LEHMAN NOMINATED FOR NEW YORK GOVERNOR; WOULD BE FIRST JEW TO HOLD THIS OFFICE

Is First Jew to Be Chosen for This Office by Democratic Party in New York; Has Distinguished Career in Philanthropic, Civic and Jewish Communal Endeavor; Record in Office of Lieutenant-Governor, First Political Post, Highly Praised; Nominated After Two Day Battle When Delegation of Opposition Party Threaten to Swing Toward Him

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

ALBANY, Oct. 5—Lieutenant Governor Herbert H. Lehman, noted Jewish philanthropist, civic and communal leader, last night became the first Jew ever to be nominated for the post of governor of New York State by the Democratic party and, if elected, will be the first Jew to hold this high office in New York State.

Colonel Lehman was nominated by acclamation after a stormy two day battle concerning his candidacy, based not on his personal fitness for the office, but on the score which Tammany Hall has against Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic presidential nominee, whose choice Colonel Lehman is.

Nazi Headquarters Expel Saalfeldt; Order Inquiry Into Racial Origin of All Leaders

Saalfeldt Expelled Because of Jewish Origin; Investigation to Be on Same Basis

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Oct. 5—Nazi headquarters in Berlin have ordered the expulsion from the party of Dr. Wolfgang Saalfeldt, Nazi leader at Eutin in Holstein, because he is of Jewish origin.

The case of Dr. Saalfeldt has recently occupied a leading position in the press. Dr. Saalfeldt brought a libel action against the local leader of the Tannenberg League because the latter charged he was of Jewish origin. He was not, however, able to dispute the proofs.

A leader of the Nazi party in Luebeck, Dr. Brendel, testified in court at the time, that Saalfeldt would be permitted to remain in the Party because of his services despite the fact that he is a Jew.

Now comes the sequel to the whole affair with the order from Nazi headquarters to expel Saalfeldt.

Simultaneously it was announced that a thorough investigation into the racial origin of all leaders of the Nazi party would be conducted to establish whether or not they are Jews.

Colonel Lehman, who is serving his second term as Lieutenant Governor, his first and only political office, had as his principal supporters former Governor Alfred E. Smith and Governor Roosevelt, who for the first time since the Democratic national convention, united to battle the cause of his nomination.

Tammany Hall, angered because of Governor Roosevelt's ouster proceedings against Mayor James J. Walker, which led to the latter's resignation, yielded last night after numerous conferences because the tide of popular favor for Lehman became so strong that even Tammany's adherents threatened to rebel and swing to the Lehman standard.

Colonel Lehman's name was placed before the convention by former Governor Alfred E. Smith. An address approving the choice was later delivered by Governor Roosevelt, while Colonel Lehman himself delivered a short acceptance speech, in which he said:

"I realize to the fullest the confidence you have reposed in me, and I embrace with full knowledge of its responsibility the opportunity of further service to the State. I pledge to you that I will not fail the people of the State or my party which has just

Mufti Complains Jews Are Spreading Communism, Government Favors Jews

Head of Arab Executive and Mufti Received by Palestine High Commissioner

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

JERUSALEM, Oct. 5—The Grand Mufti of Jerusalem and the chairman of the Arab Executive, Musa Kazem Pasha, were received yesterday by the Palestine High Commissioner.

After a period of silence, the Arab representatives renewed their complaints against the Jews and against what they called the favoritism shown to the Jews by the government.

Musa Kazem Pasha had previously

"Angriff" Editors Get Prison For Libeling Dr. Weiss; Demand Lauscher Removal

Jewish Circles Ask Leader of Centre Fraction Be Removed Because of Sentiments Regarding Jews

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Oct. 5—Two editors of "Der Angriff," organ of the Nazi party in Berlin, Krause and Lippert, received sentences of five and three months imprisonment today having been found guilty of libel against Dr. Bernhard Weiss, former vice-president of the Berlin police department.

Two police officers who were witnesses for "Der Angriff" editors and who supplied the Hitler paper with calumnious material were held for trial for perjury.

Dr. Weiss was the target of calumnious attack by the Nazi press because he is a Jew. His own declaration on the witness stand made a deep impression.

Liberal Jewish Elements in Warsaw May Form Own Community

Opposition to Leadership of Agudath Israel Expressed at Session on Budget

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, Oct. 5—A budget in the amount of 250,000 zlotys was adopted this morning by the Warsaw Jewish Community after a stormy all night session in the course of which the national bloc left the session after being outvoted by the Agudath Israel majority.

The budget makes provision for the engaging of 35 new rabbis despite prolonged opposition to this item on the ground that the expenditure is unjustified under present conditions.

It was also decided that Polish is to continue to be the language of instruction in schools maintained by the Kehillah.

A split in the Jewish Community with the liberal elements forming a Community of their own is now indicated.

The liberal elements, it is learned, are planning to submit to the Minister of Religion for confirmation and recognition statutes for the organization of a new Kehillah.

Sir Rudolph Slatin Pasha Dies; Converted Jew; Won Renown For Great Britain and Austria

Adventures in Egypt and Africa Won Him Wide Popularity; Was Born
an Austrian Jew

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

VIENNA, Oct. 5.—Sir Rudolph Slatin Pasha, an Austrian Jew who adopted the Christian faith and attained high honors in the services of his own country and that of Great Britain, died here yesterday at the age of seventy-five.

Sir Rudolph succumbed to a stomach ailment for which he underwent an operation a month ago.

Sir Rudolph was born Rudolph Carl Slatin and although he never renounced his Austrian citizenship, he achieved renown for his services to Great Britain as Governor General of Darfur and Inspector General of the Sudan. In recognition of his contributions to the history of Great Britain in Egypt and Africa, King Edward VII knighted the man who by this time had attained the rank of Major General in the British Army.

This did not deter the Austrian government from making him a Baron in 1906.

Sir Rudolph was visiting Austria when the World War broke out. He thereupon renounced all his British titles, but refused to fight against the Allies. Instead he took a post with the Red Cross, later becoming European head of the Red Cross work aid to prisoners of war.

Sir Rudolph started on his career of adventure as a boy of sixteen when he went to Egypt where he made the acquaintance of the explorers Schweinfurth, Rohlfis and Heuglin and Emin Pasha who in turn introduced and honored me in choosing me as its standard bearer."

John F. Curry, leader of Tammany Hall, in an effort to avoid being charged with religious prejudice offered the name of Borough president Samuel Levy of Manhattan as a counter choice to Colonel Lehman.

A Jew, it is stated, according to the Forward, was among the principals supporting Tammany's stand against Mr. Lehman. In this connection Max D. Steuer of New York is mentioned by the paper. Mr. Steuer's stand with Tammany Hall, it is alleged, was due to jealousy, having himself coveted the nomination and again was the price he was willing to pay in order to secure the endorsement of Tammany for the candidacy of his son, Aaron for Supreme Court Justice. The paper also mentions that Aaron Steuer is married to a Catholic.

The selection of Colonel Lehman met with unusually wide acclaim in the press, where editorials praising the qualities he is able to bring to high office are published.

Colonel Lehman who is fifty-four years old and a native of New York City where he was born on March 28, 1878, comes from a distinguished Jewish family. A brother, Judge Irving Lehman has served on the bench of New York State courts since 1908. For fourteen years Judge Irving Lehman sat on the Supreme Court Bench, being elected for a four year term in 1923 by nomination of both parties and again by nomination of both parties, he was elected an Associate Judge of the New York Court of Appeals to serve until 1938.

Colonel Lehman came to his first political office in 1928 after achieving a wide reputation which reached across the Atlantic as philanthropist and a Jew to whom nothing affecting the welfare of the Jewish people was alien.

In the four years since he first assumed office, he has achieved through his public acts, a reputation for progress and humane leadership. The complex character of his duties which have frequently called upon him to act as Governor of the State have not caused Colonel Lehman to give up his affiliations with local, national and international endeavor.

In 1930, Colonel Lehman was awarded the Zeta Beta Thau medal as the Jew who has done most for Jewry and Judaism.

Colonel Lehman was one of the organizers of the Joint Distribution Committee which has spent close to $100,000,000 in relief and rehabilitation work in Europe and Palestine, and served as chairman of its reconstruction Committee.

He was also one of the leading spirits in the establishment of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, of whose Council he is a non-Zionist member. Among the offices he holds are that of vice-president of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee; and he is associated with the American Ort, the Jewish Colonization Association, the American Jewish Joint Foundation in Europe, the Palestine Loan Bank, the Russian Agrojoint Committee; the Russian Agricultural Fund and the Baron de Hirsch Fund.

Other organizations in which he plays a role are the National Labor Committee, the Cardiac Vocational Committee, the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Foundation, the Association for the Advancement of Colored People; the Henry Street Settlement, the Hebrew Sheltering and Guardian Society; the Bureau of Jewish Social Research; the New York Foundation and Young Judaea.

One of the most important functions of his public activity since 1924 has been the role of mediator he has played in the garment industry. Colonel Lehman, who consents to act as mediator only if requested to do so by both parties to a dispute, has been successful in averting serious strikes in the labor industry, the last strike which he settled at the end of this summer would have affected 27,000 workers of the ladies garment industry in New York.

Mr. Lehman resigned his business affiliations when he came to public office, including that of his active partnership in the banking firm of Lehman Brothers, considered the third largest banking firm in the United States.

Since the age of twenty-one, when he founded the Boys Club at the Henry Street Settlement, Mr. Lehman has taken an active interest in welfare work. He finances a camp for poor boys and with Aaron Rabinowitz financed a $500,000 model housing project for 400 poor families on the East Side.

Mr. Lehman's parents were Mayer and Babette Lehman. His father came to the United States as a penniless immigrant from Germany and settled in the South. There he became a friend of Jefferson Davis and served as a soldier.

Jewish Professor Requested By Mayor to Investigate Clothing Industry Conditions

Professor Hollander Named to Study Conditions Described as Unsanitary and Inhumane

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5—An investigation of conditions in the clothing industry in Baltimore is to be made by Dr. Jacob H. Hollander, professor of political economy, Johns Hopkins University, who was requested yesterday to undertake the probe by Mayor Howard W. Jackson.

Work at clothing shops has several times been disrupted during the past several weeks by strikers who were called out by the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America. Some of the union officials had asked Mayor Jackson to investigate conditions.

Dr. Hollander early in the century played a prominent part in the reorganization of the finances of some of the Central American countries. He is familiar with the garment industry, having been impartial chairman and member of the board of referees for the industry in Cleveland since 1921. He is chairman of the Maryland Tax Survey Commission.

Strike leaders expressed hope that Dr. Hollander would elect to hold public hearings on their charges, recently laid before the Mayor, that the industry here abounds with unsanitary, immoral and inhumane conditions.

Argentine Jewish Leader Kidnapped; Held for Ransom

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 5—Dr. Chaim Favelukes, prominent social worker and president of the Israelite Hospital, has been kidnapped by a terrorist gang which is holding him for ransom of 100,000 pesos, about $25,000.

Dr. Favelukes was lured from his home by a false professional call to a house which has now been shown to be vacant.

His wife has received a note from him in his own writing declaring: "My life is in danger," and asking that the ransom be deposited according to directions.

Mrs. Favelukes was told that her husband would be slain if the police were informed. The police were informed and are now making a search for Dr. Favelukes.

Arab Demonstrations On Balfour Day

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

JERUSALEM, Oct. 5—A call for Arab protest demonstrations to be held on November 2nd, the anniversary of the Balfour Declaration, was issued here yesterday.

The call urges that Balfour day be converted into a day of demonstrations of Arab wrath.

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

Abbas Hilmi Admits Some Truth in Rumors He Has Pretensions to Throne of Syria

By Our Alexandria Correspondent

ALEXANDRIA.—Light was thrown by the Egyptian ex-Khedive Abbas Hilmi himself on the various speculations which were recently rife regarding his plans in the Near East.

In an interview which he gave to the Egyptian daily "Al Ahram", the ex-Khedive is supposed to have admitted that there is some truth in the rumors as to his pretensions to the kingdom of Syria. A certain State, it says, which is interested to maintain friendly relations with its neighbor Syria, has suggested to him that he should put forward his candidature to the Kingdom of Syria, and this state has promised him its support.

Since, however, the ex-Khedive explains, he has never given this possibility a thought, although he has always taken an interest in matters in the Near East, he has decided to express his opinion only after he has considered the problem on the spot, and for this reason he went to Constantinople last December, where he consulted Mustafa Kemal Pasha and Tewfik Ruchdi Ismet Pasha. He subsequently visited the French Commissioner in Syria, M. Ponsot, and from there proceeded to Palestine, where he received a very cordial welcome from the High Commissioner and the Emir Abdullah.

Referring to the "Islamic Bureau" which he has established in Geneva, the ex-Khedive said that the aim of this bureau is to work in the interests of Islam all over the world. Many Europeans, including Englishmen, Frenchmen and Germans who have been converted to Islam, have assisted him in the establishment of the Bureau, which should serve as a connecting link between Moslems the world over. The actual plans, however, will only be decided upon after the various conferences in Near Eastern countries which are taking place now.

The ex-Khedive denied having given the Emir Abdullah $15,000, in order that he should assist him with his plans. Relations of a most friendly nature, he said, had existed between them for some time.

A heated discussion was provoked some time ago when proposals for the establishment of Jewish cantons in Palestine were circulated as emanating from Abbas Hilmi. In a letter to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, the ex-Khedive, however, denied any connection with these proposals.

I was recently in Palestine merely in transit, the ex-Khedive wrote. I certainly saw the Mufti of Jerusalem there, the members of the Zionist Executive and also the British authorities. But

Reveal Adolph Hitler Asked Hindenburg to Permit Nazis 3 Days for Revenge on Enemies

Stahlhelm Organ Challenges Anyone to Deny Nazi Chieftain Asked for
"Night of the Long Knife"

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Oct. 5—Withdrawal of the police for three days and nights so that Nazi Storm Troops might be permitted a free hand in exercising "the night of the long knife" to revenge themselves on their enemies, was demanded by Adolph Hitler in his conversation with President Paul von Hindenburg regarding the Chancellorship, it is revealed today by the organ of the "Stahlhelm."

The paper makes the revelation with boldness and challenges anyone to deny the allegation, if possible.

Democratic circles and adherents of Chancellor Franz von Papen expect the government to offer some confirmation of this charge in order that the German nation may be authoritatively acquainted with the actual dangers which confront it should Hitler succeed in attaining his aspirations.

There is no doubt in Jewish circles but that the first victims would have been Jews had Hitler's request been granted by President von Hindenburg.

Dr. Silver Honored Prior to Sabbatical Leave

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

CLEVELAND, Oct. 5—Dr. Abba Hillel Silver of Cleveland, who has been granted a sabbatical year by his congregation, "The Temple", in recognition of his fifteen years of ministry, will sail for Europe with his family on the Italian liner Conte Grande, October 15.

Rabbi Silver plans to be abroad until the Fall holidays of 1933. He will spend considerable time in Palestine, Germany and Russia as well as in the larger Jewish centers of Eastern Europe.

A series of testimonial dinners and my visits to all these gentlemen were but visits of courtesy.

You will easily understand my astonishment at seeing these propositions attributed to me, as I have seen them for the first time through the medium of your letter. These proposals, which have never emanated from me, deal with Palestine, and are a matter for the Palestinians themselves.

Having full confidence in the Mufti of Jerusalem and the members of the Arab Executive Committee (who are defending the cause of the Palestine Arabs), and appreciating the wisdom of the leading Zionists and the members of their Executive, he added, I have the firm hope that everything will be concluded by finding a ground of mutual agreement for the prosperity of Palestine and the happiness of the Palestinians, for which I hope with all my heart.

Weiss, gave me a life maxim," he said, "that cleverness and wealth do not matter and that it is only a good name which makes a man. For fifty-two years I have carried an honorable name until it was marred by the Nazi press."

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—The removal of Dr. Lauscher, leader of the Centre Party fraction in the Prussian Diet was demanded today as an indication to the Jewish population that the Centre Party will not associate itself with anti-Semitic acts.

Representations were made to the Centre party by leaders of the Central Union of German Citizens of the Jewish Faith and the Zionist Federation in connection with Dr. Lauscher's action yesterday in voting for a Nazi motion calling for the exclusion of Jews from employment in the broadcasting system. His vote was coupled with the statement that though not an anti-Semite he believes Jews should be removed from their present dominance in broadcasting.

Dr. Lauscher has not been able to allay the indignation of the Jews by his opposition to another Nazi motion calling for the dismissal of Jewish teachers so that a Christian education might be insured in all the schools. When this came up for a vote, Dr. Lauscher declared the motion is incompatible with religious tolerance.

receptions were tendered to Rabbi Silver prior to his departure from Cleveland by many civic organizations, both Jewish and non-Jewish.

The Bureau of Jewish Education, whose president Rabbi Silver has been since its founding eight years ago, tendered a testimonial luncheon to him and presented in his honor a collection of books to the Hebrew University of Jerusalem together with an artistic book-plate. The non-Jewish clergy of Cleveland held a reception for Dr. and Mrs. Silver as well as the City Club.

The Board of Trustees of The Temple will tender a farewell banquet to Rabbi and Mrs. Silver on October 11th at the Oakwood Club of Cleveland.

Nominate Lehman for Governor Of New York; Would Be First Jew to Hold This Office dier in the Confederate Army during the Civil War.

After the war the family came to New York where Colonel Lehman was born. A tradition of the family for sixty years is that one of its members must sit on the board of Mount Sinai Hospital. Colonel Lehman was a member of the Board from 1915 to 1920, when Mrs. Lehman took the office.

Colonel Lehman is a graduate of Williams College from which he received his A. B. degree in 1899 and an honorary M. A. in 1921.

It was through his work at the Henry Street Settlement that Colonel Lehman first met Alfred E. Smith. In 1924, Governor Smith named him a member of his mediation Commission. In 1926 Colonel Lehman served as manager for Mr. Smith's fourth campaign as governor and during the latter's presidential campaign was his financial director.

It was Mr. Smith who was responsible for the Colonel's nomination as Lieutenant-Governor.

Colonel Lehman's activity during the World War brought him into contact with Governor Roosevelt.

At the age of 39, when the war broke out, Colonel Lehman desired to enlist as a private in the army. When because of his age, he desisted, he sought a commission in the first officer's training corps. When this was held up because of his age, he applied to the Navy Department and was assigned to duty under Franklin D. Roosevelt who was then Assistant Secretary of the Navy.

Simultaneously the Army sought his services and he was assigned to the Ordnance Department, first as Captain and later as Colonel in charge of the purchase, distribution and storage of all supplies for General Pershing's army overseas and here, whose value was billions of dollars.

After the armistice Colonel Lehman was retained as special Assistant to the Secretary of War and the War Department Claims Board. He was awarded the distinguished service medal in July, 1919.

recommended him to the English General Gordon.

He returned to Austria from Egypt and served in the Bosnian campaign as a lieutenant. In 1879, however, he returned to the Sudan upon the invitation of General Gordon. At the age of twenty-two the latter made him Governor of Dara, a province of Darfur, and at twenty-six, Governor General of Darfur.

For fourteen years he served as Inspector General of the entire Sudan. He achieved great popularity through his capture and eleven years imprisonment by the Mahdi, the savage Moslem, who conducted a struggle against British supremacy in North Africa. He escaped in 1895, was made a Pasha by the Khedive and later served as Chief of the British Intelligence service under Lord Kitchener.

Mufti Complains Jews Are Spreading Communism, Government Favors Jews

addressed a letter to the High Commissioner charging that the Jews are spreading Communist propaganda and that the Palestine government protects Jewish interests more strongly than Arab interests.

"All the laws issued are for the purpose of enslaving the Arabs and supporting the Zionists. This is especially true of the law concerning communal responsibility for safety," the Arab leader's communication charged.

The High Commissioner promised to give consideration to the complaints of the Arabs. The Arab land problem was discussed with the Mufti by Sir Arthur.
