Change in Policy Seen in New Regulations for Immigration to Palestine (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Apr. 19.—A new immigration policy in Palestine is indicated in the terms of a bill published today in the "Official Gazette." The bill divides immigrants into four categories, those of independent means, those whose maintenance is assured, those with definite prospects of employment, and dependents.

In the first classification there will be admitted persons who have $5,000. If they are agriculturists this sum must include land or stock or money advances by an agricultural settlement agency recognized by the government. If they are industrialists it must include machinery or cash advances by an agricultural settlement agency. Exceptions from the $5,000 provision are made for professional people who will be admitted if they have $2,500, but the immigration officials must be satisfied that a need exists for additional members of that profession; for skilled craftsmen with $1,250 provided the economic capacity of the country can absorb them; persons of secured income with $20 monthly exclusive of earned income.

Persons with assured maintenance include orphans, religious person affiliated with public institutions and students. The regulations provide that a non-Palestinian citizen leaving the country must obtain a return visa which may be granted or withheld at the discretion of the High Commissioner. Immigrants must have a passport and a document establishing their

Ritual Murder Charge Scares Jews of Cologne (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Cologne, Germany, Apr. 19.—A "ritual murder" scare among the Christians of a certain neighborhood here in Cologne, for a while threatened the safety of the Jews of that vicinity.

Hundreds of Christians invaded a Jewish store in the vicinity, yelling: "The Jew is hiding a Christian boy in order to draw blood from him for the Pesach ritual."

The father of the Christian boy who had disappeared, together with the neighbors, searched through the whole store, the cellar and the roof, while the threatening crowd outside made the situation look dangerous for a while.

Finally the lost boy returned. It was found that the Jewish storekeeper had driven away some children who were making a noise around his store, and that one of the little boys, while running, got lost in the confusion of the street traffic and so couldn't find his way back home for a while.

Hungarian Regent Releases Baron Ludwig Hatvany (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Budapest, Apr. 19.—After having served one-half of his eighteen months sentence and having paid a fine of $27,000, Baron Ludwig Hatvany, Jewish novelist and political writer, has been granted amnesty by the Regent, Admiral Horthy.

Baron Hatvany, while in Vienna, had written a series of articles which attacked the present form of government, for which he was arrested immediately upon his return to Budapest. He was at first sentenced to seven years imprisonment, which was later reduced to five, then to one year and a half.

Danger of Locust Invasion in Palestine Growing Less (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Apr. 19.—With no large swarms of locusts entering Palestine within the past three weeks the danger of the pest is growing less and with each passing day the likelihood of further invasions is lessened. With 8,000 laborers fighting locusts in various parts of the country the invasion of the pests at Jericho has been effectively stopped by poison gas and by zinc sheeting.

It is expected that they will be completely exterminated within a few days. In Transjordan a large part of the population has been mobilized for a war on the locusts while the government has issued a special stamp with the caption "locust campaign."

Alien Registration Bill Passes Senate Only to Be Recalled as Senators Continue Protracted Discussion on Immigration

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Washington, Apr. 19.—Hectic immigration developments, including a nearly successful effort of Senator Blease to force through his voluntary alien registration bill, a serious attempt by the restrictionists to seize the pending Mexican immigration bill as an opportunity to precipitate a reopening of the entire question of further immigration restriction and the possibility of a reconsideration of the national origins plan, piled on top of one another in the Senate today and yesterday during the continuation of the immigration discussion.

Senator Norbeck of North Dakota, one of the original opponents of the national origins plan, introduced an amendment, providing for a reduction from two to one and a half percent of the present 1890 census quota basis, to repeal it. Senator Copeland thwarted Senator Blease's effort to push through the adoption of the alien registration bill without debate. When the measure was reached on the calendar Senator Blease immediately moved its

Melchett Signs $30,000,000 Rouble Contract with Russia For Chemical Trust (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, Apr. 19.—A $30,000,000 rouble agreement on a two year credit basis with the Soviet government for the Imperial Chemical Trust has been signed in London by Lord Melchett, chairman of the board of directors of the Imperial Chemical Trust. Announcement of this huge contract with Russia was made by Sol Bron, former head of the Amtorg, commercial representative of Soviet Russia in the United States and recently named Soviet trade representative in Great Britain, who arrived here today.

Lord Melchett (Sir Alfred Mond) is one of the outstanding Jews of Great Britain and is among the leading English industrialists. He is president of the English Zionist Federation and at the recent meeting of the Jewish Agency was elected chairman of the Council.

Needy Jerusalem Jews Fed During Passover (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Apr. 19.—Four hundred and twenty free meal tickets were distributed twice daily to needy Jews through the Chief Rabbis of Palestine by the Beth Tanshil Haklali free kitchen during Passover. In addition to feeding the needy the kitchen also fed 65 prisoners and 39 Jewish policemen.

adoption but Senator Copeland's attention was distracted for the moment and as no one objected the bill passed without dissent.

A few moments later Senator Copeland learned of what had happened and demanded reconsideration which was granted by unanimous vote and the bill was referred back to the calendar where it may be reached for another vote at any time. In the meantime Senator Copeland has announced his intention of addressing the Senate on the bill before it comes up for a vote.

Senator Black, after pressing his amendment to totally suspend immigration for five years beginning next January, withdrew his amendment temporarily in order to accede to the wishes of those who desire to vote on prior amendments offered to repeal the national origins plan and to substitute Congressman Johnson's Mexican immigration restriction bill.

During the debate, Senator Gould, Committee, announced his opposition

Court Upholds Ruling Refusing Jewess Entrance to Palestine

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Apr. 19.—The order of Albert M. Hyamson refusing entrance to Palestine to the Jewess, Mrs.
Brandstaeter, was today upheld by the High Court before which she sued for admittance. Mr. Hyamson contended that she was not a Palestinian citizen and said that the High Commissioner had ordered him to forbid her entrance because she was on the list of undesirable persons furnished by the police.

Mrs. Brandstaeter, the wife of a Polish Jew who had lived in Palestine for nine years, arrived in Jaffa with him two weeks ago. He had a visa from the British consul in Vienna. On his arrival he was arrested and ordered to leave. The government's advocate argued that under paragraph five of the immigration ordinance, the High Commissioner or his representative, is entitled to refuse entrance into the country to undesirable persons.

Mrs. Brandstaeter's attorney pointed out that her husband had a provisional citizenship certificate and hence should be allowed to enter together with his wife.

German Reactionaries Attack Jewish Coal Baron

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, Apr. 19.—The German reactionary press has come out with a furious attack upon the "coal king" of Czechoslovakia, Ignatz Petscheck, a Jew, who owns all the Bohemian brown-coal mines, for having recently bought up the "Ostelbien" mines located in Germany near the Czech border.

The German reactionaries say that Petscheck bought these mines at the order of the Czech government in order to help free the last part of Germany which Czechoslovakia claims should belong to it, namely the Lausitz district.

Clericals Protest Inclusion of Hilsner Case in Masaryk Jubilee

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Prague, Apr. 19.—In an interpellation made in the Czechoslovakian parliament yesterday, members of the Czech Clerical party inquired why the history of President Masaryk's defence of Hilsner in the Jewish ritual murder case of 1899 was incorporated in the official souvenir book issued in honor of President Masaryk's birthday, and why this book, which lauds President Masaryk's efforts to refute the ritual murder accusation, is being distributed among school children.
Some of the clerical leaders stated that President Masaryk assumed a mistaken attitude in the Hilsner case.

Roumanian Patriarch Condemns Disorders in Universities

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Bucharest, Apr. 19.—Patriarch H. H.
Miron, one of the three Regents of Roumania during the minority of King Mihai, declared today before a delegation of students that he condemns all disorders in Roumanian higher schools and universities.

The Roumanian paper, "Tzara," reports that the Ministry of the Interior has taken steps to prevent any clashes between nationalities in Roumania which may occur on Eastern Sunday.

A dispatch to the "Adverul" states that a group of unknown young men in Galatz devastated a Jewish shop there and that the prosecuting attorney in Galatz is conducting an investigation.

Denies Resignation Was Repudiation of Religion

Replying to critics who said that he had repudiated religion, Abraham L.
Feinberg, who more than a month ago resigned from Temple Israel, declared on Friday in a speech before the Free-thinkers of America that his resignation was not to be interpreted as a repudiation of religion but as a protest against the over-organization of the synagogue which has stultified true religion.

Declaring that only a "pronounced and honestly liberal program" can revitalize the church, Dr. Feinberg declared that in such a liberal program the Bible should be considered as a "human document, sweet, precious and beautiful, but without an atom of authority beyond the inherent truth and beauty of its message." He also thought that all elements of mystery and magic should be removed from a liberalized religion which should also revise its traditional concept of God.

New Bill Would Require Alien Seeking Citizenship to Know American History

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Washington, Apr. 19.—An alien would not only have to be able to speak, read and write English understandingly but would have to possess a knowledge of United States history equivalent to that set forth in the citizenship textbook published by the Bureau of Naturalization, if the measure of Congressmen Cable, that was approved by the House Immigration Committee, becomes a law.

The Committee also approved two other bills, one provided that any individual who claims to have resumed his citizenship in this country may, upon payment of a fee of one dollar, make application to the Commissioner of Naturalization for a certificate of citizenship but such person must be a resident of the United States at the time of the application. The second bill provides that before a naturalized citizen can testify as a witness for an alien seeking naturalization he must have been naturalized for five years.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Apr. 19.—An area of 300 dunams in the Judean colony of Rishon Le Zion, 15 miles south of Jaffa, custs. The pests are thought to be part of the swarm that has been ravaging the entire Sinai Peninsula and that has just been beaten off in Egypt.

Government officials, peasants and volunteers are ready to utilize all emergency measures to stem the locusts should the invasion spread.

Final determination of the case, which has been before the court for more than week, will be made next Thursday by Judge Granville Hogan in the Circuit Court. The attorneys for those opposing the granting of an injunction told Judge Hogan that the issue was a religious one and no court can interfere and enjoin rabbis from enforcing kashruth. It was also said that the courts had no jurisdiction.

Jewish Congress Warns of Alien Registration Bill Danger

A warning that grave danger exists that the Blease Bill, for the "voluntary" registration of aliens, will be enacted into the law of the land unless liberal opinion which is opposed to the bill makes manifest its objections, was issued Friday by the American Jewish Congress to key men throughout the country.

By wire and letter sent to representatives of national and central Jewish organizations in every section of the United States, the American Jewish Congress points out that the Blease Bill for "voluntary" registration, while innocent in exterior is an entering wedge for compulsory registration and essentially a violation of the spirit of American freedom.

Sachar Takes Issue With Criticism of His History

Editor, Jewish Daily Bulletin, New York City.

Dear Sir:

In your issue of Friday, April 11th, you call attention to Rabbi H. G. Enelow's review of my history of the Jews and quote his criticism of a historian who will not use at least the Jewish Daily Bulletin as a source. The remark was occasioned by the fact that, in the Rabbi's judgment, there was not sufficient space given to Mr. Louis Marshall, the late president of his congregation.

I have no desire to enter into a controversy with Rabbi Enelow over his review. I merely wish to point out that his criticism was both unjustified and unwarranted. I used all the source material that any trained historian would be expected to use dealing with the post-war period, and the Jewish Daily Bulletin is much too valuable to neglect. I went further. The whole discussion of Mr. Marshall's negotiations at the Peace Conference came from Mr. Marshall himself. He revised the original manuscript, and the account in my history is almost a literal transcription from his letter. I do not know how one can come closer to the sources "even though one writes engagingly."

Faithfully yours,

to a complete shutting off of immigration because, he said, he did not think it right and because such a plan would not pass the House.

All suggestions to limit the debate and force a vote by a certain date have thus far failed and it is altogether uncertain how long the present discussion will last. At any time Senator Allen may offer his selective immigration bill as a solution of the entire problem, both Mexican and general, and it is quite possible that the Senate, worn out with the discussion, may accept it because of its endorsement by the administration.
