Witnesses Testify Against Starvsky and Achmeir At Arlossoff Hearing

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

JAFFA, Sept. 14—Scrutiny on the right thumb base of Abraham Starvsky, one of the three Revisionists accused of the murder of Dr. Chaim Arlossoff, correspond with the distances between the prisoners in the barbed wire fence on the top of the hillcock adjoining the scene of the murder, Inspector Schiff of the Palestine police testified today, at the resumption of the hearing in the case against the accused. Zvi Kossoblan and Aba Achmeir are the other defendants.

Mejer Schling, student in the Hebrew University, told of a speech made by Achmeir in Haifa, on the occasion of Starvsky, in which the Revisionist derided the gathering of the juvenile Revisionist Shalomov, student corporation. Achmeir told them that they had no real nationalistic spirit such as exhibited the German student corporation responsible for the murder of Walter Rathenau, German-Jewish statesman, nor did they have the ardor of the murderers of Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, German Communist leaders. He inferred that they were cowards.

Did Not Identify Others

Schling failed to identify Starvsky and Kossoblan as having been present at the general assembly of the British Transpalestine, Revisionist youth movement, with Jerusalem, Haifa and Tel Aviv groups participating. The conference had been called to discuss measures of retaliation against the Laborites, who allegedly snuffed them.

Achmeir refused to interrogate the witness, declaring that the testimony was merely a provocation, he

The parliament also empowered the Ministry of Education to introduce a numerous classes in Dutch universities, restricting the number of foreign students on the basis of their race. Semitic Faces on Screen Cause Riot in Berlin Movie

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Sept. 14—A performance of the photoplay, "The Ugly Girl," had to be discontinued here yesterday at the Atrium theatre on the Kalerstrasse when an allegedly spontaneous demonstration broke out because members of the audience noticed Jewish-looking actors in the film.

Emigration Sole Recourse For German Jews, Tolsey, HIAS Commissioner, Says

Reconstruction of the lives of the Jews of Germany within the Reich cannot be successful and the only alternative to extermination is emigration, Samuel A. Tolsey declared yesterday on his return here on the Italian liner Rex from a three-months investigation tour through Germany and France.

Mr. Tolsey, a New York attorney and director of the HIAS, the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society, made his investigation as special commissioner for the organization. He returned convinced that it is useless for the Jews to expect any change in policy on the part of the Nazi regime towards the Jews in its own.

Mr. Tolsey declared that conditions in Germany are becoming progressively worse, that there was no future at all for the Jew in Germany and that even the well-to-do German Jews agreed with this view, that nothing was left for the German Jews but emigration. The crying need of the moment among the Jews of the world, he said, is only so that the activities in behalf of the German Jews may be centralized and duplication of work avoided.

Book of Israel Closed

"The book of Israel in Germany is closed," said Mr. Tolsey, quipping a well-known German saying, "and attempts at the reconstruction of the Jews in Germany here not, and cannot, be successful. I was told by those whose daily work gives them the means of knowing, that the discouragement and despair will shortly produce a large crop of suicides; suicides among the refugees have already become very frequent.

"I believe that the German policy in regard to the Jews will not change; the government will not relax. I do not believe that the external pressure sufficient to produce a change can or will be exerted; the German government, I firmly believe, will not yield to external pressure in this matter. Internal pressure for a change is out of the question for a long time to come. Before the Germans will have awakened and seek to redress the wrongs inflicted upon the Jews, the damage will have been irreparable."

Mr. Tolsey declared that "all Jewish agencies in the United States must unite; there must be no divergence. The work being carried on must be centralized and systematized; it overlaps in many cases."

He described the plight of the German-Jewish refugees in Paris and elsewhere as tragic in the ex-
