CAUTION JEWS IN POLISH TOWN TO HIDE DURING CATHOLIC CONFERENCE

Police Issue Warning in Order to Prevent Repetition of Lemberg Events

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, July 2—Precautions against a repetition of the recent Lemberg events were taken by the leaders of the Jewish community of Sosnowiec, upon advice of the local police.

In statements given out during synagogue services yesterday, the Jews of the town were warned against attending the synagogue on this coming Saturday, and Jewish children were cautioned not to appear in the streets.

The occasion for the issuance of this warning is a forthcoming Catholic conference which will be followed by a street demonstration in which 100,000 persons, including many priests, are expected to participate.

The Synagogue Committee also addressed a request to the Shekel Commission asking that the elections to the Zionist Congress, set for Sunday, be postponed in order that the Jews may remain in their homes throughout the Catholic conference.

It was during a Catholic demonstration in Lemberg on June 3rd that the libel that Jewish girl students profaned the Catholic religion was spread, leading to the student excesses in Lemberg and other university towns.

OZET DENIES RUMORS OF ANTI-JEWISH DISTURBANCES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, July 2—An official announcement issued by the Ozet, society for the settlement of Jews on the land, in the Zaporozhje region, Ukraine, denied rumors that an anti-Jewish pogrom occurred in that region.

The rumors were especially persistent in the districts of Proskuroff and Zhitomir, resulting in inquiries from there of persons having relatives in the Zaporozhje region. The Ozet termed the spreading of these rumors a provocation, as nothing happened in the region to justify them.

TEL AVIV INVALIDS ASK MUNICIPAL AID

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Tel Aviv, July 2—A hunger strike in protest against the failure to receive municipal assistance was declared by 150 invalids here.

About 60 invalids with their families moved into the headquarters of the Jewish Labor Federation.

WHITE RUSSIA INAUGURATES PLAN TO ASSIST SMALL TOWN POPULACE

Comzet Has New Scheme to Help De-classed in Ukraine

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, July 2—A plan to relieve the economic situation of the declassified in 27 small towns in the regions of Minsk, Mozhir, Vitebsk, Homel and Bobruisk was today approved by the White Russian Sovnarkom. By this plan 6,000 Jewish families will be placed in productive labor.

According to the plan, a large number of collective farms will be established under government supervision and with government assistance. These farms will be in the vicinity of the small towns. Artisan cooperatives will also be created within the towns. Work in 18 of these towns has already been started, and in 9 more it will begin soon. It is planned that all organizational work will be accomplished within the year.

A condition imposed is that those desiring to settle on the farms must enter the collectives.

Independent of the general five-year amelioration plan of the Ukrainian government, which did not include the small towns populated principally by Jews, the Ukrainian Comzet, governmental department for Jewish land settlement, has decided that 11,000 land workers' farm units must be established in the neighborhood of the small towns of the Ukraine for the declassified within the next five years. The Comzet is considering the establishment of these cooperatives on the right side of the Dnieper.

However, sufficient land is not available there. The Comzet recommended that the government assign only 18,000 hectares for the 11,000 settlements planned. Even such an amount of land is unavailable in the Ukraine, it was stated. Under the circumstances, the feasibility of the Comzet plan is doubted.

1 KILLED, 3 INJURED IN MINSK TOWN FIRE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, July 2—One Jewish resident of the town Tshecherska, Minsk region, was burned to death and three seriously injured in the fire which broke out there on Sunday. Four hundred and sixty persons are without homes. Among the 106 houses burned were three Beth Hamidrashim, houses of study.

The White Russian Central Executive Committee, Zik, has ordered the organization of immediate relief from Homel. The Red Cross has opened kitchens to feed the victims.

LOUIS LIPSKY TO BE RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF ZIONIST ORGANIZATION

Convention Adopts Strong Resolution Condemning Zionist Persecutions in Russia

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Detroit, Mich., July 2—The Zionist convention in session Monday night was thrown into confusion reminiscent of old conventions when the question of raising the dues to $8.00 a year instead of the present rate of $6.00 was presented by the Constitution Committee of which David Radavsky of Fall River, Mass., is chairman. The proposal was defeated although it received a vote of 122 to 87. Chairman Morris Rothenberg ruled that a two-thirds majority is necessary to carry the motion. A minority report, proposed by M. Mishkin of Chicago, called for retaining the present $6.00, but giving $5.00 of this to the national organization. The proposals aroused discussion which lasted until long past midnight. Arguments in favor of the proposal were offered on the ground that the increase is necessary in order to wipe out the deficit.

Voicing protests against the suppression of Jewish life and religion in Soviet Russia and the persecution of Zionists and the Hebrew language, the thirty-second Zionist convention condemned these Russian oppressions and particularly spoke out against the Yevsaks, the Jewish Communists, who were the leaders in the persecutions in

NEW REPORTS OF ANTI-SEMITISM IN RUSSIA

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, July 2—Means reminiscent of medieval times are being used against Jewish students at a railway school in Odessa, according to a telegraphic report to Moscow. The nature of the methods was not described.

The report states that a group of the teachers is guilty of anti-Semitism, which has spread in the school. The teachers were dismissed and an official investigation instituted.

Moscow, July 2—The use of Yiddish is declining in the Odessa region. A complaint to this effect was voiced at a Conference here of the Jewish Section of Comsomol, Communist Youth Organization. The Conference also discussed the growth of anti-Semitism seen in some factories.

Jewish youths are compelled to say they are Germans, due to the anti-Semitic attacks.

OTTO KAHN TO VISIT PALESTINE SHORTLY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, July 2—Otto H. Kahn will visit Palestine shortly, according to a statement made here by M. Golinkin, head of the Palestine Opera Company, upon his arrival from the United States.

In a statement to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency representative, Mr. Golinkin said that Mr. Kahn was especially interested in the Palestine Opera, which he intends to support if he finds it satisfactory.

Reorganization of the opera company, particularly the orchestra, is planned by its head preparatory to forthcoming performances.

A committee to secure funds for the Palestine Opera Company was created in New York, Mr. Golinkin stated. Lawrence Levine is chairman of the committee, Joseph Weiss, treasurer, and Abraham Goldberg, secretary. The committee undertook to raise $10,000 annually and advanced to the company a part of this sum, Mr. Golinkin said.

A Rabbinical Assembly, composed of the Orthodox Rabbis of Pittsburgh, was organized for the purpose of deciding on questions of Jewish law and to consider Jewish problems confronting Pittsburgh Jewry.

The members of the Rabbinical Assembly are Rabbis M. S. Sivitz, E. W. Kochin, S. B. Friedman, W. Leiter, J. J. Hurwitz and M. A. Levin. The chairman for the month of July is Rabbi M. S. Sivitz.

The Maccabee Sport Club of Boro Park, Brooklyn, won the championship of the Jewish Soccer League. The Arista F. C. was second with 18 points, 5 below the champions while the "C" team of the Hakoah A. C. and the "A" team of the American Hebrews A. C. were third with 16 points each. This is the first season of the Jewish Soccer League, the present members having separated from the Hebrew American League.

SAYS RACIAL ELEMENT IN DISEASE EXAGGERATED

(J. T. A. Mail Service)

London, June 14—Sir Humphrey D. Rolleston, President of the Royal College of Physicians and Consulting Physician to the London Jewish Hospital, opening a symposium on "Diseases of the Jews," held at the London Jewish Hospital by the Medical Society of the hospital, said, after reviewing a number of diseases which were at one time considered peculiar to Jews, that they should be on their guard against the error of exaggerating the racial element in disease, in contradistinction to the environmental influence. The view to take about these diseases, so far as Jews were concerned, was that they were no more common to Jews than to non-Jews, but that they appeared at an earlier age in Jews and were more severe. In regard to obesity and diabetes, there was some evidence to show that there was impaired metabolism in Jews. Jews showed a considerable resistance to tuberculosis and there was a smaller number of fatal cases among Jews than non-Jews. There was no specific skin disease peculiar to Jews.

Dr. Parkes-Weber, speaking on the arterial disease, thrombo angittus obliterans, believed at one time to be peculiar to Jews, said that this disease was not exclusively common to Jews. The poorer Chinese and Japanese suffered from it, but its incidence was higher among the poorer Jewish elements in Europe. He believed there was a constitutional basis on which the disease developed in Jewish families, and this might be due to the hardship in early life and the imperfect diet of Jewish children which had occurred in the past in Eastern Europe.

Dr. Brander, the superintendent of the Colney Hatch Mental Hospital, said that many mental diseases occurred equally in Jews as well as non-Jews. In Jews, however, mental disease occurred earlier when it manifested itself.

Dr. Goodman Levy, Dr. J. Burnford, Dr. A. H. Levy and Dr. M. Sourasky, took part in the symposium. Dr. Burnford said that one should hesitate before condemning Jewry in general in regard to these diseases. One heard much about diseases common to Jews from persons whose experience had been only with East End Hospitals. In drawing a conclusion as to whether these diseases were common to Jews, they must take into consideration the changing environmental conditions of Jews the world over, and in this connection there was a need for universal statistics.

Dr. A. H. Levy said that the eye disease, trachoma, was not specifically a Jewish disease as it was common to both Jews and non-Jews. Dr. M. Sourasky said that so far as cancer was concerned there were no specific cancer conditions among Jews.

I. O. B. B. PRESIDENT ISSUES STATEMENT ON BOGEN DEATH

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Cincinnati, July 2—A statement by Alfred M. Cohen, president of the Independent Order B'nai Brith, on the death of Dr. Boris D. Bogen, Executive Secretary, was made public here today.

"Dr. Boris D. Bogen, secretary of the Independent Order B'nai Brith, who expired suddenly in the midst of a family reunion at Arcadia, a suburb of Los Angeles, California, last Saturday night, left Cincinnati apparently in his usual health on the 20th of June, with the intention of attending the annual meeting of District Grand Lodge No. 4 at Oakland, California, and a few days later the National Conference of Social Service at San Francisco. His attendance at both bodies was in the line of duty. Thereafter he was to spend a vacation with his wife, whose health has been conserved in California, and three of his children who reside in the neighborhood of Los Angeles.

"His plans were carried out. He attended both conventions, manifesting his accustomed zeal and went from San Francisco to Arcadia on Saturday evening. All the family came together joyfully. Without warning, in the midst of his loved ones, he passed away.

"The funeral will occur at Los Angeles, where he retained membership in Rabbi Magnin's congregation, although since his return to Cincinnati as secretary of the B'nai Brith he was affiliated with the Rockdale Avenue Temple of this city. The time of the obsequies will be determined on the arrival of Dr. Emil Bogen, a son, who left for the west immediately on learning of his father's death.

"Hundreds of telegrams and messages of regret have been received at B'nai Brith headquarters. Dr. Bogen, in his B'nai Brith work, as in all of his undertakings, gave himself wholeheartedly and made friends, admirers and supporters everywhere," President Cohen declared.

The laying of the corner-stone of the new Beth Juda Temple, Wildwood, N. J., took place last week. Mayor Robert G. Pierpont spoke of the influence the Jewish citizens have had upon the growth of Wildwood.

Other speakers included Mayor George A. Redding, North Wildwood; Mayor Samuel Gassel, Vineland; Mayor Maurice Soffrony, Sea Isle City. More than 1,500 attended.

The New York State Federation of Young Folks Temple Leagues held its sessions this week-end at the Central Synagogue Community House, New York, with 73 representatives from all parts of the state attending.

The speakers included Mrs. David E. Goldfarb, president of the New York State Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, Mrs. William M. Flexner, representing the women of the Central Synagogue, and Mrs. Albert J. May, national chairman of the Federation.

WISCONSIN I.O.B.B. CONVENTION PROTESTS PASSION PLAY PRODUCTION IN MID-WEST

Will Make Effort to Prevent Presentation of Gess Play in Chicago
(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Elkhart Lake, Wis., July 2—The convention of District No. 6, Independent Order B'nai B'rith, comprising eight central states, and with a membership of close to 25,000, opened its sessions here yesterday with the participation of 52 delegates.

One of the first acts of the session was to adopt a resolution of protest against the production at Soldiers' Field, Chicago, of the Passion Play brought there from New York by Morris Gess.

The resolution read: "District Grand Lodge No. 6, I. O. B. B., in its sixty-first annual convention assembled, considers the production of passion plays as vicious propaganda, harmful to the peace of the people and disturbing the prevailing harmony among the various classes of the people, so essential to the progress and prosperity of the country.

"Therefore, be it resolved, that this convention disapproves of the use of public property, the Soldiers Field of Chicago, built at the expense of all the taxpayers of Chicago, for the display of passion plays.

"Be it further resolved, that the president of the District appoint a committee of five to present a copy of these resolutions of protest to the board of South Park Commissioners of Chicago, and to make every effort to prevent the issuance of a permit for the use of Soldiers' Field for the production of a passion play."

STRIKE CALLED IN NEW YORK LADIES' CLOTHING INDUSTRY

Following the issuance of a call for a strike in the New York garment industry by Benjamin Schlesinger, president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers Union, Monday morning, the workers went out on strike. The extent of the strike will be determined at registrations held in various halls throughout the city during the day.

Twenty-four members of the striking Left Wing needleworkers were arrested yesterday by officials of the United States Immigration Department. The Department will seek to determine whether the strikers are aliens illegally in the country, in which case they will be deported.

Representatives of local Jewish organizations met at a meeting held recently at the Jewish Community Center, Jersey City, N. J., passed a resolution endorsing the idea of a Federation of Jewish Philanthropies, and formulated a program of action looking toward the establishment of such an agency.

An executive committee was appointed which, with the assistance of the Bureau of Jewish Social Research, is planning to make a survey of local philanthropic needs and community resources for maintaining an adequate all-embracing program in the fields of educational, recreational, and philanthropic activity.

Central Conference Concludes Sessions in Detroit

By J. D. B. Correspondents

Detroit, Mich., July 2—The achievements of the Central Conference of American Rabbis and plans for future work were outlined at the closing session of the Central Conference of American Rabbis which closed its six-day convention here yesterday.

A resolution was adopted calling upon Jewish merchants to close their places of business on the High Holidays. Another resolution called upon the conference to undertake excavation work of historical value in Palestine under its own auspices and in conjunction with the Hebrew Union College. Steps were also taken to establish a quarterly journal of Jewish Religion and Ethics.

Rabbi David Lefkowitz of Dallas, Texas, the new president of the Central Conference, will be assisted during the year by the following Executive Board elected at the closing session: Dr. H. G. Enelow, New York; Rabbi Edwin Calisch, Richmond, Va.; Rabbi Julius Rappaport, Racine, Wis.; Rabbi George Fox, Chicago; Rabbi Samuel Mayerberg, Kansas City; Rabbi Solomon Landman, University of Wisconsin.

The Alumni Association of the Hebrew Union College at its annual meeting at the Franklin Country Club announced that it raised $41,800 toward the $5,000,000 Endowment Fund for the College. The Association elected Adolph S. Ochs and Julius Rosenwald, honorary members.

The following officers were elected: Rabbi Martin Zielonka, El Paso, president; Rabbi Emil Leipziger, New Orleans, vice-president; Rabbi Ira Sanders, Little Rock, Ark., secretary; Rabbi Alvin Luchs, New Rochelle, N. Y., treasurer; Rabbi L. Elliot Graffman, Tampa, Fla., historian. The new executive board is composed of David A. Brown, David A. Rosenbaum, Chicago; Michael Aaronson, Cincinnati, Israel Kaplan, Jacksonville, Fla., Frank Cohn, Omaha, Neb., Harvey Franklin, Long Beach, Cal., Abraham Feinstein, Huntington, W. Va., and Abraham Hirschberg, Chicago.

Brown University Permits Jewish Fraternity on Campus

Providence, July 2—Permission for organization at Brown University of a chapter of Pi Lambda Phi fraternity, which is predominantly Jewish in membership, has been granted by university officials, it was announced here.

Authorization for nine students to form a Brown chapter is expected to bring to a close the controversy that has waged since last April when a group of Jewish students surrendered their chapter in Pi Lambda Phi although retaining membership in the national organization. This action was taken because the Brown chapter of

ZIONIST DELEGATE ELECTIONS CONTINUE IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES

American Delegates List Officially Announced; Judge Mack Elected
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, July 2—The election of delegates to the forthcoming Zionist Congress were held in Zionist societies and districts in Congress Poland yesterday. According to unofficial calculations, the Mizrahi, Orthodox Zionist organization, elected 14 delegates, the Eth Livnoth, pro-Weizmann group, 6, the Al Hamishmar 3, Hitachduth 3, Revisionists 2 and Poale Zion 1.

In the elections in East Galicia the general Zionists elected 6 representatives, the Hitachduth 6, Mizrahi 2, Revisionists 1.

Paris, July 2—Election of Zionist Congress delegates was held here yesterday. Official returns are not yet available, but it is stated that the race between the Revisionists and the general Zionists was close.

The general Zionists polled 296 votes, Revisionists 364, and Poale Zion 54.

Jerusalem, July 2—Elections of Zionist Congress delegates were held in Palestine centers yesterday. The result is not yet known, because of the conflict which arose among the various contending parties over the control of the count. Agitation of the various parties assumed a heated character, interest in the elections being unprecedented. Residents of the Old City in Jerusalem, including Sephardic Jews, went to the polls.

A mass meeting held Saturday night in Jerusalem and addressed by Vladimir Jabotinsky, Revisionist leader, ended in a near riot between the Revisionists and the Communists.

Because of a dispute between the Revisionists and the general Zionists, sealed ballot boxes, under a special guard, accompanied by two representatives of each ticket, and a police officer, were taken to a special place at midnight when the counting was to begin. A proposal to invite the Zionist Executive to supervise the count was ruled out.

An official announcement concerning the result of the Zionist Congress elections held in the United States on June 9 was made by the Zionist Election Board in New York. Twenty delegates were elected on the administration ticket: Louis Lipsky, Morris Rothenberg, Mrs. Edward Jacobs, Max Shulman, Judge William M. Lewis, Mrs. Rose Halpern, Prof. M. M. Kaplan, Elihu D. Stone, Mrs. Frieda Julian, Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, Abraham Goldberg, Mrs. Irma Lindheim, Jacob Fishman, Mrs. Archibald Silverman, Miss Francis Lesser, Dr. A. Corlinsk, A. Goldstein, Miss Lillian Franklin, Joseph Weiss and Morris Weinberg.

On the Mizrahi list the following delegates were elected: Gedaliah Rubenik, Rabbi Wolf Gold, Rabbi Israel Rosenberg, Rabbi Aaron Teitelbaum,

Russia. Fiery condemnations by M. Ribalow, editor of "Hadoar," Hebrew weekly; Rabbi Barnett Brickner of Cleveland, Abraham Goldberg and Bernard G. Richards were precipitated by the presentation of a resolution by Ezra Shapiro of Cleveland, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, condemning the persecutions and the plight of Russian Jews. Mr. Ribalow objected to the resolution as being too weak to serve its purpose and was joined in these sentiments by the other three speakers. Mr. Goldberg urged the rewriting of the resolution to express the admiration of Jewry for the heroism of the Zionists and Jews in Russia who held fast to their ideals in spite of oppressions.

The convention unanimously adopted the resolution and Mr. Ribalow, Mr. Goldberg and Rabbi Brickner were appointed by Morris Rothenberg who presided at the session to revise the resolution on Russia.

In the course of the discussion, Dr. Joseph Silverman urged that a clause be included in the resolution protesting also against the persecutions of other peoples in Russia.

To Hasten Settlement of Ex-Legionnaires in Palestine

Another important decision reached at Monday night's session was to instruct the American delegation to the World Zionist Congress to see that immediate steps are taken for the settlement on the land in Palestine of the former legionnaires who served with the British forces in Palestine. The adopted resolution calls for the setting aside of $100,000 in the next budget toward the fulfillment of pledges previously made to the legionnaires and to settle these legionnaires on 2,500 dunams of land set aside for this purpose by the Jewish National Fund. The resolution grants the right to the legionnaires in this country independently and with the aid of the American Zionist Organization to raise $25,000 necessary for immediate colonization work. Following an appeal for the resolution and the required fund by Mrs. Archibald Silverman, the sum of more than $3,000 was raised on the convention floor. The Legionnaires of Detroit, the Providence, R. I. District and Mr. Steinberg of Chicago each subscribed $500.

The convention adopted resolutions pledging continued support to Dr. Chaim Weizmann. Resolutions were adopted greeting Nahum Sokolow on his present visit to this country and felicitating Louis Marshall and Felix M. Warburg for their efforts in behalf of the Jewish Agency. A unanimous vote was given a resolution which placed the convention on record against the proposal to reform the calendar. Another resolution endorsed the efforts of the Avukah to introduce the study of Hebrew in schools in this country. The convention went on record endorsing the work of the Histadruth

Ivrith and pledging continued support to the "Hadoar." Meyer W. Weisgal, editor of the "New Palestine," and Mrs. Silverman, chairman of the Herzl Memorial Committee, were commended for the Herzl Memorial Volume of the "New Palestine."

The convention also renewed its endorsement of the work of the American Jewish Congress and recommended to the districts that they pay ten cents per capita to the Congress. An important resolution which was adopted without the customary discussions was one which called for the approval of the reports of the administration and which was in effect a vote of confidence.

At the Monday afternoon session the sum of $340,000 was raised for the Palestine work. This sum was contributed at the United Palestine Appeal session. It included a check for $25,000 from Detroit, presented by the Detroit chairman, Abraham Cooper; checks for $35,000 from New York, $35,000 from Chicago and $25,000 from Philadelphia.

The question of whether or not Hadassah, women's Zionist organization, is to be accorded separate representation as a group in the Z. O. A. administration was raised in the report of the Committee on Affiliated Organizations. The Committee was divided, a majority recommending representation to the women membership, while a minority asked for the specific mention of Hadassah. Following discussion in which Rabbi Brickner, Rabbi Feldman and Jacob Fishman participated, the entire matter was tabled.

The convention was greeted by the Central Conference of American Rabbis whose convention in Detroit closed yesterday. This is the first time a Zionist convention received the greetings of Reform rabbis.

The United Palestine Appeal raised up to date the amount of $2,076,020, including $339,617 payments made on account of pledges during June, it was reported at the session presided over by Max Shulman of Chicago. The delegates gave a rousing ovation to Judge William M. Lewis, national chairman, when it was announced that he is proceeding on his first visit to Palestine this week.

During the forenoon hours committees were in session preparing plans for future work of the organization.

An Avukah luncheon was held with Rabbi James Heller of Cincinnati as chairman. Several hundred guests attended. A Histadruth Ivrith meeting was addressed by Nahum Sokolow.

The report of Dr. M. M. Kaplan, who was absent, was read. The general discussion on the administration report and on the future of the Zionist Organization of America were inaugurated by Dr. A. Coralnik and Abraham Goldberg. According to forecasts important changes are expected to be made in the personnel of the administration, though it is a foregone conclusion that Louis Lipsky will be re-elected as president in his absence.

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

the fraternity was formed, according to college officials, without the knowledge or consent of proper authorities.

At the same time that announcement of permission to organize a Brown chapter of the fraternity was given from the office of the Dean, it was stated that the Lambda Psi club, a Jewish undergraduate society, is officially permitted to function as a local association although not as a fraternity. The Lambda Psi club applied for this sanction on March 1.

The application of the Pi Lambda Phi fraternity was made to former President W. H. P. Faunce early in May following the statement by the corporation on May 1 of its policies toward non-sectarian fraternities with memberships composed in fact of persons of one race or faith.

The Pi Lambda Phi fraternity, although predominantly Jewish, is non-sectarian by the provisions of its constitution. Dr. Faunce referred the application to the executive committee of the university corporation which, after study by a sub-committee, approved the application. The applicants are the same, it is understood, who last April surrendered their charter.

The statement issued from the office of the Dean read:

"Brown University announces that it has received a petition from nine students for official sanction to organize a chapter of Pi Lambda Phi fraternity. This permission is now granted and the petitioners may organize a chapter at such time during the academic year 1929-30 as may be agreeable to them.

"Brown University also announces that it has received an informal petition from certain students for permission to organize a so-called Lambda Psi Club—a local association, not a fraternity. This petition is also granted, and the petitioners may organize such a club at any time they desire."

This statement is expected to bring to a close the Jewish fraternity issue which has broken out spasmodically at Brown during the past few years. The apparent failure of Brown University officials to sanction a fraternity at the university, composed of Jews, attracted national attention.

Rabbi Elijah Inselbuch, Rabbi Saul Silver, Rabbi M. A. Ashinsky, Abraham Cohen, Harry Karp and Mrs. Gottesfeld.

The combined ticket of the Zeire Zion and the Hitachduth secured four delegates: Dr. Chaim Arlozorof, Chaim Greenberg, Dr. Martin Buber of Berlin and Joseph Sprinzak of Tel Aviv. The seven delegates of the Poale Zion are Berl Locker, Louis Segal, Joel Entin, Meyer Brown of New York, Golde Meyerson, David Bloch and Israel Meriminsky of Tel Aviv.

The Herzl Zionists elected one delegate, Judge Julian W. Mack.
