WAUCHOPE ESTIMATES TOTAL NUMBER OF RECOGNIZED ARAB CLAIMS FOR LAND DISPOSSESSION WILL BE LESS THAN 600

Report to This Effect Presented to Mandates Commission; Explodes Legend
Arabs Are Sufferers from Jewish Immigration and That Economic Grievances
Caused Arab Riots of 1929; A Total of 2,826 Claims Entered; 1,800
Cases Rejected; 365 Approved; Remainder Still Await Consideration

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

GENEVA, Jan. 3.—The number of Palestine Arabs who can make out a case for compensation on the ground that they were dispossessed of their land as a result of Jewish immigration into the country will not total six hundred, Sir Arthur Grenfell Wauchope, Palestine High Commissioner, informed the Mandates Commission of the League of Nations at its session in November, the Jewish Telegraphic Agency learns.

The Palestine High Commissioner, in his statement to the Mandates Commission, the Minutes of which will be made public shortly, exploded the legend that Jewish immigration into Palestine is responsible for the dispossession of Arab cultivators, and that economic grievances, as has been alleged, were responsible for the Arab riots of 1929.

Sir Arthur reported that the total number of Arabs who registered their claims for compensation by the first of October, 1932, was 2,826. Of this number 1,800 cases were completely rejected. Three hundred and sixty-five claims were approved, while the remainder still await consideration, the High Commissioner stated.

The number of approved claims is only one-sixth of the total entered. Assuming that the same proportion will be maintained in relation to the cases which still await investigation, the total number of Arabs who can make out any case for compensation for land will be under six hundred for the entire country, Sir Arthur stated.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, Jan. 3.—Commenting on the small number of dispossessed Arabs in Palestine, as reported to the Mandates Commission of the League of Nations by the Palestine High Commissioner and the beneficial effect of Jewish immigration, the "London Times" declares:

"Jewish immigration is increasing employment in Palestine and raises

Mrs. Henry Moskowitz, Outstanding Political Adviser, Dies; Funeral Services Today

Was for 14 Years Political Adviser to Smith; Considered Most Powerful
Woman in Politics

Funeral services will be held this morning at eleven o'clock in Temple Emanuel for Mrs. Henry Moskowitz, for fourteen years adviser to Alfred E. Smith, four times Governor of the State of New York and former Democratic candidate for President. Mrs. Moskowitz, who was considered the most powerful woman in politics in the years of her association with Mr. Smith, succumbed to a heart attack on Monday at the age of fifty-five.

Her passing came as a shock to her many friends and associates and cast a shadow over the inaugural ceremonies for Governor Herbert H. Lehman in Albany.

Former Governor Smith was apprised of Mrs. Moskowitz's death in Albany. He immediately cancelled all his social engagements in connection with the inaugural and returned at once to New York.

Governor Lehman, with whom Mrs. Moskowitz had been associated

Report Partial Abolition Of Autonomy of Polish Universities

Police to Be Permitted to Enter University Buildings in Event of Disturbances

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, Jan. 3.—The partial abolition of the autonomy of Polish Universities, to enable police to enter the University campuses in the event of disturbances, was forecast here by semi-official sources.

Under the new regulations projected, the following innovations are to be introduced: Police are to be permitted to enter University buildings in the event of disturbances; appointments of professors to the faculties are to be vested in the hands of the president of the Polish republic; student rioters are to be placed on trial in the ordinary criminal courts instead of in the University disciplinary courts as at present; student organizations are to be under the direct supervision of the Minister of Education; all student meetings will require the sanction of the Rector and will be allowed to take place on the University campus only, while discussions of political questions will be prohibited.

The changes contemplated are believed to be the result of the protests aroused by the recurrence of anti-Semitic student riots, which had their beginnings in the Universities, and which in the past have not been checked at the outset because the police had no authority to enter the University buildings.

University autonomy is general throughout Europe and in Germany and Austria in particular, the blood of Jewish students has been shed in recent months because the police were not permitted to enter University buildings when disturbances broke out.

Vilna Anti-Semites Mark

New Year by Ridiculing Jews
VILNA, Jan. 3.—Anti-Semitic youths, one of them, in the garb of a rabbi, celebrated the New Year by ridiculing Jewish passersby and singing insulting songs in the streets of the city.

Rabbi Rubinstein made representations to the Police Commandant who promised to arrest the youth who impersonated the rabbi on charges of insulting the Jewish religion.

Police Raid Discovers

Pogrom Preparations

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, Jan. 3.—Preparations for a pogrom upon the Jews were discovered yesterday by the police in a raid on the homes of leaders of the anti-Semitic National Democratic Party in Kielce.

Printed appeals calling for a pogrom upon the Jews were discovered as well as heaps of stones, which were to be used as weapons.

The editor of the National Democratic organ "Slowo" was arrested, as were the president of the National Democratic Students Organization and four students.

Religious Chalutzim Movement Inaugurated at Mizrahi Youth Convention

Rabbi Meyer Berlin, World Mizrahi
Head, Addresses Three-Day
Session in Detroit

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

DETROIT, Jan. 3.—The Mizrahi Youth convention, which closed its three-day session here last night, resolved to issue a call to the religious youth of this country to co-operate with Mizrahi in formulating the first religious Chalutzim movement in the United States. The resolution was adopted following an address by Miss Zelda Rosenthal of Detroit who pointed to the desire on the part of hundreds of religious youths to go to Palestine as pioneers. Irving Sadowsky of Rochester was chairman of the convention's Chalutzim committee.

Resolutions presented by Dr. S. Sacks of Chicago for the Palestine committee, adopted at the convention, pledged a sum of $5,000 to be realized in the middle western states for the Palestine Mizrahi Fund. Other resolutions called for co-operation of Mizrahi Youth with the parent Mizrahi organization, for the creation of a tag day in every city for the benefit of the Torah v'Avodah Fund, and for the co-operation of the organization with the Jewish National Fund.

Resolutions presented by the educational committee, headed by Samuel Gordon of Buffalo, call for the adoption of an intensive plan of work to include the organization of courses in Jewish history through biographical sketches, lectures on Zionist and Mizrahi movements, study of history and geography of Palestine.

The convention was greeted by Judge Harry B. Keidan of the Wayne

GOVERNOR LEHMAN, IN INAUGURAL ADDRESS, CALLS FOR FEDERAL AID TO UNEMPLOYED

Assumes Post of Chief Executive with Full Appreciation of Responsibilities;
Outlines Program of Work; Roosevelt and Smith Speak

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

ALBANY, Jan. 3.—Herbert H. Lehman became the Chief Executive of the State of New York yesterday, and the first Jew to hold the post of Governor with a full appreciation of the responsibility which it entails, as he revealed in his inaugural address.

The inaugural ceremonies which took place at noon in the Assembly Hall were attended by a distinguished group which included President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt and former Governor Alfred E. Smith, both of whom delivered addresses.

The oath of office was administered by Secretary of State Flynn.

Present at the ceremonies were Mrs. Lehman, the Governor's wife and their three children, and the Governor's three brothers, Philip, Arthur and Judge Irving Lehman.

Governor Lehman in his inaugural address declared:

"For any new Governor a day of inauguration must be a solemn one. The assumption of responsibility for guiding the destinies of thirteen millions of people is never lightly to be undertaken. But in these harassing days the burden is so much greater, the obligations so much more serious, the problems, the uncertainties, the dangers so much more numerous and varied than in ordinary years, that the consciousness of my responsibility weighs heavily upon me.

"There is no problem more serious, no responsibility more compelling, than that of the caring for the thousands of our citizens who are without work or means to provide even the minimum maintenance of a normal family life. These destitute unemployed fellow-citizens facing overwhelming disaster now number more than a million and a quarter. Hundreds of thousands more may be in need of relief before the Winter has passed.

"This State cannot and will not forget its duty to its unemployed.

"The governmental units and private citizens of this State have joined together to do their utmost; but the problem has now reached the point where aid from the Federal Government is needed in our war against destitution and want. The federal relief bill so defines the conditions under which federal credit may be made available to the States for unemployment relief that up to the present it has been difficult for New York State to apply for aid. The time has come, however, when it is absolutely essential that such application to the Federal Government be made by our State.

"The financial stability of the State has been maintained in spite of the drain of present conditions, largely by our determination to keep our budget at all times balanced. To attempt to do otherwise, indeed, would be to fly in the face of Constitutional mandate. Each year must provide a balance of income and expenditure. A deficit of one year must be made up the next year. This has been done. This must be done.

"We owe a definite duty to see to it that the tax burdens are made as light as possible. Wherever operating costs can legitimately be cut, they must be.

"Much is to be desired, too, in the structure of city government generally in this State. The City of New York is not alone in this respect.

"What are the important objectives for which we strive? What are the principal results which we seek in this movement toward the improvement of local rural and city government? Certain fundamentals lie at the basis of reform. They are:

"1. The consolidation of the various agencies and functions of local government.

"2. The reduction of all operating expenses made necessary by these items.

"3. The rearrangement of local financial agencies in order definitely to fix budgetary responsibility.

"4. The precise and complete fixation of administrative and executive responsibility.

"These form the goal for which we should work. We have talked about these reforms in this State for the last ten years. Discussion has become more definite about them in the last four years. Let us now proceed to get action."

Marshall Asks Support For Charter Revision

James Marshall, chairman of the Republican Advisory Committee of New York County has issued a call to Republican leaders in the State Legislature to unite to support legislation for charter revision.

Mr. Marshall declared in his communication:

"Our study of the New York City government and the revelations of the legislative and other investigations show that the government of the city has to a large extent been in the hands of an incapable personnel and that the capable officials have been compelled by our form of government to be more responsive to political organizations than to the voters.

"We are convinced that charter revision is essential so that the highest type of citizen can be put into office and the voters enabled to participate more directly in the city's affairs."

Lord Melchett Received by King Carol; Latter Pledges Support to Maccabees

Visit to Roumania a Triumphant Procession for Lord Melchett; Feted Everywhere

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BUCHAREST, Jan. 3.—Lord Melchett, son and heir of the late Lord Melchett, was received on New Year's day by King Carol of Roumania, at his castle in Sinia, although it had been previously announced that the King would receive no one on the New Year.

The King's act in receiving Lord Melchett, is interpreted as a desire to demonstrate special respect to him and to the Maccabee Association of which Lord Melchett is the honorary president. King Carol is interested in the Maccabee Association and Crown Prince Michael has acted as a patron of the organization.

Upon his return from his audience with the King, Lord Melchett revealed that he had made a most important pledge to support the Maccabee movement in Roumania.

Lord Melchett was also the guest of honor at a reception arranged in the home of the Jewish industrialist, Senator Auschnitt, which was attended by the Minister of Finance and a number of former members of the Government. In the evening a banquet was arranged in his honor by Lazar Margulies, who had accompanied him to his audience with the King.

Lord Melchett came to Bucharest from Czernowitz and his journey was turned into a triumphant tour. Jewish delegations awaited the train to greet Lord Melchett at the stations Suceava, Roman, Bacau, Ploesti.

The festivities in Bucharest included a Chanukah reception in the Great Synagogue. Speakers included the Jewish Deputy, Mishu Weisman, Senator Niemirower, Dr. Lelewer, president of the World Maccabee Association. Lord Melchett declared that Palestine is part of his religion.

Lord Melchett departed for Sofia yesterday whence he will proceed to Palestine with Lady Melchett.

Federation to Extend

Campaign to January 12

Falling by $177,000 to complete its 1932 budget for the support of 91 affiliated philanthropies, the Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies, by special action of its board of trustees, announced yesterday that the books would be kept open until January 12 in a last effort to wipe out the impending deficit.

According to an announcement by Paul Felix Warburg and Ira M. Younker, campaign chairmen, the action of the board of trustees offers the one remaining hope of completing the Federation budget. If the campaign had been closed on the date originally set, December 31st, the deficit of $177,000

Lemberg University Rector Disbands Jewish Student Body for Protesting Excesses

Asserts Resolution of Philosophy Group Disrespectful; Therefore Not Referred to University Senate

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LEMBERG, Jan. 3.—The Union of Jewish Philosophy Students at the University of Lemberg has been ordered disbanded by the rector of the University because the organization protested against the recent anti-Semitic excesses.

In making the announcement of dissolution, the rector asserts that the resolution of protest adopted by the Jewish Philosophy students was impudent and disrespectful and was not handed over to the University Senate for that reason.

County Circuit Court, who lauded the work of Mizrahi in which he and his father have been interested for many years. Joseph H. Ehrlich, president of the Zionist Organization of Detroit also addressed the convention.

Isidore Epstein, national Mizrahi Youth president, was toastmaster of the banquet which was addressed by Rabbi Moses Fischer, Mrs. Isaac Rosenthal in behalf of Bnos Zion Mizrahi, David Berris of Young Israel, Miss Eva Aronson of Chicago, national vice-president; Samuel Gordon of Buffalo, Philip Slomovitz, editor, "Detroit Jewish Chronicle"; Edward Ruthenberg, Harry Karp and Rabbi Seymour M. Zambrowsky of New York. The principal address was delivered by Rabbi Meyer Berlin, president of the World Mizrahi Organization.

DETROIT, Jan. 3.—That Palestine must be built on the basis of Orthodox traditions was emphasized at the sessions of the Mizrahi Youth convention here. Speakers declared themselves against making any compromises on question of the Sabbath, Kashruth and the observance of all Jewish traditions.

Rabbi Meyer Berlin, president of the World Mizrahi movement, was the guiding spirit of the convention. Addressing the delegates at the opening would have meant further curtailment of essential services for the needy, the sick, the orphaned and the aged at a time when the demand for such services is greater than ever before.

In the nine days remaining before the books are finally closed, it is the hope of the campaign chairmen that those who have pledged subscriptions and donations will make payment and a sufficient number of new gifts will be received to balance the budget.

Sir Joseph Duveen Raised To Baronet by King; Other Jews Honored

Duveen Is Only Jew Among Six Named Lords in King's New Year's Honor List

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, Jan. 3.—Sir Joseph Duveen, internationally known art collector, was the only Jew among the six named Lords in the King's New Year's honor list. He will be known as Baron Duveen of Millbank.

A number of other Jews, however, received honors. Major Isidore Salmon, member of Parliament, was knighted. Max Nurock, of the secretariat of the Palestine government, was named an officer of the Order of the British Empire and was the only Palestine Jew to be thus honored. A number of Arab and English officials received similar awards.

Dudley Meyers of India was also knighted in recognition of his political work in India.

Harry C. Luke, former secretary of the Palestine government and at present Lieutenant Governor of Malta, was among those knighted. Mr. Luke was severely criticized for his attitude during the Arab riots of 1929 in Palestine.

Sir Joseph Duveen, who was made a Baronet by King George in recognition of his public services, is well known on both sides of the Atlantic through his art work and benefactions. Married to a New Yorker, daughter of Gustav Salaman of New York, Sir Joseph spends part of each year in New York where he has an art gallery.

He has presented eight new rooms to the Tate Gallery and an entire new wing to the National Portrait gallery. He is the founder of the British Artists Exhibitions Organization for the encouragement of lesser known British artists.

Lord Duveen is a Commander of the Legion of Honor of France; an Officer of the Order of the Crown of Belgium, and of the Order of Saint Sava of Serbia. He is a trustee of the National Gallery, of the Imperial Gallery of Art and of the Wallace Collection. He is also a member of the Council of the British School at Rome, and honorary member of the Council of the National Art Collections Fund of Rome. He is the honorary correspondent of the Commissions of Ancient and Modern Art of the Royal Belgian Museum of Fine Art.

CORRECTION

Through a regrettable error, the Jewish Daily Bulletin in its issue of December 2nd, reported that the Roumanian Parliament by a vote of 126 to 41, disapproved the suspension of George Cuza, son of the anti-Semitic leader, for his attack upon the Jewish Deputy, Mishu Weisman. The report should have stated that the suspension of George Cuza was approved by the Roumanian Parliament.

throughout his public life, sent a message of condolence to her family, stating, "I have lost a very dear friend." In a public statement, Governor Lehman lauded her work, declaring: "I am inexpressibly shocked and grieved to hear of Mrs. Henry Moskowitz's death. She was my friend of many years standing and I mourn her loss. Throughout her life, she was an outstanding constructive influence in the life and activities of the city and State.

"Her work was particularly important along lines of social betterment and in the amelioration of the condition of the less fortunate and underprivileged. She will be greatly missed by a wide circle of friends and admirers. I extend to her family my deepest and heartfelt sympathy."

Mrs. Moskowitz's death was sudden. She had been in good health until December 8th when she broke her right arm and left wrist in a fall down the steps of her home. She was apparently recovering, until she was stricken with a heart attack last Thursday. A recurrence of the attack on Monday caused her death.

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise of the Free Synagogue and Rabbi Nathan Krass of Temple Emanu-el, will officiate at the services this morning. Interment will take place at Sleepy Hollow Cemetery.

Tributes to Mrs. Moskowitz were paid by leaders in the state. Former Governor Smith declared: "She had the greatest brain of anybody I ever knew. I consider her passing a disaster." Others who lauded her services were Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War; Mayor John P. O'Brien, Attorney General John J. Bennett, Jr., State Comptroller Morris S. Tremaine; Joseph A. McGinnies, Speaker of the Assembly; John F. Curry; Miss Elisabeth Marbury, Democratic national Committeewoman.

Mrs. Moskowitz had been active in social welfare work since the age of eighteen. At her life she endeavored to avoid public notice and at no time has held public office. She was active in the work of the Council of Jewish Women, the Association to Promote Better Housing for Girls and the Traveler's Aid Society.

To Mrs. Moskowitz is credited much of the progressive legislation enacted by Mr. Smith during his career as Governor. Her association with Mr. Smith dated back to 1918.

Mrs. Moskowitz was a native of New York City, where she was born on October 8, 1877, the daughter of Isidor and Esther Lindner. She was educated at the Horace Mann School and at Teachers College. Her first position was as director of entertainments and exhibits at the Educational Alliance, where she met Charles H. Israels, a successful architect, and Henry Mos-the Arab standard of living. The Arab population is increasing rapidly and the increase is highest in the neighborhood of the Jewish colonies."

Subsequent to the Arab riots of 1929, the British Government set up three successful inquiries to investigate the causes and to discover the extent to which economic grievances and in particular the dispossession of land were responsible for the hostile attitude of the Arabs.

The first Commission appointed was the Shaw Commission. This was followed by Sir John Hope Simpson's report. Subsequently, Lewis French was charged with reporting on Arab dispossession and with drawing up a Development Scheme.

The first two reports, on their publication, were severely criticized for their references to the large number of dispossessed Arabs. Lewis French was appointed to make a special study of the land question after the report of Sir John Hope Simpson had aroused a storm of protest and elicited a reprimand from the League of Nations. While the French report had not yet been published, and its author has resigned his office, it has been widely claimed that the figures cited by him would definitely explode the legend that the Arabs are the sufferers as the result of Jewish immigration into the country.

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

SANTA FE, Jan. 3.—Governor Arthur Seligman, New Mexico's Jewish Governor, was sworn in for his second term of office as the Chief Executive yesterday.

The oath of office was administered by Supreme Court Justice John C. Watson.

session, Rabbi Berlin reviewed the economic, political, cultural and religious situation of the Jews in the Diaspora. Describing Jewry's present unfavorable position, he said that the only encouraging factor of Jewish life is the development and progress of the Mizrachi Youth of America and its various branches in Europe, with a total membership of 30,000. He said that the youth in these organizations constitute the background of the Mizrachi's Chalutzim in Palestine, organized in the Hapoel Hamizrachi.

Rabbi Berlin stressed the fact that the solution of the youth problem depends upon an organization like the Mizrachi Youth whose program is to live a complete Jewish life with Palestine as the central and motivating force which animates and inspires their daily tasks. The speaker criticized such youth organizations which compromise with tradition, the heritage of Israel and the language of the Jewish people and regard Eretz Israel as secondary and subordinate to other endeavors.

Explaining Mizrachi's conception of Torah v'Avodah, Rabbi Berlin pointed out that the traditional Jew could not accept such doctrines as the religion of labor, nor can he be satisfied with the labor or creed of religion. These, he said, are insufficient and adverse to the spirit of the Torah. The principle which animates Mizrachi, he declared, is Torah and Avodah mutually complementary, mutually supplementary and yet in separable elements of one entity, the Torah. He appealed to the delegates at the convention to continue their good work and to inspire and lead others to join them in their efforts to solve the problem of the Jew here as well as in Palestine.

Herbert Eskin, president of Detroit Mizrachi Youth, presided at the opening session, at which greetings were presented by Rabbi E. Aishiskin in behalf of the Detroit Mizrachi; Rabbi I. Stollman, in behalf of the local Rabbinical Council; Leon Kay, for the Jewish National Fund, A. M. Pregeron for the Zionist Organization, Mrs. H. L. Jackson for Hadassah and Miss Winifred Lewis for Junior Hadassah.

Addresses at the opening session were delivered by Rabbi Seymour M. Zambrowsky, executive director of the Mizrachi Youth; Isidore Epstein, national president; Harry Karp, national vice-president.
