Limiting of Jews in Trades and Professions Divides Austrian Press

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

VIENNA, July 22—Emphasis by the liberal press that the numerous clauses for Jews in all branches of Austrian life was contrary to the spirit of the peace treaties and the Austrian Constitution was rejected today by the Christian Socialist (Government) and the trade union presses, these papers declaring that the government is carefully considering this step, which will be welcomed by the greater part of the Austrian people.

The demand for the numerous clauses, limiting the number of Jews in a trade school or profession, was made two days ago by the Christian Socialist press, which declared that the Austrian people are "disgusted with the Jewish hegemony and the impudence of Jewish immigrants from Eastern Europe forced upon Austria by the peace treaty."

The debate over the numerous clauses is occupying a foremost place in the attention of the press. Some papers point out that a Jewish numerous clauses would fail to impose Jewish restriction but on the contrary would secure the fullest equality for the Jewish minority in proportion to the Christian majority. This, they point out, would affect the Christian majority in agriculture, certain trades and

Einstein, in London, to Give Final Assent to Offer of Post in Hebrew University

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, July 22—Professor Albert Einstein arrived here today and will be a guest at the country home of Commander Oliver Locker-Lampson. While in England Professor Einstein will meet with the Board of Governors of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem to settle finally the question of his joining the faculty of the institution.

Professor Einstein has agreed to take this step providing certain changes are made in the organization and structure of the university. The Board of Governors, according to Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of the university, has agreed to comply with Professor Einstein's conditions.

Voelkischer Beobachter "Jawohl" to Zionist Cause

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, July 22—A startling declaration expressing endorsement of the Zionist movement appears today in the Voelkischer Beobachter of Berlin, chief National Socialist party organ.

Referring to reports in Il Popolo D'Italia, Italian newspaper, regarding increased Zionist activities in Germany as a result of discriminations against the Jews there, the Hitler organ expresses satisfaction with Zionist activities in Berlin.

"We only hope the numerous Zionist meetings in Berlin will increase the Jewish emigration to Palestine," the paper remarks.

Accuse Mosley of Conducting Raid on Rival Fascist Outfit

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, July 22—A raid on the headquarters of the British Fascists by a rival blackshirt organization last night caused the British Fascists to come out today with the accusation that Sir Oswald Mosley, leader of the British Union of Fascists, personally supervised the raid. The British Fascists are known to be anti-Semitic and they differ from the British Union of Fascists in that the latter, under Mosley's leadership, profess to reject the theory of racial discrimination.

The British Fascists as well as the British Union of Fascists wear black shirts, but the former wear a metal swastika while the latter wear fascies.

Mosley's party, replying to the accusation of the British Fascists, denied that they were responsible for the raid and suggested that the raid probably was staged by a group of Jews in retaliation for the British Fascists' counter-demonstration arranged at the same time as the Jewish anti-German procession marched to Hyde Park last Thursday.

At that time the counter-demonstration passed off unnoticed, for not more than twenty men took part in it, but now that Mosley has hinted Jews were responsible for raiding the British Fascists' headquarters, it is feared that renewed fighting

Nazis Halt J.T.A. Cable Service Out of Germany; U. S. Consul Intercedes

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 22—Prohibition of the foreign service of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency from Germany was officially announced this afternoon by the Nazi authorities in an interview with Raymond Geist, American consul at Berlin, when the American diplomatic representative made inquiries regarding the closing of the Berlin bureau of the American-owned news service and the suspension of its service within Germany.

This marks the first case since the Hitler regime came to power in Germany that the rigid censorship installed here has been extended to prohibit completely the functioning of correspondents of an American news-gathering agency who are American citizens.

The authorities explained that this measure was not directed personally against Ber Smolar, chief European correspondent of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, whose headquarters have been in Berlin, but against the news service. Mr. Smolar, it was said, will not be deported but may remain in Germany safely as long as he does not engage in correspondence work for the Jewish Telegraphic Agency.

This prohibition has aroused much interest among the foreign correspondents here and several of them feel that it may be the forerunner of other prohibitions. Many American newspapermen in Berlin have aroused the keen displeasure of the Nazi authorities because of the contents of their news dispatches and it is believed that similar steps may be taken against them, if the authorities succeed in maintaining their ban on the Jewish Telegraphic Agency correspondents.

Official representations to the German authorities made by the American consular authorities may result in reopening of the question of suppression of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency service, George S. Messersmith, American consul general, informed the news service representatives here today.

"Representations have been made to the authorities in your behalf," Mr. Messersmith declared, "and a promise obtained to reexamine the

"He's No Communist"

Says Father of Youth
Nazis Held as Traitor

A denial that Walter Orloff, American student arrested on Friday in Germany was a Communist was made by his father Henry Orloff, retired real estate dealer of 1982 — 7th Street, Brooklyn, in a statement issued to the Jewish Daily Bulletin yesterday. "We know nothing more than we have read in the newspapers," said Mr. Orloff. "The whole affair comes as a complete surprise to us. As far as we know Walter was never engaged in any political activity either here or in Germany. He is not a Communist and we cannot imagine him doing what he is charged with. He is being persecuted because he is a Jew. His letters to us mentioned nothing of any such affairs. In fact we expected him home this summer and his arrest comes as a great shock to us. All we are interested in is seeing that he gets home safely."

According to Berlin dispatches Consul General George S. Messersmith was informed by the Reich Minister of Justice that a charge of high treason had been lodged against Walter Orloff. He was arrested early this week at Greifswald and charged with aiding Communist activities. He faces death if found guilty. The American consular officials were told that it would be impossible to deport Orloff.

However, the consulate seemed hopeful that a way would be found to return Orloff to the United States at a very early date.

Orloff, who is of American Jewish parentage and is 29 years old, was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1927 with an A.B. degree. He took a pre-medical course at Columbia University in

STAVSKY IS INNOCENT, SAYS JABOTINSKY;
CHARGES 'LARGE SECTION OF JEWRY' WITH
TRYING TO MAKE CAPITAL OUT OF CASE

(J.T.A. Special Correspondent)

Stavsky Innocent, Jabotinsky
Says; 'Section of Jewry
Making Capital Out of Case'

WARSAW, July 19—"I find rare that Stavsky is innocent, and it is evident that the investigation has not produced no proof of his guilt that has a chance of convincing any unbiased court. We will stand by this innocent man, as my generation stood by Menachem Beilis," Vladimir Jabotinsky, Revisionist President and head of the British Trumpeter said in a statement which he has made to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency here.

"Kind friends urge me," he continued, "to treat this case as an opportunity for assuring the world that Revisionism and the Betar (British Trumpeter) neither preach nor countenance murder. I must disappoint these friends. Just as during the Beilis case no decent Jew ever showed himself to covering again and again that our religion does not teach drinking Christian blood, so I decline to insist, by such assurances, the movement into which I put the best of my soul, trying to rear and fashion it in the highest of Jewish ethical traditions. Our answer to the calumny will be not apologies, but accusation."

"There are two rules sacred to all civilized humanity: a man claiming his innocence is considered innocent until a court has pronounced him guilty (the dearest part of humanity sometimes goes even further, as in the Dreyfus, or the Sacco-Vanzetti cases); and, secondly, even the proved guilt of any individual should never be construed as a guilt of his community. Both these rules should be especially sacred to all Jews, doubly so the second, whose violation has ever been a poisoned weapon in the hands of anti-Semitism."

Violating Principles

"I accuse a large section of Jewry, in this case, of ignominiously violating both these intangible principles," Jabotinsky declared. "They see a young Jew in a Palestine prison swearing his innocence, fighting for his life and his honor; they have not yet heard of any proof against him; yet they already proclaim him a murderer and push him to the gallows. Moreover, they charge a whole great movement, counting tens of thousands of adherents and tenfold more sympathizers in Jewry, with moral complicity in the hideous crime."

"And they do it for the open, obvious and ugly sake of party vendetta and discrediting speculation. With all the authority of a life spent in the service of the Jewish cause, I throw in the face of all that unworthy section of Jewry my cold and bitter contempt."

"I know that the vast majority of our people are disgusted at this shameful pogrom and blood-thirsty campaign by Jews against Jews," Jabotinsky said. "But I warn them that, by their timid silence, they contribute to an unheard-of demoralization of our public life; and worse — they help the enemies of all Jewry and of Zionism to divert the inquiry on Arlossoff's murder from investigating into the real origins of this crime — origins which, no doubt, are the same as those to which, in Palestine, we owe the events of August 1929, the Jaffa and Nablus murders, and the fire recently set to the Ballou Forest."

Proud to Be a Revisionist

"As to Revisionism and the Betar, I am proud of being a member and leader of both, proud of the men and women and youths gathered under those two banners, proud of their programs, their records and their tactics. Both movements will continue to be led in the same direction as before; no flinching, no changes, and, in particular, both will go on, armed with the clean weapons of persuasion and organization, fighting the danger of chaos-war and class-domination, until that course of Palestine Jewry is utterly and truthfully broken."

Consulting his statement with a reference to Dr. Arlossoff Jabotinsky said, "I take my hat off to the memory of this honest, quiet, hard-working Jewish patriot who tried, on his death-bed to render a last service to his nation by saying: 'I do not believe that the murderer was a Jew.' Nor do we; and we will act accordingly."

Joseph Ridder Off Again

Joseph Ridder, publisher of the New York Staats-Herald, called Saturday for Europe aboard the S.S. Europa of the North German Lloyd line. At the office of his newspaper it was stated that he plans to go to Berlin on business and would remain there indefinitely.

1929 and went to the University of Berlin's medical school in 1930. He has been studying medicine at the University of Greifswald for the last two years.

Miss Thompson Explains Menace of Hitler Regime To Burlington Audience

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

BURLINGTON, Vt., July 22.—Mrs. Sinclair Lewis, known to the journalistic world as Dorothy Thompson, continued her personal anti-Hitler educational campaign here last night when she addressed an audience at City Hall auditorium on "The Menace of the Nazi Regime." Mrs. Lewis, who served as a correspondent in Berlin for eight years and recently acted as correspondent for the Jewish Telegraphic Agency there, told her audience that "only through knowledge of German social and political history is it possible to understand the present upheaval."

"The great shock of losing the war, the positive peace treaty at Versailles which produced a 'monstrous inequality,' and the post-war inflation, she said, were fundamental causes of the Nazi revolution. "Never in the world did I think that Hitler would carry out his program," she stated, "because it didn't make sense. But now I realize that whether or not a thing makes sense is no test of its validity."

between British Fascists and Jewish youths may result.

Today Mosley's Blackshirt organization continued to stress the fact that they are not anti-Semitic, and warned Jews against attacking them by mistake, as "they may lose patience and respond in a like manner."

The frequent fights between the British Fascists and the British Union of Fascists possibly is responsible for the fact that both groups are unimportant in spite of the attraction of their shabby uniforms. Between them they count less than a thousand members. While the British Union of Fascists looks toward Rome for its inspiration, the British Fascists are supposed to be inspired by Berlin, from where they are allegedly drawing their financial support.

Nazi Firm Won't Come to Tel Aviv to Face Trial; Maybe Judge Is a Jew

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

TEL AVIV, July 19.—Germans may deny that Jews have anything to complain about in Germany, but here in Palestine they are more candid. In a reply to a summons to appear at a court here today a Hamburg firm has written to the Magistrate protesting against this city as the seat of the trial in view of "the adverse impact being waged at present in Tel Aviv against everything German . . . and as there is every reason to believe the judge will be of Jewish descent."

The defendant asked either that the case be heard in Germany or else that it be tried by "an impartial British judge."

Hias Meets New Burden Put on by German Crisis, Semi-Annual Report Tells

A marked increase in the volume of its work since the beginning of this year was announced yesterday as the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society issued its semi-annual report. According to Isaac L. Aschik, general manager of Hias, the increased activity can be traced directly to the general situation abroad and particularly to what is happening in Germany.

According to the report 33,899 persons sought and received advice and information and 1,593 affidavits were prepared and drawn up by Hias during the period from January 1 to June 30, this year. Hias' work with its affiliate organizations and branches in foreign lands also increased in scope, the report stated.

Some of the work done by Hias since the start of this year included:

Meeting 219 steamers upon arrival here and attending to the needs of Jewish immigrants; handling 3,283 inquiries in respect to immigration cases; serving 6,826 kosher meals at Ellis Island; transmitting through its remittance Bureau, the Hias Immigrant Bank, $333,541 from 38,539 individuals residing in the United States for the relief of their kin abroad; placing 288 persons in jobs through its employment bureau; serving 218,867 meals and providing 12,026 nights' shelter through the Shelter Department; and assisting 1,182 applicants in the preparation of their citizenship papers.

case, I have suggested the finding of a modus operandi satisfactory to you and to them. I am hopeful of finding a way out of the difficulties."

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 22.—The bureau was closed Thursday at the order of Ludwig Diels, chief of the Prussian state police and of the German political police "for the maintenance of public security and order" and for the prevention in the future of acts endangering the State such as may be expected." Publication of the German Bulletin issued by the bureau was ordered suspended.

The State Department at Washington has been asked by the Jewish Telegraphic Agency to aid in the case it was said at the news service's main office here. It was pointed out that the Jewish Telegraphic Agency is an American organization with some bureaus throughout the world.

Otto Schick, an Austrian citizen, who is editor of the Berlin office of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, was arrested by the "secret police" early in June and was released after a week's imprisonment following intervention by American diplomatic representatives.

Raise Nearly Million in Drive for Reich Relief

The half-year mark in the German Relief Campaign is in sight, Rabbi Joseph B. Wise stated yesterday as he announced that contributions had amounted to $324,000. The sum of $2,000,000 is set as the goal of the campaign.

He declared that there need be no fear a single penny of the contributions will be lost or diverted from the purpose for which they are made. "We are in receipt of an authentic message," Rabbi Wise said, "informing us with respect to the stories of the blocking of certain Jewish welfare funds in Germany that four of the five accounts blocked are now released; that only the Wirtschaftliche account, connected with the Physicians' Committee is still blocked, but that the matter is expected to clear shortly. These are all accounts of German organizations and this does not in any way affect the Joint Distribution Committee."

"The German Central Committee of Relief and Reconstruction is daily receiving reports from the provincial Jewish communities that the incomes required to cover the budgets of their local institutions are rapidly dwindling, that deficits are accumulating and that prospects of the near future are disastrous."

Polish Jewish Federation Pledges Boycott Support

The administrative Committee of the Federation of Polish Jews yesterday pledged support to the boycott of German goods at a meeting held at the organization's executive offices, 225 West 34th Street. The committee urged the American Jewish Congress, of which the Federation of Polish Jews is an affiliated member, officially to support the boycott program.

The resolution was signed by Benjamin Winter, president of the Federation of Polish Jews in America; Z. Tygel, executive director, and Herman B. Oberman, chairman of the administrative committee.

professions, where Jews at present are almost completely unrepresented.

Meanwhile the Jewish press is continuing to support the government led by Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, not because Jews approve of the latest Christian demands, but in view of the fact that the government continues to be stridently anti-Nazi.

The Peasants' Union is pressing for the numerous clauses, according to the Neuigkeit Weltblatt, demanding an immediate restriction against the Jews in medicine, law and other professions. The paper pointed out that the peasants' unions are generally known to be in control of determining the government's policy at present.

Christian Socialists in favor of the numerous clauses give as their reason the allegation that the measure is necessary to check the Austrian youth in its flight from their party to the Nazi faction. Urban Christian Socialists are inclined to doubt the practicability of the measure, but the country classes are strongly in favor of it.

The Democratic press has warned the government to refrain from adding the anti-Semitic issue to their program in their fight against the Socialists and the Nazis.

Ort Extends its Work For European Jews

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

According to a report just received by the Peoples ORT Federation, American Branch of the World ORT, from the Central Executive, the ORT Verband, the organization in 1932 was able not only to maintain the institutions already established but to establish new ones. A good deal of the work at present is centered around the German Jewish situation, it was announced, with ORT able to render valuable relief to refugees in countries contiguous to Germany.

A total of 236 German Jews in Berlin alone have completed ORT courses, qualifying them to obtain employment as chauffeurs, tractor drivers and painters, it was declared. In the last few weeks new courses have been opened for chemical workers, iron workers, weavers and other trades. All the ORT committees in the various countries of Eastern and Central Europe have opened special departments to assist German Jewish refugees in becoming industrialized.
