THROW STONES AT EMILE VANDERVELDE, ARRIVING TO ADDRESS POLISH ZIONISTS

Assailants Undetermined; Belgian Statesman and Wife Uninjured

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, June 24—Emile Vandervelde, internationally known Socialist leader and Belgian statesman, was welcomed with stones thrown at him by unknown persons, when, accompanied by Mrs. Vandervelde, he arrived Saturday night at the theatre where he was to address a conference arranged by Zionist labor groups.

It was impossible to ascertain by whom the stones were thrown. Mr. and Mrs. Vandervelde escaped injury. Two versions were offered in explanation of the incident. According to one, the stones were thrown by followers of labor opposition groups which oppose the Zionist trend. The other version had it that the stones were thrown by Polish national democratic students. The theatre where the conference was being held is opposite the University garden. Mr. Vandervelde arrived in Warsaw several days ago, coming at the invitation of the Polish Socialist Party. He had consented to address the Zionist labor conference when the Zionist laborite

HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD TO AID HUNGARIAN LOAN

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Budapest, June 24—That the house of Rothschild would aid the Hungarian government to secure an international loan was believed here when Louis Rothschild was the guest of honor at a reception given by government members.

The reception was given by government member Sztovszky and was attended by Minister of Foreign Affairs, Minister of Finance, president of the National Bank and other leaders in the financial and political world.

MOSCOW HEARS KENWORTHY TO BE BRITISH ENVOY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, June 24—Lieutenant-Commander Kenworthy, laborite, may be Ramsay MacDonald's choice for the Ambassadorship to Moscow when Great Britain renews diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union, as is expected.

The report to this effect in the Soviet press was received with satisfaction in Jewish circles in Russia, as it is hoped, that Kenworthy, a friend of the Zionist movement, will exercise his influence, without interfering with local Soviet affairs, to lighten the burden of Russian Zionists and to at least obtain visas for those desiring to emigrate to Palestine.

ORDER RESTORED IN VIENNA UNIVERSITY; ANTI-SEMITIC STUDENTS YIELD

University Senate Refuses to Heed Demand for Dean's Resignation

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, June 24—Order was restored on the campus of the University of Vienna, and the extraordinary measures of protection were removed when the leaders of the anti-Semitic students' ring were convinced that their policy of threats and violence would not succeed.

The University Senate, which met to consider the ultimatum of the anti-Semitic students' organization, demanding the resignation of the dean for action he took to protect the Jewish students, rejected the demand and instead expressed confidence in the University officials. Members of parliament and members of the faculty who have close relations with the anti-Semitic students' organization were instrumental in permitting the anti-Semitic students to retire gracefully from the situation created. The organization was assured "certain concessions" if it would help restore peace at the University.

JEWISH SETTLEMENTS IN KALININDORF REGION TO LOSE INDIVIDUAL STATUS

Soviet to Transform Farms into Collectives, Objectors to Receive Other Land

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, June 24—The Jewish colonies located in the region of Kalinindorf, Ukraine, the so-called first Jewish region in the Soviet Union, are to lose their individual character and are, instead, to be merged into collectives, according to a decision of the Kalinindorf regional Soviet.

This program is to be carried out within a year. A central tractor station is to be organized for the purpose of serving the entire region.

The decision was taken at a plenary session of the executive committee of the regional Soviet and is in consonance with the general agricultural policy of the Soviet government to transform the farm lands into communally held and operated units where mass production methods may be applied and cooperation with the government in its grain raising policy may be advanced.

It was explained that though the decision of the regional Soviet is binding upon all the Jewish settlers of the region, individual settlers who will not agree to join the collective farms, giving up their individual possessions, will be enabled to carry on their farming separately. Only in such cases where the land held by an objector will interfere with the forming of the collective will his land be taken over, and

JEWISH MEMBERS OF JERUSALEM MUNICIPALITY TO RESIGN FROM POSTS

Admit Failure to Carry Out Object Sought

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 24—The Jewish representatives in the municipality of Jerusalem, headed by Chaim Solomon, vice-mayor, will soon resign from their posts, it was foreshadowed here.

This action is intended to be a protest against the Jewish representatives' failure to achieve the objects of their labors in the municipal government. They had sought, it was stated, to secure for the Hebrew language equal treatment with Arabic in the municipality to assure the employment of an equal number of Jewish and Arab officials and to provide for the employment of Jewish labor by the municipal government in the municipal works.

At a recent conference between the representatives and the National Council of Palestine Jewry, the Jerusalem Jewish Committee and the Agudath Israel, Mr. Solomon stated that the Jewish representatives have to admit failure. It was stated that the Acting High Commissioner, H. C. Luke, cautioned the Jewish representatives against resigning, as it is "easy to resign but difficult to mend matters later."

ANTI-SEMITIC TIDE RISES IN TURKEY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Constantinople, June 24—The tide of anti-Semitism seems to be rising in the Republic of Turkey, as symptoms of an increased anti-Jewish propaganda are apparent.

The Turkish daily newspaper "Hareket" (Progress) started the publication yesterday of the long-disproven "Protocols of the Elders of Zion." The newspaper promises its readers to publish the protocols in book form. The editor of the paper is a member of parliament and belongs to the Kemal Pasha party.

Attacks on the Jews are made continually in the Turkish press. The change in sentiment has been noted since the recent fall of the Turkish currency.

80% JEWISH CHILDREN IN UKRAINE ATTEND SCHOOL

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, June 24—The number of Jewish children attending school in the cities, towns and villages of the Ukraine is 167,000. They are 80% of the entire number of Jewish children of school age in the district.

An interesting fact to be noted from the figures is that 26% of the total number of Jewish pupils go to the Yiddish schools.

ZIONIST YOUTH IN VIENNA MAKE PILGRIMAGE TO THEODOR HERZL'S GRAVE Mark 25th Anniversary of Zionist Leader's Death

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, June 24—The annual pilgrimage of Zionist youth to the grave of Dr. Theodore Herzl, founder of the World Zionist Organization and father of political Zionism, was made Sunday.

On this, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Zionist leader's death, a large number marched to the grave in the Jewish cemetery here. Students comprised the majority of the marchers among whom there were representatives of all shades of affiliation, including laborites. In the procession there were seen alongside the Zionist blue and white flag, some red flags, which aroused protests.

After the visit to the grave, some of the participants went to a nearby field where an outing was held.

In the evening Zionist mass meetings were held. At one of these meetings Felix Salten, president of the Austrian P. E. N. Club, now in session here, delivered an address recalling Herzl's early fight for the Zionist idea.

FIRE DESTROYS JEWISH HOMES IN POLISH TOWN

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, June 24—One hundred and twenty Jewish families lost their homes in a fire which broke out last night in the township Malogoszcz, district of Kielce.

Charitable bequests of $10,000 each were made in the will of the late Emil Heller, who died June 11 in New York. His charities are: Crippled Children's East Side Free School, Hebrew Orphan Asylum, Home for Aged and Infirm Hebrews, Hospital for Deformities and Joint Diseases, Lebanon Hospital, Mount Zion Home and Hospital, Mount Sinai Hospital, Beth Israel Hospital, United Hebrew Charities Association for the Improvement of Deaf Mutes.

JOSEPH PRAG, ENGLISH JEWISH LEADER, DIES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, June 24—Joseph Prag, English Jewish leader, died here yesterday at the age of 70.

Mr. Prag, who was one of the early pioneers in the Zionist movement, played a leading role in the recent English-Jewish conference on the extension of the Jewish Agency and was appointed a member of the Committee on Palestine of the Board of Jewish Deputies.

Born in Liverpool in 1859, Joseph Prag was educated at the Liverpool Institute and at Queen's College. Although he did not follow the Herzl movement, he retained his interest in the Chovevei Zion, the English section of which he founded. He was a member of the Council of the Anglo-Jewish Association and was active in the work of protecting Jewish rights. He was a frequent contributor to various journals on the question of Palestine colonization.

He held many communal offices, was president of the Kilburn Talmud Torah, chairman of the Associate Synagogue Committee of the United Synagogue; treasurer of the Board of Deputies, a member of the Joint Foreign Committee, president of the Talmud Torah Trust and a member of the executive committees of the Jewish War Memorial and the Council for Education. He was a member of the committee of the Board of Guardians.

UNVEIL TOMBSTONE ON YEOHASH'S GRAVE

More than two hundred writers and friends of the late Hebrew poet, Solomon, who was often, we wrote under the name Yehoash, gathered at his grave in Montefiore Cemetery Sunday, when a tombstone, designed by the sculptor Goodelman, was unveiled.

Alexander Harkavy, representatives of the J. L. Peretz Writer's Club, the P. E. N. Club, the Kulturgesellschaft, the Jewish Teacher's Seminary and the Poale Zion, delivered addresses. J. Potashur read Psalms translated into Yiddish by Yehoash. A Glantz read some of Yehoash's poems.

Yehoash's daughter, Evelin, unveiled the tombstone.

Moses Weil, who organized, and was first president of, Wilmington, Del., Lodge, No. 470, Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, observed his 92nd birthday anniversary Sunday. He was born in Germany and came to the United States when he was 20 years old. He located first in Cincinnati, served in the Civil War in the Fifth Ohio Cavalry, and took part in Sherman's march to the sea. He later went into business in Wilmington and in 1901 was appointed a magistrate, which position he held four years.

Vacations for more than 10,000 men, women and children will be provided this summer by constituent agencies of the New York Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies according to an announcement by Dudley D. Sicher, president of the organization.

Twenty-six summer homes and camps under the auspices of the Federation have already begun their activities for the season by July 1. Three new camps are conducting activities for the first time. The Federation supports, are the Uproan Talmud Torah Camp, Camp Achwah, maintained by the Bureau of Jewish Education, and the Federation Settlement Camp.

GOVERNOR AND MAYOR TO WELCOME Z.O.A. CONVENTION

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Detroit, Mich., June 24—Officials of the city and State will join with Jewish leaders in this community in welcoming the Zionist convention, which is to open here on Sunday, June 30.

In statements addressed to Philip Slomovitz, president of the Zionist District of Detroit, Mayor John C. Lodge, Governor Fred W. Green, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg and Representative Clarence J. McLeod welcomed the convention.

Mayor Lodge's statement read: "The efforts of the Jewish people to establish a Jewish Center in Palestine, and there to rebuild its ancient but to this day great civilization, has aroused the admiration of the nations. The colonies which are being built in the Holy Land, the return of the Jew to the soil in his ancient homeland, the cultural revival which your people are experiencing—all these deserve the commendation and support of all peoples regardless of creed or race.

"To be able to greet and welcome the spokesmen for this movement from every section of our land to the City of Detroit is a privilege which we proudly acknowledge. As Mayor of Detroit I am happy to extend to the visiting delegates a hearty welcome, with sincere wishes that the deliberations at the sessions in Detroit will result in increased effort for the movement which has the good will of all citizens."

Governor Green in his greeting, said: "I am informed that the Zionist Organization of America will hold its thirty-second annual convention in Detroit, beginning June 30. I understand also that this organization is entrusted with the responsibility of directing the destiny of the entire Zionist movement, having as its ultimate object the re-establishment in Palestine of a Jewish National Homeland. I feel that it is no small honor to the City of Detroit and to our State to have been chosen as the scene of its convention. Any organization with so solemn a purpose and which has so magnificently justified its existence is entitled to a full measure of respect from all, regardless of affiliation or non-affiliation with its objects.

"I deem it a pleasure to welcome the Zionist Organization of America to our State, and I earnestly hope that its deliberations will sound a note of progress and that its activities will be crowned with ultimate success."

Mayor Lodge has appointed Judge Vincent M. Brennan to deliver the address of welcome to the convention in the name of the city of Detroit, and Governor Green is expected to welcome the convention in the name of the British government.

DR. ANTHONY'S VIEWS ON CONVERSION NOT THOSE OF GOOD-WILL COMMITTEE

Clinchy Declares Anthony Did Not Speak for Committee, Which Is Not Interested in Converting Jews

That the views of Rev. Alfred Williams Anthony, in controversy with Louis Marshall over the question of proselytizing among Jews, are not those of the Committee on Good-Will Between Jews and Christians of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America was indicated in a statement made to the Jewish Daily Bulletin yesterday by Everett R. Clinchy, secretary of the Committee.

The publication of the correspondence between Rev. Anthony and Mr. Marshall called forth wide interest in various circles. Mr. Clinchy stated that the correspondence was "purely personal," adding: "Dr. Anthony was not speaking for the Committee. Our Committee is not interested in converting Jews. I welcomed Mr. Marshall's reply, for his able letter will be useful to us in Christian circles."

Mr. Clinchy further stated that so far as he personally was concerned, he is opposed to Christian proselytization of Jews.

NOFACH, FIRST JEWISH MAG- ISTRATE IN PALESTINE, DIES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 24—Isaac Nofach, first Jewish magistrate in modern Palestine, died in Paris yesterday following an operation. Deep sorrow was felt throughout the Jewish community on receipt of word of his death here.

The late Mr. Nofach was a native of Russia. He was graduated from the University of St. Petersburg, taking degrees in law and Oriental languages. He spent many years in Constantinople where he studied Turkish law. He was helpful to the Zionist leaders in their negotiations with the new Turkish government following the Young Turk Revolution in 1912.

He came to Palestine following the World War and took an active part in the early years of the new regime. He was the director of the Jewish court of peace, first organized in Tel Aviv as a court of arbitration, settling disputes on the basis of Jewish law and precedent. Later he was appointed magistrate in Tel Aviv by the government. He held this post until his death.

Funeral services will be held at Temple Israel, New York, this morning. The late Samuel Wallach, head of Wallach Brothers, clothiers, who died Sunday at his home. He was 68 years old.

Born in the East Side, he went to work as an errand boy at the age of 13. He went in business for himself, starting with a hat shop on the Bowery, which expanded into a chain of stores which were the beginning of Wallach Brothers.

He is survived by two sons, Emanuel H. and Irving S., two daughters, Mrs. Beatrice F. Gaines and Mrs. William F. Eisler; three sisters and three brothers.

Rabbi Louis Binstock was assured of the presidency of the New Orleans, La., Rotary Club for the coming term, when he was nominated for the post by unanimous acclamation.

Convention Notes

By J. T. A. Correspondents

Pacific Coast I. O. B. B.

Oakland, Cal., June 24—Rabbi Edgar Magnin opened the convention of District Grand Lodge No. 4, Independent Order B'nai B'rith, here on Sunday, with the presentation of his presidential message outlining the progress during the year.

He was followed by Executive Director Richard E. Gustadt who, in his report, recommended closer connection between the women's auxiliaries and the Grand Lodge through recognition of the auxiliaries. Mr. Gustadt also recommended that the Grand Lodge arrive at ways for raising $20,000 for an I. O. B. B. unit at the Jewish Consumptive Hospital at Duarte, California and that an agency be developed to take care of the charitable bequests made through the Grand Lodge. These matters were referred to convention committees. It is expected that the Grand Lodge will, at its present session, grant the women's auxiliaries equal standing with the lodges.

Sunday night's session was devoted to the women's grand lodge. Congresswoman Florence Kahn addressed the delegates. Reports of committees are to be heard at this morning's session. In the evening Henry Monsky, Omaha, chairman of the National Wider Scope Committee, will address an open meeting of the convention.

Order Sons of Zion

Long Branch, N. J., June 24—With nearly 200 delegates in attendance, representing two score camps, the Order Sons of Zion devoted the first day of its twentieth annual convention to voting on certain constitutional changes and acting on the message of its Nasi, Max Perlman, presented at the opening session Saturday night.

Because of a statement incorporated in the Nasi's message, the matter of the Judea Industrial Corporation came up in an indirect manner just before adjournment of the afternoon session, when I. Poznansky, New York delegate, asked the Nasi to explain the following statement in the message pertaining to the Order's Zionist activities: "We may be happy in the thought that it alone created an instrument for practical work in Palestine, even though, most regrettably, it no longer can boast of it." Adjournment prevented further discussion.

The report of the Maskir, Harry A. Pine, showed that the Order had assets totalling $239,375.61 and during the past year the total membership was 3,323. He stated that during the past year the Order's deficit was reduced by nearly $1,000, leaving it at present at $16,878.78. Mr. Pine stated that the insurance reserve fund of the Order is larger and the cooperative feeling of members more friendly.

GUGGENHEIM, ROSENWALD PLAN DENTAL CLINICS FOR NEW YORK AND CHICAGO

Mr. and Mrs. Murry Guggenheim to Make $3,000.00 to $4,000.00 Gift to New York City

Free dental clinics for the children of Greater New York, the first to be established in the borough of Manhattan at a cost of between $3,000.00 and $4,000.00, will be the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Murry Guggenheim, an announcement declared.

"Murry Guggenheim of New York City today announced the filing of incorporation papers of the Murry and Leonie Guggenheim Foundation," the announcement states. "We are prepared to contribute a large sum of money for the construction, equipment and endowment of non-sectarian clinics." The program is to be developed while the first clinic is being constructed, stated Hartley Robbins, Mr. Guggenheim's secretary and a charter member of the foundation.

The purpose of the foundation is indicated in a report quoted of the committee on community dental service of the New York Tuberculosis and Health Association, which recommended "a comprehensive city-wide plan for the coordinated development of dental clinic facilities, especially for children from 2 to 16 years of age."

The charter members of the foundation are Mr. Guggenheim, his wife, Leonie Guggenheim, their son, Edmond A., Dr. S. S. Goldwater, formerly Health Commissioner of the City of New York and formerly director of Mount Sinai Hospital; Carroll A. Wilson, attorney, and Hartley Robbins.

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Chicago, Ill., June 24—Julius Rosenwald plans to establish a dental clinic here resembling that established in Rochester, New York, by George Eastman. This became known following a visit paid by Mr. Rosenwald to the Rochester clinic, which was founded at a cost of $1,500,000 to assure school children adequate care of teeth and throat.

On his return Mr. Rosenwald said he was interested in such things as the Rochester dental clinic in general, and in Chicago, and was contemplating something of that nature. It was indicated that details of the plan are still indefinite.

RED CROSS TO AID JEWISH CHILDREN IN COLONIES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, June 24—A sum of 35,000 roubles was assigned by the Red Cross to relieve the need of Jewish children in the Jewish colonies until the new crop. Food will be provided for 4,500 children in the districts Krovoy Rog, Cherson, Zaporozhje, Mariupol, Odessa and Crimea.

In order to have the Shearith Israel Synagogue, Atlanta, Ga., ready for the High Holy Days, work will be rushed on the $50,000 structure. Plans already have been completed and work is being started.

The first unit, which contains classrooms, already has been completed, and work now is being started on the main auditorium.

leaders invited him. It was at the time reported in the Jewish press that representatives of the Jewish Socialist labor party, Bund, attempted to persuade Mr. Vandervelde against accepting the Zionists' invitation. The struggle between the Zionists and the Socialists in the Jewish labor ranks in Poland is so fierce that when Mr. Vandervelde did not accede to the suggestion of the Bund leaders, the Bund decided to boycott all social functions in his honor.

There were 799 delegates, representing 285 towns, at the conference. Representatives of the labor organizations, Right Poale Zion, Hitachduth, Hashomer Hazair and He'Chalutz, participated. The Orthodox labor organization, Dath V'Avodah, declined to participate because the conference was opened on the Sabbath. The Left Poale Zion party issued a proclamation in which the Right was criticized.

Mr. and Mrs. Vandervelde were the principal speakers of the evening. Mrs. Vandervelde reported on her impressions of Palestine during a recent visit and expressed her admiration for the Jewish women of Palestine.

Mr. Vandervelde in a lengthy address described the achievements of the Jewish workers in Palestine and the results achieved in the country in the combination of Socialism and Zionism. He has great belief in the future of the Palestine work and in the Socialist achievements of the Jewish workers in the country. A notable feature of his address was his determined stand in favor of the extension of the Jewish Agency. The speaker warmly polemicized with the opponents of the extension policy and stated he is convinced that the consummation of the Agency plan will be of great significance for the development of the country.

The conference, held under the slogan, "For Working Palestine," was opened by the Palestine labor leader, Ben Zvi, who spoke in Yiddish and Hebrew. M. Sprinzak, another Palestine labor leader, addressed the delegates, dwelling in particular on the fight against Zionism being carried on by the Jewish labor party, Bund.

Messages of greeting were received from Paul Loeb, Socialist leader and Speaker of the German Reichstag; Leon Blum, French Socialist leader, and others. The absence of representatives of the Polish Socialist Party was noted. It was stated that this was due to the influence of the Bund.

Representatives of the Jewish Community at Hoboken, N. J., at an informal meeting at the Jewish Community Center, called to consider the advisability of pooling community resources for planning and financing philanthropic projects, passed a resolution endorsing the idea of a Federation of Jewish Philanthropies and formulated a program of action looking toward the establishment of such an agency.

Harry Goldowsky, president of the Jewish Council, was elected temporary chairman of the tentative organization created to study the possibilities of the proposed Jewish community chest.

who may desire to join without the insurance feature. It endorsed a proposal that wherever feasible, camps with less than fifty members effect mergers. A proposal to elect camp officers yearly instead of semi-annually was voted down, as was a proposal advanced by Dr. J. I. Steinberg of New York that past and future heads of the Order be elected life members of the Executive Board. The convention, however, unanimously elected Mr. Perlman a member of the board for the ensuing year.

It was stated that Mr. Perlman will not be a candidate for re-election. Dr. Steinberg is being mentioned as his successor.

Among those who greeted the convention were Bernard G. Richards, Executive Secretary of the American Jewish Congress, M. Tausner of the Histadruth Ivrit and M. Rybalov of the "Hadoar."

The convention voted the same five cent per capita tax for the American Jewish Congress as last year. It also decided on the establishment of a new "advisory committee" to be comprised of one delegate from each camp and a committee to revise the Order's constitution. It voted down a proposal calling for the construction of a national center building.

Young Judea Elects Officers

Long Branch, N. J., June 23—When the Zionist Convention is held in Detroit next week, it will be called upon to pass a resolution requesting the Z. O. A. to pay off the $16,000 deficit of Young Judea.

Resolution to this effect was adopted today at closing session of Twentieth Anniversary Convention of Young Judea held here.

The convention also went on record as favoring teaching of Hebrew in American high schools and pledged itself to bring about inclusion of this language in the curriculum.

The convention voted to continue support for the Palestine scout movement by raising the same budget of $2,000 as last year.

The convention decided to organize senior groups for boys and girls over sixteen, declared a Twentieth Anniversary Week observance to be held some time around Chanukah, endorsed the Jewish Agency and declared against calendar reform.

The finals in the Judea oratorical contest were held and there were four contestants. Benjamin M. Kagan, seventeen, of Washington, Pa., won first prize, a free trip to Palestine, and second prize was taken by Harry Taklif, of Philadelphia, who gets a cash award. Mrs. Archibald Silverman presided.

The following were re-elected officers of National Young Judea: Nathan Straus, honorary president; Dr. Israel Goldstein, president; Mrs. Silverman, vice president, and S. J. Borowsky, executive chairman. Members of the National Executive Committee of Young Judea will henceforth be elected by regions.

other land given him outside of the confines of the collective. This is necessary since the tractors serving the collectives must operate over large and uninterrupted areas. The land given in exchange will be lower in value than that at present held by the individual, since, according to the ordinance governing the formation of collectives, the collective is to be given the best areas.

Under the arrangement, the collectives are obliged to turn over to the government one-third of their crop as payment for the tractor service. They are also obliged to sell the rest of their crop to the government at a fixed price on contract.

The tractors of the Agrojoint, agency of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, are not now being operated in the Kalinindorf region.

Ground for the new $500,000 building of the Hebrew Children's Home at Grand Concourse and 205th Street, the Bronx, was broken Sunday by Nathan Hirsch, chairman of the building fund committee. District Attorney John E. McGeehan, Albert Goldman, representing Mayor Walker; Justice Albert Cohn, Miss Rose Rothenberg; Judge Harry Stackell, Judge Samuel D. Levy and Mrs. Rachel A. Bernstein, president of the Hebrew Children's Home, were the speakers.

Subscriptions amounting to $94,710 were announced.
