ECONOMIC MISERY DRIVES JEWS OUT OF UKRAINE TOWNS, OFFICIAL REPORT

Commission Asks Plans to Regulate Mass Exodus

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, July 15—A mass exodus of Ukrainian Jews from the small towns located on both sides of the Dneipr is reported by an official investigating commission, appointed by the Soviet authorities to inquire into conditions in that region.

The Jews are deserting the "shtedlach" located on the right bank of the Dneipr where the economic misery is growing with no hope for betterment in sight. The commission reporting on the Volynian region states that a considerable number of towns in the district of Shepetovka, have literally been deserted. Not a single Jew remains.

The same condition obtains on the left bank of the Dneipr. Even in cities like Zaslavl and Staro-Konstantin, centers of ancient Jewish communities, the Jewish population has decreased by one-half and the decrease is continuing.

The official commission admits that the migration movement under the present conditions in the towns is unavoidable, but urges that steps be taken to regulate this mass exodus by the working out of definite plans for directing the migrants.

Moscow, July 15—That Jews are suited to the work of digging for gold in the mines in the region of Ticse was declared by the Director of the mining operations, M. Lumberg. Mr. Lumberg warned, however, that Jews should not come to the mines in the belief that the ork is easy and the profits great. The dream of making a fortune overnight is only a false illusion. Those who have come to the mines in this hope usually suffered hunger and unemployment, some of them even perishing. The maximum earnings are six roubles daily, whereas two roubles per day is a common wage.

He pointed out that working conditions are very bad. Recently, however measures have been taken to improve the standard of living, and the outlook is there that the miner will be able to live under conditions at least not worse than the population in neighboring villages.

BAR JEWS FROM TEACHERS' COURSES IN LITHUANIA

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Kovno, July 15—Not a single Jewish applicant was admitted to the teachers' courses inaugurated at the University of Kovno under the auspices of the Ministry of Education.

It was complained here that the exclusion policy was followed at the express order of the Ministry.

ROUMANIAN SENATE PASSES COMMUNITIES LAW OPPOSED BY JEWISH LEADERS

United Committee Decides to Continue Protests; Fly Black Flags on Synagogues

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Bucharest, July 15—By a majority vote, the Roumanian Senate passed the government bill seeking to amend the law governing the status and organization of Jewish religious institutions and communities in Greater Roumania. This action was taken notwithstanding the continuous protests of Jewish leaders of all shades of opinion in the country. The Minister of the Interior, Vlad, defended the measure against the opposition.

According to the law passed, the cult is to be organized on the basis of religious communities and the orthodox and Espanol rituals. Each ritual has the right to form a separate community. Various rituals may organize a unified community. Only one community of the same ritual may function in any given locality. The synagogues have the right to acquire and own property under the control of the State and the community. The vote took place Saturday afternoon.

On Friday, a meeting of a joint committee, representing all Jewish parties in Roumania, formed for the purpose of combating the Jewish communities law, as the government seeks to impose it, decided to continue the protest, even though the chances of averting the enactment of the bill into a law seemed slight.

The Committee decided to ask the various boards of synagogues and institutions to hoist black flags over their buildings as long as the discussions concerning the proposed law will continue in Parliament. The holding of mass meetings of protest, and of a procession to the royal palace is contemplated. Mass meetings have already been held in Ishineff, Czernowitz, and Cluj. A delegation of rabbis is to call on Prime Minister Maniu to protest against the proposed law.

LEONARD STEIN, ZIONIST POLITICAL SEC'Y, TO RESIGN

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, July 15—Leonard Stein, political secretary of the World Zionist Organization, which has its headquarters here, will resign from his post, at the end of this year.

At a session of the Anglo-Jewish Association, held Sunday, Leonard Montefiore stated that when Mr. Stein will leave his post with the Zionist Organization, he will propose him as successor to the late Joseph Prag, as chairman of the Executive of the Anglo-Jewish Association.

JEWS ASK LATVIAN GOVERNMENT FOR PROTECTION AGAINST HOOLIGAN TERROR

Latvian Police Fail to Halt Ruffian Band's Attack

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Riga, July 15—Failure of the Latvian police to protect the lives and property of Jewish residents in the village of Rugay against the terror of a band of hooligans compelled the Jewish community to address an appeal to members of Parliament. The Minister of Interior, presented with the facts, promised to order an investigation and to punish the hooligans.

Armed with sticks and stones, the hooligans, during the last several days, systematically attacked Jewish houses in Rugay, smashing the windows and beating the inhabitants. A number of Jews were injured.

GRUESENBERG TO REPRESENT LATVIA ON AGENCY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Riga, July 15—Oskar Gruesenberg, the well known Russian Jewish attorney and communal leader, will be the representative of Latvian Jewry on the non-Zionist side of the Council of the Jewish Agency. His election to this post is expected in a few days.

Mr. Gruesenberg, who played a prominent part in Russian Jewish affairs during the Czaristic times, has resided in Latvia since the outbreak of the revolution.

FREUDENTHAL, GERMAN JEWISH JURIST, DIES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Frankfort, July 15—Dr. Berthold Freudenthal, professor of jurisprudence at the University here, died today at the age of 57. He was widely known as a champion of radical reforms in German criminal law.

The late Dr. Freudenthal was a son of Jacob Freudenthal, philosopher and teacher, who held professorial posts at the University of Breslau and the Rabbinical Seminary there.

ASK INCREASE OF SUBSIDY TO PALESTINE SCHOOLS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, July 15—A one-third increase in the Palestine government grant in aid to the Hebrew Educational system in the country is now demanded by the Zionist Executive.

During the past years, the Palestine Government's subsidy amounted to about 19,000 pounds sterling. During the coming year the Executive asks that the subsidy be increased to 30,000 pounds.

MORE THAN A BOOK A DAY PUBLISHED IN PALESTINE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, July 15—Forty-nine more books were published in Palestine in 1928 than in 1927, as shown by statistics issued by the Education Department of the government. It is interesting to note that of the 417 books published this year, 375 are in Hebrew, 18 in Arabic, 13 in English, 15 in Yiddish, 8 in German, 8 in Armenian, and one each in French, Italian, and Russian. There were 54 periodicals, an increase of 10 over the previous year, most of them being in Hebrew.

Jerusalem, July 15—A proposal looking to the recognition of the Hebrew Language Board, in existence in Palestine twenty-five years, as the Hebrew Language Academy, is contained in an appeal signed by almost all national Jewish organizations in the country addressed to the delegates of the forthcoming Zionist Congress, who are urged to see to it that adequate provision is made in future Zionist budgets for the expansion of the Board's activities.

The resolution was adopted at a meeting called in Tel Aviv by an association styled "Devotees of the Hebrew Language," and addressed by Chaim Nachman Bialik.

BRESSLER AND HYMAN VISIT EAST EUROPE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, July 15—David Bressler and Joseph Hyman, representatives of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, arrived here on the first lap of their tour of East European countries. While here they conferred with representatives of the J. D. C. and the Agrojoint. Their itinerary includes a tour of Lithuania, Latvia, Poland and Roumania, to acquaint themselves with the situation of the Jewish masses.

INCREASE WELFARE WORK TO AID JEWISH IMMIGRANTS IN SOUTH AMERICAN LANDS

216 Immigrants Arrive in Cuba in Six Weeks; Marriage Knows No Quota Laws

Rabbi I. Raffalovich, Chief Rabbi of Brazil, has, according to the information contained in an official report to the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society, returned from a tour of inspection of the interior of Brazil. He spent seven weeks, mostly in southern provinces of the country and succeeded in organizing a number of local committees which will take care of the Jewish immigrants coming into that country. In other places he strengthened the existing organization.

In Rio Grande arrangements were made with the local Jewish community to undertake the immigrant aid work, to meet the incoming steamers, receive the immigrants, secure work for them and also to render service to those immigrants going to Uruguay or Argentine. A loan kassa is being founded so that the new arrivals may be helped to buy tools, etc. Skilled artisans will find good opportunities there. The same also applies to Pelotas.

In Porto Alegro, Rabbi Raffalovich addressed several mass meetings and aroused the interest of the local Jews in the matter of Jewish immigration. A loan kassa is being organized here also.

Arrangements for aid to Jewish immigrants were also made in Cachoeria, and in Santo Maria. In the latter place the immigrant aid activities are in charge of the local Jewish Ladies Society. A loan kassa will be organized here as well as in Crizalta. In these and other places, Chief Rabbi Raffalovich found possibilities for Jewish immigrants, particularly for skilled artisans, and the local Jews are prepared to render every assistance.

In Curityba there is room for Jewish merchants who could buy the cereals grown by the Polish colonists and sell them in the cities. In Ponta Grossa Jewish merchanics and blacksmiths can secure remunerative employment.

During the last six weeks there arrived in Havana, Cuba, 216 Jewish immigrants. This increase is largely due to recent immigration restrictions in Mexico. As a result the Cuban government has become more stringent in its examinations of the new arrivals, many of whom are temporarily detained.

The Jewish Center succeeded in having the women and children discharged to it, and then the men, with the exception of fifteen who were detained. Those who cannot be finally admitted will be aided by the Jewish Center to go to other South or Central American countries.

The number of marriages among immigrants is increasing. On May 14, on the steamship California, no less than 12 brides arrived in Havana from America in order to become the wives of their bridegrooms who had come from the other side. Twenty Jewish girls who were married in the same period to their American bridegrooms were provided for in the Home for Girls maintained by the Center. These girls came from Lithuania, Poland, Russia and Palestine. The bridegrooms were American citizens.

ANTI-SEMITIC TERRORISM ON THE INCREASE IN SOVIET RUSSIA

Trotskyism Is New Pretext for Perpetrating Attacks Against Jews by Former Petlura Associates

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, July 15—A gang of anti-Semites who have carried on a regime of terror against Jewish invalids and employees in Soviet institutions were arrested in Zhitomir by the Gepu, Soviet political police. The terrorists broke into the Jewish homes, demolished the household furnishings and demanded money. They even went so far as to openly attack the Jews in the streets. The gang is led by Korelny whose terrorist methods have made him notorious throughout the district.

Moscow, July 15—Attaman Babenko and his assistant, Demchenko, both noted for their pogromist activities under Petlura, are now members of the Communist party holding responsible posts as Commissars in the town of Trastianez, district of Podol. This discovery was made when the former pogrom leaders endeavored to utilize their offices to persecute the Jews. Under the pretext that all Jews are Trotskyists and must therefore be sent out of the country to Palestine, they inaugurated a campaign of persecution.

An investigation commission fixed direct responsibility on Babenko and Demchenko for a number of pogroms under Petlura.

EDUCATION ASS'N. SCORES PROPAGANDA IN SCHOOLS

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Atlanta, Ga., July 15—A code of ethics adopted unanimously by the National Education Association, meeting here in convention, bars propaganda of every description from public schoolrooms.

"The schoolroom," says the code, "is not the proper theater for religious, political or personal propaganda. The teacher should not permit his educational work to be used for partisan politics, personal gain or selfish propaganda of any kind."

The code was drawn up by a special committee after five years' research. It contains a number of things never before set forth explicitly for the guidance of teachers.

KLAN MOVES NATIONAL QUARTERS TO ATLANTA

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Washington, D. C., July 15—The Ku Klux Klan has removed its headquarters from Massachusetts Avenue, Washington, to Atlanta, Ga., where it first came into being.

TO PUBLISH DOCUMENTS ON JEWISH OBJECTION TO CALENDAR REFORM

Joint Foreign Committee and Board of Jewish Deputies Sponsor Publication

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, July 15—A collection of documents and official correspondence setting forth the objection of Jewish bodies to the proposed change in the calendar will be published under the auspices of the Joint Foreign Committee, the body representing the Anglo-Jewish Association and the Board of Jewish Deputies. Lucien Wolf, who represented the committee at a conference of calendar reform held in June, made this announcement at a meeting of the Anglo-Jewish Association Sunday.

Leonard Montefiore presented the report of the Jewish Colonization Association concerning the colonization work in Russia. He stated that the closing of immigration to the United States has created a situation in European Jewry which compelled the leading Jewish organizations, including the Jews, to seek new methods of relief. One of these methods, to meet the new situation, was the assistance to Jewish colonization work in Russia. Another method was the development of the loan banks in Poland, which enabled one-third of the country's Jewish population to obtain credit on reasonable terms.

Mr. Montefiore paid tribute to the memory of the late Franz Philippson. "Any one who will study the post-war problems, will find that the Ica, under the influence of Dr. Philippson, has made serious contribution to the two most pressing problems, emigration and colonization," he said.

"It is seldom possible to write finis to any chapter of Jewish history, but not one of the six thousand Jewish emigrants who were stranded in various European ports when the United State immigration law was enacted, has remained in that condition," he said.

3 YEAR GIRL TRAVELS ALONE FROM ROUMANIA TO CANADA

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Liverpool, July 15—A journey across two continents is the adventurous trip being undertaken all alone by a three-year-old Jewish youngster of Bucharest. Yitte Bassboym, who sailed here on the Steamer "Regina," travelled all the way from Bucharest alone in order to join her father in Western Canada. Her only road map was a label attached to her frock, stating "My name is Yitte Bassboym, age three. Please see that I get safely aboard the Steamer 'Regina' sailing from Liverpool, July 12.

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

European Notes

By J. T. A. Correspondents

Budapest—Admiral Horthy, the Regent of Hungary, has astounded and angered Jewish and Democratic opinion generally here, by conferring the distinction of Knight of the Order of Heroes on three of the most notorious anti-Semitic agitators in the country, Deputy Julius Goemboes, Commandant Hejjas, and ex-Deputy Hir.

Deputy Julius Goemboes is the leader of the anti-Semitic organization, the Union of Awakening Magyars, and is constantly engaged in violent anti-Jewish agitation. He is also connected with the so-called Anti-Semitic International, which has attempted to set up a united anti-Semitic front in all countries, other leading members of which are the Roumanian anti-Semitic leader, Professor Cuza, and the German anti-Semitic writer, ex-Deputy Fritsch.

Commandant Ivan Hejjas was the leading figure in the anti-Jewish brutalities committed during the White Terror in Hungary He stands, for the Jewish and Democratic opinion in Hungary, as the symbol and the embodiment of all the anti-Jewish pogroms which were carried out at that time by the Hejjas bands. This feeling is so strong that in 1926, when Commandant Hejjas was elected to Parliament, the Opposition Denuties notified the President of the Chamber that they refused to sit in a Parliament which contained "the mass murderer Hejjas, who was the leader of the pogroms at the time of the "White Terror." They decided that if Commandant Hejjas took his seat in Parliament all the Opposition Deputies would lay down their mandates. As the result of this threat, Commandant Hejjas was prevailed upon to resign his membership in the House.

Ex-Deputy Hir is also one of the leading men in the Union of Awakening Magyars and has played a prominent part in the most violent of the anti-Jewish agitations in the country.

Vienna—The whole of the press of Jugoslavia, headed by the "Politika," publish in full the interview given by the Minister for Foreign Affairs, M. Marinkovic, to Jacob Landau, commenting upon it at length. The Austrian newspapers, too, publish long telegraphic reports of the interview from their Belgrade correspondents, giving them a prominent place on their front pages.

The J. T. A. interviews which Mr. Landau has had recently with the leading members of the Governments and with other influential personages in the South-European countries, like Italy, Roumania, Bulgaria, and Jugoslavia, have succeeded in opening the front pages of the most important newspapers of Southern and Central

SABBATH ALLIANCE OPPOSES SUNDAY BLUE LAW IN NATION'S CAPITAL

Will Vigorously Combat Stand of Lord's Day Alliance

Strenuous opposition to steps planned by the Lord's Day Alliance toward securing a Sunday closing law for Washington, D. C., was decided upon at a meeting of the executive committee of the Jewish Sabbath Alliance at a special meeting.

"The Jewish Sabbath Alliance will do all in its power to oppose this proposed legislation because such a law would cause great hardships for the conscientious seventh-day observing businessmen, not only in Washington, but in the entire country as well, for the various States of the Union would be apt to follow the example of Washington," stated William Rosenberg, executive secretary. "However, we will withdraw the opposition if adequate provision will be made to exempt these religionists from its operation. A communication was sent to the Lord's Day Alliance asking whether or not such provision will be made and until a reply comes from the advocates of a stricter Sunday Law, the Jewish Sabbath Alliance will withhold taking any steps in this matter."

In the State of New York, the Alliance is gathering signatures to a petition to the Governor, Senate and Assembly requesting them to grant legislative relief from the existing Sunday Laws for those who do not work or do business on the seventh day.

BUDGET CUT REDUCES WORK OF HADASSAH IN PALESTINE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, July 15—Cuts in the budget, resulting from smaller collections in the United States, are beginning to have their effect on the extent of the medical work of the Hadassah, the American women's Zionist organization, which maintains a network of hospitals and medical aid stations in Palestine.

The Haifa branch of the Hadassah hospital is being closed down it is announced. Activities in other Palestine towns are being decreased.

MRS. ROSENWALD GAVE $50,000 TO ART MUSEUM

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Chicago, Ill., July 15—A gift of $50,000, unrestricted as to principal or income, from the late Mrs. Julius Rosenwald, has been announced by the Art Institute of Chicago.

Mrs. Rosenwald had for many years been a consistent friend of the institte, contributing each year since 1912 a sum sufficient to purchase for the public schools of Chicago a painting from the annual exhibition by artists of Chicago and vicinity.

Recently the rare and valuable gift of the Muesham collection of glass, comprising one-half of this German collection, was received by the institute from Mr. and Mrs. Rosenwald, and is now installed in Gunsaulus Hall.

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

Europe to a consideration of Jewish affairs in their countries.

Constantinople—Several of the organs of the Turkish press, which is now of a semi-official character, have been for some time engaged in an anti-Jewish agitation, in connection with the rise of the pound sterling on the Exchange. The papers allege that the rise is caused by Jewish speculation. The Government has so far taken no action to put a stop to these allegations, although it is the custom of the Turkish government to act promptly in cases of reports published in the press which are incorrect or regarded as harmful. The passive attitude of the authorities is interpreted both by the Jews and the anti-Semites as meaning that the government has no objection to the anti-Jewish campaign. In financial circles here, it is understood that the government is the largest buyer of foreign exchange in the country, and that if private speculation was really the reason for the rise of the pound sterling, the government could easily break up the speculation, by placing on the market its own reserves of English currency.

For the last fortnight, too, the "Hareket" ("Progress") has been publishing announcements that it is starting publication shortly of the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion." In almost every issue, it prints headlines and extracts from the "Protocols," as advance material. The "Hereket" is owned by a deputy of the National Party, of which Kemal Pasha is the leader.

Berlin—A memorial slab to commemorate the assassination of Dr. Walter Rathenau, the German Foreign Minister, was unveiled on the occasion of the seventh anniversary of his death, on the spot where he was assassinated. The slab has been fixed to a tree which still bears the marks of the bullets.

As each year, on the anniversary of the assassination, the members of the Republican Banner marched to the spot to hold their annual memorial gathering. A guard of honor had been standing there from early morning. State Secretary Oscar Meyer, who delivered the memorial address, dwelt on the international importance of the work done by Rathenau, who many years ahead of his time, had laid the foundations of Germany's reconciliation with the rest of the world.

Wreaths were deposited by Federal Minister Groener on behalf of the government, by ex-Premier Wirth, as a friend of Rathenau's, Deputy Otto Nuschke on behalf of the Democratic Party and by representatives of all the Berlin Democratic groups, branches of the Republican Banner, various students' organizations, scout groups and athletic bodies.

A huge crowd was present at the celebrations. The procession of the Republican Banner marched past with dipped banners and muffled drums.

HEBREW UNION OPENS SUMMER SCHOOL

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Cincinnati, O., July 15—The Hebrew Union College opened its doors on Monday, July 8, with the formal beginning of its fifth summer school session. Twelve rabbis have registered for work in the Graduate School; eight students of the College remained to study during the summer, and 33 young women three from Canada and the others from all parts of the United States, have registered for courses in the Teachers' Institute. The registration is not yet complete. A large number of summer students is expected.

Mrs. Carrie Fist, the Matron of the Dormitory, has prepared the East Wing of the building for the 19 girls whom this section of the Dormitory will accommodate.

The remainder of the Dormitory will house students, visiting rabbis, faculty members and their wives. The dining room tables have been especially arranged to seat groups of six.

RUSSIAN JEWISH PAINTINGS AT BROOKLYN MUSEUM

Twenty-four paintings by Frank Horowitz, noted Jewish artist, who went to the Ukraine and the Crimea for the purpose of limning on canvas the story of Jewish colonization work there, are now being exhibited at the Brooklyn Museum of Art and will remain on view for several months. The paintings are attracting widespread attention from the general public and the art world.

Prior to the exhibition of Mr. Horowitz's work at the Brooklyn Museum, they were shown in Moscow and in Philadelphia.

ARGENTINE JEWISH DELEGATION ARRIVES IN MOSCOW

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, July 15—A delegation representing the Argentine Jewish organization, Proker, which assists the Jewish colonization project in Birabidjan, has arrived in Moscow.

The delegation, consisting of nine members, includes representatives of the Jewish colonists in Argentine. They will visit Crimea, the Ukraine and White Russia.

Jacob Barnett, 62 years old, of 606 South Dallas Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., was stricken with a heart attack Sunday aboard a ferryboat at West Twenty-third Street, New York, and died before medical aid could be obtained.

Mr. Barnett was on his way to visit his brother in Lithuania when he was stricken.

He left Pittsburgh Saturday night for New York. He is survived by a wife, Rebecca Barnett, and five sons, Benjamin, Frank, Charles and Harold Barnett of Pittsburgh and William Barnett of Bessar, Pa., and one daughter, Augusta, of Pittsburgh.
