FATE OF GERMAN JEWRY DEPENDS ON CABINET, BUT NO REASON FOR PANIC YET CENTRAL UNION LEADERS SAY

Nazis Propose to Confiscate the Property of All Jews Should They Win in Parliamentary Elections, It Is Stated; Medical Association Split on Nazi Motion

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 6—The fate of the Jews in Germany depends upon whether or not the cabinet will be in a position to withstand the pressure of Adolf Hitler, but there is as yet no ground for panic, leaders of the Central Union of German Citizens of the Jewish Faith emphasized yesterday in a press conference.

Thus far, the Central Union is not disappointed in the cabinet of Chancellor von Papen, it was stated.

The spokesman for the Central Union pointed out, however, that the boycott agitation against the Jews is assuming greater proportions, while the number of anti-Semitic placards is showing a wider distribution in the provinces.

The propaganda calling for the ouster of Jewish officials is also growing stronger.

The Central Union, it was revealed, has thus far won fifty court decisions in suits it has brought in connection with the boycott agitation.

The Central Union leaders reported as a shameful fact that Jews advertise in the Nazi press for the purpose of attracting Nazi customers.

In Hamburg, it was revealed, a candy factory owned by a Jew, manufactures candy with a Nazi emblem.

There are two streets in Berlin, it was disclosed, where Jews are not permitted to settle or maintain businesses, Dr. I. N. Steinberg stated.

All Jewish Property Confiscation Nazi Aim

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 6—All property owned by Jews, regardless of the date of their arrival in Germany, will be confiscated by the Nazis, should they prove victorious in the forthcoming elections, it is disclosed by the "Welt am Montag."

This provision forms Article 14 of the Nazi program, the paper says.

"The entire movable property owned by the Jewish nation can be confiscated," the Nazi program stated.

Another paragraph asserts that "Useful citizens will be placed in concentration camps and will receive treat-

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

VIENNA, July 6—The World Executive of the Agudath Israel, meeting here, today declined to accept the invitation of the American Jewish Congress to participate in the forthcoming world Jewish conference in Geneva on August 14th, to discuss the advisability and the feasibility of constituting a world Jewish congress.

The Executive voted against participating in this conference on the ground that the Jewish position is most difficult in any case and a Congress will only have an adverse effect and will make the Jewish position less tenable in various countries of the Diaspora.

"We do not oppose the idea when a suitable occasion arises," the Executive stated, "which will permit various Jewish organizations to meet in order to discuss quietly various measures designed to ease the Jewish position with-

The papers point "to the danger to Poland of an invasion of German Jews, who frightened by Hitler, may seek refuge in Poland," and demand that the government take steps to protect Polish interests from "the prospective intruders."

The papers complain against "the fatal error" on the part of the government in naturalizing six hundred thousand Jews of the Russian provinces.

They warn against a similar government mistake should German Jews decide to settle in Polish provinces.

B'nai Brith Plans $40,000Wider Scope Campaign

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

MILWAUKEE, July 6—A $40,000 wider scope campaign for the forthcoming year was announced here by the B'nai Brith District Grand Lodge No. 6 at its annual convention.

Spokesmen for every delegation pledged to contribute to the quota which will be used for the work of the Hillel Foundation, the Anti-Defamation League and the Aleph Zadek Aleph.

The pledges were received from eight states and three provinces of the district after Henry Monsky of the Omaha National Executive Committee warned that the three organizations will have to shut down if the goal is not reached.

"We face stark bankruptcy this year," he said, "and we do not know whether we will be able to carry on the Hillel Foundation or the A.Z.A. or the Anti-Defamation League if we do not raise this money," Mr. Monsky said.

A strong attack on race prejudice in this country and other countries of the world was delivered by Sigmund Livingston of Chicago, Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League at the annual banquet of the district last night.

He urged that the B'nai Brith "appeal to the powers of the civilized world in the name of humanity to take the necessary measures to guarantee the rights of all minority groups in every country swayed by passion and hatred."

Governor LaFollette welcomed the convention at the banquet session and cited the leading positions held by the Jews and the contributions of the Jews to public welfare.

Four hundred delegates and visitors from eight states and three Canadian provinces attended the convention which is the sixty-fourth in the history of the Grand Lodge.

Methods of promoting good will between Jews and Christians were discussed at a meeting of the General Committee.

An appeal to members to support the humanitarian work of the Order despite a curtailment in finances was issued by Otto G. Felton, secretary, in his annual report.

Senate Passes Amended Bill On Immigration Status of U. S. Citizens' Husbands

Exemption to Be Granted Only to Husbands Married Up Until July 1, 1932; Preference Status for Others

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

WASHINGTON, July 6—Following an agreement reached earlier in the day between the Senate and the House joint conferees, the Senate yesterday passed the conferees report on the Dickstein bill for the exemption from the quota of the husbands of American citizens.

The bill as passed no longer carries the provision which would place American citizen wives on the same status as American citizen husbands, but leaves them in the previous status of unqualified exemption.

The amendment offered by Senator Reed restricting exemption from the quota to husbands of those married prior to July 1, 1932, remains.

Preference within the quota is the only provision made for those married subsequently to July 1, 1932.

The House is expected to adopt the bill in its present form and send it to the President for signature within a day or so before adjournment which may take place on Saturday.

The bill granting exemption from the quota to parents of American citizens, is expected to come up for consideration by the Senate Immigration Committee today.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BUCHAREST, July 6—The anti-Jewish incitement in the villages of Moldavia has reached such an alarming state that the government is warned by the Liberal organ, "Victor-tor," that the situation may soon grow out of hands, if the incitement is permitted to continue.

"Seize your scythes and whips! Beat the Jidanie mercilessly" says a leaflet distributed by the Iron Guard among the peasants in the villages of Moldavia. The slogans are typical of the anti-Semitic agitation.

"Victor" recalls to the government the peasant disturbances of 1907 and warns that a similar situation may result.

Broadcast Alarm Against Threatened Invasion of Poland By "German Jewish Intruders"

Pommerania was made the subject of an interpellation yesterday by the Club of Jewish Deputies to the Minister of Interior.

The interpellation includes a letter from the Jewish Community of Grudzians and the Jewish Merchants Union of Thorn.

The first letter describes the lack of safety for Jews in the streets and public places where they are continuously attacked by hooligans walking in groups of twenty.

In Thorn, says the memorandum, the boycotters were assisted by the press in their agitation against the Jews.

The Jewish Deputies demand that the guilty be punished and the agitating press be confiscated, inasmuch as more serious excesses are in store if these measures are not taken.

The terrorization against the Jews has spread to the roadside between Rogow and Lodz where hooligans have made it a habit to attack and rob Jewish merchants.

Among those seriously wounded are Leib Hochspiel, aged 30, and Menashe Nisenbaum, sixty, who were found in a pool of blood. Together with them were three Jewish tramps, one of them aged sixty-five, who was unconscious and who had sustained broken arms and legs.

The hooligans, it is stated, are for the most part, sons of well-to-do farmers. Four arrests were made.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, July 6—The Administrative Tribunal here yesterday confirmed the decision of the District Governor of Pommerania who refused to grant a permit for the purchase of a house in the township of Brodnica to a Jewish woman, Ester Wiener by name.

In accordance with German law whenever immovable property changes hands, a permit is required. The Polish administration is utilizing this law to debar Jews from purchasing houses and other property.

Ester Wiener brought her case to the Administrative Tribunal after the District governor had decided against

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 6—The Communist organ, "Rote Fahne," today publishes a story denying that the Communists in the Prussian Diet voted for the law calling for the confiscation of the property of East European Jews, as indicated in the minutes of the Diet sessions.

The paper asserts that the Communists introduced an amendment and substituted the phrase "East European Jews" with the phrase "royal properties."

The Communist organ, however, deliberately makes no mention of the facts, as confirmed by Communist leaders to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, that when this amendment was defeated the Communists voted for the entire law, because they did not wish to lose the benefits to be derived from that section which calls all those earning more than 1,000 marks monthly to contribute the surplus to the government treasury.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 6—Whether or not the Nazis win an absolute majority in the forthcoming Reichstag elections or whether they enter a coalition, the rights of the Jews are certain to be diminished, the Central Union of German citizens of the Jewish Faith explains today.

Should the Nazis win an absolute majority, they will deprive the Jews of their rights by legal enactment, the Central Union says.

Should the Nazis join a coalition, they will attain the same goal by administrative methods.
