Mysterious Witness Heard By Dickstein Committee Opening Nazi Inquiry (Jewish Daily Bulletin)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—A mysterious witness, whose name was not disclosed, took the stand today as the Dickstein inquiry into Nazi activities in this country held its first open session. A letter, first brought to light by the Daily Worker, New York Communist newspaper, purporting to be from Walter Haag, adjutant to Heinz Spanknoebel, fugitive head of the Nazi movement in this country, and reporting progress made here, was declared authentic by the witness.

Clarence Hathaway, editor of the paper, informed Congressman Dickstein that he would try to be present tomorrow to testify concerning the letter and to answer questions concerning Nazi propaganda activities. Hathaway is expected to bring the original of the letter with him.

The sub-committee conducting the investigation under the leadership of Congressman Dickstein, and with which A. Dana Hodgson, representative of the State Department also sat, heard Victor Ridder, one of the publishers of the New York Staats-Zeitung, who identified Nazi propaganda papers circulated in this country. Bernard Ridder, who will appear before the committee tomorrow, is expected to make startling revelations.

The committee also heard Joseph Smith, an official of the National Association of American Seamen, who declared that hundreds of men who are in reality German citizens and whose families live in Germany, hold down jobs on American vessels by virtue of naturalization papers

American Diplomat Warns Austria on Anti-Semitism (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

VIENNA, Nov. 14—A warning to Austria against a policy of anti-Semitism was sounded here today by United States Minister Earle. He declared that Austria, which now had the sympathy of the United States, would forfeit it if the country undertook a policy of racial or religious discrimination. The American diplomat said he had told this to Austrian officials in the provinces.

Liberal Leader Seeks to Form New Roumanian Govt. Opposed to Anti-Semitism (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BUCHAREST, Nov. 14—The success of Dr. Ion G. Duca, Liberal leader, in forming a new Roumanian cabinet, may mean a serious blow to the growth of the anti-Semitic movement here according to the Liberal press, which indicates that the fall of the Vaida-Voivod cabinet was largely due to King Carol's displeasure with Vaida-Voivod's tacit support of the Nazi movement.

Vaida-Voivod went so far as actually to subsidize the anti-Semitic movement, the Liberal press charges, supplying Nazi troops with uniforms which had been ordered for them in quantity lots.

Dr. Duca was unable to form a cabinet including M. Bratiano, once virtual dictator of the kingdom, and is expected to try to form a Liberal cabinet. Should he fail, the possibility of a general election is foreseen.

Central Relief Body Not Affected by Ban on Jewish Relief Fund Collections (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Nov. 14—The recent government order prohibiting all Jewish fund collections for relief purposes for the duration of the Nazi winter relief drive does not affect the activities of the Central Ausschuss, the central Jewish relief body which is supported partly by funds raised in Germany and partly by funds allocated to it by foreign Jewish agencies, the Jewish Telegraphic Agency was informed today.

The relief body will continue its normal activities under the direction of Friedrich Brodnitz, son of Dr. Julius Brodnitz, president of the Central Union of German Citizens of the Jewish Faith. Friedrich Brodnitz succeeds to the post of executive director of the organization made vacant by the sudden death of Dr. Ludwig Tietz. Pro-Zionist in his sympathies, he is at present in Palestine but is returning to Germany immediately to take up his new duties.

Palestine Jews Aroused By Harsh Measures Used To Halt Illegal Entry (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

JERUSALEM, Nov. 14—A wave of indignation swept the Jewish population today as the harsh measures employed by the officials to halt illegal Jewish immigration into Palestine became generally known. British and Arab police yesterday began a wide hunt for illegal Jewish immigrants along the frontiers and coast.

Several men, women and children who were arrested, were summarily jailed today, the men in Acre prison, the women in the Bethlehem Females' prison and the children in the Haifa orphanage.

British and Arab police today questioned motor bus chauffeurs at Beirut, asking if Jews were among their passengers. They carefully scrutinized all passports and asked the passengers their religion.

A meeting at Deraa, Syria, of the French adviser of the gendarmerie and the commandant of the Palestine customs officer to discuss means of preventing illegal entry of Palestine immigrants through Syria was reported today.

Haaretz, Hebrew daily, reported today that Palestinian Arabs are urging the Syrians and Lebanese to assist the Palestine government in checking the entry of Jews through Syria. Lebanese authorities, it is learned, contemplate the establishment of further control posts along the southern frontier.

New Palestine Edict Hits Jewish Immigration Flow (Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, Nov. 14—Only two hundred and fifty Jewish immigrants will be allowed to enter Palestine on any one vessel, as a result of the recent Arab protests against Jewish immigration, the Jewish Telegraphic Agency learns from reliable sources. Although this limitation on immigration by the government was introduced as a temporary measure to be enforced during the next two weeks, it is feared that the restrictions may be made permanent.

Quebec Workers' Congress To Fight Entry of Refugees

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

MONTREAL, Que., Nov. 14—The question of German-Jewish immigration into Canada will receive much attention at the coming Congress of the Catholic trades unions of the Province of Quebec, which will be held here, according to Le Canada, French-Canadian daily.

The workers of Chicoutime have adopted resolutions protesting immigration of German Jews into Canada. The workers of Three Rivers will demand at the congress that immigration permits must receive parliamentary sanction and that more attention should be paid to the Lord's Day Act, to keep the Jews from laboring on Sunday.

Fear that a wave of German-Jewish immigration would sweep Canada and that the new arrivals would displace the French-Canadians from their jobs has been carefully nurtured among the workers by an active anti-Semitic press. Le Devoir, one of the most influential of these publications, industriously spread a report that a committee had been formed in Paris to transport "seven hundred thousand German Jews" to Canada.

The federal parliament has received scores of resolutions from French-Canadian bodies against admission of "anti-Christian" elements into Canada.

Philadelphia Women PledgeAnti-Nazi Boycott Aid

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14—Following an address by Mrs. Stephen S. Wise, president of the Women's Division of the American Jewish Congress, 2,000 women pledged to dedicate themselves to further the boycott of German merchandise in this city, at a meeting held under the auspices of the Women's Philadelphia Council of the American Jewish Congress, at the Arch Street Theatre.

Mrs. Wise described conditions of the Jewish refugees in countries adjoining Germany as she observed them during the summer when on a trip with her husband. She stressed the hopelessness of the Jewish youth in Germany and told of the efforts of the American Jewish Congress to bring some children to this country. She characterized the boycott as the only weapon the Jews possessed to ameliorate conditions in Germany.

Abraham Goldberg, Zionist leader, asserted that the attitude of the Nazis may be interpreted as a declaration of war against world Jewry.

R. D. Blumenfeld Arrives For American Lecture Tour

Ralph D. Blumenfeld, for thirty years editor of the London Daily Express and present chairman of its board of directors, arrived on the S.S. Majestic yesterday. He will tour the United States and lecture in various cities on world affairs.

A few weeks ago Mr. Blumenfeld, who came to this country for the same purpose, was obliged to cancel his speaking engagements on account of the sudden death of his daughter. He returned to England on the day after his arrival.

The famous English journalist was born in Wisconsin, worked for the New York Herald under the tutelage of James Gordon Bennett and decided, after an assignment in England, to remain there permanently.

Sabbath Alliance Conference

In order to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the NRA, the Jewish Sabbath Alliance of America is convening a conference of leading rabbis, laymen and representatives of labor and employers' associations on Tuesday evening, Nov. 21, in the HIAS building.

The conference will discuss plans for carrying on a campaign of "Back to the Sabbath and Synagogue". Thousands of pamphlets are to be distributed to the Jewish workers of New York calling their attention to the campaign.

Bostonians Jam Hall to Attend Anti-Nazi Rally

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

BOSTON, Nov. 14—Boston's first large anti-Hitler demonstration, held here on Sunday, resulted in several persons being injured in the crush as 1,700 people tried to jam through the doors of Dorchester Manor to attend the meeting. Police reserves had to be called to control the crowd, which exceeded all expectations. Fifteen hundred people crowded around the building, which already held 2,000.

More than 700 persons marched through the Dorchester-Mattapan district in the parade which preceded the mass meeting. Signs denouncing Hitler and Hitlerism were carried. Maxwell Cohen and Israel Kolikof, commander of the Herbert J. Wolf Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, led the marchers. Members of the American Legion were in line as well as delegations from all the Hebrew societies in the district.

Senator Max Ulin presided at the meeting. The speakers included Congressman John W. McCormack and William T. Connery, Dr. Frederick L. Andersen of the Andover Newton Theological Seminary, Judge Jacob J. Kaplan, Alexander Brin, and Mrs. Jennie Lofman Baron.

Texas-La. Zionists Adopt Palestine Drive Quota

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

BEAUMONT, Tex., Nov. 14—A twenty-five thousand dollar quota for the American Palestine Campaign for the settlement of German Jews in Palestine, and two thousand new members for the Zionist Organization, was pledged by the Texas-Louisiana Zionist Federation in a two-day convention at the Hotel Edison here.

The pledge of the Southern Zionists was given after an address by Mendel N. Fisher of St. Louis, Mo., who represented the Zionist Organization and the American Palestine Campaign. He also addressed the joint session of the Junior Hadasah and the Zionists.

Mrs. Robert Szold, vice-president of Hadasah; Rabbi Mendel Silber of New Orleans, Rabbi Philip Graubart of Fort Worth, Mrs. L. B. Sachs of Dallas, president of the Texas Hadasah; Rabbi Samuel Rosinger, and Mr. Fisher addressed a large mass meeting at the close of the convention.

The convention went on record as favoring the boycott of German goods. They expressed their faith in the new Zionist Executive and pledged support.

Bar Jewish Christians From Church Is Demand

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Nov. 14—Abolition of the Old Testament in Germany, the seeking of holy places in Germany instead of in Palestine and the representation of Jesus Christ as a fearless fighter were among the demands made at a mass meeting of the German Christian movement here at which Pastor Mueller, now Bishop and head of the national church, was present.

Scores of banners voicing the demands of the German Christian movement were displayed at the meeting. They included inscriptions demanding rigorous application of the ban against clergy of Jewish descent and the exclusion of Christians of Jewish origin from the national church.

Hitler a Super Al Capone, Says Historian's Daughter

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

NEW MILFORD, Conn., Nov. 14—Terming Adolf Hitler a "super Al Capone" and his regime in Germany to be "racketeering in its worst form," Mrs. Miriam Beard Vaughts, daughter of Charles Beard, noted American historian, told the League of Women-Voters here today that there is no freedom of life or property in Germany today.

"It is treason to read a copy of the New York Times in Germany," she declared. "It is treason to listen to a foreign radio program."

Mrs. Vaughts and her husband, a former German army officer, fled from Germany earlier this year because of her husband's Jewish ancestry.

Nazi Lawyers Ordered To Boycott Jewish Shops

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Nov. 14—A compulsory boycott of all Jewish shops by German lawyers was ordered today by the Nazi Lawyers Association. According to the proclamation issued by the Association, the members must make absolutely certain that their families refrain from buying in Jewish shops.

Rathenau Street Renamed To Honor Anti-Semite

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LEIPZIG, Germany, Nov. 14—Rathenau Street, named in honor of the late Walter Rathenau, first minister of foreign affairs in the German Republic and who was of Jewish origin, today was renamed after the late Theodor Fritsch, anti-Semitic theoretician and publisher of anti-Semitic works.

British Envoys in Chile Decline to Receive Jewish Delegations Balfour Day

(J.T.A. Special Correspondence)

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 3—The refusal of the English embassy to grant a promised audience to a Jewish deputation on Balfour Day, November 2, was a keen disappointment to local Zionists.

The audience, which had been arranged for the delegation of the Zionist Federation was to have lasted an hour. Several hours after the appointed time, the Zionist Federation received a letter to the effect that as a result of instructions which had been forwarded from London the embassy could not receive the delegation.

Similar advice was also received from the British consul-general in Valparaiso by a Jewish delegation there. The Zionist Federation has informed the Zionist Executive in London of both incidents.

Despite these disappointments, the Balfour Day celebration which the Zionist Federation had arranged at the headquarters of the Circulo Israelita of Santiago was very successful. The celebration was attended by over 1,500 persons, including a number of members of parliament. Among those who addressed the meeting were M. Fainovich, president of the Zionist Federation; Horacio Hevia, former Chilean minister of the interior; Isaac Drapkin, Zionist leader; L. Gomberoff and Gil Sinai. Although the Balfour Declaration was the topic of the evening, every speaker devoted some part of his speech to the condition of the German Jews. There was also a suitable musical program.

Similar celebrations were also held at Valparaiso, Concepcion, Chillan and Temuco. The general press on November 2 carried many editorials and accounts of Zionism and the Balfour Declaration.

It is curious that during the wave of Hitler's Jew-persecutions, the local press said hardly a word in favor of the persecuted, but of late there has been an outburst of great sympathy for the Jews and towards Zionism. Articles have appeared in El Mercurio, Liberal organ; La Nacion, the government newspaper; El Diario Ilustrado, the Catholic-Conservative publication and in La Opinion, the Socialist newspaper.

The South Pacific Mail, the organ of the local English-American colony, published on November 2 a special "Israelite Number" devoted almost entirely to the Jewish question.

The local Arabs, too, had something to say about the Balfour Declaration. In Santiago they organized a protest meeting on Balfour

Investigate Ritual Murder Libel of San Diego Jews

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Nov. 14—Postal authorities today were investigating use of the mails for distribution of a leaflet accusing the Jews of ritual murders and ascribing the deaths of two children in this city in the last three years to these alleged practices. Among those who received the leaflet was the local Y.M.C.A.

The leaflet bears the notation, "printed by Brown and Burrows, 66 Hatton Garden, London, E.C.1.", and was mailed from England. The envelopes bore English stamps and cancellation marks.

The leaflet carries the title "Jewish Ritual Murder in San Diego", and charges the Jews with having been responsible for two deaths here. It is signed "An American Citizen."

He also urged that a delegation of one hundred rabbis be sent to Jerusalem to study conditions there. He also pleaded for a stronger boycott against German made products.

which they possess. Sixty-five percent of these men, he asserted, are used to bringing Nazi literature into this country.

During the course of Smith's testimony, Congressman Dickstein indicated a need for revision of naturalization laws to make a "heart and soul" belief in the constitution a requirement for naturalization papers.

Following tomorrow's session, the committee is expected to go into a series of closed sessions where witnesses, whose names will not be made public, will be heard.

New Palestine Edict Hits Jewish Immigration Flow

fect of this order, two important factors from the Jewish view-point are involved. Firstly, since there is but a small number of vessels making port at Palestine, the number of Jewish immigrants must be essentially reduced. Secondly, several vessels specially assigned to the Palestine traffic will cancel their sailings because they consider it unremunerative to carry only 250 immigrants on each voyage. Vessels such as the Martha Washington and the Polonia have brought as many as a thousand immigrants on single trips.

Discontinuation of the direct Poland to Palestine service in which the Polonia has been operating in recent weeks is reported to be under consideration as a result of the government order, it is learned.

the parliament and prominent Jewish leader, points out, the anti-Semitic parties might receive as high as forty percent of the vote. In this case, King Carol, who last week showed his displeasure at Cuzist anti-Semitic tactics by refusing to attend a reception at the Cuzist dormitory at the University of Jassy, would have little alternative but to invite Professor Alexander Cuza to form a cabinet.

Cuza as premier, would be as great a calamity for the Jews of Roumania as Hitler as chancellor has been to the Jews of Germany, since he is the most violent anti-Semitic leader in the country.

Liberals count, however, on King Carol's strong support of Dr. Duca and the suppression of anti-Semitic agitation as well as of Fascist tendencies generally.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—German publishers are entitled to abrogate agreements and contracts with Jewish authors, the Juristische Wochenschrift, legal gazette, advises publishing houses today.

It points out that since the authorities have prohibited sales of books written by Jews, publishers cannot be expected to continue their agreements to publish works by Jewish writers and public books which cannot be sold legally.
