Nazi Raid Jewish School, Assault 18 Youths and Beat One Boy to Death

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 20.—Sixteen Jewish youths and their teacher were arrested in Braunshweig Monday night by uniformed Nazi storm-troopers, taken forcibly to Nazi headquarters there and viciously assaulted. One of the Jewish youths was beaten to death, succumbing immediately after the assault.

The arrests occurred after two Nazis reported to their leaders that they had heard one of the students outside the Jewish school making insulting remarks about Paul Josef Goebbels, Nazi Minister of Propaganda and Public Enlightenment.

Immediately after the Nazis received this report they organized a group, marched to the school and raided the building in the midst of evening classes in Hebrew and Yiddish culture. They arrested the entire class.

Nazi Boycott Protest Reported Winning Backing Of Mexican Government

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

MEXICO CITY, July 20.—Walter Zechlin, German Minister to Mexico, has protested to the government here against the anti-German boycott which he alleged is being carried on in this country by the Israeli Chamber of Commerce. Herr Zechlin contended that the action of the Israeli chamber violates the sovereignty of the Mexican government.

The minister's protest, which German clerics here term an "alarm signal," explains that objection is not made against an individual's rights to boycott, but against an organization's prerogative to follow such a course. The boycott is estimated to have caused a ten percent decrease in German trade throughout Mexico within the last three months.

The Mexican government's official reply to Herr Zechlin's protest has not been made available up to the present, but it was learned unofficially that it indorses the German stand and has notified the German minister that the matter has been turned over to the proper authorities.

Ralph D. Blumenfeld, British Editor, to Write For the Sunday Bulletin

Ralph D. Blumenfeld, English newspaper editor and executive, who for thirty years guided the destinies of the London Daily Express, joins the staff of the Jewish Daily Bulletin as a contributing writer. His first article appears in next Sunday's issue of the Bulletin, under the title "The Army That Leads Its Leaders." Accompanying Mr. Blumenfeld's debut article in The Bulletin will be a portrait sketch of the writer, compiled by A. L. Easterman, English journalist, for many years foreign editor of the Express and now associated with the London Daily Herald.

Mr. Blumenfeld is an inflexible in English politics and journalism. Of American birth, he became a naturalized Englishman after having proved his mettle on Fleet Street. He is also the author of "In the Days of Bicycles and Bessies." Until recently he was indifferent to the pretensions of Jewry but the advent of Hitler brought out and accentuated his racial consciousness so that, today, he is one of the most militant leaders of English Jewry.

In his first article for the Bulletin he pleads, directly and indirectly, for a more rigid observance of the world boycott against Hitler Germany. In this article Mr. Blumenfeld exhibits his gifts for wit and strength in journalism.

Coty Attacks B'nai B'rith For Roosevelt 'Abdication'

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

PARIS, July 20.—President Franklin D. Roosevelt's "abdication" is favor of Bernard Baruch, American financier who is of Jewish ancestry, is deplored by Francois Coty, French parliament and newspaper publisher, in Figeac, Paris daily.

Mr. Baruch's membership in the Roosevelt "brain trust," writes M. Coty, was engineered by the B'nai B'rith, Jewish fraternal and philanthropic organization, as part of the order's attempt to dominate the world.

The publisher, who recently lost a decision in the French courts to a group of Jewish war veterans who

Palestine Citizenship For Jewish Statehood Urged in Parliament

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, July 20.—A bill "to promote and extend the opportunities for citizenship to Jews residing outside the British Empire" was introduced at today's session of the House of Commons by Commander Oliver Locker-Lampson. His stirring speech gained in significance by the presence in the visitors' gallery of the House of Commons of Professor Albert Einstein.

When Commander Locker-Lampson referred to Professor Einstein the doctor, dressed in a white summer suit, was given a great ovation by members of Parliament.

Explaining the bill, Commander Locker-Lampson said that it is proposed to extend citizenship in Palestine to all Jews deprived of their citizenship elsewhere.

The bill would prove a practical extension and a confirmation of British policy, he declared. "We must stand by persecuted minorities," he asserted.

2 Jerusalem Newspapers Assert Mrs. Arlossoff Has Identified Rosenblatt

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

JERUSALEM, July 20.—The Davar and the Haaretz, Hebrew dailies, today printed a story to the effect that Zvi Rosenblatt, of Kfarzaba, has been identified by Mrs. Arlossoff as one of the two men sought in connection with the murder of Dr. Chaim Arlossoff on June 18 at Tel Aviv. The head of the criminal investigation department of the Palestine police informed the Jewish Telegraphic Agency that he was able neither to confirm nor deny this assertion. It was indicated by the police that the editors of the Davar and the Haaretz may be summoned to court for publishing the rumor.

Rosenblatt was arrested on Sunday when police rounded up Revisionist and Eritch Tzempelerski suspects in various sections of Palestine. He was held by the police, though most of the others were released.

pointed out that the Jews in the British Empire stood by England during the World War in Britain's fight for freedom. "We must be on the Jews' side in their fight for freedom, too," he said.

He continued his address by giving a number of instances of Jewish patriotism and by pointing out that the only parliamentarian holding the Victoria Cross is a Jew.

"If there ever was a time," he said, "when the League of Nations ought to have relaxed its rigid interpretation of its narrow laws and adjusted itself to the true spirit of its purpose it was today. But the League has not acted, and if the League does not act then the British Empire should. We are the real League of Nations, and we should stand by Jewry in its troubles."

Referring to Professor Einstein, Commander Locker-Lampson described him as the most eminent living man in the realm of science, yet homeless today.

"When Professor Einstein arrived in England," he stated, "he was asked to write in a visitors' book his permanent residence. And he put down: 'Without any.' The Hans have stolen his savings and even his violin, and the man who more than any other man approximated being the true citizen of the world is now homeless."

Commander Locker-Lampson prophesied in his speech that the Jews will win through in their fight with Germany, aided by the support of the civilized world.

Bar Aliens as Rabbis In Reich Synagogues

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 26—Synagogues of German Jewish communities will not be allowed in the future to employ rabbis and other dignitaries who are citizens or subjects of foreign countries unless in each individual case permission is obtained from the local state president, or, in Berlin, from the chief of police. An order to this effect was issued by the ministry of the interior yesterday. The order stated further that even when such permission is obtained additional sanction must be obtained from the ministry of religion.

Sale of Grain, Cattle To Jewish Dealers Banned

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 26—Authorities in the Rhenow district today issued an order prohibiting the sale of cattle and grain to Jewish dealers. Violators of the order, they said, would be severely punished and in some cases expelled from the state organization.

The edict declared that only German dealers will be permitted to appear in the marketplaces to deal in cattle and grain. All district officials in the villages were ordered to report immediately all cases of German farmers trading with Jews.

Jews Unmentioned in Nazi Sterilization Law

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 26—No specific reference was made to Jews in the press summary of the new law for the sterilization of undesirable which went into effect under a government decree promulgated throughout Germany today.

The cabinet accepted the law yesterday. It provides for a purifying race process to be carried out through an operation that "is not dangerous."

SEATTLE, July 27—Harry Sidell, metal dealer, this week became the first Jewish state officer in Masonic lodge history here when he took over his duties as junior grand master of the worshipful grand lodge of P. and A. M. Member of Pual Pith and River Chalken Congregation, Mr. Sidell is a past master of Thomas M. Reid Masonic Lodge here.

Boost Alderman Sorel For Milwaukee Mayoralty

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

MILWAUKEE, July 26—Alderman Samuel Sorel, only Jewish member of the common council, the city's governing body, is being boosted for mayor by a number of taxpayers and unemployed in the current campaign to recall Mayor Daniel W. Hoan, veteran chief executive of Milwaukee.

Sorel, who has been an outstanding independent in the council, attached neither to the Socialist nor non-partisan (anti-Socialist) factions in that body, was asked to run for the mayoralty by the Milwaukee Unemployed Union and delegates of several taxpayers' groups.

Sorel, however, refused flatly and instead praised Mayor Hoan highly. The recall agitation was started by taxpayers' organizations angry at Mayor Hoan's refusal to cut the salaries of city employees further. Factions for the recall are now being circulated.

German Libraries Ordered To Keep Books by Jews

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 26—An order that scientific libraries should not destroy books written by Jews was issued today by the Prussian ministry of education. The order stated, however, that the libraries should be careful not to lose these books to applicants unless they proved they needed them for serious scientific work.

The ministry of the interior today issued a similar order for all community libraries throughout Germany.

Zacherman, Nazi Victim, Leaves For Marienbad

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 26—Philip Zacherman, American citizen who last week was injured when he was attacked by a group of storm troopers in Leipzig, was on his way to Marienbad today, where he intends to spend some time in a hospital. Representations by American consular officials to the German authorities resulted in a promise on the part of the Nazis to find and punish the men guilty of assaulting Zacherman.

It is believed here that an investigation is not likely to discover the attackers of Zacherman since a large Nazi group carried out the attack. They were all dressed in the same kind of uniforms, making identification practically impossible, unless all the storm troopers in Leipzig were held.

Nazis Hold Two Jews As Hostages for Conduct Of Their Relatives Abroad

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 20—Two prominent Jews, one the leader of the Jewish community in Bremen, and the other well-known in Hamburg, were arrested by the Nazi political police today for questioning on the charge that anti-German propaganda allegedly is being conducted by their relatives abroad. The police declined to mention the names of the two men.

Der Angriff reported today that the man arrested in Bremen was the head of the Jewish community organization there. He was accused of helping his brother, who now lives in Paris, conduct anti-German agitation in France. Confiscation of his private correspondence by Nazi authorities gave the political police information which led them to arrest him, Der Angriff reported.

The Hamburg Jew, who is a prominent merchant in that city, was also arrested on vague charges. It is believed that both men were taken as hostages in order to prevent their relatives abroad from participating in further alleged anti-German activities.

Austria Denies Reports Of Jewish Discrimination

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

VIENNA, July 20—An authoritative statement was issued by the government today denying the possibility of Jewish discrimination by putting into effect a census law for Jews. The statement assured Jews equality with other religious classes in the country and pointed out that Austrian Jews will enjoy the fullest rights in accordance with this country's constitution.

The government, under the leadership of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, does not intend to change existing Austrian laws dealing with the treatment of religious questions, according to today's statement. The statement, which was in effect a denial of previous semi-official rumors regarding racial and religious discrimination laws being planned, was circulated by the official Austrian Telegraph Agency. It was observed, however, that the government commission was circulated only in foreign countries, and not within the boundaries of Austria.

Dianin Jewish Lecturers

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, July 20—An official order from the ministry of education yesterday stated that for the forthcoming school term of 1933-4 all Jewish lecturers must be automatically dismissed. The order will be effective throughout Germany, starting next school term.

Roumanian Anti-Semite Is Jailed as Swindler

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

CZERNOWITZ, Roumania, July 20—The notorious Messiahist, who is president of the Carist, anti-Semitic party in the province of Bukovina, was sentenced today to fifteen days imprisonment for appropriating a sum in which he appropriated funds belonging to one of his clerics. His name was ordered stricken from the list of associates permitted to practice.

Messiahism is notorious as responsible for the massacre of Jewish youths crossing the Dniester River some time ago. He is high in the ranks of the anti-Semitic organization led by Professor Cerni.

Laborites Forge Ahead In Polish Zionist Voting

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, July 20—In view of a number of protests received by the Central Election Committee from several towns regarding the lack of impartiality in the World Zionist Congress election proceedings an investigation has been started and the distribution of the mandates has been postponed. New elections have been ordered for this Sunday in Kielce.

To date, results from 259 districts in Poland register approximately 150,000 votes, with the Palestine Laborites far in the lead with 66,365. Following in order are the Jabotinsky Revisionists, 24,411 votes; Mizrahi, 23,893; General Zionists, 17,205; Hirschbeim, 1,869; Grossman's Democratic Revisionists, 1,437 and Et-Zionoth, 1,060.

Ford Denies Reports Of Assistance to Hitler

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, July 20—Henry Ford, automobile magnate, in a statement to the London Daily Herald, denies that he gave "one cent" to any foreign political organization, although he admitted he had been approached for contributions to the National Socialist party.

Mr. Ford's denial followed publication of the sensational charges, made by a German writing under the name of Johannes Stool, that Mr. Ford had contributed approximately $300,000 to finance the Hitler movement.

Stool, in a volume "Hitler as Frankenstein," published yesterday, charged that Ford made large contributions under the guise of payment of salaries and bonuses to the Nicholsonian prince, Ferdinand, who is employed by him at his factories in Detroit. Ford, denying this, stated that Ferdinand received the same wages as other Ford employees and no more.

Progressive Order of West Respects A. D. Bearman, Votes to Extend Activities

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

CINCINNATI, July 20—A. D. Bearman of Memphis was unanimously re-elected Grand Master of the Progressive Order of the West at the closing session of the convention at which funds were appropriated for various national institutions. The convention has been in session at the Hotel Netherland Plaza since last Sunday. Overcoming his own recommendation not to appropriate funds, Mr. Bearman made an eloquent plea in which the delegates were personally asked to contribute to Palestine and other Jewish activities.

The budget of $20,444 for the coming two years was adopted. There was a great deal of discussion at the meeting of the committee on resolutions which took up the question of appropriations preceding the convention. Mr. Bearman's appeal to contribute to major Jewish needs settled the question.

Mendel N. Fisher, representing the American Palestine campaign, made an appeal to the convention and he was given $200 for the fund. The purposes of the Progressive Order of the West were modified so as to include social education and a national program for Jewish youth.

Support of the Roosevelt Industrial Recovery Act was pledged in a series of resolutions endorsing endorsement of the Palestine Emergency Fund and support of the Ort Fod campaign. Cooperation with the American Jewish Congress and support of the World Jewish Congress was pledged.

An elimination of medical examinations for life insurance policies of less than $100 and an extension of the insurance feature to include a twenty-year life policy were put into practice by the passing of resolutions to that effect.

The final session was taken up with a report of investments by Harry Polkerson. A resolution was unanimously adopted stating that the funds of the organization be invested in United States government bonds. Louis Jaffe of Chicago and A. A. Schwartzbach read 100 resolutions dealing with various phases of the work of the organization.

L. Madis of St. Louis was installed as first vice-Grand Master. Other officers elected included Symon L. Brody, Chicago, second vice-Grand Master; Jacob L. Spitzer, Philadelphia, third vice-Grand Master, and Sam Mason, New York, fourth vice-Grand Master. Morris Shapiro of St. Louis was re-elected grand secretary.

Chicago was chosen as the next convention city.

tion with the interpretation that "no entity has the right to declare a boycott."

During the last week anti-Jewish propaganda in Mexico City has been intensified following protests against the boycott made to the Confederation of Chambers of Commerce by local German organizations. The Confederation has launched an investigation of the whole affair.

Anti-Jewish propaganda is spreading into the states in the interior as a result of a campaign launched by an organization known as "Confia," of which Rafael Sanchez Lina is the head. One of the most recent developments is a note addressed to the government here by the Industrialists' Union in the State of Aguas Calientes asking that heavy taxes be imposed on foreign merchants, and specifying Jewish traders. The note demanded that taxes be raised from 400 to 500 percent and that no foreigners be permitted to open new business establishments in Aguas Calientes.
