

Jewish Governors in Oregon and New Mexico and Nine Jewish Congressmen Head Long List of Successful Jewish Candidates in Fifteen States; Lehman, Bettman, Levitan All Reelected

With the complete election returns from all parts of the country now at hand the results show that for the first time in the history of American Jewry two Jews were elected governors of their respective states and nine Jews were elected to Congress, eight of them incumbents. In New York, Lt. Gov. Herbert Lehman was re-elected by an overwhelming plurality while in Ohio Gilbert Bettman was renamed attorney general on the Republican ticket despite the fact that the rest of the ticket went down to defeat.

The new Jewish governors are Arthur Seligman (D) of New Mexico and Julius Meier (R) of Oregon. In addition to the eight sitting Congressmen, David Goldstein (D) of Worcester, Mass., was elected in a close contest. Emanuel Celler, Samuel Dickstein, Dr. William Sirovich and Sol Bloom, Democrats of New York, Benjamin Golder (R) Philadelphia, Isaac Bacharach (R) Atlantic City, Mrs. Florence Prag Kahn (R) of San Francisco and Adolph J. Sabath (D) of Chicago, were all reelected.

Meier Wins in Oregon (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Portland, Ore., Nov. 5.—Julius L. Meier, independent candidate for governor, was yesterday elected governor of the state of Oregon. The governor-elect is head of the Meier-Frank department store, the largest west of the Mississippi. It was founded in 1857 by

800 Jews Attend Ceremonies Starting Workers' Suburb (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Haifa, Nov. 5.—Carrying on in the face of the dismay created by the new British policy, 800 Jews journeyed by special train to Haifa today to attend the ceremonies incident to the laying of the cornerstone for the Haifa Bay Workers Suburb which when completed will cost $507,500 and will comprise 2,000 cottages on an area of 3,000 dunams.

The funds for the enterprise, which will be used as homes by the Jewish workers in the railway shops now being built at Haifa Bay, were furnished by the Palestine Economic Corporation's Mortgage Bank, the Keren Hayesod, the Palestine Emergency Fund, and the Hassneh Insurance Co. The future occupants of the cottages will furnish $350,000, the Palestine Economic Corporation's Mortgage Bank, $100,000, the Hassneh Insurance Co., $10,000, and the Keren Hayesod $10,000. The land was donated by the Jewish National Fund.

the father of the newly-elected chief executive.

Julius Meier was born in Portland in 1874. He is married and has two daughters. A graduate of the University of Oregon, he entered a law partnership in 1895 with Senator George W. Joseph who last spring received the Republican nomination for governor. When Senator Joseph died suddenly shortly after the primaries, Mr. Meier entered the campaign as an independent candidate to take the place of his friend and law partner.

Mr. Meier is very active in Jewish communal life, among his philanthropies being the establishment of a B'nai B'rith center and summer camp for boys and girls. He is a trustee of Temple Beth Israel, president of the Portland Jewish Shelter Home and prominent in B'nai B'rith work.

The election of Mr. Meier marks the
(Continued on Page 3)

Austrian Jews Perturbed at Increasing Anti-Jewish Agitation Led by Heuber (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Vienna, Nov. 5.—Austrian Jewry is manifesting increasing signs of nervousness as a result of the intensification of anti-Semitic agitation, led by minister of justice Franz Heuber, in connection with the parliamentary elections on Sunday. While no anti-Semitic disorders have occurred, thanks to the precautions taken by the authorities, a clash between a Heimwehr torchlight procession and a group of Socialists resulted in severe injuries to a Jew.

Meshulam Wenkert, a Jewish Socialist, had his eye nearly taken out when one of the torches carried by the Heimwehr procession was accidentally poked into his eye. He was rushed to a hospital where an immediate operation was performed in an endeavor to save the eye.

While Heuber is going through the country-side making rabid anti-Semitic speeches he is being supported by the efforts of a group of German Hitlerite deputies who have come to Austria to aid their colleagues here in the election campaign.

According to a report in the Graz Leben, Heuber declared that the Soviet revolution imposed Jewish and Asiatic leadership on the country instead of German and Aryan. He said that even in the Czarist days the labor question in Germanic countries was racial because the workers "were misled through Jewish leaders." The anti-Semitic minister also described "as dangerous enemies that race of aliens and foreign-speaking people."

Weizmann Tells Actions Group of Interviews with Passfield Before White Paper Issued

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Nov. 5.—The Mandates Commission, now in session in Geneva, has been approached by Jewish spokesmen with a request to discuss the new Palestine situation not before November 17th 18th, if it decides to discuss it at all, in order to enable the Jewish Agency to submit through the usual channels a reply to the report of Sir John Simpson, it was announced by Dr. Chaim Weizmann today at the emergency meeting of the Zionist Actions Committee.

Dr. Weizmann, who resigned as president of the Jewish Agency and of the World Zionist Organization in protest against the British government's new Palestine policy, suggested in his political address to the Actions Committee that the Jewish Agency submit a petition to the Mandates Commission asking it to discuss immediately the Palestine question in view of the developments arising from the White Paper and the Simpson report.

Convened to Deal with Crisis

The Actions Committee was convened in urgent session here to deal with the
(Continued on Page 3)

Comzet Approves Merger of Soviet Ort and Ozet (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Moscow, Nov. 5.—The decision to merge the Soviet Ort, which has no connection with the All-World Ort, the society for promotion of technical trades and agriculture among the Jews of Eastern Europe and Russia, with the Ozet, society for settling the Jews on the land, was approved today by the Comzet, government department for settling the Jews on the land. The statistical and economic commission hitherto working for the Soviet Ort today began working for the Central Ort administration.

The Comzet, originally opposed to the amalgamation of these two organizations, recently reversed itself and approved it. Last September it was reported that the Soviet Ort would be dissolved and merged with the Ozet. This was the result of the efforts of the Jewish Communist leaders of the Ozet who resented the fact that the Ozet's scope of activity has been almost nil since its withdrawal from general Jewish work and the limitation of its activities almost exclusively to the work in Bira Bidjan, Far Eastern Republic.

While the Soviet Ort will no longer function, the All-World Ort, which in its operations in Russia helps the industrialization of the declassed Jews and aids in bringing them machinery and tools paid for by relatives abroad, plans to widen its activities by taking over part of the work of the Ozet.

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN

Published every day in the week except Saturday and holidays

by the

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN CO.

Executive and Editorial Office

125 East 46th Street, New York, N. Y.

Jacob Landau President
Samuel Hienstock Treasurer
Sylvain Barbaum Secretary

Vol. VII. Thursday, Nov. 6, 1930. No. 1882.

Member of Jewish Telegraphic Agency
New York 125 East 46th Street
London Ludgate House, Fleet St.
Paris 42 Rue Le Peletier
Berlin Eisenzahnstrasse 6
Warsaw Ulica Aleje Jerozolimski Nr. 18
Jerusalem Hasolei Bldg.

Subscription Rates

	U.S. and Canada	Foreign
One Year	$10.00	$15.00
Six Months	6.00	8.00
One Month	1.00	1.50

Entered as second-class matter Nov. 14, 1929, at the Post Office at New York, N. Y., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Copyrighted

Final 1929 Riot Case Closed When Jaffa Jew Acquitted

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jaffa, Nov. 5.—The last of the cases resulting from the riots of August, 1929 was disposed of today in the district court when Raphael Turgeman, employed as an interpreter by counsel for Joseph Mizrahi Urphali, the Jew charged with the murder of two Arabs, was acquitted of a charge of suborning witnesses in the Urphali case.

Urphali, now under a ten year sentence, was accused of killing two Arabs on the day of the riots. Arab witnesses at the first of his three trials testified that British soldiers had killed the Arabs and not Urphali. They later retracted and charged that Turgeman had paid them for their previous testimony.

Friends of Urphali hoped that Turgeman's trial might shed new light on the murder of the two Arabs but the court acquitted Turgeman without even hearing witnesses for the defense, simply noting that the evidence of the prosecution was contradictory.

National Socialists in Brunswick Raid Meat Factory

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Berlin, Nov. 5.—The meat factory in the city of Brunswick that supplies the warehouses of the Jewish-owned firms of Tietz, Karstadt and Schocken were raided today and 20,000 tons of meat confiscated as part of the National Socialist state government's program of benefitting the small traders at the expense of the larger concerns.

The manager of the factory was arrested and the supervisor of another meat factory, M. Husemann, died suddenly of shock at the report of the raid.

In Ortelburg, East Prussia, Selig Preuss, a Jewish merchant, and his son, were attacked and badly injured by a gang of Hitlerites today.

New Hebrew Hymn Features Music of La Marsellaie

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Nov. 5.—The catchy music of Le Marsellaie, the French national anthem, has been adapted to a new Hebrew hymn which was sung for the first time to an overflow meeting at Rishon le Zion protesting the British White Palestine. The author of the words to the new Hebrew hymn is Itamar Ben Avi, Palestinian newspaperman, who led in the singing of the hymn.

World Praises Suggestion World Court Pass on British Plan

Praise for Sir John Simon's suggestion that the World Court be asked to render an opinion on the British White Paper on Palestine and that the British government should not enforce the recommendations of the White Paper unless and until the court has decided in its favor, is contained in an editorial in Wednesday's New York World.

"From every point of view this seems to be a statesmanlike proposal," says the editorial. "Sir John Simon speaks with great authority as an international lawyer. If he believes that the question can properly be brought before the World Court there is good reason to believe it can. Since the dispute turns upon the interpretation of a Mandate of the League of Nations, a decision by the World Court would plainly be the most desirable and most reassuring method of settling the point of issue."

Reports of additional Jewish protest meetings against the British declaration of policy on Palestine in various parts of the United States have been received by the Jewish Daily Bulletin. More than 3,000 persons attended a protest meeting in New Haven, Conn., on Sunday night, at which the speakers included Congressman John Q. Tilson, Mayor Thomas A. Tully, Louis Lipsky, Philip Troup, Louis Sachs and Isaac Hamlin. In Nashville, Tenn., Rev. Prentice A. Pugh, an Episcopal minister, was among the speakers at a big protest meeting held on Sunday night.

Through a regrettable oversight, Senator William E. Borah's message to Sunday night's protest meeting in New York was omitted from the Jewish Daily Bulletin's report of that meeting. The following is the text of the message sent by Senator Borah, who is chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs, to Emanuel Neumann, chairman of the Committee on Public Information of the Zionist Organization of America:

"Deeply regret I am unable to be present in person, but I am in full sympathy with the object and purposes of your meeting. Not only all Jewry but all who are blessed with a sense of justice and who can understand and measure the hopes and aspirations of a great people, will share with you profound regret that an intimation of repudiation should attach itself to the Balfour Declaration. I have confidence that a wiser and more just policy will prevail."

Painleve Tells Paris Meeting British Pledge Must Be Fulfilled

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Paris, Nov. 5.—Paul Painleve, former premier of France when that country signified its adhesion to the Balfour Declaration, told a mass meeting of 4,000 people here protesting against the new British policy in Palestine that the "promise must be fulfilled. The Jews held to their pledge and enriched the country but the Arabs who sold barren land and now see it prosperous want it back by violence. Civilization will not stand for that."

Other prominent speakers at the huge protest meeting were Anatole de Monzie and Justin Godart, former cabinet officers, Jean Longuet, Socialist leader, and Paul Milioukov former Russian statesman. The anniversary of the Balfour Declaration is not a time for mourning, M. Godart declared.

M. Milioukov said that as one of those who fought with the Jews for their national rights in Russia he was behind the present protests. M. Longuet asserted that the White Paper was based on a misunderstanding as the Labor government "knows the admirable Jewish deeds in Palestine."

Senator de Monzie, who presided, repeated what he had said in a previous interview that the British violation of the Mandate was a matter for the League of Nations. Hillel Zlatopolsky, M. Corcos and James Waterman Wise also spoke.

White Paper Hits Jews Not Zionism Primarily, Says Holmes

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The British White Paper on Palestine has not struck primarily at Zionism but fundamentally at the Jews, the Rev. Dr. John Haynes Holmes, pastor of the Community Church in New York, told 450 members of the Hadassah, the American Women's Zionist Organization. Denouncing the new British policy, Dr. Holmes said it has caused the "gravest tragedy that ever happened in the history of Zionism."

He said, "Had we been told three weeks ago that this thing that the Labor cabinet has done would be done we would have thought it incredible. Nothing can help the British Labor cabinet which will be damned forever in the light of history. The British White Paper has not struck primarily at Zionism but fundamentally at the Jews. It has done two other serious things. The new policy is dividing the British Empire and even the Labor Party."

Kehillah Regulations Ordinance

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Nov. 5.—The Official Gazette today publishes an ordinance drafted by the minister of public worship for regulating the method of electing rabbis and the actions of the official Jewish communities. The new law provides for the uniform election of rabbis. The ordinance was drafted in accordance with suggestions drawn up by the Agudath Israel, Orthodox organization.

Jewish Governors in Oregon and New Mexico and Nine Jewish Congressmen Head Long List of Successful Jewish Candidates in Fifteen States; Lehman, Bettman, Levitan All Relected

(Continued from Page 1)

first time that a Jew has been elected chief executive of an American commonwealth since Moses Alexander was elected governor of Idaho for a second term in Idaho in 1916. Mr. Meier's election carries on the tradition of Jews holding unusually high political offices in Oregon, one Jew having been United States Senator, several mayor of Portland and others speaker of the legislature and president of the state senate.

New Mexico Names Seligman

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Sante Fe, New Mexico, Nov. 5.—Climaxing a political career of 35 years, Arthur Seligman, scion of a Jewish family prominent in this state for two generations, was yesterday elected governor of New Mexico on the Democratic ticket. Head of Seligman Bros. department store and prominent in state banking affairs, Mr. Seligman is active in state-wide Jewish circles.

Long before New Mexico was admitted to the Union in 1912 Mr. Seligman was a prominent political leader. He has been chairman of the Santa Fe county commissioners, mayor of Santa Fe, the state capital, chairman of the Democratic county committee, head of the territorial Democratic committee, member of the Democratic National Committee and a delegate to the Democratic national conventions of 1916, 1920, 1924 and 1928.

Lehman Heads N. Y. Winners

Heading the list of successful Jewish candidates in New York is Lt. Gov. Herbert Lehman who was reelected for a second term. Long active in multitudinous Jewish affairs, Lt. Gov. Lehman will start his second two year term in Albany as the right hand man of Governor Roosevelt.

All of the New York Jewish congressmen were reelected despite hard fights. William Sirovich, Sol Bloom, Emanuel Celler and Samuel Dickstein will return to their customary places in the 72nd Congress. Magistrate Louis Brodsky lost a close decision to the incumbent, Mrs. Ruth Pratt. Jacob Panken, Socialist opponent of Mr. Sirovich, came in a good third, as did B. C. Vladeck in Brooklyn. The numerous Jewish candidates for Congress on the Republican ticket were all defeated.

Judge Bernard L. Scheintag, of the Supreme Court, was reelected while Borough President Julius Miller scored a sweeping victory in his campaign for the same court. David Cohn, the Republican nominee, was defeated. Louis Kahn defeated his Jewish opponent on the Republican ticket for the city court while Harry Fromberg was beaten in his race for the Brooklyn county bench as were the three Jewish candidates in Manhattan for the municipal court.

For the state legislature the five Jewish members of the senate, all Democrats except Samuel Hofstadter, were reelected. The Jewish members of the next senate in addition to Mr. Hofstadter are Philip Kleinfeld of Brooklyn, A. Spencer Feld and William Whynman of Manhattan and Julius S. Berg and Henry G. Schackno of the Bronx.

When the next state legislature meets the following Jewish members will have seats: Meyer Alterman (D), Alexander Falk (D), Ira L. Holley (D), Solomon A. Hyman (D), Henry O. Kahan (D), Samuel Mandelbaum (D), Benjamin B. Mittler (D), David Paris (D), William Schwartz (D), Saul Streit (D) and Irving D. Neustein (D) all of Manhattan; Maurice Z. Bungard (D), Albert M. Cohen (D), Jacob H. Livingstone (D), Jacob P. Nathanson (D), Albert D. Schanzer (D), Jacob Schwartzwald (D), Irwin Steingut (D), all of Brooklyn; and Herman M. Albert (D), Carl Pack (R), and Harry A. Samberg (D), all of the Bronx.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Newark, Nov. 5.—Heading the list of successful Jewish candidates in New Jersey is Congress Isaac Bacharach (R) of Atlantic City who will return to Washington for his tenth consecutive term. In Union City, the youthful Irving Taft (R), was defeated, as was Harry Joelson (D) in Passaic.

For the legislature David M. Litwin (R) of Newark, Joseph Greenberg (D) of Jersey City, Frank Schoenfeld (D) of Jersey City, Joseph Altman (R) of Atlantic City and Benjamin Stein (R) of Paterson were reelected.

New Jewish Congressman in Mass.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Boston, Nov. 5.—Massachusetts Jewry awoke today to find that election day had brought, in the person of David Goldstein (D) of Worcester, its first Jewish congressman since 1887. Mr. Goldstein, a successful attorney and prominently identified with his city's civic and Jewish life, was elected in one of the closest electoral battles in the country. He is the only new Jewish congressman.

In addition to Mr. Goldstein the following Massachusetts Jews won the offices they were seeking in yesterday's elections: Mrs. Esther Andrews of Brookline reelected to the governor's council; Abraham Casson (R) of Roxbury, Joseph Grossman (R) of Quincy, Julius Sobel (D), Dr. Bernard Finkelstein (D), both of Dorchester and Marcus Levine (D) of Dorchester to the state assembly; Max Ulin (D) of Dorchester to the state senate.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The Democratic landslide in this normally Republican state swept into office a number of Jews, including of course, Congressman Adolph Sabath, now the dean of the Jewish delegation in the House of Representatives.

In addition to Congressman Sabath,

(Continued on Page 4)

Weizmann Tells Actions Group of Interviews with Passfield Before White Paper Issued

(Continued from Page 1)

crisis in the Zionist movement and to take action on Dr. Weizmann's resignation. Today's session was conspicuous by the large attendance from practically every country in the world except the United States. The delegates from America were unable to attend because of the short notice given for the meeting, but Judge Julian W. Mack is participating in a consultative capacity.

Although the Mandates Commission has been approached it is not yet known whether it will devote any attention to the Palestine question on the suggested dates, Dr. Weizmann said. He also referred to the possibility of an appeal to the Hague Court, particularly in view of the letter to this effect in the London Times from Sir John Simon and Viscount Hailsham. In this connection Dr. Weizmann pointed out two possibilities were open, first either the government inquiring from the Hague Court directly concerning its new Palestine policy or else a request for an advisory opinion from the Court by the Council of the League of Nations.

Dr. Weizmann's political address was a chronological and detailed exposition of the immediate events leading up to the publication of the White Paper and of his own resignation. He said that on September 5, he, M. Namier, political secretary of the Zionist Executive, and Prof. Selig M. Brodetsky of the Zionist Executive saw Lord Passfield and gathered the impression that the scheme which the government was preparing and which subsequently ripened into the White Paper was of a most serious nature, and that the government did not intend to take the Jewish Agency into its confidence.

Wondering why the reception had been so unfriendly, Dr. Weizmann stated that he wrote to Lord Passfield from Italy on September 19th asking, among other things for an interview which was granted for October 1st. This was the first occasion on which the Simpson report was discussed, Dr. Weizmann said, but the document itself was not produced and hence he had to refrain from saying anything about a document of which he had no knowledge.

Mentioned Land Scarcity

It was during this interview that Lord Passfield mentioned the question of the land scarcity for the first time and the policy of the General Federation of Jewish Labor, adding, however that perhaps he had described the Simpson report in a darker light than it actually was, Dr. Weizmann reported to the Actions Committee.

Recalling that it was his impression that Lord Passfield considered Zionism a small affair, Dr. Weizmann asserted that the Colonial Secretary had pointed out in reference to the Simpson report's suggestion that there was a possibility of the settlement of 20,000 additional families that this was merely a personal opinion of Sir John because until the

(Continued on Page 4)

Jewish Governors in Oregon and New Mexico and Nine Jewish Congressmen Head Long List of Successful Jewish Candidates in Fifteen States; Lehman, Bettman, Levitan All Reelected

(Continued from Page 3)

Mitchel C. Robin was named probate clerk, Henry Horner was reelected probate court judge, J. L. Friedman won as sanitary district trustee and Leon Edelman seems elected municipal court judge on incomplete returns.

Bettman Survives G.O.P. Defeat

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Columbus, O., Nov. 5—Despite the Democratic sweep in this overwhelmingly Republican state, Gilbert Bettman was reelected attorney-general of Ohio on the Republican ticket. The rest of his ticket went down to defeat. In Cincinnati, Judge Alfred Mack was re-named to the common pleas court, Judge Willis D. Gradison was elected to the state assembly, Edgar Friendlander was chosen county treasurer and Samuel Ach county commissioner. The latter are all Republicans.

In Cleveland Joseph Ackerman (R) was reelected to the state assembly.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Philadelphia, Nov. 5—While the rest of the country was going strongly Democratic, Pennsylvania remained in the Republican column and Congressman Benjamin Golder of this city was reelected together with a number of Jewish members of the legislature. They are Samuel Salus to the state senate, and Arthur L. Greenstein, Arnold Blumberg, Morris J. Root, Morton J. Witkin, Herman J. Tahl, Louis Schwartz, Nathaniel E. Jaffe and Emanuel Fleisher, all Republicans, to the state assembly. In Pittsburgh Max J. Spann (R) was elected to the state assembly and Morris Einstein was reelected to the state senate.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

San Francisco, Nov. 5—The only Jewess ever elected to Congress, Mrs. Florence Prag Kahn (R) of San Francisco, will again be a member of Congress according to the results of yesterday's elections. She will now begin her third term since she succeeded her husband, the late Julius Kahn.

Edgar Levey, (R), speaker of the state legislature, was also re-elected. Harry Lyons of Los Angeles was returned to the state legislature and B. J. Feigenbaum of San Francisco was elected for his first term.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

St. Louis, Nov. 5—Judge Harry T. Rosecan (R) was yesterday elected district attorney of St. Louis county, having overcome the combined opposition of the leading newspapers. Judge Moses Hartman (R) was named for another term on the circuit court.

Levitan Again Reelected

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Madison, Wis., Nov. 5—Just as no La Follette was ever defeated in this state so does it appear impossible to defeat the white-bearded Sol Levitan for treasurer of Wisconsin. When yesterday's returns were counted Sol Levitan was found to be elected for the fifth consecutive term as the custodian of Wisconsin's finances.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Baltimore, Nov. 5—Three Jews were elected to office here in yesterday's elections. Philip L. Sykes (R) was reelected judge of the orphans court, Paul Berman (R) was named state senator and Melvin L. Fine (R) was reelected to the state assembly.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

New Haven, Nov. 5—Judge Jacob Caplan, Republican candidate for the state senate, was an easy winner in yesterday's statewide contest.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Denver, Nov. 5—David Morris, the youngest candidate for the state legislature, was elected yesterday polling a vote larger than any other candidate in Denver.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Detroit, Nov. 5—Judge Henry Butvel (R) was unanimously reelected to the State Supreme Court. Mr. Butvel had no Democratic opponent. Henry Behrendt (R), also without opposition, was elected sheriff of Wayne County which includes Detroit.

Weizmann Tells Actions Group of Interviews with Passfield Before White Paper Issued

(Continued from Page 3)

country was modernized further immigration was impossible.

Dr. Weizmann pointed out that the economic aspect of the entire situation would change if 20,000 additional Jewish families were admitted "which Passfield as an economist should appreciate." The development scheme suggested by Simpson was further discussed, Dr. Weizmann related, adding that it was premature to discuss the matter now as he doubted whether the Jewish Agency would work in conjunction with the proposed development board.

The resigned president of the Jewish Agency also revealed that Lord Passfield had promised to forward him a copy of the White Paper as soon as it was ready but the Colonial Secretary was anxious to have it published before the opening of parliament.

At a second interview on October 15th Dr. Weizmann said he stressed the fact that the Jews should benefit from the development plan in itself together with the Arabs since the Jews ultimately contribute more than others as the largest tax-payers but Lord Passfield declined to discuss the matter off-hand, he asserted.

After discussing the Jewish National Fund, Lord Passfield pointed out that there cannot be an absolute ban on land purchase so long as there was no interference with the development plan, Dr.

Weizmann declared. He said he left the interview with a feeling that there was something more serious in the air than Lord Passfield gave him to understand.

Documents Received Oct. 17

The documents were received by him on the evening of October 17th while he was in consultation with Lord Reading and James de Rothschild, Dr. Weizmann said, but with the week-end imminent he pointed out that he had little time to consult people and hence sought to secure the postponement of the official publication, being also pressed to this effect from New York by Felix M. Warburg and Prof. Felix Frankfurter. But when he telephoned Lord Passfield on Sunday night regarding a postponement, Dr. Weizmann said that the Colonial Secretary told him he could do nothing as the decision had been taken to publish the document in the form submitted.

Referring to the possible discussion of the Palestine situation in the House of Commons, Dr. Weizmann analyzed the mood of the House and asked the Actions Committee to consider two possibilities, first that of the government retreating from its policy and issuing a supplementary document and secondly the government's sticking to the White Paper.

He then announced that the Mandates Commission had been approached concerning the possibility of a Palestine discussion.

Immediately after he had concluded his explanation of the political situation and the events leading up to it, Dr. Weizmann declared that in view of the fact that he had submitted his resignation he would not participate in the further deliberations of the Committee. His declaration followed a motion by the Revisionist members, the Zionist opposition, that the two items on the agenda concerning the Zionist situation and Dr. Weizmann's resignation be combined.

After Dr. Weizmann had left the meeting room a motion of Lazarus Barth, German Zionist leader, was adopted asking that Dr. Weizmann remain for the discussion in view of the necessity for supplementary information and explanations from him. Nevertheless at both sessions that followed Dr. Weizmann was not present.

After Dr. Weizmann's speech, S. Kaplansky spoke on the work of the Zionist Labor Party. Professor Brodetsky and Col. Frederick Kisch of the Palestine Zionist Executive delivered supplementary addresses and Nahum Sokolow, chairman of the Zionist Executive, opened the discussion on Dr. Weizmann's resignation.

SECOND AVENUE
THEATRE
at 2nd Street
Orch. 4-2461

Maurice Schwartz
YIDDISH ART PLAYERS
in School Asch
"THE WITCH OF CASTLE"
Every Friday Evening
Sat. & Sun. Matinee & Evening

Keep "regular" with

EX-LAX

The Chocolate Laxative