Purge Yiddish Words
From German Tongue
Dowek's "Beekeeper"
(Jewish Telegraph Agency)

BERLIN, July 5—Exclusion of Yiddish words from the German language was demanded today by the Yiddish-speaking Reichebucher in a special session of its convention, held at the University.

They demanded that in the future German “russ” (from the Yiddish word “dawr”) for “ Xperia”; “fleiss” for “handicap”; “fering” for “walking”; and “schofl” for “low.”

The committee that “knauer” and similar expressions also be dropped from the German language, and that words are accepted not only by the Jewish press and stage, but are even included in German literature.

(Jewish Telegraph Agency)

BERLIN, July 8—What will happen to the Jews of Germany following the proclamation of the law depriving them of citizenship in the Reich was graphically outlined by Dr. Gottfried Feder, chief theoretician of the Nazi party and author of the program of Hitler, who is now secretary of the Reich’s Ministry of Economics.

The first result will be the proclamation of all Jews as aliens in the Reich, Feder asserted, and their consequent subject- tion to laws governing aliens.

Secondly, Jews, no matter what their length of residence in Germany, will no longer have the right to vote, he said.

Thirdly, Jews will be permitted to reside in Germany only as long as their presence does not affect the labor situation, or interfere with the food interests of the Germans.

Fourthly, they will be subject to deportation following conviction of any crime, no matter how minor.

Fifthly, they will have to carry documents at all times showing they have permission to reside in Germany.

All these restrictions not constitute a pogrom against the Jews, Feder asserted, but are merely putting the Jews on an equal footing with "other foreigners."

BERLIN, July 7—For every Jew lynched in Russia, ten Jews will be hanged in Germany, according to the state's law of last week.

The new law is being enforced as part of the German government's efforts to prevent further violence against Jews.

A reported 5,000 persons in Munich are said to have been arrested for participation in anti-Jewish demonstrations.

Several Jews were reported to have been murdered in Munich and other parts of Germany.

$708,000 Raised for Reich Jews’ Relief

$375,000 (pledged in N. Y., $156,000 in Chicago, $19,000 in New York, $253,000 in the United States) for the benefit of the Reich Jews’ Relief Committee, was reported by the Committee’s treasurer, Mr. Julius Michael, at a meeting of the Committee’s Board of Directors. The funds will be used to buy food, clothing, and other necessities for the Jews in Germany, who are suffering from the effects of the economic depression. The Committee has already distributed aid to thousands of Jews in need.

HADASSAH'S VICTORY

Its Share in Upholding of Palestine Recognized; Ovation to Dr. Weizmann

By Victor M. Bielskiack
C.S.B. Special Correspondent
CHICAGO: July 11 — The third day of the Chicago Zionist Congress was marked by the most impressive gathering of 12,000 in Soldier's Field on Monday evening, when they were witness to the pageant of the "Romans of a People," played with due respect and impetus. The program was planned by Rabbi Victor Epstein of San Francisco.

After a protracted and at times scorning debate, the delegates by a round majority, override the nominations committee and elected Dr. Eliahu Abadie as the chairman of the congress.

As to Jewish Day, which attracted the Zionist convention to Chicago and then set the tone for it, Jewish Day, in its manifestation, of tremendous communal action and interest, was one of the most impressive demonstrations the Jews in the country have ever given. And, although our number is fifty thousand, we have given a display of communal spirit which will be recorded for all time.

Whatever, the opinion of the merits of the production that these people do, some newsboy, Monday night, and many thousands more saw Wednesday evening when the production was repeated, there can be no question of the greatness of the day. It infused the audience with a spirit of communal undertaking.

Cleveland Teacher Back From Holy Land Declares That Palestine Absorbs Refugees

CLEVELAND—"There are these classes of immigrants flowing into Palestine. They are the German Jewish refugees who are taking up the American delegation to the Zionist Congress in Chicago to demand cooperation in these classes of immigrants. The German Jewish refugees are coming into Palestine in an increasing number in the face of this great crisis. The Jewish community of Cleveland is preparing to meet this crisis and is giving aid to the Jews in Palestine.

Mr. Lamm, who had been in the company of Mr. Lamm, who had been in the company of the German Jewish refugees in Palestine, told the Clevelanders that the refugees were being taken care of and that the leaders of the community were doing their best to help the refugees.

Among the interesting side-light was the fact that the members of the Zionist community in Cleveland were receiving a great deal of assistance from the Jews in Palestine. The refugees were being taken care of in the best manner possible, and the leaders of the community were doing their best to help the refugees.

As to the members of the professional class who have come from Germany, Mr. Lamm points out that each one of them is being aided to reestablish himself in his native country.

The newspapers of Prague and Vienna carry news items on certain interesting sidelights on the Austrian situation and the Nazi terror. The official organ of the Austrian Communist Party, in Prague, gives the details of another terroristic act of the Nazi leaders. It is reported that the attempt against the American ambassador occurred yesterday.

The most recent attempt was made against Ambassador Dodd, and the bomb placed in the ambassador's palace, which was discovered in time, before the explosion. The attempt was made by a Nazi party member, who was arrested when the bomb was found and destroyed.

$600 War Veterans at Vienna Memorial Service Honor Dead at Cemetery

(T.T.A. Special Correspondence)

VIENNA, June 25—The Federation of Jewish Youth, Polish Soldiers made a memorial parade at this city by the I. W. W. and the National Socialist Party. Those who were honored by the badge of the Jerusalem War of Honor, and Major General Kischig, who represented the War Office, took part.

Major General Sommer, the president of the Federation of Jewish Ex-Soldiers, addressed the crowd, saying:

"They who drop their last tear here have the right to assume that by their equality in death, they have kept their lives in the service of their country. We do not seek vengeance, but we demand peace in our time and peace for all times.

"The memory of the General Sommer is speaking, an aeroplane flying overhead, and the wind of freedom may be heard through the graves of the war dead."

Mystic to Nazi Hate of Jews Provided by Czarist Pogro Mischief

Baltic Germans in the Party Contributing Black Hundreds Technique and Revengeful Hate Against Soviets—Like Rosenberg, from Pre-War Dominant Class

(T.T.A. Special Correspondence)

PARIS—The ultra-conservative Russian and jettison of the old Whistler party has, since 1920, been affiliated with Hitler and the National Socialist Party. They have borrowed his long experience organizing pogroms (many of them are from the native Black Hundreds of the Tsarist pogroms), their valuable observation on the way the Bolsheviks ran their revolution and a well-organized philosophy of absolutism, militarism and anti-Semitism.

The present group in Germany is a new group, which is now openly supported both in Berlin and in which it has found a natural base. The new group is explained by the Paris Times as an attempt to revive the tradition of the great White armies of the Ukraine and the Russian Baltic provinces (now the republics of Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania) to keep up in Russia, and to associate themselves with the National Socialists. In these groups of soldiers were to be found General Kischig, who has carried out the Versailles treaty, former officers of the Tsar, and distinguished Bohemian, Silesian and All-German. All those groups have been submerged their sense of direction and unity in the darkness of guilt, and we know the aims of the German military. The book of the party is, however, the Baltic Germans, once Russian subjects, like Rosenberg for example.

Their Unofficial Tradition

To understand their psyches it must be remembered that in Hitler, the Baltic Germans who formed the greater number of government officials and many of the army officers and industrial officials. Historically, their party was the abolition of democracy and the foundation of the new Germany, and the extinction of the old. They upheld it in Tsarist Russia: they gave it to the Hitler regime.

Of all the National Socialists of those early 1890's the Baltic Germans were the most excited. Proof of their belief in 1920's Russia, they did not care if Hitler was a traitor. Proof if he was a traitor was his success in overthrowing the government.

Jewish Blood Runs In Hapsburg Family, Nazi Sleuth Finds

Paper Learns That A 12th Century Banker in Rome Was the Dynasty's Paps

When the Catholics of Jerusalem showed signs of insubordination to the new German newspaper (Novorozhdenie), the great newspaper of the Jews was called upon to rise in support of the Papal regime. The newspaper refused to be "brung into" the conflict, according to the ultra-Zionist Socializer paper, Der Strom. The New York Times, on the other hand, continued to support the Hapsburgs, under whom Austria enjoyed 4000 years of peace and security, and then returned to the Jewish question today.

"The study of races," proclaims the harshest of the Nazi leaders, "gives the key to history." The founder of the Nazi party, Dr. Adolf Hitler, has said: "In the world of today, a man is known by his character, not by his race."

A NOTE TO AN ANTI-SEMITE
MY DEAR SIR:

It is the Quixotic part of a man that writes to you. My practical common sense tells me that you have acquired too great a distance to be reached by the sound of my voice. Still, I believe that you are far more amenable to sound reason than the bosh and braying of the bards and rousers under whose spell you very probably are. You at least have a belligerent spirit.

Harry Salpert

Harry Salpert returned to you many a time with the approbation implied in the obvious argument of the second generalization. It seems to me that your mind—believe it or not—can be reached, at least even if the possibility of your coming to a decision is remote. Of course either one of you may prefer to be excused from your contest to rid yourselves of the burden that you are engaged in a mission inspired or directed from above, then consider this attempt to reach you as broken off.

You seem to be suffering from two delusions. The first is that jealousy is a Jewish quality and that there is no such thing as a non-Jew, provided he is not Jewish. The second is that if a Jew obtains an important position he obtains it not because of his merit and not as a member of the human race; nor as a result of his situation, state or city. You assume that if a Jew is of any importance, he is hostile to your people, and that the loyalty of the Gentile—except when he is in power—can never be at all sincere is gross and unshakable.

You complain that whole groups of cities are embarrassed with the smallest doubt or attempt to check the facts, the discredited nonsense of the Elders of Zion protocolla, which The London Times (surely not a Jewish journal) espoused as a base forgery. These "protoocols" had been published originally as part of an anti-Semitic attack on Napoleon III. You have disseminated such ridiculous nonsense as that Al Smith and Ramsay MacDonald are half Jews, and that wherever they are Gentiles are either in power or being talked about. It is not only against these people that you are not at war, it is not only against your people that you are not at war, it is not only against their position, but is not against the idea that Gentiles are a race.

The best way in which you can improve upon your world is to disprove your view of it. This will not be an easy task. But the hope of "reaching" what you consider my mind, albeit a little dimly, is possible. The method is no simpler than either the rabbi anti-Semitism or the rabbi anti-Semitism of the past, and you will have to face the realization of the citizen-member of the community that you are not alone. At least, that the volatilizing which they express is a Jewish quality. Does it not occur to you that there may be Jews who, no less than the, take offense at the Winchells and the Cantors? Do Jews who disapprove of the Winchell note in journalism and the Cantor note in the theater make themselves Gentiles and do the Gentiles who take delight in the antics of these men, become Jews? And does it not occur to you that you would never have heard of these Jews had not Gentile appreciation expanded its influence to that point at which you became aware of it. Volatility is human, or voluntarism in slanders is an age-old characteristic which the cave-man and his cave-woman swallowed over before religion came into the world to divide their descendants into religious camps, or don’t you believe there were cave-men and cave-women?

The least of your simplification of motives you have rather dramatized his function and place in what you call "international Jewry." It doesn’t occur to you that if the United States intent pay interest on its war debt it will pay it to bondholders of all denominations; that interest, per se, is not a "plot" devised by Jews for the benefit of Jews. President Roosevelt was elected by a majority approaching so close to national unanimity that it is fantastic to suggest that he must repeat it.

Jews, as Jews, for his election, without obligation to the bulk of the American people which elected him. If there is anything fundamentally un-American in wanting to reconstrue the structure of our national economy to the end that depression shall cease, that the unemployed shall become employed, that the employed shall have a higher wage, that child slavery shall be abolished in the cotton mills of the South, then President Roosevelt and Mr. Baruch are un-American. And if, conversely, your hostility to President Roosevelt and Mr. Baruch makes you an American, then, my dear Sir, you are giving the wrong names to these issues.

Sincerely,
HARRY SALPETER.

WORLD JEWRY'S ANSWER

Copyright (1936, Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Twenty years ago Europe, awash in the daily cruelty of the past, was to be saved by the inborn cruelty of the Jews, to be saved by the inborn cruelty of the Jews, and to be saved by the inborn cruelty of the Jews. The Jews were the only ones who could do it.

The inborn cruelty of the Jews is the only solution to world problems, and to the world’s problems, and to the world’s problems. The inborn cruelty of the Jews is the only solution to world problems, and to the world’s problems, and to the world’s problems.

But now, the inborn cruelty of the Jews is no longer a solution to world problems, and to the world’s problems. The inborn cruelty of the Jews is no longer a solution to world problems, and to the world’s problems. The inborn cruelty of the Jews is no longer a solution to world problems, and to the world’s problems.
Leaders Summarize Achievements of Convention

Morrison Rothenberg Re-elected President

Of Zionists, Lists Eight Accomplishments

By Morris Rothenberg

Morrison Rothenberg, President, Zionist Organization of America, in his address to the convention, called attention to a number of achievements of the organization during the past year and listed them as follows:

1. A delegation of the American Jewish Committee met with the President of Italy and the Italian Foreign Minister in Rome and presented to them, on behalf of American Jewry, a list of recommendations for the solution of the Palestine problem.
2. The American Jewish Committee was successful in arranging for the representation of American Jewish organizations at the meeting of the International Congress of Jews in Berlin.
3. The American Jewish Committee issued a statement supporting the right of the Jews of Palestine to self-determination and freedom of religion.
4. The committee worked for the recognition of the state of Israel and the establishment of diplomatic relations with Israel.
5. The committee supported the principle of equal rights for all citizens of Israel, regardless of their religious or national background.
6. The committee advocated the establishment of a just and equitable solution to the problem of Jewish refugees in Europe.
7. The committee worked for the improvement of the living conditions of the Jews in the Middle East.
8. The committee supported the development of cultural and educational programs for the benefit of the Jewish people.

Zionist Defeatism

Beatens in Comment

Of Emanuel Neumann

By Emanuel Neumann

Although it was difficult for the delegates to concentrate their attention on the political aspects of the convention, there was a general feeling that the situation of the Jewish people in Palestine was critical.

The delegates agreed that the situation in Palestine was a matter of grave concern and that immediate action was necessary to alleviate the suffering of the Jewish refugees.

The delegates also discussed the problem of the establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine and the need for continued support of the Jewish National Fund.

The delegates concluded that the situation in Palestine required immediate and decisive action on the part of the international community and that the United Nations should take steps to ensure the establishment of a just and equitable solution to the problem of Jewish refugees in Europe.

Campaigning for the support of the American Zionist organization, a number of prominent Jewish leaders spoke at the convention and expressed their support for the organization's objectives.

The convention concluded with the adoption of a resolution calling for increased support for the Zionist cause and for the establishment of a just and equitable solution to the problem of Jewish refugees in Europe.
EDITORIALS

Guest Editorial

By Rabbi Israel Goldstein

A new attitude toward social justice is developing among organized religious groups in this country. The Synagogue as well as the Church is participating in this new approach. The Social Creed which was adopted by the General Conference of American Rabbis some years ago, and the pronouncements which have been made by the Rabbinical Assembly of America at its recent convention, are milestones of a new approach. The American Synagogue evidence the recognition of the fact that the field of economics is definitely within the scope of religious teaching. The Social Justice movement is not a mere addition to the social and economic programs of the American Synagogue but one which permeates with the thought of the work of the Synagogue as it did with its predecessor the Congregation.

There are times when social and economic problems force themselves with greater compelling force than ever upon the attention of spiritual leaders.

There may have been days in the past when it seemed as though those who wanted to have peace of mind for the pursuit of spiritual and religious endeavors would be content with the social and economic problems of the day, and the audiences with the thought that the work of the Synagogue was limited to the same as before. In these moments, however, no one who hears the voice of the Synagogue and the American Synagogue movement can stand on the sidelines. Not only are the spiritual and religious, social and economic and political needs of the Jewish community, but the relationship between religious and secular problems and the Jews and the world at large. The Synagogue has a responsibility to the community in every walk of life.

The following statement adopted by the Rabbinical Assembly of America at its last meeting and presented to the Social Justice Committee, is significant: "We dissociate ourselves from the opinion that questions of economics are not subject for treatment from the pulpit by the rabbis, but that it should be left to specialists in the field of economics and political science. We realize the value of the expert's study in the field of economics and political science. We realize the importance of the economic and social science. We call upon the rabbis to do their part in the education of the people in the knowledge of the complicated issues.

HITLER COORDINATES THE COSMOS

American Action Sought

Another stormy debate on the question of the persecution of Jews in Germany took place in Parliament. Actually, it was no debate. In a debate there is a division of opinion. In this instance, however, there was no division of opinion. All the speakers, from the representatives of the labor party to the members of the government, agreed with the Prime Minister on the necessity of action. The Nazis and the government are in this case acting together.

One does not become assimilated with impunity. And the speaker at the Jewish Congress who recently ended his term of office, said: One does not become assimilated with impunity. In the case of Nazi Germany, no one can escape the consequences of their actions.

No doubt about it, the Nazis are showmen, with a great flair for publicity. They must make their every move more than one Nordic Ronys. They are always putting on shows. They dramatized Schlageter and Strasser. They dramatized their hate of non-Asinians; they dramatized their hatred of the British. They staged a great demonstration, which was the largest in the history of the Nazis. They staged another demonstration, which was the largest in the history of the Nazis. We wonder what the next show will be.

We are informed that one of the latest non-paying guests at Dachau, where the Nazi concentration camp near Munich, is a Nazi official, von der Schar. His offense appears to have been that he was appointed by Hitler to the Munich police.
