

Vol. VI. Price 4 Cents.

Monday, July 22, 1929.

Entered as 2nd Class Matter at Post Office, Long Island City, New York. No. 1420.

CHANGING ORTHODOX TO CONSERVATIVE SYNAGOGUE TRUST BREACH COURT RULES

Court of Appeals Upholds Orthodox Contention in Celebrated Cleveland Jewish Center Case
(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Cleveland, O., July 20—The Court of Appeals yesterday reversed the decision of Chief Justice Homer G. Powell of the Common Pleas Court, when it granted an injunction against the Board of Trustees of the Cleveland Jewish Center and Rabbi Solomon Goldman, enjoining them from the use of the synagogue as a Conservative house of worship. The decision upholds the contention of the Orthodox members of the congregation that the synagogue was a trust, formed for Orthodox purposes, and that its trustees, without violating a trust, could not change the synagogue ritual from Orthodox to Conservative. The decision that a breach of trust had occurred was unanimously upheld by all three judges sitting on the case.

The defendants, who were permitted to file an answer within two weeks, must stand trial in the Court of Appeals this fall, or revert the synagogue to its Orthodox status.

W. K. Stanley, attorney for the defendants, stated that he did not know what further action would be taken. Rabbi Goldman is no longer the spiritual leader of the Cleveland Jewish Center, now being with a Chicago congregation.

The decision was handed down by Judges Kent W. Hughes, Charles L. Justice, of the Third District Appellate Court, and Roy H. Williams of the Sixth District Appellate Court.

The case, which has been two years in litigation, has attracted nation-wide interest. Plaintiffs in the suit were an Orthodox Committee of the congregation, headed by A. A. Katz, which pressed charges against Rabbi Solomon Goldman and trustees of the Cleveland Jewish Center.

Formed as an Orthodox congregation, dissension arose among the members, when Rabbi Solomon Goldman, its spiritual leader, with the concurrence of members of the board of trustees, changed the ritual to Conserv-

(Continued on Page 4)

GRANDMOTHER OF SEVERAL CHASSIDIC RABBIS DIES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, July 20—Rechama Chaya Kalisch, known as the Worker Rebbeztin, died her today at the age of 80. The late Rebbeztin had the distinction of being the mother and grandmother of several Chassidic Rabbis who ascended to leadership when the Worker dynasty split into several branches and when brother succeeded brother in the cult.

JEWISH LEADERS AGAIN SEE MANIU IN PROTEST AGAINST COMMUNITIES LAW

No Solution Found; Government Member Acknowledges Growing Dissatisfaction Throughout Country
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Bucharest, July 20—A group of Jewish leaders of Roumania against called upon Prime Minister Maniu yesterday to confer on the Jewish Communities Bill now in its final stage before enactment into law by parliament.

The Prime Minister listened to the objections of the Jewish community to the proposed law, as harmful to the interests of the community and the state. So far, however, no solution of the problem was found.

The member of the Government, Mirto, in an interview with a correspondent of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, admitted that the government was in the receipt of reports from all parts of the country concerning the growing dissatisfaction of the Jewish population with the pending bill.

MANDATES COMMISSION OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS CONCLUDES SESSIONS

Vaad Ha'Ir and Agudath Israel Petitions Not Considered
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Geneva, July 20—The Permanent Mandates Commission of the League of Nations, in session since July 1, concluded its sessions here yesterday. No official report concerning its decisions is as yet available, but the correspondent of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency learns that the petitions submitted to the League body by the Vaad Ha'Ir, the Jerusalem Jewish Committee, and the Orthodox Agudath Israel, were not considered, due probably to the fact that the petitioners informed the Commission that they would submit new documents, which failed to arrive in time.

Concerning the Arab petition and the controversy over the Wailing Wall, it is stated the Commission decided to reiterate its views formulated at a previous session.

2nd INTERNATIONAL GREETINGS POALE ZION CONFERENCE

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, July 20—A message from the second Socialist International taking note of the growth of the Zionist Labor movement, was read at the international conference of the Zionist Labor Party, Poale Zion, in session here.

The International also sent a message of congratulations to the International Ladies Garment Workers Union of New York upon the successful conclusion of its strike, this week.

VOLKIST LEADERS ACKNOWLEDGE PROGRAM OF PALESTINE WORK

Party Has Considerable European
Following; Branches Formerly
Opposed to Zionism
(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, July 20—A further triumph for the Palestine work idea was seen here with the publication of a message addressed to the International Committee for Working Palestine by four leaders of the Jewish Volkspartei, Peoples Party, which has a considerable following in East European countries.

Professor Simon Dubnow, the Jewish historian, Lazki-Bertoldi, Efrogin and Kreinin, four of the founders of the party, sent a message to the Working Palestine Committee, in which they subscribed to its program. The Peoples Party was founded on the conception that Jewish life must be continued in the Diaspora countries and that the recognition of Yiddish as a national language of the Jewish masses of Eastern Europe must be the goal of Jewish political activities in these countries. Under certain conditions, the Peoples Party was distinctly anti-Zionistic, often coming in conflict with those Zionists who were active in local politics.

ANTI-JEWISH TERROR SPREAD IN GERMAN TOWNS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, July 20—The spread of an anti-Jewish agitation in Mecklenburg towns is reported by the "Berliner Tageblatt" today.

In Gnojien, Mecklenberg, the anti-Semites posted large placards at the entrance and along the thoroughfares of the city, containing the following descriptions: "German Girls Avoid Jewish Company!" "Do Not Purchase from Jews." At night, members of the anti-Semitic National Socialist party arranged "katzenjammer" music in front of Jewish homes. The police do not interfere with these doings.

At Malchow, a war memorial in the form of a huge Swastika, the emblem of the anti-Semites, was erected. The curious thing about this memorial is that among the 17 names of war heroes recorded there are names of Jewish soldiers who fell during the World War.

DISMISS 11 JEWISH TEACHERS FROM CZERNOWITZ SCHOOLS

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Czernowitz, July 20—Eleven Jewish teachers were dismissed from the local high schools by a decision of the Bukovina school authorities. Among the dismissed teachers were such as held their positions for the past twenty-five years, and who were considered a part of the permanent staff.

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN

Published every day in the week except Saturday and Jewish high holidays by the

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN CO.

Address All Mail to Executive and Editorial Office
611 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Publication Office:

3920 - 48th Street, L. I. City, N. Y.
Jacob Landau President
Samuel Biensstock Treasurer
John Simons Secretary
William Z. Spiegelman Editor

Vol. VI. Monday, July 22, 1929. No. 1420.

Member of Jewish Telegraphic Agency
New York 611 Broadway
London 24 High Holborn
Paris 34 Rue de Provence
Berlin Eisenbahnstrasse 6
Warsaw Ulica Aleje Jerozolimski Nr. 18
Jerusalem Hasolel Bldg.

Subscription Rates

	U.S. and Canada	Foreign
One Year	$10.00	$15.00
Six Months	6.00	8.00
One Month	1.00	1.50

Entered as second-class matter July 19, 1927, at the Post Office at L. I. City, N. Y., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Copyrighted

FEDERAL COUNCIL HEAD
PLEADS FOR TOLERANCE

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Albany, July 20—A despatch from the Associated Press reports a plea for a more tolerant view of the beliefs of others, based upon an effort to understand them, voiced by Bishop Francis J. McConnell, president of the Federal Council of Churches, at an interdenominational service in the First Presbyterian Church of Glens Falls.

"Blind criticism of another's belief is born of ignorance," he said.

"The church is now going through a period of social bewilderment from which it will emerge stronger than ever.

Changing conditions have brought periods of bewilderment on many occasions, but each time the pendulum of time has swung aside the prejudices and left the church more firmly entrenched."

Bishop McConnell touched briefly on socialism, which, he said, was running along a wide parallel with the church and was endeavoring to adjust many troubles of the human race. He urged that his listeners endeavor to understand more clearly the human needs from which the Socialist movement had sprung.

MANNY STRAUS FORMS GROUP TO AID CLARKE BANK VICTIMS

A committee of one hundred representative men and women is now being organized by Manny Straus, to aid depositors who lost their savings in the failure of the Clarke Brothers Bank.

The action is being taken at the suggestion of United States District Attorney Tuttle, and it is expected that the first meeting will take place next Thursday.

JEWISH PRESS COMMENTS ON NON-ZIONIST DELEGATES TO AGENCY COUNCIL

Lauds Personnel of Delegation Announced by Felix M. Warburg

The publication by Felix M. Warburg of the names of the American non-Zionist delegates to the Council of the extended Jewish Agency was the subject of editorial comment in the New York Jewish press.

"An important step towards a united Jewish front was taken when Felix M. Warburg appointed the forty-one delegates who are to constitute the American non-Zionist section of the Jewish Agency. Now is not the time to enter into a detailed consideration of all the members of the American non-Zionist personnel of the Agency," states an editorial in the New York "Day."

"What is important is that the personnel was appointed and that it includes several of the most important leaders in the United States, and that with this appointment the final preparation for the consummation of the Jewish Agency has been completed. The road towards the Jewish Agency has been so difficult, there being so many obstacles, that each step forward deserves to be welcomed. The appointment of the American non-Zionist representation is indeed such a step.

"The entire weight of the Agency influence on the march of events in Palestine will become evident, of course, when the Agency will have started functioning and when we will have before us the actual results. Only then, will it be time to point out the merits and shortcomings, and to draw conclusions. Now, however, when the Agency is in process of formation, we may only welcome each step which brings it nearer, as a step leading in the long desired and expected direction," the paper says.

Similar is the view expressed by the "Jewish Morning Journal." "The list of the 41 Agency delegates selected to represent the non-Zionist American Jews is without doubt the greatest gain which Zionism has made in the past several difficult years," the paper writes. "The list represents a masterly combination of the many-sided Jewry in this country. Reform temples, radical labor leaders, 100% Yehudim, are represented in the list, which is not yet complete. There are even sons of fathers who were outspoken enemies of Zion. Here is a triumph, which Zionism has scored in Jewish life, among ourselves, which is worth many times more than all the triumphs which the movement has recorded outside of Jewish life in previous good years. Zionist enthusiasm, coupled with Agency means, may lead to redoubling the results of the work."

Michael Fox, father of William Fox, motion picture producer, in the hospital as the result of injuries in an auto accident, was hurt Friday night in an auto collision. The elder Fox was being hurried to the Red Cross Hospital in Tannersville, in an ambulance which was struck by a truck. Doctors at the Hospital said Mr. Fox, who is seventy-one, has an even chance for recovery. He became ill on his arrival in Tannersville.

ZIONISTS TO MARK TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF
THEODOR HERZL'S DEATH

Mass Meetings July 28; Rabbi Brickner of Cleveland to Sepak Here

A huge mass meeting will be held Sunday evening, July 28, at the Public Theatre, Second Avenue and Fourth Street, in commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the death of Theodor Herzl, founder of the modern political Zionist movement. The principal speaker will be Rabbi Barnett Brickner, of Cleveland, O. Others who will deliver addresses are Dr. Chaim Greenberg and Mordecai Danzies. Jonah J. Goldstein, prominent New York attorney, will preside.

The mass meeting at the Public Theatre will take place simultaneously with a huge memorial meeting, which is to be held on that same night at

(Continued on Page 4)

GARMENT UNION
GETS $95,000 IN DUES

With all of the 19,000 cloakmakers affected by the recent strike back at work, the International Ladies Garment Workers Union announced that it has received $95,000 in dues from new and former members in the last four days. That figure establishes a new record.

The next step of the union in its campaign to eliminate the sweatshop will be to invite heads of large department stores to participate in a conference at which an effort to obtain cooperation in abolishing sub-standard working conditions will be made.

The strike against non-union and sweatshop condition is being continued by 11,000 workers. The conference between Mayor Walker and Benjamin Schlesinger, president of the union, concerning sweatshop conditions, has been postponed until next week.

Many applications for membership have been received by the three employers' associations from independents, it was said today, the Industrial Council of Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers, Inc., alone having received ninety-eight such.

UNEARTH TEMPLE OF ASSYRIAN KING

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Chicago, July 20—The Palace of Sennacherib, the Assyrian King who captured Jerusalem about 700 before the Christian era, has been unearthed by a University of Chicago expedition. Prof. Edward Chiera, just returned from the scene, says. It is larger than Solomon's Temple, and is close to the Tigris, not far from the site of ancient Nineveh.

Sennacherib figures in the Old Testament as the King who was smitten by the angel of the Lord, possibly with poison gas, as the whole army was destroyed, when it "came down like a wolf on the fold."

Awaiting shipment are 125 tons of relief work dug up. Included is a 20-ton stone bull, which once guarded the gateway to the palace. Inscriptions will be translated here at the university's Oriental Institute. Prof. Chiera believes facts regarding ancient Assyria will be greatly increased.

CATHOLICS SEEK PROTECTION AGAINST SLURS IN FILMS

International Film Congress of Munich Asks for State Censorship (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Munich, July 20.—Protection of Catholics against slurs in motion pictures was the subject of an international Catholic Film Congress held here recently. Representatives of 18 countries attended and the subject most discussed was that of state censorship.

The Congress adopted a resolution urging the formation of Catholic Film Committees in every country in the world. Other resolutions declared in favor of state censorship of films in every country, sufficient protection of the religious and moral feelings of Catholics, adequate protection of youth and exemption of educational and cultural films from the tax on amusements.

Dr. Marshall, of Cologne, reporting on the work of the Catholic film groups in Germany stated that: "We Catholics recognize and appreciate the importance of the film. By demanding censorship we strive to protect the interests of everyone, including those of the film producers and of the actors. For these latter, no benefit accrues if that important means of education is misused or polluted."

"What we demand is admission into public education, bureau of Catholic experts to assist in the work of film control. We also want the theologians employed whenever religious subjects are to be dealt with in the films."

ROMANIAN JEWS HERE PROTEST NEW RELIGIOUS LAW

The United Rumanian Jews of America, the organization comprising American Jews of Rumanian origin, went on record as joining the Jewish leaders in Rumania in their protest against the attempt of the Maniu government to enact a law endangering the unity of the Jewish communities.

A special meeting of the Committee on Rumanian Affairs was held several days ago with the participation of Mr. I. Rosenthal, Technical Counsellor to the Rumanian Legation in the United States. Taking into consideration the serious opposition which the bill has encountered on the part of the Rumanian Jewish leaders, and the Jewish members of Parliament, the United Rumanian Jews of America requested Mr. Rosenthal to present to his government the objections voiced against the proposed legislation.

Several bequests to Jewish charitable institutions, in which he took an active interest during his lifetime, are made by Max Markowitz of Philadelphia, who died June 12.

The estate listed at $100,000, he gives $25,000 to the Hebrew Orphan Home, of which he was president; $300 to Mt. Sinai Hospital, and $50 to the Hebrew Sheltering Home for Girls. Of $1,000, each are made to a brother, Joseph Markowitz, and two sisters, Rosie and Mollie Herszkowitz, all of Zemplin county, Hungary. The latter sister has since died. Of the residue one-third is left to his widow, Mrs. Regina Markowitz, and the rest to be divided in three shares for his three children, Eleanor, Victor S. and Jerome L. Markowitz, in trust until they attain their majority.

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

Coping with the Problems of Jewish Emigration

By Our Paris Correspondent

Paris, July 9.—A high tribute to the memory of M. Franz Philippson, the president of the Ica, was paid by Deputy Dr. Oscar Kohn, the president of the Administrative Council of the Hicem (Hias-Ica-Emigdirekt) in opening its annual meeting here. The meeting then adjourned as a sign of mourning.

When the meeting was resumed, Dr. Kohn presented the report of the directors of the Hias-Ica-Emigdirekt on the activities of the Association during the period April 1, 1927 to December 31, 1928.

The meeting was attended by Aaron Benjamin and Dr. James Bernstein New York Dr. Israel Bernstein, Berlin. Dr. J. Blau, Frankfurt, Leonard L. Cohen and O. E. d'Avigdor-Goldsmid, London, Dr. Joachimsohn, Berlin, Mr. Gribeschock, Riga, Dr. M. Krainin, Paris, Mr. Latzki-Bertoldi, Riga, Prof. Mittwoch, Berlin, Leo Motzkin, M. Edouard Oungre, and Prof. Salomon Reinach, Paris, Dr. J. Stern, Berlin, M. Chalit, Vilna, Dr. Klee, Berlin, M. Louis Oungre, Paris, and Dr. Silberschein, Lemberg.

Dr. James Simon, president of the Hilfsverein der Deutschen Juden, has been elected president of the Hicem, with Aaron Benjamin of the Hias, M. Edouard Oungre of the Ica and Dr. Krainin of the Emigdirekt, as directors.

Dr. James Simon was the first president of the Administrative Council of the Hicem, being elected at the constituting meeting held in Paris in April 1927.

Jewish emigration during the past two years, Deputy Kohn stated in his report, totalled between 35,000 and 40,000 a year. In spite of the reduction of Jewish emigration, the protection of the emigrants became increasingly difficult on account of the restrictions which surround the admission of the emigrants into the overseas countries, and the complicated formalities to which they are submitted.

This state of affairs, the report stated, is reflected in the activities of the Hias-Ica-Emigdirekt, which can be summed up as follows:

The number of people who appealed for aid to the affiliated committees of the Association in the countries of emigration amounted in 1927 to about 40,000, and in 1928 to more than 53,000.

The committees gave legal and consular advice and help in 10,975 cases in 1927, and in 19,816 cases in 1928. The number of emigrants who were aided by the Hicem in the Argentine, Brazil, Uruguay and Canada, where it is particularly effective, grew in 1927 to 6,453, and in 1928 to 10,831. In these four countries, 1,888 emigrants were in 1927 provided with employment by the offices organized under the auspices

(Continued on Page 4)

J. D. C. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TO MEET IN ZURICH IN AUGUST

First Meeting of Executive Ever Held Outside United States

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Joint Distribution Committee will be held for the first time in its history outside of the borders of the United States during the month of August, it was announced.

The meeting will take place in Zurich, Switzerland, where the most prominent members of the Committee, including Felix M. Warburg, Louis Marshall, Dr. Cyrus Adler, Dr. Lee K. Frankel, will proceed to attend the inaugural session of the extended Jewish Agency. Other members of the Executive Committee, including Paul Baerwald, David Bressler, Joseph C. Hyman, who are now in Europe, will also attend. It is expected that Dr. Bernard Kahn, European Director of the Joint Distribution Committee, and Dr. Joseph Rosen, head of the Agro-Joint, will come to Zurich to attend the meeting.

QUEBEC GOVERNMENT INCREASES HOSPITAL GRANT

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Montreal, July 20.—The subsidy of $125,000 granted to the Mount Sinai Sanatorium for the new building, has been increased by the Provincial Government by an addition sum of $25,000, making a total grant of $150,000. The ground for the new building was broken recently. Louis Salomon is the president of the Mount Sinai Sanatorium, which is under the direction of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of Montreal.

The sanatorium will be non-sectarian, and will be equipped with an up-to-date operating room and complete X-Ray department. The new building will be erected at an estimated cost of $250,000, and will accommodate one hundred patients.

OCHS, ROSENWALD NAMED HEBREW UNION ALUMNI

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Cincinnati, O., July 20.—In recognition and appreciation of their contributions to the success of the $5,000,000 Hebrew Union College Endowment Fund, which is within $800,000 of its goal, Adolph S. Ochs and Julius Rosenwald have been elected honorary members of the Hebrew Union College Alumni Association, according to the announcement by Rabbi Martin Ziehlson, president of that body.

In accepting the honor, Mr. Ochs wrote: "I have your interesting letter informing me that I have been elected an honorary member of the Alumni Association of the Hebrew Union College. I am highly complimented to be regarded as worthy of so great an honor."

In his letter of acceptance, Mr. Rosenwald stated: "Your very kind letter is most cordially appreciated as is the honor it conveys. Will you kindly express to your associates my warmest thanks for the distinction they afford me, which I fully realize is far beyond what I deserve."

ZIONISTS TO MARK TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THEODORE HERZL'S DEATH

(Continued from Page 2)

the 16th Biennial World Zionist Congress in Zurich, Switzerland. Similar exercises are to be held in the larger cities throughout the country, and in the most populous Jewish centers throughout the world.

Dr. Herzl, who founded the World Zionist Organization in 1897, is considered the organizer of the modern Jewish renaissance. It is as a result of the negotiations which he started during his lifetime that Palestine has come to be internationally recognized as the home for the Jews.

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Baltimore, July 20—Senator Wm. H. King of Utah will be the guest of honor and deliver the principal address at the memorial meeting to be held on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the death of Theodor Herzl, here. The meeting will take place Sunday evening, July 28, at Chizuk Amona synagogue. Menachem Ribalow, editor of the "Hadoar," and Harry T. Kellman, president of the Seaboard Zionist Region, will also speak. Joseph Allen will preside.

The Jewish Agency has been endorsed by the District Grand Lodge of the Independent Order B'nai B'rith. The endorsement took the form of the following resolution:

"Whereas, the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith is in thorough sympathy with the upbuilding of Palestine as a Jewish homeland; and

"Whereas, the task of rebuilding Palestine demands for its realization the support of the whole Jewish people; and

"Whereas, the Zionist Organization, which until now has been the sole Jewish Agency to cooperate with the mandatory Power and has, through its president, Dr. Chaim Weizmann, and in accordance with Article 4 of the Mandate, conducted negotiations with the leaders of important non-Zionist groups both in America and in Europe toward the end that all sections of Jewry might lend their active support to the upbuilding of Palestine and share with the Zionists the duties and responsibilities of the Jewish Agency; and

"Whereas, these negotiations have met with conspicuous success and give promise of a happy and successful conclusion in the near future;

Be It Resolved, that District Grand Lodge No. 4 of the Independent Order B'nai B'rith, in convention assembled, rejoices at the extension of the Jewish Agency, fully appreciates the added impetus it will give to the rebuilding of Palestine, and greets it as an event of the greatest historical significance in the life of the Jewish people; and be it further

"Resolved, that this convention extends its congratulations to Dr. Chaim Weizmann and to Mr. Louis Marshall, whose leadership, vision and untiring efforts have been largely responsible for the success of the Agency negotiations."

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

(Continued from Page 3)

of the Hicem, and 4,367 were provided with employment in 1928.

The number of persons who entered the Argentine and Canada, thanks to the permits obtained by the committees of the Hicem, grew in 1928 to 2,444. Many of the immigrants assisted by the Hicem have also benefited by the material aid granted them in the form of advances, amounting in 1927 to more than $45,000, and in 1928 to over $100,000.

The efforts made by the Association to adapt the emigrants to the conditions obtaining in the countries of immigration, are shown in the language courses, and in the training given in agriculture and other occupations. Several of these efforts have yielded excellent results, while others need still to be tested.

In the second half of 1928, the Hicem began to put into operation its work of providing credits in the countries of immigration. This work was beset with technical difficulties, which the Hicem succeeded, however, in overcoming. Loans were granted accordingly to facilitate the establishment of the workers who had just arrived, and for the purchase of tickets for those persons who had not sufficient means to bring over their relatives from Eastern Europe.

These institutions were called upon to render services to the emigrants of a kind which could not be fully appreciated until the course of the year 1929.

Dr. Oscar Kohn, expressing his satisfaction with the results achieved, mentioned in particular that the activity of the Hicem was carried on during a period when the question of immigration in general was very difficult, and when restrictions bristled around the immigration movement to the Argentine, Canada, and South Africa, and when at the same time the need of Jewish emigration was more pressing than ever.

The situation was the more difficult because of the measures taken in the countries of immigration, not in connection with the Jews, but in general. It was the duty of the Hicem to watch that immigration facilities in favor of Jewish emigrants should be as wide as possible.

Dr. Joachimsohn reported to the Council on behalf of the Revision Commission, which, he said, had found all the financial operations of the Association in perfect order and to their complete satisfaction.

Leo Motzkin spoke of the fruitful results obtained by the cooperation of the Hias, Ica and Emigdirekt in the Hicem. The Administrative Council then unanimously approved the reports. It also ratified the budget of the Hicem for the year 1929, which was adopted by the Executive Committee at the end of the year.

The Council noted with regret that James Bernstein is about to return to the United States and gave expression to its recognition of his cooperation in the work and its hope that he would continue this cooperation in the ative type of worship. The Orthodox members of the congregation charged that inasmuch as money had been raised for an Orthodox house of worship and the Constitution so specified the change from the Orthodox ritual with a violation of a trust.

CHANGING ORTHODOX TO CONSERVATIVE SYNAGOGUE TRUST BREACH COURT RULE

(Continued from Page 1)

In 1928, when the case was brought to the Court of Common Pleas, Judge Powell decided the court had no jurisdiction over religious matters.

RUSSIAN MONARCHISTS IN U. S. WELCOME CONFLICT

While Russian monarchist emigrants in New York admitted frankly that they welcome the conflict between Soviet Russia and the Nationalist Government of China, seeing in it an opportunity to wage war on Soviet Russia, a group of Communists demonstrated before the Chinese Consulate, 13 Astor Place, New York.

The former Czarist officers admitted in press interviews that "orders have come for every White Russian officer to hold himself in readiness for the call to service."

The communist candidate for Mayor William Weinstone of 28 Union Square was freed after a hearing on disorderly conduct charges growing out of the demonstration in front of the office of S. S. Young, Consul General for China.

Weinstone, national secretary of the Workers Party, was given a suspended sentence. Two of the twelve arrested, Nathaniel Kaplan, 2070 Davidson Avenue, the Bronx, and Adolph Stern, 944 - 47th Street, Brooklyn, were sentenced to five days in the workhouse.

GRANDDAUGHTER OF LATE ISIDOR STRAUS BETROTHED

The engagement has been announced of Miss Evelyn Weil, granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Straus and a niece of Jesse Isidor Straus, president of R. H. Macy & Company, to Ernard W. A. Richardson, son of Mrs. Ernard Richardson and the late Captain Richardson of Glamorgan Park, Caermarthenshire, Wales. The wedding will take place next month in Rye, New York.

Miss Weil is the daughter of Mr. Richard Weil.

The Committee of Award of the Hannah Solomon Scholarship Committee of the National Council of Jewish Juniors, has announced that Miss Rose Ann Max of Baltimore has been awarded the fellowship at the Training School for Jewish Social Workers, New York City for the year beginning October 1, 1929.

United States. The president welcomed Aaron Benjamin, Mr. Bernstein's successor, whose activities on behalf of Jewish emigrants are well known.

Assists Nature—Does Not Force It

EX-LAX

The Ideal Laxative
"Chocolated" and "Fig Flavor"