

Vol. VII. Price 4 Cents.

Friday, May 9, 1930.

Entered as 2nd. Class Matter No. 1659.
at Post Office, New York, N. Y.

Plan Acceptable to All Concerned in Palestine Considered by Britain

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, May 8.—The British government is now engaged in considering the Palestine question and hopes to achieve a settlement which will be acceptable to all concerned, declared Dr. Drummond Shiels, under-secretary for the Colonies, in the House of Commons. The statement was made after a motion to adjourn the House by F. S. Cocks, Labor M.P., in which he directed the attention of Parliament to the position of the Palestine Arabs and again stressed the necessity for the publication of the Sir Henry MacMahon correspondence. He argued that the publication of this correspondence was essential before the House comes to a decision on the report of the Palestine Inquiry Commission.

Dr. Shiels pointed out that the government's attitude was not one of easy optimism but he said it was determined to find a solution if it could and it appealed to the House of Commons to have confidence in the government's good intentions and to believe that not by raking up controversies of the past but by tackling the difficulties of the present and the future could a satisfactory conclusion be reached.

The under-secretary for the Colonies then recalled Winston Churchill's statement in the House in 1921, wherein he pointed out that the correspondence with the Sheriff of Mecca was long and of an inconclusive character and that it ended with the entry of the Sheriff into the War before any definite or formal agreement had been reached. It was also mentioned that Churchill had said that whatever British pledges had been made to the Sheriff of Mecca were given to him alone and not to the Palestine Arabs.

Succeeding governments, Dr. Shiels showed, had also considered it undesirable to publish the correspondence between Sir Henry and the Sheriff of Mecca and the present government was

(Continued on Page 4)

Plan to Establish Relation Between Yiddish and German

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Munich, May 8.—In order to determine the exact relationship of Yiddish to German, the State Academy for Scientific Research in Germanism is planning to establish a research department in the Yiddish language and folklore. The Academy has invited Jewish scientific circles to submit for the investigation any material they have.

It also asks whether Jewish circles will be interested in financing the Yiddish section. The German Language Society has in principle decided to participate in the investigation.

30,000 Declassed Ukrainian Jewish Families on Land

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, May 8.—Over 30,000 declassified Ukrainian Jews have been settled on the land by the Ozet, society for settling the Jews on the land, according to a report published in the Charkov "Shtern" on the occasion of the fifth anniversary of the Ukrainian Ozet. The report shows that more than 8,000 Jewish families have been settled in the Ukrainian Jewish colonies and nearly 18,000 families have received land in the vicinity of the villages where they previously lived, thus making it unnecessary for them to emigrate.

Over 10,000 families have been settled in Crimea and in Bira Bidjan. The report showed too that while in 1926 the Ukrainian Ozet had a membership of 36,539, including a thousand non-Jews who formed three percent of the total, now on the fifth anniversary the membership is 175,000 with 53,000 non-Jews or 34 percent of the total.

Targufromos Jews Arrested for Clash with Cuzists

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Bucharest, May 8.—Nine Jews from Targufromos have been arrested and brought to Jassy where they are being charged with participating in the clash with Cuzists in Targufromos last week in which a number of the Cuzists were injured. The clash occurred when the Cuzists, returning from the successful parliamentary campaign of their leader, Professor Cuza, maltreated an aged Jew and then broke windows in Jewish shops.

Famous Jews Urge Support for Yiddish Institute

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vilna, May 8.—The honorary executive of the Yiddish Scientific Institute, which includes in its membership Eduard Bernstein, Dr. Albert Einstein, Simon Dubnow, Sigmund Freud, Dr. Moses Gaster, Professor Edward Sapir, Dr. Chaim Zhitlovsky and David Jacob Simonson, have issued an appeal to the various Jewish communities to support the institute on the occasion of its fifth anniversary.

The appeal pointed out that the Institute was a young and growing organization with branches in seventeen countries. It already has a number of major achievements to its credit in history, philology, economics, ethnography and bibliography. Many non-Jewish scientists are sympathetic to the Institute's work of saving the monuments of the Jewish past and the gems of Jewish folklore.

Says Transjordanian Emir Invited Jews to Come There If Palestine Agreement Failed

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, May 8.—If the Jews cannot reach an agreement with the Palestine Arabs, an understanding is possible with the Arabs of Transjordan, Iraq and Arabia, who are poorer and need the assistance of the Jews, the Emir Abdullah is reported to have said in 1926 to a Bulgarian physician by the name of Dr. Mezan, according to the Hebrew daily "Doar Hayom," which publishes the Emir's statements.

According to the "Doar Hayom" the Emir said: "Let the Jews come to Transjordan. I myself guarantee their security. Let us all work for the benefit of the country." Ahmed Pasha, who was present at the interview, is said later to have told Dr. Mezan that the ban on foreigners buying land in Transjordan would be lifted and that the Jews should settle there at once.

He also is said to have told Dr. Mezan that the Jews could buy 50,000 dunams of land as a beginning, establish a paper in Amman in order to make friends and to take a concession from the Emir to build houses for the officials. The "Doar Hayom" says that the Emir was sure that Dr. Mezan was an envoy of the Zionist Organization but Dr. Mezan denied it. Later Ahmed Pasha is reported to have unsuccessfully approached the Zionist executive with a similar project.

Introduce Anti-Semitic Prayers in Schools of Thuringia

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, May 8.—Prayers directed against "aliens to our race, the Jews who demoralize the German people," have been introduced into the school prayers of Thuringia by Minister of Cults Frick. The prayer calls on the "Lord to protect us from people of a foreign element."

When the Socialist members of the Thuringian Landtag raised the question Minister of Cults Frick replied, "I sincerely declare that the prayers are directed against aliens to our race, the Jews who demoralize the German people." The Socialists then declared that the anti-Semitic prayers were contrary to the Reich's constitution and that the Reich government must therefore prohibit them.

Warburg and Rosenwald Get Bavarian Museum Honors

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Munich, May 8.—Felix Warburg and Julius Rosenwald have both been awarded gold rings of the Deutsche Museum which the Bavarian Government bestows periodically to individuals for service and support of the museum. The institute is one of the leading technical museums in Europe.

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN

Published every day in the week except Saturday and holidays by the

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN CO.

Executive and Editorial Office
611 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Jacob Landau President
Samuel Bienenstock Treasurer
Sylvain Birnbaum Secretary

Vol. VII. Friday, May 9, 1930. No. 1659.

Member of Jewish Telegraphic Agency

New York 611 Broadway
London 244 High Holborn
Paris 42 Rue Le Peletier
Berlin Eisenbahnstrasse 6
Warsaw Ulica Aleja Jerozolimski 6
Jerusalem Hasolel Bldg.

Subscription Rates

	U.S. and Canada	Foreign
One Year	$10.00	$15.00
Six Months	6.00	8.00
One Month	1.00	1.50

Entered as second-class matter Nov. 14, 1929, at the Post Office at New York, N. Y., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Copyrighted

Native Town in Welcome to Zukor, Movie Magnate

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Budapest, May 8—An ovation that rivalled the most extravagant concepts of a motion picture version, was accorded to Adolph Zukor, head of the Paramount Film Co., on his return to his native village, Ricse, yesterday. An arch, erected especially in his honor by the residents of the town, was only one indication of the admiration the inhabitants of Ricse felt for their most famous citizen and incidentally generous contributor. A shower of flowers followed the automobile in which Mr. and Mrs. Zukor were riding as it passed the arch on their way to the one-story cottage in which they formerly lived.

Most of the celebrations in honor of the Zukors were held in the synagogue, where the Jewish and non-Jewish inhabitants of the town participated. Mr. Zukor has not only interests but has also been equally as generous to the Christian church and undertakings of the town.

Rabbi Felicitates Bishop at Banquet Tendered Latter

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Providence, R. I., May 8—Rabbi Samuel M. Gup of Beth-El, this city, delivered an address of felicitations to Bishop James De Wolf Perry at a banquet tendered the Bishop by the Churchmen's League of Rhode Island on Tuesday, to the occasion of the Bishop's election as head of the Episcopal Church of America. This is the first time that a rabbi has ever been invited formally by a Christian body of laymen to extend the congratulations of his people to a Christian leader upon his elevation to the highest post within the gift of his Church.

Women Pledge $159,950 to New York's Quota of Allied Jewish Campaign

The sum of $159,950 was pledged to the New York Allied Jewish Campaign by women who attended a tea given by Mrs. Felix M. Warburg at her home, Wednesday, May 7, in the afternoon, to organize the Women's Division of which she is chairman. Encouraged by the prompt raising of so large a part of the quota of $250,000 assigned to the Women's Division by James N. Rosenberg, chairman of the campaign, more than 50 women present voted to make every effort during the next few weeks to exceed their quota by a wide margin.

Mrs. Warburg's own contribution to the campaign is $50,000. In addition she announced yesterday afternoon that she would give $100 for every $1,000 the Women's Division raised other than her own contribution. Another large contribution announced at the tea was $15,000 a year for two years from Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff, widow of the philanthropist and mother of Mrs. Warburg. Mrs. Sol Rosenbloom, Mrs. Paul Baerwald and Mrs. Frederick Brown each gave $5,000. New York Chapter of the Hadassah gave $25,000.

The purposes of the campaign, improvement of the economic, social, cultural and physical welfare of the impoverished Jews of Eastern Europe and the development of Palestine, in cooperation with the British Government to facilitate the establishment there of a Jewish homeland were explained by Mrs. Warburg, who was the chairman of the afternoon, Mr. Warburg, and Mrs. Henry Moskowitz, a member of the Women's Division advisory committee. Of the $6,000,000 sought nationally, $3,500,000 will be administered by the Joint Distribution Committee in Eastern Europe and $2,500,000 by the Jewish Agency.

The following is a list of the contributions: Mrs. Felix M. Warburg, $50,000; the New York Hadassah, $25,000; Mrs. Jacob Schiff, $30,000; Mrs. Paul Baerwald, $5,000; Mrs. Frederick Brown, $5,000; Mrs. Sol Rosenbloom, $5,000; Mrs. Bernard Mayer, $2,500; Mrs. Philip Lewisohn, $1,200.

Contribution of $1,000 each were given by: Mrs. Julius Bear, Mrs. Arnold Gottlieb, Mrs. Jerome Hanauer, Mrs. Charles Hirshon, Mrs. Charles I. Liebman, Mrs. Isaac Polstein, Mrs. S. S. Prince, Mrs. Albert D. Samuels, Mrs. Nathan Straus, Jr., and Mrs. Stephen S. Wise, the Lillian Schwarz Memorial Fund of the Hadassah, two anonymous, and one from the girls of the Young Women's Hebrew Association. Mrs. Mortimer Schiff, Mrs. Henry Bernheim, and Mrs. P. J. King, $500 each; Mrs. Louis S. Wolf, $250; Mrs. Sidney Bernheimer, Mrs. Walter Emerich, Mrs. Bernard Naumburg, $100 each; Mrs. Leonard Davidow and Mrs. G. L. Bear, $50 each.

Joint Ready to Establish Permanent Relief Works

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, May 8—The Joint Distribution Committee is prepared to assist in the creation of permanent relief works in Poland, declared Dr. Bernard Kahn, European director of the Joint, at a conference here today with Drs. Sh. Goldmann, Max Soloweitschik and Maurice Mayzel on the catastrophic situation of Polish Jewry.

As an indication of the extreme poverty among Polish Jewry, Dr. Goldmann pointed out that the annual budget of the Berlin Jewish community was 12,000,000 marks while the entire budget of all Polish Jewish communities, with a total of three million people, was considerably less.

Jewish Traders Disappointed at Finance Chief's Report

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vilna, May 8—Jewish traders here are bitterly disappointed at the declaration of the vice-minister of finance, M. Skarzynski, that the complaints regarding over-taxation are unfounded and that the Jewish merchants of Vilna are prosperous. Skarzynski is said to have visited Vilna to investigate the numerous complaints about over-taxation.

Anti-Semitic Forces Replacing Allied Troops in Rhineland

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, May 8—Anti-Semitic hakenkreuzer forces are replacing the Allied troops who are evacuating the Western Rhineland, according to the stories in the Rhineland press. An unrestrained anti-Semitic agitation is being carried on there by the National Socialists. The repeated insults to Jews visiting there has reduced the number of tourists while the electorate has shown increasing signs of anti-Semitism.

Hear Police Reorganization Report Is Completed

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, May 8—The report on the reorganization of the Palestine force by Inspector-General Dowbiggin, who was taken from his police post in Ceylon to investigate and recommend changes in Palestine, has been completed and he is leaving Palestine next week, says a Reuter dispatch from Jerusalem.

Palestine Maccabeans to Present Belgians with Parchment Greeting

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, May 8—A motorcycle trip to Europe by way of Syria has been started by six members of the Maccabeans, the Jewish sport club, in order to present a parchment address from the Palestine Maccabeans on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the latter organization. The trip will take them through Turkey, Bulgaria, Italy, France, Switzerland, Holland and Belgium. They will also help the European Maccabeans prepared for the world Maccabiad in Palestine in 1932.

Eleazar Silver Elected President of Orthodox Rabbis' Union of U. S.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Lakewood, May 8—Rabbi Eleazar Silver of Springfield, Mass., was unanimously elected and installed as president for the ensuing year of the Union of Orthodox Rabbis of the United States and Canada when the Union's 29th annual convention adjourned here today after three and a half days of sessions. Following the close of last year's convention when Rabbi Israel Rosenberg, although elected, declined to serve as president, Rabbi Silver was chosen to fill the vacancy.

Rabbi Joseph Konvitz of Newark; Rabbi C. I. Block of Jersey City and Rabbi Chaim Fischl Epstein of Brooklyn were chosen vice-presidents. Rabbi C. B. Motelivitz of Harrisburg, Pa., was named treasurer; Rabbi M. B. Tomashoff of Brooklyn, financial secretary; Rabbi L. Seltzer of Brooklyn, general secretary and Rabbi Isaac Siegel of Jersey City, chairman of the executive committee.

Before the election of officers there was discussion as to how to aid Rabbi D. B. Shapiro, Chief Rabbi of Kovno, in his determination to renew the spiritual life of the Jews in that country through aid to Yeshivas and religious schools.

Unless immediate financial aid is given, many yeshivas here and abroad will have to close, so precarious is their situation, reported Rabbi Epstein of Chicago. A proposal for a federation of yeshivas which would make a joint appeal for funds, was tabled for future consideration, following the visit of a delegation of American rabbis to Europe and Palestine to make a close study of the situation abroad.

Among the resolutions adopted was one to ask the Allied Jewish Campaign for $250,000 to be applied to Yeshiva relief. Rabbi Silver told the convention that the leaders of the campaign had informed him that they will grant sixty per cent of that sum and he believes the full amount can be obtained. "If this sum appears large to you," he declared, "I tell you that we cannot afford to cheapen the Torah. With all the force at our command we must demand this. The yeshivas provide the light of faith for our people."

In other resolutions that were approved, the rabbis condemned the alien registration bills, opposed the calendar reform and urged that steps be taken to interest the younger rabbis in the aims of the orthodox Union. A plan for a sustaining membership of the Union was also ratified.

Resolutions asking strict supervision of kashruth for public banquets, especially those marking the opening of a drive, and an appeal to orthodox parents not to have conservative or reform rabbis perform marriage ceremonies for their children but to have this rite performed only by full-fledged orthodox rabbis, were adopted.

Advisability of Accepting Aid of Non-Jewish Committee in Boston's $250,000 Jewish Philanthropies Drive Arouses Dispute

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Boston, May 8—A dispute has arisen among Boston Jews as to the advisability of accepting the aid of a non-Jewish committee that has been formed to help the Associated Jewish Philanthropies of Boston raise the $250,000 needed to cover its deficit. A letter which appeared in the "Jewish Advocate" of April 25th, signed by Moses Mishel, expressed disapproval of this action. In answer to this Sidney Dreyfus, chairman of the $250,000 Emergency Campaign, in the "Advocate" of May 2, defends the solicitation of funds from non-Jews on the ground that the Jews of Boston have not done their duty towards the Jewish charities of that city.

The attitude of Mr. Dreyfus is shared by the "Advocate" in an editorial in the same issue. The "Advocate" also reprints editorials from the "Boston Herald" and "Boston Post," which emphasize the fact that Boston Jews have always supported non-Jewish philanthropies and that it is the turn now of the Gentiles to give the Jews of Boston a helping hand.

"We Jews of America always prided ourselves upon the fact that we take care of our own needy ones, and Boston, to my knowledge, is the first big city in the country that broke the old tradition," says Mr. Mishel in his letter. "It is indeed a disgrace to our community that our philanthropies are overlooked while we spend hundreds of thousands of dollars on golf clubs and in other places where we feed our bodies and neglect our souls."

"It is a sad commentary upon the leadership of the Boston Jewish community, that instead of making an effort to reduce some of the cost of our institutions to save overlapping and to do away with unnecessary bureaus, etc., that they saw fit to appeal to our Gentile friends and were sordid enough to quote even percentages of non-Jews that were being treated in the clinics and the beds of the Beth Israel Hospital—as much as to say, we take care of so many of your people, now we want you to give us many dollars—regardless of our previous statements made to the community that with the building of the Beth Israel Hospital, we are paying an indebtedness to the non-Jewish community of Boston."

In answer to this Mr. Dreyfus writes:

"Instead of criticizing what we are doing, let Mr. Mishel review and realize the facts which led up to the organization of such a non-Jewish committee. He knows that the campaign for this year's expenses has been going on for months, and yet we have not been able to meet the quota—the irreducible minimum necessary for the maintenance of our present charities. Some of our institutions are among the finest in the country, and yet we must continuously beg for their proper maintenance!"

"Charity knows no race, creed or color. My personal charity list contains no less than 79 organizations, embracing every kind of charity appeal for all people, regardless of their religion. Since 1917, no appeal has been made to the non-Jews of the city for any kind of contribution to Jewish charity. On the other hand, many Christian institutions are constantly appealing to us for help, and many of us are glad to respond."

The "Advocate" editorial says among other things:

"In the first place, it must be made clear, in unmistakable language, that if Boston Jewry had shown the proper spirit of community service and had adequately supported its work in behalf of the poor and sick and the educational and recreational institutions needed for the spiritual growth of our people, it would not be at all necessary to ask any non-Jew for a contribution. But the sad fact is that until now, the Jews of Boston have neither given their time nor their money in any degree adequate to support the fine structure of social service which has been built up over a period of thirty-five years."

"In the second place, none of the officials associated with the Jewish philanthropies, nor any active leader in the Jewish community, asked that such a non-Jewish committee be formed. This was purely a voluntary offer on the part of a number of prominent Gentiles who, in sheer admiration for the splendid work done by our philanthropies, and by the Beth Israel Hospital in particular, volunteered to form a committee to solicit funds from non-Jews. . . . It certainly would have been ungracious to rebuff these public-spirited men."

Nathan Straus Gets Social Science Medal

The National Institute of Social Science yesterday conferred its Gold Medal on four citizens, three men and one woman, for outstanding services rendered in various fields of activity, one of whom was Nathan Straus. He was honored in recognition of his distinguished and widespread social service rendered in behalf of humanity, and in particular for organizing and maintaining the system of distribution of pasteurized milk for the poor of New York City, and for a like service to the needy in other cities in this country and abroad.

Ben Zvi Summons Paper for Unfounded Charge

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, May 8—The Arab paper "Meraat Al Shark" has been called to account by the Jewish labor leader, Ben Zvi, for an article stating that Zvi "as the leader of the Communists had called the youth to hold to the principles of Jabotinsky, namely to drive the Arabs from Palestine by force as the Americans drove out the Indians."

Press Applauds Possible Selection of Cardozo for U. S. Supreme Court Bench

The possibility that Chief Justice Benjamin N. Cardozo of the New York State Court of Appeals may be appointed to the United States Supreme Court bench, following rejection of Judge John J. Parker, is mentioned in the "New York Evening Post" and the "New York Evening Telegram," both of which papers highly approve such a choice.

The "Post" says that there is nothing to prevent President Hoover "from naming the most distinguished American jurist not on the Supreme Court bench, Chief Justice Benjamin N. Cardozo . . . and receiving the plaudits of almost all factions in the Senate."

"He . . . would be satisfactory to the regular Republicans who look upon him in a rather non-partisan light, although he is a Democrat."

The "Telegram" says, after discussing the rejection of Parker:

"There can be only one right man. He must be the best man in the country for this high responsibility. He must be the most eminent jurist."

"Happily, that man is known and available. Benjamin Cardozo is the man. Wherever men discuss the Supreme Court vacancy his name is to be heard."

"Judge Cardozo does not belong to New York alone. He has served the nation. The United States is fortunate in having such a man to call upon at this time. We commend his name to President Hoover."

Women's League for Palestine Holds New-Member Luncheon

The Women's League for Palestine closed the third year of its activities with a New-Member luncheon at the Hotel Astor on Wednesday. "The object of this organization," explained Mrs. Rose Blumenthal, president of the League, "is to provide a home in Haifa for the working women and girls, to contain dormitories, a kitchen, social hall and library." A notable gift this year was a parcel of land, from Baron Edmond de Rothschild, of the Hadar Hacarmel, valued at $10,000. A prominent architect has been engaged to draw up plans and specifications, which are already on their way. It is hoped that within a few months, fifty girls will be provided with a home.

Mrs. Jerome Trier, president of the Young Folk's League of the Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, was the next speaker and Mrs. Richard Gottheil, Honorary President, gave the parting message. The League, after an existence of only three years, has thirteen groups organized in different communities in Greater New York, with a membership of nearly 1,000 and an active and thriving Junior group. It also has on hand $25,000 with which to begin building.

Uncover Old Jewish Cemetery

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Dusseldorf, May 8—An old and forgotten Jewish cemetery has been uncovered here during building operations in the center of the city.

Plan Acceptable to All Concerned in Palestine Considered by Britain

(Continued from Page 1)

now only adopting the attitude of its predecessors. No object would be served by reopening the subject, declared Dr. Shiels, the government taking the view that it had no practical bearing on the constitutional and political aspects of the Palestine question.

Supporting Cocks' appeal, Fenner Brockway, also a Laborite, mentioned the fact that there were 39 prisoners in the Jerusalem jail on a hunger strike who demanded the abolition of the death sentences on August rioters, the abolition of flogging, handcuffing and forced labor for political prisoners and urged a special grading of prisoners. Brockway said that a better atmosphere would be created in Palestine if improved treatment were accorded to political prisoners.

Replying to Brockway, Dr. Shiels admitted that the prison building was old but he assured the House that the government was anxious to see that conditions were improved and it is making every effort to make the prison administration beyond criticism. He said that he had no information about the hunger strike but promised to make inquiries.

A number of Labor M.P.'s including J. J. McShane, G. L. Mander and Gordon Lang, described Dr. Shiels' reply as unsatisfactory and pressed the government to reconsider its decision to publish the MacMahon correspondence.

Announcing the Opening of

OUR NINTH OFFICE

FIFTH AVENUE at 17th STREET

YOU ARE INVITED to visit our New Fifth Avenue Office (Fifth Ave., cor 17th St.) THE MODERN INVESTMENT and Loan Corporation was organized in 1924, under the Banking Laws of the State of New York.

IT HAS CONTINUED to expand because it meets a real public need through its two-fold service of extending loans for useful purposes and of receiving funds for investment.

LOANS ARE MADE to merchants and wage earners from $50.00 to $5,000 at legal interest rates. Our Investment Certificates earn daily interest at the rate of 5½% per annum.

WE NOW HAVE nine offices in Greater New York and are at all times ready to place our service at your disposal in a most courteous and efficient manner.

Modern Investment and Loan Corp.

INDUSTRIAL BANKING

RESOURCES $20,000,000.00

OTHER OFFICES

NEW YORK
170 Nassau Street
(Opposite City Hall)

249 West 34th Street
(Between 7th and 8th Aves.)

318 Grand Street
(Corner Orchard St.)

BROOKLYN
1697 Pitkin Avenue
(Corner Rockaway Ave.)

87 Graham Avenue
(Corner Seigel)

12 West 28th Street
(Corner Broadway)

Chanin Building
(42nd St. and Lexington Ave.)

BRONX
332 East 149th Street