Jews Protest Against New Rumanian Law

Projected Measure Would Exclude Non-Citizens
From Benefits

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
BUCHAREST, April 24.—Dr. Wilhelm Filideman, president of the Union of Rumanian Jews, today submitted a memorandum to the Rumanian government, headed by Premier George Tatarescu, protesting the projected law "for the protection of national work." It is understood that this law would exclude non-citizens from many benefits enjoyed by citizens.

President Filideman's memorandum pointed out that thousands of Rumanian Jews would be placed in a precarious position by the law, since they had not realized that under the law they must individually apply for citizenship.

The Bessarabian provinces of Czarist Russia, which came under Rumanian rule after the World War, contain large numbers of Jewish residents.

Dr. Filideman also pointed out that these Jews would be deprived of the benefits of citizenship, despite the fact that they had been living in the region for centuries.

Arabs Convicted in Riots
Not Political Prisoners,
Says Cunliffe - Lister

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
LONDON, April 24.—There are no "political prisoners" in Palestine and the term is not recognized under the law, Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, British Secretary of State for Colonies, replied when questioned today in the House of Commons about the treatment of Arab prisoners.

Sir Philip explained that the fifteen Arab leaders, sentenced to hard labor for provoking the blood riots in Jaffa, are all out on bail pending an appeal of the sentences.

Hooligans Desecrate Jewish Tombstones

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
WARSAW, April 24.—Six tombstones at a Jewish cemetery at Tarczin near Warsaw were smashed by hooligans. Police were unable to trace the perpetrators.

Desecrations of Jewish cemeteries by anti-Semitic hooligans have increased in recent months.

Chicago Mayor Rescinds Ban On Picture of Hitler Terror

(Special to the J.D.B.)
CHICAGO, April 24.—Moviegoers here will be able to see "Hitler's Reign of Terror," but the picture will be released and advertised simply as "Hitler's Reign." This was the decision made today by Mayor Edward J. Kelley, who revoked his stand of the previous day banning the opening of the film at the Majestic Theatre. Mayor Kelley rescinded the per-

Samuel Loses First Point In Trial of Revisionist Trio

Court Allows Record of Testimony Taken
by Prosecutor

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
JERUSALEM, April 24.—The first important court battle of the trial of the three Revisionist Zionists, Abba Achimeier, Zvi Rosenblatt and Abraham Stavsky, accused of the murder of Dr. Chaim Arlosoroff, was lost this afternoon by the defense when the court ruled that the record of the testimony of two of the three defendants, taken immediately after their arrest by Prosecutor Behor Shitreet, was to stand.

Defense counsel Samuel, in a two-hour speech, pleaded with the court not to admit the record of the testimony as read by the prosecutor, on the ground that the defendants testified under the compulsion of the police. Musa el Alami, government prosecutor, argued that the court must follow the precedent established by British courts.

Rumor Shift British Gov't Of Wauchope Will Challenge To Iraq Post Fascist Trend

Humphrys to Be High Commissioner in Palestine, Report

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
LONDON, April 24.—Reports from Baghdad, capital of the kingdom of Iraq, that High Commissioner Sir Arthur Grenfell Wauchope of Palestine will shortly be transferred to Iraq as Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary, and Sir Francis Henry Humphrys, who is now British Minister at Baghdad will be sent to Palestine as High Commissioner, were utterly discounted today at Colonial office.

Papers Persist In Statement

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
JERUSALEM, April 24.—Despite denials by the British Colonial office in London that any changes are contemplated, the newspapers in Iraq persist in stating that the British government has decided to transfer the Palestine High Commissioner to Iraq as Minister in order to modify the present administrative system of Palestine.

Decide Propaganda Can No Longer Be Neglected, States Post

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
LONDON, April 24.—Several members of the MacDonald government were present in Albert Hall last Sunday at the meeting of the British Fascist group headed by Sir Oswald Mosley, the Morning Post, Conservative organ, revealed today.

The British government has decided, the Post declared, that Fascist propaganda in Great Britain can no longer be neglected, since this would leave the country in ignorance of the inevitable accompaniments of a Fascist regime.

More than 10,000 crowded Albert Hall to hear Mosley, a former member of the Laborite cabinet, (Continued on Page Eight)

Czechs Allow Maneuvers
By Brith Trumpler

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
PRAGUE, April 24.—It was learned here today that the Czechoslovakian government has granted permission to the Brith Trumpler, militant Revisionist Zionist youth organization, to hold its scheduled maneuvers in Czechoslovakia. The maneuvers, which have been held at Zaleszyki, Poland, were prohibited by the Polish government after interpellations by Endek anti-Semite Senators in the Polish parliament. The Endek Senators demanded that the Polish government stop the "maneuvers of the Jewish army." The exercises are to be held this summer.

Officers of the Brith Trumpler have protested that the maneuvers are not military exercises, but athletic contests which will climax the conference of the Brith Trumpler.

'Regulation' For Austrian Jews Asked

'Patriotic Front' Seeks
'Elimination of Alien Influence in State'

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
VIENNA, April 24.—The Patriotic Front, which is composed of the clerical groups supporting Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, made public today their program for solving the Jewish question. The communique, addressed to the press, declared that the "Jewish question must be regulated some day in accordance with Austrian culture, eliminating all alien influence in the Austrian state." The statement was signed by Captain Reichel, who is acting as leader of the Patriotic Front under Chancellor Dollfuss.

Although the Dollfuss government has officially disclaimed any intention of changing the status of the Austrian Jews, or of introducing restrictive measures against them, the Christian Socialist party, one of the mainstays of the Dollfuss regime, under the leadership of Dr. Emerich Csernak, has demanded removal of the us clause for Jewish students and the withdrawal of citizenship rights from the Jews.

Recent dispatches from Vienna indicate that although the Dollfuss government still maintains that it is not anti-Semitic, government officials, communal institutions and private concerns are dismissing Jewish employees and that anti-Semitism is gaining ground rapidly in Austria.

Resignation of Ornstein Creates Crisis in Community

A crisis was created in the Jewish community of Vienna today with the resignation of Dr. Jakob Ornstein from his post as vice-president. Dr. Ornstein is the only non-Zionist official on the board of the Vienna Jewish community.

Tel Aviv Without Kosher Meat as Butchers Strike

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
TEL AVIV, April 24.—The Jews of this city have been without kosher meat for the last two days as a result of a strike of the slaughtering tax imposed recently by the municipal council. City authorities refuse to negotiate with the butchers until the strike is called off, claiming that they will not be intimidated.

Anti-Semites Demand
'Racial Quota' In College

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
KAUNAS, Lithuania, April 24.—Lithuanian anti-Semites today demanded the introduction of a "racial quota" of seven per cent for Jewish students at the University of Kaunas.

They also demanded that a $200 fine be paid by all Jewish students above the seven per cent "quota."

That which is effective in the past is no longer new, but that which is new is not ineffective. It is an unfortunate piece of clumsy propaganda that will only cause irritation. It falls to prevent the awful tragedy that is being enacted in Germany under the Hitler reign of terror.

Misguided "Patriots"

In my editorial entitled "Caution," on April 11, I referred to the Nazi meetings in Queens and the attempts on the part of well-intentioned but misguided Jews to break up these meetings by force. I pointed out that the violence of the Nazis should not be met with counter-violence, that the violators of American law and order and offenders against public decency should be properly dealt with by the American authorities.

When the Nazis and their sympathizers in this country hold public meetings at which they launch campaigns to "boycott the boycotters of German goods," they are inciting one element of the American population against another. When Americans urge a boycott of German goods because of the atrocities that are being committed in the Hitler regime, they are not urging any boycott against German goods. The Nazis are identifying themselves with the Nazi propaganda against Nazi activities. The Nazi German Americans, who wear Nazi uniforms, sing Nazi (Continued on Page Twelve)

Fascism's Incipient Stage Here

Many Western States Possess Minor Outfits and Leaders

Vernacular Press Feeds Followers With Propaganda Demanding Government by Dictator
—Patchwork of Political Units

Nazi activities in this country have been brought to a head by the first open attack on the Jews of America by the Friends of New Germany, Hitler organization in the United States, which has proclaimed a boycott on the Jews. The following is the sixth of a series of articles detailing the rise and growth of the Nazi-inspired movement in this country in all its ramifications. The articles are based on an exhaustive investigation of Nazi propaganda activities in this country and in Germany for a period of over a year.

Despite the claims of overwhelming strength sounded by Fascist leaders in the United States, it is safe to assume at present that no one of them has yet sufficient prestige to seriously threaten the government. The danger of Fascism lies not so much in the possibility of a strong group and one strong leader emerging from the political chaos now existent among reactionaries.

PAT McGRADY

Many persons are being converted to the small groups from the Republican party. As nothing succeeds like success so nothing fails like failure. Hence, we find that many are abandoning the G. O. P. to rally under Fascist banners throughout the country. The same holds true for Communists and Socialists. Thus far the world has discovered no counter-agent for Fascism, which thrives on the liberality of Democracy until it eventually swallows Democracy in one large last gulp.

The history of Fascism in Italy, Germany, and Austria, and also of the Fascist movement in France, England, and virtually all other European countries, illustrates the point. Proof of the first point, that the conversion of Republicans to Fascism, may be found in determining the political credos of Golden, Pelley, Christians, and other Fascist leaders, all of whom have been Republicans. Their following comes from the same fold.

It is from such groups as these and the immediate groups which constitute dismembered organizations of the oppositionists and reactionaries that American Fascism may some day emerge. It remains for the enterprising Fascist leaders of the country to incorporate in their organizations the small local groups, among which are disgruntled labor factions, the unemployed, the heavily taxed, the rabid patriots and the general cranks are no less willing to cooperate in a movement which will remedy in part or as a whole their real and imagined complaints. It was from such people that the old Ku Klux Klan received support a decade ago.

K. K. K. Revived

Today in California the Ku Klux Klan has been rejuvenated in spirit. The terrorist methods of the KKK are carried on in the Imperial Valley by the Vigilantes, which take their name from an honorable organization of pioneers who brought law and order to western plains before the government could establish adequate protection. The Vigilantes of 1934 have threatened law-abiding citizens, beaten others, and driven the officials of smaller communities to a state of abject fear.

In the Imperial Valley in California, and elsewhere throughout that state, the Silver Shirts have cropped up. In some quarters it is said that members of the Silver Legion are also members of the Vigilantes. If this be so, we have a fairly accurate conception of the ultimate modus operandi of Pelley's organization.

Fascist growth in the San Francisco Bay region of the state, the Liberators hold forth. They are far milder than the Vigilantes. Both, observers say, have become successfully militant under the direction of certain groups of legionnaires (Hitler's original brown shirts were for the most part veterans), and both have drawn heavily upon the membership of the Ku Klux Klan. The Liberators have pounced upon the pet peeve of Pelley, the "international money changers," as the most stalwart plank of a generally inadequate platform. The Liberators are active in civic reform in all small communities, and groups of them are being recognized as municipal and political powers. They are in many ways anti-Roosevelt and anti-Central, and are in agreement to all civic organizations which can give them support at the polls, is touching. One of their present campaigns has been undertaken for the removal of the real of the National and Federal Reserve Bank acts.

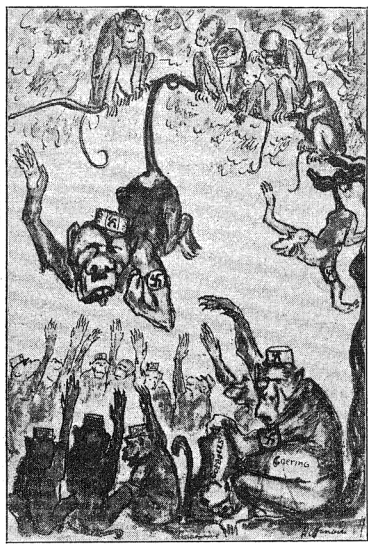

By Foster of Carson City, Nevada, is commander-in-chief of the Liberators. In a recent issue of the Herald of Co-operation, the Oakland organ of the party. Foster began a series of religious-economic lectures. The first under the headline "Glory to God in the Highest and Resurrection of Economic Truth," which advocates that the principles of the government be run on a "Christian" basis. An adjoining editorial column was headed, "Soliloquy of International Money Changer." The paper has rewritten much of the spoken wisdom of Louis T. McFadden, anti-Semitic congressman from Pennsylvania and oracle of the Silver Shirts.

The Minute Men

The American Guardian, a weekly publication emanating from Oklahoma City, is the organ of the "Minute Men," a group which claims to have members throughout the middle west. The Minute Men are very much opposed to the present "capitalist rule" in Washington. Its paper professes to be for the "middle class" and the outspoken defender of Hitler's Germany. Its circulation of 45,000 is nationwide with a great preponderance in the middle west and south-west. Siegfried Ameringer is the editor.

The American Guardian and its Minute Men present a good illustration of the tendency of the Fascist groups. Both were from their creation three years ago Socialist. They continue to thrive under the Socialist banner, but the people taken decisive steps to the right, completely vaulting over the large middle area. It is said that this step was taken in accordance with the wishes of many German sympathizers of the movement particularly in Pennsylvania, Michigan and Illinois where work of Hitlerites has been most effective. The Minute Men can not be classed as "Christian cranks." They are rather cranks on such political issues as the NRA and other alpha-betrical conglomerations from which the present administration is seeking to evolve the word PROSPERITY.

In Idaho, the Farmer Labor Economic Federation, allied to some extent with the Farmer Labor Party and other farmer organizations throughout the country, constitutes one of the state's strongest forces. In Idaho the Crusaders for Economic Liberty under the guidance of George W. Christians, is said also to enjoy considerable support. It is understood that since the Crusaders, who once described themselves as "The American Reds," came out as "The American Fascists," they have made progress among members of the Farmer Labor Economic Federation. It is reported that the Crusaders, not only in Idaho but also in Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Oregon and Washington, have attempted to arrange a rapprochement with the Farmer Labor faction and that it has been successful to some extent in winning over members. This is one of the many anomalies in the present political struggle, for the Farmer groups are for the most part closely identified with Socialist policies.

In South Dakota

In these western states one of the principal features of many political factions is that of "nationalization." The South Dakota Farmer Labor Economic Federation stands in part for the nationalization of banking by repealing all existing private banking laws and providing for a government owned, operated and controlled banking system which will serve the people under Civil Service regulations as administered by the postal department; and federal and state ownership of monopolized industries. The Fascist organizations enjoy much strength in the middle west where their promise of militant leadership is attractive to debt-laden agriculturists.

There are many Germans and many Italians in these sections who are fed Fascist propaganda daily through their vernacular press. Regardless of the type of government they might install, the red of the Soviets, the brown of Hitler, or the black of Mussolini, the tendency appears to be in favor of a concentration of power in the hands of a few sympathizers. It calls for a dictator.

Nietzsche Note Showed Favor Toward Jews

His Experience Aroused Great Expectations for Jewish Youth

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

VIENNA, April 24.—A hitherto unpublished letter of the mad philosopher, pessimist and anti-Semite, Friedrich Nietzsche, which seems to indicate that Nietzsche at one time was somewhat favorably disposed toward the Jews, appears in a catalogue published here by the Vahook firm. The letter is number fifty-eight in the catalogue.

Nietzsche's letter, which is dated August 24, 1877, was addressed to Siegfried Lipiner, Austro-Jewish writer and a close friend of both Nietzsche and the composer Richard Wagner.

"Tell me without reticence, if with regard to descent, you have any connection with the Jews," Nietzsche wrote. "I have, as a matter of fact, recently had several experiences arousing in me the greatest expectations for youths of this origin."

The Jewish Student On the Campus

Christian Friendship for Jews Is Praised by Rabbi Lazarov

Goethil Medal Winner Gives Some Do's and Some Do Not's

The following is the second and last of a series of articles by the Jewish member of a good-will trio who went to the country recently and were awarded the Goethil Medal for distinguished service to Jewry.

By MORRIS S. LAZAROV

It would, of course, be stupid and futile to infer that I believe all Jewish students should act on social and political matters on the campus. Jewish politics on the campus are just as deplorable as Jewish politics in civil life and also it must be said that there are some social groupings that divide Christians from Jews divide Jews from Jews. These groupings are to be expected. They are natural. However, there is no reason for Jewish fraternity students to adopt an attitude of snobishness to the belief that by cutting themselves off from association with their fellow Jewish students they will be free from the burden of anti-Jewish prejudice.

What I have said thus far is chiefly by way of analysts. I would like, before I close, to suggest a number of "don'ts" and "do's" which might be of some practical help to our Jewish students in their campus relations. These suggestions are neither startling nor new. I think we would do well to remember, however, for they summarize many chats I have had with both Jewish and Christian students and represent what is going on in the student mind.

1. Don't hold in light esteem that thing which is characteristic of the American campus—"college spirit" which there is a great deal to be said as to the quality of some expressions of "college spirit," it is a mistake, I believe, to assume an air of superiority and aloofness. There are some students who hold themselves aloof from campus activities, walking in high disdain in a sort of rarified atmosphere as if they would have nothing to do with these petty things. With all of its shortcomings, this thing called "college spirit" has something to give to each student. After all the college is a real world and the same effort at integration is necessary to this small world of the campus that is necessary in the larger world of life. Let the student make an effort to identify himself with the life and the movements of the college, never permitting these things, however, to dominate him but realizing that they make for the enrichment and development of his character.

2. Don't ignore sports or extra-curricular activities and don't think that you can save the world—or the college campus, for that matter—by sponsoring all sorts of activities.

I would be the last one to denigrate the Jewish student, or any student, for that matter, a genuine interest in the radical movements of the time. Change is in the air. There is a way, however, in which interest in these things should be manifested. The intensity of the Jewish character, the emotional passion which the Jew usually throws into all causes, often breed an impatience which is calculated not only to do the particular cause more harm than good but also the Jewish cause. Fundamentally it is a question of good sportsmanship. Let me illustrate. I know of one university where a certain problem of student council finances was brought to the floor of the a number of Jewish magazines for the university library. Put into the library the weekly bulletin of the Jewish Statistical Bureau, or the Menshevik Journal, or the Jewish Daily Bulletin, or the weekly edition of the Jewish Daily Bulletin. At the present time, when there is so much Nazi propaganda, the German exchange students who take their orders from the Minister of Propaganda in Berlin and spew into our country their poisonous venom, it is interesting to note the campus there be available sources of information which present the Jewish, the American and the humanitarian points of view. Let the fraternities present to the library such books as Mowrer's "Germany Turns the Clock Back" or "The Brown Book of the Hitler Terror" and similar reviews of the terror of Nazism.

Mutual Appreciation

The chief problem that confronts our American democracy is the problem of mutual appreciation. Attitudes of appreciation are much more difficult to achieve today by reason of the tensions brought about by the depression. Yet it is fundamental that the student group will ride out of this depression on the backs of any other group. I speak primarily as an American and not as a Jew when I say that we do not want to develop in this country the same prejudices and hates which have laid Europe low; for hate does something to a man. The victim of hate is a pathetic figure, but the one who hates is a tragic figure. Prejudices and hate disintegrate the personality and destroy the heart which gives them his hope.

The Jewish students faces the job of integrating himself in the life of the campus. The Christian student faces the same job. Only the Jew belongs to a minority group; a group against which there is a recognized prejudice. When the Jewish student understands that his integration can be achieved more easily and more happily when Christians rise in solidarity to the best traditions of his Jewish heritage and when he practices that loyalty, he will cease to consider himself as a problem. He does not have to relinquish, indeed, he cannot relinquish—his Jewish background and inheritance.

Finally, it is well for Jews to realize that while anti-Semitism today is more organized, more powerful, more utterly ruthless than ever before in Jewish history, never before have Christians risen to such number, so nobly and so powerfully to our defense. We make a mistake if we underestimate the number and power of our friends.

Jerusalem Grand Mufti In Mecca; Government Denies Murder Report

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
JERUSALEM, April 24.—Reports current here and which have spread to Europe about the murder of the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, Haj Amin Effendi, were denied today in an official government communication to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency.

Government officials explained that the Mufti was in present in Mecca, Moslem holy city in Arabia, where he is endeavoring to negotiate peace between Ibn Saud, king of the Arabian kingdom of al-Ula and the Imam Yahya, ruler of Yemen. When between the two Arab kingdoms broke out some time ago in connection with a frontier dispute. Ibn Saud, ruler of the city of Mecca and most of the Arabian peninsula.

'Is My Face Red?' Stuermer Apologizes to English Fascists

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, April 24.—In spite of Sir Oswald Mosley's avowal of his belief that the Jewish people are "as a class hostile to us" the British Fascist leader has been identified with the Jewish people and "is in fact supported by Jews."

This is the assertion of Julius Streicher, editor of the violently anti-Semitic Stuermer and Nazi chief in Franconia, according to an article in the Manchester Guardian here.

Streicher takes issue with Mosley whom he labels as a false prophet of the Fascist movement because of his lukewarm stand on the Jewish question. The British Union of Fascists, according to the Streicher newspaper, "will deal with thoroughly by us," warns Streicher, who has ignored Mosley's hostile words uttered at a meeting of his party Sunday night.

But—and this is the unusual part of the story—a special notice printed in bold face type in a subsequent issue by the Stuermer reads as follows:

"In the last issue of the Stuermer an article appeared in which it was stated that the Mosley movement was a Jewish catch up movement. This statement was made as the result of an editorial error. The Mosley movement has no Jewish origin and is unconnected with the Jewish people. (Beauftragte von uns) an opportunity of convincing themselves that this is not the case. We are now glad to state that this move- ment does not stand in any way of Jewry. On the contrary, it is furiously combated by Jewry and thereby proves that it is anti-Semitic."

The article is signed by Holz, editor.

Dr. Jekyl, Mr. Hyde
The Manchester Guardian comments sarcastically that the Mosley outfit is attempting to spread the belief in England that it is not anti-Semitic, while in Germany a contrary impression is widely created.

Mr. Thomas, deputy director of policy of the British Union of Fascists, on enquired by the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, said:

"The Stuermer has, on several occasions, accused us of having Jews in high official capacities in our organization and of being run by Jewish money."

"We protested that this was not the case, and accordingly received an apology. That is the cause of this correction which the Manchester Guardian shows."

"I consider it rather far-fetched on the part of the Manchester Guardian to draw the conclusion that we are anti-Semitic. It is one thing to repudiate the statement that we are run by Jews, and a different thing to say we are anti-Semitic."

"I agree that the last comment in the Stuermer (that the organization proves it is anti-Semitic) did not come from us, is entirely of German origin and is unjustified."

"We have not changed our policy. We do not take up a racial attitude, although we have had difficulties with the Jewish community on one or two matters, notably the boycott of German goods."

Mob Stones Policeman, Jew, as He Makes Arrest

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

KAUNAS, Lithuania, April 24.—Moskowitz, only Jewish policeman in Lithuania, was badly injured and his car was smashed when he was arrested a Gentile and was taking him to the police station.

Konfeldt was removed to a hospital.

Polish Jewry Comes to Aid Of Reich Jews

Many European Lands Starting Over Appeal; Drive On in U. S.

Polish Jewry, regardless of its own economic situation, has emulated the example of the United Jewish Appeal in this country, by launching a campaign for the relief of the Jews of Germany, and for the settlement of Jews in Palestine. It was announced by the joint appeal executive yesterday.

Poland is not the only other country besides the United States where campaigns are either under way or about to be launched for the same purposes as the $3,000,000 United Jewish Appeal. A scrutiny of the press of these countries, reveals that the Jews of Rumania, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Rumania, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Holland, Belgium, Turkey, Brazil, Australia, South Africa and the Argentine are swinging into action along the same lines.

Boston Gives $35,000
BOSTON, April 24.—Jews of Boston gave $35,000 toward its quota of $200,000 at a meeting on Wednesday evening, April 18, at the Boston Chamber of Commerce at which Prof. Raymond Moley, Editor of "Today" and former Assistant Secretary of State was the guest of honor.

Besides Boston, other Massachusetts cities are in the midst of drives for the United Jewish Appeal.

Five hundred people, including the Mayor and other city officials, ministers of various churches and leading Christian laymen attended a dinner at the Lyman Club Wednesday evening, April 18, at which $5,000 was subscribed in response to an appeal by Maurice Samuel.

Everett's opening meeting was addressed by Mayor James A. Roche, Congressman Larson, Rabbi Jacob Freedman of Chelsea, Dr. Frances Burne and others.

Springfield is moving rapidly toward its campaign objective under the leadership of Louis Henco and Mrs. Nathan Goldstein.

Cambridge had a rousing meeting to open its drive.

Mayor Heads Campaign

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., April 24.—Mayor James H. Hurley has accepted the Honorary Chairmanship and Senator Ben Eisenberg the chairmanship of the United Jewish Appeal of Willimantic, which is engaged in raising funds for the relief of the Jewish refugees in Germany and for the settlement of Jews in Palestine.

Gabrieliwitch Interested In Jewish National Home

(Special to the J.D.B.)
DETROIT, April 24.—A deep-rooted interest in the Jewish National Home in Palestine on the part of Ossip Gabrieliwitch, eminent pianist, found another echo yesterday when he made a voluntary contribution to the fund.

Last week an invitation was addressed to him by Mrs. Philip Slomovitz, chairman of the project for the rehabilitation of the orphan luncheon of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Jewish National Fund. The reply came from his secretary that he would be unable to attend. However, he again revealed his deep interest in the Palestinian cause by sending his check to Mrs. Slomovitz for the price of two tickets to the Jewish National Fund luncheon.

Milwaukee Speakers Assail Hitlerism in Three Speeches

(Special to the J.D.B.)
MILWAUKEE, April 24.—Hitlerism was assailed by three speakers before Milwaukee organizations this week.

At a meeting of Omicron Alpha Tau fraternity of Marquette University Dr. Major L. Younce, professor of history and political science at Marquette, declared the working classes of Germany were duped into supporting the Nazi movement by a "skillful camouflage of radicalism."

The Nazi antagonist to traditional religions indicated a psychopathic condition, he said, suggesting that Jewish organizations petition the Department of State to take an active stand against persecution of Jews in Germany.

Answering Nazi charges that Jews did not furnish their due quota of soldiers during the War, Professor Younce declared that "it docility to leading oneself to senseless slaughter be considered a virtue, your people in Germany made enough of a sacrifice."

In an address to the College Women's club Dr. Esther Calkins Brunauer, research chairman in international relations of the American Association of University Women, predicted that Germany would rapidly lose her place in the drama, arts and science as a result of Nazi philosophy.

Hitlerism was also condemned by the Rev. Ralph Comere, pastor of the People's church, in an address to the Pioneer Women for Palestine. American democracy will prove a weak barrier against fascism, Comere warned, that the past growth of the Ku Klux Klan.

Dr. Goetz Appointed Yale Visiting Professor

(Special to the J.D.B.)
NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 24.—Dr. Albert Goetz, the noted German Semitic scholar who was ousted from his chair at the University of Marburg for his lack of sympathy with the Nazi government, has been appointed visiting professor of Assyriology and Babylonian literature at Yale University. Dr. Goetz, it is understood here, is not an exile from Germany.

(J.D.B. Special Correspondence)
BUFFALO, N. Y., April 22.—"Palestine was at one time a land of prophets; now it is a land of chalutzim," Joseph Sprinzk, Labor Zionist leader now here on a visit from Palestine, said in an address before a mass meeting at the Hotel Statler which formally opened a drive for $50,000 for the Gevershchan campaign under the auspices of the American National Labor Committee for Palestine.

Priests Laud Bond Between Jew, Gentile at Vet's Affair

(Special to the J.D.B.)
UNION CITY, N. J., April 24.—Lauding the common bond of Jew and Gentile, two local Catholic priests, Rev. Damian O'Rourke, pastor of St. Michael's Monastery Church, and Rev. Joseph E. Snyder, curate of Holy Family Church, vigorously denoted race hatred and bigotry in addresses at public installation exercises in the North Hudson Community Center of officers of the North Hudson Post, Jewish War Veterans.

Mayor Lewis B. Eastman and his fellow commissioners attended the ceremonies. Harry E. Bloch is the new commander of the post.

$25,000 Subscribed to Annual Welfare Fund Drive

(Special to the J.D.B.)
CLEVELAND, April 24.—Twenty-five thousand dollars has been subscribed thus far in the annual Welfare Fund drive conducted in Cleveland, according to Max Myers, treasurer.

Baltimore Synagogue Will Hold Memorial For Cantor Rosenblatt

(Special to the J.D.B.)
BALTIMORE, April 24.—As a memorial to the late Cantor Josef Rosenblatt who died in Palestine a year ago, cantors in Baltimore synagogues will join in presenting a concert on May 3 in the Beth Tithon Synagogue. His son, the Rev. Samuel Rosenblatt, is rabbi of the Beth Tithon Congregation.

Many of Cantor Rosenblatt's own compositions will be sung and Miss Frieda Etelson, violinist, accompanied by Miss Irene Miller, will play his works. Phonograph records made by the cantor also will be played.

Jubilee for Dr. Stolz To Be Celebrated May 5

(Special to the J.D.B.)
CHICAGO, April 27.—The golden jubilee of the graduation of Dr. Joseph Stolz from the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati in 1884 will be celebrated by Temple Isaiah Israel with religious services May 5 and 6.

On Saturday, May 5, services will be preached by Dr. Gerson B. Levi, his associate, and Dr. Julius Morgenstern, president of the Hebrew Union College. The benediction will be pronounced by his intimate friend, Dr. Tobias Schanfarber.

On May 6 Rabbi A. L. Lassen, president of the Chicago Rabbinical Association, will bring greetings. The sermon will be preached by Dr. H. I. Goldenson, president of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, and recently elected rabbi of Temple Emanuel-Ed of New York City. The benediction will be pronounced by Dr. Felix A. Levy of Temple Emanuel, Chicago, vice president of the conference.

Rabbi Silberfeld Named Masonic Grand Chaplain

(Special to the J.D.B.)
TRENTON, N. J., April 23.—At the annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Masons held here, Rabbi Julius Silberfeld of Temple B'nai Abraham was appointed grand chaplain by the newly elected grand master, Francis B. Morton. It is the Rabbi's fourth term.

Critical Moments

By GEORGE JOEL

More Revivals. With the Gilbert and Sullivan revivals doing as much business as a free lemonade stand on a bathing beach and with the moving picture companies pouring back into the past for material to not exactly surprising to learn that the Shubert boys have decided to have a go at this sort of thing. According to the gentleman who keeps the world informed of Shubert activities, I am told that on May 7 at the Forty-fourth Street Theatre New Edwards' "Bitter Sweet" will be the first in a series of musical comedy and operetta revivals. As yet no cast has been announced, but the productions to follow "Bitter Sweet" include such favorites as "The Merry Widow," Victor Herbert's, "The Only Girl," "Countess Mariza," and "Glossom Time." Prices will be what is known as "popular" and will range from fifty cents to the usual two dollars. It sounds like the success of the series will obviously give theatre-goers a chance to have some of their favorite tunes again.

Picture Companies To Make Old Masterpieces

Along these same lines comes word that the picture companies, impressed by the success of the historical picture cycle now at its zenith, will also look toward the past for material. One Venable, whom Paramount brought to Hollywood from Walter Hampden's Shakespearean Repertory Company, has been lecturing the movie men for some time on the something that has been told to them before. Her contention is that the best box office hits of the past have been produced upon literature that has stood the test of time.

Comes Out for Shakespeare

Miss Venable says "There is so much available material, free of charge, for producers that it is an indelible impression on humanity in literary form and which would prove just as successful on the screen as it seems a shame not to make use of it. Shakespeare is a fine example. The only thing that people have about the Bard of Avon is the manner in which he has been crammed into the curriculum in school. Shakespeare is thoroughly human, beautifully and skillfully written and quite adaptable to screen purposes."

The lecturing lady told her employers that if millions of people from generation to generation have read books and plays of perpetual interest, why not reason that pictures would find a ready response from the public.

Advice Heeded

From the latest announcements it is evident that the companies are slowly following advice of this kind. "Treasure Island," "Ot Hu," "The Song of David," "Copperfield," and "Green Mansions" are already in production. Such best sellers as "All Quiet on the Western Front," "The Great Street," among those books which have been made and shown.

Maccabeo Autograph

A woman who lives in Lancaster, England, is planning, according to a letter to the Ambassador, film star, to have her en tire casinet made of pewter strips, such to contain the autograph of every celebrity. The intent this actor gave a strip and asked for his signature. She got it!

A Miracle

"Are You Decent?" which played last week at the Ambassador, has no Jews in the cast or in the production or press department. This is a minor miracle and Broadway is nearly gasping. Albert Baumbauer, one of the produc-

A Singing Actor

Harvey Elinow, singing actor, who will make his New York recital debut this Saturday evening, April 28, at the New School for Social Research. He will present a program in Yiddish, Russian and Polish. A feature of the recital by Mr. Elinow will be a series of Chasidish numbers.

ers, is pretty surprised himself. He can't figure out how it happened. I assure you, it was not intentional.

Swanson at Paramount; Other News

Gloria Swanson, making a stage appearance at the New York Paramount, may be seen in a comedy played by George Haight. I don't like the word but it is "charming" . . . Block and Sully are the featured stars of the stage at the Paramount (Brooklyn). I think they are more amusing than Burns and Allen. Strangely enough, when both teams were playing vaudeville years ago, Block and Sully were considered the better team and drew a bigger weekly pay check, but with the advent of the radio Burns and Allen pulled far away from their Jewish friends.

Forum Selects Ibsen Play

The Theatre Forum at a meeting of its play choice committee designated Nathan Zerkin's production of Ibsen's "The Lady from the Sea," opening May 1 at the Little Theater, as its selection for May. Members of the thirty-four organizations comprising the Theatre Forum, including the Drama League, N. Y. State League for Adult Education, Century Play Club and others, will attend in groups during the first week of the play's run at the Little Theater.

Looking for English Actors

David O. Selznick, producer of "Dinner at Elsinor" and the current Cretion success, "The Villa," for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, and who is now at work on a film version of "David Copperfield," is en route to New York. He plans a short trip abroad, in search of English talent for the Dickens picture.

Globe Trotting Newsreels

A super-newsreel show marks the Embassy Theater's change of program this week, which commences the product of the four leading newsreels—Pathé News, Hearst-Metrotone News, Paramount News and Universal News. The subjects range from Roosevelt to Wirt, gridding the globe on the way.

Public Library's Jewish Division Heaven for 100 Students Daily

By HARRIET STRACHESTEIN
A happy hunting ground for book lovers is the Jewish Division in Room 217 of the New York Public Library.

An average of one hundred people per day visit this haunt of peace. Against the exhilarating backdrop of book shelves they forget their daily cares in the romantic history of other times.

The director of the Division, Dr. Joseph Bloch, is long over his little paradise of books. He is a middle-aged mild mannered man with a keen sense of humor and holds a veritable encyclopedia of facts about his department and its visitors.

Both the depression and the present racial trend have affected the Division considerably, he informed a Bulletin reporter yesterday.

"The existence of a large number of unemployed has naturally increased the reading public," said Dr. Bloch. "There has been a marked revival in the demand for Hebrew and Yiddish books. They present an escape from the economic problems of the day in settings of other times."

Year of 1933 important. "The year of 1933 has been of tremendous significance in the history of the Jewish people and has awakened a sudden interest in the Jewish people in the social, political and economic structure of society."

"In our collection there are books in thirteen languages dealing in all matters affecting the relation of the Jews to their non-Jewish neighbors. By means of this extensive apparatus readers can study and examine all racial, social and religious claims made for and against the Jew."

"What types of readers visit the Division are not known, but the question thoughtfully and with a smile. "They are varied and very interesting," he said.

"Not a few, for instance, come here for material to verify the miraculous claims attributed to the saints; the orthodox rabbis who seek legitimate rabbinical learning; the lawyer who spends hours checking up precedents in Jewish law; the Christian who looks for verification of Biblical prophecies; the anti-Semite who wants to do good on the Jew; the musician who thinks that his talent is due to his Jewish blood; the student of art who believes that every great artist is a Jew; the student of labor movement; the sprinkling of the common reader and the reader who reads anything for the sake of doing so. "The books 'cover them all,' finished Dr. Bloch.

No Limit to Queries

As to the sort of questions he has been prepared to answer, the kindly director declared there is practically no limit to them. Collier's wrote in the other day to inquire as to the origin of the word "Shlemiel." Dr. Bloch wanted to know if Moses was really a Jew; a lawyer burst into the Division last week to discover the Jewish fathers with large families who dash into his department to search for new names for their offspring. Among them often are brand new puppets of first-born sons who come to look for Anglicanized and distinguished names for their treasures. One such a parent consulted Dr. Bloch recently as to the origin of the name in Yiddish he explained. But no English name had yet been chosen.

The Doctor informed the excited father that the name had the same in both languages. "Take Baruch Spinoza," he said helpfully, "he was a great man." "But wasn't he known as an atheist?" asked the anxious Doctor. The Doctor affirmed this. "Well, that's fine," breathed Pa in relief. "I'll call my little son Benedict too—and Benny for short. Thanks a lot, Doctor." And out he sped.

So Dr. Joshua Bloch had solved another momentous problem of the day.

The Bulletin's Day Book

Palastine's most famous trial has at last commenced and the case, which has been a topic for fevered conversation, discussion and dispute for many months, will now give even more attention. The young Zionist Revisionists accused of the murder of Dr. Chaim Aronson are now fighting for their lives in a stuffy little Jerusalem courtroom packed to its capacity with fifteen newspapermen and fifty spectators.

Not a new part of the interest in the case revolves around the personality of Alia Achmeier, who is accused of inciting the crime and directing the alleged conspiracy. An idiot and assetic who hates the Jews, Achmeier, who even his enemies concede, is activated by one motive only—the goal of a free Jewish state in Palestine. His unwavering devotion to the compromise of this objective and his filth of purpose have brought him into opposition with more people than perhaps any other Jew in the Yishub.

visionist who has differed with Achmeier on policy more often, without doubt, than Achmeier and the Laborites have differed, some months ago wrote of the leader of the "Revisionist extremists" as the man "who is as fanatically loved as he is hated."

Says von Weiz: "Achmeier, doctor of philosophy, married, father of a little girl who is being brought up by a relative in the far-away Kuznetsov, is the type of Jew who is everywhere among us today, no matter how far from the Jew, of whom it has little conception, yet who is everywhere among us no longer by the dozens, but by the hundreds, the thousands, perhaps the tens of thousands."

Physically, according to von Weiz, Achmeier is "slim—too slim—with black ringlets which hang disheveled over his high, pale forehead. He is a Jew who is a Jew of burning, dreamy eyes. His narrow hands always hold a notebook or

Lack of Funds Perils Jewish Guardians Body

Medale Fears Change in Character of Aid Group

"We have reached a point where any further reduction on our budget would not only mean curtailment of many important functions, but perhaps result in a change in the character and objectives of our organization," declared George Z. Medale in his annual committee report to the Jewish Board of Guardians last night at 99 Park avenue.

Medale deplored the lack of funds which has resulted in the inability to keep the building out of its "antiquated quarters," or to provide for retirement of its social workers.

"Expressing gratitude to the Board for its Jewish charitable work for its aid, Medale recommended that the Board emphasize "a preventive program, which is the chief objective of the organization, rather than to spend millions and millions of dollars upon criminals and the effects of crime in later years."

Dr. John Slawson, executive director of the Board, reported that about 6,000 persons were rendered service by the Board during the past year, an increase of 10 per cent over the preceding year.

A report prepared by Mrs. Sidney C. Borg, chairman of the Jewish Big Sisters, and read by Mrs. Leonard Wallstein, stated that "the attention of the Big Sisters has never deviated from its original program of care for the normal child with minor disabilities which create for it unhappiness in its particular environment."

Dr. Bernard Gluck, psychiatrist, spoke on "Reflections on Crime and Criminals." Other speakers were James Marshall and Arthur Goldsmith.

New officers elected last night include George Z. Medale, re-elected president; Harold L. Basche, Mrs. Cecil R. Borg and Walter Mendelsohn, vice-presidents; Arthur J. Goldsmith, re-elected treasurer and Mrs. W. Warburg, re-elected secretary.

Jewish Colonization Problems Discussed At Teachers Seminary

Various phases of Jewish colonization problems were discussed last night at the meeting held under the auspices of the Association for Jewish Farm Settlements at the Jewish Teachers Seminary, 437 Lafayette street.

The speakers included Jacob Lubin, president of the "Jewish Colonization"; F. Gellesher, who discussed "Jewish Workers and Colonization Movements"; and Gertrude Zylert, executive secretary, who will accompany the delegation to the association and its colony project near Hightstown, N. J.

ish courts in recognizing the testimony of the police.

The entire morning session was taken up with the reading of the testimony taken by Prosecutor Shitreet. He read the entire record in which both Stavsky and Rosenblatt denied having committed the murder, in Hebrew, and gave in detail their alibi, which stated that they were in Jerusalem when Dr. Aizikowicz was murdered near Tel Aviv.

Samuel cross-examined Shitreet, who acted as chief government prosecutor during the hearing before Magistrate Bodily, asking whether the testimony of the two men was given willingly or under police threats. Prosecutor Shitreet explained that some parts of the testimony consisted of replies to questions which the investigators asked the men in order to clarify certain points involved. When he finished reading both Stavsky and Rosenblatt declared that they had nothing to add to the record.

Police constable Selig Ostrowski, who testified yesterday, was cross-examined today by the defense. Samuel asked him about the suspects in the case, Ostrowski declared that an Arab was arrested immediately after the murder and that later a group of active Jewish and Arab Communists were arrested, but that the whole group was released owing to the complete lack of evidence against them.

The court which is trying the case is composed of Judge O'Neil, president of the court, Judge Oliver Plunkett, Judge Valero and Judge Ali Hama.

Police Constable Degree Methods Samuel accused Prosecutor Shitreet of having used third degree methods in his examination of suspects. He specifically accused him of having caused a Miss Turgeon to cry. Shitreet indignantly repudiated the suggestion of pressure on witnesses.

The question of the footprints at the scene of the murder provoked a lively exchange between the defense counsel and Prosecutor Shitreet. Samuel pointed out that the trackers testified the footprints showed that the murderers wore shoes with iron bars and that Rosenblatt's shoes, now in possession of the police, had no such bars. Shitreet retorted that Rosenblatt had enough time to change his shoes.

Dickstein Probes Authority Of Reich Consul to Interfere

(Special to the J.D.B.)

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Representative Samuel Dickstein today will request the Department of State to inform him by what authority Dr. Rolf L. Jaeger, German Consul in Chicago, acting on instructions from the Reich Embassy here, interfered in the showing in Chicago of the movie, "Hitler's Reign of Terror," which purports to depict present conditions in Germany.

Informed that Mayor Kelley has changed his mind about banning the picture, Representative Dickstein declared that "no one made no difference. 'If the situation is really such as has been described to me it is brutal,' he stated. 'If the Hitler government thought the picture was libelous the proper procedure would have been to resort to the courts of this country. But there is no such thing as a free government. The picture, before it was shown to the public, had passed the movie board of censors.'"

Representative Dickstein said that resented interference by a foreign government in the internal affairs of the people of the United States.

The Department of State it was said that officials had no knowledge of the Chicago incident.

Film Was Smuggled From Reich
"Hitler's Reign of Terror," said to be the first authentic motion picture record of the brutality of the Nazi regime, was made from the smuggled out of Germany by Cornelia Vandenberg, according to Samuel Cummins, president of Jew Productions, Inc., which will open the picture at the Mayfair Theatre here on April 30.

The film, originally scheduled to open here last Sunday was postponed because of tardiness of the New York Board of Censors to grant a permit.

However, Jew Productions discovered that since the film deals with news it does not come under the jurisdiction of the Board of Censors and the application was withdrawn.

Edwin C. Hill, well-known newspaperman and radio announcer, co-operated with the Communist agitator, J. J. in preparing the film.

Attack N. A. Anti-Propaganda Bill; Passage May Be Delayed

(Special to the J.D.B.)

TREASURY, J. J. J. The body blows that are being directed against the Rafferty Bill, which would make vicious propaganda a criminal offense, have begun to raise a doubt in minds of the proponents whether the Senate will act on it this week. The Assembly passed the measure last week.

The question of the bill's passage to enter the contest are the American Civil Liberties Union, the Philadelphia Civil Liberties committee and the New Jersey Civil Liberties Committee. The Civil Liberties Union, in letters to members of the Senate, urged prompt defeat of the measure and stated that A. J. Connelley, Hays, general counsel, would appear in opposition. Mays, noted Jewish liberal, was conspicuous as an opponent of the bill in the case. He and Dr. Harry F. Ward are signers of the communication. "An Amazing Proposal"

Emir Abdullah, who is to pay a visit to London in June, has been holding a series of conferences in Amman, capital of Transjordania, with Arab notables from Palestine and neighboring countries. The Arab press in Palestine interpreted the visit to London and the conference at Amman, as evidence that the Emir is to be made king of Palestine and Transjordania. These rumors were also denied emphatically by the British Colonial Office, which explained that the visit of the Emir to London was merely one of courtesy.

A demonstration occurred here yesterday when a group of workers, including Communist sympathizers, appeared at the State House, and following an unsuccessful attempt to force Governor Moore, protesting against the measure to Senate President Clifford Powell, contending that "the measure would outlaw any militant struggle on the part of the working class." Powell declared he had no objection to seeing the bill amended, but added that he had no intention of supporting it. He said to it that the measure, if enacted, would in no way transgress upon the rights of workers, and that it was a matter of course.

Among the groups represented in the delegation were the Young Communist League, Trade Union Unity League and Leather Workers' Union.

Silence of U. S. On Nazism Scored

Bernstein Asks: 'Why Discriminate in Favor of Hitler?' in Talk Over WEVD

In the Jewish Daily Bulletin broadcast over Station WEVD last night Mr. Herman Bernstein, editor of the Jewish Daily Bulletin, discussed the question, "Why Discriminate in Favor of Hitler?" He referred to Lion Feuchtwanger's latest statement in the new volume of the Brown Book, containing the list of 800 people murdered under the Hitler regime during the past year, and analyzed the Nazi propaganda machine of falsehood.

Mr. Bernstein then enumerated various instances in which the American Government had voiced its protest against foreign governments because of atrocities committed there, and asked why Hitler was now treated with greater consideration than the Tsar of Russia and the Sultan of Turkey were treated when Jews were pogrommed in Russia and Armenians were massacred in Turkey.

He pointed out that the Hitler government was not only persecuting a portion of its own population but was persecuting Jews in activities intended to foment strife and hate among Americans and to undermine democratic American institutions.

Protest Activities Of Nazis in Reich At Brooklyn Rally

Protests against the atrocities of the Nazi regime in Germany were voiced by various speakers at the mass meeting sponsored last night by the Brooklyn Division of the American Council on Education at Abraham Lincoln High School, Ocean Parkway and West avenue.

songs of hate, and conduct Nazi agitation here, are really not Americans. Their slogan, "Boycott the Boycotters," is made in Germany.

But if Nazi rowdiness is to be denounced, we must denounce anti-Nazi rowdiness even more strongly. The slogan, "Boycott the Boycotters," is made in Germany. "Hitler's Reign of Terror" is a book which the Nazi government has ordered to be burned. The book is a collection of letters and speeches which the Nazi government has ordered to be burned.

The cause of those who are combating Hitlerism as a world menace is harmed by such tactics.

The Herald Tribune, in an editorial entitled "An Un-American Nuisance," has urged the cause against all those wearers of "uniform shirts" effectively as follows:

The imported European Nazis go to the United States in their uniform shirts, whether red, black, black, brown, blue, silver or white—as an advertisement of a political cult or a religious sect. The cause is prepared to challenge the law and disturb the peace, is getting to be a lamentable nuisance. It is lamentable because it reveals the weakness of the American people for regimented thinking and canned ideology that marks him as a weak link in our distinctive American order—a nuisance because wherever there are of these human screw turn out under their little local duces or Fuhrers they have to be instructed in the duties of the American properties at the taxpayer's expense."

We caution once more the wearers of uniform shirts, the Jewish "patriots" against resorting to the methods of provocation and violence that are employed by the Nazis and their dupes in this country.
