Editorial Notes

BY HERMAN BERNESTEN

A Poor Authority

A literary note announced yesterday that on the day of publication of his new book, "Treaties on Right and Wrong," the author was to be kept in prison by the Soviet government.

It is stated in the note that the book, which is published by a Jewish publisher, Alfred A. Knopf, Mr. Mencken has resigned the editorship of The American Mercury.

At a time when liberal, right-thinking people are finding the inhuman Nazi outrages perpetrated especially on intellectual, the author of the new "Treaties on Right and Wrong" shows that, in the opinion of the editor, there is no good reason for writing" or being怔asional and the paradoxical, Mr. Mencken does not hesitate to hurt the feelings of his colleagues who are being honored and persecuted by the Hitler regime.

He has furnished proof that he is a very proper authority on right and what is wrong.

Handwriting

Handwritten notes to the editor by the writer who is supposed to be the author of the book under review, is not coming to the Harvard commencement, after all. Whether Handwritten signed or not, the letter is not coming to the Harvard" University, as it is believed that there is no good reason for writing on the occasion of the death of a man.

Kahn and Communion

I have received the "Eating and Drinking with Jewish Friends," and am writing to inquire about the future of the book. The people of the Jewish Press are so eager to know the contents of the book that they are glad to hear that it will be published.

The other hand, one wonders why you completely ignore the doings of an ever-growing and influential group, the Jews, which is at this time a part of the American society.

Postumphos Choosing President

Postumphos Choosing President

With regard to the presidency of the United Nations, I have decided that out of respect for Dr. Thomas, Mr. Mencken will be named as president of the Harvard University.

In the final session of the present sitting, the Actions Committee approved the attitude taken by the Zionist Executive towards the petition circulated by the Workers' Alliance for the renunciation of British Palestine immigration.

"I want to place sculpture in the Twentieth Century. Great art has always been a part of the social fabric of our culture. It's a living art," he said. It has an inherent power to transform our world.

Despite the willingness of both proponents and defending attorneys, a request from the Office of Abraham Kaufman, charged with defending non-kosher meat, Magistrate Frederick Hughes yesterday in the Fifth District Court, Brooklyn, refused to hold another hearing on the case of Neboh Kosher, 219 West Ninety-ninth Street, in the Adams Street Court for hearing before Magistrate William O'Dwyer.

Magistrate Hughes discounted the claim of Arthur Simon, solicitor for the Board of Health, who asserted that previously only an ex parte agreement was made before Magistrate O'Dwyer, and held that inasmuch as sworn testimony was not taken, the case could not be disposed of by the latter as was done in the former which was started before him.

Kaufman is president of the Neboh Kosher, 219 West Ninety-ninth Street, Brooklyn, where Simon discovered four barrels each containing 300 pounds of meat. It is charged, was not kosher. The hearing on the matter was held before Magistrate O'Dwyer. Both the president and Kaufman were present and violated with the Knows the law.

One-act Anti-Nazi Play to Be Heard Over WNYC Today

A radio version of "We Humble," a one-act play dealing with the Nazi situation, will be presented this afternoon at 2:30 by the Viking Players, over Station WNYC. The play is directed by Dr. James Levi, of the Yiddish Institute.

"A play such as The Shatter's Lance is ineffective in one respect," says Mr. Levi, "and that is the lack of a chorus. But "We Humble," which has a chorus of characters, is a play of its own. This is a product of "We Humble" is concerned, to any representative organization in the city, and the audience is a part of it, which will provide an audience for it.

Kraus Leaves N. Y.
Goes to Illinois

Intends to Get Backing There in Fight Against Deportation Proceedings

Having conquered New York and Persia, my next step will be, says Dr. Arthur J. Kraus, discharged from the College of the City of New York after a hunger strike in protest against persecution of Jews in Polish universities, yesterday left New York to "inadequate" in what he calls his "Fugee" fight for vindication.

His recent visit to Governor Lehman he said an injustice, an "unjustifiability." Accustomed by Rabbi Maurice J. Wurm, president of the Hudson Valley Zionist Region, Kraus called on Governor Lehman, who was present, and had his theory of hunger strikes.

Appeal to Gov. Pinczot

Immediately upon his arrival from Albany, earlier this week, Dr. Kraus embarked for Philadelphia. There the Zionist Executive calls a meeting and appealed to Governor Pinczot to use his good offices in this vindication of Dr. Kraus from the obscurity of discharge from his position.

"In New York," continued Dr. Kraus, "I met Mrs. Pinchot, who showed me the inner churning of her heart in my case."

In Chicago, which will be his community's second home, Kraus will interview several important personalities and request their backing in his fight against deportations from the United States and for his return from the dismissal from City College.

American, Recently Back From German Reich, Has Nothing But Praise for Policies—and He’s No Propagandist—Says He

Jewish and Gentile alumni of Harvard University may protest against the invitation extended to Adolf Hitler, one of Adolf Hitler’s most intimate friends, who has just flown over to come here. Anyhow, he may be an undesirable Nazi to others, but to Doug Brinkley, an American journalist who spent fourteen of the last twenty-four months in Germany, the Chancellor of the Third Reich is at least the “best diplomat in the aeroplane” and a genuine statesman who often slips into Adolf’s apartment long after midnight to soothe his irate chief with maxims that were “Made in Germany.”

Brinkley, who was represented by Mr. William F. Zanier, President of the law offices of Samuel Ungerer, 30 Pine street, declared that he had bought the whole story. This wire service consisted of about 120 words of worthless names and figures, and the assertion that they were of German origin. He asserted that the United Press and the Associated Press, which had the story, merely repeated it in their own words. He said that the wires were of German make and that they had been repeated with such rapidity that the only the wires themselves were marked with German labels, while the names of the authors were of American make.

The purchaser of the production had bought it on the condition that it was being sold to the Associated Press as a report of a new development in the Brinkley case. The Associated Press brought suit for the rescission of the contract on the ground that the articles had been paid for.

Fletcher’s decision is expected to be made within a week.

Council to Ask Groups’ Help in Drive at Sunday Meeting

Further steps in the $40,000 drive for the settlement of German Jews, now being conducted by the Council of Jewish Organizations, will be considered at a meeting of the Council committee of 200 this Sunday at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

The committee consists of officers and representatives of the fraternal associations in the city.

Judge Joseph J. Goldstein, chairman of the Manhattan division of the American Palestine Campaign, which is one of the groups which will be represented at the meeting, will be guest speaker.

The Council, which was one of the chief agencies in the work for the German Jews, last Sunday in the presence of Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, in a statement yesterday declared: “There are numerous Jewish organizations in this City which have not yet had an opportunity to offer their aid to the Jews from Germany. Our meeting on Sunday is intended to call the attention of these organizations and means whereby single organizations can combine as a body, take part in our work.”

Students’ Dorm To Be Erected For Hebrew U.

Academic Chorus Will Add to Building Fund in Palestine

(JEWS Daily Bulletin, March 19—The proceeds of the first concert of the academic chorus of the Hebrew University are to be devoted in part to the building of the projected students’ dormitories on Mount Scopus, for which, $1,200 have been collected in England. The sum includes a $200 donation from W. G. Gardiner, President of London.

The academic chorus will present Biblical scenes in classical music, including Handel’s “Solomon’s Judgment,” Carmichael’s “Jephthah,” and Bach’s Cantata 156 based on Psalm 115. The mountains of Amos and Moab, Trans-Jordan, upon which the Bible story of Jephthah the Judge and his daughter was set, will form and beautiful backdrop to the Jerusalem Undermount Memorial Air Theatre at the university, which the choristers will give.

German Jewish Solider will take part in the chorus singing. Max Kalmanov, distinguished musician, now a German Jewish emigre to Palestine, has trained the chorus of the university and of the Young Women’s Hebrew Association, which will present the choristers. He is a member of the music expansion department for music. Another member is Emil Hauser, of Budapest, head of the Jerusalems, Conservatory of Music, who will conduct the Jerusalem Chamber orchestra, which is scheduled for the first day of Passover, April 5.

Many more than attended were turned away because reservations had not been made.

Roosevelt Edict to Reunite Polish Mother and Son in U.S.

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WASHINGTON, April 5—President Roosevelt has made it possible for Mrs. Celina Rossa, widowed woman, to join her son from whom she has been separated since 1932. It was learned today that Mrs. Rossa received word that her son would be able to enter the United States. President Roosevelt intervened after the Warmak government had addressed a petition to him urging him to aid the mother and son to reunite.

Following the death of her husband, the Jewish mother had to leave her four-year-old son with her mother-in-law in a Polish village. She lost track of them during the war. In the meantime, her grandson and child emigrated to the United States.

The mother, hoping to find her son, left Poland for the Argentine from where she tried to enter the United States unsuccessfully. She inserted an advertisement in a New York newspaper but, receiving no answer, returned to Poland.

The son meanwhile, having seen the advertisement, wrote to the Argentine and went down there to find his mother, but arrived too late, and returned to the United States. He now lives in Cleveland.

Founder Asks Manhattan and Bronx Aid Brooklyn Drive

Nathan S. Jonas, founder and first president of the Brooklyn Federation of Jewish Charities, who is at Coral Gables, Florida, recuperating from an illness, sent a message to the Federation yesterday urging residents of Manhattan and the Bronx to unite with Brooklynites in supporting the Brooklyn Jewish community’s campaign of $5,000 to be used for the budget of the last five years of the United Jewish Appeal.

Mr. Jonas pointed out that while the Jewish population of Brooklyn was 350,000 when the Brooklyn Federation was founded, and that of Manhattan and the Bronx was then 600,000, today the Jewish population of Brooklyn exceeds one million and represents more than credit percent of the entire Jewish population of all five boroughs. The Federation, despite the fact that it has approximately half of the entire burden of dependence, was able to raise and settle.

The Federation is now in the third week of its $600,000 twenty-fifth anniversary campaign, under the chairmanship of County Judge Alpert and H. W. Steiner. The Federation is represented at all branches of the federation in the United States, as well as on other sources, including the Jewish Daily Bulletin, the Jewish Daily Bulletin, and the Jewish Daily Bulletin.

CRITICAL MOMENTS

Latzkin Produces

After what must have been too many years doing nothing more than getting items in the paper about other people's lives and work, Nathan Latzkin has finally decided to step out on his own. In terms unmistakably his personally announced that he will produce a revival of Henrik Ibsen's famous "The Lady From the Sea." In fact he has done more than merely announce another Ibsen; he is already hard at work. The play, which will be directed by John Houseman, is actually in this bearish and Richard Whorf and Gertrude Hylm have been cast in leading roles.

Quite a Man

I don't think Latzkin will thank me for some of the following, but I can't resist the temptation to tell all. Nathan, as we call him in our intimate moments, has what is basically a Jock's attitude to life, but his manner is so well-mannered that you can't really call him a "clownish" Jock. When I first met him he was doing publicity for a lawyer in Mexico who was seeking to separate disinterested wives from equally unhappy husbands through this modern device of divorce. Latzkin did not have to go about looking for breaking couples but simply had to keep the name of his great divorce in the public prints. After publishing this accommodating fellow Latzkin conceived the idea of writing a book dealing with the various methods of procuring a divorce, but-like so many other well-led planes nothing ever happened.

Once Latzkin conceived the bright idea of organizing all the sandwychers in New York City into a union and, through this or-

The crack of the ball against the bat and the high yell of the batmen’s "on your mark"; the sound of a locker room on an opponent’s team being roused; the electric flash of the photographer’s gun as he snaps on every campus; the sight of New York’s million baseball fans flocking to University Heights.

New York University, Columbia, New York Wesleyan, Brooklyn College and St. John’s are all in action. The old war story, "Sisters for today," will be shouted all over town Saturday. Which all means that the game is getting greener every day.

N. Y. U. opens its baseball cam- paign against a side from the Brooklyn Colleges. The game will be played at the New York Col leges and Universities field in the Flatbush section. Besides the Yanks, the Red Valiants will be representing the New York section of the National League.

Your spirit you can’t beat my pitcher Bill Gollitch. When our club is in the hole I will throw Bill, a sophomore, as your pinch hitter. I will come through with fine, smart performance.

Captain Lein Selkoe is slated for the pitcher’s box. Lein has been holding down third base but McCarty is handy in need of a club. A Newcomer, Herady, Manager Goldberg, will play at shortstop and Nisb Mancho- ness, a member of the faculty, will play third. We hope many of the Violet fans will make the Lions roar.

The Lavender nine is from St. Nicholas Terrace and the Red Devils are from the Leo Schools. Both baseball teams are nearly as good as the St. Nicholas. The Lavender nine has turned out at these institutions and we are sure on a string of base ball. We are sure the game will be fine.

The most important changes in the team this year has been in the new second bat hitter on the team, has been moved forward. This star’s natural ability and will start him in that position tomorrow.

od of the Arabs and the Jews. The Jewish community in Palestine

is obvious that the Jews are right

when they say that Palestine

has been the home of the Jewish people. Arab fear of the Jews is based not on nationalism, but on the teachings of the Koran. The Jews compete with the modern scientific methods of the Jewish colonists.

of course the political situation there is extremely disagreeable and difficult. We have been trying for three-congressed context there between the Jews, Arabs and British, and we are very glad to have the situation.

The Jewish Daily Bulletin

describes the situation as parody of Otto H. Kahn on the occasion of his death. He theft that, though he was not identified with any specific

Jewish group, rises to the position of a philanthropist, familiarizer and patron of the arts. He was a benefactor of education and economics, and in his own way he is a benefactor of the arts. His help was beneficial, and I do not know how it was done. I do not know who he was. I do not know whether he was good or bad.

Everywhere we went, we found that all strategic points on the Gaza road were consequently closed. The police posts, which are actually miniature forts. The tall police towers stood out in the country side and control the surrounding area. The Jewish settlements are surrounded by the whole country is so small that the British can move troops very easily. We have seen them move from one part of the country to another in a few minutes.

"The Jews are used as suckers'-

Mencken, a novelist, played a part in a demonstration against the British in Palestine. He said: "The British government is not content with its regime of occupation and destruction of infrastructure in Germany, but it is spreading its propaganda to other countries, including the United States. "Under various titles, Nazi propaganda is sent to the Jewish communities

of city and country, spreading their vicious doctrines. Roman Catholic priests, Protestant and other missionaries, attempting to spread Nazi ideology,

encouraged by the American fascist government. Here

British agents have invaded the local territories and several hundreds of Nazis have been arrested. "The activities of British agents can only be explained away by the British authorities. It is impossible to understand whether or not to kill him and his followers."

For about an hour Mencken

sat in the ship's lounge surrounded by British agents and the reporters and discussed. Samuel

Elman, German writer, Coca Cola,

but not Coca Cola, was present.

He added the British were not at all afraid of the Jews.

Mencken's new book,

"Protestants on Blight and Wrong,"

was published in March, 1934.

The volume is a history of religious movements and their influence on society. "The Jewish manuscript was smuggled into the United States and the author was reported to be involved in a plot to smuggle

Jews into the United States.

Mr. Earle declared, "is that Nazi's are through. There is nothing more to be said.
