Rothermere Paper Attacks Einstein for Proposed Speech at Albert Hall

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, Sept. 26—An editorial attack on Professor Albert Einstein is made today in Lord Rothermere's Evening News, which calls on the scientist to cancel his plans to address a mass meeting at Albert Hall next week on the German situation. The paper couples its attack with outspoken approval of Nazi aims under the pretext that they are suppressing communism. Professor Einstein is attacked for his pacifist activities and his alleged communist associations.

Sir Austen Chamberlain, noted statesman, who is scheduled to address the meeting, is also subjected to the Evening News' criticism as is Commander Oliver Locker-Lampson, Professor Einstein's British host. Sir Austen is denounced for associating with "Reds," and Commander Locker-Lampson ridiculed for utilizing Professor Einstein for purposes of self-publicity. Photographs showing him bearing arm at his estate for the purpose of defending Einstein from threatened Nazi Fehmic attacks are held up for derision by the paper.

The paper asserts that the meeting will not do any good either to Anglo-German relations or to the German Jews. In any case, it declares, Professor Einstein, as a pacifist with communist associations, is not the right man to plead the case of the German Jews.

Nazi Anti-Semitic Papers Publish 'Kol Nidre' Text

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Sept. 26—The full text of the "Kol Nidre," the prayer used to open the services on the eve of the Day of Atonement, is being published in several anti-Semitic papers here to support their contention that the Jews never take their oaths or pledges seriously.

Celebration of the Jewish New Year in the provinces was quiet and unmarked by anti-Jewish disturbances except in certain towns in Hessen, a survey completed today revealed. In Hessen, synagogues were invaded during the services by local Nazis and the worshippers dragged out.

ALL NATIONS CALLED ON TO GUARANTEE HUMAN, POLITICAL RIGHTS IN RESOLUTION HAITIAN IS TO INTRODUCE TODAY AT LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

GENEVA, Sept. 26—A far-reaching resolution, enabling fullest discussion of the German question and, if adopted, guaranteeing Jewish rights in all countries now threatened by anti-Semitism, will be moved at tomorrow's session of the fourteenth League of Nations Assembly, the Jewish Telegraphic Agency learned today. The resolution will be introduced by M. Frangulic, delegate from Haiti.

The resolution proposes that all countries, including Germany, undertake to guarantee elementary human and citizenship rights, particularly equality before the law, irrespective of race, language and religion, and protection of life and freedom.

Simultaneously, the resolution foresees creation of an international body to regulate questions of emigration of such minorities who are compelled to emigrate. The resolution was circulated today among the delegates.

Seek League Commissioner

The appointment of a League of Nations commissioner to handle the problems arising from the existence of thousands of German-Jewish refugees will be urged on the assembly by Leonard Montefiore and Norman Bentwich, outstanding British Jewish leaders, who came to Geneva to press the Jewish cause.

Mr. Montefiore, president of the Anglo-Jewish Committee, and Mr. Bentwich, former attorney general of Palestine, were designated by the Board of Deputies of British Jews to seek League aid in behalf of the refugees.

While the majority of the delegates here are in favor of the appointment of a commissioner, they consider German cooperation desirable in this, both as regards the appointment itself and the facilitation of the commissioner's work. For these reasons, several delegates to the assembly advised the Jewish representatives to confine their

Believed Aryan, Jew Beaten For Walking with Jewess; Danzig Aryan Mutilated

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Sept. 26—Both Aryans and Jews who have associated with each other or have been suspected of associating with each other are feeling the mailed fist of the advocates of so-called Aryan racial superiority within the past few days.

Jewish men walking with fair-haired women of the Aryan or Nordic type in the Berlin streets, have been assaulted by Nazis, as have Aryans who are seen with Jewish women. Several cases of Jews being assaulted in the streets by these defenders of racial purity were reported today, including that of Samuel Spann, a Jewish youth, with blonde hair and the type of features claimed exclusively for Aryans, who was badly beaten up by Nazis who saw him walking with a Jewish girl and mistook him for an Aryan.

A shocking case was reported here today from Danzig. A non-Jewish Danzig youth courting a Jewish girl, was followed by Nazis, who set upon him when he crossed the German frontier in his automobile. The youth was mutilated and carried back over the Danzig frontier where he was left in a serious condition.

Hugenberg Papers Voice Approval of Zionism

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Sept. 26—Approval of German Jews who are Zionists was expressed today by the powerful Hugenberg chain of newspapers owned by Dr. Alfred Hugenberg, nationalist leader and deposed minister of economics. The papers ridiculed Jews who consider themselves Germans.

The papers indicate that German government circles are sympathetic to the Zionist movement, which need not fear suppression. The Jewish Telegraphic Agency learns, however, that Zionist headquarters in Berlin, especially those branches assisting emigration to Palestine, are closely watched by agents of the political police to ascertain whether all activities going on are strictly Zionist.

To Sing 'Kol Nidre' In Hartford Temple First Time in 40 Years

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 26—After a lapse of forty years, during which "Kol Nidre" has not been sung in the reform Temple Beth Israel here due to theological differences, the ancient Hebrew chant is to be revived Yom Kippur Eve, although with a different prayer.

While browsing in a New York library recently Rabbi Abraham J. Feldman of the temple came upon an old book of folk songs in which he found a prayer written by Henry Worthington Loomis to the tune of "Kol Nidre". This is the prayer Rabbi Feldman has arranged for his choir to sing. It will be given in English.

Ninth Hillel Foundation to Be Dedicated October 18

(J.D.B. Special Correspondence)

EVANSTON, Ill., Sept. 25—Ceremonies dedicating the ninth Hillel Foundation of the national B'nai B'rith organization will be held on the campus of Northwestern University on October 18. Alfred M. Cohen, president of the B'nai B'rith and chairman of the Hillel Foundation Commission, will officiate.

The program, which is to take place in the Great Hall of the Methodist Church here, will include addresses by Walter Dill Scott, president of Northwestern; the Rev. Ernest Fremont Tittle, of the church; Marvin Finder, president of the Northwestern Hillel Student Council, who will represent the students; Fred Bernstein, of the Hillel Foundation Commission, and Mrs. Hugo Hartman, chairman of the executive committee of the women's division of the Foundation.

Palestine Needs Men and Money, Goldstein Reports

Palestine needs men and money, declared Nathan L. Goldstein on his return to New York yesterday on the S.S. Paris after a trip to Palestine, where he made a special study of conditions. Mr. Goldstein attended the World Zionist Congress at Prague.

Reiterating the prevailing opinion among those who arrive from trips abroad, Mr. Goldstein said that the German Jews are in great suffering. He voiced the hope that Palestine will be a haven for the refugees, for "those who manage to escape."

"The Jews who are willing and anxious to enter the country," said Mr. Goldstein, "are of the same type as those who have emigrated there since the close of the World War and they will undoubtedly make the same contribution to the up-building of the country as their predecessors. But man power is not enough.

"Money is needed to finance the projects which must be undertaken to absorb the emigration. While the existing Zionist organizations must continue to count on donations for their various purposes, the real money that is needed must be in the form of substantial investment capital to adequately finance the enterprises which must shortly be undertaken.

Mizrachi Meet Tonight To Hear Congress Report

The American Mizrachi delegation to the Eighteenth World Zionist Congress, recently held in Prague, and the World Conferences of Mizrachi and Mizrachi Youth organizations, will render its report tonight at eight o'clock at the Pennsylvania Hotel.

The reports will be given by Rabbi Wolf Gold, head of the delegation, who will clarify the Mizrachi stand at the Congress and report on the proceedings of the Mizrachi World Conference at Cracow. Rabbi I. M. Kowalsky, vice-president of the organization, will report on the relationship of the Mizrachi to the Zionist funds. Isidore Epstein, president of the Mizrachi Youth in America, will discuss the proceedings of the World Mizrachi Youth Conference.

Jews Forbidden to Enter Town (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Sept. 26—The Bayrische Zeitung reported that at Elbersroth, Jews are officially prohibited from entering the town. At the same time the entire non-Jewish population has been ordered not to trade with Jews on pain of being declared traitors.

Sir Herbert Samuel Pleads Hebrew University Cause

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

MONTREAL, Que., Sept. 26—Sir Herbert Samuel, famed British statesman and first High Commissioner of Palestine, yesterday pleaded the cause of the Hebrew University at Jerusalem as the haven of refuge for German-Jewish scientists and men of learning ousted from their posts in Germany by the Nazis. Speaking at a luncheon arranged in his honor here, Sir Herbert declared that directors of the university, although confronted with the need of providing facilities for these ousted men, had been forced to cut the institution's budget from 250,000 pounds to 130,000 pounds.

Funds are urgently needed, he declared as he revealed his intention of touring the principal cities of the United States in behalf of the university. Five thousand dollars was contributed for the university here following the meeting.

Famed German-Jewish Economist to Teach Here

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26—Dr. Hans Neisser, one of Europe's ablest economists, has been elected to professorship in the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Neisser was formerly on the faculty of the University of Kiel and left Germany as a result of the recent developments there.

A member of an old German-Jewish family of scholars, Dr. Neisser speaks English fluently and under present plans will conduct two graduate courses at the university. He is the author of a number of notable works among them "The Exchange Value of Money" and "The International Gold Market Before and After the War." He will begin his work at the university on Friday, the opening of the academic year.

United Synagogue Group To Hold NRA Conference

A "National Recovery Assembly" called by Louis J. Moss, president of the United Synagogue of America, will meet Sunday, November 12, at the Hotel Commodore, to consider the effect of the NRA upon Jewish synagogue and religious life and will take measures to provide for the new situation. It is the intention that a national educational and cultural program be formulated to meet the new leisure created as a result of the NRA.

A thorough reorganization of the United Synagogue of America, with the object of fashioning the organization along the most democratic lines, will also come up for consideration at the meeting.

Ludwig, in New Plea for Jewish Unity, Sees It as Only Hope for German Jews

A plea that Jews the world over unite as a means of warding off persecution was sounded by Emil Ludwig, eminent German Jewish author, who arrived here yesterday on the S.S. Paris.

Mr. Ludwig will spend a few days in New York and in Chicago, where he will visit the World Fair, before proceeding to Beverly Hills, California. There he is to work on a scenario for the forthcoming cinema production of his biography, "Napoleon."

Besieged by newspaper men to discuss the political situation in Germany, where his books have been publicly burned and where he himself has been ostracized, Mr. Ludwig declined to go into the subject, repeating with emphasis:

"I don't know Hitler. I don't want to know him. No, I will not talk about him."

But in a statement which he had previously prepared for publication, the writer said in part:

"Hitler suits the German character as it has developed for sixty years far better than we do, who tried unsuccessfully for a decade to have western European ideas take root in Germany, but who at the most represented only a small minority.

"Now the Germans are, so to speak, at ease with themselves, as their present leaders proclaim. And Hitler has the right to assert that his ideals of race, blood and war-worship are indeed the German national ideals. The working class and the other European-minded Germans are defeated. The middle class, led by the barons of big industry, rules while the professors supply the music."

The only hope which Herr Ludwig said he sees for the Jews in Germany, where he believes Jewish persecution is extremely popular, is in union.

B'nai B'rith Lodge Votes Endorsement of Boycott

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 26—Approval of a national boycott against German-made goods while the present anti-Jewish terrorism of the Hitler regime continues was expressed by the Gilead lodge of B'nai B'rith here at its first full meeting. I. B. Padway, leader in the lodge, predicted the national B'nai B'rith would officially come out for the boycott. He contended further that the boycott would be a patriotic act at this time, since it would encourage consumption of American-made products. He attacked the "sadism and perversion" of the present Nazi government.

German Group Boos Plea For American Tolerance, Quietly Hears Nazi Leader

After repeatedly interrupting by boos and catcalls a strong plea by Bernard F. Ridder, newspaper publisher, for the elimination of the spirit of intolerance from its actions, a meeting of the United German Societies at Turn Halle Monday night came to order and listened quietly to a rhetorical declaration by the spokesman of the Steel Helmets and the Friends of New Germany, Heinz Spanknoebel, who denied that these organizations forced the withdrawal of the Jewish groups from the United German Societies.

The meeting was called by the Rev. William Popcke of Zion Lutheran Church, honorary president of the United German Societies and the only official who did not resign as a result of the split which developed last week when a meeting of the United German Societies, called to decide whether or not Ambassador Hans Luther should be invited to attend the German Day exercises on October 29, refused to pass a resolution condemning anti-Semitism.

Spanknoebel's declaration came at the close of Mr. Ridder's speech, in which he warned those present at the meeting that "the new spirit of intolerance" could only end in the robbing of Germany of American friendship.

"All my life," Mr. Ridder said, "I have fought for Germany's cause. But today I must tell you, whether you would hear it or no: You are on the wrong road, and do not realize where it will take you. Apparently you do not know conditions in America well enough to know that everyone who offends the fundamental principles of the constitution of our country, its principles of religious and theoretical freedom, has public opinion against him. German organizations which for sixty years have co-operated in the service of the German people have been forced out of the United German Societies. They went, but the public sympathy is on their side. With your method of procedure you are hurting Germany proper more than anything else, for you are robbing Germany of her newly-won friendship of the American people, a friendship which she needs today more than ever."

Mr. Ridder's speech was constantly interrupted by boos and catcalls, and in the attempt to restore order the chairman called upon Spanknoebel, as spokesman of the pro-Nazi groups represented at the meeting. Spanknoebel, maintaining that discussions about racial and religious questions were not on the calendar and that the German Jewish groups had withdrawn of their own accord, having been forced by no one, and that their protest over the failure

Gov. Arthur Seligman Dead; Was Outstanding Figure In New Mexico's Growth

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 26—Arthur Seligman, Governor of New Mexico since January 1, 1931, one of the four Jewish Governors in the United States, died here of a heart attack, a half hour after he had spoken at a meeting of the New Mexico Bankers' Association. He was sixty years old.

Governor Seligman was one of the few native-born sons of Jewish parentage in New Mexico. He was one of the outstanding figures in the social and economic development of New Mexico and is credited with laying the first pavement in the State, when he was Mayor of Santa Fe. His absorption in the public affairs of his State dates back to the time when he established a newspaper of his own, the Evening Star of Santa Fe, at the age of twelve.

He was actively engaged both in politics and business. He occupied many public offices, among them Chairman of the Santa Fe County Commissioners, member of the Board of Irrigation Commissioners, and President of the Educational Survey Commission.

He also was president of the company which built and operated one of the largest hotels in the State, president of the First National Bank of Santa Fe, and director of the Northern New Mexico Loan Association.

As Governor he was guided by liberal principles with the objective of efficiency and economy in the State Government.

He was actively interested in civic and philanthropic work. He is survived by his wife, Frankie Lackor of Cleveland, two children and a sister, Mrs. Eva Seligman Cohen of Philadelphia.

The body was taken to Santa Fe, his life-long residence, for burial.

Jewish Clerics Ordered Out by Thuringian Evangelical Church

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Sept. 26—The Thuringian Evangelical Church has ordered the dismissal of all ministers of Jewish descent or whose wives are descendants of Jews. Exception is to be made only in cases where the ministers have been in the church before 1914, participated in the war, or had children killed in the war.

of the organization to condemn anti-Semitism coincident with the decision to raise the Swastika, asserted that their withdrawal was dictated by the boycott which Samuel Untermyer had organized. He denied intentions of spreading National Socialism here.

Two Jewish Publications Barred from Germany

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Sept. 26—Two more Jewish publications, the Zionist weekly, Stimme, and the Jiddische Presse, issued by the Agudath Israel, organization of orthodox Jews, were today prohibited from circulating in Germany. Both papers are published in Germany. All Jewish publications from abroad entering Germany are closely scrutinized by the Nazi political police.

Being a Jew Called Legal Ground for Dismissal

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Sept. 26—A ruling of the Labor Court as been announced that persons of Jewish extraction can be legally dismissed on the ground solely of their faith. It adds that business firms which consider Jewish employment harmful to their interests may dismiss the Jewish employees without compensation if they so desire.

Library Jewish Division to Be Closed Saturday

In view of the observance of the Day of Atonement by the Jewish community, the Jewish Division in the New York Public Library will close on Friday, September 29, at 6 p.m. and reopen on Sunday at 1 p.m., according to announcement by Joshua Bloch, chief of the Jewish Division.

The catalogue of the Jewish Division will be available to the public, and books belonging to its collection may be drawn for use in the Main Reading Room.

All Nations Called on to Guarantee Human, Political Rights, in League Resolution present activities only to the securing of the appointment of a commissioner and to refrain from raising complaints generally in order to ensure that there would be no opposition by Germany.

Can't Avoid Discussion

It is most doubtful that a discussion of the German situation can be avoided by the assembly, not only because of the resolution due tomorrow and the fact that Sean Lester, rapporteur on the Upper Silesian minorities question, is to submit a report on German observance of the League Council's dictates in the matter of the Bernheim petition on the infringement of Jewish rights in the plebiscite area, but also because the Jews of Upper Silesia have submitted a petition to the League through the German Government.

The petition complains that discriminations against the Jewish minority in Upper Silesia continue to exist in practice despite the clauses for the protection of minorities in the Polish-German convention and the League decision in the Bernheim case.

The German Government which, in accordance with League procedure, must submit the petition to the League, in an effort to avoid public discussion, is trying to circumvent the assembly and bring the petition direct to the League's sixth commission. Discussion on the petition, even if the German envoys succeed in presenting it directly to the commission, cannot be avoided.

Le Journal de Geneve, describing this development, remarks that it is curious that Germany should itself become instrumental in provoking discussion of the German question.

Brodetzky Representing Zionists

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, Sept. 26—Professor Selig Brodetzky, member of the World Zionist Executive, left for Geneva today where he will be joined by Leo Motzkin of Paris and Deputy Isaac Gruenbaum of Poland. The three men will take up the German-Jewish question with various delegates with a view to finding ways and means to facilitate the settlement of German Jews in Palestine and acquaint League of Nations circles with the decisions of the Eighteenth World Zionist Congress regarding an appeal to the League of Nations for an international loan for this purpose.

The congress, which met at Prague last month, voted to appeal to the League for an international loan to aid in the settlement of German Jews in Palestine and in the rebuilding of a Jewish national home

Mrs. Filene, Gershwin Aid Schoenberg Study Fund

Mrs. A. Lincoln Filene of Boston, patron of music and philanthropist, and George Gershwin, composer, are among those who have contributed to the scholarship fund being raised for students to study with Arnold Schoenberg, internationally known musician and teacher, who is an exile from Germany. Mr. Schoenberg is coming here next month to teach at the newly-organized Malkin Conservatory in Boston.

Mrs. Filene's contribution is to be known as the A. Lincoln Filene Scholarship and will be given to a worthy American composer.

Chilean Jew Is Reported Marrying Sister of Nazi

(J.T.A. Special Correspondence)

SANTIAGO, Chile, Sept. 5—The news that Dr. Louis Segal, a Jewish physician, would marry Miss Eliana Artatur Vial, sister of the well-known local Nazi storm troop leader, created a sensation here among Chileans and among Jews in particular.

there. The proposal was made by American representatives to the congress.

The Zionist leaders at Geneva will not submit concrete proposals concerning the loan at the present session of the assembly, but will attempt to learn the League's views on the matter.

Weizmann Visit to Help

It is learned that the visit here during the assembly session of Dr. Chaim Weizmann, head of the Zionist drive to aid the German Jews, and the conclusions of the Mandates Commission which the assembly will have to ratify will perhaps help to induce discussion regarding German-Jewish settlement in Palestine, which now belongs in Dr. Weizmann's sphere of activities.

Professor Brodetzky will cooperate with Leonard Montefiore and Norman Bentwich, British Jewish leaders, who are in Geneva seeking appointment of a League commissioner to supervise the German-Jewish refugee problem.
