Opening of New College Year Revives Numerus Clausus Question in Hungary

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Budapest, Sept. 12.—The numerus clausus question is again becoming serious in Hungary with the beginning of registration for the new year in the University of Budapest. The situation is particularly acute in the school of medicine which is refusing to admit "too many" Jewish students, although all of the Jewish applicants passed their entrance examinations with distinction. The other schools of the University have increased their enrollment of Jewish students.

Intervention with Count Kuno Klebelsberg, Hungarian minister of education, by Jewish members of parliament has thus far proved unavailing. Count Klebelsberg having pointed out that the recent Hungarian Medical Congress had complained that there was an over-supply of physicians. By the terms of the amended numerus clausus law seven percent of the University's enrollment is permitted to be Jewish. The Jewish population of Budapest, however, is 20 percent of the total.

Three Jewish deputies, Joseph Pakots, leader of the Democratic Party; M. Fabian and M. Brody, have voiced their dissatisfaction with Count Klebelsberg's reply. They complain that the government has no right to dictate to the students or their parents to adopt professions other than those desired, particularly since the Jewish citizens are paying their taxes and fulfilling all their obligations to the Hungarian state. Hence the deputies insist that the Jewish students are entitled to study at Hungarian universities according to their wishes without being compelled to obtain their education at foreign institutions of learning.

Aljamea Al Arabia, Organ of Mufti, to Appear Again

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency).

Jerusalem, Sept. 12.—The Arab newspaper, Aljamea Al Arabia, the organ of the Moslem Supreme Council, which is headed by the Grand Mufti, will again appear next week. It had been suspended by the government for publishing the strike proclamation of the Arab Executive calling on the Arabs to strike August 23, the first anniversary of last year's riots.

Give $20,000 for Home for Aged Scholars and Authors

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Sept. 12.—The heirs of the late Kiev Jewish millionaire, Moïse Halperin, now living in Paris, have donated $20,000 to the United Jewish Home for the Aged in Jerusalem for the erection of a special home for aged scholars and authors.

Abraham Mutnik, One of Bund's Founders, Dead

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, Sept. 12.—Abraham Mutnik, one of the founders of the Jewish Socialist Labor Party in Russia, is dead here at the age of 62. Shortly after the Party was established he became a member of the central executive committee. In 1906 he left Russia in the service of the Party's foreign committee. For the last twenty years he had lived in Berlin and had taken no active part in public life. He was born in Ponevich, Kovno district, then Russian-Poland.

Question of Minorities to Be Passed on to Political Body of League of Nations Assembly

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Geneva, Sept. 12.—At the suggestion of Dr. Julius Curtius, Germany's foreign minister and the German representative at the Assembly of the League of Nations, the Assembly today decided to transmit the consideration of the minorities question to the Assembly's sixth commission, the political commission. The matter of creating a permanent minorities commission is to be brought up.

The chairman of the sixth commission, to which Briand's plan for a European federation may be referred, is Sir Francis Borden of Canada, who recently succeeded Raoul Dandurand as Canada's representative in the Assembly. A lively discussion on the minorities question is expected because Germany, Hungary, Bulgaria and other states interested intend to propose new reforms in view of the insufficiency of the procedure and improvements in handling transgressions from the Minorities Treaties adopted at the Madrid session of the Council of the League of Nations last January.

J. F. Beelaerts van Blokland, Holland's representative to the Assembly, today urged the importance of the minorities question.

Arab Paper Wants More Arab Workers on Dead Sea Concession

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Sept. 12.—The Arab press here is voicing its dissatisfaction because the Palestine Potash, Ltd., the company that owns the concession for the exploitation of the minerals in the Dead Sea is employing 120 Jewish workers and only 80 Arab workers. The papers insist that the number of Arab workers employed be equivalent to the number of Jewish workers. The head of the Palestine Potash, Ltd., is the Jewish engineer, Moses Novomojsky.

Warsaw Kehillah to Aid Zischo Schools If Students Wear Hats During Bible Studies

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Sept. 12.—In adopting its annual budget of 5,125,228 zloties ($575,050) the Warsaw Jewish Community today decided to subsidize the schools of the Central Jewish School Association (Zischo) provided these schools insist that their students cover their heads during Bible instruction. The Jewish community also agreed to support the Jewish Theatre if no performances are given on Friday nights and Saturday.

Last November the Jewish community's executive, on the motion of the Agudath Israel, Orthodox Organization, voted to withhold subsidies from all Jewish schools which do not require the pupils to have their heads covered while receiving instruction in Bible studies. The leaders of the Zischo schools, in which Yiddish is the language of instruction, raised a great protest. Several weeks later supporters of the Zischo schools attacked the Jewish community office, smashing furniture and cutting telephone wires after their demand for the payment of the subvention had been refused.

While the Zischo authorities disowned those who had attacked the Jewish community office, claiming that the attackers were the parents of children attending the Zischo schools, the Polish authorities threatened to dissolve the Zischo if it was established that it had been a party to the attack.

Ten Maccabees Return to Palestine from Cycle Tour

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Sept. 12.—The ten young Palestinians, all members of the chaitzim movement, who travelled by motorcycle from Tel Aviv to Antwerp to attend the tenth anniversary of the Maccabi-Antwerp section of the World Maccabi Union, returned here today. They were met by welcoming crowds at Haifa and Tel Aviv. The trip from Tel Aviv to Antwerp required three weeks. En route they were feted by the Jews of all the countries through which they passed.

On the way home, while crossing the Ilme Bridge, between Erfurt and Weimar, four of them plunged into the Ilme River and rescued 36 passengers from a bus that had toppled into the water. The tenth anniversary of the Antwerp section of the Maccabi was made the occasion for what amounted to the first world Jewish Olympiad with 900 athletes from all countries participating.

Palestine Economic Corp.'s 1929
Report Shows Gain in Credit
Facilities, Rise in Investment

The third annual report of the Palestine Economic Corporation, which is headed by Bernard Flexner, has just been issued. Felix M. Warburg, Herbert H. Lehman, Julius Simon and Robert Szold are the vice-presidents of the Corporation. The Corporation subsidizes in Palestine the Palestine Mortgage and Credit Bank, Ltd., of which Emanuel N. Mohl is the managing director, and the Central Bank of Co-operative Institutions, of which Harry Vitelles is the general manager.

The year 1929, declares the report, was one of continued expansion in the credit activities which the Palestine Economic Corporation undertook as its particular sphere of operations in Palestine from its inception. Its three to five year agricultural loans, for the development of orange groves, amelioration of almond groves, planting of vineyards, general farm improvements, etc., have increased during the year from $160,000 to $250,000 and an additional amount of $180,000 has been authorized but not yet paid out to borrowers. The Corporation's investment in new housing loans increased from $69,000 to $143,000 and its investment in small industrial credits increased from $21,789 to $48,579.

The work of aiding laborers in and near the colonies to establish themselves was substantially expanded under the 1928 appropriation and a new appropriation of $250,000 was made in 1929 for this purpose, including loans for the building of houses and barns, purchase of poultry, cows and the equipment required for the establishment of new workers' settlements.

During the year 1929 the investments of the Palestine Economic Corporation in Palestine increased to $1,627,004, as compared with $1,151,948 at the close of the previous year. The total assets of the Corporation have increased to $2,238,027 as compared with $927,060 at the time of its formation, according to the report.

May Close for Lack of Funds

Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—The Jewish Students' House maintained on the campus of the University of Pennsylvania here by the Philadelphia branch of the United Synagogue of America is in danger of closing, it became known here today after the season's first meeting of the United Synagogue's council. A report submitted by Herman Rosenberger, chairman of the students' house committee, showed that a mortgage amounting to $17,000 has been called in with no funds available to meet it.

At the same meeting, Dr. Julius H. Greenstone, a founder of the Jewish Students' House, stressed the importance of opening a similar house in the neighborhood of Temple University where the student body is thirty per cent Jewish. Rabbi Simon Greenberg, chairman of the Philadelphia branch of the United Synagogue, reported that extensive alterations and improvements had been made in the Jewish Students' House during the Summer. He also pointed out that in the last year the Jewish Students' House had been a real rallying place for Jewish students, hundreds of kosher meals being served daily, daily religious services being held, and classes in various Jewish subjects being well-attended.

Following a general discussion it was unanimously decided to ask Mrs. Cyrus Adler, one of the most ardent supporters of the Jewish Students' House, upon her return from abroad next Monday, to accept the chairmanship of a special committee to utilize the coming High Holidays to raise the necessary sums and also to make provision for Jewish cultural and religious needs of the Jewish students at Temple University.

Mrs. Sydney M. Cone Heads
Council Speakers' Bureau

Mrs. Sydney M. Cone of Pikesville, Maryland, third vice-president of the National Council of Jewish Women, and president of the Baltimore Council section, has been appointed chairman of the speakers' bureau of the National Council of Jewish Women, by its president, Mrs. Joseph E. Friend. Mrs. Joseph M. Welt of Detroit will serve as vice-chairman. The following national directors will also serve as members of the Committee for the speakers' bureau: Mrs. J. Victor Greenebaum of Cincinnati; Miss Hannah Hirschberg of San Antonio; Mrs. Charles Long of Wilkesbarre, Pa.; and Mrs. E. R. Sugarman of Vancouver, B. C.

Other appointments made by Mrs. Friend are Mrs. Alexander Wolf of Washington, D. C., a national director, as chairman of the committee on constitution and revision; and Mrs. Arthur Brin of Minneapolis, second vice-president, as chairman of the committee on program for state and interstate conferences. Associated with Mrs. Brin's committee will be Mrs. Jules Hart of Yonkers, N. Y., a national director, and others to be named.

Echoes of Frank Case Defeat
Governor Who Pardoned Frank
for Georgia Senatorial Toga

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 12.—Leo Frank died seventeen years ago, the victim of a lynching mob's fury, but the bitterness engendered by the famous case is not dead. The ghosts of the Frank case arose from their grave here yesterday to hand an overwhelming defeat to John M. Slaton, the governor who pardoned Frank, in his race for the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate.

It appears that while the mob killed Frank, the stroke of the pen that pardoned Frank signed the death warrant of Slaton's political career. The results of the election show, that although avoided at the beginning of the campaign by both Slaton and his opponent, Senator Harris as a dead issue, the Frank case had developed into the outstanding issue by the close of the campaign.

The issue was bandied to and fro through large advertisements in the local press, through the distribution of circulars throughout the state and in campaign speeches. The election returns which swamped Slaton are regarded as showing decisively that Slaton's leniency to Frank has not been forgotten in any section of Georgia, in spite of the long lapse of time and the widely proclaimed innocence of Frank.

The local Jewish communities took no observable part in the campaign, although manifesting a keen interest in the outcome.

Rabbi Levinthal Marks
20th Year in Ministry

The twentieth anniversary of the ministry of Rabbi Israel Herbert Levinthal, spiritual leader of the Brooklyn Jewish Center, is being celebrated this week at the Center. Rabbi Levinthal marked the anniversary by preaching a special sermon at yesterday's Sabbath services on the subject: "Ideals Versus Reality in the Ministry."

Rabbi Levinthal, who is among the best-known Conservative rabbis in this country, graduated from the Jewish Theological Seminary of America in 1910. He was recently honored by being elected president of the Rabbinical Assembly of America. Dr. Levinthal, who is the author of a book of sermons, "Steering or Drifting—Which?," is also the president of the Brooklyn Jewish Ministers Association. He has been spiritual leader of the Brooklyn Jewish Center since 1919.

New Illustrated Lecture on Herzl Published

A new lantern lecture has just been published by the Jewish National Fund head office in Jerusalem on the subject of Theodore Herzl. This is number 12 of the series of illustrated talks on Zionism and the new life in Palestine. The film roll has illustrations to accompany the lecture, the text being supplied in any of the principal European languages gratis.

Jewish Settlers of Migdal and Neighboring Bedouin Tribe Sign Perpetual Treaty of Peace

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Sept. 12.—While the diplomats at Geneva were bickering and arguing about the best and most effective means of securing the peace of the world, the Jewish colonists of Migdal and the bedouins of the neighboring Arbelhip tribe gave Geneva an object lesson in peace by signing their own "Locarno" treaty pledging themselves to perpetual peace and friendship. And the pledge grew out of a practical necessity and not theoretical discussion.

Last Thursday a bedouin of the Arbelhip tribe was found shot dead in the banana grove belonging to the Migdal colonists. Knowing the excitable nature of the bedouins the Jewish colonists quickly began negotiations, with the assistance of the Rosh Pinah settler, to prevent a blood feud and a vendetta. The pourparlers were successful and the Migdal colonists undertook to pay the relatives of the dead bedouin $625.

The agreement was consummated at a neutral place just north of Migdal with quaintly picturesque ceremonies with the Tiberias district officer, colonists from the lower Galilee, sheiks of the Arbelhip and other tribes present. The elders of the tribe and the leaders of the Migdal colony delivered speeches of welcome and the latter embraced the relatives of the dead man.

A tribal rod was then held between the colonists and the tribesmen and a silk handkerchief placed over the rod. The Jews tied two knots and the bedouins three knots in the handkerchief. Then speaking together they said "By this we declare that peace shall reign between us from now until eternity". The sum of $250 was then paid over to the bedouins, the balance to be paid within two months. To complete the symbolical rites a sheep was slaughtered, rice was cooked and all parties to the peace treaty sat around and partook of the feast.

New York's Delegates to Jewish Congress Will Be Elected Today

New York's delegates to the American Jewish Congress which will convene in Washington, October 19th, will be elected at a conference of representatives of Jewish organizations which will be held this afternoon at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

All Jewish societies, lodges, and synagogues have been invited to send representatives to the conference. In addition to arranging for the election of delegates to the Congress, the conference will form a permanent district organization and elect officers and an executive committee to cooperate in the activities of the American Jewish Congress throughout the year. The conference will be addressed by Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Bernard S. Deutsch, Nathan D. Perlman and Bernard G. Richards. Herman G. Robbins will preside.

Sees Britain Issuing Proposal for Palestine Parliament Soon

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Sept. 12.—The British government will soon issue a proposal for the establishment of a Legislative Council in Palestine, says the influential Near East and India in its current issue. Though it thinks the proposal will disappoint both Jews and Arabs, the Near East and India nevertheless advises both parties to accept it, since it will represent a sincere effort on the part of the British government to bring the two contending races in Palestine together.

Peace between Jews and Arabs will finally be brought about, thinks the Near East and India, if the Jews will give up their claim of a Jewish state in Palestine and if the Arabs will yield their demand for an independent Arabic state in Palestine.

The Near East and India expects the report of Sir John Simpson to be published next month. Doubting whether this report will fundamentally change the policies of the British government with regard to its mandatory duties towards both Jews and Arabs, the most that can be expected from the Simpson report, says the paper, is that it will determine how large Jewish immigration into Palestine is to be in the near future.

All those Englishmen who have been advising the British government to give up the Palestine Mandate are advised by the Near East and India to cease their agitation. The British government, it says, is determined to continue holding the mandate over Palestine.

Montreal Jewry to Honor Rabbi Zvi Cohen on His 70th Birthday

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Montreal, Sept. 12.—Rabbi Hirsch Zvi Cohen, one of Montreal's most prominent Jewish educators, president of the Jewish Rabbinical Council and chairman of the board of education of the United Talmud Torahs, will be honored by local Jewry tomorrow and Sunday upon the occasion of his 70th birthday. Tomorrow prominent rabbis from Canada and the United States will occupy the pulpits of the various Montreal synagogues, preaching on subjects relative to Jewish education.

On Sunday the students and teachers of the Montreal Hebrew Free Schools will march from the headquarters of the United Talmud Torahs to Rabbi Cohen's residence and tender him their thanks for his services. In the evening he will be tendered a banquet at the Chevre Kadisha Synagogue where the venerable rabbi will be presented with an oil painting of himself. Leading members of the local Jewish community will address the gathering.

A resident of Montreal for nearly 40 years, Rabbi Cohen is a member of one of the most prominent Jewish families in Canada. Throughout these years he has given himself to the Jewish religious education and his rabbinical duties. It is said that he is the founder of almost all of the local Talmud Torahs, as well as of the local yeshivah.

Jewish Lad of Ten Saved from Threatened Seven Years' Exile from Family

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Detroit, Sept. 12.—Ten-year-old Sam Evenchuk is on his way to his grandfather's home in Brooklyn, N. Y., a victor over the "red tape" of the immigration department.

Sam came into difficulties with the government on July 4, when he was stopped on a train coming from Windsor to Detroit. Immigration authorities ruled he could not enter alone, although he had a regular visa. The law sets the minimum age at 16. An immigrant inspector took him to friends in Windsor, Ontario, to be kept until his mother, Rose, could be notified in Toronto.

Mrs. Evenchuk did not know that Sam's visa was good for only 15 more days and that he would have to wait seven years for another if he did not use it in that time. She waited until August 27, when she came to the United States and brought him with her. Her visa was good and she was passed, but officers said Sam could not enter for seven years, according to the law. Mrs. Evenchuk, who is a widow, was frantic. Her other five children were living with their grandfather in Brooklyn where she intended to join them with Sam.

Urged to make a personal appeal to the labor department, Mrs. Evenchuk went to Washington and explained her circumstances. She went back to Windsor to await the decision which has now reached her. It was favorable and she is on her way, with Sam, bound for New York.

Medalie-Boomed to Succeed Tuttle as U. S. Attorney

In the event that United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle resigns to accept the Republican nomination for governor, his most likely successor, according to well-informed political circles, is George Z. Medalie, one of the best known Republican prosecutors in the city. Mr. Medalie, a former assistant district attorney of New York, came into national prominence a few years ago when he successfully prosecuted the former secretary of state, Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, and sent her to prison. He has been an active prosecutor for the New York Bar Association.

Jewish M. P. Breaks Up Fight in Canadian Parliament

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Ottawa, Ont., Canada, Sept. 12.—Thanks to the intercession of the Jewish Labor member of the Canadian parliament, A. A. Heaps of Winnipeg, a serious fist fight between two Liberal deputies on the floor of the House of Commons was avoided after one had punched the other. General Sir Eugene Pizet had made a remark about Pierre Cosgren, which the latter resented so much that he went up to the General and struck him. Mr. Heaps quickly went up to them and tore the two struggling M. P.'s apart.

Suggests Zionist Executive Be Removed to The Hague (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Sept. 12—A proposal by Jacobus Kann, Dutch Jewish Banker and former member of the Zionist Executive and of the directorate of the Zionist Colonial Bank, to move the Jerusalem headquarters of the Zionist Executive to The Hague, capital of Holland, appears in the current issue of the London Jewish Chronicle. Mr. Kann believes that this will enable the Zionist Executive to carry on Zionist propaganda more effectively since in Jerusalem the purely Zionist propaganda that the Executive might conduct is overshadowed by the economic work of the Jewish Agency and the Keren Hayesod.

Mr. Kann also expressed the opinion that Zionists must now state clearly and emphatically that the aim of the movement is the creation of a Jewish majority in Palestine, something which he thinks not impossible of being accomplished. Mr. Kann spent many years in Palestine, where he served as Dutch Consul-General.

Named Assistant U. S. Attorney in Pennsylvania (Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 12—William K. Goldstein has assumed the duties here as assistant United States attorney in the middle district of Pennsylvania. He is a nephew of David Kaufman, former U. S. minister to Bolivia and the present minister to Siam.

Palestinian industrial projects, in the development of which the Palestine Economic Corporation has been interested and in which it has participated as a substantial shareholder, the report says:

"The negotiations which M. A. Novomojesky, managing director of the Palestine Mining Syndicate, Ltd., had been conducting for several years with the British Government to obtain the concession for the exploitation of the minerals in the Dead Sea, culminated in the grant of the concession to the Palestine Potash, Ltd., a new company organized for this purpose. The Palestine Potash, Ltd., took over the assets of the predecessor company, in which your Corporation had invested $15,074 as part of its subscription to the Company of $50,000. Our investment in this project and a related enterprise for the exploitation of other minerals has now been increased to $132,000.

"Work has also proceeded actively on the King David Hotel at Jerusalem, now under construction by the Palestine Hotels, Ltd., to which your Corporation has subscribed 24,000 pounds."

The report also tells of progress made in the amelioration and drainage work on the land purchased by the Palestine Economic Corporation and the Jewish National Fund near and around the Bay of Acre.

Montefiore Hospital Shows $44,857 Deficit for 1929

The Montefiore Hospital for Chronic Diseases, located in the Bronx, had a deficit of $44,857.67 during the year 1929, according to the annual report of the hospital which was made public this week. Among the gifts and endowments which the hospital received during the past year was $100,000 from the Fanny Rothschild Mack Foundation. The hospital, which houses more than 1,500 patients and employees, is now completing a program of modernization.

Prof. Schatz, Head of Bezalel Art School, Here on Visit

Exhibitions of the paintings, drawings and woodcarvings by Professor Boris Schatz, founder and director of the Bezalel Art School in Palestine, and his son, Bezalel, will be conducted in various cities in America, the first of which will be held in the Jewish Club in New York, and the second in the Brooklyn Museum.

Professor Schatz, whose work is already represented in the various museums in the United States, founded the Bezalel Art School in Palestine 25 years ago. He arrived in New York a few days ago for the purpose of conducting the exhibitions and sales of his work in order to raise a fund of at least $50,000 for the maintenance of the school, which is at present in dire need. He has already received pledges from various patrons and is hopeful of obtaining sufficient subsidy to enlarge the workshop and facilitate the sale of students' work.

The Bezalel Art School is non-sectarian, and though the student body is comprised mostly of Palestinian residents, it is in reality international since the students are Jews and Christians from all over the world who have made Palestine their home. Evening classes are conducted to enable workers and laborers to attend.

New England Zionists Seek to Strengthen Regional Work (Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Boston, Sept. 12—Jacob de Haas, national Zionist chairman of organization, will come here for the purpose of meeting with representative leaders of the New England Zionist region and of the New England Hadassah Conference at a joint conference to take place on Sunday afternoon at the Elysium Club. Delegates of the Zionist Organization as well as of the Hadassah chapters from every part of New England, including Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, and Massachusetts are expected to be present, and to take part in the discussions on organization plans for the region.

The conference is being called by James D. Glunts, acting president of the Zionist region in the absence of Elihu D. Stone, who is at present abroad, having attended the Jewish Agency deliberations in Berlin, and by Mrs. Albert Salter, president of the Hadassah chapters, for the purpose of strengthening the new administration as well as the Zionist cause in the region.
