Palestine Tourist Hunt Turns on Europeans; Many Are Held for Deportation

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

JERUSALEM, Dec. 14.—The campaign of the Palestine administration to round up all Jews in the country illegally, previously directed almost exclusively against Oriental Jews, veered in a new direction today when police and immigration officials took into custody a number of tourists from European countries, including Germany, who had remained in the country for a longer period than called for by their passports. All those arrested had found employment in the country and had been gainfully employed.

Those arrested for being in the country illegally included Alfred Drucker and his wife, who came here eight months ago from Vienna; Jacob Levinter and Rudolf Ringer, also of Vienna, who have been here for five months, and Max Fogel, of Leipzig. All have been imprisoned pending their deportation.

Isaac Gruenbaum, of the immigration department of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, today conferred with Albert M. Hyamson, director of the Palestine immigration department, regarding the Jewish immigration situation.

British M. P.'s, at Two Meetings, Hear Pros and Cons of Palestine Question

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, Dec. 14.—Sixty members of the House of Commons met tonight in a meeting arranged by the Pro-Palestine Committee of which Col. John Buchan, author and Conservative member of Parliament, is chairman, to discuss the Palestine situation, particularly the hunt for Jewish tourists illegally in the country and the change in the Palestine government's immigration policy of basing issuance of certificates on political considerations instead of economic conditions.

Col. Buchan and Josiah Wedgwood, Laborite M.P., addressed the (Continued on Page 4)

Hungarian Students Riot In Nazi Move to Force Gov't Into Difficulties

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BUDAPEST, Dec. 14.—Student anti-Semitic disorders were vigorously resumed throughout all Hungarian universities today as Nazi factions sought to force the hand of Premier Julius Goemboes to action for the maintenance of peace. Should the Hungarian dictator intervene against the rioting students, the Nazis would succeed in having forced him into the unpopular role of defender of the Jews.

Count Alexander Festetic, wealthy supporter of Goemboes, whose defection from the government ranks was reported several weeks ago, yesterday formally announced his resignation from the government party and proclaimed his intention to devote all his wealth and energy to the building up of a Nazi party in Hungary mainly on the basis of anti-Semitism. His announcement came after Premier Goemboes had vigorously denounced the Nazi system.

Serious disorders were reported today from all university towns. At the University of Budapest, the dean of the Agricultural College attempted to calm down rowdy students but they drowned his remarks in a bedlam of anti-Semitic imprecations and songs. The rector of the university was compelled to call out the police to prevent students of the Polytechnic Institute which was closed yesterday, from entering the university grounds to attack Jewish students.

The police were also called upon to disperse a student demonstration in the streets of Budapest.

Dr. Derry Retracts Derogatory Remarks

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 14.—Dr. George Hermann Derry, president of Marygrove College, has expressed his regret at what he called a misinterpretation of his remarks made at the closing session of the Catholic Conference on Industrial Problems held here recently. He was quoted as charging that a small group of Jews have been responsible for the economic depression, and that they (Continued on Page 2)

Economics Ministry Makes Another Attempt to Break Nazi Anti-Jewish Boycott

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Dec. 14.—Measures to cope with the growing anti-Jewish boycott now in open evidence here in connection with the Christmas holiday trade activities were taken today by the Ministry of Economics. The department, seeing in the anti-Jewish boycott a movement dangerous to the present economic structure of Germany, has long been trying to quell it but its decrees on this point have been in the main studiously ignored.

The ministry today circularized members of the retailers' association which has been active in the anti-Jewish Christmas boycott, pointing out that it was not desirable to prevent non-Aryans from decorating their shops for Christmas since this prohibition would tend to diminish the sale of German goods within the country.

As a result of the anti-Nazi boycott in most of the countries outside the Reich, the German government is seeking a home market for German products. Barring Jewish merchants from participation in the holiday business would react against this program, according to the ministry.

The labor commissar for Brandenburg, which includes Berlin, instructed the police to take measures (Continued on Page 4)

Rosenblatt in Kfar-Saba On Night of Murder, Says Arlosoroff Witness

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

JAFFA, Palestine, Dec. 14.—The contention of Zvi Rosenblatt, one of the three Revisionists, right wing Zionists, accused of the assassination last June of Dr. Chaim Arlosoroff, noted Zionist labor leader, that he was at Kfar-Saba on the night of the crime and not in Tel Aviv, scene of the murder, received strong corroboration today.

Doctors, Dentists Support Boycott Against Nazis

Affirming their faith in the usefulness of the boycott as a means of combating the Nazi menace and rescuing their colleagues in Germany, about 2,000 doctors, dentists and pharmacists gathered Wednesday night in the Hotel Pennsylvania to voice their opinions regarding the Hitler political principles. The gathering was arranged by the Allied Dental Council and representative organizations which were reported to represent a combined membership of 15,000.

Speakers included former German Ambassador James W. Gerard, Dr. A. J. Romig, obstetrician; Dr. M. I. Schamburg, Dr. Max Winkler, Rabbi Israel Goldstein, president of the Jewish National Fund of America; Meyer A. Feinberg, Dr. J. S. Calman and Dr. J. H. Kauffmann. Samuel Untermyer sent a message expressing regret at his inability to attend.

Rabbi Goldstein and Mr. Feinberg warned against purchasing yarmulkes, prayer caps, or Chanukah candles which were manufactured in Germany.

Georgia Jews Mourn Death of Rabbi

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 14.—Several hundred people attended a joint mass memorial meeting here here at the Ahavath Achim Synagogue in honor of the memory of the Chofetz Chaim, and Rabbi Moses Mordecai Epstein, of Palestine, an uncle of Rabbi Harry H. Epstein of the local synagogue. In addition to Rabbi Epstein, other speakers on the program included Rabbi Tobias A. Geffen, of the Shearith Israel Synagogue, and A. M. Karpel.

in the House of Commons tonight when Josiah Wedgwood, Laborite M.P., challenged Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, the Colonial Secretary, to explain why Transjordanian residents are permitted to enter Palestine without passports and without visas.

Transjordanian immigration into Palestine has been the object of much comment in Palestine recently because of the repressive measures employed by the administration against Jewish tourists and the sharp curtailment in Jewish immigration.

Cunliffe-Lister replied to Wedgwood's interpellation merely by stating that regulations permitting free Transjordanian immigration had recently been incorporated into the Palestine laws.

An attempt by Edward Doran, notorious anti-Semite, who was recently disavowed by his Conservative constituency, to make the House a forum for an anti-Semitic attack, was greeted with jeers of derision and laughter and was not even considered by the minister to whom it was addressed. Doran, asserting that Jews frequently purposely arrange bankruptcies and are "economic vultures picking on British flesh", sought to elicit a response tending to place the government in the position of giving his libels consideration.

Seven Hundred Attend Federation Breakfast

Eddie Cantor presided yesterday at a "minute breakfast" of the Women's Division of the Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies. Seven hundred women attending each paid eleven dollars, the cost of operating the Federation for one minute.

Mrs. Sidney C. Borg and Mrs. Felix M. Warburg, chairmen of the Women's Division campaign, with Mrs. Allie S. Freed, chairman of the breakfast committee; Mrs. Samuel Lampert, Mrs. Albert Warner, Mrs. Charles Cohen, Mme. Hilda Lashanska, Mrs. Samuel Ungerleider and Mrs. Benjamin H. Jacob took part in the ceremony of lighting the Menorah.

German War Veterans Send Boycott Protest to Gov't

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 14.—The Federation of German and Austrian World War Veterans in the United States, through its national commander, Fred Obermuller, of Elizabeth, today forwarded to President Roosevelt, a resolution previously adopted denouncing the boycott instituted by American Jewry against German-made goods.

were responsible for the length of its duration.

In a statement issued here, Dr. Derry said:

"It was most unfortunate that a single phrase of mine, torn from its context in an extempore address and enveloped in phraseology that was not my own, should have appeared in the press and given occasion to my Jewish friends to interpret a single adjective as an aspersion on their race. Nothing could possibly have been more remote from my meaning or intent.

"In my remarks, in which I was discussing what I consider the four chief causes of the depression, I mentioned, as one factor, gold and the influence of international movements of gold on prices in the markets of the world; in this connection, I did once inadvertently use the phrase, 'a very small group of international Jews', alluding to the great international families like the Rothschilds, with whose position and power in the European banking world you cannot be unfamiliar. But sensing vaguely at once, even amid the excitement of delivery, how this phrase might be misconstrued and distorted out of its perspective, I immediately corrected the expression to 'international bankers' and 'international financial capitalists', which I employed several times in what was, after all, but a small portion of an address devoted for the most part to totally different phases of the economic situation."

Rabbinical Assembly Condemns Lynchings

A resolution has been adopted by the Committee on Social Justice of the Rabbinical Assembly of America condemning the illegal lynchings which have taken place in the States of California, Maryland and Missouri during the past few weeks.

Over the signatures of Dr. Elias L. Margolis, president, and Rabbi Milton Steinberg, chairman of the Social Justice Committee of the organization, the resolution reads in part as follows:

"Be it resolved that the Rabbinical Assembly urge upon the proper authorities that every legal course possible be pursued to prevent a recurrence of lynching wherever the threat of it manifests itself;

"And, that it call upon the judicial and executive officials of the States in which lynchings have been perpetrated to perform their duty in bringing violators of the law before the bar of justice."

Einstein Greets Boston Anti-Nazi Mass Meeting

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

BOSTON, Dec. 14—"The Truth About Hitler's Germany" is the subject for a series of speeches to be delivered at a mass meeting to be held in the Tremont Temple here Friday night.

From Princeton, New Jersey, came a message signed by Professor Albert Einstein directed to the sponsors of the meeting reading as follows:

"Now, America, it is for you to show whether you love liberty and justice and whether you are ready to defend them. We, others, can only be silent and hopeful."

Among the speakers scheduled to address the meeting are Professor Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Dana, of Cambridge; Dr. Alice Hamilton, of the Harvard University Medical School; Arthur Garfield Hays, New York attorney; Miss Anna Schultz, former member of the German Reichstag, and other notables.

Milwaukee Jewish Charities Install New Officers

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 14—Preparing for the first year of affiliation with the Community Fund, the Federated Jewish Charities has just installed officers for the year.

The officers are: Benjamin F. Saltzstein, president; Myron Lasdin, vice-president; Leonard Goldstein, treasurer; Bert C. Broude, recording secretary; financial secretary, Edward J. Miller.

Though the Mt. Sinai Hospital Association and the Board of Jewish Education, hitherto units of the Jewish Charities, were not accepted in the affiliation with the Community Fund, the Jewish Charities agreed to help in the separate campaigns of these two organizations for funds.

Ohio Commission Will Spur Synagogue Life

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 14—Means for improving, expanding and "generally enriching" congregational life in the United States will be devised by a Commission on Synagogue Activities, if a resolution adopted by a meeting of the Department of Synagogue and School Extension of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations held here yesterday, is passed. The executive board will receive the resolution for action.

The Department, which operates on an approximate annual budget of $98,086, sponsored as one of its projects a seminar for Jewish Religious School Teachers at Syracuse.

Post Flays Dr. Butler On Freedom of Speech

The New York Evening Post yesterday devoted its leading editorial to the issues involved in the address delivered by Dr. Hans Luther, German ambassador to the United States, at Columbia University Tuesday night.

The editorial questions the sincerity of Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of the University, in claiming freedom of speech to be one of his political creeds. Entitled "Dr. Luther and Dr. Butler—Pardon Their Embarrassment", The Post cites among other things the dismissal from the University staff of Donald Henderson, crusading instructor of economics; Professor James McKeon Cattell, Professor Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Dana and Charles A. Beard, historian, as instances of Dr. Butler's illiberality. Another point made in the editorial is to the effect that Dr. Luther, hitherto a staunch defender of the Republic, is made a mouthpiece for a nation whose political platform he has for years opposed.

"The Evening Post does not blame Dr. Butler for Dr. Luther's appearance at Columbia. Like Dr. Butler, this newspaper believes in free speech for all, even for those with whom it disagrees. But we cannot help feeling sorry for Dr. Butler in his embarrassment. An aroused student body and an aroused citizenry want to know why Dr. Butler brings Dr. Luther to Columbia, which is supposed to spread information and not hokum. Dr. Butler answers free speech, and Dr. Butler is right. And is Dr. Butler's face red?"

The editorial proceeds to enumerate instances of Dr. Butler's violation of what The Post calls freedom of speech.

"Dr. Butler may be liberal enough to lend Columbia to Dr. Luther for Nazi propaganda. But he can hardly pose as a consistent champion of free speech," concludes the editorial.

The Sun launches its attack on Dr. Luther and makes the point that the reason for the audience's laughter at the German ambassador's words regarding democracy as it is practiced in the Third Reich, was probably due to differences people attach to the meaning of the word democracy.

Dickstein on Nazi Probe in Radio Speech Tonight

How widespread has become the Nazi movement in the United States and implications of the movement will be the subject of an address to be delivered by Representative Samuel Dickstein, chairman of the House Immigration Committee, now conducting an investigation of propaganda in this country, over an

Overflow Audience at Chicago Chanukah Fete

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 14—The Chicago Civic Opera House was sold out to an overflow audience last night which gathered to attend the annual Chanukah festival, "Light of the Maccabees", featuring a stirring reproduction of the ancient historical victory of the Jews over their oppressors.

More than 2,000 persons were in the cast. In seventeen colorful scenes in whose dramatic action Francis X. Bushman, well-known screen hero, played the leading role, the story of ancient Hebrews was recaptured to the obvious delight of the audience. Proceeds of the performance will go to educational and relief funds of participating organizations.

Among the members of the cast were Abram Mathews, Victor Victoroff of the Palestine Opera Company, Cantor Aaron Kritiz, Charles Deshein, Roger Dekoven, Nathan Vizonsky, who headed the ballet. The script was written by David Edstadt Hirsch and Charles K. Freeman.

Kauf, Spanknoebel Aide, Gets Six-month Sentence

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 14—Walter Kauf, bodyguard of Heinz Spanknoebel, Nazi leader now in hiding, received a six-month sentence in the County jail here yesterday from Judge Daniel J. Brennan, of the Court of Common Pleas. The charge was carrying concealed weapons.

Kauf was arrested at a Nazi rally held here on Oct. 16 where Spanknoebel spoke. He was alleged to have drawn a blackjack to use against an anti-Nazi demonstrator. The court ruled that Kauf will be released provided deportation proceedings will be started within thirty days.

Frank J. Rubenstein, Head Of Baltimore "Y", Resigns

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

BALTIMORE, Dec. 14—The resignation of Frank J. Rubenstein as executive director of the Y.M.H.A. and Y.W.H.A. here has been announced by the board of directors of the institution.

For nine years Mr. Rubenstein was identified in an active capacity with the "Y" and it was largely through his efforts that the present building was completed. He is former chief clerk of Dropsie College in Philadelphia and was also assistant secretary of the Jewish Welfare Board for the U.S. Army and Navy.

A successor has not been named.

meeting and told the members of the House that the present immigration policy was undermining the Jewish economic structure in Palestine by preventing necessary work through forcing a shortage of labor and was checking the growth of the Jewish population. Professor Selig Brodetzky, noted British Zionist leader, was present at the meeting to answer questions posed by the attendants regarding the Jewish position in Palestine.

The Imperial Committee, it was learned, also met this evening to discuss Palestine. Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, Colonial Secretary, addressed the session. Several members of the committee who are opposed to Zionist aims in Palestine, are making a determined effort to induce the Imperial Committee, which has much influence with the government, to adopt an anti-Zionist stand. The Imperial Committee, like the Pro-Palestine Committee, is made up of members of Parliament.

$5,000 Bequeathed to New Jersey Congregation

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 14.—Bequests of $5,000 each to Elizabeth General Hospital and Congregation B'nai Israel are made in the will of the late Louis F. Hersch, civic leader and prominent wholesale grocer. The will also stipulates $1,000 to St. Elizabeth Hospital and $500 to Alexian Brothers Hospital, both of which are under Catholic auspices. Elizabeth Orphan Asylum also receives $500. Employees of the grocery concern also receive bequests.

Kfar-Saba which Rosenblatt asserted he had attended. Rosenblatt took part in the meeting, the witness declared. He swore that he had seen Rosenblatt there as late as ten-thirty at night. Rosenblatt, according to the prosecution charges, was at the Tel Aviv seashore (about fifteen miles away), where the murder was committed at exactly eleven o'clock. Rosenblatt is accused of the actual shooting of Dr. Arlosoroff.

Canaani was unable to state whether Rosenblatt attended the dance at Kfar-Saba which followed the Trumpeldor meeting. His testimony was considered important to the defense since the prosecution had made much of the fact earlier in the hearing that the minutes of the meeting had been mutilated and pages of the minute book torn out. The prosecution charged that references to Rosenblatt in the minutes of the meeting had been forged subsequent to his arrest.

The defense of the three Revisionists, Rosenblatt, Aba Achmeir and Abraham Stavsky, is now in the hands of Horace Samuel, noted British barrister of London, a former resident of this country. Samuel arrived here last week and attended earlier sessions of the hearing before taking over direction of the defense early this week.

to end the boycott, particularly in the provinces. "The local press must be made to understand that the boycott is undesirable and not to be permitted," his instructions stated. "Similarly, the independent actions of over-diligent young or new members of the Nazi party must be completely stopped."

Not much is expected to result from these orders except a correction of glaring abuses such as the picketing of Jewish stores, especially since the boycott of Jews has been given official status by the action of the government-controlled radio stations in announcing they would not accept advertising announcements of Jewish firms.

While the Ministry of Economics sought to stem the boycott movement, reports continued to reach here of official actions designed to further it.

The municipality of Berba resolved to prohibit the use of Christmas decorations by Jews. The Frankfurt commissar for trade warned Jewish firms not to "misuse" Christmas symbols for advertising. A similar warning was issued to Jewish grocers in the Rhine provinces.
