

Vol. VII. Price 4 Cents.

Sunday, November 9, 1930.

Entered as 2nd Class Matter No. 1804
at Post Office, New York, N. Y.

Polish Schachdens Form Union and Publish Trade Journal

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Nov. 7.—With the belief that the match-making business needed only a few "modern fixtures" to be reinstated to its former status as one of the most honorable of Jewish professions, the "schachdonim" or Jewish matchmakers of Poland have organized a union and begun to publish a "trade journal," it was learned here today. "The Wedding Journal" is the name of the Jewish Match-Makers Union's organ.

The journal is printed in both Yiddish and Polish. It has embarked on an extensive "educational campaign" in an effort to convince the so-called "assimilated" Jews, the modern clever and sophisticated younger generation, that they cannot get along without the good old schachden. A great deal of the modern-break down in the marriage relationship here is laid to the fact that matchmakers are not employed as extensively as heretofore.

It is also pointed out that with the return of the matchmaking profession to its former high level of consideration among the professions, a new, or rather old, field of activity will be opened up to a great many Jews who cannot find anything with which to occupy themselves. Conditions in Poland are not attractive for the Jews as there are many restrictions on Jewish employment.

The business of the schachden has always been to act as the official intermediary between the "contracting parties." It was the schachden who knew of available brides and grooms, the probable extent of each girl's dowry and the other preliminary details to a match. But the modern schachden intends to socialize his work to a further degree, including romance and love as factors in the business, according to the program outlined in "The Wedding Journal."

Dr. Magnes Opens Fifth Hebrew University Year, Says Poverty Does Not Harm Science, Arts

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Nov. 6.—Avoiding any reference to the political situation in Palestine as has been his annual custom, Dr. Judah L. Magnes, chancellor of the Hebrew University, devoted most of his convocation address at the opening of the University's fifth academic year today to dwelling on the University's financial stringency due to the non-payment of debts owing to the institution.

Although deploring the financial status of the University, Dr. Magnes declared that financial retrenchment was a helpful process because "poverty does not harm science and the arts." The Chancellor added that perhaps the standard

(Continued on Page 4)

Opposition Members of Actions Committee Demand That Z. O. Congress Be Convened in U. S.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Nov. 7.—A demand that the forthcoming 17th World Zionist Congress be held in the United States was made by the opposition members of the Zionist Actions Committee at today's session of the emergency meeting of the Committee called to consider the crisis in the Zionist movement arising from the new British policy in Palestine.

If the Congress is held in the United States, which is unlikely because of technical difficulties involved, it would be the first time it has been held anywhere outside of Europe. The suggestion that the Congress be shifted to the United States first gained currency when Dr. Chaim Weizmann resigned the presidency of the World Zionist Organization and of the Jewish Agency with a statement intimating that the

(Continued on Page 4)

Arab Executive Postpones Action on British Plan, Press Divided on Arab Policy

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Nov. 7.—While the Arab Executive has been deliberately postponing taking action on the British government's statement of policy, evidently waiting to see what Britain will do about the storm of protest raised by the Jews and the friends of the Balfour Declaration, a cable from Jamal Hussein, one of the Executive's secretaries who is now in London, warns the Arab leaders that the protests of the Jews may result in modification of the British policy unless the Arabs show their hand.

Not only has the Arab Executive delayed action but the Arab press is badly divided on what tactics should be used. Aljamea Al Arabia, organ of the Grand Mufti's faction, is bitter at the silence of the Arabs while the Al Hayat remarks that "Allah sides with those who wait."

The Arab Executive has carefully concealed the proceedings of its two sessions this week but it is generally known that it has not yet arrived at any decision, a majority of the members desiring to wait to see not only what the government and Jews contemplate but what the Mufti's faction plans. Most of the members of the Arab Executive are disposed to follow an opposite course to whatever the Mufti and his followers do.

Reports of the Mufti's waning influence appear to be confirmed by the refusal of the government to appoint one of his followers to a vacancy on the Moslem Supreme Council. The Mufti, it is understood, has appealed to the Colonial Office against High Commissioner Chancellors appointment.

MacDonald Personally Handling British Palestine Policy

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Nov. 7.—The initiative in dealing with the government's Palestine policy has been wrested from Lord Passfield, Colonial Secretary, and Premier MacDonald is now dealing with the matter personally, the parliamentary correspondent of the Jewish Chronicle says. Ministerial circles are reported to be admittedly worried over the denunciation of the White Paper on strictly legal grounds by so eminent a legal authority as Sir John Simon. A number of cabinet members who find no comfort in Lord Passfield's attempts to "interpret" away the passages in the White Paper that have offended the Jews are really alarmed. It is felt that unless the terms of the White Paper are substantially changed the government's position will be badly shaken as a result of the forthcoming bye-election in Whitechapel, a Jewish constituency, in which the government's Palestine policy will be the chief issue.

The Jewish Chronicle's correspondent asserts that the worried ministers prefer a considerable climbing down in the Palestine policy rather than the loss of a seat which would do the Labor government no good. The correspondent also learns that in framing the much-criticized White Paper the views of Dr. Drummond Shiels, under-secretary for the Colonies who returned from a brief visit to Palestine just after the new policy was announced, had been entirely ignored. It is expected that Lord Passfield will be sharply criticized in the forthcoming parliamentary debate on Palestine for having rushed the White Paper out for publication before the return of Dr. Shiels.

Will Ban Women from Warsaw Kehillah Elections

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Nov. 7.—Women will have no right to participate in the elections for members of the official Jewish communities or kehillahs in Warsaw, according to the rules governing these elections just promulgated by the Polish government. Jews who have publicly opposed Judaism, that is atheists and Communists, will also be barred from the elections.

The new ordinance also regulates the elections of rabbis and the functions of the Jewish communities throughout the country. Uniform election of rabbis is also provided for. Elections of members of the kehillahs are to take place every four years. Rabbis will be required to have as a minimum secular education a diploma for an elementary school and no rabbi under 25 years of age will be permitted to serve as the official representative of a kehillah.

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN

Published every day in the week except Saturday and holidays by the

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN CO.

Executive and Editorial Office
125 East 46th Street, New York, N. Y.
Jacob Landau President
Samuel Binstock Treasurer
Sylvia Birnbaum Secretary

Vol. VII. Sunday, Nov. 9, 1930. No. 1801.

Member of Jewish Telegraphic Agency
New York 125 East 46th Street
London Ludgate House, Fleet St.
Paris 42 Rue Le Peletier
Berlin Eisenbahnstrasse 6
Warsaw Ulica Aleje Jerozolimskie Nr. 18
Jerusalem Hasolei Bldg.

Subscription Rates

	U.S. and Canada	Foreign
One Year	$10.00	$15.00
Six Months	6.00	8.00
Three Month	1.00	1.50

Entered as second-class matter Nov. 14, 1929, at the Post Office at New York, N. Y., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Copyrighted

Herald Welcomes Passfield Letter Explaining White Paper

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Nov. 7.—Admitting that the White Paper on Palestine was not a "happily phrased document" and that it "laid itself wide open to misunderstanding," the Daily Herald, the government's organ, today welcomes Lord Passfield's letter in yesterday's Times, in which he explained what he asserted to be misinterpretations of certain paragraphs in that document, as helping to resolve to the confusion that followed the publication of the government's statement.

The Daily Herald is pleased at the Colonial Office's "plain assurance that state lands are not and will not be reserved only for the Arabs and that Arab unemployment will not be taken to be tantamount to the impossibility of Jewish immigration, and that immigration in fact will not be prohibited."

Krass to Defend Religion in Debate with Darrow

Rabbi Nathan Krass, leader of Temple Emanuel-El, will defend religion against Clarence Darrow, well-known criminal lawyer and noted agnostic, on Saturday evening, November 15, at Mecca Temple. Dr. Krass will take the affirmative of the question "Is Religion Necessary?" Rev. Dr. William Norman Guthrie, rector of St. Mark's in the Bowditch, will preside. The debate is sponsored by the Discussion Guild.

Rabbi Krass will debate Darrow in place of Abbe Ernest Dimnet, French cleric, who cancelled his engagement with Mr. Darrow upon orders from the chancery of the Catholic Archdiocese of New York. Among those who will welcome Dr. Krass and Mr. Darrow and act as honorary chairmen are Bishop Francis J. McConnell and Rabbi Louis I. Newman.

J. N. F. Plans Fund-Raising Drive Soon to Further Work of Land-Buying in Palestine

The Jewish National Fund will shortly undertake a great money-raising campaign for the purpose of furthering its work and buying more land in Palestine, it was announced today. The campaign will reach its peak coincident with the coming of Mendel Menachim Ussishkin, head of the Jewish National Fund, and known as the "grand old man of Zionism," to America.

The convening of a national conference on the Palestine land problem, to be held under the auspices of the Jewish National Fund of America, was also urged.

Plans for the campaign, which is to be by far the greatest ever undertaken for the Fund, were discussed Thursday evening at a meeting in the Pennsylvania Hotel. Emanuel Neumann, American president of the Jewish National Fund, was chairman. The executive committee of the organization, augmented by representatives from all other Jewish groups interested in Palestine participated.

The meeting was addressed by Rabbi Nachman H. Ebin of the Mizrahi, who declared that the coming of Ussishkin to America should be celebrated by the purchase of large sections of Palestine land. Rabbi Maliansky compared the present situation to that in the time of Jeremiah. When Nebuchadnezzar stormed at the walls of Jerusalem, and Jeremiah himself sat up to his neck imprisoned in a well of slime, Jeremiah's cousin came to him to sell him a parcel of land. "And Jeremiah bought land," said Rabbi Maliansky, "and he bought that land on that day as a protest against Lord Passfield. That was the beginning of the Jewish National Fund."

Elias Epstein, general secretary of the Jewish National Fund in Jerusalem, who has just arrived in New York, refuted point by point many of the arguments presented in the Simpson report. He emphasized the possibility of developing seven million dunams of land now waste in the south of Palestine. And he said "The Jews altogether own only 5.6% of Palestine. The Jewish National Fund owns only 1.25% of Palestine. Does that sound like we are driving out the Arab? The Simpson report regards our work in Palestine only as a colonization movement. Yet when Sir John Hope Simpson was in Jerusalem he visited our office and spoke then as though he understood our ideal. He said, 'I understand now that the Jewish National Fund is a prophylactic against the Jewish national disease of homelessness.' He seems to have forgotten that Of course we insist that Jews do their own work on the land. The inmost part of our ideal is to build a self-respecting Jewish peasantry, not a group of little landlords building their homes on the backs of Arabs."

Isaac Hamlin, secretary of the National Labor Committee on Palestine, also just returned from there, said "There are at this moment a million

(Continued on Page 4)

Jewish Tribune Council Attacks State Aid to Lake Placid Club Because of Anti-Semitism

Protesting to Governor Roosevelt that state funds are being used to improve the property of a private club which discriminates against Jews, the National Council of the Jewish Tribune on Thursday attacked the plan to hold the 1932 Olympic games at Lake Placid. In a statement which accompanies the letter to the governor, the Council declared that $60,000 was being spent by the state to build a bobsled run for the games on property of the Lake Placid Club, which, according to the Council, has always barred Jews from membership and is a "notorious anti-Semitic vacation resort."

In the letter, Governor Roosevelt is asked to prevent the state "from debasing itself in promoting racial antagonisms." In answer to this, representatives of both the state and the Olympic games organization said that the Council was "very much mistaken" in its attitude, declaring that "not one penny" was being spent to improve club property. Wallace Pierce, attorney for the state commission, explained that a perpetual easement had been given to the state by the club on the property where the bobsled run was being built and that after the games both will go to the State Conservation Commission.

Dr. Godfrey Dewey, chairman of the Winter Games Committee and executive vice-president of the Lake Placid Club, also denied the charges. The Council of the Jewish Tribune in its statement objected to his connection with the games, declaring that his father, Dr. Melville Dewey, founder of the Lake Placid Club, had resigned after charges of anti-Semitism had been made against him by prominent Jews.

In an article which the Jewish Tribune publishes in its current issue it is charged that items for improvements on the property of the Lake Placid Club were contemplated in the state budget for the promotion of the games. David N. Mosessohn, chairman of the Jewish Tribune council, who signed the letter to Governor Roosevelt, insisted yesterday that his charges were correct, declaring that any improvement to the Lake Placid region would benefit the Lake Placid Club.

Insult to Leon Blum Leads to Fight in French Chamber

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Paris, Nov. 7.—An insulting cartoon of Leon Blum, Jewish Socialist leader of France, published in the Nationalist newspaper La Liberté, whose director, Camille Aymard, called M. Blum a traitor, led to a fist fight yesterday in the corridors of the Chamber of Deputies between Socialist and Nationalist Deputies and newspapermen.

Armed Republican guards had to be called to put an end to the fight in which about twenty or thirty persons were engaged. M. Aymard, who was the principal point of attack, had friends on his side. During the fight he produced from his pocket a dog whip, which indicated that he came prepared for the tussle.

Boston Jewish Charities Raise $536,950; 1,500 New Subscribers

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Boston, Nov. 7.—Contributions totaling $536,950 have been turned in to the Associated Jewish Philanthropies in the first two weeks of its $750,000 campaign, Louis E. Kirstein, president, announced today. This represents a record amount raised in this community in such a short period.

The total raised to date is within $50,000 of the amount raised during the entire preceding year and includes 6,251 subscribers, more than 1,500 in excess of the complete list of subscribers for 1929-30. Another indication of the remarkable response of the community is the receipt of more than $75,000 in cash which is to be used for immediate relief purposes.

The campaign will be continued until the $750,000 goal is reached thus assuring the $65,000 anonymous contribution contingent on the campaign quota being reached.

Henry Penn, campaign chairman, pointed out that the non-Jewish support given the drive this year was also unprecedented. Several thousand dollars have been received from sources which were unsolicited, the donors writing that they were anxious to add their contribution in tribute to their fellow citizens of the Jewish faith.

Schwartz's New Opus Small Scale Jewish "Passion Play"

A Jewish "Passion Play" on a small scale describes fairly accurately "The Witch of Castile," with which opus Maurice Schwartz's Yiddish Art Theatre opened this season in New York. The play, written by Sholom Asch, seeks to portray Jewish life during the Inquisition period of the Roman-Catholic Church under Pope Paul IV in the 16th Century. It undertakes to describe the horrors which the Jewish Ghetto lived through during this era.

The production is very elaborate as far as scenic effects are concerned. The types, however, are very much misrepresented, especially the Pope who plays the leading role. Joseph Buloff, who plays the role of the Pope, exaggerates too much by presenting Paul IV as a half-mad, weak and sadistic character.

Both Mr. Schwartz and Mr. Buloff keep the audience on edge. Miss Stella Adler is drawing attention in the leading feminine role. The play has provoked great interest in the Jewish theatrical world and is one of the outstanding productions of the current Jewish theatrical season.

2,822 Jewish Immigrants Came to from July to September

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Washington, Nov. 7.—During the three months of July, August and September 1930, 2,822 Jewish immigrants entered this country, according to statistics issued by the Immigration Bureau of the Department of Labor yesterday. During the month of September alone, 835 Jewish immigrants entered the United States.

Mrs. M. F. Rosenau, Nationally Known Philanthropist, Dead

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Boston, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Myra Frank Rosenau, nationally known Jewish philanthropic worker, died here suddenly yesterday at the Beth-Israel Hospital at the age of 53. Mrs. Rosenau, who was born in Detroit and educated in the public schools of Pittsburgh, was graduated from Bryn Mawr in 1900. In the same year she was married to Dr. Milton Rosenau and moved to Boston in 1909.

She was president of the Boston Section, Council of Jewish Women. Other Jewish organizations in which she was active were the Federated Jewish Charities, the Sisterhood of Temple Israel and the Hecht Neighborhood House.

Mattuck Breaks Anglo-Jewry's United Front on White Paper

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Nov. 7.—The united front which British Jewry created in opposition to the Passfield White Paper on Palestine has been broken by the Rev. Dr. Israel Mattuck, leader of Liberal Judaism in England, who has just published an article in the Daily Mail in which he expresses approval of the White Paper.

Rabbi Mattuck argues in the article that America and Germany, which contain the largest Jewish communities and the most important sections of world Jewry, are not in sympathy with Zionism, but rather dislike it, since Zionism converts the Jews into a political group.

Dr. Mattuck concludes that the White Paper has now removed the uncertainty which has been hanging for a long time over Palestine and has freed the country from "petty nationalist politics." He believes that peace and security will now reign in Palestine, which will achieve national prosperity in which both Jews and Arabs will share.

Palestine Jewish Labor Chiefs Coming Here to Aid Drive

David Ben-Gurion and Joseph Baraz, leaders of the Palestine Jewish workers federation, the Histadruth Ha'Ovdim, are coming to the United States to aid this year's Geveerkshaften campaign on behalf of the Jewish workers in Palestine. A cablegram to this effect was received yesterday by the National Labor Committee for the Organized Jewish Workers in Palestine.

Ben-Gurion is one of the most important political leaders in the Palestine labor movement. Joseph Baraz is the founder of the colony Daganita and one of the first leaders of the Jewish agricultural workers in Palestine.

Ben-Gurion and Baraz are expected here by the end of the month. They will make their first public appearance here at the Jewish workers' convention which will take place November 28th to 30th in Irving Plaza Hall. On Saturday evening, November 29th, a reception will be held for them in Carnegie Hall.

Freiheit Calls on Jews to Desert Zionism, Back Soviets

Calling upon the Jewish workers to desert the Zionist cause and to fight for Soviet Russia and Communism, an editorial in Friday's Freiheit, New York Yiddish Communist organ, enumerates what it alleges to be Jewish failures in Palestine with regard to land settlement, and contrasts this with what it regards as the great success of Jewish land settlement in Russia within recent years.

"During the past five years the Soviet Union has settled three hundred thousand Jews on the land," says the editorial. "During the coming five years it will build a large new settlement in Bira-Bidjan. Wherever Jews live in compact masses the whole governmental apparatus is conducted in Yiddish. If great Jewish masses will come to Bira-Bidjan a Soviet Republic will be organized there."

"All this is being done by the Soviet Republic without noise, without trumpeting; it is part of the general work of building up the country. The Jews in the Soviet Union have equal rights together with all citizens. Jewish books and periodicals are being issued at the expense of the government. Anti-Semitism is being uprooted with an iron hand."

"In Palestine it is just the opposite. There during the past fifty years hundreds of millions of dollars have poured in, nevertheless only about twenty thousand Jews are settled upon the land. There everything is kept up by philanthropy, and there is no room for a large Jewish population. There the ruler is the British imperialistic power which has encouraged pogroms and which now declares openly that it will give the Jews no governmental power in Palestine. There Jews are being settled upon alien soil from which the peasants are being driven off by force, although they have been living there scores and hundreds of years. There a poisonous hatred on the part of the local population towards the aliens who come with the bayonet and the dollar exists, and the masses have already revolted against the alien oppressors."

"Down with Zionism! Long live the Soviet Union!"

Rabbi Minda Heads Minneapolis Federation, Plan Fund Campaign

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Minneapolis, Nov. 7.—Rabbi Albert G. Minda was re-elected president of the Minneapolis Federation for Jewish Social Service for the ensuing year at the annual meeting of the Federation held recently. Other officers elected were A. N. Bearman, vice-president; Arthur Brin, treasurer, and Miss Anne Skolsky, secretary. The Federation was organized a year ago to take charge of the collection and distribution of funds for national and foreign Jewish institutions and the local Talmud Torah. Plans are now being made to hold the second annual campaign for funds.

Dr. Magnes Opens Fifth Hebrew University Year, Says Poverty Does Not Harm Science, Arts

(Continued from Page 1)

of living was too high for so small and poor a country as Palestine.

Deplores Student Political Activities
Professor Fraenckel, head of the University's department of mathematics, referred to the tragic times through which the country is passing and deprecated student participation in political affairs. He pointed out in connection with the present political situation that Jewry's connection ante-dated the Balfour Declaration and optimistically quoted the legend of God telling Moses, when the Jews stood terror-stricken on the banks of the Red Sea on their way out of Egypt, to order the children of Israel to go forward.

At the end of the academic year which was inaugurated today students will be graduated for the first time and degrees will be granted in the faculty of humanities which was organized in 1929. According to the University's year book, released simultaneously with the opening of the new semester, the chief work accomplished during the past year was the establishment of a University Press Association.

Plans for the University Press Association in the coming year include the publication of "The Third Wall," by Dr. E. L. Sukenik and Dr. L. H. Mayer, embodying the results of excavations carried out by the University and the Jewish Palestine Exploration Society, in Hebrew and in an English translation. Other works to be published include "Toseth-Concordant" by Rabbi J. H. Kassoovsky and the "Ancient Synagogue of Beth-Alpha" by Dr. E. L. Sukenik. The publication of these works is rendered possible by funds from the Dropsie College in Philadelphia, Congregation Emanu-El in New York, the Jewish Academy of New York and a grant from the Hebrew University budget.

Expedition at Samaria

Archaeological works planned by the University in the coming year, according to the year book, will be an expedition in cooperation with Harvard University at Samaria. The report of the University's work for the year indicates that the Malaria Research Station at Rosh Pinah continued its work almost uninterruptedly during the entire period of the disturbances. "This fact testified to the confidence of the native population in the station, and particularly to the personnel in charge," Dr. Magnes pointed out.

Doar Hayom Has Special Edition Honoring Jabotinsky

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Jerusalem, Nov. 7.—The Revisionist Hebrew daily, Doar Hayom, today published a special edition as a jubilee number in honor of the fiftieth birthday of Vladimir Jabotinsky, world leader of the Zionist Revisionists. Among the contributors to the issue are Lt. Col. John H. Paterson, commander of the Zion Muir Corps., Prof. Joseph Klausner, Wolfgang von Weisl, Isaac Naiditch and M. Levontin.

J. N. F. Plans Fund-Raising Drive Soon to Further Work of Land-Buying in Palestine

(Continued from Page 2)

dunams of land for sale in Palestine. It is a good land, but waste land. No Arab would be dispossessed off that land." He further pictured the condition of the Jewish settler in Palestine as no longer that of the "hungry chaltz" of ten years ago.

"Our colonies are literally flowing with milk," said Mr. Hamlin. "There is a surplus of Jewish produce. The Jews have made a success of colonization, and the work must be expanded."

The meeting passed a resolution demanding that the doors of Transjordan be opened to Jews or Arabs for colonization and settlement.

The "action resolution" called upon "the chairmen of all Zionist districts, Haddassah chapters, camps of the Order Sons of Zion, branches of the Mizrahi, Poale Zion, Zeire Zion, and other Jewish groups to aid the Palestine Land Fund campaign by adopting suitable quotas and vigorously participating in raising them at dates as early as possible."

A statement repudiating "as utterly absurd" the charges in the White Paper was also adopted. A resolution to welcome Ussishkin was acclaimed. The text reads: "This Conference has heard with gratification the report of a forthcoming visit to the country of M. M. Ussishkin, the President of the Keren Kayemeth le Israel, indefatigable champion of the Zionist movement and the practical application of its ideals in the up-building work in Palestine through the medium of the Jewish National Fund. This Conference looks forward with joy to the wider understanding of the ideals of Zionism and to the greater inspiration for extending the upbuilding work, which will result from his presence among us. This Conference requests the leaders of the Jewish National Fund of America to immediately take steps for the organization of the nation-wide Ussishkin Reception Committee."

Others addressing the meeting were Mrs. Irma Lindheim, Hadassah leader, Miss Judith Elkind, of Hadassah, and Ephraim Kaplan.

On the same evening many protest meetings were held. Senator Kean addressed 1500 Jews in the Temple B'nai Abraham of Newark, New Jersey. Messages were received from Felix M. Warburg, Rabbi Stephen Wise, Governor Larson, Senator Baird, and Mayor Congleton of Newark. Rabbi Wolf Gold of Brooklyn, and Judge Wm. M. Lewis of Philadelphia were among the speakers. Judge Newcorn of Plainfield presided. A meeting was also held in Union City.

On Wednesday, protest mass meetings were held at the Jewish Community Center in Jersey City, with Rabbi Leon Spitz and Judge Morris E. Barison presiding, and in the community center at Atlantic City, where Rabbi Abraham Neumann of Philadelphia and Rev. Henry Merle Mellen of the First Presbyterian Church were among the speakers.

Opposition Members of Actions Committee Demand That Z. O. Congress Be Convened in U. S.

(Continued from Page 1)

Zionist headquarters might be shifted to America.

There was only a brief session today, the final plenary session being postponed until tomorrow night to give the various committees an opportunity to conclude their discussion and frame their resolutions. The committees are meeting difficulties on the question of the formation of a provisional committee to run the Zionist Organization instead of the present Executive until the Congress is convened.

Other snags holding up the reports of the committees are the differences of opinion as to the time and place of the next Congress and the text and form of the various resolutions and their coordination. Most speakers favor a congress not later than the end of January and the Zionist Executive is not opposed to a congress in February. Carlsbad, a favorite place for Zionist congress, has been mentioned as the scene of the 17th congress.

At last night's session middle class colonization of Palestine was the principal subject of discussion. The suggestions included the speedy settlement of Jews with small means on land owned by the Jewish National Fund. This, it was pointed out, would achieve the double purpose of a larger immigration of the middle classes and the development of all the land now in Jewish possession as well as bringing more money into the country.

Col. Frederick Kisch, chairman of the Palestine Zionist Executive, pointed out that in addition to the above plans there is also the hope of a certain number of labor immigration certificates being granted by the Colonial Office, which, while not numerically large or in accord with the Zionists' demand, would still be considerable.

He also outlined the immediate financial requirements of the Zionist Executive and the Keren Hayesod, the chief financial instrument of the Jewish Agency. Complaining of the small budget that the Jewish Agency allotted for Palestine development, Colonel Kisch voiced the hope that the Keren Hayesod campaign would begin in the United States early next year in order to utilize the willingness and determination of American Jewry to increase their contributions for Palestine work.

Other speakers recommended that further coordination be made between the Jewish National Fund and Keren Hayesod campaigns in the United States.

Rabbi Luchs Re-elected Head Temple Israel, New Rochelle

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

New Rochelle, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Rabbi Alvin S. Luchs has just been unanimously re-elected to the rabbinate of Temple Israel at the annual meeting of the congregation, at which a silver plaque was presented to Oscar Heyman, for 20 years a member of the temple and past president and trustee.