig Fulda, Professor Redlich of Cambridge, Dr. Friedberg of London, and Max Brod. Prominent bankers and industrialists of Berlin and Bucharest are also on the committee. The appeal emphasizes the fact that Herzl gave to the world the Zionist idea, raising a torch which became, in the course of a quarter of a century, the common property of the entire civilized world. Reference is also made to Herzl's literary activities. It was he who was the creator of Vienna's "feuilleton fame."

A special committee to cooperate with the European committee will be created in the United States, it was declared.

TEL AVIV MACCABEE WINS PALESTINE SPORT CUP

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Apr. 1.—The Palestine sport cup was awarded for 1929 to the Maccabee, Jewish sport club of Tel Aviv.

The wife of the Governor of Jerusalem presented the cup to the winning team and the French Consul presented a medal on behalf of the diplomatic representatives here.

CHASSIDIC LEADER MAKES 3rd PALESTINE PILGRIMAGE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Apr. 1.—Rabbi Mordecai Alter, famous Gerer Rebbe, who has a large following among the Jews of Poland, will proceed to Palestine for the Passover holiday. This will be the third pilgrimage of the famous Chassidic Rabbi to Jerusalem since the close of the World War.

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN

Published every day in the week except Saturday and Jewish high holidays by

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN CO.

Address All Mail to Executive and Editorial Office:
611 Broadway, New York, N. Y.
Publication Office:
316 Bridge Plaza South, L. I. City, N. Y.
Jacob Landau President
Samuel Bienstock Treasurer
John Simons Secretary
William Z. Spiegelman Editor

Vol. VI. Tuesday, Apr. 2, 1929. No. 1332.

Member of Jewish Telegraphic Agency
New York 611 Broadway
London 24 Rue High Holborn
Paris 34 Rue de Provence
Berlin Eisenbahnstrasse 6
Warsaw Ulica Aleje Jerozolimski Nr. 18
Jerusalem Hasolel Bldg.

Subscription Rates

	U.S. and Canada	Foreign
One Year	$10.00	$15.00
Six Months	6.00	8.00
One Month	1.00	1.50

Entered as second-class matter July 19, 1927, at the Post Office at L. I. City, N. Y., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Copyrighted

NEW YORK FRIENDS OF HEBREW UNIVERSITY SOCIETY IS FORMED

James Marshall Chosen Chairman; Observe University's 4th Anniversary

A New York Society of Friends of the Hebrew University in Palestine was organized following a luncheon held Saturday at the Harmonie Club, attended by fifty New York Jewish leaders.

James Marshall was chosen chairman of the society, which will have for its purpose to enroll all those interested in Palestine as a Jewish cultural center and especially in furthering the developments of the Hebrew University. An effort will be made to enroll at least one thousand active Friends during the month of April, during which the fourth anniversary of the dedication of the University will be observed.

James Marshall, Dr. Leo Wolman, of the National Bureau of Economic Research and labor expert for the Palestine Survey Commission, and Dr. Solomon Lowenstein, Director of the Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies, related their impressions of the University obtained during their visits to Palestine. They stressed its importance not only to Palestine but to Jews throughout the world.

Mr. Marshall outlined six needs which the University meets. "In the first place," he said, "the local demand for facilities for higher education is insistent. Scores of pioneers have come prepared for university instruction from secondary schools in countries of their origin. Furthermore, thousands of children are growing up in Palestine with Hebrew as their native tongue, and they will need a university to complete their education. Secondly, the introduction of modern agriculture and cattle breeding into a new region creates problems of soil and climate, water supply, chemistry, and physics, which can best be solved on the spot, in the labor-

(Continued on Page 4)

MARYLAND SENATE DEFEATS CIVIL MARRIAGE BILL

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Annapolis, Md., Apr. 1—Without a dissenting vote, the Senate of the Maryland General Assembly, by adopting an unfavorable report, killed the civil marriage bill. That the measure would not pass the upper house had been anticipated by political observers, but a fight in support of it had been expected.

The bill was introduced in the House of Delegates by Seymour Phillips, Baltimore lawyer, and was passed by that body February 19. A similar measure introduced in the 1927 session by Mr. Phillips was killed.

The unfavorable report acted on was returned by the Judicial Proceedings Committee.

The bill would have permitted justices of the peace, as well as the clergy, to perform marriages. The measure was supported by a large number of clergymen, including rabbis, throughout Maryland, in addition to organizations of liberal thought.

PHILADELPHIA U. P. A. DRIVE TO OPEN MAY 12

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Philadelphia, Pa., Apr. 1—Louis E. Levinthal of this city will head the annual campaign of the United Palestine Appeal which will open here May 12. Announcement of Mr. Levinthal's appointment as chairman of the Philadelphia U. P. A. drive was made by Robert M. Bernstein, chairman of the Philadelphia committee, at a showing last night at the Bellevue Stratford Hotel of a film depicting the development of Palestine in recent years.

Although the quota for Philadelphia has not yet been set, it is expected that a sum in the neighborhood of $300,000 will be agreed upon by the chairman and his associates.

Mr. Levinthal is a member of the law firm of Monaghan, Levinthal, Schofield and Kraus, and is the son of Rabbi B. L. Levinthal.

Judge William M. Lewis, national chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, Mr. Bernstein and Mr. Levinthal were the speakers last night at the meeting in the grand ballroom of the Bellevue Stratford Hotel. Approximately one thousand persons attended.

Dayton, O., Apr. 1—Dayton launched its United Palestine Appeal campaign for $15,000 under the chairmanship of J. H. Margolis.

The 100 men and women inmates of the Home of Old Israel, 204 Henry Street, New York, were removed to the new quarters of the Home, formerly occupied by Beth Israel Hospital.

The aged and indigent inmates were moved in busses and private automobiles, led by a procession of some 3,000 persons, who contributed to the campaign to move the home into the new quarters.

The new quarters will accommodate about 300 and the additional 200 inmates are expected to be admitted within a week.

Dedication exercises of the new Madison House, New York City, were held in the serene ment building on Sunday. Speakers included Mrs. Henry Moskowitz, wife of Dr. Henry Moskowitz, one of the founders of the institution.

DR. MORGENSTERN PAYS TRIBUTE TO DR. HELLER

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Cincinnati, O., Apr. 1—A tribute to the memory of the late Dr. Maximilian Heller, who died Saturday morning at New Orleans, was paid here by Dr. Julian Morgenstern, president of the Hebrew Union College, from which Dr. Heller was one of the earliest graduates.

"Rabbi Maximilian Heller was graduate of the Hebrew Union College of the class of 1884, its second class, and one of the most honored and influential alumni," Dr. Morgenstern stated.

"A man of scholarly aspiration and achievement, he upheld with dignity and zeal the old tradition of rabbinical scholarship and authority. For forty years he ministered as rabbi in Temple Sinai of New Orleans and through his utterances in that pulpit and his writing in the Jewish press of this country he helped to shape the development of American Reform Judaism. He served as president of the Central Conference of American Rabbis from 1909 to 1911 with distinction.

"He was probably the first, as he was certainly the foremost alumnus of the Hebrew Union College to champion the cause of Zionism. He defended it fearlessly in the face of strong opposition from the majority of his colleagues of the Reform wing of Judaism and was undoubtedly instrumental in bringing about a better mutual understanding between Reform Judaism and Zionism as it exists today," Dr. Morgenstern concluded.

JUSTICE ALBERT COHN TO BE INDUCTED TODAY

Ceremonies when Justice Albert Cohn will be inducted to his post on the New York State Supreme Court bench will be held this morning. Justice Cohn's appointment was confirmed by the state Senate on Tuesday before adjournment. He was sworn in on Wednesday by Justice Martin of the Appellate Division.

PRESENT $150,000 GIFT TO MONTEFIORE HOSPITAL

A donation of $150,000 toward the $1,200,000 building fund of the Montefiore Hospital for Chronic Diseases was made by Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff, widow of the late philanthropist, Mortimer L. Schiff, son, and Felix M. Warburg, it was announced.

B. SMOLAR SAILS TO RESUME MOSCOW J. T. A. POST

Mr. B. Smolar, Editor of the Jewish Service of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency in New York, sailed Friday on the "Ile de France" to resume his post as Moscow correspondent of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency.

Memorial services for the late Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Gibbs were conducted Sunday morning at the Montefiore Hebrew Congregation, the Bronx.

Present at the services were Supreme Court Justice Albert Cohn, Senator Benjamin Antin, Surrogate George S. Schulz, County Judge Harry Cockey, City Court Justice William S. Evans, John A. Biglin, Democratic leader of the 3rd Assembly District.

EMERGENCY CONFERENCE STRESSES NEED FOR $500,000 BESSARABIA FAMINE FUND

Lack of Interest and Slow Response
Sharply Rebuked

The raising of a fund of $500,000 for emergency relief work in Bessarabia for the purpose of tiding over 40,000 Jewish families, victims of the famine, until August 1, was set as a goal at a special emergency relief conference held Sunday afternoon at Pythian Temple, New York City.

The conference was called under the joint auspices of the American Jewish Congress, the Roumanian-Bessarabian Relief Committee, and the United Roumanian Jews of America. Although representatives of many Landsmanschaften and societies were invited, a small number of delegates was present.

Disappointment and indignation at the lack of response to the emergency call was a recurring note in the addresses delivered by Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Jacob Fishman and Abraham Goldberg. Inefficiency on the part of the temporary organization was partly blamed for the small attendance.

The speakers frankly criticized American Jews of Bessarabian descent for their lack of interest, as demonstrated in the fact that the delegates present announced the raising of $3,300 to date toward the sum sought, which had been determined upon and spoken of at a number of previous meetings and gatherings held during the last month since the news of the suffering in Bessarabia reached America.

The conference unanimously decided that every avenue of solicitation would be utilized. The opinion was expressed that while Bessarabian Jews in America should take the initiative in responding to the appeal the situation is such as to command the interest of all American Jewry. In addition to a public solicitation of funds, the Conference, in a resolution, expressed its hope that all Jewish organizations in America, regardless of affiliation, will consent to a voluntary tax on their membership for the purpose of swelling the fund.

The first public appeal for funds will be launched in New York at a mass meeting to be held shortly. Philadelphia has pledged to raise $25,000.

The organization of the campaign was placed in the hands of a Committee of which Morris Cooper is Chairman, and Morris Robbins, Abraham Katzman, Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Joseph Tabachnick and S. Silverman, Vice-Chairmen. Abraham Goldberg was named Chairman of the Executive Committee.

Mr. Morris Cooper presided at the sessions Sunday. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Jacob Fishman, Abraham Goldberg, Bernard G. Richards, Max Silverstein, Herman Speier and C. Grossman of Philadelphia.

The initiative for Bessarabian relief must be undertaken by Bessarabian Jews in America and not left to organized bodies in American Jewry in the opinion of Dr. Wise. The 60,000 Bessarabian Jews in America are rich enough to raise the entire sum needed

(Continued on Page 4)

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

Winter Tourists Build Synagogue at Miami Beach

Special Correspondence

Miami, Mar. 29.—The number of Jewish houses of worship in Miami has been increased to three with the dedication this week of a new synagogue at Miami Beach, built by Jewish winter tourists. It will mainly be used by those who come to spend the months January, February and March at the beach.

The synagogue, called Congregation Beth Jacob, was constructed at Collins Avenue and Fourth Street, Miami Beach, two blocks from the ocean. The seating capacity is 500. The construction involved an expense of $20,000, which was raised among the visitors to the resort. Six hundred and fifty contributions ranging from $5 to $1,000 made up the sum required.

Louis Topkis of Wilmington, Delaware, prominent in the Zionist movement in America, was chairman of the building committee which handed over the synagogue to the community free of any mortgage.

A record in construction was achieved in the completion of the work. The cornerstone was laid on February 17th, while the dedication took place on Sunday, March 24th. A special gallery for women was provided in the plans as the Congregation Beth Jacob determined upon the Orthodox ritual following some discussion in the committee. Some of the contributors, members of the committee, asked for the adoption of the Conservative ritual. It was, however, pointed out that the majority of the 7,500 Jewish winter tourists who come to spend the winter months at Miami are Orthodox, and range in age between 55 and 75. They come principally from New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and from the principal Canadian cities.

Louis Topkis presided at the dedication exercises. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Rabbi Israel H. Kaplan of Temple Israel, Reform congregation of Miami; the Rabbi of Congregation Beth David, Orthodox congregation; and Isidore Cohen of Miami.

Samuel Butter of Boston contributed the amount of $500 for the privilege of opening the door of the new synagogue while Mrs. Butter donated $250 for unveiling the tablet bearing the Ten Commandments. Other visitors made donations for the privileges of carrying the Scrolls of the Law from a store where the congregation had worshipped before erecting the new synagogue.

Members of the committee, headed by Louis Topkis of Wilmington, Del., as chairman, included Harry Levitt of Miami Beach, chairman of the construction committee; Harry Wasserman of Sharon Springs, N. Y., treasurer; Paul Herring of New York, William Hartman of Chicago, Joseph Williams of New York, Leon Paley of New York, Aaron Lachowitz of Shomok, Pa., Abraham Jaffe, Chicago; Jacob

(Continued on Page 4)

WOMEN AND RELIGIOUS GROUPS FACTORS IN DELEGALIZING WAR, SAYS LEVINSON

1,000 Attend Banquet to Honor Author of "Outlawry of War" Idea

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Chicago, Apr. 1.—The influence of women's organizations and religious bodies aided greatly in the movement to de-legalize war, declared Salmon O. Levinson, Chicago attorney, speaking at a dinner given him last night at Sinai Congregation to honor him for his part in the movement to outlaw war. Senator William E. Borah, next to former Secretary Kellogg, was the strongest individual force in the movement, Mr. Levinson declared.

The banquet was tendered Mr. Levinson at the Congress Hotel by the Chicago Sinai Congregation, of which he is a member, and the congregation sisterhood. Nearly one thousand persons, members of the congregation and guests, attended. Dr. Louis L. Mann presided.

Among the speakers who praised Mr. Levinson for his role in fostering the plan for the Kellogg peace treaty were Judge Florence Allen of the Ohio Supreme Court, Dr. Charles Clayton Morrison, editor of the "Christian Century," and Harrison Brown, English publicist and pacifist leader.

By preventing his treaty to outlaw war from becoming an issue in the Hoover-Smith campaign, Secretary of State Kellogg sagaciously saved the treaty ratification from probable defeat in the Senate, Mr. Levinson declared. Had the treaty question gone to a popular referendum in the presidential election, its chances in the Senate would have been slim, he said.

"Mr. Kellogg showed himself to be a great statesman in three respects. He refused to compromise on any modifications, his diplomacy was in the open, and he kept the treaty out of the campaign, thereby assuring enough Democratic votes in the Senate to put it over without a change," Mr. Levinson declared.

FORTUNE SMILES ON WOMAN IN BEGGAR'S GARB

(Jewish Telegraph Agency)

Budapest, Apr. 1.—Rosa Brust, a widow, an inmate in a public institution, was the recipient of a vast fortune, but did not know it. It was due to the diligence of the Budapest police authorities that she was transformed overnight from a recipient of charity into the mistress of a great fortune.

Fate smiled upon the aged Jewish woman when her brother-in-law, Sigmond Brust, died without leaving an heir. His estate in Nurenberg, consisting of real estate and an art collection estimated to be worth millions, falls to Mrs. Brust as the nearest relative. The Budapest police searched for her for many weeks. She was found several days ago in a public institution in a town near Budapest.

Dr. Max Meyer was unanimously elected president of the Southern Society of Philosophy and Psychology at the annual session at the University of Kentucky.

EMERGENCY CONFERENCE STRESSES NEED FOR $500,000 BESSARABIA FAMINE FUND

(Continued from Page 3)

and should certainly take the initiative, he said.

The Joint Distribution Committee, he stated, will agree to have this fund raised by a special Committee since the J.D.C. funds are exhausted because of its commitments.

The conference in a resolution adopted took cognizance of the aid already extended by the J.D.C. and expressed its confidence that the committee will continue its relief work for Bessarabian Jews. After some discussion the conference referred the wording of this resolution to the Executive Committee.

Criticism of the slowness of Bessarabian Jews in organizing the appeal and their failure to utilize the Jewish press for soliciting funds, was made by Jacob Fishman, Managing Editor of the "Jewish Morning Journal."

Following an appeal by Herman Speier, Secretary of the United Rumanian Jews of America, the Conference authorized the launching of an appeal for clothes. Mr. Speier disclosed that an agreement has been reached whereby all packages, containing clothes, food or other supplies will be admitted free to Roumania provided they are sent through the United Rumanian Jews of America.

Another resolution expressed the hope that Jewish newspapers throughout the country will open public subscriptions for funds.

CHARITIES GET BEQUESTS FROM TWO $1,000,000 ESTATES

Confidential bequests totalling $942,475 were left to seven Jewish organizations by the late Henry Sterne, who died Oct. 3, 1927. If the conditions stipulated in the will are not complied with, the total sum is to go to the Salvation Army, to which Mr. Sterne bequeathed $100,000 outright. The will disposes of an estate of $1,201,564.

The Montefiore Home, the Home for Hebrew Infants, the Educational Alliance, the Hebrew Technical Institute, the Sanitarium for Hebrew Children, the United Hebrew Charities and the Hospital for Deformities and Joint Diseases are named beneficiaries. Mr. Sterne directed that in each institution named in which a physician practices, that physician shall contribute 10 per cent of his fees from such practice for the support of such institution, and unless this is done the bequest is canceled.

Mr. Sterne's sister, Ida Sterne, gets the life income from $742,475, while the income from $200,000 is left to Lotie Karolina Ziller of Muenchen, Germany, at one time housekeeper for Mr. Sterne. The principal of this trust also goes upon her death to the institutions named.

The sum of $30,000 was left to the United Charities of Jerusalem. $5,000 outright and $50,000 payable at $2,500 a year to the Uptown Talmud Torah, and $21,500 to other religious organizations by the late Morris Weinstein, who left an estate appraised at $1,214,645.

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

(Continued from Page 3)

Becker, Miami Beach; Isaac Gross, Saratoga Springs; Max Feit, Miami Beach, Fla.

Lazarus Abramowitz is president of the congregation, J. Caplan, vice-president; M. Abraham, treasurer and S. Guttman, secretary.

N. J. Jewish Bar Candidates Freed from Examinations on Saturday

Trenton, N. J., Mar. 29—The Supreme Court of New Jersey has ruled that Jewish candidates for the bar examinations to be held on Saturday, May 11th, will not be required to take the examination at that time, providing they file an affidavit setting forth their religious scruples against taking the test on Sabbath.

The test has been held on Friday in past years, but the large number of candidates for the May term examination made necessary a change to more spacious examination quarters, which will be available only on May 11. A later date will be set for the examination of all Jewish candidates filing the necessary affidavits.

Rabbi Issachar Levin of Trenton and Rabbi Charles I. Hoffman of Newark, were among those who appeared before the court to have the date of the examination changed.

Jewish Arbitration Court Opens in San Francisco

San Francisco, Mar. 22—Sponsored by the Hebrew Free Loan Association, an agency of the Community Chest, a Jewish court of arbitration has been organized to hear civil disputes between members of San Francisco Jewry, William G. Weiss, executive director of the association, announced.

No charge will be made to persons submitting their differences to the court, and contestants will not be permitted to employ lawyers, Weiss said. Decisions of the court will be binding, under sections 1281 to 1290 of the California code of civil procedure, which recognizes arbitration as legal. Morris Spiegelman, a director of the association, will act as presiding judge.

"In establishing this court we have two purposes in mind," Weiss said. "First, it will relieve our civil courts of a great deal of petty litigation, which usually results in great expense to all parties concerned. Second, and most important, we hope to eliminate a great deal of bitterness so often engendered by-law suits.

"Under our plan, directors of the Hebrew Free Loan Association will act as judges. There are fifteen directors. Contestants will each select a judge from the board, and the two thus chosen will select a third, making a court of three. Neither of the judges will know who selected him."

The court of arbitration has been successfully tried in New York, Baltimore and London, Mr. Weiss said. If it works out satisfactorily here, it will be extended to include any San Franciscan who wishes to avail himself of the service, irrespective of religious faith.

15,000 JEWISH FAMILIES IN SOVIET RUSSIA TO RECEIVE MATZOTH FROM ABROAD

(Continued from Page 1)

"Emes" criticizes the Soviet government for the permission it granted for the importation of matzoth. The newspaper attacks the Moscow and Leningrad Kehillah leaders, Lazarev, Ginsburg, Broides and Clemens, charging them with using their connections with "foreign bankers, rabbis and yellow socialists for the spreading of reports that the Jews in the Soviet Union are suffering hunger, broadcasting an alarm to save the poor Eastern Jews."

The newspaper asserts that the importation of matzoth provides the non-Jewish counter-revolutionists with a new weapon against the Jews. The "Emes" urges the Jewish workers to protest against the importation of matzoth. It resents especially the statement of Mr. Broides that 60,000 poor Jews in Moscow want matzoth.

An unconfirmed report current here states that the invalids' cooperative in Moscow will bake matzoth which will be obtainable at twenty roubles per pud.

NEW YORK FRIENDS OF HEBREW UNIVERSITY SOCIETY IS FORMED

(Continued from Page 2)

atories of a modern university. Third, a place to study must be provided for the hounded and disappointed youth of the countries of Eastern Europe, which limit the number of Jews who may enter their universities as students and give them no opportunity for intelligent scholarly research. Fourth, Palestine is a logical place for theological students to do post-graduate work. Fifth, the Jews who have benefited for centuries from the universities of the Western world ought in return to contribute to the world a place of higher learning. In fact, we are anxious that our new university become an agency for enriching all culture and benefiting all mankind. The research which our scientists have already carried on in the field of public health and in Moslem history and civilization is an earnest of what we may accomplish in this direction."

Dr. Wolman emphasized the importance of the University as a place for training leaders to grapple with the problems with which Palestine is rapidly becoming confronted.

Dr. Lowenstein expressed the hope that the University might so enrich the Jewish heritage that a new cultural renaissance will be ushered in.

In addition to New York, Societies of Friends of the University are being established throughout the country, under the auspices of the American Advisory Committee, of which Felix M. Warburg is chairman.

Celebration of the fourth anniversary of the establishment of the Hebrew University on Mount Scopus was inaugurated Sunday night by Judge Julian W. Mack of the United States Circuit Court, a member of the Board of Governors of the Hebrew University, in a radio address he delivered over station WRNY.