

McDonald and Britain at Odds Over Palestine's Part In Refugee Settlement Work

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

GENEVA, Nov. 27.—Differences of opinion have arisen between James G. McDonald, who was appointed by the League of Nations as High Commissioner to handle the German refugee problem, and the British government, it is learned. The differences are based on the British government's condition at the time the League took action on the refugee situation by creating an autonomous governing body and the post of High Commissioner to exclude Palestine, over which Great Britain holds the mandate, from the sphere of activities of the High Commissioner.

This condition, it is learned, was made at a private session of the League and Palestine was accordingly omitted from the resolution which the League adopted creating the refugee assistance body.

Mr. McDonald, it is now learned, considers that the exclusion of Palestine curtails his possibilities for settling the homeless refugees and insists on his right to submit to the British government demands for the admission into Palestine of numbers of German refugees under a separate and distinct immigration quota.

Mr. McDonald's desire to settle some of the refugees in Palestine meets with the approval of leaders in the Zionist movement who feel

Validity of Marriages Between Jews and Nobility, Children's Status Attacked

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—The children of mixed marriages and of noble parentage, that is in cases where Jews have intermarried with the German nobility, will be considered illegitimate, unless it is proven that the parents cohabited for at least five years consecutively, the press announced here today. This law will apply to all intermarriages contracted after November, 1918. In case one of the parents is dead, proof must be submitted that the parents lived together at least three years, otherwise the children will be officially declared illegitimate. They

Palestine Arabs Proclaim General Strike as Riot Defendants Are Arraigned

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

JERUSALEM, Nov. 27.—A general strike throughout Palestine was proclaimed, to start today, by the Arab Executive as leaders of the abortive Arab demonstration in Jerusalem on Oct. 13, were to appear before a British magistrate here for hearing. On Wednesday, Arabs arrested in Jaffa are to be arraigned before a British magistrate in that city.

The defendants include a number of Arab notables and some members of the Arab Executive who led the demonstrations against continued Jewish immigration into the country in defiance of Palestine government orders that no demonstrations were to be held.

The disorders, according to an official statement, resulted in 25 deaths and injuries to 233 civilians and police.

Ten Thousand Chassidim At Marriage in Czernowitz Of Brooklyn, N. Y., Girl

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

CZERNOWITZ, Roumania, Nov. 27.—Ten thousand "Chassidim", members of the mystic Jewish sect which believes in worshipping God with joy, today witnessed the picturesque wedding ceremonies during which Rose Leiser, 21-year-old daughter of the Brooklyn, N. Y., rabbi, Itzhok Leiser, was married to the 23-year-old son of the famous Nadwerner Rabbi, Meyer Rosenbaum. The wedding celebration will last several days and will be an occasion for magnificent feasts, at which all the poor of the countryside will be entertained and fed. The marriage was arranged between the two rabbis during a trip to Roumania which Rabbi Leiser took about

Kalinin Voices Approval Of Jewish Bureya Unit; Creation Delayed Until 1937

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

MOSCOW, Nov. 27.—Michael Kalinin, president of the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics, in an interview with the Jewish Telegraphic Agency correspondent, today spoke with enthusiasm of the project for the establishment of an autonomous Jewish republic at Bureya in Siberia, within the Soviet Union, and of Jewish possibilities there.

"If I were a Jewish agriculturist, I most likely would have, myself, settled in Bureya, since there is nothing more interesting than the building up of one's own home," he declared.

M. Kalinin expressed his conviction that the possibilities for Jews in Bureya are great and made clear his approval of the work of establishing the first Jewish republic there.

Plans for the creation of an autonomous Jewish unit in Bureya, however, have not proceeded according to schedule. Jewish immigration and settlement of the area has not proceeded with the expected speed, with the result, the Jewish Telegraphic Agency learned today on excellent authority, that autonomous status will not be proclaimed until 1937, when it is expected that one-half of the population of the area will be Jewish.

Hungary Assures Students Jewish 'Power' Is Mythical; To Enforce Percentage Rule

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BUDAPEST, Nov. 27.—The persistent anti-Semitic campaign recently carried on by the anti-Semitic Hungarian student groups has resulted in a partial retreat by the Hungarian government from its original position of opposition to the agitation of the students.

Today the Minister of Education, Professor Balint Homan, told the deputation of Christian students, headed by the former rector of Debrecen University that:

Joint Distribution Committee Says Funds Must Be Increased For Relief of German Jewry

On account of the unrelenting anti-Jewish repressions in Germany which are reported to be growing in scope and intensity, there is a need for immediate measures in relief of the children of the German Jewish families. Funds must be raised at once for salvation of these children, according to an announcement of the German Relief Fund of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee of which Rabbi Jonah B. Wise is chairman.

Present plans of the Committee call for an immediate expenditure of $1,200,000 in addition to sums already advanced for German Jewish relief purposes.

"Those who are ashamed to disclose their poverty as well as those who admit it will have to be helped," said Rabbi Wise. "But should there be new calamities, if the Jew will not be included among the beneficiaries of governmental relief funds, which has been the case in a number of local instances, then such large sums would be required to maintain Jewish life in Germany that it would be idle even to estimate them."

Pro-Nazis Quit Newark German Veterans Group

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 27—Nine members of the German and Austrian World War Veterans Association of Essex County are reported to have submitted their resignations from the organization today on account of pressure brought against them for alleged Nazi sympathies. The nine members include George one year ago. The couple, however, met before the ceremony.

Chassidim attach great importance to the highly-colored mysticism of the "Cabala" and the "Zohar," mystic Jewish writings, and follow "Goote Yidn" or rabbis whose virtues go on from generation to generation.

Members of the sect from all parts of Europe and even a contingent of American Chassidim, who accompanied the bride and her parents, flocked to Czernowitz for the wedding. Famous Chassidic rabbis from Czechoslovakia, Poland, Austria and France, with their families, are also present.

Rabbi Leiser and the bridal party left the United States for Roumania, about a month ago. They sailed on the French liner Paris. Before they left, American followers of the Brooklyn "Gooter Yid" gave a party to celebrate the coming marriage.

The Chassidim believe in miracles and in wonder-working rabbis, whose virtues are handed down from father to son in an unbroken line. Thus many of the famous Chassidic rabbis, who are seldom regularly ordained, are descendants of the famous rabbis of hundreds of years ago, who worked miracles and about whom a series of rich legends has grown up. Their descendants are supposed to have inherited their virtues and capacities for miracles intact. Each Chassidic rabbi has his own followers, scattered over the world, who make it a custom to visit the rabbi as often as possible, particularly when they are in trouble and need his advice. Chassidim are noted for the joy they display in the worship of God, and for their many celebrations. The sect was founded by the famous Rabbi "Israel Baal Shem Tov" in the middle of the 17th century, in Galicia, and attained its greatest growth in Eastern Europe.

Ganns, former national commander, who is said to have been a close friend of Heinz Spankmoebel; Dr. Albert Schley, president of the Newark division of the Friends of New Germany; Walter Kauf, who awaits sentence for inciting a riot here recently and carrying concealed weapons; Karl Kauf, Ludwig Gruenwald, Alfred Schuchmann, Jacob Beyer, Matthias Kohler and Fred Rilter.

It is alleged that on account of attempts they were making to inject pro-Nazi beliefs into the association and because the majority of the members not only rejected their overtures but grew indignant at their persistence, the nine members signed a letter of collective resignation.

Warsaw Forbids Protests On Palestine Immigration

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, Nov. 27—Polish authorities have strictly forbidden any further street demonstrations, such as the Polish Jews have been carrying on, as a protest against the drastic restrictions on Jewish immigration recently imposed by the Palestine government. The authorities announced yesterday that only one of the many scheduled mass meetings of protest would be permitted.

Recently Polish Zionists of various factions carried out a protest demonstration in front of the British Embassy in Warsaw. It was broken up only after the police charged the demonstrators and arrested several of them.

The Jews of Poland, who look upon Palestine as one of the few countries capable of absorbing a large number of Polish Jewish immigrants, have reacted violently to the curtailment of Jewish immigration into Palestine.

N. J. Congress Division To Push Nazi Boycott

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 27—The New Jersey Division of the American Jewish Congress, meeting in convention in the Y.M.H.A. here yesterday, went on record as endorsing the policies of the Congress with regard to its stand on the German situation and the relief of Jews who desire to settle in Palestine.

The organization will make a concerted effort to push the boycott on German-made products in New Jersey.

Speakers at the convention included Dr. Joseph Tenenbaum, Dr. Herman Speier and Rabbi Joshua L. Goldberg, members of the Congressional executive board and Judge Joseph Siegler, newly-elected state president.

Other officers elected at the convention were Jacob Pfisterstein, of Elizabeth, Judge Morris Barison, of Jersey City, Morris Goldberger, Fred Kelsey, vice-presidents; Rabbi A. G. Robinson, of Newark, and Bruno Berk, treasurer and secretary respectively.

Sherrill at B'nai Beshurun
Brigadier General Charles H. Sherrill, former U. S. Ambassador to Turkey, will speak at the Thanksgiving celebration to be held at the Congregation B'nai Beshurun, Broadway and 88th Street, Thursday evening.

General Sherrill participated in the convention of the American Olympic Committee in Washington where a resolution was passed condemning discrimination against Jewish athletes in Germany where the 1936 games are scheduled to be held.

Rabbi Konvitz Supports Newark Plea for Kosher Meat for Jewish Needy

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 27.—The request of local Jewish agencies for kosher meat for the needy of that race instead of pork was strengthened by an admonition addressed by Rabbi Joseph Konvitz, newly-elected president of the Union of Orthodox Rabbis of the United States and Canada, to government officials, cautioning them "not to violate the feelings of the needy Jews by offering them salt pork."

Earlier in the week, the local relief office had forwarded to its co-operative agency, the Jewish Social Service Bureau, a batch of orders for salt pork, which were to be made available to needy Jewish families. The Bureau promptly returned them and the state relief administration was urged to provide kosher meat instead.

French Anti-Semitism Body To Start Self-Defense Units

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Violent anti-Zionist sentiment was displayed yesterday by some of the delegates at the fourth congress of the League to Combat Anti-Semitism, which opened its sittings Saturday. The congress, however, after debate, decided to continue its policy of friendly neutrality toward the Zionist movement.

Helmuth von Gerlach, internationally known German pacifist and former editor of the Welt am Montag, who is now a refugee, received a tremendous ovation when he appeared at the congress.

Bernard Lecache was reelected as president of the League.

The League adopted the boycott as the best weapon with which to combat Hitlerism. The congress also decided to create Jewish self-defense groups for the purpose of beating back the anti-Semites.

The congress concluded last night with a banquet at which the noted French statesman, Senator Anatol de Monzie, presided.

Budapest Crowd Attacks Nazis Disturbing Meeting

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Nov. 27.—Hungarian Nazis repeatedly interrupted the Jewish Deputy, Bela Fabian, who today addressed a political meeting in the Redoutensal, shouting abuses of the Jews. Finally the audience became so incensed that the entire group, including non-Jews turned on the Nazi intruders and beat them. Police were called to re-establish peace in the hall. They arrested a dozen of the Nazi disturbers.

Grand Jury Resumes Its Probe of Nazi Propaganda, Hears New Witnesses

Presenting a new set of witnesses, Assistant United States Attorney William Prager yesterday resumed hearings before the federal Grand Jury on Nazi affairs in this country.

While Mr. Prager would admit only that hearings have been resumed "for the purpose of gathering further evidence" on Nazi organizations and operations in this country, it is believed that the case is being prosecuted with a view toward securing indictments against a number of German agents of the Hitler Government now working in the United States.

Count Sauerman Douglas, known at present as Dr. Albrecht Sauerman, was questioned at length by the Grand Jury yesterday.

Miss Elizabeth Adams, secretary to Joachim Deutsch, was also put on the stand yesterday, where she was questioned by the federal panel.

Walter Kauf, convicted by a Newark jury as Spanknobel's bodyguard for having carried concealed weapons to a meeting of the League of Friends of New Germany and for having wielded a lead pipe in a riot which took place after the meeting, was also before the Grand Jury. Plans to deport Kauf were protested by Representative Samuel Dickstein on the ground that he could give valuable testimony before both the Grand Jury and the House Committee on Immigration, which, under the chairmanship of Dickstein, is conducting its own investigation into Nazi operations.

Engelborg Roell, another prominent member of the German community, also testified yesterday.

Hearings will be held again today.

Swastika-less Fete Marks Brooklyn German Day

Thousands of German-Americans gathered in the Labor Lyceum in Brooklyn, Sunday night, to celebrate German Day, a fete commemorating the 250th anniversary of the landing of the earliest German immigrants in this country.

Although a large police guard lined the halls of the Labor Lyceum, the celebration went off without suggestion of disorder. The success of the affair was described by those who attended as merely a preliminary to the occasion of the German Day celebration which will be held in Madison Square Garden on December 6.

Both Aryan and Jewish Germans attended the fete in Brooklyn, at which slight reference was made to current conditions in Germany. The fact that no representatives of the German diplomatic corps attended made unnecessary the display of the swastika, and all reference to racial

Hospitals Understaffed Because Jews Ousted, Goebbels Paper States

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—Hospitals in Germany are working with fifty percent of their normal staff. A tremendous shortage of qualified medical men, doctors, professors and chemists exists, tonight's Angriff declares. The Nazi paper added that 518 of the best medical men in Germany had been removed from hospitals because they were Jewish.

While among the lower ranks of the medical profession the proportion of Jews is small and their expulsion was unfeared, the highest Jewish percentage was among the highly qualified leading spirits of German medicine, the Angriff stated. The Nazi newspaper, whose chief editor is Dr. Goebbels, Nazi Minister of Propaganda, declared that the proportion of Jews among the clerical staffs of the hospitals was small.

6 Arrested in Connection With Anti-Nazi Riots in Boston

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 27.—Six persons were arraigned today in the Municipal Court for participating in the riot Sunday afternoon which was caused by an address delivered in defense of the Hitler government by a German pedagogue.

The rioting, in which it is estimated 5,000 persons engaged, ended in a clash between the police and the mob. A number of persons were injured.

Professor Friedrich Schoenemann, of the University of Berlin, who spoke on "Why I Believe in the Hitler government," was the object of the protest. In his address the speaker declared that anti-Jewish persecutions are the "natural" result of the revolution, and he lauded Hitler as the unifier of the German people.

To Honor Prof. James Franck

Professor James Franck, Nobel prize winner in Physics in 1925, who resigned from his chair in science at the University of Gottingen last spring in protest against Nazi anti-Jewish repressions, will be guest of honor at a testimonial dinner tendered by the Menorah Association at the Hotel Gotham Tuesday evening, Dec. 5. Chancellor Henry Hurwitz is in charge of the arrangements.

and political distinctions were suppressed.

The meeting was marked by speeches by officials of various German vereins, while the program was successfully carried out with numerous renditions of folk songs by Brooklyn singing societies.

that in making the condition regarding exclusion of Palestine from the High Commissioner's sphere, the British government merely wished to safeguard itself from intervention in the affairs of Palestine by another international body similar to the League Mandates Commission. They feel that Great Britain will give way to Mr. McDonald's demand for a quota distinct from the present allocation of immigration certificates made to the Jewish Agency for Palestine.

The first meeting of the autonomous governing body set up by the League, in which fifteen countries are participating through representatives, will be held at Lausanne, December 5. At the meeting, three proposals concerning participation in the refugee settlement work by private relief and welfare organizations will be considered.

The first of these calls for the invitation to private organizations to send representatives to occupy permanent, non-voting seats in the governing body.

The second proposal calls for the creation of a separate body composed of representatives of the private organizations interested in the refugee work. This body would advise and cooperate with the High Commissioner.

The third proposal calls for the attendance at some or all of the governing body meetings of one or more representatives selected by this proposed body. This representative or representatives would act in a consultative capacity only.

Mr. McDonald, it is understood, is in favor of the latter proposal, considering that he would be able to achieve better results in the negotiations he will have to conduct if he can act as the representative of the various governments involved, not as the agent of private relief agencies and organizations.

will also be prohibited from carrying the title of the parents.

Within the next six months, it was announced, all marriages of the last fifteen years will be sharply scrutinized and the titles cancelled in the categories enumerated, especially those marriages of Jewish women who married into the German nobility in order to acquire a title.

Children who are declared illegitimate, will be able to claim support from the father, just as other illegitimates are entitled to do under the law. The law will also be applicable to cases where Gentile families have adopted Jewish children.

This law is merely another step in the process of racial purification undertaken by the Nazis. Recently the German Nobles Association announced that all members would be compelled to prove their ancestry free of Jewish blood as far back as 1750. All members who fail to pass this test will be expelled.
