

Vol. VII. Price 4 Cents.

Tuesday, June 24, 1930.

Entered as 2nd Class Matter at Post Office, New York, N. Y. No. 1695.

Wailing Wall Commission Opens First Session; Jewish Case to Start Wednesday (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 23—The international Wailing Wall Commission here to investigate Moslem and Jewish claims to the Wall, held its first session today. The Arabs proposed fourteen representatives at the hearings and Emil Loeffgren, the chairman, informed the press that after the first meeting the Jews will probably have an equal number.

Yellin Applauds Neutrality

At the opening session, after the speech of M. Loeffgren, David Yellin, one of those representing the Jews, welcomed the Commission, applauding the neutrality of its composition. He emphasized that the Jews ask only unrestricted right of worship at the ancient Wall. Auni Bey, of the Arab council, said that the Moslem world is anxious to assist but he declared that

(Continued on Page 3)

Soviets Planning to Release Rabbi Lazarev (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, June 23—The correspondent of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency has learned that the Soviet government intends to recall Rabbi Lazarev, Chief Rabbi of Leningrad, from his exile in Narim, permitting him to reside in Soviet Russia but not in Leningrad, Moscow or four other centers.

Rabbi Lazarev was arrested on February 26 by the Russian secret police on the charge of maintaining illegal connections with Rabbinical organizations abroad. On April 3, Rabbi Lazarev was found guilty and was sentenced to ten years exile in a concentration camp.

The members of the large synagogue of Leningrad were permitted today by the local Soviet to turn it again into a place of worship. The chairman of the synagogue, the well-known lawyer Gurewitsch, who was arrested when the synagogue was confiscated, has not yet been released. It is understood that the milder attitude of the Soviet government is due to the decision not to combat religion, but to confine such activities to peaceful anti-religious propaganda.

Reserve Decision on "Doar Hayom's" Reappearance (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 23—The Arab paper, "Jamal Al Arabia," which had been suspended last week by the government for inciting articles will appear again by government permission tomorrow. Decision on the Hebrew daily, "Doar Hayom," which was also suspended, has been reserved by the High Commissioner until the week-end.

Kishinev Paper Gives More Details on Attacks on Jews in Baltza; Police Inactive (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, June 23—The Hungarian Telegraphic Agency reports from Bucharest that Jewish members of the Roumanian parliament today introduced to Vaida Voevod, Minister of the Interior, a Jewish deputation who protested against the continued anti-Semitic disturbances in the Baltza district and claimed that the authorities, in spite of the daily occurrences, do not take any measures against the aggressive anti-Semitism.

The deputation from Baltza, where a number of Jews were seriously hurt last week by anti-Semites, charged that the crown prosecutor is considerate to the anti-Semites but is instituting action against the Jews who were attacked, accusing them of creating a public disturbance.

The stories of anti-Semitic excesses in the Baltza district are confirmed in the Kishinev paper, "Bessarabskoye Slovo," which has just been received here. The paper says that 20 Jews were seriously hurt. Those injured include Berish Glick, Ben Zion Chwines, the entire Urman family and a woman, Zipa Katz. The Kishinev newspaper reports that some of the Jews were injured in the streets while others were beaten and stoned in their homes when the Cuzists followed them. Many of those hurt were attacked at Briatun-gasse No. 38, where a Christian neighbor who looked Jewish was also attacked.

The paper states that at a protest meeting of Jews, convened the same evening in the Exchange Hall, some of the injured Jews were present. A committee of 20 has been appointed to intervene with Bucharest to ask that the officials be changed because, the paper says, it was proven that police stood by passively while the Cuzists attacked. The police are also said to have disguised their numbers to avoid identification. An audience with King Carol is to be asked by the committee.

Arab Who Sought to Free Condemned Brother Bailed (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 23—Achmed Hedjazi, the brother of Fuad Hedjazi, the latter one of the three Arabs hanged last week at Acre for the murder of Jews during last Summer's riots, who attempted at the last minute to gain his brother's reprieve by confessing that he killed the Jews for which his brother was convicted, has been released on bail.

Seventeen of the Safed Arabs serving life terms have been transferred from the Jerusalem prison to Acre.

Mandates Commission Asks England to Carry Out Her Obligations in Palestine (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Geneva, June 23—The Mandates Commission of the League of Nations has concluded its Palestine session, unanimously adopting the observations, without important changes of the draft submitted by the editorial commission.

The observations deal with the Palestine disturbances of last Summer, the annual report and the various petitions, whereby the attitude of the British government during the disturbances is criticized and demanding the energetic execution of all obligations under the Palestine Mandate which are recognized as compatible.

The observations will be published after the minutes of the Palestine session are published and after the observations are submitted to the British government and possibly also to the Council of the League of Nations. The publication can therefore be expected by the end of July for the consideration of the council at its September session. The fact that the observations were unanimously adopted may mean that the Zionist friends made concessions to the less friendly members of the Mandates Commission and it is not likely that the Mandates Commission exercised strong pressure upon the British government in its observations.

Hebrew Press Indifferent to Special Zionist Congress (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 23—The Hebrew press here is lukewarm and almost indifferent to the prospects of either an ordinary or extraordinary World Zionist Congress this year. The Zionist Executive has asked the members of the Zionist Actions Committee to register by cable their opinions as to a congress this year. The next congress is ordinarily not due until 1931.

The "Davar" says, "The congress hulahaloo will not extricate us from our difficulties. We must mobilize all our forces. The shock registered in the Diaspora is only a beginning and it has produced some results in Geneva and Washington." The "Ha'Aretz" argues that the present constitutional conditions are incomplete without the Jewish Agency's council. "The extended Jewish Agency, not the Zionist Organization, is the political representative of the Jewish people vis a vis the world."

Rabbi Remikovsky Dead (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, June 23—Rabbi Benjamin Elias Remikovsky of Siemiatich died here yesterday at the age of 58. The body will be taken to the Rabbi's home town, Siemiatich, for the funeral.

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN

Published every day in the week except Saturday and holidays by the

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN CO.

Executive and Editorial Office

611 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Jacob Landau President
Samuel Hinstock Treasurer
Sylvain Birnbaum Secretary

Vol. VII. Tuesday, June 24, 1930. No. 1695.

Member of Jewish Telegraphic Agency

New York 611 Broadway
London 241 High Holborn
Paris 42 Rue Le Peletier
Berlin Eisenbahnstrasse 6
Warsaw Ulica Aleje Jerozolimski Nr. 18
Jerusalem Hasolei Bldg.

Subscription Rates

	U.S. and Canada	Foreign
One Year	$10.00	$15.00
Six Months	6.00	8.00
One Month	1.00	1.50

Entered as second-class matter Nov. 14, 1929, at the Post Office at New York, N. Y., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Copyrighted

Jewish Commission of Jewish Agency in Session

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, June 23—The British government must be impressed with the fact that the Jewish National Home in Palestine is impossible without men and land, declared Lord Melchett, president of the English Zionist Federation and chairman of the political commission of the Jewish Agency which opened an urgent session here today. Lord Melchett pointed out that in fact "the Mandate without these essentials is a contradiction. In the meanwhile Jewry must not relax its efforts, but on the contrary must concentrate its energies on overcoming the present difficulties."

The present political situation regarding Palestine was surveyed by Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of the Jewish Agency. In a lengthy speech he reported in detail on all the occurrences in the political field since the last meeting of the political commission in November 1929. He gave a full account of the negotiations conducted by the Jewish Agency with the British government and of his own activities during the period. Dr. Weizmann criticized the attitude of the British government, referring particularly to the temporary suspension of the labor immigration schedule.

Other speakers included Maurice Hexter of the Palestine executive of the Jewish Agency, David Ben Gurion, president of the General Federation of Jewish Labor in Palestine; Meyer Dizengoff, mayor of Tel Aviv. Others attending the meeting included members of the Zionist Executive, James Rothchild, d'Avigdor Goldsmid, M. Goldman, Berthold Feiwel, Bernard Kahn, G. Landau, Kurt Blumenfeld, Leo Motzkin and H. Farbstien.

Government Officials Must Quit Moslem Youth Associations

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 23—Government officials must resign from membership in the Moslem Youth Associations, the Arab paper "El Hayat" reports.

Building Up of Jewish Background in Growing Generation Is Urged at Jewish Education Council's National Conference

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Port Jervis, N. Y., June 23—The building up of a Jewish background in the growing Jewish generation is the concern of all Jewish communities, speakers pointed out at the opening session of the Fifth Annual Conference of the National Council for Jewish Education held at the Central Jewish Institute Camps here today. Delegates, experts in Jewish education and directors of important institutions in various cities of the country were in attendance.

The first session was given over to reports on studies and research of Jewish educational problems in a number of Jewish cities. Dr. Alexander M. Dushkin of Chicago presided at this session. The surveys presented traced the problem of Jewish education during the past five years in Omaha, Buffalo, Montreal, Boston, Detroit, Camden, Wilmington and Scranton, and Trenton. The surveys were delivered by Dr. Dushkin, on Omaha; Louis Hurwich, director of the Bureau of Jewish Education of Boston, on Buffalo and Montreal; Dr. Leo L. Honor, director of the College of Jewish Studies of Chicago, on Boston; and Ben Rosen, director, Associated Talmud Torahs of Philadelphia, on Detroit and other cities.

Education Community Responsibility

It was the consensus of opinion in these reports that in an increasing measure the responsibility for promoting the educational program is becoming a community responsibility rather than the function of individual synagogues or special groups within the community. This factor, the speakers stated, has resulted not alone in securing greater funds for the development of this work but it has made communities more "education-minded" and it has tended to break down the great indifference to Jewish education.

Indifference Noted

One of the greatest drawbacks to the development of Jewish education in this country, it was declared, was the indifference of parents towards having their children attend Jewish schools. This indifference, the speakers announced, is particularly devastating in its effect in breaking up the Jewish home in America. The surveys also pointed out that in the number of cities investigated there are from 30% to 60% of the children in those communities who are receiving a Jewish education.

Jewish History Inquiry

The second session held in the afternoon was devoted to reports on "Jewish History Inquiry." A. P. Schoolman, Executive Director of the Central Jewish Institute and Camps, presided. Dr. Julius B. Maller, director of Educational Research on the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, submitted a report on "Testing the Knowledge of Jewish History." This study, Dr. Maller stated, is based on tests given to 5,000 Jewish children whose ages range from 9 to 16 in Jewish schools in New York, Cincinnati, Cleveland and other large cities throughout the United States. The study revealed that the children tested knew about one-third of what they learned. Dr. Maller reported that this is slightly lower than what was found in the secular schools. He also found that knowledge did not always increase with length of stay in schools.

Results of Test

On the whole the children, according to Dr. Maller, seemed to be better able to repeat facts than to interpret events in Jewish history. This is probably due to the fact, he pointed out, that insufficient time is given to instruction in Jewish religious schools, and further that insufficient emphasis is placed on the idea of continuity in the instruction of Jewish history. Dr. Maller also discovered an interesting sex difference in that boys scored higher than girls, age for age and grade for grade.

Dr. Emanuel Garoran, educational director of the Department of Synagogue School Extension of Cincinnati, spoke on "Recent Tendencies in the Teaching of History." He said that one of the most important problems confronting those who are interested in the teaching of Jewish history is that of finding out what ought to be taught.

Cites Work of Members

Rabbi Jacob B. Pollak, secretary of the National Council for Jewish Education, reported on Educational Contributions made by the members of the Council and Bureaus with which members of the Council are connected. This report revealed the great variety of educational activities in which the members have been engaged. Among those especially cited were: Dr. Julius B. Maller and Rabbi Pollak for the publication of a series of objective Jewish History Tests; Dr. Jacob S. Golub for the publication of a text book for the Junior High Schools; and Ben Eddin for the publication of a Jewish child home library.

Davis, Palestine Treasurer, to Be Acting High Commissioner

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 23—Steuart Spencer Davis, treasurer of the Palestine government, will become acting High Commissioner of the country when High Commissioner Chancellor leaves the country at the end of this week. Mr. Davis has been prominently mentioned as the next chief-secretary of Palestine to succeed Harry C. Luke, who was recently appointed lieutenant-governor of Malta.

Mr. Davis has had a long career as a British colonial official. He was in the customs and treasury department of St. Kitts, a British West Indian island. In 1901 he was named assistant treasurer of the Gold Coast and in 1916 was named chief treasurer of Tanganyika Territory, formerly British East Africa. In 1919 he was acting chief secretary of Tanganyika.

Wailing Wall Commission Opens First Session; Jewish Case to Start Wednesday

(Continued from Page 1)

he is not entitled to undertake to agree in advance to the Commission's verdict.

Although the government is not a party to the proceedings, S. S. Davis, treasurer of Palestine, Norman Bentwich, attorney-general and M. Marvogradato, police superintendent, were present. Rabbi Blau, Mordecai Elish and David Yellin, as the Jewish representatives, were present. Five representatives of the Moslem Supreme Council, including Jamal Hussein who was accompanied by Auni Bey were present. The Jewish case will be formally opened by Mr. Elish Wednesday.

Press Facilities Not Limited

The Commission intends to sit twice daily, four days in the week. M. Loefergren, replying to a memorandum from the Press Association, stressed the importance of publicity and said that the rights and claims are a matter of public knowledge and agreed not to limit the press facilities. He also said that the hearings would not be characterized by an emotional element such as pervaded the Inquiry Commission's sessions.

In his address opening the Wailing Wall Commission's hearings, M. Loefergren mentioned the Shaw Commission's recommendations to appoint a Commission for an early determination of the rights and claims to the "so-called Wailing Wall". He cited the resolution of the Council of the League of Nations appointing the Commission entrusted with a settlement.

He said "our Commission was constituted by the British government with the full agreement of the Council of the League of Nations to which the government is solely responsible in all matters connected with the Mandate. The members of the Commission belong to countries absolutely independent and do not have any part in the interests at question in the issue. The British government and the Council thereby emphasized that they both expect to be prepared to carry out the Mandate and expect us to make an impartial and complete inquiry resulting in a verdict exclusively based on an honest understanding of law and equity of the case.

Hopes for Good Will

"We hope that both interested parties will look upon our work with good will, giving us the necessary assistance in choosing an authorized representative to hear witnesses, procure the most expert advice, documentary evidence, cross-examine witnesses and plead the case, reserving to the different interests on the same side the right to produce declarations and resolutions and other material.

"The Commission's duty is not only to investigate but to give a verdict. Therefore, we propose that the representatives of the press and public have access to the sittings of the Commission".

Commissioners Pay Informal Visit to Wailing Wall

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 23—The members of the international Wailing Wall Commission which arrived here the other day to investigate Moslem and Jewish claims to the Wall, paid an informal visit to the Wall Saturday morning, escorted by the Jerusalem District Commissioner Keith-Roach and the government official Edwin Samuel, son of Sir Herbert Samuel, former High Commissioner of Palestine. The area of the Wailing Wall was thronged with Jewish worshippers of all classes when the commissioners visited the Wall.

The members of the Commission carefully studied the approaches to the Wall, and called at the chambers of the Jerusalem Grand Mufti overlooking the pavement.

Encourage Jewish Parents to Send Children to Palestine for Secondary Schooling

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Long Branch, N. J., June 23—A decision to launch a project to encourage Jewish parents to send their children to Palestine for secondary school education was taken at the concluding session of the 22nd annual convention of the National Young Judea. It was also agreed to call a conference of leading educators to reevaluate the Judeans educational program. Plans were adopted for a national oratorical contest next year.

A budget of $30,000, exclusive of the Judean magazine, was adopted for the coming year. The past deficit was reported cleared. A new form of government establishing a board of trustees and a national government board was adopted. The board is headed by Lt. Gov. Herbert Lehman of New York and Judge Julian W. Mack as honorary chairman.

The membership of the board, the organization of which was announced by Dr. Israel Goldstein, president, in his annual report to the executive committee, includes Clarence W. Palitz, chairman, Congressman William W. Cohen, vice-chairman, Jonah L. Goldstein, Mrs. N. Taylor, Mrs. Harold Spielberg and Bernard Deutsch. The board of trustees will assume the financial burdens of Young Judea.

Other members of the board are Judge Albert Cohen, Sundol Doniger, Harry Fierst, Jacob Klein, Jacob Levy, I. D. Morrison, Emanuel Neumann, Louis P. Rocker, Dr. David de Sola Pool, Theodore Racoosin, Mrs. Sol Rosenbloom, Irving Rosenzweig, Sidney Ross, Julius Silver, Mrs. Robert Szold, Phillip Wattenberg and Israel Wechsler. Charles Kroll is secretary.

The convention reelected Nathan Straus honorary president and Dr. Israel Goldstein president. Mrs. Archibald Silverman of Providence was named vice-president and Louis Rocker was chosen treasurer. Samuel J. Borowsky was again named executive director.

Z.O.A. Needs Stability, Louis Lipsky Tells Convention of Order of Sons of Zion

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Long Branch, N. J., June 23—Claiming that the Zionist Organization today needs stability in its own ranks as well as harmony and discipline, Louis Lipsky, president of the Zionist Organization of America, speaking at the convention of the Order Sons of Zion, urged a coalition of all forces at the coming Zionist convention in Cleveland. Although he did not mention the Brandeis-Mack memorandum specifically, Mr. Lipsky declared that since the riots of last summer the present Zionist regime had done everything in its power "regardless of pride and even of self-respect" to bring about a union of forces.

He asserted, in substance, that "if there is any group dissatisfied it must not resort to dictatorship method but should seek to enforce its demands in an open constitutional way at the forthcoming Cleveland convention". Mr. Lipsky also attacked the attitude of the British government towards Palestine and the Mandate and declared there must be "a revision of policy". He said that "the current situation affecting the Mohammedans in India must not be coupled with the Moslem situation in Palestine".

The nearly 150 delegates and a like number of visitors were greeted by Bernard S. Deutsch, president of the American Jewish Congress, A. S. Juris, on behalf of Palestine labor, Rabbi Mirsky for the Histadrith Ivrit, Mordecai Danzias for the Zionist Revisionists, Dr. J. M. Ravid, former head of the Jewish Legionnaires, and I. Rudinsky for the Jewish National Fund.

Dr. Joseph I. Bluestone, president of the Order, in his annual message, declared that the Order had gained in members since the last convention and that the insurance funds show an increase of $13,000. Harry A. Pine, secretary, reported that the Order's deficit had been reduced by half. Dr. Bluestone was presented with a Golden Book by the Moses Hess Camp of Philadelphia.

Simpson Non-Committal on Rescinding Immigration Ban

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 23—It is reported that Sir John Simpson's reply to the British Colonial Office regarding the possible rescinding of the order suspending immigration to Palestine is non-committal. While he does not oppose lifting the ban during his inquiry into problems of immigration, land settlement and development he does not want the Arabs to say that his opinion caused the British to break their promise to the Arabs.

Commenting on his reply, the Hebrew daily "Ha'Aretz," says "Simpson's mission is purely economic, we have been told a hundred times but his reply regarding the immigration certificates gives the most peculiar economic touch to his mission".

Brith Abraham Convention Votes for Palestine Colony, Aid to Tool Campaigns

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Saratoga Springs, June 23—The establishment of a colony in Palestine by contributions to the Jewish National Fund and the taxation of members for the reconstruction work done by the Ort and Peoples' Tools Campaign in Eastern Europe were approved by the 44th annual convention of the Independent Order of Brith Abraham meeting here. Nearly 900 delegates representing 426 lodges in all parts of the country are present.

The convention, which is being presided over by former Congressman Nathan Perlman, Grand Master, received greetings from President Hoover expressing appreciation for "the high service this Order has done through teaching and practice of the best ideals of humanity and citizenship". Greetings were also received from Lieutenant Governor Lehman. Former Judge Irving Goldsmith welcomed the delegates to the city on behalf of the mayor.

In his presidential message, Grand Master Perlman reported that the Order now has 103,793 members, 51,610 being women. Class A membership has 95,977, class B 2,360, class C 5,456. He recommended the elimination of membership classes and the creation of one type of membership. A financial report showed that on June 1, 1930 the endowment reserve fund amounted to $2,022,980.

Dr. Samuel Margoshes, editor of the "Day" speaking in the name of the Jewish National Fund, appealed for the creation of a Brith Abraham colony in Palestine. Harry Lang spoke for the Ort and the Peoples' Tool Campaign and Bernard Richards spoke for the American Jewish Congress.

Leo Feist, Music Publishing King, Is Dead at Sixty

Leo Feist, the owner of the largest publishing house for popular music in the world, is dead at his home in Mount Vernon. He was sixty years old. He is survived by a wife and three sons, two of whom are in the firm.

Among the famous songs which the Feist house published were "Overt There", for which Mr. Feist paid George M. Cohan $35,000; "Three O'Clock in the Morning"; and songs by George Gershwin and Paul Whiteman and members of his orchestra. Last December Mr. Feist merged his company with Carl Fisher, Inc., and the National Broadcasting Company as the Radio Music Company, a corporation capitalized at $6,600,000.

Rabbi Maurice Harris, Spiritual Leader of Temple Israel, Dead

Rabbi Maurice H. Harris, for 48 years spiritual leader of Temple Israel, died yesterday in Mt. Sinai Hospital after a brief illness at the age of 70. The funeral is expected to take place tomorrow morning at the Free Synagogue with Rabbi Stephen S. Wise officiating.

As a youthful student preacher Rabbi Harris founded the Hand in Hand Synagogue in 1882 in what was then the suburban community of Harlem. Some years later the congregation changed its name to Temple Israel and moved to the West Side. The congregation recently celebrated Rabbi Harris' seventieth birthday and in his address on that occasion called "Three Score and Ten," he reviewed the history of American Jewry since 1878 when he came to this country from London.

As the founder and honorary president of the Federation Settlement House he was a pioneer in the settlement house movement. Rabbi Harris was always active in many communal and social enterprises, having been a charter member of the board of the Jewish Protectors and Prison Aid Society, the Jewish Board of Guardians and the New York Society for the Prevention of Crime. He was also active in the New York State Conference of Religion.

Rabbi Harris was a past president of the Central Conference of American Rabbis and of the Association of Reform Rabbis. He was the author of four works on Judaism.

Lubawitscher Rebbe Urges U.S. Jews to Adhere to Faith

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Boston, June 23—Throngs crowded Temple Bethel at Dorchester and Temple Ahabath Jeshurun in Roxbury to hear Rabbi Joseph Schneursohn, eminent scholar, better known as the Lubawitscher Rebbe, who was exiled by the Soviet government for his religious teaching. He exhorted the Jews of America to adhere to the faith of their fathers and urged the Jewish people to remain true to their traditions of fear and love of the Lord, the consecration of the Sabbath, family purity and the national redemption of Israel.

Indicating that the American Jews are fortunate in the enjoyment of religious liberty, something, he said, which is virtually stifled in Soviet Russia, the venerable Rabbi blessed America for its spirit of religious tolerance and appealed to American Jews to help their brethren in Poland and Russia.

Boy Scouts Re-elect

Alfred M. Cohen

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Cincinnati, O., June 23—Alfred M. Cohen, international president of B'nai B'rith, has been re-elected to the Executive Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Moslem Youths in Egypt Prepared for Holy War to Defend Wailing Wall

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, June 23—The Wailing Wall Commission, here to investigate Moslem and Jewish claims to the Wall, today received a telegram from the Moslem Youth's Association of Egypt saying that they were "prepared, like all Moslems the world over, for a holy war to defend the precious shrine (the Wailing Wall) against all attacks".

The Jewish memorandum which will be presented to the Wailing Wall Commission was finally approved today at a joint meeting of the leading rabbis and the advocates who will press the Jewish case. The memorandum is based largely on the memorandum prepared by Dr. Cyrus Adler, president of the American Jewish Committee and the Jewish Theological Seminary. With Rabbi Meir Berlin presiding, Rabbis Kook, Sonnenfeld and Blau and David Yellin and Mordecai Eliash put the finishing touches on the memorandum. The rabbinical here has received telegrams from rabbinical councils all over the world empowering it to present the Jewish case. Messages have come from New York, Montreal, Antwerp, Rome, Amsterdam, Bucharest, Paris, Johannesburg and Copenhagen.

The Commissioners today informed the Jewish Agency that they intended to visit the principal synagogues in Jerusalem. Emir Said El Jazairi today arrived from Damascus to appear before the Wailing Wall Commission on behalf of the Moslems living in the vicinity of the Wall. El Jazairi is a grandson of Andul Daker, Moroccan chieftain.

The Arab paper "El Hayat" says that Egypt, Lebanon and Syria are also sending emissaries to appear before the Commission. Ahmed Zaki, well-known Islamic scholar, has arrived from Egypt.

Meyer Named to Montana Board of Education

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Helena, Mont., June 23—William Meyer of Butte, was appointed by Governor Erickson as a member of the State Board of Education. Mr. Meyer is a prominent attorney in Butte and has been a member of the Montana house of representatives, representing Silver Bow County. He is a member of the Butte Temple.

Jewish Fire Brigade Saves Arab Village from Flames

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Tel Aviv, June 23—The volunteer fire-brigade of Tel Aviv, the all-Jewish municipality, today saved the Arab village Safria, near Jaffa from being completely destroyed by fire when it hastily answered an alarm.

Keep "regular" with
EX-LAX
The Chocolate Laxative

GROSSMAN'S
—HOTEL—
New Jersey Avenue—Near Beach
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.
Dietary Laws Sea Water Baths
ALWAYS OPEN
Josef Grossman's Sons